

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 233

Emma and Alina looked at Caleb in unison, especially when they saw the man full of anger, instantly, Emma was filled with tears.

When she saw Caleb, it was as if she had found something to fall back on.

Tears were gushing out.

"Caleb."

Tomas pushed Caleb into the room, and after seeing the mess at the scene, he knew what had happened before this.

Especially when he saw this appearance of Emma, he knew that before they came here, Emma had a bad time.

At this moment, Alina looked at Caleb icily.

All those images from three years ago flashed in her mind.

Grandmother, parents, child. She would never believe that scene was a coincidence.

"Caleb." Emma's tone was full of choked sobs and tears were pouring down.

Caleb looked at Emma.

His usual detached tone had softened, "Leave with Tomas first."

"Tomas."

"Yes, Miss Bell, I will take you away from here first."

Alina, "Why?"

"Are you really willing to leave?" The words were said to Caleb, yet she was looking at Emma.

And Emma definitely did not want to see Alina, who was terrifying.

No matter what price she once wanted to make Alina pay, or what she once wanted to snatch away from Alina, today, she just wanted to get out of here.

She didn't know exactly how Alina had gotten her out of the hospital and brought her here, nor did she know why Alina hated her so much.

Right now, she didn't want to know anything, she just wanted to get out of here and go as far away as possible.

"Tomas."

"Yes."

Tomas took Emma away.

No matter what, with this scene now, no one knew what would happen if these three continued to stay together.

There were just Alina and Caleb left in the rood, and Caleb's eyes were flickering with endless danger and coldness.

Looking at the messy room, all those princess dresses and clothes from Alina's childhood were well preserved.

After so many years, these clothes were still as good as new.

"What are you doing?" Caleb looked at Alina icily and asked in a stern voice.

Alina, "You know the relationship between me and her, right?"

Caleb didn't know before, now, he already knew all about it.

"Those things must have a hidden agenda, I will help you investigate clearly."

"Heh."

Just as Caleb finished his words, Alina sneered.

That smile was so icy cold.

"I am not a fool."

There's no telling who's going to take the blame after this if he investigated it.

Caleb, "This matter has nothing to do with her."

"I think the relevant departments will investigate clearly, no need for you to interfere, you'd better stay out of it."

Whether it was Emma or not, with just a glance, she could tell.

Caleb's face became even more gloomy at this moment.

"Alina."

"Otherwise, I will make you have nothing." Alina looked coldly at Caleb.

If Caleb really dared to interfere in this matter, or even interfere with the procedure in question.

Then she, Alina, would definitely make Caleb pay the relative price, even if she had to do whatever it takes.

"You don't believe me?" Caleb spoke in an icy tone.

Alina snorted.

At this moment, it was as if she had heard a joke, she said, "You're not kidding me, right?"

Looking at Caleb's face sinking even further, Alina sarcastically said, "You can even be heartless to your son, and you still ask me to trust you?"

When talking about that child, Caleb's heart was suffocating with pain.

At this point, Alina probably knew exactly why Caleb had appeared here.

She knew that he knew about Grandma and Mom and Dad, and the heavier her warning to Caleb became.

The two stared at each other, confronting.

Caleb, "Three days, give me three days."

Finally, he still gave in, and this was the biggest concession he could make to Alina, obviously telling her not to do anything for these three days.

Alina, "I don't need to cooperate with you."

Caleb's concessions were met with Alina's pressing every step of the way.

On this matter, Alina was unprecedentedly tough.

Caleb, "Alina."

"I am not joking with you, if you interfere with the procedure in this matter, I will definitely make you lose everything."

At this moment, Alina's attitude was so strong.

Caleb knew how important Erica and her parents really were to her, and if this matter really had something to do with Emma.

Then...

Caleb didn't need to think about it, but she would have never contacted with him because what happened three years ago, but if this matter is related to Emma, then this hatred is definitely built on top of the child.

"She will live in Werland Villa, right?" Without waiting for Caleb to speak, Alina asked.

"I know the last thing you want right now is to see me go back, but I am going back." Alina said so forcefully.

Now in front of Emma is two roads, one is Werland Villa, the other is North Eglinton.

Caleb looked at Alina quietly, only feeling that the current Alina was in unprecedented danger.

It was true that this matter was too involved.

After all, it was her parents who were involved.

She had come back for the matter of Erica, and who knew that there was such a big thing involved behind this?

He was almost certain that if it weren't for these things, Alina probably wouldn't have returned to Ingford in her lifetime.
