

Chapter 69 I want to take a bath with you

Not long after Nicole got up and said this, Shawn grabbed her hand.

He forcibly dragged her into her arms, pressing her without giving her a chance to get up.

'Just make it clear before taking shower. I don't dislike the smell on you now.'

Nicole froze in his arms, and she could even feel that he had been smelling her body when she finished saying this.

She suddenly felt helpless. She gave up struggling, and just let him hug her tightly.

But Nicole didn't want to talk about it now.

'Forget it, I don't want to talk about the unpleasant things. That would make my mood explode.'

Nicole turned over and wanted to turn her back to Shawn.

He thought for a while. Nicole came back from her house. Did Elena and her daughter did it?

According to Bob who loved Nicole so much, how could he do anything to her?

'Elena did it to you, right?'

As soon as Shawn finished speaking, he noticed that Nicole's body suddenly tightened, and the feeling was as if she was suddenly said to be so nervous.

She still frowned, not wanting to talk about this with him.

'Just let me take a shower, I don't want to talk about it now.'

'According to your personality and style of doing things, you should just fight back, why are you still sulking here.'

Shawn suddenly let out a laugh, and there was a glimmer of light in the depths of his eyes, not knowing that Elena would do that to her in front of Bob.

'Your auntie was indeed quite brave. She obviously knew that you were not easy to provoke, so she came to provoke you.'

Nicole immediately released him. She couldn't help gritting her teeth.

'Are you helping me speak, or are you helping them?'

In the end, her tone gradually took on a bit of resentment. They had been bothering her now. She wanted to guard against these two women, and now it seemed that it's a bit difficult.

'Of course, I am helping you to speak, am I still helping others to speak?'

Seeing her angry look now, Shawn twitched his eyebrows.

'It's also convenient to wait until you find out if Erin is your father's first, and then we work together to solve it.'

Hearing that, the anger in her eyes disappeared, and the eyes looking at him were a little suspicious.

'Really? Will you really help me solve it?'

If it were not for his mention of Erin's life experience, she had really forgotten that there was still this matter that had not been dealt with.

'of course.'

Shawn answered calmly. He suddenly got up from the bed. When he got out of bed, she was stunned again. Shawn turned around and picked her from the bed.

'I will take you to the bath first.'

'I can wash it myself.'

She kicked her foot subconsciously, trying to get off him.

But this was just a struggle, Shawn directly posted to her ear and whispered: 'I want to wash with you.'

The warm breath of the man sprayed on her cochlea, and her eyes flickered. And when Shawn approached, she involuntarily trembled.

She frowned and suppressed the panic in her heart: 'Didn't you have already washed it, why you do that again?'

'I don't mind washing it a second time anyway.'

He couldn't help but walked towards the bathroom with her in his arms.

Chapter 70 Try to get Shawn

Erin found Elena after Bob went to the study.

Her face was still red now, and she was a little dizzy with the slap that Nicole slapped. Now it's been so long, she still hasn't taken away from the anger just now.

'mom!'

She stood at the door and called Elena. Her tone of displeasure arose.

The things in Elena's hand shook, and she immediately looked to the doorway. When she saw Erin standing there with an angry expression, she hurriedly waved to her.

'Come in now. Your dad didn't find you, right?'

'Lock the door.'

She knew that Erin came here to tell her about Nicole, so she beckoned her to come in quickly.

Erin gritted her teeth and turned around and locked the door before she walked towards Elena.

'Have you applied the medicine? How do I feel that your face is still swollen?'

Elena reached out and touched her face. When she said this, a face pulled down again, and she immediately gritted her teeth: 'Nicole really didn't mean to be merciful at all!'

'Did she treat you as her sister. Or did she think that she had a little share, then she could be arrogant here now. Did she think that she is powerful?'

Elena was scolding behind Nicole. But if she stood in front of her, it was estimated that she couldn't say anything.

'She never treated me like her sister. And now she is arrogant because of Shawn.'

As Erin was talking, she felt a little bit about to lose her temper. She couldn't help reaching out and holding Elena's hand.

'Mom, Shawn was originally the man I liked, it's mine!'

She was now unwilling to let Nicole be so blatantly proud!

'Now Shawn have become her man, we can't help it.'

Of course Elena knew that Erin was very unwilling now, but what could be done.

'That slut is still very good at seduce the man. In a short time, she could drive him crazy like this.'

'Shawn just took a fancy to her face, and after the freshness passed, he will kick her away. How could they stay together forever?'

Erin heard what Elena said, and immediately refuted her words.

'Don't you help me figure out a solution. Do you really want her to keep occupying that man?'

Elena frowned and was silent. She was also thinking about finding a way to introduce her to Shawn.

Erin's face was no worse than Nicole's.

Elena looked at Erin's face, her frowning brows slowly loosened. And a gleam of light flashed across her eyes. In order to get Shawn, even if it was despicable!

She reached out and patted her hand.

'Don't worry, Mom will definitely not let you be wronged. I will win that man for you!'

The dissatisfaction on Erin's face was shocked when she heard what Elena said. She still didn't believe it.

'Mom, what are you going to do?'

She pursed the corner of her mouth, waiting for her answer.

'Aren't you going to have a birthday party in two days? Then invite them, I will distract Nicole. And then I will do something to Shawn, he will not come to your bed.'
