Chapter 1061 - 1061: Grandpa Longs Brag

"Then, please show us the invitation card." The bodyguards said.

"You don't ask the earlier man for the invitation card. When comes to my turn, why do you ask to it?" The man asked.

The bodyguards looked at each other and then turned back and looked at the man. They gave an 'It seems this man is an idiot' look. Of course, they would allow Long Hui to enter. He was the main character of the party. The party would not be held if he was not here though.

The man felt that the bodyguards were mocking him. He felt insulted by the look given by the bodyguards.

"Let me in." The man wanted to force his entry.

The bulky man did not give the man anyway.

"As I said earlier, please provide us with the invitation card. Otherwise, we could not allow you to enter. Oh, as for the earlier man, he doesn't have to show his invitation card. His face shows us enough." The bodyguard said about Long Hui.

The man went silent. He gave up the idea to enter the party and moved away from the bodyguards. He knew that if he insisted to enter once again, the bodyguards would take action on him.

He went far and sat on the side of the road. When he thought about that deeply, various things that he could conclude. One of them was that man must be powerful.

He tried to remember the face. Then, his eyes went wide. That face. He opened his phone and searched the name.

He went to shock. It was the same. That man was Long Hui. He was regretted that he did not take a photo of him when he was outside earlier. The woman besides must be his fiancée. What a waste. If he could take the picture, he could make an article about that.

Long Hui needed to report to his superior. So, he needed to leave Yu Qi. Yu Qi understood and entered the hall where the party was held. She looked around and saw several acquaintances.

She then spotted Grandpa Long who currently talked to several old men that she did not recognize. She went to greet Grandpa Long first. Of course, her appearance took several eyes to follow her when she went to Grandpa Long.

Some of them recognised her and some of them did not. They saw her walking to the several old men. The ones who did not recognize her assumed that she was a sugar baby to one of those old men.

"She does not feel shame at all."

"In her eyes, money is? probably? the most important."

"What do you think if I go to her and say I want to sponsor her? Will she accept me?"

"I bet she does. However, you need to have more money than those old men?"

Somewhere, someone who knew Yu Qi's identity heard what they were talking about could not help to interrupt their conversation.

"Are you an idiot?"

"Huh? What do you say to me?"

"The woman who you talking about is Long Hui's fiancée. I heard Long Hui loves his fiancée very much. What do you think he will do to you if he knows what do you say about his fiancée?"

"What? She is his fiancée?"

"Really? Is that the truth?"

"Of course."

"Then, why is she going to those old men?"

"Idiot. Don't you see who there?"

The men looked at those old men. And they saw Great General Long there. Then they understood it.

"Oh, she is going to Great General Long."

"Thank goodness that I don't go and talk to her about that. Otherwise, my grandfather might kill me."

Yu Qi arrived at Grandpa Long's side.

"Grandpa." Yu Qi greeted Grandpa Long.

"You are here. Where is that brat?" Grandpa Long asked.

"He went to report to his superior." Yu Qi replied.

"I see." Grandpa Long nodded.

"Yu Qi, it has been a while." It was Grandpa Feng who said that to Yu Qi.

"Yes. How are you, Grandpa Feng?" Yu Qi smiled.

"I am good. Thank you for your medicine wine." Grandpa Feng grinned.

"Good to hear that." Yu Qi remembered that she gave two jars of medicine wine to Grandpa Feng.

"One bottle is finished." Grandpa Feng said.

"Wait, you get the medicine wine from her?" Grandpa Long asked.

"Yeah. What? You don't get it?" Grandpa Feng smirked.

"I just got it yesterday. Why do you get it earlier than me?" Grandpa Long asked.

"Because I know her earlier than you." Grandpa Feng made a proud face.

"Why does she need to give it to you?" Grandpa Long asked again.

"She is my granddaughter's best friend." Grandpa Feng said.

"She is my granddaughter in law, okay." Grandpa Long replied.

Everyone who watched this scene was dumbfounded. They did not expect these two would argue for such a thing. Right now they really wondered about the medicine wine that they had been talking about.

"What medicine wine? Can I get a taste of it?" A former president of Binhai Nation, Qiao Kui Jia asked.

"Who is going to give it to you?" Both Grandpa Feng and Grandpa Long said that sentence at the same time.

Yu Qi and everyone else was laughing. The scene was comedy funny. Grandpa Long coughed in embarrassment. He lost himself earlier. He remembered drinking the delicious wine and did not want to share it with others. He never thought that this Feng Mong already got to taste the delicious wine earlier than him.

Chapter 1062 - 1062: Chi Yuan Shows Off

"By the way, Jiang Man does not come?" Grandpa Feng asked Yu Qi.

"My aunt just give birth to a twin. My Grandpa is busy with his new grandchildren." Yu Qi said.

"Oh, I heard about that. A boy and a girl right. That Jiang Man is really lucky to have many grandchildren." Grandpa Feng said.

There was a jealous tone in his voice. He just had two granddaughters. Luckily one of them was outstanding. Otherwise, his hard work would be ruined if he left that to his son. He already started to train her as his heir.

"Oh, it has been a long time since I saw him." Qiao Kui Jia said. "How is he?"

"He is in a good health." Yu Qi answered.

"Oh, let me introduce you to this old man. He is Qiao Kui Jia, the former president." Grandpa Long introduced Yu Qi to Qiao Kui Jia. "This is my granddaughter in law."

Grandpa Long made a proud expression on his face showing that he was satisfied with this choice of his grandson.

Zhu Guang He was watching this scene make a straight line on his lips. He was a former subordinate of Grandpa Long before Grandpa Long retired. He thought they would be a family in the future when his granddaughter married Long Hui.

But everything was destroyed when this woman suddenly appeared beside Long Hui. At first, he did not believe it and assumed that it was just a rumour. However, he was forced to believe that when Long Hui held the engagement party.

