

Chapter 12

Ashley was extremely surprised when she saw Valeria get out of a Maybach.

She remembered that Richard had a Maybach, and she couldn't help wondering the relationship between Valeria and him.

She just said it off the top of her head last night and did not expect that they would be a couple.

Whatever, she decided to frame Valeria again and make Mason hate her to the ground.

Meanwhile, Valeria felt bad after hearing what Ashley said. She thought, "Did the d*mn pimp give her a ride because of Ashley?"

Valeria did not understand why Ashley set her up again since she was already dating Mason. What the hell was she planning to do?

Now that Valeria could not figure it out, she did not say a word and just looked at Ashley indifferently.

Mason was extremely upset after hearing Ashley's words. Apparently, he had seen Valeria getting out of the Maybach as well.

But Mason still did not believe that Valeria had an affair with Richard. So he stared at Valeria and waited for her explanation, but he thought that Valeria's silence meant that she admitted it. 1

Mason became furious, and he glared at Valeria, "You shameless! I must be blind at that time!"

Valeria felt it was so ridiculous of Mason to be angry with her.

He was the one who cheated first and left her alone! And Valeria was the one who had been blind and fallen in love with such a scum.

Valeria walked away and didn't want to waste any time on them.

Mason couldn't stand Valeria's ignorance anymore, for she used to be gentle and always looked at him with a sweet smile on her face.

So he stop Valeria and assailed, "Who was the man you were with last night? Was that Richard?"

"What does this have to do with Richard?" Valeria looked at Mason unbelievably and thought, "Was he out of his mind?"

But Mason kept staring at Valeria angrily, "Then why did you get out of his car?"

"Why should I answer such a stupid question?"

Mason's unprovoked words had made Valeria feel annoyed.

Whether that car belonged to Richard or not, it was none of Mason's business.

And now he had no right to meddle in her affairs.

Mason was irritated when he heard Valeria's words, "I thought you were pure. But I can't believe that you hook up with Richard. Let me tell you what, you are nothing for him!"

Hearing this, Valeria trembled with rage. She retorted, "What makes you say so? If you still have a clear mind, you should remember what you said when you and Ashley were caught by me in the car that night, right?"

Of course he did. He was spotted by Valeria when he was having a sex with Ashley in the car at that time. However, he felt satisfied somehow when seeing Valeria's furious expression.

Especially when he thought that she had a relationship with Richard secretly. What's more, Valeria had an abortion before. It was time for Valeria to feel being betrayed.

That was why he broke up with Valeria without mercy.

But his only intention was to revenge and make her regret because of her disloyalty.

What he did not expect was that Valeria agreed to break up with him, and even soon hooked up with Richard.

Mason felt sucks for Valeria's indifference. He thought she should beg him not to break up with her. 🗨️

How could she just walk away and hang out with others so soon? 🗨️

Was it possible that his idea was exactly what Valeria was longing for?
