

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 278

"So, you are now asking me to let you guys go?" Alina bit so hard and sarcastically.

Emma, in the end, did not want to lose it all.

After all, growing up in the mountains was once so hard for her, and now that it took her a lot of effort to get it all, how could she afford to lose it?

And yet, she had forgotten that it didn't belong to her at all.

"I'm showing you what's important in your world, don't you think?"

For Alina, indeed nothing is more important than her child right now.

"Emma, I don't think you've figured out one thing yet."

"What?"

"You've done a lot of mistakes." It's not just one or two things between them, is it?

If it was really one thing, then for the sake of the child, she wouldn't really pursue it that much.

However, Emma took advantage of the Hughes family, and she was going to have to chase it all away.

"Between us, there are too many odds."

Emma stiffened at this.

Emma is clear about it, only reason is constantly reminding her.

Whatever it was like in the world between them before, but at the moment, it could never be admitted.

"I don't think there's anything else going on between us other than that one."

"Really, is that so?"

Alina looked sharply at Emma.

Emma, "Alina!"

"It doesn't matter if you don't admit it, the truth will come out one day, so go ahead and cover up to your heart's content now."

"....."

“By the way, I forgot to tell you that you’ve been reacting too strongly and Caleb has been suspicious of you.”

A shudder ran through Emma’s body as a result.

What? Caleb, too, is suspecting her?

No, it’s not possible.

She was pushed to this point by Alina, so how could Caleb doubt her?

In Emma’s opinion, he wouldn’t suspect her.

“You always thought you were doing a seamless job, and all this time, there was no way out, was there? Tell me, what exactly has driven you to this?”

Originally, everything was under control of Emma, now at Alina’s words, Emma’s inner sanity and certainty completely shattered.

Emma dare not face it.

“What could have driven me? Don’t you talk nonsense.”

“Yeah, what could possibly push you?”

“.....”

“I’m curious too. But don’t worry, these things will soon come to light.” Alina said with a smile.

And when Emma heard Alina say those things, she used much strength to suppress the light trembling that ran through her body.

“Alina, there’s nothing on me, I’m talking to you now about you and the child.”

Emma struggled to bring the subject back.

Alina put on a smile when she heard about the child, “Perhaps before, the child and this matter really can’t be compared.”

“.....”

“But right now, I can’t back down because of the child.”

There was no grandmother or parents before, whether she was in front of Caleb or in the matter of Emma, she would back off, but it was not the same now after all.

Emma's face went white.

Alina has gone mad, she is now not caring about anything in order to deal with Emma.

"Do you know that once Caleb knew the child was his, he would..."

"He'll grab her from me, I know."

That's what she's always feared the most, and she won't let her child leave her.

Faced with this threat from Emma, the smile on the corner of Alina's mouth was even more sarcastic, "Do you really think that he can rob her from me?"

At this moment, Alina's words were spoken with such confidence.

There is really so much confidence in Alina, which has always been the things she has sought most.

It's just been so many years.

No matter how hard she tries, the humility in her body shows unconsciously.

Yet Alina, no matter what kind of situation she was in, had confidence about her.

That kind of confidence was enviable.

"Alina, you're really crazy."

"It's only people like you who can't grab from a man when it comes to problems like this, isn't it."

"You..."

"After all, you rely on men for all your survival skills."

Emma's eyes were blackened with anger, but she had to deny that what Alina had said was right.

She has VIG behind her and such a large stake in it.

In the fashion world, she now has a place in it.

It was easy for her to ask for custody, but she was concerned because she didn't want to go to too much trouble.

Now, since things had to come to this, it was better to face it directly.

.....

Emma had no idea how she had gotten out of Mulherd Manor, covered in wretchedness and now without a shine on her.

She thought that Alina knew which was more important, and for the sake of the child, would definitely stop because of it.

She surprisingly didn't care about anything this time, she just faced up straight on.

Kara is waiting outside.

"Well?" Kara looked to Emma.

When she lent Emma 500,000 before, Emma said with confidence that she had a way to get Alina to stop and not sue her.

As long as Alina stops, then there won't be any problems on her with the account being unblocked.

And her money will come back.
