

Chapter 35 I'm a little empty

It was the right choice to talk less and play more with her mobile phone as a rider. She tried to ask many times, but finally, she didn't say that.

Cheep!

After the car braked sharply, the tires rubbed against the ground, and the sound was sharp. Then, finally, Lavinia came to her senses.

What's in front of her? A small hillside, with no residents around it, was just flat ground. As long as someone appeared, they could be seen immediately.

Lavinia remembered that this place specially used the villa in the north of the suburb for tent camping.

The villa was built in a scenic spot, and the top open space belonged to the scenic area.

"Miss Lavinia, can we go on with what we have just left unfinished?"

Chris pressed a button, and all the glass around the car changed color.

The seat where he was sitting began to lean back.

The compartment car immediately emptied, and the front and rear seats were perfectly assembled into a big bed.

It turned out that rich people buy luxury cars for a reason.

Before Lavinia could sigh, she had been tackled behind by Chris.

From the time he was at the school gate, he had been forbearing.If he hadn't been worried that they would be discovered,he would do that there just now!

On the open flat ground,there was only one car parked there.

Outside the car,the cold wind rattled,and inside the vehicle,Lavinia's clothes had been ravaged by Chris.

And she didn't know when the man unbuttoned her underwear while she was unprepared.

Chris reached out and pushed up Lavinia's clothes,which were piled up,blocking Lavinia's view from below,just so that her attention was focused on Chris so that she could also carefully watch how Chris worked hard on her.

The car's space was not as empty as at home,and many actions could only be thought of in their mind,which couldn't be displayed at all.

He just knelt on both sides of the woman's body,kneading the two balls on her chest with both hands.

Lavinia's breasts were well-shaped,but the elasticity did not expand outward.Even if she lay flat,her chest was still straight up,which seemed to greet Chris.

The white skin became pink and tender under Chris's kneading.Men were born with a lack of maternal love and felt insufficient after kneading.His thin lips were directly attached to Lavinia's raised dot,and his teeth rubbed against the raised dot,and his tongue slipped over it twice.

Accustomed to being kneaded by Chris's hands,Lavinia didn't react as much as before,but it was the first time that a man's tongue slid back and forth on it.

She shivered, and her whole body seemed to have been passed by electric current, and she was still limp and numb.

The close kiss didn't stop here.

The woman beneath Chris was like a lamb to be slaughtered. No matter how much Chris wanted her, she could only lie there, and there was no room to move.

Chris's nose sniffed on her breast, and the fragrance of this woman's own went straight into his nostrils.

There were too few women who didn't rub body milk but could naturally disperse fragrance. But, of course, he didn't expect that he could meet a woman like her.

Lavinia has already lost her mind. Her body was stroked, and she could feel that her lower body was already getting wet.

What if she made Chris's car dirty?

Lavinia realized that if they kept doing this, she would spray the car wet. So she was busy trying to make Chris stop.

"No, Chris, we are in the car now. We can't be here..."

Her teeth clenched, and her speech was a little unclear. She barely finished a word, but the man didn't even give her any reaction.

Chris was still plowing hard, his fingers searching near her vulva.

Lavinia's wetness made Chris feel that his foreplay had not been in vain.

It's wet outside.What about inside?Was the water from Lavinia just now enough to support the lubrication inside?

His fingers bypassed the clitoris and found the narrow entrance.He explored and rubbed a finger wet and then put it in slowly and leisurely.

It's wet,not bad.

As he had just done,he put in a second one.

There was almost no room for two fingers.

How could this work?

To prevent Lavinia from suffering more later,he gasped and kissed Lavinia's ear like a child."Lavinia,take it easy.I'll make you enjoy it."

Lavinia's body was too tense.

Her mind was full of Chris's great pillar,wondering whether it would puncture her if it went in.

Will it hurt or die!

Psychological tension led to her physical inability to relax until Chris patiently comforted her,and his gentleness made Lavinia's body soft.

"Lavinia,yes,take it easy.I'll be gentle with you.Let's take our time."

Chris continued to enlighten Lavinia until the great thing beneath him began to test at the entrance of the deep canyon and then entered shallowly.

It required men to have superb endurance.

For Lavinia to enjoy the happiness of love,he was willing to accommodate women.Even if it were a little slower,it would be fine.

Sure enough,this time,unlike the previous times,every time his penis went in and out,it beat in her body very quickly.But,this time,it was gentle so that Lavinia could learn to enjoy it.

In addition to the feeling of swelling below,she also felt a little empty.

What's the matter?Chris's penis was inside her body.So why did she still feel this way?

"Chris,why do I feel empty when you're still inside me?"Lavinia asked.

Her eyes were so clean.Otherwise,Chris would think that Lavinia was seducing himself.

The man's movements stopped,and Lavinia's feeling of emptiness was even worse.

She muttered discontentedly about her mouth and physical needs,but she could not speak for it.

"Now,is the feeling of emptiness more serious?"

Chris stared into Lavinia's eyes,not letting go of every detail in her eyes.

"Well,a little."

Lavinia didn't lie.Just after she said how she felt,the man who had stopped caught up with the clockwork,and the speed suddenly increased.

At the same time,the pleasure suddenly filled the feeling of emptiness.

"So,is it still empty?"

Just now,he was too depressed to speed up for fear of hurting the woman under him. Now, he didn't have to worry about the woman saying no, just worrying about whether the woman's body could stand it once Pandora's Box was opened.
