

Chapter 65 Mrs.Konev's solution

Chris was in the company. When he saw the word "Mrs.Konev," he knew that this call was not easy to answer.

But he didn't dare to hang up.

"Mom, I'm working. What's the matter?"

To make Vivian feel that he was swamped, Chris deliberately turned over the documents to sound.

"Son, the voice of turning over documents is a bit fake. Let's say a few words, and I'll let you go."

Vivian had a high status at home, so Chris and his father dare not provoke her. In the end, they only had to give in to Vivian's bullying.

"If you have anything to say, just say it."

When it was rare to meet Chris's patience, Vivian seemed to be happy and much calmer.

"I heard that you found a girlfriend? Aren't you going to introduce it to your parents?"

Vivian was not like this outside. She was called the most serious woman in Y city. Many people who wanted to get close to Vivian and make good relations with The Konev Group failed to make some benefits in business were all failed. Those ladies obviously didn't expect that Mrs.Konev, who they thought was extremely serious, was the woman who gossiped very much.

"It's not the right time. When you heard about my girlfriend, you must have heard that her reputation is not very good, right?"

Chris made no secret of it and exposed the real reason why he was unwilling to introduce Lavinia to Vivian and the family.

A woman as intelligent as Vivian must have heard a lot of rumors. The best way was to explain it to her in person.

"It's not very good, but I trust you."

She could be rational in other things, but she would always choose this son unconditionally no matter what happened.

"Well, I will explain to you that she is exceptional, and she is the one I want to cherish."

Chris told their story to Vivian. He didn't want to tell Vivian about those too complicated things. It was too pornographic and violent. When she heard her son bullying other girls, she would break Chris's legs.

After hearing what Chris said, tears came out of Vivian's eyes.

She said to Chris earnestly, "It takes a lot of courage to follow you like a girl who had nothing at all. Don't live up to people's hearts for you. Chris, The Konev Family, is not heart breaker. Since you have chosen, you have to bring it back to your father and me. As for The Konev Family's collateral, don't care what they say."

Vivian had a clear mind. She knew that Chris was worried about what problems he would encounter when introducing Lavinia. So it was the surest way to conceal the relationship now.

"I know, isn't Dad coming back from a business trip next week? I asked Lavinia's opinion. If she has no problem, we can make an appointment."

It was the best. It would happen in the future. Besides, their family was not unreasonable people. So Lavinia didn't need to be scared of them.

Vivian had to do beauty treatment. When she saw that the technician was ready, she hung up the phone to make a long story short. Since she knew that she had a daughter-in-law, her heart has always been happy, and the smile on her face was more than usual.

If Penny had known that she had drawn the line between Vivian and Lavinia herself, she would have vomited with anger.

Penny waited at home for the excellent news that Vivian was in trouble with Lavinia. She didn't leave the hotel all day to wait for the report, holding her mobile phone in both hands, but Vivian's message was not above.

Was Vivian busy, or were they not in touch at all? Otherwise, why hadn't there been any movement?

After waiting for two days, Penny panicked. She asked people to inquire about whether Vivian had recently ordered people to find trouble with Lavinia to guess Vivian's attitude towards Lavinia.

The other party took the money and soon came with the results.

Mrs.Konev was busy with public welfare activities every day or socializing with famous ladies and had no time to find trouble in Lavinia.

This time,Lavinia was lucky enough to avoid the trouble.However,Penny wanted to see if Mrs.Konev would find difficulty with Lavinia after this busy time.

While the days were calm,Penny cleaned the house under her name,and she moved out of the hotel smoothly and went back to her home.

Penny hadn't come back for years,this was not as luxurious as the place she used to live in,but it was also the best place she could live at present.

After moving home,no matter what Chris was doing or whether there were outsiders around her,she directly invited Chris to her home for dinner.

Chris declined.It would destroy his reputation.

To cheat Chris,Penny racked her brains and thought a lot of ways.Until finally,she compromised and let Chris bring Lavinia with her.Even she invited several friends who had good feelings for Chris.

Those people were Penny's classmates before.

Chris promised to come as far as possible.

Although there was no 100%guarantee,Penny was already satisfied with this result.

On the day when Penny appointed the time,Chris asked Lavinia about the course and learned that they had no style after a class in the morning.Chris asked Lavinia if she wanted to eat and drink with him and didn't ask where to go.Just because there was food and drink,Lavinia agreed without thinking about it.

When they got to Penny's door,Lavinia looked at Chris bitterly,eager to bite off a piece of the man's flesh.

"Why didn't you say you came here?If I had known,I would not have come."

Her eyes were fixed on those beautifully shaped dessert tables,as well as those cold western foods.It was more appropriate to take her to this dinner.

"You didn't ask me.I thought you wouldn't care about the details."

As long as there was food,it didn't matter where she was.

"Chris,we thought you would never come to this party.I didn't expect Penny was so excellent to call you out."

"What's the situation between you and Penny now?I heard that she was divorced.She used to like you when we were studying.Now she was divorced and organized a bureau to let us meet.Do you think she will not still be reluctant to forget you?"

"Bullshit!"

Chris told the man to shut his mouth without waiting for that guy to finish.

Reward

10

Comments

3