

ILY Monster 82

Davi's eyes were glued into Sei's long and elegant hand while she felt quite disappointed. However, a moment before she finally gives in, something flashed across her mind and she suddenly stood noisily.

"Wait for me, don't move," she said and went straight to her dressing room.

That moment, Davi immediately turned into her mission mode.

'Step #18 part 2; Second step of physical flirting'

Davi was glad that she remembered this step before this chance slipped away in her hand. She remembered that Hinari advised her to initiate physical contact when perfect opportunity arises. And one of the examples she used was to offer him a light massage on his scalp or on his back at times when he looked tired.

At that moment, Davi was certain that this was the opportunity Hinari was talking about. Thus, she put her hands on her hip like wonder woman then she breathed deep before went back to him.

Let's do it!

Meanwhile, Sei who was waiting obediently as he sat at the edge of the bed lifted his head the moment he noticed her light steps coming closer to him. And upon seeing her, his line of sight immediately fell into the red blindfold in her hand, and his brows knitted.

The girl finally sat in front of him with somewhat innocently seductive smile.

"It'll be fine if I use this right?" she asked and the man could only nod. As soon as he nodded, Davi smiled brightly again as she reached out the blindfold to him.

Sei then took the blindfold and Davi immediately closed her eyes. That moment, Sei just stared at her face for a while before he began to wrapped the blindfold in her eyes slowly and gently. The room was silent and neither of them made any sound during the whole process.

After he was certain that Davi couldn't see him, Sei finally removed his mask.

"Are you ready?" she asked and the man just replied a single "Mm".

Davi then ordered him to put the ointment in her palm before she finally lifted her hands, carefully. And the moment her palm landed on his cheeks, Davi's heart started to flutter.

However, she remained calm as she applied the stuffs all over his face carefully as ever. The atmosphere was way too silent that Davi could only hear her own loud heartbeats. But at that moment, Davi was actually in her intense concentration. She was touching his face, his forehead, his cheekbones, his nose, his cheeks and his jaw, as if she was memorizing every detail of his face.

On the other hand, Sei remained motionless as stone as his gaze never moved away from her. He looked as though he was mesmerized by her gentle touches, that he started to close his eyes as he felt the warmth of her hands.

"Are you liking it?"

Davi's voice made him opened his eyes again as he uttered a sound.

"Mm."

"Thank you for saving me, I don't know what could have happened if you didn't came. I used to beat that man into pulp in no time but... it seemed like he grew stronger. Haha."

Davi somehow, started to relax as time goes by while she continued massaging his face gently.

"Do you want to become stronger?" he asked and she immediately paused as she nodded like rattle.

"Yes, yes, I want."

"I'll get you a teacher."

"Really?"

"Mn."

As soon as the man uttered his reply, he went frozen again because the girl suddenly wrapped her hands on his neck, and she hugged him excitedly.

Then, she uttered her words just right before his ears that he could feel her warm breath.

"Thank you," she said and then she backs off and continued massaging his face, not knowing that the man in front of her already turned into a hardened snowman with reddish ears.
