

INTELLIGENT 101

Chapter 101: Lost Consciousness

Her body was trembling so much. Her head was low down making anyone could not see her face. Her hands made a fist shape. She tried to control her body.

That face... that face...that face... Her body released the cold aura. The temperature around her seemed to drop making everyone felt cold.

Bo Ya and Aoi were alarmed in the space. They felt their master was consumed by the hate. That could be bad if this continued. They could not go outside without Yu Qi. They had to calm down through the telepathy.

'Master, wake up.' Bo Ya screamed.

'Master, calm down. Not let hate control you. Master!!!' Aoi also screamed.

They continuously screamed calling her master through their telepathy. Yu Qi still did not react to her cuties calling. In the mind, the last moment of her previous life was played. She remembered that she tried to beg the couple in front of her. Begging her life. But the couple just laughed at her begging.

They acted Yu Qi was like an animal that they wanted to dispose. Yu Qi did not mind if she would be killed instantly. However, they tortured her by cutting off her fingers first, followed by her hands and her legs.

"Bo Ya, the master was not responding to us. What should we do?" Aoi asked in a panic.

Bo Ya also panic. If they could get out of the space, they could get made their master woke up. But they could not. There was only one thing to make Yu Qi woke up but a lot of sacrifices would be needed.

"You have a way right to wake up Master?" Aoi asked when he saw Bo Ya in silent thinking of something.

"Yes, but..." Bo Ya was hesitated to tell Aoi.

"Just tell me." Aoi wanted to save his master.

"You are bounded by blood contract. If you injured, Master also could feel it too. But you have to gravely injured..." Bo Ya could not continue the sentence.

"Then let's do it." Aoi did not hesitate at all.

"But..." Bo Ya did not want to make Aoi injured.

"We did not have time to think anymore. It will be very bad if this continued."

"Okay."

Bo Ya took his distance between Aoi. He made a white light on his small hand. The white light grew big and big. The size became big as Aoi. Then he threw that white light to Aoi.

Aoi closed his eyes. He could feel some wave toward him. Boom!!! The impact was heavy. His body was hurt very badly. He could not describe the pain. Bo Ya ran to him.

"Aoi, are you okay?"

"Master..."

Meanwhile, Yu Qi coughed some blood the moment the white light hit Aoi. She received the same of the pain that Aoi felt. The people that sat close to her could see the blood that she coughed. Everyone became panic.

They turned to Yu Qi. Yu Qi's body was already laid back on the floor. She had lost her consciousness. Sheng Mei asked the others to give way for her. She tried to calm down. Panic would not help at all.

Bai Shu Jin picked Yu Qi's body. He brought her to the treatment room near the hall. He put Yu Qi very carefully on the bed. He did not know why his heart felt weird when he saw this girl coughed some blood. This was his first time meeting this girl. He was pretty sure that he did not meet this girl before. Then, why he felt like this? Bai Shu Jin had asked himself that question.

"What was happened?" Ting Quan entered the room and asked Sheng Mei that also there too.

"Quan, I don't know. We finished our slot. So, I let them talked among them. I was talking to Shu Jin. Suddenly, this girl was coughing some blood and lost her consciousness." Sheng Mei explained the situation.

Ting Quan nodded. "Let's call Professor Chu Yan." He asked another facilitator to call Professor Chu Yan. Gladly this university was also a medical university. They would not lack any doctor.

Professor Chu Yan came. He inquired what had happened. Ting Quan and Sheng Mei told him what had happened. After hearing it, Professor Chu Yan inspected Yu Qi's body.

"Bring this student to our medical facilities. I will look at her there." Professor Chu Yan asked. "You can continue your job. I will inform you later about this student."

So, Yu Qi was brought to another place. Professor Chu Yan tried to find the cause that made this student coughed the blood and lost consciousness. He made Yu Qi undergo some test. It turned out it was okay. He scanned Yu Qi's body but disappointed to find anything unusual.

Professor Chu Yan called his colleagues to help him found this cause. All of them did not succeed in finding the cause. Yu Qi still lost her consciousness. Professor Chu Yan and other doctors tried to make Yu Qi woke up but still fail.

Chapter 102: Princess Of Tang Family

Professor Chu Yan and other doctors took other tests and still found nothing that caused Yu Qi's situation. Professor Chu Yan sighed. This must be informed to Yu Qi's relative. They could not hide the situation. It will be more troublesome if things became more and more serious.

Professor Chu Yan made a call to Grandpa Tang. He did not know that Yu Qi was the granddaughter of the man known as God of Medicine. He told the truth about Yu Qi. Grandpa Tang was shocked hearing the granddaughter coughed some blood and went into a coma. He threw his work aside and made a trip to the Tang House at FINN City.

Arriving there, he called all the family members including Tang Qin Hao and told the situation to his family. Others became worried when hearing Yu Qi's condition especially Ming Yue and Su Xiao. They made a trip to Starlight University.

Professor Chu Yan the one who received the Tang Family was shocked to see the legend here. He recognized the old man that lead the others. He was that Tang Jiang Man. He also recognized Tang Jung Wen as the current head of the Tang Hospital, Tang Jang Qin, Tang Han Lee, Tang Jin Wei, and even Tang Qin Hao was here.

'What is this? Why all of them were here?' He thought he called Yu Qi's family to discuss the condition of Yu Qi. Then he tried to recall Yu Qi's name. TANG YU QI. Is she is the princess of the Tang Family? He became nervous.

"Where is my granddaughter?" Grandpa Tang asked with force.

"This way." Professor Chu Yan leads the way to where Yu Qi was placed. That girl really the princess of the Tang Family.

They arrived the Yu Qi's room. Ming Yue and Su Xiao quickly entered the room and ran to Yu Qi's side. They saw Yu Qi seemed to sleep deeply. Grandpa Tang took Yu Qi's hand and tried to read her pulse. He took five minutes then he put away Yu Qi's hand.

"Father, how is she?" Tang Jung Wen asked his father.

