

INTELLIGENT 1021

Chapter 1021 - 1021: A Weird Patient

"Wait? Doesn't she say she is a doctor?" Grandma Wei remembered the incident where she was being treated by that girl.

"Yeah. Indeed." Wei Su Kee also remembered that.

"Then, why does she suddenly open the Jade store?" Grandma Wei said. Then she seemed to remember something. "Wait. Yuan-er, you are also involved in Jade related business too, right? You are even Elder Chu Ming's disciple."

"Yes, Grandma Wei." Chi Yuan nodded.

"Does she want to compete with you by opening this store?" Grandma Wei assumed.

"Well, we have met once at the gambling stone event." Chi Yuan told them.

"Then, this woman was indeed competing with you then." Grandma Wei said. Chi Yuan's statement confirmed her assumption. "Since she is a doctor, she should be a doctor. She must have heard about your outstanding talent and wanted to prove to others that she is more outstanding than you. That is disgusting."

"Grandma Wei, don't think about that. I don't care much about that." Chi Yuan said.

Hearing from her grandmother and Chi Yuan made Wei Su Kee uncomfortable. Yu Qi was free to do whatever she wanted to do. It seemed Grandma Wei disliked Yu Qi so much and Chi Yuan seemed like it when Grandma Wei hated Yu Qi. Wei Su Kee could not talk about that. So she was silent.

Yu Qi was sitting on her chair recording the medical report in the system of the computer. As she was recording, Nurse Shing Ten came and called for her saying that they had a patient who needed some checkup.

Yu Qi nodded. She closed her laptop and went to the patient. The patient was a man, who was twenty-three years old. He was accompanied by a middle-aged couple. Yu Qi assumed that they were his parents.

The man told Yu Qi that he felt pain all over his body. Yu Qi checked his body. She asked some questions about his pain such as where the pain was. But the man did not give a clear answer about the pain. So, Yu Qi could not make a correct diagnosis.

"What happen to my son?" The middle-aged woman asked.

"Well, I am not sure about it either. We need to check further." Yu Qi did not say anything to the man's parents before she was clear about that.

However, she had a theory there. So, she went to ask another doctor for a piece of advice. The doctor was a male doctor, Doctor Jun Zhan, who was also on the night shift with her. He had more experience than her.

"Doctor Jun Zhan, I have something to ask you." Yu Qi asked.

"Sure, what is it?" Doctor Jun Zhan did not have any patients at the moment. So, he was quite free.

"I have a patient. He is twenty- three years old male. He is saying that he is having pains in his body. When I checked him, I could not find the cause. I did ask him about pain, he did not have any clear answer for that. So, I could not make any diagnosis of him." Yu Qi explained.

"Really? Well, let me go and see him." Doctor Jun Zhan said.

"Okay. Follow me." Yu Qi said.

Both of them went to the man who was still shouting about the pain all over his body. His parents were worried about their son.

"Doctor, please save my son. He is in pain." The mother was begging Yu Qi and Doctor Jun Zhan.

"Please calm down, Madam. We will try to find the cause of the pain." Yu Qi said.

Doctor Jun Zhan checked the man. The man was still shouting about the pain. When Doctor Jun Zhan held his hand, the man shouted slightly loud.

"It is hurting." The man said.

Doctor Jun Zhan let the hand go. "Let's do the CT Scan."

"Yeah. Do it. It can find the problem inside my son's body, right?" The father said.

"We will also do the blood test too." Yu Qi said.

She called the nurse to collect some samples of blood from the man. After that, they went to do the CT Scan. The CT scan revealed that there was nothing wrong with this man's body. They explained it to the parents. But the parents insisted that there was something wrong with their son since he was in pain too much.

Doctor Jun Zhan tried to hold his hand again. Yu Qi also wanted to help. But before they could hold him, he was crying out loud telling it was hurting.

"Sir, we did not even hold you yet." Yu Qi said.

The man was puzzled for a moment but started crying again.

"Can you just give me some Demerol?" The man asked.

"Yeah, Doctor." The mother said.

At this point, Doctor Jun Zhan and Yu Qi had already noticed something. They looked at each other. The man seemed to start having a runny nose and watery eyes. His pupils seemed to be unable to focus.

Coincidentally, the nurse came back with the result of the blood sample. When Yu Qi and Doctor Jun Zhan read the result, they frowned.

The parents noticed the expression on both of the doctors.

"Doctor, what is going on with my son?" The mother asked.

"Let's talk outside." Doctor Jun Zhan said.

"His CT Scan's result is good. Nothing unusual inside his son. But.. his blood test shows something different." Doctor Jun Zhan said.

"Something different? What is it?" The mother was anxious. The father waited for the doctor to complete the sentence.

Chapter 1022 - 1022: Want To Cheat For Demerol

"There is a high level of concentration of Demerol in his blood." Yu Qi said the result.

The couple did not understand the meaning of the Demerol at all. They thought that was some pain killer. So, they could not understand the real meaning behind Yu Qi's statement.

"Demerol is a red prescription painkiller. Its effects and mechanism are to those of morphine. It's equivalent to of morphine. Long-term use will result in addiction, and it's classified as a strictly controlled narcotic drug." Yu Qi explained.

The father caught the last word. 'Drug.' He was shocked.

"Doctor, you mean my son is..." He could not finish the sentence.

"Yes, he is. The symptoms are showing exactly what it is." Doctor Jun Zhan also confirmed it.

"What are you talking about? What is going on with my son? I don't understand." The mother asked.

"Lin Ye is a drug addict." The father explained to the mother.

"No. It can't be." The mother could not believe it.

"I am sorry to tell you. Our hospital has a policy. If we counter something like this, we need to call to police and report this to them." Doctor Jun Zhan said.

"What? No. Don't call the police." The mother said.

"Call them." The father said calmly.

