

Immortal 671

Chapter 671: Reincarnated Playboy

Zu An had a bit of a headache. What the hell is wrong with this crown princess? Why does she always pop up out of nowhere?

This was going to be annoying. Even though there was nothing strange about Yun Jianyue from the outside, the crown princess was already quite familiar with Golden Token Eleven. She'll immediately notice that something is strange as soon as they talk.

"We greet the crown princess!" The guards near this gate all greeted her respectfully.

The crown princess nodded in acknowledgement, her bearing elegant. Anyone who saw her right now would praise her for her etiquette, thinking that she was destined to become the empress of this world.

She waved her hands, indicating for her subordinates to leave. Then, she walked up to Yun Jianyue and said, "Sir Eleven, I didn't expect you to meet you here."

Yun Jianyue voiced her acknowledgement. She obviously knew that she would be exposed as soon as she spoke. She clearly heard how this crown princess acted when she was chatting with Golden Token Eleven outside the courtyard before. She seemed to care a lot about him after he saved her last time.

She suddenly thought of something. Should she use this chance to seize her, or even capture her?

The two of them were this close. She didn't even need to use grandmaster level strength.

But she threw out that thought immediately afterwards. Not only was killing the crown princess alone meaningless, even if it had any significance, it would place Zu An in danger. The other party helped her out so much, so how could she repay her benefactor like this?

The crown princess didn't seem to mind this 'aloof' attitude Golden Token Eleven showed that much. On the contrary, there was a faint smile on her face. "Sir Eleven, were you satisfied with the gift I gave you last time? If you need anything else, please let me know."

Yun Jianyue was speechless. Didn't everyone say that the crown princess was proud and cold? Why was she so talkative today?

Fortunately, the crown princess continued without waiting for her to reply. "By the way, I heard that Concubine Bai invited Sir Eleven for a meeting as well. I wonder what kind of things she gave you? What is Sir Eleven's opinion of her?"

The nearby maid Rong Mo looked at her master with a strange look. The crown princess never acted like this normally! She was always cold and aloof. This made many people even feel that she was a bit too fierce.

Normally, if anyone else dared to act lovey-dovey like this, the crown princess would already be furious. However today, not only did she not get angry, she was full of smiles. She was also much more talkative than usual. Did she really have some other thoughts towards Sir Eleven?

She was frightened as soon as this thought appeared in her mind. She immediately told herself that this was absolute nonsense. As the crown princess' maid, she knew the crown princess' temperament. She would never do something that would disgrace her clan. Furthermore, the crown princess was a strong and ambitious woman. What she needed was authority. This was something only the crown prince and her current identity could give her. She definitely would not act recklessly.

She's definitely just grateful that Sir Eleven saved her.

When she remembered the situation they were in, and then how Golden Token Eleven seemed to have descended from the heavens itself, Rong Mo nodded to herself. Putting everything else aside, Sir Eleven really was quite handsome back then.

Yun Jianyue looked at the smiling crown princess in front of her. She had an ambiguous smile on her face. As a woman, she could clearly sense the good intentions the crown princess had towards Zu An.

Pah! When did I agree to Honglei and his affair?

Honglei can't even sleep with him, so it's better to get the pain over with quickly and use this as a chance to end her feelings so it doesn't end up affecting her cultivation.

I'll just find another way to make it up to Zu An for what he did for the Holy Sect.

Though I have to say... this kid really must be the reincarnation of some crazy playboy. Just how many days has it been since he entered the palace, yet the crown princess is already crazy about him?

No wonder the disciple I raised with so much care was done in by this brat too.

While her thoughts were all over the place, the crown princess who didn't receive any reply for a long time was finally a bit confused. "Sir Eleven, why aren't you saying anything?"

Yun Jianyue began to panic. She sensed that the mysterious pursuer was nearby. Once she said something, Zu An would be in danger.

Zu An's voice sounded by her ear through voice transmission at this time. "Don't worry, leave it to me."

Immediately afterwards, he said to the crown princess, "Crown princess, please forgive me. Concubine Bai's status is special, so it isn't someone a mere subject like me can talk about."

Yun Jianyue was wearing a mask. The crown princess' cultivation wasn't high enough, so she couldn't tell who it was that was sending the voice transmission.

"Her status is special?" The crown princess sneered, clearly a bit unsatisfied when she heard this. "That woman might not be good at anything else, but she really is pretty good at putting on that pitiful act."

Yun Jianyue was shocked, because this was a voice transmission. She didn't know what Zu An was saying. From what the crown princess was saying, was she talking about Concubine Bai?

But the crown princess quickly reacted and said apologetically, "I apologize, I lost my composure for a moment. I've let Sir Eleven see a poor side of me."

Yun Jianyue shook her head, indicating that it was fine.

Zu An thought to himself that the crown princess' resentment towards Concubine Bai was quite deep! Is it because she felt that by giving birth to the crown prince's son, she gave her a feeling of danger?

But now wasn't the time to worry about these things. He was worried that Yun Jianyue would eventually be exposed if they continued to chat like this, so he decided to just go on the offensive. "The crown princess does not need to worry about my opinion of Concubine Bai. Could it be that you are jealous?"

She stormed off with a huff. But from how she was leaving in such a hurry, it looked more like she was skipping.

Rong Mo and the others were shocked when they saw this and quickly rushed over. They wanted to ask about what happened, yet the crown princess didn't say a single word, so they didn't dare to ask anything. They could only quickly follow behind her.

Yun Jianyue had a strange expression on her face. Why did the crown princess look like she pretended to be displeased?

She couldn't help but ask Zu An, "What did you just tell her?"

Zu An harrumphed in annoyance. "Hurry up and use this chance to leave. Is now the time for gossip?"

Yun Jianyue's face heated up. She also felt like her behavior was a bit inexcusable. She voiced her agreement and left.

Her voice was transmitted back soon afterwards. "That person seems to have followed me out of the palace."

Zu An was stunned. "I didn't see anyone else leave the palace?"

He was paying close attention to the situation the entire time. Apart from Yun Jianyue, there was no one else who passed by the palace gate.

Yun Jianyue remained silent for a moment, and then she said, "I know what it is now. There are some clans with special hiding abilities, for example, the dark elves who can move through shadows. This individual is probably using something similar."

Zu An said with worry, "Then I'll come out and help you!"

"There's no need. I'll find a chance to get rid of him when there is a chance once I get out of here." Yun Jianyue was back to her domineering sect master self.

"Then you have to be careful!" Zu An thought to himself that this made sense. Once she left the palace, she didn't have to be so worried about the emperor's divine will. Dealing with a hidden assassin wasn't too difficult. If he went out, it would instead easily expose his connection with Golden Token Eleven.

Zu An returned to the eastern palace to report to the crown princess after leaving the gate. When he walked towards the eastern palace gate, he saw that the crown prince was playing go with some lesser eunuchs.

Little He and Little Xu looked absolutely miserable. They were being abused by the big fatty right now.

The crown prince was extremely happy when he saw Zu An come over. "Come here, come here! These dummies don't even know how to play go."

Little He and Little Xu both cursed inside. Like hell we'll know how to play! If we knew, why would we become eunuchs?

In this age, go was a game of class. It was something only nobles and wealthy families knew.

"Go?" Zu An gave him a confused look. Is this fella's intelligence great enough to play such a complicated game?

I can't even play well with my smarts.

"The crown prince knows how to play go?" He couldn't help but ask.

The fatty's face fell. "That's why I want you to teach me! Whatever, if you don't teach me, then I'm going to have them send you to the castration room."

Zu An: "....."

This damn fatty really was annoying sometimes!

The eunuchs gave him a look of sympathy. They had no idea what was up with the crown prince so suddenly today. He suddenly insisted on learning how to play go! Forget about them knowing how to play, even if they did know, teaching this crown prince would be an impossible task.

The crown prince gave Zu An a look. "What are you staring blankly for? Do you not know?"

Zu An coughed and said, "Isn't it just go? This is but a simple matter."

Chapter 672: I Have a Friend

Little He and Little Xu were skeptical when they heard what he said. This fella is bragging, right? The lesser tutor taught the crown prince many things before. Forget about the crown prince not being able to learn anything, not even they who were watching from the side could figure anything out.

The crown princess was known for her intelligence. She even gave the crown prince some classes in private, yet he still didn't learn anything. She was so upset she wasn't willing to teach the crown prince anything anymore.

Where the heck did this fella get his confidence from? And he said that it's easy?

Zu An sat down across from the crown prince. He picked up the chessboard and the pieces. Then, he began to explain the rules.

"Huh? So I just need to connect five in a row to win? That's so easy! Those fellas are acting all high and mighty, so I almost thought that it was a really hard game." The crown prince was excited and looked like he was a genius.

However, he was soon utterly crushed by Zu An. He couldn't continue this and said, "Enough, enough, you should do what you have to do for now. Little He, come and play with me."

Little He and Little Xu were stunned as well. They thought to themselves, so go was this easy? They learned it pretty quickly as well. However, they didn't dare to play so mercilessly like Zu An. They secretly threw the games, and soon afterwards, the crown prince was smiling from ear to ear.[1]

While they were busy with what they were doing, Zu An used this chance to head into the inner room to pay the crown princess a visit.

The crown princess was sitting in front of a mirror and grooming herself. She pressed the back of her hands against her cheeks, as if she was checking to see how hot her face was.

She immediately put away her 'young lady yearning for love' act. With a light cough, she recovered her usual dignified appearance. "What is the crown prince doing outside that's so noisy?"

