

Chapter 11

William was very charming when he smiled. But all of a sudden, he became emotionless, as if he had changed into another person.

Valeria felt a little scared and continued to ask nervously, "You're being paid to do this, aren't you?"

"No way!" William was really angry.

Did this stupid woman take him as the partner of the woman who had set her up?

Valeria was irritated when the pimp denied so confidently and asked, "Then why were you on my bed? Are you sure that you haven't accepted Ashley's money? Aren't people of your profession paid to do that kind of thing?"

"That kind of people? Which kind of people, huh?" William became a little displeased.

He realized what was going on immediately after he heard what Valeria said. Now she thought that he was involved in the conspiracy and regarded him as a pimp.

William was speechless. How could there be such a handsome and rich pimp like him in the world?

He was amused by Valeria, who was truly innocent.

Seeing his reaction, Valeria became more annoyed and said, "What are you laughing at? Aren't you ashamed of yourself?"

Now William couldn't laugh anymore, and he replied seriously, "I don't know the woman you mentioned. The truth was that I helped you out of danger!"

But Valeria thought that he was talking nonsense, "Then why didn't you take me to the hospital?"

"I did, but you held me so tight at that time and I had no choice but to..."

William felt a bit guilty when he said so. He did not mean to take advantage of her at the beginning.

When he saw that Valeria was taken to the room by the pimp, he ordered the bodyguards to knock the pimp out, and was prepared to send her to the hospital.

However, Valeria could no longer control herself at that time. She kept cuddling him. William couldn't stand her temptation and had sex with her finally.

But Valeria did not believe William at all, and affirmed that he and Ashley set her up together.

She was so angry and didn't say anything with a poker face.

Seeing Valeria become more grouchy, William stopped explaining. After a while, they arrived at the parking lot of the Central South Building.

Valeria got out of the car after saying thanks angrily. William felt a bit unhappy due to her rudeness.

After he had explained so much, she still didn't believe him at all.

William sat in the car and watched her leave in a hurry. Then he took out a cigarette to light it.

Just a few seconds later, he saw Valeria stop suddenly as she approached the entrance to the South Tower.

As Valeria rushed to the building, someone stopped her with an annoying voice, "Valeria!"

She turned around and saw Ashley getting out of a white Porsche.

"Valeria, are you also here for Dad?" Ashley put a smirk on her face.

Hearing Ashley call Ronald daddy in such a natural way, Valeria felt extremely uncomfortable.

She looked at Ashley coldly without saying a word. And Mason got out of the car as well.

Ashley held his hand affectionately, "Mason and I also come here for Dad. How about we go together? By the way, Valeria, I just saw you getting out of a man's car. Who's that man?"
