Chapter 91: Mr. Geve served as a bridge

She hadn't had much contact with him before in Hengdu, she only knew he did not like to put on airs, but she did not think he would be so humorous and enthusiastic.

"For me, I have a nephew, age is two years older than you, what you can trust is his character is good, not like my son, he is the graduate of Yale university, and he opened a company, I think rich water should be kept in our own fields, after all I see you quite match, can I call him to meet you after work, you can eat a meal together and talk to each other."

"Mr. Geve, I really don't need this. I think his time must be precious. You know, there are many things in the hotel now..." Olive felt her head was so big that she can't support it, the reason why Mr. Geve invited her a dinner was to build a bridge between them, if she had known this, she would not dare to come.

"Well, you don't have to find so many excuses, just a date, you don't have to do anything, I'll call him now." Mr. Geve said it quickly.

Olive saw him really took out the mobile phone, which shocked her, she had to stop him making this call "Mr. Geve, that...Actually.....I'd better tell you that I already have a boyfriend."

It turned out that she was not good at telling a lie, she was stammering and used all her strength to complete the lie.

Mr. Geve didn't believe her, "what a dishonest girl, I will not let you get married immediately, why are you so afraid? And you should find a good excuse, it's rather awkward of you to refuse my invitation."

This sin was so big, Olive dare not to bear it, but she was really not interested in the blind date.

"I'm not lying, it's just..."Olive running her head quickly, searching for words that could make up a sentence." it's just that my boyfriend and I are new together, so..."

Mr. Geve immediately ordered the kitchen to cook more dishes. "If our service is not good, Mr. Hoyle and Miss Meyer please forgive us."

Alan laughed and said, "That's alright."

"Oh..." Ophelia suddenly said. "Miss Steele, I want to hold a Christmas party at the Angel Holiday Hotel. Alan. Shall we let Miss Steele help us with it?"

Alan smiled faintly. "It's all depends on you."

His voice is so gentle that Olive scolded herself inside, you see it, he is so good to this woman, you can give up.

"Thank you dear." Ophelia touched his arm with her cheek and looked at Olive just like declaring sovereignty to her. "Miss Steele, will it trouble you too much?"

Olive smiled. "No, it's ok, but tomorrow is Christmas day. Miss Meyer has to tell me the size and grade of the party, the guest list, the menu, the drinks and other requirements as soon as possible."

Coming from Jiangcheng to Luo city to hold a party is really funny, but she can only hide her sneer in her heart and carefully deal with the problems that may come to her.

"Miss Steele is so nice. You can bring your boyfriend on that day."

"OK, thank you!" It's just her platitude. Olive just responded her casually. She understood her true meaning.

Chapter 93: Right by Her Side

Suddenly she found that she did not have his number, she had thrown her phone card, and his number was also thrown away.

She didn't remember his number, in another words, she forgot it deliberately.

It's good to forget his number, so that she won't have the impulse to call him.

She spent time in the bathroom, sitting on the toilet and playing mobile phone games.

Alan's mobile phone was ringing in the restaurant in this time. He took a look at it and then smiled apologetically at Mr. Geve. "Excuse me, I'll answer the phone."

"Yes, please." Mr. Geve laughed and then picked the pig's hooves and put it into Ophelia's plate. "Come on, Miss Meyer, try this. It's not greasy. It can whiten your skin and make it more delicate and tender."

But in Ophelia's opinion, she still felt greasy. She smiled politely, eating or not eating, that is a problem, but Mr. Geve looked at her eagerly.

"Dave..." Alan got up and went to the terrace. "How's it going?"

"Mr. Hoyle..." he stopped talking.

"Tell me straightly." He does not like to be equivocate, nor does he like to be hesitated.

Dave said. "Hengdu's financial manager said that he received your instructions, and his mailbox did have your instructions."

It was exactly the same information that he had got. That mail, he had also seen it, it was indeed sent by his mailbox.

Ophelia's sight was like the needles flitted between them, she probably suspected them.

This damn man, he didn't know to hide, he should come in after a few minutes. But now it's all over, Olive just turned a blind eye. He's not afraid, so why she's so afraid?

But Ophelia didn't let her off so easily, she was pretending to be concerned about her, "Miss Steele, you don't look very well."

"Do I? But Miss Meyer, here..."Olive smiled, pointing to the right side of her mouth to remind her,"touched something."

Ophelia quickly took a paper towel to wipe it, sure enough, there was oil sauce stains, she felt slightly embarrassed.

So this topic came to the end.

After this bad and boring lunch, Olive felt her just took off her heavy load, with two sharp knives hanging over her head, how could she have a good appetite.

Out of the restaurant, Mr. Geve smiled, "Mr. Hoyle, are you interested in visiting my office."

Alan turned to Ophelia and said, "Ophelia, you go back to the room first."

She could not say what taste she felt, she just hoped that woman hurried to urge Alan back to their Jiangcheng, and didn't appear in her world.

Sometimes, it's good to avoid them, otherwise, they will make her feel bad.

Ivy threw a picture on the table."you treat me as one outsider too much, please don't do this again."

Olive spit her tongue, she just troubled him, It seemed to be embarrassed anyway. When she was ready to tell him that she was going to work, he tapped a sentence, "But Olive, you should find a boyfriend."

Even he said so.

was it true that women must find a man to marry when they were old? So this woman was normal and will not be noticed by so many people.

