

Chapter 50 Find the right bone marrow

"No,I won't let anything happen to you!"

Chris said that to Lavinia firmly.

Lavinia's heart was so soft that she was almost moved to cry.

"Chris Konev,don't just talk about it.I would stay with you in my entire life if you moved me."

She put her hand around Chris's sturdy waist and her head against the man's arms.Looking at the woman curled up beside him like a kitten,Chris felt a feeling of home for the first time.

Clara was very sensational because of the particularity of the profession,the whole real estate industry has been rectified,and the buying and selling atmosphere has been vigorously corrected.

Of course,Lavinia,who was recuperating at home,would not know what has changed outside.

While she was recovering from illness,Lavinia's mother also had good news.

She went to the hospital early that day.

After a month,Lavinia was free and breathed the fresh air outside.She realized how enjoyable it was to live.

Outside the ward,Erik was sitting there waiting for Lavinia,watching her sister come and finally showing a long-lost smile on her face.

"Lavinia,mother has matched the right bone marrow.The doctor said that experts from B City have just come to our Y City for exchange visits in the past two days.They have already consulted and discussed the plan for their mother today,and they can have bone marrow transplantation tomorrow."

The good news came too suddenly.They waited for bone marrow for a long time,but they failed.Even doctors said that the success rate was too low,so they were prepared psychologically.

She didn't expect it to be long before the bone marrow was available,and they were lucky enough to wait for the experts to transplant themselves.

"It's great!Are my mother's medical expenses enough?Will the doctor,does not operate on my mother when the time comes?"

It was too much good news,which gave her an unreal feeling and worried her.

"No,I have already asked the doc.Because it is a typical example of specialist surgery and should be used as a teaching case,so mother's operation fee comes from their research funds,and we only need to give the subsequent rejection medicine money."

Erik didn't quite understand the complicated things the doctor told him,except that the good news would save hundreds of thousands of money for his family.

Lavinia suddenly ran to Erik,hugged Erik,and began to cry with excitement.

"Brother,great.I said that as long as we stick to it,we will win.Look,let's wait!"

Lavinia must share such good news with Chris.

Erik was going to check the precautions with the doctor again. Taking advantage of this time, Lavinia hid in the corner of the hospital and called Chris.

Chris was looking at the progress from the hospital in his office. When he saw that it was Lavinia on the phone, he guessed what she would say.

Although he had predicted in advance, he was happy for Lavinia when he heard Lavinia cheering.

"Chris, I have good news for you. My mother has found the right bone marrow. The doctor said that she could do bone marrow transplantation tomorrow. My mother is saved. I am pleased!"

When did Lavinia reveal such a happy appearance in front of Chris? Even if Lavinia was happy before, she liked to bear it in his heart and not show it.

Chris thought that he should do more things for Lavinia with his power. He could do more of these little things in the future.

"Well, congratulations, it will get better and better in the future. When I am free, I will visit your mom."

Chris's words made Lavinia feel Jennifer, even if Chris was just a casual, polite remark.

"Thank you. I haven't been so happy for a long time."

After sharing the good news with Chris, Lavinia went to the ward to see her mother again. Because she was a little tired after the examination, she went to sleep again.

"Lavinia, did you just call Manager Chris?"

Erik and Lavinia were both waiting in the ward. They were rarely sitting together. Erik wanted to talk with her sister about many problems, but he was afraid that saying something she shouldn't know would stimulate her to think of those terrible past events.

"Well, Chris knows that my mother is in hospital, and I want to share the good news with him."

She didn't hide his relationship with Chris at all, and Lavinia didn't know if it will make her brother unhappy.

But Chris was the man she chose. They were in a fair and square relationship, and they would meet sooner or later. So it was better for her to say that her brother accepts it in advance and goodbye to Chris Konev.

"A man like Manager Chris is difficult to control, sister. If you live with such a man, you will be exhausted. Roman was like this. Will you be willing to continue to stick to your choice?"

After a fight with Chris, Erik knew that Chris was more suitable for being with Evans and Lavinia than Chris. Such a man could not only protect her but also save her sister's life.

It could be said that Erik must know whether his sister liked Chris or repaid her kindness.

"Brother, I know what I did, and I know that you have a prejudice against him, but brother, can I try with him first?"

Lavinia was the one who didn't want to be with Chris at first, and she was the one who wanted to be with Chris now.

But love was not like this.No one could tell when it would arrive,But when it was there,no one could top it.

"What about that,Evans?You know Evans came to see me many times when you were away.Seeing his appearance,he obviously won't give up on you easily.My mother has always been very optimistic about him.This is big trouble."

Erik didn't say whether he would accept Chris,but Lavinia got some meaning from his words.

"Erik,as long as you don't object,let's not talk about my mother.When she is well,I will explain it to her personally."

My sister had said so.What else could Erik say?

"Do your own thing at your discretion.Just don't regret it anyway."

Lavinia thought my brother was unreasonable before.Now it seemed that he was just too worried about her.No matter who Lavinia was with,Erik would be concerned.

"Is Judy's family there?Go to the office and sign it."

When the nurse knocked on the door,Erik immediately replied,"Yes,I'll go now."

Lavinia had nothing to do here.After asking Chris,she decided to go to school for leave first.

She hasn't returned to school for more than a month,and those lost courses were credits.If she couldn't get credits back from other places,she would have to reread a junior.

"Counselor,I will handle the leave,please."

Lavinia has initially been a transfer student and appeared in front of counselors less often. Counselors only remembered people when they asked their names.
