

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 77

However, the next moment, the man took out something directly from his arms, and without waiting for Alina to react, the divorce certificate she bought online was slapped directly on her face.

With Caleb's implacable anger, he asked, "Is he that important to you? So important that you would do such a thing?"

Her face hurt, and she was angry.

However, when he saw what Caleb slapped over, his anger instantly turned to weakness.

"Bought online?" The man's tone grew more and more dangerous.

It was as if he wanted to kill her.

Alina's head is spinning.

Apparently, she didn't expect Caleb to find out about this, which she hadn't thought about when she was doing it.

Now, she had the heart to faint.

After all those years with Caleb, she had some idea of what this man's temperament was like, and now she just wanted to go call Andre.

Let him hurry up and get ready to respond.

"I..."

"Alina, wait for the news that he's broke." The man dropped his words, got up and headed out.

What is he going to do to VIG again?

Thinking about the last loss, Alina, no matter how much she hated Caleb, couldn't care less now.

"Caleb, you crazy bastard, stop right there." She caught up with him.

She can't let him do anything to VIG again, or Andre would have deal with the trouble between them.

The man paused without turning around, and his tone was even colder. "What? Could it be that you can still beg me for him?"

It seems that if Alina dares to beg him for Andre, then he will definitely overthrow Andre completely.

Alina's mind was scrambled by him.

It was his fault back then, but it sounds like it was her cheated on him.

"Just a fake marriage certificate, do you have to do this?" Alina couldn't find the words to explain this at all.

In fact, she didn't have to explain.

But because of this, he took action against Voyage International Group, and that's what Alina can't stand.

The man turned around violently and looked at her with scarlet eyes, the danger in those eyes was even more self-evident, "Don't have to do this?"

Of course not.

How come it sounds like he cares about this matter?

"Calm down, actually between me and him..."

"I want a word from you now."

"What?"

"You and him, divorced or not?" The answer is clear, if she really wants to divorce Andre, why mess up like this?

Looking at the man's eyes, Alina knew she made a trouble, if not explained clearly today, then in accordance with the man's crazy character, it may be a wild revenge against VIG.

She doesn't care for his stuff, but definitely can't be lost because of him.

Alina couldn't help but swallow, "I have nothing to do with him at all, why do you want me to get a divorce?"

"Nothing to do with him? What a reason."

"No, I..."

"Alina, it seems that if I don't let you suffer, you think I will do nothing for our old feelings."

Alina turned cold all over at this.

Old feelings?

Does he have old feelings for her?

If there really is, even if not for the sake of their old feelings, then should he leave her alone for the sake of Grandpa Max?

But what happens in the end?

He didn't care anything, but Emma was more important in his heart than all.

In Alina's thoughts, Caleb walked away full of chills, and by the time she reacted, he had gone.

She immediately called Andre, who had just finished his meeting, "What's up, Alina?"

"Caleb is crazy again."

"When has he ever been normal?" In Andre's opinion, what Caleb did was not something that a normal person would do.

Alina, "This time the madness is more serious."

Just now Caleb's ruthless eyes were really terrible.

Andre, "He did not agree with the divorce?"

The lawyer he found for Alina, and the fact that Alina had so much evidence on her side, was enough of a headache for even Caleb.

When thinking like this, if he is normally crazy, then things are rather abnormal.

However, the next moment, Alina said in a frightened voice, "He found out that the divorce certificate was a fake."

Andre's brain went blank.

What Caleb did was not a human thing, but he has always been a shrewd man, and he got screwed over on divorce papers.

At the time, they were so concerned about the funny, they didn't think about what the consequences would be if Caleb found out.

"I'm telling you, be careful now, that man said he's going to make sure you go bankrupt."

"Even if you don't go bankrupt, it will definitely make your skin fall off." Alina is really worried.

Although Andre is not a good person, but he has no reason to go crazy. People do something beyond imagination when they are irrational.

Caleb is in exactly that position right now.

“Okay, I get it.” Andre’s voice held back a smile.

It is hard to imagine that even now, this man can still laugh.

But just thinking about Caleb’s face, Andre felt good in mood.

Fake divorce papers.

The only person in the world who dares to shame Caleb like this is Alina, and Alina, who had seen Caleb’s crazy face, could not laugh out, only felt that man was very scary.

Lucy came out.

Looking at the divorce certificate with the word discolored, “This time, he’s going to be mad.”

No wonder he left with that sullen face.

Alina, “Glad that he is pissed off.”

Thinking of Caleb’s madness, Alina completely forgot about her original business and called Andre again.

And finally Andre suggested Alina to decline the offer. She is now making a name for herself.

She should seize the time to make her brand.