His granddaughter was doing her duty outside the nation. So, she did not hear about the engagement party. After she had been kidnapped and saved by Long Hui's team, returned to the nation, she heard about the engagement party.

Of course, she could not believe it. When she confirmed it was the truth, she called him and cried. He was worried about her. However, after a few days, she recovered from the sadness.

She told him that Long Hui was merely engaged, not married yet. So, she still thought that she had her chance to change Long Hui's decision and get married to him.

She started to investigate more about Yu Qi. She felt Yu Qi was not suitable enough for Long Hui. The one suitable to be with Long Hui was her. That was what she kept telling him lately.

"Yu Qi, here you are." Feng Yue came and greeted Yu Qi.

"Hmm... Where is your boyfriend? He did not come?" Yu Qi asked.

"He comes. There is he. He is talking with his friends over there." Feng Yue pointed in one direction.

Yu Qi looked in the direction that Feng Yue pointed at and saw Xia Zi Qie talking to some people.

"Let's go. Don't talk with these old men." Feng Yue whispered at Yu Qi's ear.

Grandpa Long heard that and turned looking at Feng Yue. Feng Yue realized that she had been heard displayed her white tooth and left quickly while pulling Yu Qi together with her.

"A lot of people are coming to congratulate Brother Hui but some of them might have another intention." Feng Yue commented.

"What kind of intention do you think they have?" Yu Qi smiled.

"Some of them probably want to find their other half. Some of them probably want to make a connection. After all, people come to this party, some of them are powerful in their respective fields." Feng Yue said. Then she added. "And some of them are shameless to snatch other people." Feng Yue said that because she saw Chi Yuan and Wei Su Kee walk together.

Chi Yuan saw Yu Qi and was surprised by the look that Yu Qi had right now. It was not like she imagine when Xia Nue told her before. Xia Nue told her that Yu Qi was dressing up on her own. She was doing her own makeup and hairstyling. How could she look so beautiful like this?

Chi Yuan even suspected that Xia Nue already accepted Yu Qi as Young Madam Long and changed her side.

"Hi, Miss Tang and Miss Feng." Chi Yuan pushed the negative thought backwards and greeted Yu Qi and Feng Yue with the same. Then she asked. "Have you gone and greeted Grandma Wei?"

"Not yet. I don't think Grandma Wei would be happy to see me though." Yu Qi said.

"Even so, Miss Tang, you are her junior. You must go and greet her." Chi Yuan advised Yu Qi like a benevolent woman.

"Sure." Yu Qi smiled.

Feng Yue lifted her eyebrows. She was so curious as for why Yu Qi followed Chi Yuan's say. However, she did not want to comment on anything. She just followed Yu Qi to greet Grandma Wei. Yu Qi followed Chi Yuan and Wei Su Kee to greet Grandma Wei.

"Grandma Wei, look who I am bringing." Chi Yuan said.

Grandma Wei who talked to some older women looked over. She saw Chi Yuan and Yu Qi.

"Long time no see, Old Mrs Wei." Yu Qi greeted Grandma Wei.

"Oh, it is you." Grandma Wei said.

"This young lady is your grandson's fiancée, right?" One of the older women asked.

"Yes." Grandma Wei nodded.

"Then, why is she calling you by that name? She should be called your grandmother right?" The older woman asked again.

"That's right, Miss Tang. Hui is Grandma Wei's grandson. You should call her grandmother." Chi Yuan interrupted.

Chapter 1063 - 1063: The Unreasonable Grandmother

"I don't dare because Old Mrs Wei did not allow me to call her that. If I call her that, she probably get angry with me. It is better for Miss Chi to call her intimately." Yu Qi said the truth.

Chi Yuan and Grandma Wei changed their expression. They did not expect that Yu Qi would be retorted back like this. The atmosphere became awkward. The older women looked at Yu Qi, Chi Yuan and Grandma Wei.

They knew that Grandma Wei preferred Chi Yuan to be Long Hui's wife. So, it was probably because of that, Grandma Wei disliked Yu Qi. However, they could not say much about that. It was their family matter. They just could watch and see.

Grandma Wei faked several coughs. Chi Yuan grabbed some water and gave it to Grandma Wei. People could tell that they were very close to each other compared to her own granddaughter.

"I heard that you open the Jade shop." Grandma Wei moved to another topic.

Yu Qi assumed that question was directed to her, so, she answered. "Yeah. I open it."

"Why do you open that?" Grandma Wei asked.

"Well, for profit." Yu Qi really told the truth. She opened that store because of the money.

Others almost choked when Yu Qi told the reason. Must she be honest like this?

"I know you just open that store to compete with Yuan-er. You must hear that Yuan-er have talent in stone gambling. So you want to show off to her, right?" Grandma Wei spoke nonsense.

"Huh?"

Everyone looked at Grandma Wei with weird expressions right now.

"She was talented and studying under Master Chu Ming." Grandma Wei boosted Chi Yuan proudly.

"You are already a doctor. Stop doing such a thing. Just focus to be a good doctor. As for the store, you can give it to Yuan-er. She can take care of it nicely." Grandma Wei said.

This made people look at Grandma Wei more. They felt there was something wrong with Grandma Wei's brain. Chi Yuan noticed that. She tried to make Grandpa Wei stopped talking but she was unsuccessful.

"You meant I have to give the store to Miss Chi just like that?" Yu Qi asked.

"Of course, you don't have any talent in stone gambling? at all." Grandma Wei said.

"Grandma, what are you talking about? That is Miss Tang's store. How could she give something like that?" Even Wei Su Kee thought her grandmother was unreasonable.

Feng Yue could not hold back her laugh, so she laughed.

"What are you laughing at?" Grandma Wei asked.

