The Innocent Wife of Scheming President

Chapter 543 Let her go

"Are you still thinking about betting with me?"

"Why not? I bet at most twelve o'clock pm, your place will be found."

"Don't start daydreaming. If Alan Hoyle can find here in two hours, he is simply a living immortal." Susan locked the door confidently.

Olive Steele's stomach churned.

Mrs. Hoyle saw that her face was not good, "Are you all right."

Olive Steele turned her head and retched a few times, Little Baby Hoyle, you must be well and don't mess with Mom.

Husband, when will you come to save us?

When she felt better, she smiled at the old lady with a pale face, "It's okay, don't worry."

She looked at the food on the ground, frowned, moved over, picked up a bowl and moved to the wall, stood up slowly against the wall, and then dropped the bowl on the ground.

The bowl was broken into several pieces, which was the effect she wanted.

Mrs. Hoyle was taken aback, "What are you doing?"

"How can we eat without untying?"

Grinding and cutting the rope was a painful process, and the wrist was strangled with blood, and it hurt fiercely.

"Mom, be tough, Alan will come to save us soon."

"Don't comfort me."

The rope broke, and Olive Steele chuckled, "It's done."

She quickly untied herself first, then the old lady, and helped her to rise, "Move first."

The old lady said, "We still can't escape this prison cell."

"Trust me, Alan will find here soon." Olive picked up the remaining bowl of food on the ground and handed it to the old lady, "Come on, you can eat some first."

The old lady pushed back to her, "You eat first, you are pregnant."

"I've slept for so long. I'm not hungry. You eat." Olive Steele forced the bowl into her hand and found a clean place to sit down.

Actually, she was very hungry.

She touched her belly quietly, Little Baby Hoyle, you have to be strong and patient, and Dad will come to save us.