"Ah, they're playing go outside." Zu An added inwardly, the simplified version five-in-a-row.

"Go?" The crown princess harrumphed. She clearly remembered something unpleasant.

She didn't feel like wasting any attention on the crown prince and asked, "What do you need?"

Zu An replied, "I didn't get any new information when I went to the imperial prison."

He didn't dare to tell her about King Qi 'rescuing' the prisoners, or else she would use this chance to launch an attack on King Qi's faction in the court. That would create a huge uproar, and then things would develop completely differently from how he wanted them to.

The crown princess voiced her agreement. She clearly didn't place much hope on this matter either.

"By the way, why did the emperor suddenly summon you?" The crown princess couldn't help but ask. From her perspective, she really couldn't figure out what the emperor needed him for.

Zu An replied, "His majesty heard that King Qi summoned me, so he called me over to tell me to do my utmost in helping the crown prince and princess."

The crown princess was startled. "Is that really what his majesty said?"

"How could I dare lie to you?" Zu An replied. "Actually, even if his majesty didn't say that, I would still strive to do my utmost until my dying day."

"Strive your utmost until your dying day..." The crown princess repeated what he said. She didn't expect this person to have some talent in literature as well. Looks like I really did look down on him before. However, she wasn't the gullible sort. Instead, her eyes were bright as she stared at him. "Why would you go this far?"

Zu An looked straight into her eyes without evading them at all. "Of course, it is because of the crown princess..."

The crown princess' expression suddenly changed when she heard what he said. However, she heard him continue to say, "Because of the crown princess protecting me from King Qi earlier. Even though I haven't studied for many years, I know how to repay gratitude. I will definitely do my best to help the crown princess."

The crown princess felt relieved and said, "It's rare to see loyalty like yours. As long as you continue to work well for the eastern palace, both me and the crown prince will not treat you unfairly."

She didn't know why, but this man's style of speaking was a bit similar to Sir Eleven. However, she immediately tossed away the thought. How is that even possible? The two of them were just too different!

She felt her heart thumping as soon as she remembered Sir Eleven. Why did he say something like that?

Could it be that he was teasing me?

But how could he dare? I am a glorious crown princess! He is an Embroidered Envoy who protects the royal family... How could he...

Maybe I'm overthinking things? Maybe that's not what he meant?

She quickly stopped Zu An when she thought of this. "Wait!"

Zu An turned around and looked at her in confusion.

The crown princess' cheeks turned red. "I have a friend. There's a problem that she just couldn't figure out all this time, so I want to ask Sir Zu for advice."

Zu An was stunned. What is this woman going to ask me? "Please speak your mind, crown princess."

But how could he know that this wasn't a problem the crown princess could ask those by her side, that she would experience absolute social death if she did so? Furthermore, the only ones around her were the eunuchs and maids. The only one who she could maybe talk to was an idiot. She didn't have anyone else to talk to! On the contrary, Zu An wasn't that close with her, and he came from a common background as well. He might be able to offer her a different perspective.

The crown princess paused for a moment, as if she was considering her words. "That friend of mine, it's really my friend!..." As if she was scared that he wouldn't believe her, she looked into his eyes and emphasized this point.

Zu An couldn't help but chuckle. "Enough, enough. I know that it's definitely not you, crown princess."

The crown princess' face flushed red. She continued, "She knows a man, and she has a great impression of this man. However, one day, that man suddenly said to me... Ahem, he said some weird things to my friend. I do not know what he is trying to say at all."

Zu An realized something. "That person said something strange to you... to your friend?"

"Yes... yes..." The crown princess was a bit hesitant.

However, she still told him what Golden Token Eleven said. Then, she added, "My friend's status is special, so she doesn't have any chance of being with that man. He knows this as well, but he still said what he said. How can he say something like that?"

Zu An had a strange look on his face. He didn't expect the words he spoke to help Yun Jianyue out of her predicament to have left this woman so troubled. He could only explain and say, "Maybe that man is just like that. He likes to speak casually and didn't mean anything more by it. Those words didn't mean anything else."

But the crown princess instead immediately stared at him and said, "Nonsense! That man is mature and steadfast! Do you think that he is as frivolous as you?"

Zu An was speechless. I guess once you fall for someone, you see them out of rose-tinted lens. You'll only think good things about that person. He couldn't help but say with a mysterious smile, "Looks like the crown princess is quite familiar with this person."

The crown princess' heart rate immediately quickened when she heard what he said. She realized that her current appearance was quite unsuitable. She quickly added, "My friend told me all of these things."

Zu An didn't expose her and said, "Perhaps that person has some good opinion of you... towards your friend. Even though he knows that there is no chance of anything happening, he was so helpless that he couldn't hold himself back. That was why he ended up saying something so ambiguous to you... to your friend to express his love?"

As a successful sea king, regardless of whether they are useful or not, as long as the fish is pretty, he would bring them into his side of the sea first.[2]

"Ah?" The crown princess' lips changed into an O shape. Her heart began to pound. Could it be that this was what Sir Eleven meant?

But... but our identities... how can we...

When she first met the crown prince, she thought that he was just a bit slow. She tried all different ways to teach him and change him, yet he remained an idiot throughout the entire process. After trying again and again, she finally gave up in the end.

She married the crown prince mainly for her family. Neither side felt anything for each other. When she saw that he couldn't be molded in any way, her heart already became stone cold.

However, this stone cold heart was now beating fiercely. She felt full of energy, as if she was full of anticipation for every moment.

Is this the power of love? She was so frightened by this thought that her red face turned deathly white. She killed this thought and then looked at Zu An. "My friend's identity is special, so you cannot tell anyone about this. Otherwise, you won't be able to handle the consequences if she blames you."

Zu An forced a smile. "Don't worry, I don't have a loose tongue."

He wondered to himself, if the day came when this woman knew about his real identity, would she be so embarrassed that she would stomp out three bedrooms and a living room on the ground.

This scene was really something worth looking forward to.

"Alright, you can leave now." The crown princess waved her hand. Her head was all over the place right now so she needed to be alone.

Zu An cupped his hands and left. Outside, the crown prince was currently having the time of his life beating the two lesser eunuchs.

When he saw how into it the eunuchs looked in this battle between noobs, he sighed in admiration. This was just a small eastern palace, yet there were two oscar worthy actors right here.

When he saw that it was already getting dark, he found Piao Duandiao and Jiao Sigun. "Are you guys off yet? If you're done, then let's go!"

"Off?" The two were stunned, but they could guess what this meant. They both looked excited. "Let's go!"

Even though none of them said where they were going, any man would understand from how they were gesturing towards each other.

Zu An was, obviously, not that excited about the government brothel. The girls at his side were prettier than even the courtesan queens, so why did he need to play around in that type of place?

He did this mainly to find Yun Jianyue and Qiu Honglei. He wanted to see if they already made it out safely. Furthermore, he wanted to ask Yun Jianyue about the one who had been tailing them before.

The Devil Sect's base of operations was located in the government brothel. Even though it experienced the Cheng Gang disturbance, that was something they did set up deliberately. They already made preparations beforehand and only gave up some resources to look the part. That was why the court didn't end up endangering their real base there.

Piao Duandiao and Jiao Sigun saved him from King Qi by informing the crown princess. This was a gratitude he had to repay. This visit was also a good excuse to hide his real objective.

"Big bro Zu, a night in the government brothel is practically half a month of salary for us. It hasn't been that long since you've entered the capital, so you haven't gotten paid yet, right? How about we come back next month?" After his initial excitement passed, Piao Duandiao realized this and asked out of consideration.

Zu An said with a smile, "It's fine, I can at least pay for a single night in the government brothel."

This fella was already calling him big bro! This guy was easy to get along with after all.

Piao Duandiao's eyes immediately lit up. His dark circles also became more obvious. "Big Bro Zu is really generous! I heard that there were a few new courtesan queens in the government brothel. Let's visit one of them today."

Jiao Sigun sneered. "Who was the one complaining about waist pain and looking for stimulation medicine everywhere? Will you even be able to get it up even if there was a courtesan queen right in front of you?"

Piao Duandiao was furious, but his expression lacked confidence. "Nonsense! When did I have any of that? I was just looking for some sleeping medicine, okay? Hmph, forget about a courtesan queen, I would be able to do it even if it was you lying on the bed. Would you believe me?"

"Tsk, with your little toothpick of a thing, who knows who will be the one screwing who." Jiao Sigun fired back.

"Who is a little toothpick? If you have guts, then let's compare!" Piao Duandiao was like a cat that had his tail stepped on.

"Sure, why not? I was about to take a piss anyway." Jiao Sigun chuckled. He walked over to a large tree, and then he whistled while doing a number one.

This world wasn't a clean and orderly metropolis like the modern world. There were no proper public toilet systems. This type of thing was incredibly common.

Piao Duandiao's expression changed several times. In the end, he still braced himself and walked over. He did his best to stay a bit further away from Jiao Sigun.

Jiao Sigun gave him a sidelong glance. He almost blurted out laughing. "That's it?"

Piao Duandiao snorted. "Yours is about the same."

Zu An suddenly felt the urge to go as well when he heard them peeing.

He walked over. Piao Duandiao and Jiao Sigun quietly glanced over. Jiao Sigun was full of confidence, while Piao Duandiao wanted to find some confidence.

However, both of them trembled the moment they took a single glance. Their smiles instantly froze.

What the fuck? Is that something a human should have?

The two of them both took a step to the side to stand a bit further from him.