"Her pulse is normal. Like she is just sleeping." Grandpa Tang answered.

"Did you do the Electroencephalography (EEG) [1] test? Let me see it." Tang Qin Hao asked Professor Chu Yan seriously.

"Yes, this way." Professor Chu Yan knew this young man's achievement. He was the best neurologist. He was a genius in his path.

Others also followed Professor Chu Yan. Only Ming Yue and Su Xiao were left at Yu Qi's side. They wanted to accompany their niece. It was not long after they received love from their niece. They did not want Yu Qi to leave them already.

In the other room, Professor Chu Yan asked another doctor to show the result of the Electroencephalography (EEG) test on the computer. Tang Qin Hao took a seat in front of the computer. He slowly analyzed the data pattern on the computer.

"What did you find from this data?" Tang Jin Wei asked her younger cousin.

"It was weird. That first pattern is shown she was sleeping then...Here, look at this pattern, it shows some activity in her brain." Tang Qin Hao circling the pattern in his finger and continued. "Then here, it shows many activities in her brain. This means chaos."

"Chaos?" Tang Han Lee asked the meaning of that term.

"Yes, she was in a dream. Most likely in a nightmare." Tang Qin Hao explained.

"Then, when she will wake up?" Tang Jung Wen's turn to ask.

"Should we wake up her, then?" Tang Jang Qin interrupted.

"I don't know when he will wake up. We could not force her to wake up. It will be dangerous for her. The best time was to wait for her to wake up on her own." Tang Qin Hao explained to them about the danger.

"So, she is in the coma state?" Tang Jin Wei wanted a confirmation.

"Yes." Tang Qin Hao nodded.

"I suppose you already make a Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) test [2], right?" Tang Jung Wen turned his attention to Professor Chu Yan.

"Yes, nothing was wrong with her body." Professor Chu Yan said and show the result of the Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) test.

The Tang people took a look at the result. They could see that was nothing's wrong with her body. Then, the question pops up in their brains. 'Why did she coughed some blood before she turned into this state?' They went outside the room and with a serious face.

"So, what should we doing now?" Tang Jin Wei asked his grandfather.

Grandpa Tang did not answer his grandson's question. He was still thinking about his beloved granddaughter. It just only one day she parted from him. It had happened. He signed.

"Professor Chu Yan." Someone was called Professor Chu Yan.

Professor Chu Yan turned to the voice. He saw the students that in-charge of the new student, Ting Quan, Sheng Mei, and Bai Shu Jin standing behind him.

"Yes?"

"Can we know the condition of the student, Tang Yu Qi now?" Ting Quan made inquiries about Yu Qi. It was already 3 days since that incident happened. Other students also wanted to know about Yu Qi.

Professor Chu Yan hesitated to tell the students about Yu Qi's condition. He had to get permission from Yu Qi's family. So he turned to Grandpa Tang.

"This is..." Tang Han Lee asked Professor Chu Yan about the three strangers.

"This is the senior students in charge of the new student. They are the ones who saw Yu Qi before the incident happened." Professor Chu Yan introduced the student to the Tang Family. " Ting Quan, Sheng Mei, and Bai Shu Jin."

"We are Yu Qi's family. Can you tell me how's Yu Qi before she coughed the blood and faint?" Tang Qin Hao asked.

"I'm the one with Yu Qi right before that happened. She was very friendly. Everyone talked to her when they got to know she was the rumor perfect scorer. Then my friend, Bai Shu Jin came and we talked for about 5-10 minutes, then that incident happened." Sheng Mei tried to recall the incident.

"She is now in a coma. We will only about one day more. If she did not manage to wake up here, we will transform her to our hospital." Grandpa Tang made a decision.

Other Tang Family members nodded hearing Grandpa Tang's decision.

Chapter 103: The Door In The Darkness

Yu Qi opened her eyes. She was standing somewhere that she did not recognize. The surrounding was black. She walked toward nothing in front of her. She did not know where to go. She just followed the flow.

Then she could see some door. She moved to the door and opened the door. She saw white light almost blinded her eyes. She closed her eyes unconsciously. After feeling okay, she slowly opened her eyes. She could see her standing in front of a wedding.

A garden wedding. People were blessing the couple with smiles and word of congratulation. Yu Qi wanted to see the groom and bride. So she approached them.

When the couple turned to the audience, she got a full view of the couple's faces. Fung Meng Xuan and Bai Shu Jin were smiling toward their guest. Bitch and bastard were perfectly together. She gave a cold smile.

'They got married. Is this from my past life? The scene after I die?' Yu Qi calmed herself. Why is this was shown to her? Wait, she already in the next world. Why was she here? What is she doing just now?

She thought very hard about that. Wait, she remembered. She was in the orientation at Starlight University. She saw Bai Shu Jin. Her hate toward him was consuming her. She almost wanted to kill him. Then she received the heavy blow out of nowhere. It was hurt badly.

Why she suddenly injured herself? Why was she here? She wanted to go back to the current world. She closed her eyes tightly. 'Please let me go back.' She was praying hard. She felt that the scene was changing. She tried to sneak a peek so she opened only one eye.

She was familiar with its scene. She fully opened her eyes. It was in her space. However, it felt different. Almost her space was not her at all. She looked around.

Then, she saw a pair of man and woman talking while drinking tea at the pavilion that she always used for her break. She approached the pavilion. It seemed the woman and man did not react at all for her. Like she was not here.

"The next owner will lead difficult lives." The woman slowly raised her teacup and drunk it.

"Why?" The man asked.

"It was her fates. Fortunately, this space will help her. However, she will pay a price for that." The woman said with a sad voice.

Yu Qi wanted to speak but suddenly everything was been sucked off by the darkness. She was back to darkness. She walked and walked. It was endless darkness. Until she saw a door.

Yu Qi did not care about what will happen after she opened the door. She wanted to get out of this darkness. She ran to that door and opened it. It was her space. Now she could feel it was her space.