"Do you think I'm getting old, too?"

"I don't mean that, please don't get me wrong. I just think it's too hard for you to take care of the baby alone.

Olive smiled. "I'm not alone. I have my parents to help me take care of Annie. Besides, who wants a woman with a baby? Nowadays, men are so smart that when they hear they have children, they turn away immediately, or they don't want the children when married at the same time."

She walked to the banquet hall on the second floor, Ted was directing the workers to bring the Christmas tree in, when he saw her, he trotted over. "Olive."

"When will it be ready?" Olive asked.

Ted answered, "It will be ready this morning."

"Don't make any mistakes." It was afraid that someone hoped her to go wrong so that could be taught a lesson.

Ted said, patting his chest confidently, "You can rest assured."

"Are drinks and refreshments ready?"

"Everything is right."

"Choose and send some clever evening waiters."

"No problem."

It was better not to have any problems. Looking at the workers arranged the party in an orderly manner, she still felt like something wrong would happen.

It was not Ophelia's personality to let her pass too easily, .

"Ask the waiter to serve. I ordered something you like." Ophelia said.

"Well." Alan waved his hand and the waiter served the lunch.

Ophelia had been abroad for many years and she was used to eat western food. This meal mainly made of steak, according to their own preferences, they also ordered some side dishes and snacks.

Olive picked up the knife and fork, cutting down her medium cooked steak, she even can see the blood, she frowned slightly, she did not like the taste of blood, it was much better to eat Chinese food with Mr. Geve.

Alan saw her was strange, "Miss Steele, don't you like it?"

"Nothing." Olive did not want to sacrifice her stomach, she called the waiter, "Please fry for me again, I'd like well-done."

The waiter politely replied, "Yes, just a moment, please."

Ophelia apologized quickly, "Oh, it's all my fault, I didn't think of Miss Steele's preference but Alan's, sorry."

If she really felt sorry, the sun will rise from the west, Olive felt there was no need to be polite with her, showing her a fake smile, "It doesn't matter, It can be fried again."

"Alan likes to eat this kind of steak, which is half cooked." Ophelia said to herself.

Chloe gradually woke up from dream, and after she finished, Chloe was also clear a lot, "This thing is all on me, you have seen the level of the band. Including me, a big beauty, and other handsome guys, I promise to make them scream."

"I'll tell Ivy, you guys come to the party this afternoon for a rehearsal" Olive knew Ivy will say yes, but after all, it's better to ask him who was the boss.

Ivy naturally gladly agreed.

Olive smiled sheepishly, " You get a big loss tonight, your men and even your band are borrowed"

But Ivy seemed happy, " It's my pleasure to help you"

Things about the band were resolved,Olive breathed a sigh of relief. She saw their rehearsal this afternoon. It was really great.

According to the theme of the party, the songs to be sung in the evening were determined.

Ted was a little surprised, "Olive, where did you find them?They're so great, they are not less than professional, I even think this stage is not big enough for them to play "

"Thank you for your compliments, if you like them then go to waitingbar, we are resident there, the boss is my friend, we can give you a 20% discount."Chloe jumped off the stage to try to get guests.

Olive looked at her amusingly, but the musicians and vocalists on stage didn't talk much, and only when immersed in music were they passionate.

Chapter 99: Special Existence

Susie looked at her in a maze, "What's the matter?"

Olive closed the door and walked up to her, "Are you trying to tempt Alan at lunch?"

Unexpectedly, Susie did not hide, "Yeah,any problem?"

"No comment."She was eager for Susie to seduce him successfully, so that she can realize his playboy side and drop her idea. But he likes to stick to her, with a kind of posture that never give up.

Why? She won't serve a husband with another woman. What's more, Ophelia can't tolerate her existence.

"Are you trying to ask me whether I know Alan's relationship with Ophelia?" Susie laughed, "I'm not stupid, how could I don't know.Fiancee, as long as unmarried is not a wife."

She didn't seem to care about Ophelia at all.

Olive didn't know why she was so confident, just kindly reminded her, "What you want to do is your business, but you should know that Alan isn't the Master Geve who you've met before, and Ophelia isn't the one you can offend."

If Susie continued to be so obsessive, she was afraid that Susie would not have a good end. After all, they are colleagues.

Olive frowned, "What are you laughing at?"

"Do you still think that there will be perfect love in this world, Olive? I really don't understand you. Are you really pure or pretended to be lofty." Susie had hated Olive for a long time and what she hated most was Olive affectation.

At the beginning, Master Geve actually didn't take a fancy to Susie, but he moved a little sincerity toward to Olive.

It was just Olive offended Master Geve and hurt his self-esteem as a man so that he choose her as his assistant. To put it bluntly, she was a substitute.

At that time, she was afraid that Master Geve would go looking for Olive, so she targeted Olive everywhere. And she thought that Master Geve would take over Hengdu without any suspense. She worked hard to please the man, but she didn't expect that Hengdu would be sold and there would be a man who was one hundred times better than Master Geve.

But this man was only interested in Olive, she was going crazy with jealousy.

This woman, obviously plain and ordinary, didn't know how to dress herself up. At most, she was clean and refreshing. What else was good? But all the men in the company were toward her, and the women were willing to get close to her, and the father of Master Geve also treated her differently.

why Olive despised Master Geve, it turned out that she was attracted by Master Geve's father. Otherwise, such a large hotel
