

ILY Monster 81

At Gray Mansion.

Davi just came out from their room when she saw Sei sitting on the sofa wearing his black mask again.

"You really are the best young miss. You just made the young master who hated wearing such kind of mask to disguise himself."

"Eh? He hated it?"

"Yep, he really hated it but because he couldn't get close to you wearing that black mask of his in public, he decided to wear it."

Upon hearing him, Davi felt like she just heard some heartbreaking news. "So that's why he hastily removed it, huh," she said as she started walking towards him.

And the moment she got close to him, Davi noticed that his lower face's skin was slightly red. By the look of it, his skin might've been sensitive that the mask caused an irritation.

Davi's face turned really worried that the man immediately asked her what was wrong.

"Did you put anti irritation ointments in your face?" she asked and as expected the man shook his head. Davi then stood in front of him and she held his hand.

"Come, I'll help you do some light facial treatment," she said as she began to pull him up when Sei refused her.

"No need, it's fine," he said and Davi immediately pouted, showing him her sudden displeasure for his refusal. Her face also turned sullen as if she was a kid so upset about something. That moment, Sei was quite surprised. He didn't expect her to be that unhappy just because he refused.

Davi didn't talk again but she didn't let go of his hand and she remained staring at him with her same sullen expression. Due to that, Sei's resistance only lasted for few seconds and he soon stood right away upon seeing her unhappy face.

"Let's go," he finally said and the girl's face instantly turned radiant as she smiled wide at him as if her wish was finally granted.

She dragged him towards the stairs until they both entered in their room.

As soon as they went it, Davi slightly pushed the masked man to sit on the bed. She immediately went and took some bottles with her. Then she dragged a stool and put it front of him before she sat on it.

However, as soon as she sat and looked at him, she blinked three times, for she realized that she has to remove his mask to apply the treatment.

Seeing the sudden change in her expression, Sei reached out his hand, asking her to give the bottles to him.

"It's okay, just tell me how to do it and I'll do it myself," he said but to his surprise, the girl seemed displeased again. That moment, Sei's brain appeared as though it's starting to go paralyzed.

He knew that what's happening to him were nothing but strange. He didn't even get why he's just following what his wife wanted, obediently. He was aware he's doing something he never did before. The only thing he was certain about was that, he doesn't want to displease her.