Yu Qi could see that Bo Ya was running toward her. He was crying hardly. She never saw Bo Ya cried before. She wondered what had happened making her Bo Ya cried so hard.

Bo Ya was in a room in the Pagoda together with the gravely injured Aoi. He tried to minimize the damage that Aoi received with his spirit energy but nothing was working.

Aoi was unconscious. Bo Ya regretted what he just did. He did that to bring back his master but even he failed. His master's soul went missing and Aoi was fell into this state.

After Aoi fell into consciousness, he did not sense his master's soul. It was turned to nothing. He tried to sense it but nothing was found. Bo Ya was hopeless. He just knew that his master did not die because Aoi was still alive. His master's life and Aoi's life was connected.

He just had to wait for his master's return. Only his master was returned, then Aoi would get better. Suddenly he could sense his master's soul. His master was in this space.

Bo Ya was running faster toward his master. He was right. It was his master. He was cried while running. Arrived at his master, he called her in a grave voice.

"Master."

"Bo Ya, what's happened?" Yu Qi was confused to see Bo Ya's cry.

"Aoi...Aoi...Please." Bo Ya was crying so hard making Yu Qi hardly understand him.

"Aoi...Please...come..." Bo Ya pulled Yu Qi's hand toward to Pagoda.

Bo Ya brought Yu Qi to see Aoi. Yu Qi was shocked when seeing Aoi. Aoi was covered by the blood. The blood was already dried. She quickly went to Aoi's side.

"Bo Ya, what happens here?" Yu Qi asked Bo Ya while her eyes fixed to Aoi.

"I will explain later. Master, please place your hand onto Aoi's head. Channel your spirit energy to Aoi." Bo Ya instructed Yu Qi.

Yu Qi placed her hand onto Aoi's head. Even though she did not understand about spirit energy, she followed Bo Ya's instruction. She wanted Aoi to get better. Then a green glow appeared around her hand and flew into Aoi's body. Yu Qi saw Aoi was getting better. His breath was returned to normal.

"Master, it's enough. You can remove your hand." Bo Ya said in relieved.

"Tell me what happened here?" Yu Qi finally could ask Bo Ya about that.

"Actually..." Bo Ya did not know how to tell Yu Qi about this.

"Tell me." Yu Qi really wanted to know. How Aoi got injured like that?

"That day, Master was consumed by hate. We will try to call Master but Master did not hear us. It will be dangerous if Master stayed consumed by hate. We only got one way to stop Master through Aoi. You are connected to Aoi. So..."

"You mean because of me, Aoi got injured like that?"

"Yes, in order to wake you up, he has gravely injured. You will receive the same pain." Bo Ya lowered his head.

Yu Qi was silent. Because of her, Aoi was gravely injured. He was just a puppy. She cried.

"Sorry. I'm sorry. Because I could not control myself, I was been consumed by hate. Sorry, Bo Ya...Sorry, Aoi." Yu Qi cried.

Bo Ya also cried in her hug. He was scared when Aoi became like that and his master's soul went missing. He just started to feel comfortable with his master and his new friend. He was relieved with his master's return. He did not know what will happen if his biggest fear come true.

Chapter 104: Wake Up

"Master, you have to get out now. Your family was worried about you." Bo Ya reminded her.

"My family?"

"Yes, your family had been called by someone. Because you had been out for 3 days outside the space." Bo Ya explained the current situation to her.

'3 days? No wonder the university called my family.' She wanted to go out but Aoi...

"Master, don't worry about Aoi. His body was not in danger anymore. He is just sleeping. I will inform you if he wakes up." Bo Ya said to her.

Yu Qi nodded. She also had to wake up. She had to tell her family and others that she was okay. She could not let others worried about her anymore.

"Okay, Bo Ya. Tell me if he wakes up, okay?"

"Okay, Master."

Yu Qi closed her eyes. Then she opened her eyes slowly. She could see her two aunties sitting beside her bed. She wanted to call her aunties but she could not. Her throat felt very dry. So only the weird sound that she made.

Ming Yue heard something. She turned to Yu Qi. She stood up.

"Yu Qi, my dear. You awake. Thank goodness." Ming Yue's voice attracted everyone in the room.

Everyone rushed to her bed. She was surprised that everyone was here. She thought maybe only her grandfather and her aunties were here. Even Tang Qin Hao also here.

"Yu Qi." Grandpa Tang patted her head.

Yu Qi made a gesture that she wanted some water. Tang Jin Wei quickly the glass and poured some water then gave to Yu Qi. After some mouths of water, she felt her throat became better.

"Thank you, Brother Jin." She placed the glass to the side table.

"Are you okay, Yu Qi? Did you feel pain anywhere?" Su Xiao.

"I'm feeling better right now. Don't worry." Yu Qi calmed everyone.

"What happened to you?" Tang Han Lee asked.

"I also don't know, Big Brother Han. I don't remember. The last thing that I'm remembered was I'm was talked to others. Then blank." Yu Qi lied.

There was no way she was going to tell that she was consumed by hate when meeting that bastard for the first time in this life. People might think she was crazy.

"Okay. Now rest. Don't think about anything." Tang Jung Wen ended the talk.

Yeah. Everything could wait. It was midnight when Yu Qi woke up. Fortunately, in this room, there were two extra beds. The men in the Tang Family insisted that Grandpa Tang take one. It was not good to let the old man rest on the sofa only. Grandpa Tang only followed that order silently. He did not want to hear Tang Han Lee's nagging if he tried to protest.

While other bed had been taken by her aunties. Tang Jung Wen and Tang Jang Qin sat on the sofa. The three younger men in the Tang Family was sitting outside the room.

"What do you think about our sister's condition?" Tang Han Lee asked his brothers.

"It was weird. Why did she cough blood? We scanned her body. The result turned out nothing. No internal injury." Tang Jin Wei gave his opinion.

Tang Qin Hao was thinking about something. He had a habit when he was thinking about something. That habit was his finger would making some movement like waves. Tang Han Lee noticed that.

"What are you thinking?" Tang Han Lee asked Tang Qin Hao.

