

Chapter 58 Evans Destroys

"Mom, Evans is very busy recently. I haven't contacted him for a long time. You should worry about your body first. You only know to worry about others and don't worry about yourself at all."

Lavinia worried that Judy would continue to ask. So she just dealt with her in the same fierce tone as before.

"I do this for you. Aren't you worried about becoming an old girl? I think Evans is very good. He is filial and good to you. Anyway, you are both old enough to get married. Why don't you take advantage of my better health and get the marriage certificate?"

Why was she talking about the marriage certificate again?

Seeing Judy in high spirits to get married, Lavinia was even more afraid to say they have broken up with Judy.

"Mom, I heard that my brother had been promoted. Let's find a good time to celebrate. When the time comes, let my brother invite us to dinner."

Lavinia put the last dish on the table, wiped the oil off her hands, and successfully changed the subject.

"Your brother finally made some money. Don't let your brother treat you every time. It will be your fault if he didn't have the money to get married in the future."

After Judy got well, she learned to joke with Lavinia.

It's just Erik couldn't come back during this period. Lavinia didn't trust Judy to live here alone, so she had to call Chris that she had to accompany her mother here in recent days and couldn't go to the villa in the north suburb.

Chris was silent on the phone for a few seconds, and when Lavinia thought he would not agree, the other end chose to compromise.

"Don't let me wait too long. I am not patient. If your mother is not at ease, we can ask more nurses to go there. We don't lack this money."

Lavinia was used to listening to these words. She didn't think it will affect her life, but her mother will definitely be scared.

"No, I can go back when my brother came here. I know you are the most considerate of me, so wait at home. Don't fool around outside when I am not at home. If I catch you, you will be finished."

Clearly, it was a fierce tone. But the words were arrogance and love for Chris. Chris's heart suddenly softened.

"OK!"

When Lavinia lived with Judy, and Judy mentioned Evans the most. The most frequently asked one was where Evans went, what he was busy with, and when he came home.

It was Lavinia's skill to prevaricate once. Over time, Judy gradually discovered that the relationship between Lavinia and Evans was abnormal.

"Daughter, did you and Evans quarrel?"

Judy thought about this time. Lavinia didn't chat with Evans, let alone make a video call with Evans. This was totally different from the state of a person in love. Judy couldn't think of any other possibilities except the conflict between them.

"Mom, I am your own daughter, and you still have my brother. When you mention Evans all day long, people think Evans is your own son!"

Lavinia played coquetry in front of Judy and also never mentioned Evans.

"What you're talking about? Did Evans treat you badly? Who else can stand you except him?"

Judy wanted to reach out and slap Lavinia so that she could teach her a lesson. When Judy reached out, she couldn't bear to slap her, so she had to put her hand down again.

"Come on, what's the matter with you two, quarreling or what. You can't keep it from me all your life, can you?"

Seeing that Judy was close to the truth, Lavinia was thinking, "Mom, you can't be angry if I tell you the truth. It is not worthwhile for you to be angry again."

Lavinia stood behind Judy and kept comforting her. Seeing that Judy was in a good mood, Lavinia finally told her the truth.

"Evans and I have broken up peacefully because of our personality reasons. After six years of long-distance love, we don't have feelings anymore. For him and for myself, we are now looking for our own true love."

As soon as the word love came out of her mouth,Lavinia suffered a critical attack from Judy.

When this slap went down,Lavinia's arm really hurt.

"Personality disagreement?And you are still looking for your true love?You two think that looking for true love is playing the game,don't you?After six years together,How dare you don't know to cherish the relationship at all?I think you are only happy if you want to piss me off alive."

Judy thought that her daughter and the boy could make it.When she was in the hospital,Evans came to see her many times.Judy didn't expect to be told to break up when she was discharged from the hospital.What a pity.It would be good if she could make them get back together.

"Mom,we broke up peacefully,and both sides are willing.I am also very good alone.I said that you should not be angry,and now you are getting angry like this.If I knew it,I might as well not tell you."

Seeing that what Lavinia said was true,Judy had to learn to accept it.

"You just think the marriage is a child's play,and you don't like to take feelings seriously.I just wondered when you would grow up.Hey,forget it,your lifelong events are your own decisions."

Judy obviously didn't give up on Evans because of Lavinia's relationship.She didn't persuade again in the end.

Lavinia was overjoyed.She had been keeping things in mind before,fearing that her mother could not stand the stimulation.Fortunately,Judy was not angry too much after listening.

But the good times didn't last long, and Lavinia felt that she was unlucky. Every time she lied, she was quickly broken. Just when Lavinia said that she and Evans broke up peacefully, Evans came to her door.

This time Evans brought a lot of fruits and a series of health products.

Lavinia went downstairs to buy a dressing. When she came up again, Judy's eyes were full of tears, and her whole body trembled.

Judy's lips were, and she kept letting tears swirl in her eyes, but she didn't want them to fall. When Judy saw Lavinia, Evans had left. She directly chose to ignore her daughter's existence.

"Mom, is there something wrong with you? It was fine before. I went to the supermarket and came back. Why is something wrong with you?"

Lavinia put what she had just bought in the kitchen.

"Evans was here just now. He told me everything."

Judy cried before she finished speaking.

When Judy learned that she was terminally ill, Judy never shed a tear.

"Mom, what did Evans say to you? Don't scare me, don't cry, mom!"

Whenever she heard Evans coming, Lavinia was shocked. Who knew if he came home with any bad thoughts?

Reward

10

Comments

3

12:08

Husband Insane lust

77.1%