Then, they shook their legs a few times before pulling up their pants in dejection.

The two no longer argued with each other for the rest of the way. Both of them were quiet.

Zu An smirked. He asked a rhetorical question. "Why aren't the two of you saying anything?"

Piao Duandiao and Jiao Sigun turned around to give him a look. Their expressions were incredibly conflicted.

There will always be people better than you... I won't act cocky about this ever again. Sigh, I shouldn't have tried to show off when I didn't even have anything special. After seeing Zu An's, what is the point of anything anymore... thought Jiao Sigun.

I need to ask Sir Zu just how he got it that big in the future. Even if I only learn some small tricks, it'll be enough to destroy that bastard Jiao Sigun! I can't let him brag in front of me all the time. Piao Duandiao thought.

Am I being mean? Sigh, but not showing off is just like wearing your best stuff at night in total darkness. I had a rare chance to show off a bit, so it's fine, right? Zu An thought.

All of them were preoccupied with different thoughts. They arrived at the government brothel soon afterwards.

Zu An contacted the female brothel keeper through the secret signal he agreed on with Qiu Honglei. She quickly returned with a bunch of girls.

"Young master, these are all popular girls in the government brothel. You may choose whichever one you like." The female brothel keeper said with a big smile. She leaned towards Zu An with her large chest while speaking. There was a powerful perfume coming from her body.

Zu An nudged to the side without batting an eyelid. He wasn't someone with such a high tolerance that he would even choose a brothel keeper.

But these girls she brought weren't bad at all. All of them were cute and lovely. They would easily be the prettiest girls in school in his past world.

Sigh, this scheme really does bring back memories... He was already starting to miss his past glory days a bit...

Pah! I'm an upright and outstanding person! How could I have possibly gone to those types of places?

He cleared his throat and pointed at Piao Duandiao and Jiao Sigun. "They're the main characters today. I'll be satisfied as long as you take good care of them."

Isn't prostitution illegal in many countries... But I'm not paying them anything, right? Then this doesn't count?

There's no way the Devil Sect will charge me with our relationship.

Zu An immediately felt much better.

The brothel keeper was beaming with smiles. "No problem! Girls, take care of them well."

Piao Duandiao and Jiao Sigun were alarmed. They began to whisper among themselves.

"You really can't judge a person by appearances! Big Bro Zu looks upright and honest, but he's actually so experienced in this type of place!" Jiao Sigun said with a sigh. Zu An looked like he was right at home here.

Piao Duandiao was also completely convinced. "And I thought that I was already quite the old hand in this place. Compared to Big Bro Zu, I'm nothing."

They would only play with some ordinary girls whenever they came here. Yet now, the ones they were with were all the most popular girls they didn't even dare to dream about before!

In terms of face and body, these girls were far, far superior!

"If we keep following Big Bro Zu, we'll definitely live well!" Piao Duandiao said sincerely.

Jiao Sigun surprisingly didn't argue back at all. Instead, he nodded in deep agreement.

The two of them quickly chose a girl they liked. Piao Duandiao chose a girl who looked a bit older and a bit more voluptuous.

Jiao Sigun chose a petite girl who looked charming and pitiful.

Zu An gave them a look. He finally knew why Piao Duandiao was always so fake.

As for Jiao Sigun, he looked cold and aloof, but he actually liked this green tea bitch type. He told himself that he had to make sure to warn the brothel keeper, or else this innocent fella might end up losing everything to this girl.

The brothel keeper said with a smile, "The other two sirs have already chosen. Which girl does Sir Zu wish to choose?"

Zu An waved his hand and said, "Only a kid would choose. An adult will take all of them."

Piao Duandiao and Jiao Sigun were horrified. Their big bro really was the big bro. This type of style wasn't something they could ever hope to achieve.

The brothel keeper was shocked. "You... want all of them?"

"Is that a problem?" Zu An gave her a look.

"Not at all!" The brothel keeper smiled. "I'm just worried about the young master's body. Not even iron could last that long!"

Piao Duandiao and Jiao Sigun looked dejected. "Brothel keeper, I think you should worry more about your girls."

Both of them recalled the same scene...

Damn it! We can't keep remembering that scene! We'll become depressed at this rate!

The two of them quickly took their girls with them to their rooms. They didn't want to look at Zu An anymore and remember that scene.

Zu An had girls all around him. He leaned back in comfort and enjoyed the service of these lovely girls all around him. It was like heaven on earth!

Meanwhile, a beautiful young lady who was watching from inside of a nearby room stomped her feet in anger. "This scoundrel! He's pissing me off!"

Chapter 674: Embarrassing Encounter

Sigh, the girls of this world are much better than the girls of my past world. They're all so soft spoken and nice, and they're even talented in many ways. Those girls from my past world are all ready to curse at any time and always starting sh*t.

While he was enjoying himself, he suddenly felt like there were less and less girls pampering him. The room seemed to have become a lot colder.

“Huh? Why did you guys stop massaging me?” Zu An couldn’t help but raise his head. He saw a stunning young lady standing by the entrance, her pink dress perfectly outlining her figure. Her chest filled up the front of her dress, her supple waist looked like it was asking to be held. Even more stunning were her long and straight legs that could vaguely be made out through the dress. It was as if there was a jade-like layer of light covering them, making her skin seem even more soft and fine.

Even though this wasn’t the first time he saw her, Zu An was still amazed. This age was far more open-minded than ancient china, but dressing like this was still considered daring. However, she didn’t give off any feelings of low-class, but rather made one feel like she had dressed herself well, as if this seductive appearance was made for her.

Zu An had a sincere smile on his face. “Honglei, you came.”

Qiu Honglei said with a smile, “If I didn’t, then I might’ve missed out on seeing young master Zu enjoying himself so much.”

Her voice was soft and lovely, but the Rage points that he continued to receive from the back end sold her out.

You have successfully trolled Qiu Honglei for +223 +223 +223...

Zu An was speechless. Didn’t you used to live in Immortal Abode? You should know how pitiful these girls are! I’m helping them with their business here to make their lives a bit easier, so why are you getting upset?

Of course, he wasn’t stupid enough to blurt that out. Instead, he said, “It’s all a misunderstanding! I wanted to meet with you as soon as possible too!”

“You wanted to meet me, but then you ended up being surrounded by all these girls?” Qiu Honglei was still smiling, but her smile was dangerous.

Zu An said with a resolute expression, “You’re only judging me by what you see, you don’t know how much thought I put into this! I’ve already been in the government brothel for a while, but you still didn’t come out to meet me. I don’t have any other way of contacting you, so I could only make you jealous so you would come out sooner!”

Zu An used this chance to reach out his arm and use the Heaven Devouring Sutra, pulling her right into his embrace. If those Shang Dynasty emperors knew that he used their most powerful art for this type of thing, they might get so angry that they’d jump right out of their coffins!

“What are you doing? Let go of me!” Qiu Honglei struggled subconsciously.

But how could Zu An let go now? He kissed her right on her soft red lips. “Mmm!...” Qiu Honglei’s entire body went rigid. Then, it gradually softened.

A while later, she suddenly noticed something and quickly pushed him away. "Just now... did you kiss those girls?"

"No way, I only told them to give me a massage." Then, Zu An looked into her eyes and said with great affection, "You are the only one I will ever kiss in this type of place."

"You only know how to say good things." Qiu Honglei harrumphed in annoyance. However, the joy between her brows was clear.

Zu An sighed. This girl was clearly putting on the look of an enchantress, yet she's this naive and pure.

That Jiao Sigun who picked that delicate and innocent looking green tea bitch was instead the one who seemed less naive in comparison.

He gently embraced this beauty in his arms. "Honglei, I'm really blessed to be able to meet with you again."

Qiu Honglei was moved. She loved hearing these types of things. She pressed her face gently against his chest and said, "I am too."

The two of them snuggled up against each other like this, enjoying this rare moment of peace.

Qiu Honglei's face suddenly turned red a while later. Her lovely eyes were misty. "Bad guy..."

This type of charming look and seductive voice is going to do even a monk in, let alone me!

The pressure became greater and greater. Qiu Honglei's face became more and more red.

Zu An's throat went dry. He said with a sigh, "Anyone who hugs Honglei like this and remains unmoved can't even be considered a real man."

"Smooth talker..." Qiu Honglei was completely flustered. She subconsciously stood up. "You should call over those girls to help you out, I won't get angry."

She was about to leave after saying this, but Zu An pulled her back. "But all of them together can't even add up to a fraction of you!"

Qiu Honglei was happy to hear that. This guy was always so great with words. However, she quickly reacted and said, "No way! You know that my cultivation method is special, so I can't..."

Zu An cut her off before she even finished what she had to say. "No, you can."

He guided her soft little hand down while talking.

Qiu Honglei immediately remembered when she helped him the last time she was at his house. Her ears burned up.

But she was also starting to get into it. The first reason was because of her natural curiosity, while the second was that she wanted to please her lover. That was why she bent down after a bit of resistance.

"It's really amazing... How does it get so much bigger so quickly?"

"Will it hurt for you?"

Qiu Honglei was full of questions. She exclaimed in admiration from time to time.

Zu An replied to her questions one after another and guided her through the process. But he had to admit that she had a talent for this. She was a bit underripe at first, but quickly became self-taught. Her delicate hands became more and more gentle, making him feel like he was experiencing a soft spring breeze, or a warm sun in winter.

A while later, Qiu Honglei finally couldn’t hold herself back anymore. “How much longer do you need me to do this for? My wrist is starting to get sore.”

