

ILY Monster 95

Meanwhile, Davi just stepped out from the rest room when she received a message.

She opened it and she saw a photo of the masked man, Sei, leaning his back on the black car outside as if he was thinking something really deep and complicated.

Huh? Why is he still outside?

Davi was puzzled but she just thought that maybe he just need to breath some fresh air. However, by the time she read the caption, her brows knitted and then she blinked more than three times.

'Someone is being problematic because his wife is ignoring him.'

As soon as she read it, she choked and she coughed lightly before she read the caption again.

Huh? When did I ignored him?

Davi was quite a bit shocked. And she was about to rush outside when she paused instantly. It was because something popped out in her brain like a lightning bolt appearing out of nowhere.

'Step #22; Ignore him once in while'

The moment Davi remembered that step, Hinari's voice immediate rang through her head.

'This step might seem stupid to you but mind you, this technique is powerful. Listen my dear, don't just let things go too smooth between the two of you until the end of time, why? Because the guy will definitely take things easy. Sometimes, you have to trouble him, ignore him and play cold, make him wonder. Until eventually, he will come at you and seek your attention. However, remember that this technique will only be powerful if done once in a while, and of course it will depend on the right timing and situations, don't make a mistake of overdoing it because if you do that, you'll only be an idiot digging your own grave.'

As soon as Davi processed her plan, she didn't move to check him out. She went straight to the kitchen instead and helped the maids who were currently cooking.

Until finally, Davi and Sei were now sitting across each other in a silent dining room.

Davi was still ignoring Sei. She just focused herself in the food she was eating, not even throwing him a glance.

On the other hand, Sei was getting even colder watching the girl acting unusually strange. Her, being like that made him felt unbelievably uncomfortable and anxious, to the point that he couldn't even begin to eat. He was just gazing at her quietly and coldly. Looking problematic as ever.

At that same moment, feeling his piercing cold gazes, and his anxiousness, Davi was about to give in. She didn't know that Sei already stole a huge soft spot in her heart that she couldn't even bear to watch him being that anxious.

The longer she ignores him, the colder he goes. And worse was that, she didn't expect that ignoring him like that actually made her heart felt unbelievably heavy. That moment, Davi realized just how much she cares about him. She realized, she doesn't want to treat him like this even if it's just a play. She doesn't want to make him anxious, she doesn't want to do anything that could make this man unhappy.

Thus, the moment she finished eating, she finally gave in. She stood right away to get the flower she asked Ryou to bring and surprise him. However, the moment she turned, Sei suddenly grabbed her wrist.

And without any warning...

He stood noisily and in a blink of an eye, a kiss landed in her lips.