"I'm interested in what she doing through her coma. Her brain test showed disturbance pattern during her coma. I never saw that pattern before on other patients. What's happened in her coma?" Tang Qin Hao said with his blank expression.

Tang Han Lee and Tang Jin Wei could not answer that question. Only Yu Qi knew the answer. But from their first observation after Yu Qi woke up determined she might even do not remember about what happened during her coma.

Yu Qi already entered her space. She only entered the space by her soul. Others might be shocked if her body was suddenly missing. Yu Qi entered the room where Aoi was taken rest. Aoi was in deep sleep. Bo Ya happened to sleep beside him.

Yu Qi rubbed their head gently. 'Thank you my little cuties. Thank you not to let hate control me.' She left and went to the training room. She was sitting and do some meditation. She had to control her inner self. Otherwise, she would be consumed by hate again when she saw that bastard.

She hated that bastard. She hated Bai Shu Jin. He teamed with that bitch and others, betraying her trust. She was very close to him in her previous life. Even her grandfather did not close with her as him. She admitted she loved him. But as a brother.

He was the one that proposed to her. He told her he wanted to marry her. At first, she refused. However, he persistent on her making her heart melted a little bit. She thought it was okay if she doesn't love him. Maybe after getting married, she could learn to love him. However, the reality was really sucked.

Chapter 105: Warm Family

After two hours of meditation, she opened her eyes. Her mind became clear and calm. She tried to move her legs.

"Yeah. Two hours sitting in this position, what can I expect? My legs slept." Yu Qi laughed at herself.

She constantly tried to move her legs until her leg gained movement. She stood up, stretching her body.

"I want to practice my shooting." She went to the shooting area. She chooses her gun. Beretta M9. She already proficient shooting using one hand. She wanted to try to use both hands.

Yu Qi knew it might be difficult as her dominant hand was the left side. She was left-handed. So using her right hand was more challenging. However the word impossible was not in her dictionary.

So, Yu Qi tried to practice using her right hand first before proceed using the two hands. At first, all the bullet that she fired were not landed even in the edge of the target board. After keeping trying, she managed to fire some bullet on the target board.

"Master!!!" Yu Qi heard some screaming. Then she felt some kind of ball frying toward her and pounded into the chest. She fell backward.

"Master! Master! Master!" That voice calling her again and again. It was a desperate voice plus some crying.

It was Aoi that already woke up. He sensed his master in the space. So he was running toward his master. He was very relieved seeing her master was okay and sound.

Yu Qi patted Aoi's head. She was smiling while doing that. She stood up and sitting. Aoi was on her laps. She lifted him up. Her eyes met his eyes.

"My cutie, don't cry anymore, okay." She soothed Aoi's feeling. "I will not let this happen again. I don't you to hurt yourself again."

"I promise but master also has to promise," Aoi said with watery eyes.

"Of course, my cutie."

"Master, Aoi." Bo Ya came running.

"Aoi, are you feeling okay?" Bo Ya asked worriedly.

"Yes. No problem at all." Aoi said.

"I'm sorry. I should not suggest that. You got hurt." Bo Ya was blaming himself.

"No. I should thank you. Because of that, we succeed in saving the Master." Bo Ya shakes his head.

"I will not let this happen again." Yu Qi repeated that sentence again.

"I want to rest now. Aoi, I will bring you out next time. I can't bring you out now because I only enter with my soul." Yu Qi explained first to Aoi.

"Okay, Master. Take a good rest." Bo Ya and Aoi said.

Long Hui was sitting on the chair hearing his subordinate's report. He was absent from the camp for a mission. So, his subordinate told him about what was happened during his absence. He nodded acknowledging all of them.

"Hmm, Major Long. It's one thing. We received a call from the public to Major Long. I recorded it. It was from Tang Family from FINN City.' His subordinate informed him about it.

He quickly listening to the message. Hearing the content of the message, his face changed to a grim. Without waiting for a reaction from his subordinate, he running from his office. His destination? Of course, to his beloved.

Meanwhile, Yu Qi waking up in the morning. At the moment she woke up, her aunties were waiting for her with some food. When she saw the food, her stomach making some sound. That sound was surprisingly loud enough making her family member knew that she was waking up.

"Hahaha, that sound was loud. Are you that hungry, Little Sis?" Tang Jin Wei made a joke.

Pah! Ming Yue hit Tang Jin Wei's head.

"Ouch. That hurts. Mum, why are you hitting me?" Tang Jin Wei shouted while rubbed his head.

"Of course, she will be hungry. Even though we inject some nutrient into her body, that would not enough." Tang Jung Wen interrupted.

Tang Han Lee: "You deserve it."

Tang Qin Hao: "Stupid."

Tang Jin Wei: "I just want to make some jokes for her laugh. The aura was gloomy anyway. All right, I will be mute for now."

Yu Qi laughed. "Thank you, Brother Jin. Thank you. It was funny."

Tang Jin Wei turned to Yu Qi. "I know you understand my jokes, Little Sis."

Yu Qi: "It was funny when after Auntie Ming Yue hit your hand."

Tang Jin Wei: "Then it worth been hit."

Tang Han Lee: "Sister-con."

Tang Qin Hao: "Stupid."

Tang Jin Wei: " Shut up!"

Yu Qi ended up laughing again.

Su Xiao brought some food to Yu Qi. "Here, eat something before your stomach protesting again."

"Yes, Auntie Su Xiao." Yu Qi took the food and eat it. It was a very blessing for her stomach.

"How is your body feel, Yu Qi?" Grandpa Tang asked after being silent for a long time.

"It felt okay. Maybe some numbness because I did not move for a long time."

Grandpa Tang opened her bag and took out something from it. It was a complete set of acupuncture needles.

"I will improve your blood circulation. Stay still." Grandpa Tang said in a serious tone.

Yu Qi followed his order to stay still. Grandpa Tang took a needle and poked the area between her big toe and the next it. Then he took other needles and poked area that on the lateral side of the leg below the kneecap and area that situated three finger-widths above the ankle bone on the inside of the leg.

