

Chapter 6

Valeria wandered along the streets despairingly until it was night time. Finally, she was exhausted and felt extremely hungry.

She took out her mobile phone and checked, but found no new messages. Ten hours passed and Ronald still hadn't called her.

Was he going to abandon her and stay with the shameless mother and daughter?

Abandoned by her father, Valeria felt desperate. She could not go back home now. What's more, her best friend Abbie Clark was on her vacation abroad, so she had no place to go.

Having no choice, Valeria went to the nearest Wolf Hotel. When she walked into the lobby, she bumped into Ashley.

Ashley was sitting in the lounge in a good mood with her mother Julie. And she was stunned when she saw Valeria came in.

After whispering a few words to Julie, Ashley strode over to Valeria.

"What a coincidence! Valeria, are you also here for dinner?" But Valeria didn't want to waste any time on this shameless woman.

But Ashley obviously didn't want to let go of this opportunity to irritate her.

So Ashley continued, "Daddy invites us to have dinner here. He has booked the best private room to treat us. Oh! And Mason will come later!"

Ronald didn't care about his own daughter, who had run away from home, but he had time to invite the shameless mistress and her daughter to dinner here. Valeria felt broken-hearted.

She tried hard to control her anger and said, "Stay away from me!"

Ashley didn't want to let her go and said, "Aha, are you angry? Here's another piece of hot news for you. Daddy asked us to live with him tomorrow. So Valeria, now your boyfriend and your home are all mine!"

Ashley proudly said that. Valeria believed that Ashley was planning something evil in her head.

However, Valeria was so exhausted that she almost fainted. Therefore, she ignored Ashley and walked away without saying a word.

Ashley was unreconciled for Valeria's indifference. And she kept irritating Valeria.

"Valeria, did you remember that night Mason and me had sex in the car? In fact, I did it on purpose. By the way, do you know why Mason broke up with you and chose to be with me?"

Valeria stopped when hearing what Ashley said. Indeed, she could not understand why Mason would give up her and chose Ashley. After all, she had an advantage in everything over Ashley.

Ashley smirked when she saw Valeria stop, "I told Mason that you have had sex with plenty of men and even had an abortion. He was so angry that he broke up with you!"

Valeria stared at Ashley in astonishment. How could this b*tch be so despicable?

At the same time, Ashley felt the pleasure of revenge when seeing Valeria's startled look, and she stared at Valeria coldly.

"This is just the beginning. My mother was supplanted in her lover's affections by your mother, and we suffered a lot for so many years. Now it's my turn to take back what belongs to us! I am going to kick you out of the Brown family. Everything you have will be mine in no time. Just wait and see!"

Valeria could no longer bear Ashley's provocation and slapped her hard.

This slap drained Valeria of all her strength, and she felt numb in her palm. However, Ashley did not dodge but bore the slap.

But instantly, she covered her face with her hand and said pitifully, "Valeria, calm down, please!"

Before Valeria figured out why Ashley suddenly changed her attitude, an angry voice sounded, "Valeria, you've gone too far!"

She turned around and saw Mason and Ronald come from nowhere.