She was already bent over with her head lowered to begin with. When she said this, her breath brushed over him like the fragrance of orchids. Zu An became more and more sensitive.

He suddenly thought of something and gently pressed his hand down on her head.

Qiu Honglei was a Devil Sect witch after all, and she spent some time in Immortal Abode. She immediately knew what he wanted to do.

She gave him a resentful look, but she didn’t refuse him in the end. She sorted out the messy strands of hair around her temples, and then her soft red lips pressed down.

Zu An inhaled sharply.

A while later, the door slammed open. A fierce voice sounded upon seeing this scene. “What are you two doing?!”

Qiu Honglei was like a startled rabbit. She jumped straight up and clutched her mouth while looking at the long haired beauty at the entrance. She said in embarrassment, “Mas... master.”

The one who came was obviously Yun Jianyue. When she heard that Zu An paid a visit, she rushed over excitedly. Yet when she opened the door, her excitement instantly vanished.

She was annoyed that her carefully raised disciple she passed everything to actually ended up being such a disappointment.

Also, this Zu An really was hateful! He actually defiled her disciple!

You have successfully trolled Yun Jianyue for +888 +888 +888...

“Do you really have the nerve to call me your master right now? I don’t have any disciples like you.” Yun Jianyue gave Qiu Honglei an impatient look.

Even though Qiu Honglei was the Devil Sect’s witch, she was still a virgin. Doing this type of thing, and then being seen made her so embarrassed she felt like she could die. She could no longer stay here after being criticized like this by her master. She clutched her red face and ran out.

Only Zu An and Yun Jianyue were left.

Zu An pulled up his pants in embarrassment. He blurted out, "Big sis sect master, couldn't you have at least knocked first?"

Yun Jianyue's expression was cold. "Am I supposed to just wait as you defile my disciple?"

Chapter 675: Forced Breakup

You have successfully trolled Yun Jianyue for +444 +444 +444...

Zu An felt a huge headache. He quickly said, "We're an affectionate couple! These were things that happened naturally because of our love for each other, how can you call that lowly?"

"Happened naturally?" Yun Jianyue sneered. "Then why did you push down on Honglei's head just now?"

Zu An's face heated up. "I didn't use that much strength. If Honglei didn't want to do it, then why would I force her to?"

"Alright, whatever, I don't want to hear your random explanation." For some reason, Yun Jianyue felt really really annoyed. "In short, you're not allowed to meet with Honglei in the future."

"Why?!" Zu An immediately sat up and cried out.

Yun Jianyue said with a sullen expression, "You know that Honglei's cultivation technique is special. She cannot lose her virginity before she reaches a certain level."

Zu An mumbled, "I know, that's why the two of us knew not to really go that far."

Yun Jianyue's eyebrows were raised. She looked like she was about to flip out, but she remembered how much Zu An helped them during this period and forced herself to hold back her rage. "Hmph, this is called nothing? You were able to let it all out, but what about Honglei? Men aren't the only ones with lust, women do too! If you keep seducing her like this, it'll eventually accumulate to the point where he cannot hold herself back anymore. It's very likely that she'll become overwhelmed by lust then!"

Zu An: "....."

He spat out, "Your technique is fucking trash!"

"Trash?" Yun Jianyue's expression became dangerous. "It was this 'trash technique' that allowed me to reach the grandmaster level. I can crush you like an ant. Do you want to give it a try?"

"Not at all, not at all." Zu An waved his hands in embarrassment. This unmarried lady really had quite the temper.

Yun Jianyue then continued and said, "Since you said that you are Honglei's lover, then you should consider things from her perspective. If the two of you continue like this, she will only be tormented by her emotions and there will be many obstructions in her path of cultivation. She might never reach that realm of perfection and might even die along the way."

Zu An jumped in fright. "It's that dangerous?"

"Of course! Do you think I'm saying this just to scare you?" Yun Jianyue's expression was serious. "There were many who tried to cultivate this technique in the Holy Sect before, but many of them either could not control themselves and lost their cultivation, or they went crazy and lost everything. Up until now, I am the only person who has successfully cultivated this technique."

Zu An immediately blurted out, "Why did you make Honglei cultivate it then if it's so dangerous?!"

Yun Jianyue harrumphed in annoyance, "I've always raised her like my successor. Whose technique would she cultivate if not mine? With her foresight and temperament, no man in the world would faze her, yet she ended up encountering a playboy like you!"

Zu An stuck out his chest. "I'm handsome and rich, so is it so wrong for a girl to like me?"

Yun Jianyue: "....."

She wanted to smack this guy on the head, and then stomp on his face a few times. This kid really needed a good beating.

Zu An said at this time, "Fine, I'm not a sex fiend... Wait, hold on, what kind of look is that? If you keep that up, I'm actually going to get upset. Ahem, I don't want to harm Honglei either, so I promise that I won't make her do these types of things anymore."

"That's not enough. The two of you are not allowed to meet each other anymore." Yun Jianyue persisted. "From these past few days, I have seen that even her foundations have started to become unstable. She might be beyond saving if she continues to stay with you. That is why I will bring her back to the sect to have her earnestly cultivate in seclusion."

Zu An immediately asked, "Then how long does she need to cultivate for?"

"Until I think she has reached a suitable level." Yun Jianyue leaned back leisurely into her chair. She felt satisfied inside. Kid, you're still far too young to argue against me.

Zu An was furious. "Aren't you clearly being shameless here? Screw that!"

This stupid old unmarried woman was probably jealous seeing how close he was with Honglei. He might have to wait until the end of time before he would obtain her acknowledgement.

"You are always free to fight against me if you aren't convinced. If you win, then we'll follow your rules." Yun Jianyue's bright eyes swept over him indifferently.

Zu An's breathing stopped. He understood himself well. This woman was a grandmaster, and she already recovered quite a bit of her strength. Beating him up was like playing with a toy.

As such, he decisively changed his strategy. "Big sis sect master, isn't this going a bit too far? When you were seriously injured, I took the risk to get you soul healing medicine. I drew Cheng Xiong's suspicion because of this as well and almost died. Later on, I even saved your sect members who were doomed to die. It's one thing if you don't thank me for doing all of this, but if you abandon your benefactor after getting what you want, isn't that going a bit too far?"

Yun Jianyue sighed. "I know... We owe you too much. That is why I will try to think of another way to compensate you."

Zu An shook his head. "I don't want anything else. I only want Honglei."

Yun Jianyue's brows stood up. "Brat, don't go too far! I already explained everything to you earlier. Choose something else."

Zu An shook his head. "Honglei isn't a bargaining chip I can just switch for something else."

Yun Jianyue looked him in the eyes. Even though this fella was a playboy, he still treated Honglei quite well.

Her expression eased a bit. "Our Holy Sect will forever remember your gratitude. We will definitely repay you generously afterwards."

Zu An waved his hand, clearly not in the mood to talk about this stuff. "Have Sun Luzhen and the others returned safely?"

Yun Jianyue nodded. "When they left the palace, Honglei arranged for some men to receive them. They were already brought out of the capital. They have said repeatedly that they wish to express their thanks to you in person."

"It's good that they were able to leave." Zu An sighed in relief. If something happened to Sun Luzhen and the others, then it was easy for him to get in trouble. "By the way, what about the one who was secretly following you?"

"I was just about to talk to you about that." Yun Jianyue said with a grave expression. "I originally wanted to find a chance to kill him, but that person's hiding technique was too outstanding, so I failed."

"Even you couldn't do anything?" Zu An was shocked.

Yun Jianyue voiced her confirmation. "Forget about the fact that I am wounded right now, even if I was in my prime, I wouldn't even have a hundred percent certainty in detaining him. His stealth technique has already almost reached the level of natural dao. I couldn't even see his appearance."

"Someone like this can't be unknown, right? Do you know anyone who matches the description?" Zu An quickly asked. Having someone this powerful stalking him from the shadows really was quite the frightening thing.

Yun Jianyue shook her head. "This world is so large, there are still many capable individuals. How can I possibly know someone like that? Since he excels in stealth, then he definitely made sure to hide his own name as well. Thus, it is even harder for outsiders to know who he is."

Zu An nodded. He understood this reasoning. Looks like he had to find a chance to ask the emperor about this and have him investigate. But what if this person is Eunuch Wen?

He thought to himself for a second. Yun Jianyue suddenly voiced her surprise. She stared at his chest. "Hm? Your ki flow seems to be different from normal. Were you injured?"

After staying together for so long, as a grandmaster, she was already extremely familiar with his aura.

Zu An said with a bitter smile. "I had to put my life on the line to help you this time."

Then, he gave her a rough summary of the emperor's seal placed on him.

Yun Jianyue's expression changed. Without waiting for his agreement, she reached out a hand and grabbed his arm to sense his inner ki flow.

Her hands were cold and uncomfortable to the touch. However, Zu An wasn't in the mood to pay attention to these things. Instead, he stared nervously at her, because her brows were deeply furrowed, as if he was suffering from an incurable disease.

"You don't have to be like that. The emperor said that he can get rid of it. Would he lie to me?" Zu An said nervously.

In the end, Yun Jianyue said, "Remove your clothes."

"Huh?" Zu An was stunned.

Yun Jianyue said, "I will try to help you get rid of this seal. However, your qi will surge during this process. The heat must be released promptly. That is why you need to take off your clothes."

"Oh." Zu An was happy to do this. If the other party could help him undo this ticking time bomb, then he wouldn't have to live in fear every day.