After 15 minutes, she could feel that her body felt much better than before. Seeing Yu Qi's reaction, Grandpa Tang took out the needle from those three areas.

"The three area can improve blood circulation in the body. Remember that." Grandpa Tang accidentally gave her a lecture about acupuncture.

"Yes, master." Yu Qi answered firmly.

People in that room looked at each other shake their head. She was like him. People who did not know about their true relationship would think that she was his true granddaughter.

Chapter 106: Ignore Others People

"Never thought that Brother Qin would be here too." Yu Qi said to Tang Qin Hao who was silently watching her.

Others were going to eat. Tang Qin Hao did not want to eat so he was left behind with Yu Qi.

"Brother Han took me here." Tang Qin Hao answered honestly.

It was true. Tang Han Lee took him here without his permission. He felt there was no meaning to protest so he quietly followed Tang Han Lee. Protest meant nothing to Tang Han Lee.

"More importantly, did you remember what happened when you are unconscious?" Tang Qin Hao really interested to hear that.

"I remember a little bit. I'm was standing in the darkness. No light came toward. Only the darkness. So I'm walking and walking. Until I found that some door. I opened and entered it. After that, there was no memory. I don't know what was beyond that door." Yu Qi mixture the truth and the lie.

"I see. Take a look at this." Tang Qin Hao gave her some paper.

"What is this?" Yu Qi asked while her hand grabbed that paper.

"Your result test. Everything was normal. Except for this one." Tang Qin Hao showed to her something.

It was her Electroencephalography (EEG).

"Here showed some pattern. I never see this kind of pattern before during work. I saw it once when crossing some books during my study. It indicates some horrible thing happen to you during your unconsciousness." Tang Qin Hao studied Yu Qi expression.

Yu Qi reacted slightly to his explanation. Tang Qin Hao who observed her expression noticed the slight change on her. Tang Qin Hao patted her head.

"Don't worry. I will not pry on your business if you don't want me to." Tang Qin Hao said with his unchanged expression.

However, Yu Qi felt warm.

"Tang Yu Qi, are you feeling okay?" At the door, Senior Sheng Mei and Senior Ting Quan were there.

Yu Qi turned to the door. She was okay when seeing Senior Sheng Mei and Senior Ting Quan. That okay turned to coldness when her eyes laid on the shameless couple. That Fung Meng Xuan and Bai Shu Jin were there too.

The four of them entered the room. Tang Qin Hao moved to the sofa giving his way to people who entered the room. He silently watching them.

"I'm feeling better. Thank you." Yu Qi smiled to Senior Sheng Mei.

"I was scared when I saw you coughed blood." Fung Meng Xuan suddenly talked while her eyes spying Tang Qin Hao. 'What a handsome man. I wonder what is his relationship with this girl? Maybe her boyfriend.'

"Why are you here?" Yu Qi asked her disdain tone.

"I...I...I just worry about you." Fung Meng Xuan did not expect Yu Qi would ask that question.

"Not need to worry about me. We are not a friend." Yu Qi glared at Fung Meng Xuan.

Fung Meng Xuan lowered her head. She seemed to shake when Yu Qi glared at her making she looked so pitiful.

"Junior Tang, she just worries about you as a human being." Bai Shu Jin defended Fung Meng Xuan.

Fung Meng Xuan looked at Bai Shu Jin with a smile. 'Senior Bai Shu Jin defend me.' Yu Qi rolled her eyes when looking at this couple.

"And who are you?" Yu Qi asked Bai Shu Jin.

"Tang Yu Qi, he is one of the facilitators, Bai Shu Jin." Senior Sheng Mei.

"I see." She did not say more. She already knew this man. She just needed to act that she did not know this man. That why she just asking who he was.

Senior Sheng Mei expected she asking more about Bai Shu Jin. However, her expectation was going down because Yu Qi just nodded and did not pay much attention to Bai Shu Jin. Well, Bai Shu Jin was one of handsome man that she ever saw. Even though the man that sat on the sofa was fairly handsome, he could not win against Bai Shu Jin.

"Little Sis, we are back. Oh, we have guests here." Tang Jin Wei entered with a plastic bag.

Other Tang Family member also here. They looked at the guests. Scanning their face.

Senior Ting Quan stepped forward and introduce themselves. "I'm a third-year senior in charge of the orientation. Ting Quan. This is my friend, Sheng Mei and Bai Shu Jin. And this is Fung Meng Xuan, the first-year student same like Miss Tang here. We are here to visit Miss Tang after hearing she was waking up."

"I see. We are Yu Qi's family." Tang Jung Wen said politely.

Suddenly they could hear someone was running toward this room. A man strode out of the entrance, dressed in military uniform that he pulled off easily with his tall stature and broad shoulders.

His short black hair was sharp and stylish. His face was well-defined with a perfect jawline and flawless features, like that of an artisan's treasured sculpture.

His features were deep and cold, while his eyes were sharp with a piercing gaze that could freeze a person to their bones. He exuded a strong, dominating aura that was both overwhelming and intimidating, preventing anyone from getting too close.

This man ignored other eyes. His eyes only saw the girl on the bed. He rushed toward her and pulled her into his hug. He was relieved to see his beloved was fine. Yeah, this man was Long Hui that rushed to Starlight University after knowing the news about his beloved.

He was very worried about his beloved. Hearing she was in a coma for 3 days very terrifying thing. He afraid of losing his beloved.

Yu Qi was stiffed in Long Hui's hug. It was a long time since their last meeting. Or should we call their first date? She wondered why was he here now. He said he was in the mission on that day.

'What's the mission? Is he okay? Not wounded? Many questions popped up in her mind.

Chapter 107: New Purpose

Others were shocked by this man. They had different reasons why they were shocked by this dashing handsome man.

Bai Shu Jin was shocked when he saw the man rushed and hugged Yu Qi. He knew that this man has some special relationship with Yu Qi.

