

Innocent Wife 25

Chapter 25: Is It You?

Alan looked at her coldly, "assistant Steele, you can confidently and smoothly present the date about the ten years in the meeting, and even made the analysis to the point. Do you think I will believe that you didn't complete the preparation of the meeting materials?"

Olive was starling, this man was quite wise. She felt his black eyes, as if with a sharp light and would penetrate her body. She had to smile, and wanted to told the boss that he was wise, but in the end she just installed into a lady.

"Tell me what happened."

Olive thought about it, since he has said it, so she confessed it honestly, "my computer was cleared, the printed materials were putted into the shredder, but I didn't know who did it."

The results of hard work in a night, just like the wasted water, although there was a suspect, but without evidence in hand, so she can't say who is the suspect.

"You offended someone?" Alan asked.

"I've offended so many people."she smiled.

The culprit was so far away, and also so close to her eyes.Perhaps he wasn't self-aware, so she didn't mind to remind him .

"You don't look like a troublemaker." Alan determinedly.

"But sitting here is different, now I'm a thorn ."

Alan raised his eyebrow, "your meaning is blaming me?"

"No." Olive was humorlessly.