Chapter 676: Confiscating the Tool of Crime

Zu An's expression suddenly became strange. "Big sis sect master, are you after my body?"

Yun Jianyue was furious. "What are you saying?!"

You have successfully trolled Yun Jianyue for +444 +444 +444...

Zu An mumbled, "Then why would you make me take off my pants too? Those are a man's private parts, you know?"

Yun Jianyue took a deep breath and endured the urge to beat him up. "Didn't I just explain it to you? The emperor's cultivation is incredibly powerful, so how can it be that easy to get rid of his seal? I need to do everything I can. During this process, the two types of ki will clash, making your ki surge powerfully. If we do not immediately release the heat, then your meridians will suffer irreversible burns. Your body might even explode and die!"

Anyone else who dared make this type of joke with her would have been executed on the spot, yet this fella provoked her several times! Even though she was furious, she didn't do anything. Even she surprised herself. In the end, she could only explain it through the fact that the Holy Sect owed him a lot.

Zu An replied with an 'oh'. "It's that Sex and Zen stuff, right? I got it."

Yun Jianyue's brows furrowed. "Sex and Zen?"

Even though she was knowledgeable, she never heard of this type of technique before.

"It's nothing." Zu An barely got by and began to take off his clothes. His healthy and fit chest was exposed.

Yun Jianyue's eyebrows raised upwards. "Huh, I didn't expect a kid like you to be that fit. I couldn't tell with your clothes on."

Zu An's body was far stronger than an ordinary person's after experiencing the Primordial Origin Sutra's refinement. His body was much tougher than those of high level cultivators.

What was even more remarkable was that this type of refinement used the primordial ki of heaven and earth to temper his body. All of the essence was stored inside. His muscles weren't bulky and sinister like those martial idiots', but instead looked slim and soft. His skin was glowing and gave off a type of harmonious sense of aesthetic, yet also looked like it carried explosive power.

Even Yun Jianyue couldn't help but give him a few more glances. The pursuit of beauty was the innate tendency of all humans.

"Did you say that on purpose to lessen your own embarrassment?" Zu An mocked. "If you keep staring, I'm going to start charging you."

"Me, stare at you?" Yun Jianyue immediately seemed like a cat who had its tail stepped on. "I was just observing the seal in your body!"

It's a freaking miracle that this kid was able to live for this long with that filthy mouth of his!

You have successfully trolled Yun Jianyue for +567 +567 +567...

Zu An thought to himself, you don't even have x-ray vision, how can you just see inside my body? Of course, he wouldn't expose her. "Alright, it's my misunderstanding. But I'm about to take off my pants, so can you turn around first?"

He didn't really mind, but he was worried that the other party might just chop off his thing with her sword out of embarrassment. That would really be bad.

Yun Jianyue harrumphed, as if she finally felt like she had a moment to let off some steam. "Brat, you're still acting all embarrassed? Not many in this world dare stand before me, what do you think I haven't seen before?" Even though this was what she said, she still turned around.

Zu An cursed inside. Stupid old unmarried woman, it'll be more stange if you have seen it before.

Yun Jianyue's chest rose and fell after turning around. She was definitely not as calm as she made herself sound on the surface.

She could hear rustling sounds behind her. A while later, Zu An said, "I'm done."

Yun Jianyue took a deep breath and told herself to not be alarmed when she turned back around. I am the Holy Sect's sect master! What kind of trials and tribulations haven't I faced before? How can I act cowardly in front of a kid like this?

"Hmph! It's not like I haven't seen it before!"

Zu An actually did underestimate her. In her earlier years, she had met some filthy men who lusted after innocent wives. She interfered herself to punish them and would often remove their tool of crime. She wasn't one of those young girls who never saw anything before.

But even though she already mentally prepared herself, she was still a bit absentminded when she turned back around.

Is... is there something wrong with this world?

After chopping off those criminals' things in the past, she still had some understanding of their length. But why was this guy in front of her different from those people?

After a bit of hesitation, she couldn't help but ask, "Did... did you end up getting poisoned somewhere? Is that why it's so swollen?"

Her voice couldn't help but soften up a bit.

Zu An was stunned. Then, he realized that she had misunderstood, so he could only explain, "There's no poison, this is just how it normally is. Maybe I am... just too blessed?"

He felt different saying this for some reason.

Yun Jianyue had lived for a long time after all. She quickly realized that she had misunderstood. Her charming face immediately became entirely red. She wanted to find a hole to hide herself in out of embarrassment.

She coughed to dissolve the embarrassment. "Go sit on the bed. I need to help you undo your seal... Um, also, remember to have your back towards me."

Zu An sighed in relief as well. To be honest, being looked at like this was a lot of pressure for him too.

When he sensed that she was sitting behind him to treat him, Zu An was stunned. "You're not taking off your clothes?"

"Why would I take off my clothes?" Yun Jianyue was stunned, and then she was furious. "What kind of nonsense are you thinking?!"

You have successfully trolled Yun Jianyue for +996 +996 +996...

"Nothing! I was just worried that your ki will surge as well. If we cannot get rid of it in time, then it'll be dangerous!" Zu An quickly explained. Meanwhile inside, he was full of regret. Didn't Xiaolongnu and Yang Guo both strip when they cultivated?[1]

Yun Jianyue said coldly, "Stop thinking random stupid thoughts! Move your ki through your dantian and relax your body. Do not reject my ki at all."

"Okay..." Zu An chuckled in embarrassment. He sat properly on the bed.

Yun Jianyue reached out her fair hand and pressed it against his back, her expression serious. She did her best to remove all unnecessary thoughts. While undoing the seal of the most powerful cultivator in the world, she couldn't be distracted in the slightest.

Zu An's suspicions weren't entirely wrong. Once the heat was released, there would indeed be some danger for her. However, how could she remove her clothes in front of another man? She figured that she should be able to deal with it with her grandmaster level cultivation. That was why she sent her ki into his body.

Zu An felt a powerful wave of ki enter his body. It was different from the scorching heat of the emperor, this ki was like the cool moonlight of the night. It unknowingly made one relax.

Unfortunately, this peace didn't continue for a long time. The seal the emperor left in his body immediately roared out like a dragon when it sensed that this aura was trying to undo it. It retaliated viciously.

Yun Jianyue did her best to contend against this power with a soft and firm force. The two powers tangled about each other. One moment, Zu An felt like he was being broiled, and then the next, he felt as if he was covered in ice.

Waves of white steam rose from his body. He felt as if he was in a steamer basket. He finally knew why she said that he had to take off his clothes.

Even Zu An's powerful body was suffering bitterly under the clash of these two powers. However, he had already experienced the brink of death several times. Compared to then, this wasn't much at all.

A hint of surprise flashed past Yun Jianyue's eyes. She actually knew just how much pain using brute force to undo the emperor's seal was. She didn't say it on purpose before because he always teased her. She wanted to teach him a lesson with this, yet the other party actually endured it, not even releasing a single groan.

She was quite impressed. Even though this man acted rather frivolously, he was a man of steel deep down.

Her voice became gentler as well. "Hold on a bit longer. The emperor's seal is already starting to loosen up."

She reached out her hand and patted on the other party's shoulder, and then he spun in place. She used this chance to strike his front and back acupoints with the stellar force she cultivated.

How powerful was the most powerful cultivator? Another grandmaster might not have been able to neutralize it.

However, the stellar force she cultivated touched upon the laws of time and space. She could even slow down and even temporarily suspend time to a certain extent.

She used the stellar force to temporarily sever the connection between the emperor's seal and Zu An's body. Then, she used the chance to slowly destroy this seal.

Of course, if the emperor was here himself, her stellar force wouldn't do much against him. However, she had confidence in dealing with some leftover power.

A while later, Yun Jianyue finally destroyed most of that terrifying seal. She sighed in relief. Suddenly, she noticed that something was pressing against her. When she lowered her head, she was first momentarily stunned. Then, her cheeks flushed red in rage. "Little bastard, you're courting death!"

Chapter 677: Strange Peace

She could still tolerate it if this kid was disrespectful towards her. But now, he dared to publicly disrespect her like this?

You have successfully trolled Yun Jianyue for +999 +999 +999...

She really was angry now. After all, she had her fair share of blood on her hands as the Holy Sect's secz master. She killed until rivers were formed out of blood when the court faced the Holy Sect in the past.

The temperature of the entire room dropped by several degrees. Zu An felt all of his fine hairs stand on end. He felt killing intent surge from the other party's eyes.

He quickly explained, "It's a misunderstanding! Big sis sect master, didn't you say that my ki will surge when the seal is undone? I can't control this!"

Yun Jianyue's eyes narrowed. She indeed recalled this. This really wasn't his fault. It wasn't he who had strange thoughts towards her, but rather because of the ki suring within his body.

But why did she feel so unhappy when she thought of this?

She subconsciously lowered her head and scoffed inwardly, so ugly!

The ferocious thing remained in her head for a long time. She was finally convinced that Zu An wasn't poisoned, but rather that he was just naturally like that. Those rapists from the past can't compare at all...

Ah!!! Yun Jianyue, Yun Jianyue! What kind of nonsense are you spouting?! He's so much younger than you, and also your disciple's lover! Stop thinking about it, stop it, stop it!

She did her best to calm herself down. She turned him around with a smack to his body, and then continued to break up his seal.

Zu An sighed in relief. It looks like he made it through this trial! Little guy, little guy, do you know that you almost killed me just now?

