

Chapter 59 - They don't have a good relationship

When Nicole heard this, she was in no hurry to rush over.

She was also a person who had socialized, she understood that.

The two of them ran all the way to the front, but when they came to finding the private room, Shawn's stomach felt a little uncomfortable.

He stopped and turned his eyes to her.

After seeing him stop, Nicole also shifted her eyes to him, with a hint of confusion under her eyes.

'Why do you look a bit off?'

'Just wait for me here, I'm going to go to the bathroom.'

'Don't go anywhere, I'm worried that I won't be able to find you when I come back.'

In the meantime, he was slightly uncomfortable with the sudden arrival of this feeling.

After seeing her nod, he turned around and left.

She stood here, seeing him walked farther and farther away, faster and faster, and the color in her eyes followed the flicker, "There shouldn't be anything wrong, right?"

She followed his words and stood in the same place waiting for him.

After waiting for a few minutes, there were a few flippant smiles from her ears.

Her eyes just swept over so casually. She originally had no interest in it. But after seeing who it was, her eyes fell there and didn't move.

The man who was surrounded by several women also looked this way.

Their eyes met for just a few seconds, and then the man suddenly let go of the woman and walked straight toward her.

The color of her eyes gradually deepened a bit, but he did not panic when he came this way.

'Isn't this sister-in-law, the first time we meet, I didn't expect it to be on such an occasion.'

The man who came to the door was Shawn's younger brother, the owner of Shawn Entertainment. Compared with Shawn, this man was arrogant and conceited, and his behavior was exceptionally frivolous.

Nicole watched his arrogant smile and ignored him.

She nodded and responded him.

'I didn't expect that the first time we met, it would be this kind of occasion and this kind of way.'

She only knew what Steven looked like, but the real meaning of the meeting was still now.

'Oh, I didn't go to your engagement ceremony with my brother two days ago, and our family didn't go over, I'm really sorry about that. But I am sincerely wishing you and my brother can have a long and happy life.'

The smile on his lips became more and more pronounced, and even took on a bit of pride.

Nicole stared at the smile on his lips and wanted to speak, but she saw Steven's eyes shifted and even the smile on his lips stopped.

She subconsciously turned around to look at the place where Steven was looking at, and when she saw who it was, she followed with a sigh of relief, Shawn came back.

Somehow seeing him back, Nicole felt as if she was relieved in her heart.

'Sorry for waiting.'

Shawn returned to her side, and in front of Steven, he directly took her hand, and even did not hide the spoiled smile on his lips.

Steven's sight rested on their hand holding each other's, he suddenly tugged at the corner of his mouth with a light laugh: 'Brother and this suddenly engaged sister-in-law, still have quite good feelings.'

Shawn didn't intend to let go of her hand. Hearing Steven's words, his eyes shifted to him, the petting smile at the corners of his mouth also disappeared.

'Do you need to say this?'

'It's none of your business if she and I have a good relationship.'

Nicole stood beside Shawn and listened to his words, instantly feeling the smell of gunpowder.

The two brothers' relationship didn't seem too good either
.....

Chapter 60 - Never think of drinking

She had heard a little bit about it, but she was not clear of the detail. She did not care much about his family.

Before hearing what Steven said, Shawn directly pulled her to turn around and walk away. Her eyelids jumped a bit and followed him, her eyes shining for a moment.

She reached out and took his hand, 'Don't you want to hear what he said?'

Shawn continued to walk toward the front with her. What Steven said, he really wasn't interested in hearing.

After he restrained the look in his eyes, he slightly raised the tip of his eyebrows.

'Is there anything important? You're curious about that, aren't you?'

At the news, she was stunned. She was a little bit. But that could make her seemed to be a little too gossipy, her eyes flickered and shook her head.

'That's it. There's nothing need to say. But what did he say to you just now?'

'It didn't say much, just some useless nonsense, saying sorry for not going to our engagement ceremony or something.'

The two of them talked about Steven all the way, and when they waited for the box to arrive, they pushed open the door of the box and indeed saw a scene of pulp and paper drunkenness inside.

There were some who were playing with women, some who were gambling, and others who were playing with other things, but none of them were serious.

When Nicole looked at this kind of picture, she still couldn't hold back and frowned slightly.

'Wow, Mr. Shawn had finally come! Here, You even brought your fiancé with you!'

Nicole had taken over the management of Bob's company during this period of time, and also helped the company to survive the crisis, which was clear to everyone.

Although they knew that Shawn helped it a lot, these people still had to admire this woman.

The sound of someone's voice directly attracted the attention of others, especially those men who brought women over to play, and when they turned around and saw Nicole, the eyes of these people emitted bursts of golden light, hating to have their eyes glued to her body.

Shawn instantly reached out and landed on her shoulder when he sensed these people's eyes.

As if he was asserting his sovereignty, he slowly swept a glint in his eyes and looked at the men with a few warnings in his eyes.

When those men saw Shawn's hand fall on her shoulder, their eyes that stared at her also gradually became guilty.

The men laughed and pointed to the sofa.

'Mr. Shawn brought his fiancé here to sit down first. Let's sit and talk.'

'But Mr. Shawn you are late for so long. You should be punished. The drink is essential!'

They suddenly rushed to his side.

Shawn naturally knew the crooked thoughts in the hearts of these people. When he's drinking, Nicole would definitely not be able to escape.

His eyes shifted to Nicole and suddenly asked: 'Can you drink?'

Hearing this, she nodded immediately. If she came out to socialize, she had to learn to drink a little bit.

'Of course, don't worry about that.'

His eyebrows moved. Well, maybe she could drink, but he would not let her drink.

'Later I'll push it for you, you don't want to drink it yourself.'
