

Innocent Wife 62

The Innocent Wife of Scheming President

Chapter 62: He Has Waited Too Long

Alan thought that he was very smart, but he mistook by his smartness. He thought that he has found his girl and enjoy himself in this joy, but this wipe of blood mercilessly shattered a little hope that he had rose hard.

What's the problem?

The feeling of suffocation made Olive's brain gradually lack oxygen. At the moment, when she was on the verge of losing consciousness, the tight hand suddenly loosens. The air was reinjected and Olive coughed violently.

When the breath was calm, she realized that the bondage on her hands had been unraveled.

And Alan, he was sitting on the bedside in a daze.

Alan, like this, seemed to have lost all the glory, she never saw him in this state even though in the days when he was blind.

Suddenly, he got mad and hit with one punch and then the beautiful lamp beside the bed fell to the ground.

The broken pieces of porcelain cut his hand, and blood fell down on the white sheet along his fingers, dizzying into a startling red.

Olive's eyelids jumped suddenly and her heart ached terribly, but she had to pretend to be indifferent. She got out of bed and picked up the bathroom towel on the ground and wrapped around herself, and then walked towards the bathroom.

"I'm sorry." He said suddenly behind her.

Hearing this, Olive suddenly want to shed tears. Finally, he believed that she is not his girl, right? He may never bother her anymore.