Fung Meng Xuan in another hand was captured by this handsome man. This man was beyond Bai Shu Jin level. It was very terrifying handsome. She was very jealous of Yu Qi. Seeing Yu Qi in the handsome man's hug grew some hate toward Yu Qi. She wondered what was Yu Qi doing to gain the handsome man's affection.

Fung Meng Xuan would be very shocked if she heard that Yu Qi managed to catch Long Hui's attention by killing people. Yeah, Yu Qi caught Long Hui's attention when he found Yu Qi killing the people with her perfect marksmanship.

Senior Ting Quan and Senior Sheng Mei were surprised to see a man looked like he was created by painting. No wonder Yu Qi did not take a second glance to Bai Shu Jin. Her man was already this level of handsomeness. They could see Yu Qi had a special relationship with this man.

"Brat, how long you want to hug my granddaughter?" Grandpa Tang snapped. He did not expect to see this brat here. He also wondered how this brat got the news about his granddaughter.

Long Hui then released Yu Qi and faced other people. He greeted the Tang Family members. Then he turned back to Yu Qi.

"Are you feeling okay, right now?" He asked with a full gentle voice. Unlike he was greeted the Tang Family member.

"What are you doing here?" Yu Qi gained her sense when she heard Long Hui's voice.

"Of course to see you. How did this happen to you?" Long Hui really wanted to know about his beloved.

"I'm just tired a little bit." Yu Qi made a lie.

The people who were been listening to the couple's conversation rolled their eyes. Did just tired lead to the coughing the blood? Yu Qi really made a twist in her statement.

"Really?" Long Hui was suspicious. It was not easy for him to believe that.

From the message that he heard, her aunties were scared when they first heard about Yu Qi's condition.

"Yes. Don't worry. I'm fine now." Yu Qi smiled to Long Hui.

Long Hui that was tensed from the first moment he entered the room felt very very very relieved.

"Let's go out, everyone." Ming Yue spoke to others.

They went outside the room leaving Yu Qi and Long Hui talked to each other. Fung Meng Xuan actually did not want to leave the room. She wanted to get known that man.

From the moment, that man entered the room, she was captured by him. She thought Bai Shu Jin was the handsome man she saw in the entire life but that changed when that man entered her sight. She was a little bit flustered when that man did not even glance to her. His eyes only on Yu Qi.

Fung Meng Xuan now had a new purpose in her life. Making that man turned his way to her and became his woman. For that, Yu Qi was the key. She needed to befriend to Yu Qi.

Another person that also did not want to leave was Bai Shu Jin. He saw Yu Qi talked nicely to that man while with him, she just gave a cold shoulder. Bai Shu Jin also felt some hate came from Yu Qi toward him. He wondered about that. That day was his first meeting with her. It was unlogic to think people could hate others on their first meeting.

"Who tells that brat about Yu Qi?" Grandpa Tang asked the Tang Family members.

"Father, it was me that left the message about Yu Qi to him." Ming Yue confessed.

"Sigh...Don't worry. I'm not mad. But you should not disturb him. He has a big responsibility on his shoulder." Grandpa Tang said while sighed several times.

"I'm sorry, father. I was not thinking about that." Ming Yue also felt regret. She did not consider that. At times, she just wanted to tell Long Hui about Yu Qi's condition.

The four students also listened to the Tang Family's conversation. Fung Meng Xuan was listening to collect some information about Long Hui. All she knew that Long Hui was a part of the military from his uniform.

"Sir, we think we will leave now. Seeing Miss Tang was okay, it was a relief to us." Senior Ting Quan said and started to leave.

Senior Sheng Mei and Bai Shu Jin also followed his lead. Only Fung Meng Xuan did not move at all. How can she leave? She did not get enough information about Long Hui yet.

Senior Sheng Mei saw Fung Meng Xuan's behavior. As a woman, she was kind of understand. This first-year student was blinded by that man. Fung Meng Xuan wanted to know that man. But she could see that man ignored everything. On his eyes only that Tang Yu Qi was the matter. So, she went back to Fung Meng Xuan and pulled her from there.

"Let's go. Don't disturb others anymore. We got permission from Professor Chu Yan only to see Miss Tang for a moment. Now we knew about her, let's leave." Senior Sheng Mei pulled Fung Meng Xuan's hand.

Fung Meng Xuan wanted to protest but seeing Sheng Mei's expression, she only could obey her.

Chapter 108: Really A Couple

In the room, Yu Qi was left together with Long Hui. She noticed that everyone in the room was left. Must be her aunties work. She smiled unconsciously.

Long Hui noticed that smile. She was very beautiful even with her pale face. Well, all men in love always thought that their beloved was the beautiful woman in their eyes. Long Hui was also one of them.

"Beautiful." Long Hui voiced his thought loudly in front of Yu Qi. He praised her unconsciously.

Yu Qi was blushed. (" — "). This man really a sweet talker. Being praised as beautiful in front of her making her shy. She suddenly remembered about him having a mission.

"Are you okay? Not injured?" She looked around his body. She knew sometimes those missions were dangerous. If he was not careful enough, he might lose his life.

"Don't worry. I'm okay. You should worry about your own body." Long Hui counter back her.

"I already okay." Yu Qi pouted.

Seeing Yu Qi pouted making Long Hui happy. It was very cute for him. He was really really glad that nothing serious happened to Yu Qi. On his way came here, he almost got in multiple accidents. Fortunately, he had good control of the situation.

Long Hui's body leaned forward toward side bed. He hadn't slept for 3 days. He thought after reporting to the military about the mission, he would take some rest. But Yu Qi's news made him awake for another couple hours.

Then Long Hui fell to sleep with his head on the side of the bed. Yu Qi was panic seeing Long Hui suddenly fell unconsciously.

"Anyone come inside." Yu Qi shouted loudly.

Everyone was outside the room startled when heard Yu Qi's shout. All of them came inside the room. They saw Long Hui's state. Grandpa Tang came and took his pulse. After a few moments, Grandpa Tang released Long Hui's hand.