"It is so funny. You think my Yu Qi did not have talent in stone gambling?" Feng Yue asked.

"Of course. She is a doctor." Grandma Wei said.

"Miss Chi, tell me. Who is losing to my Yu Qi several months ago, huh?" Feng Yue turned to Chi Yuan and asked her.

Chi Yuan was stunned as she heard the question. She did not expect Feng Yue to just ask that question to her in front of everyone like this.

"Oh, I remember that competition." One of the older women said.

"What happens?" Another joined too.

"I remember Chi Yuan competed with a girl in stone gambling. And she lost to that girl."

"Is that girl Miss Tang here?"

"Yeah. I remember her face. Her features are outstanding. Just now, I am thinking about where did I see her before. Now, when Miss Feng mentioned that, it clicked."

"Meaning, Miss Tang has talent in stone gambling too?"

"Yeah. She is very talented. Even Master Chu Ming admit her talent."

Grandma Wei was speechless when she listened to that conversation. "Are you telling the truth?"

"Of course, I am telling the truth. Everyone on that day watched Miss Tang win." The older woman who was on the stone gambling competition nodded.

"But you are just a doctor." Grandma Wei said.

"Being a doctor does not mean she would not have another talent." Feng Yue said. "And if she did not have talent in stone gambling, she could hire someone else. How could she just give her hard work to a stranger?" She added.

"Yuan-er is not a stranger." Grandma Wei replied.

"Even so, if she is not a stranger, why should she give it to someone to who she is not close? She could give it to me instead." Feng Yue argued.

"So, you are eyeing on my business?" Yu Qi asked while her eyebrows lifted.

"Of course not." Feng Yue grinned.

Grandma Wei was silent. She could not retort anything. Chi Yuan who sat beside Grandma Wei was paled. She did not have thought not having Yu Qi's store but because of Grandma Wei's words, people around might think that she was the one who have an idea about Yu Qi's store.

Feng Yue humped. Thank goodness, this old woman was not her grandmother. If not, she did not know what to do with her.

"Yu Qi, you are here." Someone called Yu Qi's name.

Yu Qi turned and saw Gu Ning and a man.

"Gu Ning, nice to meet you again." Yu Qi smiled.

"Yeah." Gu Ning smiled. "Oh, this is my brother, Gu Ye Fei." She introduced her brother to Yu Qi.

"Nice to meet you, Miss Tang." Gu Ye Fei said.

"Nice to meet you too, Mr Gu." Yu Qi nodded.

"Feng Yue, you are here too." Gu Ning said.

"You just see me?" Feng Yue said.

"You know each other?" Yu Qi asked.

Chapter 1064 - 1064: Money Can Change People

Gu Ye Fei looked around when he saw Wei Su Kee and Grandma Wei. He was disappointed when he could not see the person he wanted to see.

"Su Kee, where is Ding Ye?" Gu Ning asked Wei Ding Ye.

"She disliked coming to this kind of event." Wei Su Kee said.

"It is just like her." Gu Ye Fei mumbled slowly.

He thought no one would hear what he said but someone did. Yu Qi was surprised to see Gu Ye Fei said that. When she connected the dots, she realized something. Gu Ye Fei liked Wei Ding Ye. Gu Ning must knew about that. To avoid suspicion, Gu Ning asked where Wei Ding Ye was.

"You are Gu Ye Fei, Mayor Gu's son?" Grandma Wei asked.

"Yes, Old Mrs Wei." Gu Ye Fei nodded politely.

"I see." Grandma Wei nodded.

Her eyes looked at Gu Ye Fei up and down. Then she smiled.

"You young people should talk down." Grandma Wei said to Wei Su Kee.

Wei Su Kee could not understand what her grandmother tried to see. So, she looked a little bit confused. However, the older women could see what Grandma Wei wanted to do. This old woman tried to match making her granddaughter to Mayor Gu's son.

Gu Ye Fei and Gu Ning also understood what Grandma Wei tried to do. But they ignored it. Gu Ning knew her brother. Her brother already have someone with that he wanted to spend his life together. It would not be easy to change his choice. No one could. Not even their parent. He was a firm person. He could try his best to get what he wanted.

Since Yu Qi already greeted Grandma Wei, she did not think she needed to be here anymore. She did not want to see Chi Yuan showed off her closer relationship with Grandma Wei.

Feng Yue also thought the same. So, she quickly pulled Yu Qi away from that place. Grandma Wei saw that and felt that Yu Qi was being rude.

"Look at that girl. How could she leave just like that without saying anything?" Grandma said.

"Grandma Wei, don't be angry. It is not good for your health." Chi Yuan comforted Grandma Wei.

"If Hui only know you like this, he will fall in love with you. Not with that rude girl." Grandma Wei complained.

The older women looked at each other. They did not think that the earlier girl was bad at all. However, who were they to comment about other people?

Yu Qi followed Feng Yue to find her boyfriend. Her boyfriend, Xia Zi Qie was still talking to his friends. Both of the girls approached Xia Zi Qie.

"Zi Qie..." Feng Yue called.

"Yue-er." Xia Zi Qie smiled.

"Zi Qie, this is your girlfriend?" One of Xia Zi Qie's friends asked.

"Yeah. This is my girlfriend, Feng Yue. And this is her friend, Tang Yu Qi." Xia Zi Qie introduced both girls to his friends.

"Hello." Feng Yue greeted Xia Zi Qie's friends.

"Oh, they are sure pretty." Another friend commented.

"Thank you." Feng Yue smiled.

"Miss Tang, may I ask?" A friend asked.

"Yes?" Yu Qi looked at him.

"Do you already have a boyfriend?" He asked.

Feng Yue laughed.

"Why do you laugh?" The friend asked.

