Chapter 71: Man's Face And Beast's Heart

"Although it didn't hurt his bones or muscles, he still suffered losing blood and brain concussion. He needs to stay in hospital for observation for a few days. And the first thing he woke up, he asked me to give you this card." Dave Harrod suddenly did not understand the woman in front of him, according to his understanding, she will not accept the money easily.

Olive did not know how to answer him, with a slight mocking smile, lowered her head to stir the coffee in the cup. He's fine, that's fine, but in that case, she can only say it in her own mind.

"That little girl, is it your child?" Dave asked suddenly.

Her hands hook, and the coffee almost was stirred out the cup. She looked up, opened her mouth, shook her head, and said emphatically, "No."

"But I heard her call you mommy."

"Of course, my foster daughter calls me mommy, isn't she cute?" Olive's eyes curved and smiled.

"It's true, you are so young, how could you possibly have such a big daughter." Dave smiled thoughtfully.

Olive gently sighed of relief in the bottom of her heart, fortunately, she cheated him successfully. She inadvertently looked out of the window, through the twilight, the street light had been lit, across the road, she saw the Chloe and Bruce clearly. They were making fuss and looked excited.

Bruce still needed help from Alan, he will wasn't so stupid that to offend Alan's trusted subordinate, "since it is fortunate to meet Mr. Harrod on the street, as well, so, It's my honor to invite Mr. Harrod a dinner at Ju Hai building tonight."

His look turned faster than the wind.

Dave smiled and said, "Thanks for your invitation, but I have to catch the plane one hour later. I'm afraid it will make Mr. Lynn disappointed. I have a few words that I want to tell Miss Steele in private. May I ?"

Bruce knew that this was his excuse, but Dave had said it, he just had to leave firstly. When he left, he did not forget to give a warning to Chole with his eyes.

Chole stared back at him defiantly.

Although the power of woman and man were different, but it can not mean she can only be beaten, he should not think that she was afraid of him. But at the bottom of her heart, it was still so pain, after all, she once loved the man.

Bruce's car went away, Olive thanked Dave, "Dave, thank you for the help."

"That's alright, I am also a man, I cannot bear to strike a woman. But Olive, can you tell me honestly, whether you already know Mr. Hoyle before?" Dave, who always had a gentle eyes, now stared sharply at her face.

I stepped on his heel in the elevator before he took over Hengdu."Olive smiled.

Nevertheless, Chloe also fiercely slapped on him. This kind of man, who not only had excessive emotions but dared to beat his ex-wife without any sense of guilt, just deserved it.

"Hey, I'm still skeptical although I have thought over carefully."

Olive threw a white eye at her, "Do you want me to answer your questions?"

"Of course." Chloe nodded and be close to her, "Olive, you honestly answer me, why did the assistant Harrod deliberately inquiry you about the things happened five years ago, which is strange?"

Olive was a little nervous. Finally, the woman still caught the point, so she said calmly, "Is this very strange?"

"Of course, our daughter is over four years old this year. Plus the ten months during the pregnancy, it is just five years. So, have you ever had the secret relationship with Mr. Hoyle who is hypocritical long time ago?" Chloe was so excited about her own supposition that she seized Olive's sleeve. She was curious about who was Annie's father, but the woman just didn't tell her.

Olive helplessly poked her forehead, "Even if what you said is true, but he didn't know me before, will it be self-contradictory?"

"Yes." Chloe was confused. it was obvious that she had got some clues. But she just couldn't understand the relationship between them. As soon as the elevator door was opened, Olive stepped out. Chloe suddenly thought of something, "Hey, didn't you have a one-night stand with him? For example, a couple of drunk men and women met accidentally. The next day you woke up first and fled, so he didn't know you."

Olive glanced at her and sprinkled some onions into the pot. "What?"

"For example, this man doesn't know who you are, but you secretly love him and do not know how to express. But one day, when you meet him who is drunk, you can't help doing something to him. You sleep with him, and steal his seeds, and then unconsciously come back to Luo city to give birth to Annie."

The more she talked, the more excited she was, just like she was on drug, even felt like she's dancing.

"He doesn't know who you are, but after that night, he still thinks of you. He has been looking for you all these years. He finds a similar feeling on you, but he is not so sure, so he tries to know you more. Am I right?"