He had his back towards her, so he didn't notice that there was an abnormal redness by Yun Jianyue's neck.

A while later, Yun Jianyue's furrowed brows relaxed a bit. She was close to completely erasing the emperor's seal.

She took a deep breath, and then she slowly transferred the energy that was scattered throughout Zu An's body. She wanted to take out all of the emperor's remaining power in one go.

However, when her energy surrounded that seal, it was as if the seal the emperor left behind knew about its situation. Its aura became much more powerful. This seal that looked like a surrounded worm suddenly turned into a roaring golden dragon. It immediately became much stronger than before.

How could the seal of the most powerful cultivator in this world not have any trump cards?

Yun Jianyue couldn't help but remember Zu An's ferocious scene when she sensed this massive dragon that just appeared. Her heart began to pound crazily. She quickly focused her attention.

But this moment of distraction created an opening for the emperor's seal. It began to fiercely retaliate.

Pfft!

A mouthful of blood sprayed out of Yun Jianyue's mouth. Her eyes were filled with horror.

The emperor was just too terrifying! This seal could actually use her ki to replenish itself! This meant that it would continue to grow more and more powerful! Most of the aura that was destroyed before was instantly recovered. Now, it was instead launching a counterattack on her.

If Yun Jianyue was at her strongest, then even if this seal had some tricks, it wouldn't be able to injure her. However, she was already seriously injured, so her cultivation was greatly affected. It was now hard for her to withstand the retaliation.

She could even feel that this seal was about to enter her body and lock her up as well.

She was frightened when she saw this. She quickly used all of her strength to deal with this terrifying seal.

Unfortunately, the more she retaliated, the more nourishment the emperor's seal received, which made it more and more powerful. But if she didn't retaliate, then the seal would enter her body!

This was completely a two-fold poison! She was dead either way.

Yun Jianyue quickly thought about a way to deal with this. However, no matter what she tried, she could not stop the invasion of that golden power.

There was only one way, which was to directly explode Zu An's heart. This way, their connection would be separated, and the emperor's seal wouldn't have any living organism to live off of. She would then be completely free.

But...

She remembered how she was seriously wounded by the emperor in the palace, and then it was this man who saved her when she was in a desperate situation.

Later on, he even taught her how to sleep in the air on a rope.

The two of them slept on the same bed.

He was willing to risk saving her sect's members so that she wouldn't have to be in danger.

She remembered all the things that happened between the two of them during this period. In the end, the ki that was transferred to her palm wasn't released.

Forget it, he is Honglei's lover. I cannot kill him and make Honglei resent me for the rest of her life.

She continued to tell herself this.

As for the emperor's seal, she'll just think of a way to get rid of it herself later.

Suddenly, she sensed a wave of power surge from deep within Zu An. Even though this power was rather weak, the level was extremely high, even much higher than her grandmaster cultivation.

With the help of this power, it was as if there were suddenly reinforcements. The situation was suddenly reversed.

Yun Jianyue didn't let such a great chance go. She guided this pure wave of power into her body, and then her entire body received nourishment. In the end, it condensed into an even more powerful force to retaliate against the emperor's golden seal.

That golden seal was pushed back into Zu An's body step by step. Yun Jianyue didn't plan to let it go. It left her in such a sorry state earlier. She was definitely not someone who would just take that lying down!

That golden seal was pushed to the limit. It gave up on fleeing and retaliated with everything it had.

Yun Jianyue's expression grew grave, because a large portion of power became the seal's replenishment. With her current state, even after obtaining that mysterious pure energy's nourishment, it was still difficult to completely neutralize this seal.

It would be really bad if she ended up just like how she was earlier.

When she thought of this, she decided to stop for now. She'll help him eliminate this seal when she completely recovered from her injuries.

Right at this time, Zu An suddenly felt a swirling black hole like existence within him. There was a terrifying force that appeared.

Regardless of whether it was the golden seal or Yun Jiayue's energy, everything was sucked towards that black hole.

"This is..." Yun Jianyue's expression changed. She suddenly recalled the attack Zu An revealed when they first faced each other. This was precisely what her wounded self was almost defeated by in the rock garden.

She didn't hesitate at all. She completely severed the connection between that energy and herself. Even though she would lose some of her cultivation this way, she could still slowly recover it later. She might just lose all of her cultivation instead if she tried to contend against that black hole.

This rascal, I'm helping him get rid of this seal, yet he's actually trying to suck away my cultivation?

Yun Jianyue's expression grew cold. She slowly raised her fingers and prepared to stab them into the back of his head.

But she was suddenly stunned, because she noticed that the other party's eyes were closed. His body was shaking all over. He was unconscious.

Looks like the clash with the golden seal earlier knocked him out.

Yun Jianyue sighed in relief. She silently withdrew her long and slender fingers.

Not even she could stand against that golden seal's retaliation, so how could Zu An possibly do it with his cultivation?

"Just what kind of crazy technique did this kid cultivate?" Yun Jianyue frowned. In that instant, she could feel that the energy the emperor left within his body was refined by that black hole in his body.

Hmph, this kid really did profit from our disaster.

Yun Jianyue didn't want to stay here anymore now that she knew that his seal was gone. This man's body was getting more and more stiff. This was especially the case after the last struggle. Right now, his entire body was releasing astonishing heat. She felt extremely uncomfortable being so close to him.

She got off the bed and prepared to leave. However, when she stood up, she suddenly felt light-headed. An unprecedented feeling of weakness spread through her body. She had suffered too much just now.

Everything in front of her eyes went black, and then she began to fall. However, she reacted quickly as well. She subconsciously reached her hand towards the bed to support herself.

What followed left her completely stunned. Zu An was roused awake by the stimulation. He lowered his head, and then he looked at the long haired beauty before him. The two pairs of eyes stared at each other. This entire room entered a strange moment of peacefulness.

Chapter 678: Other Side Effect

And you said you weren't after my body! This was the first thought that appeared in his mind. However, he knew that his vital part was at the mercy of the other party, should he utter these words, she might just snap it off out of rage.

Yun Jianyue's breathing also became hurried. Her brain went completely blank in this instant. She had no idea how to deal with this type of situation.

All types of thoughts flooded her mind. Even though her heart was pounding, she still had to maintain the appearance of a grandmaster. She forcefully maintained a cold expression and said, "Would you believe me if I said that it was an accident?"

"Of course I would!" Zu An continued off of her words, "But can you please let go first? I'm about to burst from the grip..."

His veins were bulging, his expression a bit pained. He warned her carefully.

Compared to Qiu Honglei's fine, small hand, this woman's hand was like an iron clamp. If it wasn't because his body was much tougher than that of a normal person's, the hand of a grandmaster's could crush rock like tofu, and little Zu An wouldn't have stood a chance either.

Yun Jianyue snapped out of her daze at this time. Her small hand shrank back at lightning speed, and then she turned around. Her usually confident and carefree face was covered in a layer of unnatural blush.

She took a deep breath and calmed down her raging emotions. Then, she said with a feigned calmness, "I've already taken care of most of the seal in your body. The remaining bit was sucked away by a mysterious power in your body. Hmph, you've also sucked away some of my energy I infused into your body as well. If it wasn't because of Honglei, I would've already smacked you to death."

"Thank you, big sis sect master." Zu An said with sincere gratitude. He didn't completely faint, so he had a vague recollection of how dangerous the process was. During a moment of crisis, the Heaven Devouring Sutra within his body acted out on its own, swallowing up some of her energy. He felt a bit apologetic about this.

"The energies of an Earth Immortal and grandmaster will bring you tremendous benefits once you completely digest them." Yun Jianyue paused for a moment, and then she added, "But remember not to completely refine away the emperor's aura. You should at least leave an empty shell there, or else the emperor will be able to tell that you've already removed the seal. I'll teach you a way to prevent that, do it like this..."

Zu An was shocked. "Big sis really is old and wise! Otherwise, I would've celebrated too soon."

With his understanding of the emperor, if the other party found out that his seal was already removed, then he would definitely use an even more vicious method to deal with him.

"Old?" Yun Jianyue's brows were raised. She was extremely sensitive to this word. She harrumphed in annoyance, "Also, I don't know where you learned that sinister absorption technique. Remember, either don't use it, or silence all who witness you using it. Once news of this gets out, you'll become the public enemy of the world."

"Thank you big sis for the reminder." Zu An obviously understood what she meant. What was the most important part of cultivation? It was obviously your cultivation level! If someone could suck out another person's cultivation to strengthen themselves, then everyone would be frightened. They'll all join hands to get rid of him.

Yun Jianyue nodded when she saw his serious appearance. Looks like she didn't have to warn him too much. She thought of another matter. "Do you have any connections with the Holy Sect?"

Zu An was confused. He didn't know why she would suddenly ask something like this. "Uh... does my relationship with Honglei count?"

He originally wanted to say that the two of them had a special relationship, but he didn't say it out of consideration for little Zu An's safety.

Yun Jianyue: "....."

"I am asking you if you've cultivated the Holy Sect's Heavenly Devil Temptation before, or if one of your elders used to be a part of the Holy Sect."

She recalled that familiar source of power when she faced the emperor's seal. The power was of high quality, leaving even her shocked. She really was curious what that was.

Zu An shook his head. "I haven't. I'm already so handsome and suave, panties will drop wherever I go. Why do I have to cultivate your temptation technique?"

Yun Jianyue: “.....”

This kid really needs a beating as usual...