"She already have a boyfriend. No, a fiancée. Her fiancée is the main character for tonight party." Feng Yue said.

"What? That means..." The friend was shocked.

He actually wanted to ask for her contact information. Who knew. They probably could get together. If her fiancée was the main character for tonight, that meant she was the fiancée of Long Hui. They were surprised. However, when he heard that information, he was sure that he had no chance at all.

Yu Qi just smiled.

"She is just a pretty face." Someone said. It was a girl among Xia Zi Qie's friends.

Feng Yue and Yu Qi looked at the girl.

"Sang Zhi, watch your mouth." Xia Zi Qie said frowned.

"What do you say?" Feng Yue asked.

"What? Did I say something wrong?" Sang Zhi asked. She did not scared.

"You sounds like she just has a pretty face." Feng Yue said.

"She is not?" Sang Zhi continued mocking Yu Qi ridiculously.

"I am a doctor. What's about you?" Yu Qi asked.

Sang Zhi was silent when she heard that. She did not expect the girl that she mocked was a doctor.

"You don't know her?" Another man asked Sang Zhi.

"What? Does she famous or what?" Sang Zhi asked while rolling her eyes.

"She is a doctor and the owner of HuiQi Jade Store. The jade store that you are dying to go." The man said.

"What?" This time, Sang Zhi was genuinely shocked.

She loved jade. When she heard the new jade store opened, she wanted to go but she had not time to go to FINN City. She did not care much about who opened the store. She just thought that the store was probably owned by someone that probably the same old as her parent.

"You open HuiQi Jade Store?" Sang Zhi asked Yu Qi.

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded.

"You are amazing." Sang Zhi praised Yu Qi loudly.

Everyone was dumbfounded by this fast change. Just now, Sang Zhi mocked Yu Qi. Then right now, she was looking at Yu Qi like Yu Qi was a god.

"It proved that money and status can change people." Feng Yue commented.

Chapter 1065 - 1065: Proud To Stand Together With Him.

The ceremony was about to begin when they saw the host standing on the stage with the microphone. He tested the microphone to make sure it was working nicely. After confirming that the microphone was working, he started to talk to the audience.

"Welcome to this party, it has been my honour to be the MC for this party. As you can see that this party is to honour and congratulate our new Senior Colonel. Before that, I would like to invite our President to give a speech. Welcome, President Hai Ging." The MC said.

The audience clapped. A middle-aged man came upon the stage. It was President Hai. It was his second year becoming the President of Binhai Nation after the former president had resigned.

It was the second time Yu Qi saw him. The first one in her past life where she had accompanied her biological grandfather to meet this man. At that time, he looked much older than now.? He went to see Grandpa Mu because he wanted Grandpa Mu to invest in the project inside Binhai Nation.

While Yu Qi was taking a trip down memory lane, President Hai already finished his speech. Feng Yue called Yu Qi when she saw Yu Qi staring blankly.

"Hey, are you alright?" Feng Yue asked.

"Oh... yeah... I am just thinking about something." Yu Qi smiled.

Now the MC asked Zhu Guang He, the current highest-ranking authority in the military to come on the stage. President Hai would put the badge on Long Hui's uniform himself.

Long Hui appeared handsomely in his formal soldier uniform. He went up to the stage. He saluted them. Both President Hai and Zhu Guang He replied with a salute too. After that, Zhu Guang He took the badge from the tray that his own granddaughter held.

Yeah. Zhu Shanggun was also on the stage. She begged her grandfather to be up on the stage together with Long Hui. She stood proudly and looked down at the audience specifically at Yu Qi. She wanted to show Yu Qi that she could stand on the stage together with Long Hui while Yu Qi only could stare up at them.

Yu Qi had a good sight. She could see Zhu Shanggun looking at her proudly. She actually did not know what Zhu Shanggun wanted to show her. So, she was kind of ignoring Zhu Shanggun and continued to look at Long Hui.

"Congratulations. I hope you will work harder for our people and nation." President Hai said to Long Hui as he put the badge on Long Hui's uniform.

"Yes, Sir." Long Hui answered.

Then, they took a picture together. Zhu Shanggun also shoved to take the picture together. Once again, she gave a proud look at Yu Qi.

"Yu Qi, why does she seems to give a proud look at you?" Feng Yue whispered. Because she was standing beside Yu Qi, she could see that.

"Not seems but she is." Yu Qi smiled.

"But why?" Feng Yue asked.

"I don't know. She is probably sick in the head." Yu Qi chuckled.

"Look, she is provoking you. I don't know what is going on in her mind." Feng Yue said.

"Long Hui has several admirers. She is one of them." Gu Ning heard their conversation and interrupted.

"I know. She came to talk to me before. She was kinda assessing me." Yu Qi said.

"What? Who does she think she is?" Feng Yue could not believe that.

"Don't mind her. She can not do anything to me." Yu Qi said.

"Look, she is trying to stop Brother Hui from coming down." Feng Yue pointed to the stage.

They could see that Zhu Shanggun tried to stop Long Hui and wanted to talk to him. However, Long Hui did not have any intention to stay on the stage anymore. He wanted to go to his beloved Qi Qi's side. He had already wasted a lot of time staying on the stage.

Long Hui went straight to his beloved Qi Qi. Yu Qi greeted him with a smile. Long Hui quickly grabbed and held Yu Qi's hand.

"Congratulations, Senior Colonel Long." Yu Qi called him by his title.

"Thank you, future Mrs Long." Long Hui kissed Yu Qi's hand.

Coincidentally, Yu Qi looked at Zhu Shanggun at that time. This time, Yu Qi gave a look to Zhu Shanggun. Just now, Zhu Shanggun showed off that she could stay on the stage with Long Hui. But now, Long Hui had already returned to Yu Qi's side.

