

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 246

Caleb had already been pissed off by such fierce words from Alina, she was really daring.

Vanessa's face was sunken black.

For a long, long time before looking at Caleb, her eyes flickered ice cold.

"What do you think?" Vanessa suppressed the anger in her tone.

At this moment, he could not conceal his anger.

Caleb, "This matter is still being investigated."

"Investigating?"

"..."

"So you're going to say that Alina is blind, are you?" Vanessa looked at Caleb, and every word was full of sinister.

Caleb's face was even darker.

At this moment, Vanessa now completely did not know what to say.

"Go back, I don't want to see you again." Speaking again, Vanessa was disappointed.

Three years ago when she knew about that incident, she was already disappointed enough with this son of hers.

And now, looking at Caleb's attitude on this matter, she was more than disappointed. She even wished she had never had this son.

Once upon a time, she thought that both Chester and Caleb were more mature than Tristan.

They were even more sensible.

They were more rational in their approach to issues.

If there hadn't been that incident three years ago, Vanessa probably wouldn't have sided with Alina, wouldn't have trusted her unconditionally.

But what happened three years ago showed her how stupid her son really was and how malicious her heart was.

Unfortunately, Caleb was in the middle of it, and never seemed to see this clearly, which made her the more heartbreaking.

“Mother.” Caleb’s tone tightened as he looked towards Vanessa.

Vanessa, “Go.”

It was more than obvious exactly what kind of anger she was suppressing at this moment.

And Caleb originally wanted to say something else, but after seeing the lost patience in Vanessa’s eyes, he knew that it was not good to say anything at this time.

He still knew his mother, knew that in what kind of situation, saying anything would be useless.

“Let’s go.” Caleb looked towards Alina.

Vanessa said, “Alina stay.”

Caleb had come to Collins Castle to stop Alina, to prevent her from saying something that was inconclusive.

But now he didn’t expect Alina to be so crazy now, even in front of him, she had already told everything to Vanessa.

He glared fiercely at Alina, but Alina did not even look at him.

Caleb walked away, leaving with a hostile aura.

Emma was originally threatened by Chester, and Caleb felt that it was not safe to send Emma abroad.

Chester is cruel, once Emma falls into his hands, then the rest of her life, she will not have a good life.

And now, Alina has made the whole Collins family aware of these matters.

At this time, not to mention sending Emma abroad, even if she stays in Ingford, stay in Werland Villa, probably all..

Alina was really ruthless, leaving no room to Emma or Caleb.

Caleb is gone.

Vanessa looked at Alina, “Alina.”

At that moment, the tone was full of heartache.

Alina stepped forward and put her hand into Vanessa's, "Sorry, Alina."

At this moment, Vanessa's heart was very uncomfortable, this matter of Emma had completely stirred Vanessa.

She, probably, had never seen such a ruthless person.

"You believe me?" Alina was shocked, after all, this was not something that anyone could believe.

Since when on earth, the more Caleb didn't let her do, the more she had to do? This was the Alina of today.

Completely, she was on the opposite side of the fence from Caleb.

"I know that past between you and Emma, so I know that you will not be wrong." Vanessa said in a deep and disappointed tone.

Yes, she knew that past of Alina and Emma.

Caleb too knew. Yet at this time, he more than believed in Emma, he even subconsciously defended Her.

"You go back first." Vanessa said after thinking about it.

Alina had just vented and was still not completely calm inside, so she didn't have the heart to deal with Vanessa.

"Okay."

Alina turned around and left.

And Vanessa looked at Alina's back, in her eyes was endless sentimentality.

When Julia came back, she saw Vanessa in this lost look, when she entered just now, the butler said that Caleb and Alina had gone.

As smart as Julia was, she guessed that something unbearable must have happened.

Going forward, she took Vanessa's hand and looked at her wordlessly, the warmth in her hand, moreover, gave a kind of wordless soothing.

"Julia."

"Mom."

"In the future, let's pretend there is no such person as your Caleb."

“Mom.” Julia’s heart was raised to her throat, obviously not expecting Vanessa to have been disappointed in Caleb to such an extent.

The kind of disappointment is different from any other time in the past, it’s not that Caleb simply did something that disappointed people.

Rather, all these years, everything he did was disappointing, and finally, in such disappointment, she had to give up on him.

Yes, the current Vanessa had completely given up on Caleb.

“Caleb must not know the true nature of that woman right now, he’ll definitely regret it when he finds out everything.”

Julia said with some panic.

In the end, she still considered Caleb as an indispensable family member, although she was disappointed, but this is not a bit too cruel if she completely treats that person not as a family member.

Obviously, at this point Julia could never do it.

Vanessa, “Wasn’t the trip to Oklens enough to get to know that woman’s true colors?”