"Dear, what are you thinking? We can't report our son." The mother cried at her husband.

"So, what do you want to do? He is endangering our life." The father knew someday if the son continued the same way, he would endanger his parent too.

"But...but..." The mother could not find the word anymore.

"Call them, Doctor." The father said. He knew it would make his wife sad but he needed to do this. Who did not love their son....

So, the hospital called the police to take away the man. After 15 minutes, the police came and arrested the man. As expected, the man wanted to run away since he saw the police. However, he could not run away. So, he ended up taking by the police.

The man did not sick at all. He just wanted to cheat some Demerol from the hospital for his drug addiction.

When the police came, some onlookers were watching the scene.

"What happens?"

"I think he is a drug addict."

"Really? That's scary."

"That couple is probably his parent."

"What a shame getting a son like that."

"Yeah."

The onlookers discussed that.

"Thank you, Doctor Jun Zhan." Yu Qi bowed.

"Don't worry. I am glad nothing happened. Otherwise, it is probably much more chaos than this." Doctor Jun Zhan said.

On the next day, the doctors and nurses in the department heard about what happened last night. They came to Yu Qi who was about to leave.

"We heard that the police came yesterday. Is that true?" Nurse Jin asked.

"Well... yeah. They came to arrest a drug addict." Yu Qi explained.

"Wow... that's crazy. How does that happen?" Doctor Liu Yao asked the detail.

"The man came here and told me that he was having pain around his body. When I check it, I don't find any problem with his body. So, I ask Doctor Jun Zhan about her. We agree to the CT Scan and the blood test. Of course, nothing serious appeared on the CT Scan's result. But when we saw his blood test, we immediately understand the pain. He just wants some Demerol. That is why he acts like that." Yu Qi shortened the long story.

"Oh, that is why the police came. I remember that our hospital has a policy that we should call the police if we came in contact with this kind of case." Doctor Que Shie nodded.

"Well, guys, I need to go now. See you later." Yu Qi said.

"Okay."

.....

"Have you leaked the information?" Guang Tin Song asked.

"I did, Sir." The subordinate nodded.

"Then, why is there no movement from his side?" Guang Tin Song asked.

"I don't know, Sir." The subordinate said.

"Useless! Get lost now." Guang Tin Song threw the glass.

The subordinate quickly ran away. Luckily for him, the glass did not hit any part of his body. The glass fell on the ground and broke.

Guang Tin Song was furious. He lost about three orders yesterday because of Nie Feng La. How could he did not get mad about that? Each order was worth about 20 million. That was a lot of money.

Recently, Nie Feng La interrupted his business a lot. It seemed Nie Feng La targeted him right now. Not to mention, the mysterious Mr Black also getting on his nerve recently. He felt that they had collaborated.

It seemed he needed to speed his plan. He could not wait any longer. If he waited any longer, he would be suppressed by that brat. Using someone's hand to deal with Nie Feng La was not working. He needed another plan.

"You look angry?" Fung Meng Xuan came and sat beside Guang Tin Song.

"That brat... He interrupted my business." Guang Tin Song said.

"Oh... He..." Fung Meng Xuan knew who Guang Tin Song meant. Since Guang Tin Song always paid more attention to him. "So, what happened?"

"That brat stole my order yesterday." Guang Tin Song could not help to feel angry about that.

Losing the order, was bad for Guang Tin Song. Fung Meng Xuan understood that too. No wonder Guang Tin Song looked very angry.

"I told you... Using his weakness." Fung Meng Xuan said.

"Weakness..." Guang Tin Song frowned.

Chapter 1023 - 1023: Dinner With Her Colleagues

"Don't he has a weakness now, right?" Fung Meng Xuan smiled.

Then Guang Tin Song finally understood what Fung Meng Xuan meant by that.

"Using his beloved to threaten him. That is very good." Guang Tin Song laughed.

"Make that woman hostage. By that, Nie Feng La will obey my order. Nice... Nice..." Guang Tin Song nodded several times.

"You will get what you want, along with me who will also get what I want." Fung Meng Xuan said.

"Okay... okay..." Guang Tin Song said. "By the way, how is the client today?"

"Don't worry. I am confident in my ability. He will support you in the next meeting." Fung Meng Xuan smiled.

"That's my girl." Guang Tin Song smiled.

His hand was also lingering on Fung Meng Xuan's breast. Fung Meng Xuan did not push the hand. So, he continued. Then he started kissing Fung Meng Xuan. Both of them made out on the table in front of them.

.....

"Doctor Yu Qi, we are planning to grab some dinner outside later. Do you want to join us?" Doctor Qin Zhong came and asked Yu Qi.

"How many people are going?" Yu Qi asked.

"About 7 to 10 people from our department." Doctor Qin Zhong said.

"Sure. I will join too." Yu Qi nodded.

"Our director, Doctor Pei Ruiying is also joining us. So, it is more like 'welcoming' Doctor Pei to our department." Doctor Qin Zhong told Yu Qi.

Pie Ruiying was a talented doctor. He came back to Binhai Nation after working for 5 years in another country. Tang Hospital invited him to come and work here. He accepted the offer and started working as the emergency department's director.

Tang Hospital wanted to offer him another position. But he shook his head, rejecting the offer. He specifically wanted to work in the emergency department. Yu Qi was looking up at him.

The nurses and female doctors were very excited to receive a handsome and kind director.

"Oh... Okay..." Yu Qi nodded. "By the way, where are we going to have dinner? Have you set the place?"

"Not yet. We are still discussing it." Doctor Qin Zhong said.

"Then, why don't we go to Shuqin Restaurant?" Yu Qi suggested.

"But it will be expensive. We can not afford it." Doctor Qin Zhang sighed.

He also wanted to eat at Shuqin Restaurant once. It was a seven-star Michelin restaurant. The food was very good as well the price.