Zhu Shanggun saw it and gritted her teeth. 'How dare she give that look to me?' She wanted to do something to that woman.

"Let's go. I want to introduce you to everyone." Long Hui said.

Long Hui brought Yu Qi to meet President Hai. Currently, President Hai was talking to the men with Grandpa Long.

"President Hai." Long Hui called President Hai.

"Oh, it's you, Senior Colonel Long." President Hai said. "Elder Long must be proud to see your grandson receive the title at his age."

"He still has a long way to go." Grandpa Long commented.

President Hai smiled. He turned at Yu Qi. "This is..."

"My fiancée."

"My granddaughter in law."

Grandpa Long and Long Hui said at the same time.

"It seems Elder Long is also satisfied with your grandson's choice." President Hai said.

"Of course, I am." Grandpa Long Hui nodded.

If he did not feel satisfied with Long Hui's choice, he did not think that Long Hui would break up with her. It was good that his grandson finally had a girl. In the past, he even thought that his grandson was gay.

Chapter 1066 - 1066: Compete In Shooting

"I have heard about your Jade Store. I have never thought that you have a business mind since you are a doctor." President Hai said.

"It is my hobby and generates money as well. So, it is good to have the side income." Yu Qi did not deny that she loved money.

"I have also heard that Miss Tang likes shooting too." A middle-aged man suddenly mentioned that.

"Really?"

"Yeah. I have heard that she won a shooting competition during her university."

Yu Qi just smiled when she heard that. She was trying to understand what this person wanted her to do when he mentioned that.

"Coincidentally, this place has a shooting training ground. How about Miss Tang show her talent to us?"

"On what basis?" Yu Qi suddenly asked that.

The people who talked about that were silent for a moment. They did not expect that Yu Qi would react like that. They thought Yu Qi would happily accept to showcase her talent to them.

To be honest, they were expecting Long Hui to marry someone who could stand together with him in the military. The most suitable candidate was Zhu Shanggun. She was also from the military. So, it was perfect.

"It is just for fun. If Miss Tang does not want to do it, it is fine." The middle-aged man said while smiling.

"Oh, sure. Why not?" Yu Qi accepted the challenge.

The middle-aged man was smirking when Yu Qi jumped into his provocation.

"Why don't we have a friendly competition here? Everyone can join it." The middle-aged man said.

A person besides President Hai wanted to say something but President Hai stopped him. The middle-aged man was from the military. He did not want to be on bad terms with them.

Only several young men and women decided to play together. As for the young women, they actually wanted to embarrass Yu Qi in front of Long Hui. If Long Hui saw that, they thought Long Hui would probably think to consider his choice again.

They went to the shooting range. The management had been informed that the shooting range would be used at the last minute. They needed to make sure that the equipment was prepared and in the good condition.

Since the shooting range had usually been used by the guests, the equipment was always being checked regularly to avoid unforeseen circumstances.

The women went to change their clothes first. However, Yu Qi did not do the same. She leisurely chatted with others.

"Miss Tang, don't you want to change first?" The same middle-aged man who suggested the shooting thing asked Yu Qi.

"No need. I can shoot in this dress. We need to be ready in any circumstance in case we are facing danger. Don't you think so?" Yu Qi asked again.

"That's right. What Miss Tang said is right." Qiao Kui Jia became more impressed with this girl. "Long Fei Yi, you are lucky to get a granddaughter in law like that." He then said to Grandpa Long.

Grandpa Long did not say anything but his face showed a proud expression.

There were seven lanes. So, everyone took each lane. Three of them were men while other four were women including Yu Qi. The ones who joined had a military background. Zhu Shanggun was a soldier herself. Zhi Yi Yi was the granddaughter of a high ranking officer. Ding Chi Yia was the daughter of the politician.

As for the three men, they were in the military. The reason for them to join the competition was to make sure that high ranking soldiers like Long Hui would notice them.

They were shocked to see Yu Qi did not change her dress. Zhu Shanggun was the first one to recover herself. She snorted. She would make sure that she would show Yu Qi that she was the one who was suitable for Long Hui.

Yu Qi touched the pistol. It was Ruger .22. It was very suitable for shooting range due to its incredible accuracy. It was commonly used in the shooting range. Yu Qi checked the gun.

"You can shoot 10 times. We will be available to see your score later. You may start now." The middle-aged man said.

Others started to shoot at the target. Their posture told everyone that they were very familiar with the gun. Except for one person. Because she was wearing the dress, she seemed to be out of place.

Yu Qi felt the target was so easy. It was at a closer distance for her. She usually trained much further in her space. She somehow felt it was not challenging at all.

Zhu Shanggun was the first one to finish shooting the ten shots. Her score was 95. She missed the eighth shot. However, she felt proud. That she obtained such score.

Ding Chi Yia scored 84 while Zhi Yi Yi scored about 93. The three men scored 97, 94 and 96 respectively.

Then Yu Qi was about to shoot the last round. She saw a red laser pointed to somewhere. She followed the laser and it was pointed at President Hai's forehead. Someone was about to assassinate Binhai Nation's President. She did not think any longer. She moved to President Hai as faster as possible. She pulled President Hai aside. A bullet passed after President Hai moved. Yu Qi lifted up the gun and pointed at the assassin.

She shot. Then a scream could be heard.

Chapter 1067 - 1067: Attempt Assassination

"Take cover. There are the assassins." Yu Qi shouted loudly.

Everyone was shocked. They immediately took action hiding somewhere. But not everyone moved. Some of them were very afraid (usually the young women) that they could not move their legs. However, the people who were close nearby helped them.

"What is happening?" Someone asked.

"I don't know."

"Miss Tang shouted there is an assassin."

"How could she know about that?"

