The Innocent Wife of Scheming President

Chapter 30: A Tough and Vicious Woman

"What's wrong with you, Olive?" Chloe was anxious about her when she heard this.

"It's all right, just a cold. I've already taken medicine and injections." Olive said.

Chloe looked at her, then looked at Alan. She winked at her wearing an air of clearness.

Olive pretended to be missing.

As soon as Alan left, Chloe was eager to gossip, and she rubbed vigorously against Olive and asked, "Who is that? The boss personally sent you back. There is something fishy behind this. Dose he like you? Golden bachelor? Is he pursuing you?"

"Why, are you interested?" Olive retorted calmly. Then she picked up her daughter and kissed her.

"What's I have interests? I'm looking for the right person for you."

Olive rolled her eyes at her and said, "He has a fiancée. They will get married in the spring next year. Would you let me become the third party?"

"That's a pity." Chloe can't help feeling regretful.