"Don't worry about the price." Yu Qi smiled.

"But..." Doctor Qin Zhong hesitated.

"You can ask others first. If they don't want, we can go somewhere else." Yu Qi said.

"Okay." Doctor Qin Zhong nodded.

"It is my first time treating you guys... So, I think it is the best restaurant." Yu Qi smiled.

Yu Qi met several patients. A lot of patients came after the lunch break. Yu Qi was relieved that she managed to eat when it was lunch break. Her stomach was in the good mood.

The flow was discontinued when the night came. As they planned, they would have dinner together but at a different restaurant. They did not want Yu Qi to waste money on them. The restaurant that they were about to go to also had delicious food, so Yu Qi did not mind.

In the end, they went to the restaurant using their cars since they would go home directly afterwards. Everyone who joined this dinner did not have to work tonight.

They had already booked a room enough for everyone. After ordering the food, they decided to have some drinks first.

"We are welcoming our new director, Doctor Pei. Welcome Doctor Pei." Doctor Shui Nan lifted his glass.

"Welcome...Welcome." Everyone followed Doctor Shui Nan lifting their glass too.

They drank.

"Thank you." Doctor Pei Ruiying nodded.

They called Doctor Pei Ruiying because he wanted to. At first, everyone called him Director Pei but he asked everyone to address him, Doctor Pei. He was more comfortable with that title. And also, calling him 'Director Pei' seemed to separate him from other doctors. He disliked it. He wanted them to treat him like a co-worker though he was their superior.

Doctor Pei Ruiying was a very talented doctor. He had led several major surgeries. He also wrote several papers which had helped the medical world.

"Doctor Pei, what has made you come back to Binhai? I have heard that you are the most preferable doctor at Country Helix." Doctor Jun Zhan asked.

"After paying my debt, I don't have to stay there anymore. So, I come back here." Doctor Pei Ruiying explained.

"Debt?" Nurse Shing Ten was surprised. n-/OveLB1n

Well, not only her but everyone was surprised.

Doctor Pei Ruiying chuckled to see everyone's reaction. "Yeah. I was in debt. Not exactly my debt, my mother's debt. So, I have to help her in paying off the debt."

"Oh... I see..." Nurse Jun Zhan understood.

"Okay... Okay... Enough with this gloomy feeling. We come here to welcome Doctor Pei." Doctor Shui Nan hated the gloomy feeling.

"Yeah. That's right. Let's drink." Doctor Qin Zhong said while lifting his glass again.

The food arrived. The waiter served the food and left the room.

They began to eat the food. All of them were feeling jubilant, especially, eating with others together. The females except for Yu Qi were looking at Pei Ruiying. Nurse Wei Ying was also nervous. She seemed to want to say something. Yu Qi who was sitting beside her noticed it. Her hand was on the spoon.

Chapter 1024 - 1024: Saving A Person In The Way

So, Yu Qi leaned over towards Nurse Wei Ying and whispered, "Are you okay?"

"Doctor Yu Qi... I want to ask Doctor Pei something. But I am afraid that he will ignore me." Doctor Wei Ying said.

Doctor Wei Ying was a new nurse who had started working at Tang Hospital a month ago. She was a fresh graduate from the university. Due to the good words from her internship place, she managed to get a job at Tang Hospital.

She was also a cute person. Right now, Yu Qi could see the slight blush on her cheek making her look cuter.

"What do you want to ask him?" Yu Qi asked.

"Well... I want to ask if he has a girlfriend or not." Nurse Wei Ying said.

"Do you want me to help you?" Yu Qi whispered back.

"Really?" Nurse Wei Ying blinked faster.

"Well... I can just ask. If he does not answer it then, there is nothing with which I can help." Yu Qi said.

"It is okay." Nurse Wei Ying said.

"Okay, then." Yu Qi nodded.

Yu Qi turned at Pei Ruiying. Sensing something, Pei Ruiying also turned in her direction.

"Doctor Pei... There is something I want to know." Yu Qi asked.

"Yes?" Doctor Pei Ruiying gave his permission to ask.

"Do you have any girlfriend at this moment?" Yu Qi asked directly.

Others looked at Yu Qi. They thought that Yu Qi was also interested in Doctor Pei Ruiying.

"Oh, I am just asking on someone's behalf. Don't look at me like that. I love my fiancée, okay." Yu Qi made that statement when seeing the shocked expression on her colleagues' faces.

Everyone seemed to feel relieved when hearing that statement.

"No. I don't have anyone at this moment." Doctor Pei Ruiying seemed did not to care much about that.

As soon as the answer left Doctor Pei Ruiying's mouth, the females were smiling, including Nurse Wei Ying.

Wei Ying thanked Yu Qi for asking that question. Afterwards, it was her task to make Doctor Pei Ruiying notice her.

The dinner ended at 10 p.m. Some of them had to drive the car, so, they did not drink too much. All of them left the restaurant together. Right after they left the restaurant, they heard someone scream. Everyone looked at each other and ran toward the scream.

"Shili, wake up... Wake up..."

People already gathered surrounding the place.

"Excuse me, let me pass. I am a doctor." Yu Qi said to the people.

Hearing that, the people made a way to them. They saw an unconscious man laying down with a man beside him.

"Tell me what happens. I am a doctor." Yu Qi said to the man beside the unconscious man.

"I don't know. He has suddenly fainted." The man explained.

Doctor Shui Nan immediately called the ambulance.

"Let's do the chest compression first." Doctor Pei Ruiying said.

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded.

Yu Qi asked the man to move aside. She put the unconscious man in the correct position. She checked his airway. Doctor Pei Ruiying nodded. Yu Qi started to do chest compression. She was doing about one minute nothing happened.

She moved to do the CPR. However, Doctor Pei Ruiying had already moved to do the CPR.