"He will be fine after sleep. He is just exhausting himself. Lack of sleep. Han Lee, Jin Wei carry him to that extra bed." Grandpa Tang instructed his two grandsons. Tang Jin Wei wanted to protest but seeing Yu Qi's eyes, he quickly followed that order. He could see Tang Han Lee wanted to say some few words to him if he did not want to help.

Yu Qi relieved when Grandpa Tang stated Long Hui's condition.

"Someone lied about just tired. Other someone had been true about tired. Really a couple." Tang Jin Wei was saying in a joking tone.

"Humph. I just don't want he's worried about me." Yu Qi was rolling her eyes to Tang Jin Wei.

"You are okay, now. We also have to go back. Remember to take care of your body." Grandpa Tang said. Yeah, Tang Family had to return home. Also, there was a lot of work waiting for them in the hospital.

"I will go and inform Professor Chu Yan that we're leaving." Tang Jung Wen left the place.

"But is that really okay to leave her with him?" Tang Jin Wei asked while his finger was pointing to Long Hui that was sleeping on the bed beside Yu Qi.

"What do you think that he is going to do?" Ming Yue asked.

"What if he wakes up and attacks Yu Qi in her sleep?" Tang Jin Wei made a horrible face.

"He is not like you." Ming Yue hit his head again.

"Mum, can you not hit my head?" Tang Jin Wei held the place that he had been hit.

"If you are not talking nonsense." Ming Yue said.

Tang Han Lee: "Close your mouth."

Tang Qin Hao: "Stupid."

Tang Jin Wei: "You two always bully me."

As usual, they were bickering each other. Yu Qi laughed to see Tang Han Lee and Tang Qin Hao incoherent on shutting Tang Jin Wei down.

After the Tang Family returned back to FINN City, the room turned to a silent room. Only Yu Qi and Long Hui that still sleeping were in the room. Yu Qi was laid on her side facing Long Hui. Long Hui also facing Yu Qi. So she could see all the features of Long Hui's face. (*' ㄟ`)' 'Ah, he is so handsome.'

'Yes, he is a handsome man.' Bo Ya joined her thought on Long Hui.

'Well, I don't really understand about man look.' Aoi said.

'You two.' Yu Qi was so embarrassed when her two cuties commented on her thought. She was sure she was drooling on looking at Long Hui's face. Ah, so embarrassed. (??ㄎ??).

'Why is he here?' Bo Ya wondered about that.

'He came and visited me after hearing my situation.'

'Wow, lovely scene.' Bo Ya teased his master.

'Shut up!' Yu Qi snapped.

'Aoi, let's go. Don't disturb our master.' Bo Ya told Aoi.

Then the telepathy went silence.

Chapter 109: This Girl Is Special

Long Hui woke up in an unfamiliar room. He knew by its smell. He stood up guarded himself. The room was in complete darkness. His eyes started to adjust to the surrounding. He could see his beloved on the next bed beside him.

Long Hui started to remember what happened before he passed out. He was visiting his beloved. He took a relief breath. He went closer to Yu Qi's bed. He reached his hand to touch Yu Qi's face.

Suddenly his hand was blocked. He was caught off guard. His beloved in position defending herself from potential threats.

"Who are you?" Long Hui could hear that Yu Qi's voice sounded very cold and powerful.

"Yu Qi dear, it's me. Long Hui." 'Your future husband.' He could say that three words only on his mind. He would say confidently one day. Right now, he had to calm down his beloved. He could sense Yu Qi might kill the intruder if he did not explain any longer.

"Long Hui?" Yu Qi began to relax. Yeah, Long Hui stayed in this room as well. She forgot about that.

Long Hui switched on the light. The brightness surrounds the room. Yu Qi closed her eyes and then opened it back after feeling okay with the light.

"Sorry." Yu Qi apologized. She was also alerted state in her sleep. The fear when she experienced dying in her past life haunted her. She could not sleep very well since that.

"It's okay. It was also my fault. Sorry." Long Hui came and held her hand.

"Are you hungry? Earlier someone sent dinner to us but you are sleeping. I don't want to disturb you. So, I just leave your dinner there." Yu Qi pointed to the table.

Long Hui did not answer her question but his stomach did. Yu Qi smiled to Long Hui was looking embarrassed. 'Ah, so cute. (???)'.

"Go eat first. Your body needs foods." Yu Qi said.

Long Hui was obeying Yu Qi's order. He ate without his eyes ran away from Yu Qi. After eating, he sat beside Yu Qi's bed. Long Hui shamelessly took and held Yu Qi's hand.

Yu Qi surprised but at the end, she was letting Long Hui held her hand. Long Hui seemed to caress her hand like a treasure.

"Grandfather says that you were not sleeping for about three days. Are those missions always like this?" Yu Qi asked.

"Well, sometimes." Long Hui did not explain much.

Yu Qi understood. It was secrets military. Long Hui could not talk much about that.

"I'm going to discharge by tomorrow." Yu Qi changed the topic.

"I see. You should take care of your body. Know your own limit." Long Hui advised. "It's late now. Sleep."

"But you..."

"Don't worry. I'm going to sleep after you sleep." Long Hui convinced Yu Qi. He switched off the light back.

"Okay."

Seriously, it was hard for Yu Qi to sleep when someone holding her hand and much harder when that someone seemed like to caress her hand. Yeah, Long Hui played with her hand. Long Hui was smiling while looking at Yu Qi that closed her eyes.

He knew with Yu Qi's behavior, she would not fall to sleep if someone holding her hand. So, after a few moments, he released them.

"Sleep. I will be next to you." Long Hui whispered to her in the darkness.

Hearing this, Yu Qi tried again to sleep. Maybe because she was tired, she slowly fell into the dreamland.

Finally, she slept. Long Hui kissed her forehead. Luckily to him, Yu Qi did not wake up and landed a blow to him. He looked at her lips. He endured the evil whisper. His first kiss with Yu Qi should be romantic. Not sneaky act like this.

