Chapter 251 The Neighbour Upstairs.

"It's none of your business." Chloe said coldly.

Bruce staggered over and held her shoulder. Chloe was sick of him, but she stood still. He was just a drunken maniac.

"You are my ex-wife. We have been in love for a few years, so I am worried about you."

"No need."

"You are quite good. You can support a toy boy after leaving Lynn family. You sing in the bar to earn money. Don't be cheated by others." Bruce's fingers ran across her face.

Aoba's face was not good. It was the first time that someone called him a toy boy. However, he just stood aside to watch the play, wondering how the woman would fight back.

Chloe felt like an earthworm crawling over her face. She raised her hand and grabbed Bruce's hand. Suddenly, she broke it back and pushed him away.

As Bruce screamed like a dying pig, she said with a smile, "that's my business. Mr. Lynn shouldn't care about it too much."

She really can't understand why she fell in love with such a disgusting man.

Bruce immediately woke up. When he was so angry, he raised his hand and was about to give Chloe a slap. Seeing that it was about to fall on Chloe face, Aoba moved and stopped him.

This guy, he always deliberately misunderstood what she said. Chloe glared at him, got into the car and slammed the car door shut, as she's out of luck that she should know such a lunatic as he as.

Aoba whistled all the way, looking cheerful.

Chloe said angrily. "Stop whistling, as it sounds like noise, and don't you think it's awful?"

"Don't you specialize in music, old maid? You really don't know how to appreciate music."

"Sorry, I really don't appreciate music at the same level as Master Yang." Chloe shot back his words coldly. This guy, when he coaxed her, he said she was still very young, but when he deliberately made her angry, he called her "old maid" all night, which made her want to beat him.

However, Chloe restrained herself in order to prevent herself from falling into his trap, for she didn't know what he was plotting against her in his heart.

Aoba said with a smile. "I don't think of myself as a Master because I'm just a regular guy who likes to draw, but if you don't change your bad temper, you risk going into early menopause, like an old woman."

What he said sounded really poisonous, as Chloe wanted to throw him out of the car. "It doesn't matter to you whether I am an old maid or whether I am an old woman."

Aoba turned his head, looking at Chloe, while her side face looked as cold as ice. "You ate gunpowder? Didn't you just run into your ex-husband? It makes you look terrible all night, and if women worry too much, they get wrinkles on their faces very quickly."

Chapter 253: Reminding or tempting

Chloe broke into a cold sweat because if he was the Hoyle's member, was he there to deal with Olive, or did he have some other ulterior motive?

Early in the morning, Chloe had dark circles under her eyes, and when she saw Olive preparing breakfast, she put her hand over her mouth as she asked, yawning. "Busy woman, don't you have to work today?"

Since taking over the hotel, Olive has been as busy as a spinning wheel, so Olive has not had the leisure to cook in the kitchen for a long time.

Olive, wearing an apron, looked back at Chloe. "I'll go to work after I finish cooking, and why did you get up so early today?"

Because of Chloe's nightlife, if nothing else happened, Chloe would sleep until eleven o'clock in the noon, while it was just after seven o'clock in the morning, so Chloe got up early enough today.

After Chloe drank a glass of warm water, she cried out aggrievedly, putting her arms around Olive. "Honey, I can't sleep."

As Olive saw that Chloe's eyes were swollen and Chloe looked listless, Chloe really seemed to be sleepless all night. Olive put the Fried egg in the bowl, put a raw egg in the pan, and then joked. "Which man are you thinking of?"

"Will you find me a man?" Chloe gently rubbed on Olive's arm with her head.

I'll introduce them to you. As I can make an appointment for you, you can meet one of my colleagues at Waittingbar this evening." Olive looked serious, saying. But Olive didn't know how Chloe would

As they spoke, Olive's phone, which was in her pocket, began to ring.

Turning off the fire, Olive wiped her hands on her apron, and then she took out her phone, seeing that it was an unfamiliar number. She frowned slightly, wondering who had called her so early.

It wasn't because she hasn't had a nuisance call since she even had a nuisance call in the middle of the night as the phone rang and then abruptly stopped. But apparently, the caller had the spirit of perseverance at this point, so she had to press the answer button, answering the call.

"Hello, who's calling?"

"Miss Steele, there's something I'd like to ask you." She heard a strange male voice, whereas it was as if she had heard his voice, while what he said was terse and cut to the chase.

"Who are you, please?"

"This is He'Zizhong from the criminal Investigation Team." The man introduced himself.

Olive suddenly remembered him, and no wonder his voice sounded familiar to her. On the day of Qing Ling's accident, she had a brief conversation with him, but she still needed to say something polite.

"Hello, Mr. He, I just wanted to speak to you."

In any case, the case of Qing Ling was like a knife hanging over their heads, as the Qing's members have not yet challenged them openly, but the Qing's members have played a lot of tricks and intrigues against them secretly.

"Well, why don't we have a cup of coffee? I'll be waiting for you at the Lao Shu cafe at 9 a.m."

He Zizhong said with a smile, "gossip heroine get involved in a murder case. How can those entertainment weekly newspapers let you off? They are the flies. Where there is gossip, where they go. They even are willing to dig out every backgrounds of you."

Olive was silent. What he said was true. Nowadays, there was a kind of immoral profession called paparazzi. There was a group called paparazzi. They were all pervasive and liked the privacy of others. If they asked directly, it was better. Olive was afraid they had mean ways. They may use all kinds of illegal means and then use rich and vicious and sensational imagination. They made up all various of powerful news, scandals and secrets.