Olive nodded carefully. "Well, it's good, you're smart. You are so good at imaging. Those love stories you read in your free time are not useless. If you are interested in it, I really recommend you to write a book. Maybe you will become famous."

Her cold words poured on Chloe, Chloe felt more suspicious, said, "Hey, you dare not answer my question, it means that there must be something strange hide in your heart."

"Salt." Olive pointed.

Chloe handed her the salt bottle. "The more you avoid it, the more sure I am about my analysis."

Olive sighed helplessly. "Miss Malan, I'll show you the way. If I secretly love someone, and he comes to me now. What a good opportunity it is! Why do I still hide him foolishly and not go straight into his arms to tell my feeling? he is a rich man, although he has fiancée, but the fiancée is not his wife now, I have Annie, my daughter is a trump card, why don't I use it?"

"It seems right." The only hope of her expectation has gone, and Chloe was depressed. Did she really think too much?

Olive handed her a plate full of vegetables.

Olive sat down at the dinner table, she said to herself, forgive me for not telling the truth.

Dave's lips twitched with surprise. Only Ophelia, who dared to be so bold, she seemed to pat the puppy in her family.

After Dave made sure she's gone, Dave closed the door and returned to Alan's bed, "Alan, Olive.....Miss Steele has accepted your bank card."

"Well, I see." Alan closed his eyes, he said quietly, and he looked more tired for a moment.

"Alan, may I ask..." Dave watched his face carefully.

"Go ahead."

"I think Olive, she doesn't look like a money-hungry woman. She seemed to be hiding something about her by accepting the bank card you gave her."

It wasn't just him who felt this way. Alan thought in his mind.

Actually, woman bled, not only when she had sex for the first time. It was just that he hadn't thought of it at that moment. He didn't know for a moment.

Alan's eyes became dark. Olive, you had better not lie to me.

If she was trying to cheat him, was she trying to cheat him for more money, or was she really trying to hide something from him?

Alan felt his dead heart suddenly coming alive again.

Chapter 76: Help Me Manage the Company

Olive sneezed several times in the streets of Luo city. She had to find a paper towel from her bag and wipe her nose. She whispered, "Who is scolding me or missing me?"

She has been going to work early and getting back late for more than a week, just like her previous work routine. Maybe this time, there were no people who made trouble for her. This job search was relatively smooth. She had been interviewed by several companies, and several of them wanted to hire her.

It's just the salary. It's less than expectation. She wanted to look for a satisfied one.

At noon, she asked for a bowl of fried noodles in a noodle shop. When she came out, she saw a group of people around the roadside. She couldn't help but wonder and looked forward. It's scary when she saw it.

Wasn't it her former employer Norton Geve, who lay twitching on the ground?

Passers-by were palpitating at the news that the old man had been hit by a car and the driver escaped, and then helped by the kind driver on the road. They were afraid to go forward when they thinking of the slander of the kind driver.

People's hearts were sometimes untested.

Olive drew away the crowd and squatted down in front of Norton. "What's wrong with you, Mr. Geve?"

Norton pointed to his chest and said, "Medicine..." Medicine..."

Olive understood then put to his suit inside his pocket. She touched a bottle and took it to his eyes and asked, "Is it?"

Norton nodded with some

"Mr. Geve, your span is too big. You have worked in industry all your life and suddenly turned to hotel

"Since that's not the reason, I'll think you agree. Please report to the hotel next Monday. Take advantage of these two days to have a good rest because you'll be busy in the future." Mr. Geve made the decision for her.

Olive thought, looking for a job was nothing more than looking for a good boss, a good career and the high salary. Since Mr. Geve could satisfy her needs and they were familiar to each other, there's no need for her to give up the chance and to find another. So she nodded, "OK!"

Mr. Geve smiled happily, "In fact, in the world, in addition to picking up the moon and the stars, there's nothing we couldn't do except that you dare not to do it."

Olive nodded like a student. "As long as you are brave enough you can get anything you want."

"You are right." Mr. Geve smiled and agreed.

"Mr. Geve, Hengdu has developed very well. Why did you suddenly sell it?" She finally got the chance to ask the question that she has thought a few days.

The smile on Mr. Geve's face gradually disappeared, and the feeling of loneliness occurred little by little.
He long sighed. "Well, all in all, it's all because of my son. He had become such a bad guy. During the

"What about your daughter? Don't you know where she is?" Olive asked carefully.

