

Chapter 25 The Attack of Evans

Lavinia didn't intend to say these words when Chris was in poor health. However, it was then that she naturally said all the words she didn't dare to say before.

She was sincere to Chris. But, just like now, she didn't want to fall in love with Chris.

"Fuck off!"

Chris suppressed for a long time, and even his body was shaking!

He wanted to say much to Lavinia, but when Lavinia said one more word, Chris was more silent. Later, he gritted his teeth and only said that to her.

Lavinia's heart trembled when she heard that.

The disappointment in her heart was getting stronger and stronger, but Lavinia knew that she didn't have the chance to save the situation. She and Chris were a mismatched couple, and it would still be the present ending in the end.

It's better to end it than to be heartbreaking in the future.

She left and closed the ward door lightly.

Then she only heard the sound of falling things in the ward.

Instead of turning back, Lavinia called Auntie to tell her to pay attention to Chris's mood and ask the doctor to come forward if necessary.

When she left the hospital, Lavinia could no longer suppress her tears.

It's only been a few months. Lavinia kept telling herself that she couldn't pay much attention to this relationship, but she failed.

Lavinia didn't go back to the villa in the north suburb for the time being but sent a message to Auntie, asking Auntie to pack her things so that it would be more convenient for her to leave.

Lavinia bought a small cake and some cooked food and then walked to another hospital.

Mom's birthday was tomorrow, but Lavinia urgently needed to see her family and drew some care from them. So she called Erik and asked if he could advance the time to today so that they could surprise Mom in advance.

Erik said that the company was fine today and could leave early. So they met in this ward.

"Brother, I bought cooked food and cake. There are still some fruits here. Let's order a takeaway and send some rice later."

In the ward, Lavinia tried to make her smile look natural. But Lavinia would be distracted whenever she thought of Chris.

Her mother and brother both discovered that something was wrong with Lavinia today.

"Sis, is there something wrong with you?"

After packing the food in disposable cartons, Erik wiped his hands and probed Lavinia's forehead with the back of his hand.

After doing that, he found that Lavinia's body was so hot.

"The temperature was a bit high.I will go to the nurse station to get a thermometer,and you will measure it."

Lavinia had a fever,which was terrible.It was rare for Erik to sit with his dear sister at the same table.Lavinia was more precious than anyone else.

Her temperature was over 38 degrees,and she had a high fever.After reading the numbers on the thermometer,she finally knew why she was so tired today.

She felt that my whole body was weak,and she just wanted to lie down and rest all the time.

If Erik hadn't asked Lavinia to take her temperature,she might not have known she had a high fever.

"Erik,just take your sister to buy medicine first.It's good for me to be here alone.I'm pleased that you two could come here to celebrate my birthday.Hurry to buy medicine and go back to rest.Don't let me worry about you."

Their mother didn't want to eat the meal anymore,and she kept driving people out of the door.

Lavinia couldn't do anything but left the ward to buy the medicine.

"Erik,I will go to school in two days.Unfortunately,the previous job performance was not good.As a result,the company dismissed a group of people,including me."

Lavinia was weak,and she didn't want to put too much pressure on her brother.Moreover,she had a lot of money,all of which belonged to Chris.

When Chris was in a good mood,she liked to transfer money to Lavinia for having fun.At that time,she used Chris's cash with confidence.

But now,even if she had to pay tuition and the medical fee,Lavinia still didna want to use his money anymore.

"I have tuition fees.So you don't have to worry about that.However,I may not have enough time to take care of mum if I go to school.So I can only count on you."

Erik was relieved to hear that Lavinia was going to study.

Even he didn't know why Lavinia had to drop out of school.

This suspension was more than a year,and Erik thought his sister would never go to school in the future.Did it mean that she wouldn't be as disgusted with the school as before?

"I told you to study before as a girl.I have good performance now in the company,and I can get thousands of dollars a month to raise you and your mother.Although my payment is not very high,at least we will not go hungry."

Erik couldn't wait to let Lavinia go to school now,but he was afraid that the girl would go back on her words again.

"Erik,I knew you are talented.When I graduated from college,I will work hard to earn money.Then,I believe that our family's life will get better and better."

When Lavinia left, she didn't let Erik accompany her. Erik thought his sister was going to the villa north of the suburbs, so he didn't send it.

Lavinia took a taxi back to a small rental room she used to rent.

This house was her only little world.

Because she rented it directly for two years, she couldn't refund the rent before it expired. So whenever she was in a bad mood, she would come here to live for some time.

Fortunately, she still got a place to live after she left the villa in the north suburb.

Once she opened the door, a familiar figure suddenly appeared in front of Lavinia.

Why was Evans in her room?

Seeing the man who couldn't hide, Lavinia didn't know what was happening, and her first reaction was to run away.

She could feel that something was wrong.

No matter how fast she reacted, she was also a person with fever, and there was no way to compare her speed with Evans's.

Before running into the elevator, Lavinia was dragged directly into her small room by the man.

"Why are you running? That's not what you did to me before we broke up."

Evans threw Lavinia onto the sofa uncontrollably, and Lavinia was thrown so hard that her forehead touched a corner of the couch. Her dizziness was a hundred times stronger than before.

"Are you hiding me because of Chirs?"