But some celebrities were willing to cooperate with paparazzi to achieve a win-win situation. But she, Olive Steele, remembered a sentence like that: people were afraid of being famous while pigs were afraid of being strong. She just wanted to have a peaceful and quiet life.

He Zizhong continued, "the Qin family will come to you soon."

"I can escape one time but I can't escape forever." Olive sighed gently. She can't avoid all the time. Besides, she has not seen the news on the Internet. It was estimated that the reporters would not write good things about her. She was curious about why Mr. He reminded her of these things, "can I understand that Mr. He is helping me?"

"Miss Steele have Alan Hoyle as your supporter. How can you need small person's help like me?" He Zizhong smirked.

Olive couldn't tell whether his tone was a taunt to her, or something else. Anyway, it was meaningful. It was very likely that she was regarded as the kind of woman who had vanity and liked money. She didn't want to explain, but she just smiled, "Mr. He must joke. In this case of Qin master, I hope Mr. He pay more attention, and find out the murderer as soon as possible."

Ted had a kind of embarrassment of being found out, "that, you already knew?"

"I've just heard about it, but I haven't surfed the Internet yet. It must not be a good thing." Olive laughed, as if nothing was important.

"They're just talking nonsense." Ted looked indignant. For this boss, he wanted to protect her.

"Ted, thank you for your trust. Can you help me to restore the network now?" She always had to know how to deal with Mrs. Qin's censure after she knew the gossip on the Internet.

"Olive, no matter how people vilified you on the Internet, I believe you." Ted touched the back of his head, said such a sentence, and went to repair the network.

As a matter of fact, he also knew that the news was spreading so fast that even if he had the intention to prevent her from seeing those filthy slanders, she would still know the rumors.

Although she has not witnessed the power of network gossip, she has known something.

Chapter 257 The Battle in the Interview Room

The news on the Internet must have spread in the office. The people at the door were suspicious, sympathetic, and unbelievable. Someone said, "Mrs. Qin, there are some inexplicable anonymous posts on the Internet. You can conclude that Manager Steele has hurt your son? Is it too ridiculous? Can we also doubt Wanda group wants to deal with Angel Holiday Hotel and kicks Angel Holiday Hotel when it is down? That post may posted by you."

"That's it." Some people continued, "how can a good woman like Manager Steele be that kind of vicious person? She wouldn't encourage others to kill your son!"

"If you want to vent, wait until the case is solved."

Olive suddenly found that she had a good relationships with the employees in Angel Holiday Hotel. At least, some people stood by her. They did not waste her hard work in the past few months. She can't help but smile, "Mrs. Qin, you said I am a tease. Do you have any evidence to prove that I seduced your son? I don't know your son very well."

She didn't accuse her son of malicious harassment and Mrs. Qin convicted her.

Mrs. Qin said, "You seduce my son, and seduce other woman's fiance. Everyone in Angel Holiday Hotel Hotel knows that Alan is the fiance of Miss Meyer. You break their love. It's shameless when Hoyle's family won't accept you, you come to seduce my son."

"So Mrs. Qin has met Miss Meyer." Olive said it meaningfully.

Originally Olive just tested Mrs. Qin but Mrs. Qin's slightly changed expression still gave her the answer. Ophelia must pour oil on the fire. Alan had been with her for a long time. How could this arrogant and vicious Miss Meyer be so calm? She was waiting for an opportunity. Finally, she can't hide.

Once the Meyer family intervened, it would be more difficult for them to deal with this matter than vice mayor Qin's intervention.

Olive waved and said, "you should do your work well. Don't let some people get your faults and wait for me to come back."

She meant something. Qin Maoran was still calm, but he frowned slightly. Olive found it.

She can understand the sadness of losing a son. But if they wanted to trap her, she can forgive. It was really sad for Qin Ling to have such parents.

They went out the gate of the hotel. There were many reporters around them immediately. The lights blinded people's eyes. Olive can know what they asked without hearing. Everyone had curiosity let alone the reporters who satisfied the curiosity of the public. Therefore, the problem became sharper and sharper. They let her stand on the moral judgment platform.

Olive ignored these problems and got into the police car quietly with the protect of two policemen.

The reporters seemed to be reluctant to give up. They kept pressing the shutter close to the window, hoping they could give her more close-up shots.

Olive pouted, "the jokes you tell can really freeze people to death."

Even if Alan really wanted to take the revenge for her, would he be found so easily? He must be stupid. Kent, obviously, was not an ordinary person. If he really wanted to solve a man, he could done clearly. People like them, hated to have a chat with the police. How can they get themselves into trouble?

Originally, it was just the enmity between Angel Holiday Hotel and Wanda group, but now Alan was involved. Wasn't it too weird?

Olive suddenly realized something. She was afraid that the pusher behind was not just Qin Maoran's vice mayor brother. Qin Maoran would only dare to offend Geve family. He did not dare to provoke Hoyle family. Alan was a native in Jiangcheng, and the mayor of Luo city was too ambitious to deal with the man of Jiangcheng.

That man turned and faced Olive with his arms around the chest arrogantly. He sat on the table. "Miss Steele, to be honest, Alan is not only our target, but also the police in Jiangcheng. We already have the evidence of drug trafficking and money laundering. Since Miss Steele is a confidant of him, you must know a lot of things. Those who know how to choose are wise. "

"I'm sorry. I'm just a woman, not a wiser." Olive replied coldly. He really thought she was born yesterday? She would believe what he said?

After all, a tall tree caught the wind. But there was no strong hand, and it was not easy to shake the foundation of Hoyle family.

So, the arrest warrant can prove that such a hand has already appeared?

She was at unease. She didn't dare to face their interrogation, but was worried about Alan's safety.