When people get old, they always have the idea of contacting with relatives. As they grow older, this kind of thoughts become more and more intense. There are many programs for finding relatives on TV now.

Mr. Geve shook his head with regret. "The parents who changed babies disappeared later and I lost contact with them. These years, I inquired a lot, but I got nothing.

Perhaps the man was regret for what he did, but if the time comes again, Olive still believes that he will choose to do the same for his wife.

As the saying goes, "Family harmony is the basis for success in any undertaking", but the man's family harmony makes him spend a lot on it.

Olive accompanied Mr. Geve until his wife arrived. Her name is Lory Ted. She is an elegant and knowledgeable woman. Olive had seen her several times at the annual meeting. Occasionally, she came to the company to deliver lunch to her husband and son. It was said that they two get along well with each other, Mr. Geve will take his wife with him wherever he goes on business, and take her to visit mountains and rivers as soon as he finishes his work.

But now, Mrs. Geve rushed to the bedside in a hurry. "Darling, don't scare me, how are you doing now?"

Now is December in winter, but Olive could see her face with a fine bead of sweat, maybe she is worried. Not all couples are lucky enough to call each other old Darling and Baby.

When Mr. Geve saw his wife coming, he smiled to her and the strong man suddenly turned into a gentleman. "I can call you by myself, which means that it's nothing serious with me. You are so worried about me. Next time I dare not call you."

"I told you to sell the company, and we spent the rest of our life happily. We are not so poor, but you insist to manage a hotel, you're originally a hard worker." Lory blamed her husband severely, but Olive could hear a strong sense of concern.

Olive stared at her, but her heart was sour and tight. Annie was so eager to have a father, how could she object?

She saw Annie took Ivy's hand and let him sit on the sofa, and Annie run to the kitchen to tell Grandpa and Grandma about this and then pulled them out. Then she grabbed her head with her small hands. It seemed that she remembered something, then her eyes was shining, she ran to the kitchen, and poured out a glass of water, and respectfully handed it to Ivy. "Drink tea, Godfather."

Grandpa and Grandma laughed loudly and said, "Haha, where did you learn from?"

"Last time, when Chole mom want you as to be her mom and dad, she did like this. Godfather, please drink tea, and I will be your daughter officially." Annie said milky.

Children's imitation ability has always been strong, and it is always a pleasure to the family.

Ivy took the cup with both hands and touched the little fellow's head again. " I will drink this tea, but today it suddenly happened. I didn't have time to prepare a big red packet. Another day, when Annie's birthday is coming. Daddy will prepare a big gift for you".

"Ivy, it's good that you accept our little devil. As for the gift, you've given her enough, so please don't spend any more money on her." Olive was embarrassed to bother him so much.

Ivy laughed. "Don't worry, the gift will never cost anything."

"Annie, that's not fair. When you want to have a godfather, you served tea to your godfather, but you did nothing when you want me to be you godmother. I'm jealous. What should I do?"

Mr. Geve smiled and got up from the seat, walked around the table to her, took her hand and put the car key in her palm, "It's no other meaning, if I remember correctly, the distance from your home to the hotel is not short, you have to transfer several buses, this car is for your convenience to go to work, not my private gift. This is the hotel's welfare treatment for you. You can rest assured that it will reimburse for the oil expenses."

"You can reimburse for some taxi fees. Now the price of oil is so high, it will cost a lot of money to buy this car. You just took over the hotel, there must be a lot of things to spend money on, you don't need to make this special for me."

The job hasn't started yet, Olive held the car key in her hand and her heart had a heavy feeling and she dared not accept it in peace of mind.

Mr. Geve laughed and said, "If my every employee could put themselves in my shoes in such a position for me, I must be able to relax as a boss."

Olive also laughed silly.

Mr. Geve blinked his eyes and said, "Well, let us cut down on nonsense. You take the key, the car is parked in the hotel parking lot. I do this is try to win popular support, so that you can follow me in a down-to-earth way, so that you'll be ashamed to leave me this old man and move to another company."

"Mr. Geve, you're a good joker." Olive laughed and said nothing more. By comparison, it's not hard to find a job, but it's not easy to find a good boss.

Olive thought she was lucky. That's it, she thought, she had a new job and a new life and she decided to work hard and brought Annie up.

Even without Alan's love, Annie was loved by many people. She would never let her daughter suffer from psychological defects because she was born in a single-parent family.