Nothing happened. Yu Qi did the chest compression over again. After two minutes, the unconscious man opened his eyes slowly. His friend was happy to see him regain his consciousness. The ambulance also arrived at that time.

"He has just regained his consciousness. His vital signs seem to be stable at this moment. Which hospital are you from?" Yu Qi said to the paramedic.

"We are from Yun Hospital. Are you also working at a hospital, Miss?" The paramedic asked.

"Yes. We are doctors from Tang Private Hospital. I think you have heard about it ." Yu Qi said.

"Oh... I see." The paramedic nodded.

Of course, he heard about that. It was a famous hospital that was full of talented doctors.

The ambulance left. Yu Qi and her colleagues also left the place. The crowd was still gathered and talking among them.

"No wonder, they were calm in that situation. They are doctors." n.)p-.v.(e..L--&)-l)/n

"The female doctor is so beautiful. If she is treating me, I am willing to get sick."

"Now, you are sick in your head."

"The male doctor is also handsome. Do you think they are a couple or what?"

"Did you notice when the female doctor was about to do the mouth to mouth, the male doctor had stepped over and did it? Looks like he did not let the female doctor do it."

"I noticed it too. The male doctor is probably jealous."

The people were very imaginative. If Yu Qi and other doctors heard about this, they would definitely get speechless.

"I have recorded everything on my phone. The doctors are surely amazing. I will post the video on my Weibo account." The girl said to her friends.

"That is a great idea. Let's tell everyone that doctors are amazing."

That night, the video about two doctors saving a man spread on the Internet. Everyone praised the action of the doctors to save the man. Not to mention that the doctors were very good looking, especially, the female doctor. Yu Qi became instantly popular with that video.

The mentioned person did not know about it. She returned home, took a bath and went inside her space together with Aoi and Shino. They had already eaten since the maids gave the food to them.

Chapter 1025 - 1025: Try To Scam HuiQi Jade

The shop assistants were doing their work when out of a sudden, an angry customer entered the shop with a middle-aged man.

"I want a refund!" The woman shouted to one of the shop assistants there.

The shop assistant smiled and greeted the woman.

"Yes, Madam. May I help you?" The shop assistant asked.

"Don't you hear me just now? I want a refund. Return my money." The woman shouted.

"We can settle this problem. Please calm down, Madam." The shop assistant tried to calm down the woman.

"Calm down you say... After scamming my money, you think I can? calm down!" The woman shouted loudly.

Everyone took a look at the woman. They were interested to know more about what happened.

"Madam, can we talk in the room?" The shop assistant did not want the woman to make a scene here, so, she invited the woman to the room.

However, the woman rejected it. "So, you are embarrassed, right?"

The shop assistant did not respond to that. She had nothing to be embarrassed with.

"Get me your manager. I want to talk to you manager." The woman demanded.

The shop assistant sighed and asked her coworker to call the manager. About 15 minutes later, a man came out.

"Sir, this woman wants to talk to you." The shop assistant greeted and informed the manager.

Yu Qi asked Su Yu Hi to hire a new manager who would be in charge of everything inside the store. His name was Wu Cheng. He was a salesman before. He caught Su Yu Hi's eyes. So Su Yu Hi took him in and told him to learn everything about managing a store.

"Are you the manager?" The woman asked.

"Yes. Madam. How may I help you?" Wu Cheng asked back.

"Your shop is selling the fake jade, right?" The woman said confidently.

"Madam, please don't slander our shop. We are selling the genuine jade." Wu Cheng thought something.

"Then, why did this jade break so easily?" The woman showed the piece of the broken jade.

"So, you are telling me that you bought this jade from our store?" Wu Cheng asked.

"Of course. Here is the receipt." The woman brought out the receipt too.

Wu Cheng took the receipt and looked at it.

"Is that truth this store selling the fake jade?"

"Well, the woman even have the receipt. How could it fake?"

"But I heard this store belongs to Tang Family. How can they sell the fake jade?"

"Well, let's watch this scene before making the decision."

There were a few customers who were currently inside the room who wanted to buy some jade. However, they began to watch the situation first. none-1b-In

"Are you sure it is our store receipt?" Wu Cheng asked.

"Of course. It is real." The woman shouted.

"So, are you the one who has purchased the jade?" Wu Cheng asked more.

"Are you deaf? Of course, I am the one who has purchased the jade. Otherwise, who do you think will come?" The woman asked back.

"Then, it makes things easier." Wu Cheng smiled.

"What do you mean?" The woman frowned.

"We have to prove whether the jade has really come from our store." Wu Cheng smiled.

"I have also said, I have brought the jade from your store." The woman pressed the topic.

"Yes. But we need some concrete evidence." Wu Cheng smiled.

"The receipt is the evidence." The woman pointed to the receipt.

"According to the receipt, you came and purchased the jade two days ago. We have CCTV to confirm it." Wu Cheng said.

"Do you think I have time to wait for you to watch the CCTV footage?" The woman shouted. In fact, she began to get more nervous.

"No need for that. We have a system that auto identifies the face for us. The face will be registered as our customer automatically in our system when you pay the bill at the counter. So, it will not take much time at all." Wu Cheng explained.

"Wow, that's great."

"All you have to do is stand at the counter. The computer will scan your face." Wu Cheng said.

"Humph, how can I trust it? You have made that system." The woman protested.

She would not do it. Because of what? Because she never came to this store. She just wanted to cheat some money from the new store.

"Since you have already come and made trouble in our store, you should give the cooperation." Wu Cheng smiled.

Suddenly, two men came and pulled the woman to the counter. The woman was struggling. The man beside her wanted to help but he had been pushed by the two men.

"Help me. They want to kill me." The woman shouted.

"They just want you to scan your face. Why are you rejecting so much?" A customer who watched from the beginning asked.

