Chapter 22

Olive also felt sad that they were married for only three years. Before getting married, Chloe went through a rigorous two-year study period by Lynn Family.

It is often said that marriage has seven years of itching. However, three years of pain, they could not survive, let alone the seven years of itching.

The man who did something wrong did not feel guilty after being exposed. He even threw down a divorce letter and couldn't wait to look for mistress. If he could be trusted, the sow could climb a tree.

"Well, now that you are divorced, what's the use of mourning these things? He can give you roses and give others fireworks. This kind of man, you still cry for him, do not cry." Olive was so indignant that she accidentally blurted out.

"But I just want to cry." Chloe looked at her timidly, pitifully.

Olive lost her breath for a moment. "Cry, it's not a sin, but only one time, I'll pour you a glass of honey water. After you've finished crying, drink it down and go to sleep. you don't even know wear more clothes in the cold weather, your body is your own, take care of it."

Olive sworn turning on the air conditioner and poured the honey water.

Chloe hugged her waist, sniffed and coquetted like a child. "Olive, you're so sweet."

Love was gone, friendship was still there, there is a support when the sky falls.

Chloe finally fell asleep after she was tired of crying. Only her frown revealed her uneasiness in her dream at the moment.
