

Innocent Wife 63

The Innocent Wife of Scheming President

Chapter 63: He Smokes for the First Time

When he came out of the bathroom, instead of dealing with the wound, he went to the liquor cabinet and filled himself with a glass of spirits. He let the blood scab itself at the wound.

In fact, he did not have a hobby of alcoholism, usually, he just drank a little for entertainment.

As for his identity, he would not be piled with drink, but tonight, he suddenly wanted to be drunk and lost all his mind.

Olive Steele, why aren't you my girl? Do you know that you are the first woman who can raise my feeling, but it turned out to be just an illusion?

This damn illusion.

Alan pulled his hair in a restless way. She was no longer his girl. How could he worry about her?

The next day, he woke up from his drunkenness and then he even went to knock on her door. He was afraid of that she will do something silly.

But her room was empty and her luggage also disappeared. She may go back to Luo City.

It's good that she has gone. Otherwise they may feel embarrassment.

At this time, his mobile phone rang. Alan looked at the number and answered, "Aoba, what's the matter?"

can't find the same matching heart, she may lost her life this winter, brother, you should come back hurriedly, Mom talked about you every day, she said you love work more than your life."

and then he called Dave. "Book go to Luo city first?" Previously, Dave had booked two days later's flight from in the name of work. Now people are no longer that city for one person. If there is no one, the Olive got off the plane, and the cold wind of Luo city came to her. She tightened up her windbreaker on her, and passed through the wind sky was dark, it just like her mood, and she could not half an hour. After she bought tickets and she found a seat close to window. She put her face on the Miss Steele is really a smart person, understood everything by one hint."

A woman who needed to ensure her status by threatening others must some pleasure in her misfortune. She could bless everyone, but she couldn't bless this woman. She didn't want to be a good person, and then she sent back a message guard against other beautiful

"This is my business, just afraid Miss Meyer was too busy in doing this thing." after answered this words, Olive pulled out the card and broke it in two and then threw it out of the driven toward the direction of the would be bad. With this woman's suspicious nature, her desire for control would become stronger and stronger. How could Alan be manipulated by

She can do something that will destroy the relationship between

This depends on people

her heart gradually calmed down. But she still tried to find out whether there are

Has anything special happened

"our neighbor's daughter-in-law gave birth to