"That's right. Just let them scan your face." Another customer also said the same.

Because the woman could not escape the two men, her face was scanned by the computer. The two men immediately let the woman go after getting her face scanned. Less than one minute, the result appeared. Wu Cheng smiled when she saw the result.

"Madam, you have told me that it was you who purchased this jade. But the computer can not find your record, hmm..." Wu Cheng raised his eyebrow.

The woman did not say anything. Her plan was ruined. She did not know that the store had impressive technology like that.

Chapter 1026 - 1026: Went Viral

She thought that it would be enough with the receipt to cheat some money. Now everything was out of the bag.

"She is a liar."

"It is embarrassing. Just now, she was shouting at HuiQi Jade and calling them a scammer, yet it turns out, she is actually the real scammer. "

Wu Cheng looked at the woman. "Tell me, why are you doing something like this?"

"Please forgive me. I am just being paid by him to ruin the reputation of this store." The woman pointed to the man who wanted to help her earlier.

"Wow... Someone has planned this."

"That's horrifying."

"They have tried to ruin this store."

As Wu Cheng expected, someone wanted to make a mess inside the store. The man was shocked when the woman accused him of the crime. He was her husband. He had already protested about doing something like this but his wife did not listen to him at all. Her mind was already blinded by money.

"So, are you the mastermind?" Wu Cheng asked the man.

The man kneeled down. "No, Sir! It is not me. My wife had received some money from an unknown person. That person is behind this." The man did not want this to continue. He confessed everything.

"Oh... someone else... Then, call the police." Wu Cheng said.

"No... no... no... don't call the police." The woman shouted again.

Wu Cheng did not care about the woman. He asked the shop assistant to call the police. Seeing Wu Cheng did not listen to her beg, the woman wanted to run away but the two men immediately held her from running away.

"Luckily this store has an impressive system. Otherwise, its reputation will be damaged."

"I have recorded everything on my phone. I will upload in the in y*****e.com after this."

Wu Cheng went to the police station too. The police questioned the woman and asked who was the mastermind behind all this.

However, the police got nothing from the woman. Because she told the police that she got some instruction from an unknown person. They put the instruction note in front of her house, telling her to go and ruin the store's reputation.

The sender also threatened her if she did not do it, something might happen to her family. Well, she was more than happy to receive more money from HuiQi Jade if the whole thing went well.

Wu Cheng nodded after hearing the police's explanation. He needed to report this incident to Su Yu Hi. He would determine the next action that the store needed to take.

.....

The video about the doctors saving the person had gone viral on the Internet. The people praised the doctors' actions. The person was lucky that there was a group of doctors around there.

The internet users kept asking whether they were a couple since they had good chemistry together. They urged the doctors to be a couple.

Some of the internet users were Yu Qi's friends and acquaintances. So, they knew that Yu Qi and that male doctor were not a couple.

Mei Mei: 'Hey, that female doctor already has a fiance, and he is not the male doctor.'

Couplelover: 'Is that true? What's a shame. Both of them are a good match.'

Mr Black: 'She and her fiancée are a good match too. They match each other more than anyone else.'

A lot of comments regarding the matter appeared. Some of them demanded the picture of the fiancée. Then when someone told them that she seemed to see the female doctor somewhere else.

She tried to remember and to her surprise, she remembered that she saw the female doctor in her favourite magazine. She quickly took a look. Yeah, it was the same female doctor.

In the magazine, she was pictured with a very very very good looking man. The magazine stated that the man was her fiancée.

No wonder there was a comment telling that the female doctor's fiancée was a perfect match for her. She agreed with that comment.

Without wasting the time, she took the picture of the female doctor and her fiancée. She then posted the picture and put the description about that picture.

'I found out the female doctor's fiancée. He is indeed a good looking one.'

A lot of people saw the picture. They were agreed that.

Next, the video about a woman who tried to scam the new brand store, HuiQi Jade went viral. The clip showed how a crazy woman went on her plan and failed miserably.

Some of the internet users noticed that the jade store was Yu Qi's. Then, there was the rumour about the whole thing was an act. The act that Yu Qi made to promote her store.

However, the story was debunked by others who stated that they had watched the whole incident. Even the police had been called. It showed the incident was not only an act to promote the store.

n()0Vεℓb1n

Yu Qi just received the report about the incident about HuiQi Jade from Su Yu Hi. Someone wanted to try to mess with HuiQi Jade.

'How dare they mess with me?' Without realizing it, she was clenching her fists and leaking the murderous aura. She really treasured HuiQi Jade because it was her first store together with Long Hui.

Long Hui had 40% of the shares. She did not tell Long Hui yet. She planned to tell Long Hui on his next birthday if he was free from his mission. It must be a good birthday present. She would not let anything happen to that store.

Chapter 1027 - 1027: Being Threatened

"Doctor Yu Qi, are you okay?" Nurse Shing Ten asked because she saw Yu Qi in a bad mood.

Yu Qi realized that Nurse Shing Ten was there.

"Sorry. Something comes up. I am okay." Yu Qi nodded. She adjusted her mood quickly.

"Doctor Yu Qi, you have a patient." Nurse Shing Ten informed.

"Okay." Yu Qi nodded and went to see the patient.

It was a young girl in her teens. She came together with her mother.

"Why are you here?" Yu Qi asked the girl.

However, it was not the girl who answered it, instead, it was her mother. "My daughter is feeling dizzy. She has also not eaten much lately alongside the case of her fainting before. That is why we have come here."

Yu Qi nodded. She looked at the file. The girl's name was Xi Naine and her mother was Su Won. She checked the girl. She noticed that there was a small bump on her stomach.

"How old are you?" Yu Qi asked.

"I am 17 years old." Xi Naine answered.

"High school?"

"Yes."

