

Innocent Wife 21

Chapter 21

At the crucial moment, Olive's mobile phone rang. Olive's father's voice was in a hurry and panic, "Olive, your mother has a stroke and is in the hospital. Come and have a look."

Olive's mind went blank, "How did this happen?"

"I don't know. She was watching TV as usual, and she said she was about to pour a glass of water to drink. She fainted as soon as she got up. Now she is in emergency room."

"I'll be right over." After hanging up the phone, Olive put the bag in her hand and quickly got up. "Mr. Hoyle, I'm sorry I can't eat with you today. I had to go first."

The more anxious, the worse, she couldn't stop an empty taxi when hailing a taxi. Looking at the taxis flying past her without a taxi to stop, her face became pale and she stamped her feet with anger.

Alan drove up to her, "get in. I'll take you, but you have to show me the way."

Olive hesitated for only a second before she quickly opening the door and sitting up, "thank you."

Arriving at the hospital, Olive's mother happened to be pushed out of the emergency room.

"Doctor, how is my mother?"

"Doctor, how is my wife?"

Olive and her father asked simultaneously.

The doctor took off the mask, "Because of the timely rescue, she has no life danger, and will soon wake up, but she needs to stay in the hospital for observation for a few days."
