

Innocent Wife 66

The Innocent Wife of Scheming President

Chapter 66: Empathy

The shop's business was booming, there are many customers here. The strange words said by Olive has attracted many people. Her ex-mother-in-law was most afraid of losing face and always pretends to be noble. She would like to see how long the noble and arrogant Mrs. Lynn's so-called elegant demeanor can be maintained in the public.

It's not that she was bad. It's just that good people will also not get good rewards. Why pretend to be good in front of evil people?

There was a saying that "Say the right words to the right people", she really didn't want to respect her ex-mother-in-law today.

Sue's face was as gloomy as if she was going to kill her. "You have a good eloquence, I know you used to pretend to be obedient."

Chloe sneered, "I am pretend to be like that, but I can't compare with you, I can't reach anything that you have pretended to act well, if you like, I really want to worship you as a teacher."

"All right, Chloe, just forgive it, all in all, you have called her mother for several years." Mother Steele gave her a faint look. The woman who had been kind to people all her life felt that since Chloe had nothing to do with that family, there was no need to hate it anymore. The most important thing was to look forward.

Sue Hudson, however, did not appreciate it. She snorted, "I know why you can so brave today, because you are supported by them, just some guys coming from the countryside."

Later, when he was laid off from work, he became to be rich. Therefore, Chloe always feels that this old woman always so superiority, just wants to cover up the fact that she was born in poor, she couldn't help but smile gently, "Yes, mom is right, I should not dispute with adults, so as not to teach children to look down on people, and forget the ancestral origin."

there was a rare opportunity to beat this woman, she should speak it out of course. She was not a man, nor was she a gentleman.

naturally angry and stretched out her hand to slap her.

house, and nobody helped her. Now that I have recognized her as a nominal foster daughter, I will regard her as my own filled with tears, her parents would never support her. They would only ask her for money. But the foster father told everyone loudly that he would regard and man be so great?

is said that you and Mr. Lynn have divorced, besides there is because of another woman, but also because you did not get along well with your mother-in-law for a long time, you. Your mother-in-law has been very strict with you, despising your origin. Are these all true?

a little adult. " Uncle, you're so stupid."

said that your mother-in-law once suspected you had stolen her expensive jewelry necklace and punished you to kneel all day in the rain. Is that true?"

plays tricks behind her, and framed her up."

that doesn't mean she's a fool. At that time, she was touched by Lynn Bruce's trust in her. When he was on business, he came back as soon as get off the plane. When he entered the house, he