"Do you have a boyfriend?"

"Doctor, my girl is still in high school. Of course, she does not have a boyfriend." The mother interrupted the conversation.

Doctor Yu Qi did not respond to the mother. But she was looking directly to the girl's eyes. Seeing the doctor looking straight at her eyes, Xi Naine avoided it. Yu Qi sighed. It seemed that the girl was aware of her body's condition. They should go to the Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology.

"You know what happened to your body, right?" Yu Qi asked the girl.

"Doctor, if you are a quack Doctor, don't examine my daughter." The mother said. "Naine, let's go.? We should see another doctor." The mother pulled Xi Naine from there. Both of them were gone.

Yu Qi knew that the girl was already pregnant.? When Yu Qi asked the question to the girl, the mother could predict the condition that her daughter was going through right now. She did not want to admit that her daughter was pregnant.

"We have another patient." Nurse Shing Ten informed.

"Okay." Yu Qi nodded.

The patient entered. It was a bulky man who looked like a gangster or something like that.

"You are Tang Yu Qi, right?" The bulky man asked.

It seemed he was not a patient.

"Who are you?" Yu Qi became more alert.

"So, I am in the correct place." The bulky man said. "Tang Yu Qi, you should follow me right now, otherwise, the consequence is too big."

"What do you mean by that?" Yu Qi asked.

"Someone wants to meet you." The bulky man said.

"Then, why doesn't he come here?" Yu Qi asked again.

"Follow my orders, otherwise, this hospital is done." The bulky man threatened Yu Qi.

Yu Qi was silent for a few seconds. Then she nodded. "Okay... I will follow you."

She agreed because she did not know how many people this bulky man had right now in the hospital. If she dared to reject, he might contact his friends to do something to the hospital. She could not let that happened because of her.

"Tell someone that you have some emergency that you need to settle outside." The bulky man said.

"Okay." Yu Qi just nodded.

"When you are outside, go to your car and drive it. Follow the black van outside the parking lot." The bulky man gave another order.

It seemed they wanted to show others that Yu Qi was going out on her own. The bulky man went out. Nurse Shing Ten came to inform the next patient but she saw Yu Qi was getting ready to go out.

"Doctor Yu Qi?" Nurse Shing Ten asked.

"Oh, Ten, I need to go out right now. There is some emergency that I need to settle on." Yu Qi said.

"Oh...? I see." Nurse Shing Ten nodded.

"Please tell others too, okay." Yu Qi said.

"Okay." Nurse Shing Ten left the room.

Yu Qi took the opportunity to enter the space.

"Master, what is going on?" Aoi asked seeing his master was in the rush.

"Something happened. I need some weapons right now." Yu Qi went to the weapon room and took several small weapons that she could take.

"Aoi, Shino." Yu Qi called.

Seeing the seriousness of their master's voice, they stood in front of Yu Qi.

"I will let you out right now. Aoi, you need to follow me in your invisible mode. And, Shino, I need you to run around the hospital. You need to project what you see to me. Do you guys understand?" Yu Qi gave the order.

"Yes, Master." Aoi and Shino nodded.

"Let's go now." Yu Qi said.

With that, Yu Qi came out of her space with both of her pets. Aoi turned on his invisible mode and Shino was ready to do Yu Qi's instruction.

As soon as Yu Qi opened the door and stepped out, Shino went out running. It seemed Shino had also used his invisible mode. So, nobody saw a ferret running around.

Yu Qi acted as she was having an emergency matter to settle. She walked faster. As she was walking, she saw another bulky man standing in the corner.

'It seems they have made some preparations in order to make me follow them obediently.' Even though she could take the bulky man by herself, she was afraid that his friends would take action in the hospital.

Chapter 1028 - 1028: Hold The Hostage

She just gritted her teeth and went towards her car. She started the car and drove out. She saw a black van. She approached the van. She saw the bulky man from the last time. When she saw inside, she could see another person whose mouth had been taped and her hands had been tied up. Her eyes were also blindfolded.

"We need someone to make you obey. So, we caught a person." The bulky man said to Yu Qi.

"You bastard." Yu Qi gritted her teeth.

The person who was caught by them was Nurse Wei Ying. Yu Qi could see that she was crying.

"Don't try to do anything to her." Yu Qi gave a warning.

"Don't worry. After we arrive at the destination, she will be released." The bulky man smiled.

They started moving. Yu Qi drove the car behind the van. 45 minutes later, they arrived at a building. During the drive, Shino projected everything that he saw around the hospital. The bulky man's friends had already left the hospital as soon Yu Qi followed them.

Yu Qi was relieved. However, she could not take any action toward them since they still had a hostage with him.

"When are you going to release her?" Yu Qi asked when the bulky man came out with the trembling Wei Ying.

Wei Ying seemed to recognize the voice. It was Doctor Yu Qi's voice.

"We still need her to restrain you." The bulky man answered.

"You have told me that as soon we arrive at your place, you will release her." Yu Qi demanded.

"I am just lying to you." The bulky man laughed.

Wei Ying was not stupid. From the conversation between Doctor Yu Qi and the man, she could guess that the man wanted to kidnap Yu Qi. As for her, she was brought to make Doctor Yu Qi listen to the man.

"Move. My boss wants to meet you first." The bulky man said to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi did not have any choice but to follow him. Both Yu Qi and Wei Ying walked into the building. Yu Qi was shocked to see what was happening in the building. It was actually an S & M club. They could hear someone screaming in pleasure. nDre-1b-In

They entered the lift and went straight to the top floor. They entered a room. It was a normal room. Yu Qi saw a man sitting at the chair.

"Miss Tang, welcome." The man stood up and greeted Yu Qi.

He was wearing a full face mask. So, Yu Qi could not see his face.

"What are you trying to do by kidnapping me?" Yu Qi asked.