Long Hui looked at Yu Qi. Yu Qi pointed up. Long Hui nodded. She knew that the assassin was injured when she shot him. He must be prepared to escape right now since he could not continue his job anymore and the fact, he was currently injured. So, they needed to catch him before he ran away.

The assassin was doing the same as Yu Qi had predicted. He could not expect that the young lady could shoot accurately in the far distance. The bullet went straight to his eyes. It was very painful.

However, he needed to escape right now. Ignoring the pain in his eye, he took the escape route that he had already planned.

He needed to escape as faster as possible to avoid being caught by them. He did not know that the two people were heading in his direction. When he was about to turn to the corner, suddenly a man appeared in front of him. He turned around wanted to escape in another direction but he saw a woman standing there while smiling at him.

"Want to escape? I am sorry. I will not let you do it." Yu Qi said.

The assassin grabbed a knife from his leg and threw it at Yu Qi. Yu Qi swiftly avoided that but the knife cut through the lower part of the dress. The dress was ruined. However, she did not get injured.

The man smiled when seeing Yu Qi like that. He did not expect that he would get attacked by the man whom he first saw. Long Hui attacked his leg. The assassin screamed when the knife was stabbed into his thigh.

Yu Qi threw a needle to the assassin's forehead. The assassin was shocked before he collapsed on the ground. This scene had been watched by the bodyguards who just arrived at the scene.

"This man is the assassin." Long Hui said to the bodyguards. "I will hand out him to you."

"Yes, sir." The bodyguards nodded while they lifted the assassin away.

"Are you okay? Are you hurt somewhere?" Long Hui quickly asked Yu Qi while looking around her body.

"I am okay. It is just the dress." Yu Qi said trying to calm down Long Hui.

Long Hui was relieved knowing his beloved Qi Qi did not have any injuries.

"Let's go back to the party venue. I bet everyone is waiting for us." Yu Qi said.

"Hmm..." Long Hui nodded while putting his hand on Yu Qi's waist.

Once they appeared at the party again, President Hai approached them.

"Miss Tang, thank you for saving me." President Hai bowed his head to Yu Qi.

Everyone who saw this scene was very shocked. A President was bowing to a mere woman. President Hai did not think it was a bad thing. This woman did save him by pushing him aside. Otherwise, his head had already been penetrated by a bullet.

He could see the bullet that stuck on the wall behind the place where he was standing before.

He felt impressed by this woman that she could see the assassin up there and even shot at him. His bodyguards who went to chase the assassin saw her throwing something towards the assassin and the assassin fainted right away. The bodyguard told him just now.

"It is nothing. I have just done something that anyone will do." Yu Qi said.

"Are you okay? Your dress..." Feng Yue looked at Yu Qi's dress.

"Are you injured?" Grandpa Long noticed it too.

"Miss Tang, are you okay?" President Hai asked.

People began to notice that Yu Qi's dress was already ruined.

"I am okay. The assassin just threw the knife at me. I managed to avoid it. But not my dress got ruined." Yu Qi explained.

Everyone was silent when listening to the explanation. 'Just threw the knife at her.' That sentence sure gave a chill to others. If they happened to be at her place at that moment, they did not think that they could move to avoid that.

"Miss Tang is indeed impressive. You can see the assassin up there. And even managed to shoot the assassin." Zhu Shanggun suddenly interrupted the conversation. "I am wondering how does Miss Tang know there is an assassin up there."

This statement indicated something else. Zhu Shanggun wanted others to think from different perspectives. A perspective where people would think that everything was a gimmick for Yu Qi to be famous.

Another perspective was that it was Yu Qi who hired the assassin to kill President Hai.

"Does Miss Zhu think that Miss Tang is just putting an act?" It was President Hai who asked that question, not others.

Zhu Shanggun was shocked but she calmed down and answered President Hai. "Well, I have just expressed my concern about that."

"Miss Zhu... I happen to have good eyesight. It is 2020. A perfect one. And also, I don't have any grudge towards President Hai. Why should I hire the assassin to kill President Hai? I even don't know that he is also attending this party." Yu Qi said to Zhu Shanggun.

Chapter 1068 - 1068: Blurt Out The Plan

"You probably want to show off." Zhu Shanggun said.

"Shanggun." It was Zhu Guang He called his granddaughter's name.

"What Miss Zhu says is possible. We need to investigate it properly." Chi Yuan also joined in.

Even though she disliked Zhu Shanggun too, she would help her this time. Like people said, 'An enemy of my enemy is my friend.'

Feng Yue glared at Chi Yuan. 'I need to beat up this woman.'

Long Hui also glared at Chi Yuan. Chi Yuan saw the glare. She became scared however, she could not take back her words before.

"If you want to argue about that, I would like to say that uncle is also suspicious." Yu Qi pointed to the middle-aged man who suggested the shooting competition in the first place.

The middle-aged man was shocked as he shook her head viciously. "Miss Tang, you can not accuse me like that."

He did not know that there would be an assassin up there waiting to kill President Hai. He looked at everyone with a desperate expression on his face. Lastly, he stopped at Zhu Shanggun.

Zhu Shanggun was the one who told him to bring up the shooting competition. She wanted to compete with Yu Qi and show everyone her skill while stepping on Yu Qi.

The middle-aged man also felt that Long Hui should be with Zhu Shanggun, not with Yu Qi. So, he agreed to help Zhu Shanggun. If he knew something like this would happen in the first place, he would not agree to do such a thing like this.

When he was accused of something like this, he wanted Zhu Shanggun to say something. But she ignored him. He could not be accused by something like this. He needed to tell everything the truth.

"Miss Zhu, you are the one who has suggested the shooting competition. You want to compete with Miss Tang to show your skill that you are more worth than Miss Tang." The middle-aged man said.

