

Chapter 102 Finale

After getting up the next morning, she followed the normal procedure, put on makeup, and followed the wedding car to the wedding scene. It was only when she was standing at the entrance of the red carpet with him that her heart was beating faster and faster. She watched and stood. At the end, Shawn's eyes were shining with stars.

'Now let us invite the bride in!'

When the emcee's voice sounded, Bob patted the back of her hand.

'Don't be nervous, dad will be by your side whatever happens.'

She held his hand, and when she heard his words, she nodded.

When the wedding march sounded, Nicole and Bob went together. When walking on the red carpet, she only felt like a century had passed, and the expression in her eyes also flickered.

It wasn't until the end that she and Bob were standing in front of Shawn.

'I will hand over my daughter to you from now on, and we must take good care of her.'

Bob took her hand, and suddenly took Shawn's hand, putting the two hands together.

He looked at Bob and nodded seriously. He promised that he would definitely take good care of Nicole.

When her hand was grasped by Shawn, the feeling of tension became stronger.

The couple stood there face-to-face, staring into each others eyes. When the emcee's question settled, both sides were firm and willing.

'Nicole.'

Shawn suddenly called Nicole. This was the first time he called her so seriously.

It was because Shawn's tone was too serious that Nicole had just relaxed, and now she began to tense again. The hand she placed in the heart of Shawn's hand also followed tightly, her eyes flickering.

'Do you know why I chose you so firmly?'

Her eyes stopped. She didn't know, but she always wanted to ask clearly. Now Shawn was planning to take the initiative to tell her about this, right?

'Are you going to tell me?'

'I always wanted to ask you.'

The corners of his lips raised a smile. In fact, everything was designed by him.

'Remember when you came to my house when you were young?'

'At that time, you were teased by your sister, but in the end you teased her the other way around. I have already noticed you.'

When Nicole heard this, her eyelids twitched. After he mentioned this, she remembered that she had indeed followed Bob to the his house once when she was a child, but she did not notice him.

He suddenly stretched out his hand to hug her in front of him, his eyes darkened a lot.

'And the first time we met, it was also because I pulled you there. Otherwise, you would have been with other men...'

The distance between him and Nicole had been narrowed a lot. She heard his words, and her heart beat again.

She didn't expect that all of this was designed by Shawn, unexpected but not angry.

'Do you regret marrying me? Would you like to stay with me forever?'

He pressed against her nose, his voice was lower.

The curvature of Nicole's lips couldn't stop rising. Why did she regret it? She wished to be with him forever.

'I like your bed work, no other man can satisfy me.'

Just after she finished speaking, Shawn's lips were pressed against his lips. He bit her lips and kissed her in front of so many people.

She slowly closed her eyes and happily responded to his kiss.

The most right decision she ever made was to choose to be with Shawn.