"As expected of the woman that man and that brat love. You are not afraid at all facing this kind of situation." The man laughed.

Yu Qi was wondering about the identity of the man and the brat that this man mentioned before.

"Miss Tang, you are my hostage. You are required for my transaction." The man said. "So, you just need to behave yourself otherwise the cute nurse would pay for it."

The man threatened Yu Qi with Wei Ying's life. Yu Qi was silent. The man smiled as he saw Yu Qi obey his order. Wei Ying and Yu Qi were left with three men. Yu Qi assumed that the men had their pistols with them.

Then, there was a knock on the door. One of the men opened the door. However, he did not see anyone else outside. He did not think about anything. He just closed the door. His friend asked him and he just shook his head.

Actually, it was Aoi who was knocking on the door. When the door was opened, he quickly entered the door. Aoi jumped and sat on Yu Qi's lap. Yu Qi began to talk with Aoi through telepathy.

She asked Aoi to see around the building. Aoi confirmed only on the current floor, where Yu Qi was, there were a lot of people. About 20 people. Aoi also told that the first floor was also full of people. Yu Qi knew that. It was probably the people who came to enjoy the S & M play.

"What? Has she been kidnapped?" Liang Mo Han could not believe his ear.

That man's beloved was kidnapped by someone. He listened to the report that his subordinates told him.

"Why don't you save her directly?" Liang Mo Han asked in anger.

"They seem to kidnap another girl to threaten Miss Tang to listen to their orders. If we save Miss Tang, we might put the other girl in danger." The subordinates said.

Liang Mo Han became silent. He was thinking about how to save both of them.

"Where are they right now?" Liang Mo Han asked.

"In a building at Sulin District." The subordinate answered.

"Go and investigate who is the owner of that building. Gather around 20 people and go to the building. Stand by there. If you see any opportunity to save them, do it, understand?" Liang Mo Han gave the order.

"Yes, Sir." The subordinate nodded and left.

Liang Mo Han was trembling. He needed to tell Long Hui about the current situation. He knew Long Hui would get furious about this. Who dared to kidnap Long Hui's, beloved woman? He really wanted to know that bastard.

Liang Mo Han called a number. It was a private number between him and Long Hui. The call had not been called. He called again. But still no answer. He called a third time but again, no answer. It meant that Long Hui was on the mission.

Chapter 1029 - 1029: Be The Bait

'Aoi, turn off your invisible mode. Protect the girl beside me.' Yu Qi ordered.

'Yes, Master.' Aoi nodded as he turned off the invisible mode.

One of the men noticed the sudden appearance of Aoi.

"How do you get in here?" The man narrowed his eyes as he looked at Aoi.

The other men also looked at Aoi. Sensing the slight confusion, Yu Qi attacked one of the men.

"You bitch." Seeing one of their friends being attacked, the men shouted.

The men tried to attack Yu Qi but Yu Qi was so agile and avoided the attack. Then the man tried to grab Wei Ying. However, he was attacked by a dog who stood in front of Wei Ying.

Aoi kicked the man who wanted to grab the woman behind him. It was his master's order. He would not let anything happen to this woman. Wei Ying could not see but she could hear all the commotion that happened around her.

Yu Qi took the opportunity to grab the revolver completed with the silencer. She aimed for the men. The men were shocked when seeing the revolver appear in Yu Qi's hand.

"You!" The man frowned.

"See you in hell." Yu Qi shot one of the men. Without wasting any time, Yu Qi killed the other two men.

Because of the silencer, no one heard what happened inside the room. Yu Qi opened Wei Ying's blindfold. She also cut the rope that tied up Wei Ying's hand. One-In "Doctor Yu Qi. I am scared." Wei Ying was crying when she saw Yu Qi.

"It's okay. Everything will be fine." Yu Qi calmed down the crying Wei Ying.

"What's exactly happened?" Wei Ying asked.

"We got kidnapped. I am sorry. Because of me, you are implicated too. I am truly sorry." Yu Qi sighed.

"You mean they want to kidnap you? But why?" Wei Ying asked.

"I don't know. It is probably my fiancé's enemy." Yu Qi did not know who was the mastermind.

She would investigate that after she left this place. The important thing right now is to get out of this place safely with Wei Ying. If she was alone, she would not have had any problem getting out of this place. Now, she was with Wei Ying. She needed to think about their safety too.

Wei Ying was about to shout but she put her hand on her own mouth. She was shocked to see the men lying down behind Yu Qi unconscious.

"Are they died?" Wei Ying asked when she saw the blood on one of the men's bodies.

"Yeah." Yu Qi did not lie a little bit.

"How?" Wei Ying asked.

Yu Qi lifted up the revolver that she had. Wei Ying's eyes wide opened when she saw that.

"Is it real?" Wei Ying asked again.

"Yes. My fiancée gives it to me as my protection. By the way, can you walk?" Yu Qi asked

"Yes." Wei Ying nodded.

"Great. We are going out." Yu Qi said.

"But what if someone outside there?" Wei Ying asked.

"Don't worry. I have a plan." Yu Qi smiled assuring Wei Ying, everything would be fine.

'Aoi, are you sure about that?' Yu Qi asked Aoi through telepathy.

'Yes, Master. I spot the emergency way while roaming around. But there are people outside..' Aoi said.

'I will become the bait. You take Wei Ying as soon I give out the signal, alright?' Yu Qi made a plan.

'But...' Aoi wanted to protest. He wanted to help his master too.

'You are helping me if you protect the girl to me.' Yu Qi convinced Aoi about her plan.

'Okay.' Aoi gave up.

Wei Ying noticed that Yu Qi was looking in one direction. So, she looked at that too. She was surprised to see a dog here.

"Wei Ying, you need to listen to me now."

Yu Qi's voice made Wei Ying turn back in her direction.