Everyone was surprised to hear that. Well, not everyone. Some people knew about that. Zhu Guang He frowned as he looked at the middle-aged man. Even though he knew that his granddaughter liked Long Hui, he also knew that Zhu Shanggun would not be plotting such a plan.

"No. I don't know about this." Zhu Shanggun shouted angrily. She did not expect that middle-aged man to blurt out the plan.

A bodyguard came and whispered something to President Hai. President Hai nodded seriously.

"I need to excuse myself." President Hai said after hearing what his bodyguard said to him.

Everyone could just watch President Hai leave. Even though President Hai had already left, people still debate about what had happened. Zhu Shanggun did not feel very well. So, she also excused herself. She could not stand how people kept looking at her after the incident. Everything was Yu Qi's fault.

The party was still continued. The people in the military surrounded Long Hui and Yu Qi. They were talking about how impressive Yu Qi was when shooting at the assassin.

"I have never thought Miss Tang is very skilful in the shooting."

"Do you want to be a sharpshooter?"

"Yeah. The military appreciates that skill of yours."

They wanted Yu Qi to be in the military.

"Thank you everyone but I prefer to be a doctor." Yu Qi politely rejected the invitation.

"If Jiang Man knew that those people invite his precious granddaughter to be a soldier, he would definitely be pissed off." Grandpa Feng asked.

"I heard that she was not his biological granddaughter." Qiao Kui Jia said.

"Even so, he loves her." Grandpa Feng said.

"I see. She is very skilful. It is pity that that skill can not be used." Qiao Kui Jia sighed.

"She is also a skilful doctor. I think she would pass her grandfather's glory." Grandpa Feng said.

He had invested in the medical world recently. So, he heard about her skill as a doctor. If he did not know that she was not related by blood to Grandpa Tang, he would be that she was indeed his granddaughter.

Chi Yuan watched Yu Qi and Long Hui stood beside each other. She really disliked looking at them together. The place beside Long Hui was supposed to be her place.

"You should give up." Gu Ning said to Chi Yuan without looking in her direction.

Chi Yuan turned and looked at Gu Ning.

"I will never." Chi Yuan said and left to go to Grandma Wei's side.

"Love can not be forced. Because forced love will never be successful." Gu Ning said.

One hour after the party was over. Long Hui thanked everyone who came to the party. Grandpa Long followed both Yu Qi and Long Hui to leave together.

.....

In the morning, two of them were being called by President Hai. They knew it must be related to that assassin. Grandpa Long also wanted to join them. Even though he had already retired but he was still concerned about the safety of the nation.

The attempt at the assassination of the President was not good news. Even though there were no reporters was not allowed to enter the party, still, the news was leaked.

They could not expect to watch every single person that attended the party who possibly leaked the news. They arrived at President Hai's formal office.

"Welcome." President Hai welcomed them.

The secretary prepared the tea for them and left the office.

"Once again, I thank you for saving my life yesterday, Miss Tang." President Hai said.

Chapter 1069 - 1069: Questioning The Assassin

"Like I said yesterday, I do what people would do." Yu Qi expressed the feeling, not too humble or arrogant.

"How is the assassin?"

"How is the assassin?"

Both Grandpa Long and Long Hui asked the same question at the same time.

"Both of you probably don't have to waste your time." President Hai chuckled. "He still did not want to tell us anything." He sighed.

"Do you have someone in mind who wants to kill you?" Long Hui asked.

"Well... I have too many enemies. So, it is quite difficult to say." President Hai sighed again.

"Do you want me to say?" Yu Qi offered her help.

"Huh? What do you mean?" President Hai asked.

"I will try to make him talk who the mastermind is." Yu Qi stated her help.

"Really?" President Hai did not feel optimistic about this.

"Well... If only you allow?me to do it." Yu Qi said.

President Hai looked at Yu Qi. He was the president of a nation but this girl never looked away from his eyes indicated that she was not afraid of him at all. This girl probably could do it.

"Sure, you can try." President Hai nodded.

President Hai brought them to another place. The police officers were guarding the place. When they saw President Hai, they stood straight and nodded to him. However, when they saw Grandpa Long and Long Hui, they immediately saluted both of them. Long Hui replied to their salute by saluting them back.

This repeated whenever other police officers saw Grandpa Long and Long Hui until they finally arrived at the room where the assassin was being kept locked. They installed a one-way mirror. So, they could see the assassin being questioned by another police officer.

"Who sent you here to kill our President?" The police officer, Officer Choi Yuan asked.

"Since you think you are incredible, you can find out yourself." The assassin mocked Officer Choi Yuan.

"You!!!!" Officer Choi Yuan was angry when the assassin gave him that attitude.

"You should know that we, as the assassin would not tell you about our requester." The assassin said.

"If you give us the information, your punishment would be lighter." Officer Choi Yuan offered.

"Humph!!! You really think that I am stupid, do you?" The assassin laughed off when he heard the offer.

He looked terrifying with the blood appearing on the bandage on his eye. The eye that Yu Qi shot yesterday. He felt the pain of the wound.

"How about you let me see the woman who caught me yesterday, I will consider telling you about what you want." The assassin smiled.

Coincidentally, Yu Qi and others just came to another room and heard the statement from the assassin. The police officer in front of the assassin wanted to say something but he stopped when he received an order from his earpiece. He then nodded, stood up and left the room.

He received the order telling him to leave the room and went to the control room. He did not expect to see President Hai as well as Long Hui. Of course, he knew Long Hui. Not to mention the formal Great General Long. However, he did not know about the woman beside Long Hui.

"I will go now." Yu Qi said.

Officer Choi Yuan who came out of the assassin's room did not get what Yu Qi said. He thought that she wanted to leave since it was not an appropriate place for her to stay.

"I will accompany you to the door." Long Hui said.

The couple went to the room. Like Long Hui said before, he just accompanied Yu Qi only to the door.

