

Innocent Wife 34

The Innocent Wife of Scheming President

Chapter 34: You Broke Too Many My Principles

Olive and Ivy had an argument about where to have the dinner. Both looked after each other's love. In the end, they solved it half joking by rock, paper, scissors.

When Alan walked out, he saw the sunlight of winter was jumping on Olive's face like and her face was like a blooming winter jasmine, so warm, free and outgoing. She did not avoid laughing or playing that may arouse suspicion even though the street was busy.

The intimacy between Ivy and Olive burned Alan's eyes. His face became gloomy gradually.

Olive Steele, if you were really the girl, had you already forgot the oath we kept that day? Did you think that I was blind and easy to tease so you made up a game of finding to play me?

But Olive, were you the girl or not? Why your sight on me was such strange? And why there was only you are giving me the similar strong feeling that I could not get rid of it.

"I'd like to collect all the information about that man." Alan always believed in his feeling. Ivy the man, Alan seemed him a hostility now.

" Yes." Dave looked at his boss with worry. He moved his lips but finally he said nothing else.

Olive lost to Ivy. After they hung around, when the grew a little dark, she was led to a 100 years history hotpot restaurant. The business was extremely good here. A lot of cars were parking outside the restaurant and some of them came here from far away since they heard the fame.

They could not even find a place to park the car so they could just park the car hundreds of meters away was in hurry to catch a movie leaving the restaurant and the seat was just beside the window. It was quite good since they could see the views of each other's hand. That unabashed youth was just like her in the past. She supported her chin by hand and could not help to sigh with emotion," It is good to be young,

now? Pretending

"Olive ridiculed herself. She seemed rolls, fish slice, beef belly, shrimps and vegetables was a extremely boss?" Ivy asked the whole company changed a owner. I don't to keep a good condition of their skin. They are afraid of having pimples. But you are which one can eat and which one is not will make the life very boring, isn't it? And they will lose watched Olive far away. He broke too many seething with people and full of hot vapor. She was in there and talked around but that did women he knew. Controlled the amount of eating to keep girl was good at cooking.