"Yes. I will listen to you." Wei Ying nodded.

"Follow this dog. He will let you out of the building. Go to the crowd of people and hide among them. Understand?" Yu Qi explained what Wei Ying needed to do.

"What about you then?" Wei Ying asked.

"Don't worry about me. Remember, follow this dog. He is a smart dog. He knows the way." Yu Qi patted Aoi's head. "You need to trust me."

Eventually, Wei Ying nodded. "Okay." She understood what Yu Qi tried to do. She heard that Yu Qi was very strong. Having her around would make things difficult for Yu Qi.

"But don't call the police after you are outside." Yu Qi suddenly said.

"But why? We need to call the police." Wei Ying frowned.

"I don't know if they have some connection with the police or not. If they do, the police would not do anything. Don't worry. I will be going out later." Yu Qi patted Wei Ying's shoulder.

"Okay." Wei Ying nodded.

"I will take a look outside." Yu Qi said.

So, she opened the door a little bit. No one was outside. Great. They could go out now.

"Come. It's clear. We can go outside now." Yu Qi said.

The three of them went outside. After they went out, they went their separate way. Aoi led Wei Ying to the emergency path that no one was around. They went there safely. As for Yu Qi, she wanted to area that Aoi told her, it would be people there.

The reason? It was simple. She wanted to blow some stems. How dare they kidnap her like this? They needed to be taught some lessons.

Chapter 1030 - 1030: Plan To Blow Up The Place

Wei Ying was running together with Aoi. She noticed that Aoi was indeed a smart dog. He was very alert to his surroundings. The emergency path led them outside. It was already dark outside. Well, she was taken away after finishing her shift. It was not surprised if it was already dark outside.

They did not stop running until they found the crowd. Wei Ying was relieved when she was here. But Yu Qi was still inside that building. She remembered that Yu Qi told her that she must not call the cop about this.

Aoi barked. Wei Ying looked at him. Aoi made a signal telling her that he would be going back into the building. Even though she did not hear the words, she somehow understood what the dog was going to tell her.

"You want to come and rescue Doctor Yu Qi?" Wei Ying asked

Aoi barked while nodding.

"Okay. Please go." Wei Ying said.

Because Wei Ying was afraid that someone who kidnapped her saw her here, she hid her face and waited for Yu Qi to come. Even though she did not know when Yu Qi would be out. She could think of nothing to help Yu Qi. When she thought to call the police, she remembered Yu Qi saying those people probably had some connection with the police.

Aoi went to the building again. This time, he just entered the main entrance since he already turned on his invisible mode.

As for Yu Qi, she walked slowly to the gathered men. Then someone spotted her.

"You! How do you get out?" The person shouted and pointed to Yu Qi.

"I casually walk out from there. Why?" Yu Qi smiled.

"Catch that woman. Don't let her get away. Otherwise, we will be killed." The man shouted. It seemed he was the leader of the group.

"Don't worry. I will not run from here." Yu Qi smiled again.

The men rushed to catch Yu Qi. Yu Qi dodged smoothly. The men frowned.

"Bitch, how dare you run away? You better behave right now." One of the men shouted angrily when he could not catch Yu Qi at all.

Yu Qi turned in his direction sharply. "It seems you don't want your mouth anymore." She then threw something at the man.

The man did not see anything. He then laughed at Yu Qi. "Humph! What are you throwing? Oh, it must be the needles since you are a doctor." The man laughed again.

"Oh, you are right. It is indeed a needle." Yu Qi chuckled.

"What is this bitch talk...." The man did not finish his sentence, he already died.

The other men looked at their friends. They checked his breath and pulse. He was not breathing and his pulse was gone.

"What did you do to my subordinate?" The leader said.

"His mouth is foul. I don't want to hear his voice." Yu Qi humphed. "Don't worry. All of you will follow his step."

"Look, she has a pistol too. Be careful." The leader said.

The men took the defence posture. They also aimed their pistol at Yu Qi. No matter what Yu Qi doing here, she must not escape from here. However, that was what he had mistaken.

Yu Qi could escape but she did not because she wanted to blow off some steams. These people dared to kidnap her openly. If she did not do something, this would happen again in the future.

Yu Qi shot all of the men here except for the leader. Of course, they did not die yet. She just shot at their legs only. It just made them could not move. To be honest, the bullets were wrapped in poison. The poison killed the nerve system in the body. They could never use their legs anymore after this.

The leader was shocked because the pistol that she used did not out of bullets. His subordinates were laying flat on the ground. He wanted to get some help. He grabbed the talkie walkie at his waist. However, the talkie walkie was destroyed as Yu Qi shot the talkie walkie straight.

The leader was shaking. What kind of woman is this? He questioned himself. She was not a woman but a devil. n.)o)-v..e()l/.b((1)(n

"Since you guys dared to kidnap me, you should dare to face the consequences of kidnapping me, then." Yu Qi smiled. "So, as the price, I think I want to blow up this place. It is a disgusting place anyway." She thought about what was going on the first floor.

Their eyes were opened wide. Blow up ???!! How could she blow up this building? Not like she had a bomb. Then they became shocked again when seeing the grenade in her hands. How could this girl have a grenade?

From what they knew, this girl was a doctor. It was not like a doctor would bring the grenade everywhere.

At the same time, Aoi arrived. He saw his master and the pity men who already laying down on the ground.

"Woof." Aoi barked.

Everyone turned to the dog. The men were thinking about the dog. Then they heard the girl suddenly talking to the dog.

"Oh, you are here. Is Wei Ying safe right now?" Yu Qi asked Aoi.

Aoi answered his master through telepathy. 'Yes, she is in the crowd.'

"Good. Then, let's go." Yu Qi said. "Before that..." With that said, she shot the leader at his leg too.

The leader fell to the ground.
