

Chapter 8

Ashley wanted to show off to make Valeria angry, but she was kicked out in the end. Now she felt extremely upset.

But she and her mother had gone through so many of these humiliations. Therefore, she did not feel much shame this time.

However, it was a different story with Ronald and Mason.

They were celebrities in B City and had never been humiliated by others before. Now they must be displeased. Ashley guessed. 2

Ashley thought that she must seize this opportunity to continue to sow discord between Mason and Valeria.

"How did Valeria get to know the boss of Wolf Group? She must be up to something. I think she set us up with others, did she?"

"Set us up with others? But who?" Mason asked.

"Maybe her friend, Abbie Clark? I heard that Richard Clark, the elder brother of Abbie, is on good terms with Marcus Field, who is the CEO of Wolf Group, so maybe..."

At Ashley's words, Ronald went mad with anger, "How dare she! It's time to teach her a lesson. I'll freeze her bank card right now!"

At the same time, Mason felt extremely unpleasant when he heard what Ashley said. He knew the eldest son of the Clark Family, Richard, who was outstanding. And he was like Prince Charming in B City.

"Did Valeria really hook up with him?" he thought.

"No wonder Valeria wasn't angry when she learned of his affair with Ashley," Mason thought. "It must have been a good thing for Valeria that I took the initiative to break up with her."

If so, wouldn't he be a joke? 🤔

At the hotel Valeria was led by the manager into the Moonlight Private Room. Looking at the delicious food on the table, she was still in a trance. 🍽️

Later, she found out that in Wolf Hotel, not only the service was top-ranking, but also the taste of the dishes.

Valeria was so hungry that she thought nothing but gobbled up the food.

She ate more than half of the exquisite dishes on the table. When Valeria got up, the lobby manager who had just led her showed up respectfully.

"Miss Brown, the suite is ready for you. Please come with me."

After a day's walk, Valeria felt extremely tired, so she did not refuse and followed the manager into the elevator.

The manager led Valeria straight to the presidential suite on the top floor, where the butler was waiting for her. When Valeria came, he helped her change her shoes respectfully.

After that, he said, "Miss Brown, the water for bath is ready."

"You can take a bath first. If you need anything, please do not hesitate to call me."

Valeria nodded and entered the room. The facilities in the presidential suite were said to be superb, but it was difficult to book.

The room was more than five hundred square meters, with a master bedroom, a secondary bedroom, a study room, and a maid room.

Although Valeria was born and brought up in a rich family, she was shocked by the luxury decoration of the presidential suite. Even the door handle was decorated with gold.

In the bathroom, the water had already been prepared for her. Valeria walked in and found there were rose petals floating on the water, with the facial mask and red wine placed beside the bathtub.

She fell into a good mood all of a sudden—it was the first time that she had been treated like this.

No wonder people said that the service in Wolf Group was incredible. Before that, Valeria never believed those comments. But today, she truly experienced it.

Soaking herself in the water with rose petals scattering, Valeria comfortably closed her eyes and began to enjoy.