"What are they trying to do?" Officer Choi Yuan asked in a panic.

"Let's watch it first." President Hai said.

Since President Hai said so, Officer Choi Yuan would follow his order.

The assassin was surprised to see the woman entering the room.

"What's a beauty." The assassin said lewdly.

"I heard that you want to meet me." Yu Qi sat in front of the assassin.

"What?" The assassin could not understand.

"You want to meet the woman who caught you. Here I am." Yu Qi said with a blank expression.

"What?" The assassin was surprised.

Because he was thinking about escaping yesterday, he did not take a good look at the person in front of him yesterday. He only remembered that that person was a woman because of the dress. He did not expect her to be so beautiful.

He could feel the pain of his wound. Only that, he remembered that this woman shot him at his eyes.

"Are you really the woman who caught me?" The assassin asked again.

"Of course." Yu Qi nodded. "Since that was your request to tell who the mastermind is, you can tell now."

The assassin laughed. "You believe that? You are so naive. I will never betray my belief." He was trying to think about how to escape this room using this woman.

He actually did not believe that this woman was the one who caught him yesterday.

Officer Choi Yuan gritted his teeth when listening to the conversation. The assassin never wanted to tell them anything about that.

However, he could not believe his ear that that woman was the one who caught the assassin. Who was she? A secret agent of President Hai? Or the soldier trained under Long Hui? But Long Hui seemed to particularly worried about her going inside the assassin's room.

Chapter 1070 - 1070: Torture The Assassin

Everyone was silent while watching the conversation between Yu Qi and the assassin.

"Since you don't want to talk, I will make you talk." Yu Qi said.

Yu Qi stood up. She took out the small case from her bag. When she opened the case, they could see inside the case containing the needle.

"What? You want to torture me with that needle?" The assassin laughed.

He was trained to be an assassin from his childhood. He had undergone painful training. He even almost died due to that training. He could hold the pain from the needle.

"You know what, I am a doctor. I know which point hurts so much that you want to die. But I will not let you die." Right after she said, a needle struck into one of the acupuncture point on the assassin's body.

The assassin shouted when he felt the enormous pain. It was painful that he thought that he never felt before. He screamed even louder when another needle stabbed on his body.

He already fell to the ground. He grabbed the needle and pulled it out. However, the pain did not stop. It appeared more painful than before. Another one was stabbed in his body.

The level of painfulness increased making him scream louder. He thought that it was better for him to die. He could not stand the pain. He was thinking of killing himself by biting his tongue.

But before he managed on doing so, Yu Qi quickly dislocated his jaw. Having his jaw dislocated, he could not move his mouth. So, he could not bite his tongue to kill himself.

He could no longer scream. Only the tears came out of his eyes indicating that he was in the pain because he could not hold back.

"Do you like to talk now?" Yu Qi asked the assassin.

The assassin glared at Yu Qi.

"It seems you still have energy. Let's increase the pain, shall we?" With that said, Yu Qi stabbed another needle on the assassin's body.

The assassin wanted to scream but he could not do it. He began to regret his request of wanting to meet this devil woman. He even regretted accepting this mission of killing President Hai.

Yu Qi relocated the assassin's jaw again.

"Do you want to talk now?" Yu Qi asked the question again.

"Yes... Yes... Please... Make the pain stop." The assassin cried.

Yu Qi put the needle on one spot of the assassin's body. Then she pulled out all of the needles. The assassin could feel that pain decreased drastically. He was finally released from that pain.

Yu Qi looked at the mirror. Even though she could not see Long Hui, she knew that he could see her. She wanted to say that her work had finished here. Having the same wavelength as his beloved Qi Qi, Long Hui understand what Yu Qi wanted to say.

"He is willing to talk now. You can ask what you want to ask." Long Hui said to Officer Choi Yuan.

Officer Choi Yuan was dumbfounded when Long Hui suddenly talked to him like that. He was terrified by the method used by that young woman. He never thought that the young woman would use such a method to make the assassin talk.

Listening to the earlier screams that the assassin had made, he also could feel the pain too. It must be so painful that made the assassin wanted to kill himself. However, that young woman prevented him from doing so.

"Elder Long, your future granddaughter in law is really interesting." President Hai praised Yu Qi.

Grandpa Long just smiled.

However, Officer Choi Yuan was shocked. Is she the future granddaughter in law of Great General Long? Meaning she is future wife of Long Hui.' The news was too much for him to process now. He calmed himself down. He had another job to settle now.

He needed to ask the assassin about the mastermind. "I will go and talk to the assassin again." He left the control room and went into the assassin's room again.

Long Hui had already taken Yu Qi out of the assassin's room. Officer Choi Yuan entered the room. He could see that the assassin seemed to be relieved to see him.

"Can you tell me now?" Officer Choi Yuan asked while sitting down.

"Yes! Yes! I will talk. Just please don't call that devil woman again." The assassin begged Officer Choi Yuan.

Officer Choi Yuan was speechless for a moment. The effect was very terrible on the assassin. He even called that young woman 'Devil Woman'.

They felt that their presences were not needed anymore. So, Long Hui requested to leave. However, President Hai had another plan. He asked them to join him for lunch together.

Yu Qi was surprised when President Hai asked them to go to his house for lunch.

"My wife loves cooking. So, she often cooks for us. And she also wants to see you." President Hai said, specifically to Yu Qi.

"See me?" Yu Qi tilted her head.

"He wants to see you because you have saved my life yesterday. She wants to say her thanks personally." President Hai said.

"Well... I am delighted to see her." Yu Qi nodded. "Are you busy, Brother Hui, Grandpa Long?" She needed to ask Long Hui and Grandpa Long first.

"Nope, nothing is important right now." Long Hui said.

Grandpa Long also agreed to join them. So they went to President Hai's house.