She thought to herself for a bit. It wasn't too likely for this fella to have cultivated the Heavenly Devil Temptation. After all, all those who have cultivated this were women, and the Holy Sect had always passed it directly down to an inheritor. There was no way they would've leaked it out to outsiders. What was even more important was that those who practiced this had to maintain their purity, yet the one in front of her... Hmph, who knows how many times he has done it already.

While she was thinking to herself, there was suddenly a mysterious pounding from her soul. Then a warm stream flowed through her entire body. She subconsciously clamped her legs together.

“What's wrong?” Zu An noticed that something was off and quickly asked with concern.

“Nothing!” Yun Jianyue was like a startled rabbit. She jumped back and widened the gap, as if she was scared that he would get closer.

Zu An was bewildered. Why are you looking at me like I'm some wolf? I should be the one who is embarrassed, right? Also, what can I even do to you with our gap in cultivation? I'm the one who's helpless if you try anything!

Sigh... If it really gets to that point, then I only have one request... please be gentle...

Yun Jianyue's expression flickered several times, as if she was experiencing great internal turmoil.

A while later, she finally straightened her trembling body. “You should work on refining the energies. I'm leaving first.”

Then, her figure vanished from the room. However, a second later, she reappeared by the entrance. “Don't tell anyone else about what happened today. If I hear even a tiny rumor, you're dead.”

After saying this, she left without even waiting for Zu An's response.

Zu An looked in the direction she left in confusion. Why does her voice sound so strange? She doesn't sound as cold and arrogant as usual? Her voice was even trembling a little bit like a little kitten... She was clearly threatening him, yet he didn't feel threatened at all...

Ahem, how is that possible? That unmarried old woman's cultivation is so high, and her willpower so firm, how can it possibly be what I'm thinking? She was probably injured while helping me with my seal, so she wants to return and get some rest.

He thus collected his thoughts and began to refine the powerful energies within him.

Meanwhile, on the other side, it hadn't been long since Yun Jianyue left Zu An's room. Her legs buckled. She grabbed the nearby railing to support herself.

A moan came out of her mouth. An expression of horror flashed past Yun Jianyue's eyes. “How can this be? I've already successfully cultivated the Heavenly Devil Temptation! How can I still be overwhelmed by lust?”

This technique was powerful, but it had all types of side effects as well.

Apart from not being allowed to lose her virginity before the technique is fully cultivated, there was one other shameful thing that she didn't tell Zu An. This was that when it was cultivated to the late-mid stage, she would become overwhelmed by lust. There were a few days every month where she would be overwhelmed by desire, tempting her to find a man to help her.

If she could make it past that period, then her cultivation would become a bit purer. If she could not, then her many years of hard work would be wasted.

The side effects of this technique seemed like it was made to prevent people from succeeding. Even though the Holy Sect was full of outstanding disciples, the ones who ended up succeeding in the end were pitifully few.

This was also the reason why she insisted on separating Zu An and Qiu Honglei.

Perhaps her obedient disciple could still control herself now, but that was because her cultivation hadn't reached that level yet. Once she entered the later stages and was overwhelmed by lust, if two harmonious lovers were near each other, then the difficulty of those days every month would become exponentially higher.

Yun Jianyue relied on her shocking talent and willpower to cultivate this technique to its peak. She finally broke free from the lust that would entangle her. So why did this reappear?

Even her incredibly firm will began to waver. It wasn't only because of the fear of being dominated by this technique in the past, it was also because of the fear towards the unknown.

If she still cannot break free of this state at her level, then what meaning was there left in cultivating this technique?

But she already couldn't be bothered to think about all of this. She hurriedly returned to the rear courtyard. That was where her private room was. Furthermore, this place was connected to a natural spring, so an indoor bath was set up. This was where she used to wash herself.

She rushed back to that room. A wave of energy flew out, locking down the door and windows. Then, she removed her clothes, exposing her sparkling white body, her long hair scattered down across her back. The black and white color formed a stark contrast. Her entire figure was giving off an intangible aura of seduction that would make any man in this world turn into an ape.

She knew that this was the result of her failing to control this technique. She quickly jumped into the ice-cold pool and soaked herself inside. Soon afterwards, the originally ice-cold pool began to boil.

Chapter 679: You Can Use Me

On the other side, Zu An was refining the tremendous energy inside of him. Regardless of whether it was the energy left behind by the emperor or Yun Jianyue, even though the amount wasn't that large, the quality was higher than any energy he had encountered before.

Well, other than those stupid old things in the secret dungeons.

He sat down on the bed and began to transfer the energies for his own use.

Even though the two energies were trapped within the black hole like vortex and could not escape, one belonged to an Earth Immortal, while the other came from a Grandmaster. They were both furious when an ant-like existence like Zu An actually wanted to devour them. They were frantically retaliating.

If it was just a seventh ranked cultivator, or even one at the peak of seventh rank, trying to absorb the energies of an Earth Immortal or Grandmaster was simply wishful thinking. They would be lucky if they didn't explode to death on the spot.

But Zu An wasn't a normal seventh ranked cultivator. His ki was far more dense than others at his rank. He even had this ridiculous Heaven Devouring Art, which was why he was able to refine the energies of these two powerful individuals.

Zu An focused on refining the energy while using the method Yun Jianyue taught him to leave behind an empty shell of the emperor's energy.

He needed to use the leftover energy as a bluff. As long as the emperor didn't investigate up close, he should be able to get by.

A while later, Zu An suddenly opened his eyes. Light flickered past his eyes. One of his eyes seemed resplendent like the sun, while the other was cool like the moon. However, they quickly returned to normal.

He took a look at his inner self and was pleasantly surprised. Previously, only three formations were lit up in his seventh layer. Now, there were already eight formations lit up, with only one the last one remaining before he broke through into the eighth rank!

Even though the amount of energy he received from the emperor and Yun Jianyue was small, the quality was much higher. That was why it was able to help him out so much.

He put on his clothes. It was already dawn outside. He pushed open the door and left.

He headed straight for Yun Jianyue's room. He reached out his hand to knock on the door, but he was pushed back by its seal.

"Name yourself!" Yun Jianyue's voice sounded.

"It's me. I have something to ask big sis sect master." Zu An was surprised. Why did her voice sound so... seductive?

There was a moment of silence. A while later, Yun Jianyue said, "Wait a bit."

A while later, the door slowly opened. Yun Jianyue's weary voice sounded from within. "You can come in."

Zu An walked inside. He saw that white steam was surging inside, as if this was a steam room. He was shocked. "What is happening?"

"It's nothing you need to make a fuss about. I just finished my bath." A hazy figure slowly walked out.

"You finished your bath?" Zu An was stunned. It was still nighttime when she left last night, while now, it was already dawn.

"Is that any of your business?" Yun Jianyue harrumphed. However, her voice was sweet with a playful hint.

Zu An frowned. He felt like there was something wrong with her condition.

Yun Jianyue only casually draped a nightgown over herself. Even though it wasn't transparent, the faint outlines were even more enchanting.

Her damp long hair casually fell behind her back, making a large part of her nightgown wet and sticking to her body. He could sense her incredibly seductive curves even from far away.

It was like a hibiscus flower that blossomed in a clear spring, a natural beautiful creation.

These words appeared in Zu An's mind, but he quickly tossed them out. What do you mean hibiscus? Only a peony or rose could describe how stunning this woman was.

Because the nightgown was sticking to her, when her delicate feet were exposed underneath, her toes seemed cute and lovely. Her calves were straight and fine, and her well proportioned thighs were also vaguely visible...

"Have you stared enough yet?" Yun Jianyue's playful voice sounded.

Zu An was startled. When he looked at her, he was met with an ambiguously smiling expression. He quickly explained, "I'm sorry! Big sis empress was just too beautiful, so I couldn't help but take a few more looks. Please forgive me for that."

At the same time, he was shocked. The usual Yun Jianyue would immediately scowl at him. She would never speak to him softly like this!

Yun Jianyue already casually laid down on a soft seat. She supported her head with one of her arms, and then her faintly discernible legs crossed together. She looked just like the imperial consort Feng Xiaolian as she looked at Zu An with an ambiguous expression. "Why did you seek me out at this type of time?"

So fucking hot! Zu An's eyes drifted towards her chest. Those fair white peaks were absolutely fatal! She was giving off astonishing levels of temptation that would make any man's mouth dry. All men would turn into beasts, unable to resist their urge to pounce over and tear apart her clothes, then press her down beneath them to ravage her...

Zu An gulped. He controlled these thoughts with all of his willpower. Meanwhile, he began to curse himself. What the hell is going on? Why am I like this?

He was worried that he might really completely offend her, so he didn't dare continue to look at her. He quickly shifted his eyes. "Ahem, I wanted to ask you when you guys were going to leave the capital. Please let me at least meet with Honglei before you all leave."

He was caught red-handed last night with her and forced to separate. It didn't seem like he would be able to meet with Qiu Honglei again for some time. He wanted a chance to say a proper goodbye.

"We're leaving at daylight." Yun Jianyue replied. She originally planned to stay for a while later, but after her eruption of desire last night, she was in a rush to enter seclusion cultivation. At the same time, she didn't dare remain in this kind of state outside. The sect was still safer.

Furthermore, there were many things that helped her cope with the episodes each month.

"You're going back so soon?" Zu An was alarmed. He didn't think that they would leave so quickly.

"What, you can't bear to see us go?" Yun Jianyue laughed. Her chest even moved a bit from how her body rocked back and forth.

Zu An sighed. A mature woman is definitely a mature woman! She's nothing like those young girls. At the very least, most girls can't compete with this kind of chest size... Ahem, Manman is an exception, she doesn't count.

