

Innocent Wife 64

The Innocent Wife of Scheming President

Chapter 64: She Has Her Life

With a childish voice, she drew a room of laughter.

Olive picked up her daughter and made several circles in the middle of the living room, she kissed her little face, which made the sound of continuous pattering. The kiddy giggled happily.

Only when she looked at her daughter's innocent smile, she just felt that her mood was slightly broad. She tried to keep herself from thinking about Alan, but that name, that man would still creeped into her mind.

She spent her time on doing this jigsaw on the plane flying back, she had to do something to keep herself from making blind and disorderly conjectures, but she failed to finish this jigsaw in the end.

Her Annie, her baby must be better than mommy in the future.

The next day, it was Sunday. Olive led her whole family on a tour of the underwater world with her hard-earned savings. The swimming fish were kept in every huge glass tank, they were colorful.

Annie was so excited, she did candid photography everywhere after learning to use camera. From time to time, she posed for adults to take pictures of her as a memory, just like a little star.

Children were more or less afraid of huge monsters, such as walrus, which was an ugly creature with the odd appearance, many children dared not approach. But under the leadership of the trainer, her Annie touched them bravely and curiously, she also caught small fish from the barrel to feed them. It scared Olive so much, she was afraid that its sharp and long tusks would hurt her baby.

giggled happily, there was no expression of fear.

are fearless, which the bravest girl in the world, but Alan, you can't see this.

this winter, you would marry your fiancée. You would have children, they would call you daddy. But my Annie could she said that she went to the bathroom so that left for a while. She was afraid that her unhappiness would be seen by them.

of cigarettes and a lighter in a small shop at the entrance of the pavilion and then leaned against a nearby tree trunk to smoke. It was drink. But it turned out that cigarettes were more uncomfortable

I thought you fell into the toilet, away her cigarette butt, so she just didn't hide it "Well, you're a woman. Can you rubbed her "You are disappointed gave her a white look, "I am not in love yet, who loved was a little angry. Olive, this woman,

Olive sighed and smothered the cigarette butt on the trunk, then she threw it into the garbage can next to her "Actually, it's