.....

"What a blessing, see a handsome man in front of me." Yu Qi said while she was half sleeping.

"I don't mind letting you see me every day." The handsome man answered.

Then Yu Qi fully woke up when she heard tha voice. She saw Long Hui supported his head with his hand and looking straight to Yu Qi displayed his dashing smile. Yu Qi realized that Long Hui heard her words just now.

Yu Qi was blushing. In the two days straight, she was embarrassed with her own act. One with her two little cuties and now with his man.

"So, what are you think? Should I stay with you?" Long Hui teased Yu Qi.

"No. Don't ever think about that." Yu Qi shouted in embarrassing.

Long Hui laughed. His beloved looked so cute.

"Here, I brought you some breakfast." Long Hui took the food in the table in front of the safe and brought it to Yu Qi. "Do you want me to feed you?"

"No." Yu Qi answered quickly. She could not take anymore. Her heart could not stand if she had been feed personally by Long Hui.

"Okay." Long Hui did not continue the tease. He afraid Yu Qi would distance herself from him if he keeps teasing her.

Professor Chu Yan and her assistant standing between the door. They saw the scene in the room. The man was teasing the girl. Totally flirting with the girl.

Normally Professor Chu Yan never cared about this. But he and his assistant knew the man. The man was known as a cold man that did not like a woman around him. Now that man was seen to be flirt with a woman.

Professor Chu Yan knew about Long Hui because Long Hui's grandfather, General Long Fei Yi was one of the major donors of Starlight University for the medical resource. He had seen Long Hui couple of times standing beside Long Fei Yi. That why he became familiar with Long Hui.

Professor Chu Yan then turned his sight to the girl. Tang Yu Qi. Not only she was the only princess of the Tang family, but she also managed to capture the iceberg man, Long Hui. Professor Chu Yan felt this girl was very special. Not to mention her study. Having a perfect score in all the subject.

Chapter 110: Checking The Club

Yu Qi was back for the orientation. It was the last day for the orientation. Activity for today was the students presenting their clubs to attract the new students to enter their club.

There were a lot of clubs. Science clubs, language clubs, soccer clubs and many types of clubs. Yu Qi spotted some clubs that she thought interesting to her. That was archery club, shooting club, and martial art clubs.

"Yu Qi, which club you wish to enter?" Song Ha Ting, a first-year student taking the same medical course as her asking Yu Qi while observed the surrounding.

"Well, some sports club." Yu Qi answered. "Martial art, archery, shooting."

"Is that okay? Your health..." Another student, Liang Heng Pao who in the same group orientation also walked together with Yu Qi.

"Don't worry. I'm okay right now."

"Guys...Can I walk together with you?" A meek voice asked them from behind.

They turned around. Yeah, Fung Meng Xuan with a shy look approached them.

"Sure, we don't mind, right guys?" Song Ha Ting answered her.

After their last meeting, Fung Meng Xuan made afford to strike a conversation with Yu Qi. Her objection? Of course, to collect information about Long Hui from Yu Qi. However, Yu Qi particularly ignored her when she was prying about Long Hui.

Now, Yu Qi could sense Fun Meng Xuan changed her technique. She wanted to be a friend to Yu Qi before extracted Long Hui's information from Yu Qi.

"Is that okay, Yu Qi?" Fung Meng Xuan asked Yu Qi.

"It's your choice. I don't care. Just don't talk to me." Yu Qi started to walk again.

Fung Meng Xuan lowered her hand making her look very pitiful. Song Ha Ting and Liang Heng Pao felt awkward. They could see that Yu Qi did not like this Fung Meng Xuan and they did not know the reason.

"It's okay, Meng Xuan. Yu Qi just doesn't like to talk." Song Ha Ting comforted Fung Meng Xuan.

Yu Qi already at the shooting club ground. The senior in the club greeted her happily.

"Dear junior welcome to the shooting club. Shooting club basically the person practicing the marksmanship skill. We also had entered the world competition before and strike the fourth place against others." The senior gave a rough explanation about the club.

"Look, there is the gun that we commonly used in the club..." The senior could not finish his sentences.

"Fabrique Nationale Five-seven. Excellent." Yu Qi mentioned the name of the gun.

"Dear junior, you seem to know about the gun." The senior excited to see someone that recognized the gun with one look. Not to mention that someone was a beautiful young girl. In the shooting club just had members of male.

"Yes, I knew a little bit about them." Yu Qi smiled. Well, she learned about them.

"Do you want to try?" The senior offered.

"Can I?"

"Of course. Come here." The senior lead the way.

Yu Qi's appearance gained some audience at the shooting club. The seniors in the shooting club surprised to see a weak-looking girl wanted to try shoot.

"Here. Wear this." The senior gave her an ear protector.

Then he wanted to give some explanation about the gun and how to connect the part of the gun. However, he and the audience that saw Yu Qi shocked when looking at her. She was looking very familiar with the gun when connecting the parts of the gun. Her hand looked very fast. It only took a few minutes before she completed reassemble the gun.

"It's complete." The girl said without noticed the weird look that she got from the senior.

"Owh...Okay." The senior gained some sense. "You can try to shoot the target." He pointed to the board 50 meters from their standing.

Yu Qi frowned. It was a very close distance. It was not challenging for her.

"Senior, I want to try the 300 meters. Can I?" Yu Qi made a request.

The senior stunned for a little moment. "Sure, you can try."

The audience for once more stunned when Yu Qi moved the 300 meters target. The senior wanted to teach her the posture but he gave up. This girl definitely knew about the posture. Her posture also looked much better than him.

Yu Qi then shooting continuously twice. Then she changed her posture. She just standing naturally and shot. Happy with the result, she took off the ear protector.

"Thank you, senior." She then went out of the ground.

The senior and the audience shocked by what they had seen. The senior ran to the target. He looked behind the target. The three bullets stuck at the wall behind the target. The bullets overlap each other. The senior was shocked.

The senior ran to his other friend in the same club to tell about that girl. A genius appeared.