"Of course I don't..." Zu an was about to reply, but he was suddenly stunned.

Huh? Wait, she used the word us?

What does that mean?

This woman would get mad at him when he just teased her a little bit. Why did their roles suddenly swap today, with her teasing him?

"Big sis sect master, you're okay, right?" Zu An could feel that there was something wrong with her condition from their earlier exchange. He couldn't be bothered to admire her stunning figure right now and asked with concern.

"It's nothing. It's just a small episode of heat." Yun Jianyue explained, as if she was saying something completely insignificant.

"Episode of heat?" Zu An frowned. He could tell just from the name that it wasn't something good!

Yun Jianyue gave him a rough explanation of what this episode of heat was, and then she said, "You should understand now why I insisted on stopping you from being with Honglei, right?"

She wouldn't have told him such a huge secret normally, but under this episode's effects, even though soaking in the water for an entire night got rid of most of the heat, she was still in an endlessly seductive state. She was much more open-minded than usual and had less reservations.

"So that's what it was!" Zu An's eyes shone brightly. Which genius came up with this idiotic technique? There are so many stupid side-effects!

"But big sis, haven't you already reached the pinnacle of the technique? Why are you still experiencing these side effects?" Zu An suddenly realized this issue.

Yun Jianyue's eyes were half open, as if she was extremely tired. "I don't know either, it suddenly appeared after I helped you undo the seal... Maybe it's because of the injury I received from the emperor, and then my cultivation dropped a bit when I fought with his seal. That's why I ended up like this... I should get better once I return and recover properly."

Zu An couldn't help but say, "Big sis, this episode of heat isn't a joke! You have to take care of yourself. If... I am only saying if, big sis sect master, you really need a man's help, you cannot find anyone else to help you. You can use me, I will definitely do my best."

Yun Jianyue was a bit moved when she heard his previous words, but the second half completely changed everything. She widened her misty eyes, and then a dangerous smile appeared on her face. "It seems to me like you're finally tired of living."

Chapter 680: Meticulous and Careful

This was already Yun Jianyue's second time saying something like this to Zu An. This kid was always testing her patience!

It really was strange though. Anyone else would've died many times over by now if they said something like that, yet she just couldn't do anything to this guy.

Zu An immediately smiled in apology. "I was saying if, haha, just if. If big sis sect master has no such plans, then we obviously don't need to talk about it."

Yun Jianyue yawned. Her red lips looked especially soft and enchanting. "Is there anything else? If not, get lost!"

She had been tormented by this stupid episode of heat all night and was already extremely tired. Even though she didn't mind chatting with a handsome and strong young man right now in her current state, her rationality still won out in the end. She really shouldn't be with him in her current state.

"I have one last question!" Zu An quickly said, "Who is your inside man in the palace? You can tell me this now, right? That way, we can help each other. Otherwise, it'll be really bad if we end up harming each other without knowing our identities."

Yun Jianyue shook her head. "You will know when it is time."

Zu An frowned. "You still don't trust me?"

Yun Jianyue explained, "This isn't a matter of trust, but rather that this person's identity is special. I promised this person that I will not tell a third person, so I hope you can understand. As for what you are worried about, that won't happen. That person won't harm you and might even help you."

"This person is that mysterious?" Zu An saw that she really didn't plan to tell him. He could only sigh. "I hope things are as you say."

He no longer let this bother him and instead said, "Then where is Honglei? I'm going to tell her goodbye."

Yun Jianyue harrumphed. "Wait a bit. I'll let you two meet when the sun rises."

Are you kidding me? It's still dark outside. What if you cannot hold yourselves back because you're about to separate?

Zu An: "....."

Who the hell are you being so wary against? Am I someone like that?

Zu An was quickly chased out of Yun Jianyue's room. He could only return to his room and go back to sleep. However, his head was filled with Yun Jianyue's seductive figure. There were several times where he almost couldn't hold himself back, but he still managed somehow in the end. He had just enjoyed Honglei's soft, little hands. He was even starting to look down on himself a bit.

After toiling an entire night, even though his thoughts were all over the place, he still gradually fell asleep.

The next morning, Piao Duandiao and Jiao Sigun both left their rooms at the same time by chance. Then, they exchanged a smile.

"How was last night?" A refreshed Jiao Sigun loosened his brows and quietly asked.

"It was a great battle of course. That girl continued to beg for forgiveness." Piao Duandiao said while sticking out his chest. However, he secretly rubbed his lower back. I'm so sore... Isn't this kind of bad?

"Really?" Jiao Sigun was suspicious.

Piao Duandiao coughed guiltily. The one who was begging for forgiveness last night was him. But how could he say that? He immediately changed the topic to escape his embarrassment. "What about you?"

Jiao Sigun replied with an 'oh'. "I asked that girl how much they normally charge."

"Oh?" Piao Duandiao was curious. He would never have a chance to be with a girl like this normally either. He wasn't clear on the prices.

Jiao Sigun said, "That girl told me that it was twenty taels on the ground and a hundred taels in bed. Do you know which one I chose?"

"The bed?" Piao Duandiao asked. Zu An was paying anyway, so they might as well enjoy themselves, right?

Piao Duandiao: "???"

Jiao Sigun said as if it was to be expected, "Even though Sir Zu is the one paying, we should try to help him save money as much as possible, right? With the same amount of money, I could do it five times on the ground instead of once on the bed. Isn't this more valuable?"

Piao Duandiao was completely stupefied. He was first shocked at how this man's head worked, and then he was shocked at his endurance.

Five times... five times...

This number continued to ring in his head. He was just too jealous!

"Sirs, there is no need for you two to wait. Young master Zu is resting inside." A maid quickly came to contact them.

"It's already morning, why does he still need rest? Can it be that big bro Zu is the one with some trouble down there?" Piao Duandiao cried out in delight. He finally regained some confidence.

Jiao Sigun quickly corrected, "How many girls did he have with him last night? Forget about five times, he might've even done it fifteen times. Sir Zu really is amazing. I'm left with nothing but admiration."

"Fifteen times..." Piao Duandiao's smile immediately froze.

Jiao Sigun said "Sir Zu worked for an entire night, so he should sleep a bit longer. Let's leave first and not disturb him."

"Oh..." Piao Duandiao shuffled his feet numbly. He thought to himself that he really needed to get some proper rest so he could get some respect from the others next time.

A while later, Yun Jianyue was roused awake from the knocking on the door. "Master, master!"

Yun Jianyue suddenly sat up. She subconsciously rubbed her legs. Her face was extremely red. Why did I dream about him? Ah!!! I shouldn't have treated that scoundrel.

The knocking on the door became more and more urgent. It was now more like a pounding.

Yun Jianyue put on some clothes, covering her stunning figure. She then undid the seal on the door.

"What is making you all nervous like that? You're not acting like a saintess at all."

Qiu Honglei walked inside unhappily. "Master, why are we leaving so urgently?"

"Something happened back at the sect, so we need to return as soon as possible." Yun Jianyue replied with a cold voice. She thought to herself that she'll explain it to her once they get back so that she didn't make a scene here.

She twisted her waist unnaturally while talking. The clamminess down there wasn't very comfortable.

Qiu Honglei's expression changed when she heard that something happened back at the sect. She wasn't the narrow-minded type, so she no longer refused to go back. "I only have one request. Let me meet with Ah Zu once before we go back."

Yun Jianyue was really annoyed when she heard this for some reason. She harrumphed. "Being obsessed with a man will only hinder your cultivation."

Qiu Honglei didn't back down at all. "That's only because master doesn't know anything about love..."

But when she saw her master's brows stand up, she changed her tone. "Ahem, master isn't someone any man in this world is worthy of. This disciple hasn't reached that level yet. Once I head back, I will focus on cultivation."

Yun Jianyue's brows finally eased. "Hmph. Have Leng Shuangyue accompany you so that you don't disappoint our clan morals."

Qiu Honglei's face turned red. Everyone else calls us the Devil Sect! What kind of clan morals are there?

But she didn't dare speak these thoughts and quickly left. When she reached the entrance, she suddenly turned around and gave Yun Jianyue a look. "Master, you're okay, right?"

"What could have possibly happened to me?" Yun Jianyue harrumphed. She dragged the comforter over her legs in an awkward manner. I need to take a bath after this.

Qiu Honglei was puzzled. She felt like her master was a bit off today for some reason. Normally, she was aloof and cold like the moon. She gave a natural feeling of alienation. Yet today, she seemed full of worldliness, and even she, as another woman, was starting to become stirred...

She quickly shook her head. I'm definitely overthinking things. How can anything happen to someone like my master?

She quickly rushed over to Zu An's room. Her maid Leng Shuangyue watched the two of them from the entrance. "The sect master has given me orders. I hope the saintess does not force me to do anything."

"All of you are so annoying." Qiu Honglei waved her hand and impatiently entered.

Meanwhile, in another extravagant guest room on the only road between the imperial palace and the government brothel.

A noble young master stood in front of a slightly open, second floor window sill. He gazed upon the street outside and said with a frown, "It has already been so long, why hasn't Zu An come out yet? It's already been a long time since those two eastern palace imperial guards left."

His subordinate next to him replied, "We've already sent someone to investigate. It is rumored that Zu An ordered a dozen courtesan queens and is currently sleeping."

"Hmph, that kid has some talent I guess." The noble young master harrumphed. "Unfortunately, I fear that this might be the last time he gets to act so carefree."
