

Chapter 68 Nicole was in love

"All of these will be yours sooner or later. Don't worry about that. Or Judy will think that you treat her as an outsider."

Chris grabbed Lavinia's mobile phone and said in a voice, "Lavinia is very busy. Don't send messages to disturb her if you have nothing to do. Of course, money is an exception."

Vivian, far away from the beauty salon, was so angry by his son's words that her wrinkle almost popped out.

Vivian didn't think her son was an ingrate, but now she felt more and more that raising a daughter was better than introducing a son at the beginning.

It seemed that it was not too late to raise Lavinia as a daughter.

Yes, the charity auction in the rich circle was coming soon. When the time came, she would take Lavinia and get her whatever she liked. She would also buy all the beautiful clothes in Fashion Week, customize them according to Lavinia's storage, and send them directly to my home.

It's a great pity in life that I didn't buy things for my children in the past few decades. In this case, I will spend the rest of my life on my daughter to make up for it.

Lavinia didn't even know that her mother-in-law was targeting her and what had been arranged unconsciously. When she found that her future mother-in-law had prepared so many things for her, she still felt more like a dream.

On this day,when Lavinia was scheduled for a routine physical examination,Hawn led a professional medical team to Chris's villa,where the medical car was parked in the spacious courtyard,and everyone was waiting for the woman to wake up.

Lavinia was bleary-eyed and didn't know how to congratulate Chris for preparing these.

"If you wake up,go downstairs on an empty stomach to finish the examination before eating breakfast."

Chris brought a cup of hot water and went to Lavinia's bed.He suddenly remembered that Lavinia needed to take the examination with an empty stomach,so he had to drink that warm water into his stomach.

"I am fine.Do I still need a physical examination?"

She didn't quite understand the life of wealthy people.But,if Chris insisted on doing it,she would fully cooperate.

"I need it.I had a physical problem last time.After the recovery,we haven't gone to the hospital for reexamination.By the way,let Hawn examine you."

Lavinia didn't expect to have a reexamination.Chris,who was so busy,could still remember these little things.

It's false to say that she's not moved.She changed her clothes and washed before going downstairs.

The whole medical team was ready to go.Seeing Lavinia came down,they seemed to see the dawn.

"Miss.Lavinia,You didn't have breakfast,right?Is there anything uncomfortable?"

The inquiring nurse took a form,filled it out while asking,and then handed it to another doctor who needed to take over.

Everyone was busy with their jobs.Various instruments were using on Lavinia's body.Most of the time,she didn't even know the purpose of the device.

Lavinia thought it was just a simple physic examination,but the whole process took nearly two hours.After the physical examination,Auntie brought hot milk and asked Lavinia to drink some milk before eating breakfast.

The most significant advantage of advanced medical devices was that the results that need more time to come out would soon be delivered to Chris.

"There is no problem in her physical recovery,but the accident in that year caused irreversible damage to her body.It is too difficult to cure it completely.You'd better have a psychological preparation."

Chris was not surprised by the inspection results,but before that,he still expected a miracle.

"Chris,I say this to you as a brother.Do you think you are with her for sympathy or because of love?"

Hawn had wanted to ask this for a long time,and then he said it to Chris when he looked around and saw that there was really no one around who could eavesdrop.

"What's the difference?"

Chris didn't answer immediately. He knew that everything Hawn said must have his intention.

As for what the intention was, Chris would not know until Hawn spoke it himself.

"If it is because of gratitude, what you give her now is enough. But if it is because of love, I want to advise you that a family like The Konev Family will never allow the future mistress to be infertile. Can you understand what I mean?"

Lavinia probably couldn't have children. It's not a wise choice for Chris.

"I know what I'm doing now. She is the woman I chose. But, unfortunately, we are not together to carry on the family."

So knowing what problems he would face with Lavinia, he still chose this woman.

"Keep it as a secret. If other people knew about that, I would kill you."

Hawn pulled his hand on his mouth to show that he was a sensible person and would not talk indiscriminately.

After reading the inspection report, it was burned by Chris and flushed directly from the toilet.

Hawn was still frowning when they drove away. Just because Chris wouldn't let him say something, it didn't mean he didn't worry.

"Doctor Hawn, there are still a few tests that have not been done. Do you need to work overtime to make results?"

The doctor asked Hawn that Chris usually needed to work overtime for tests, but today, Hawn didn't mention working overtime.

"No, just come out at the normal time."

His eyebrows hurt a little. A few simple tests have shown that Lavinia was infertile. Unfortunately, the remaining tests would come out again. Hawn was worried that Chris couldn't stand this result.

When Lavinia returned to school again, Nicole came to meet her at the school gate as usual. Nicole used to be alone, but today she was waiting for two people at the gate.

That was a man!

Lavinia has never seen the man standing next to Nicole. But, looking at the temperament of a man, she could probably guess the identity of a man.

"Lavinia, I bought your favorite bean paste bag and shrimp dumplings. You should devour them, and let's go to class."

Nicole grabbed what the man was carrying and gently put it in Lavinia's hand. The contrast before and after was evident, which made the man feel hurt.

"By the way, I forgot to introduce you. This is Frank, the man who let people threaten me last time."

Well, Frank's heart was torn again. He actually told those guys to invite Nicole politely. But those people misunderstood his words as threatening and using force. Frank now really wanted to kill him.

"Hello, I'm Frank, Nicole's boyfriend."

Frank nodded politely and, expecting to shake hands. After realizing that Lavinia was Chris's girlfriend, he drew back his hand immediately.

"Boyfriend?When did it happen?I remember that you had a deep hatred with him not long ago,and you confirmed the relationship so quickly?"

When it comes to this,Nicole blushed.

"It's a long story.I'll talk to you in private when I get the chance."

Aware of Nicole's embarrassment,Frank took Nicole's hand and explained to Lavinia,"When true love comes,no one can stop it.So I chased her and finally got her permission."
