Chapter 1071 - 1071: Complaining To Her Mother

President Hai's wife, Mrs Hai Su Han was very friendly towards Yu Qi. During lunch, she thanked Yu Qi several times because Yu Qi had saved her husband's life. She was very grateful to Yu Qi. If Yu Qi did not save her husband, she would feel devastated.

After lunch, President Hai and his wife escorted them out personally. This scene was caught by a reporter. In this picture, Mrs Hai Su Han was hugging Yu Qi like Yu Qi was her daughter.

This picture was made into the news with the title, 'Future Wife Of The Youngest Senior Colonel Is Together With President's Wife.' Once again, Yu Qi began famous among the citizens. This time, she became a talk among the older women due to her relationship with the President's Wife. Not everyone could meet with President's Wife.

Chi Yuan who also read about the news threw her phone on the floor. The phone broke. But she did not care much. She was furious when seeing Yu Qi was acting very friendly to President's Wife. She was the one who was supposed to be there. Not Yu Qi, that bitch.

It was not different with Zhu Shanggun. She was also getting angry after knowing the news. She ran to her grandfather who was currently doing some paperwork.

"Grandpa... Why is this woman acting so close with President's Wife?" Zhu Shanggun questioned her grandfather.

Zhu Guang He looked at the news. He just knew about it. It was time that he thought Zhu Shanggun should forget about Long Hui.

"Shanggun, you should forget about Long Hui. He already has his fiancée." Zhu Guang He sighed.

"What? No! I can't. I want to marry him. You have also told me that I am suitable for him." Zhu Shanggun cried.

Her mother, Wai Shi Qing heard her cry. She came to look at her daughter.

"Sha Sha... What happens to you, my dear?" Wai Shi Qing asked.

"Mum, I want to get married to Long Hui." Zhu Shanggun cried to her mother.

Wai Shi Qing knew about Long Hui too. She knew that her daughter wanted to get married to Long Hui but she also knew that Long Hui already had a fiancée and he loved his fiancée very much. Her daughter would not have a chance to be together with Long Hui.

Zhu Shanggun was panicking right now. At first, she did not take Yu Qi as her rival. She was pretty proud of herself that she was a soldier like Long Hui. However, when she witnessed Yu Qi's abilities yesterday, she started to get worried.

"Sha Sha... listen to mum. You are so beautiful..." Wai Shi Qing could not finish her sentence because Zhu Shanggun cut her off.

"Then, why does Long Hui dislike me?" Zhu Shanggun cried loudly.

"Dear, there are a lot of people who like you. You can choose another man. He already loves someone else." Wai Shi Qing sighed. She also felt sad for her daughter.

"But mum, I want to marry Long Hui." Zhu Shanggun pressed the subject.

"ENOUGH, ZHU SHANGGUN!" Zhu Guang He could not hold back anymore. He did not want his granddaughter to act like this because of a man.

Zhu Shanggun went silent. She pressed her lips into a straight line. She was scared when her grandfather was angry.

"You don't need to go back to your military grounds. I will have your transfer." Zhu Guang He made the decision.

He would have Zhu Shanggun transferred to another military ground since she was in the same as Long Hui. He felt his granddaughter needed to stay away from Long Hui to avoid future problems.

"No. I don't want to." Zhu Shanggun did not want to leave.

It was very hard to request to stay close to Long Hui. If she was transferred, she could not see Long Hui anymore.

"It is an order." Zhu Guang He knew that he needed to use his authority as the current general.

Yu Qi had no idea that she had caused trouble to Zhu Shanggun. She was happily resting in the back yard of Long Residence together with Long Hui. He did not leave her alone at all.

"I will be going back tomorrow." Yu Qi said.

"Hmm..." Long Hui just hugged Yu Qi from behind like he was hugging a teddy bear.

"Then I will go to Country Helix one day after that." Yu Qi mentioned her next travel.

"For what?" Long Hui asked.

"I have a medical conference. I have to present my paper." Yu Qi said.

"I see." Long Hui started to think about his work. He had work to do in three days. After that, he could follow his beloved Qi Qi. Well, he could follow her and surprise her later.

"Here you are." It was Feng Yue's voice.

Both Long Hui and Yu Qi turned to see Feng Yue and Xia Zi Qie there. Yu Qi wanted to stand up but Long Hui did not let her go.

"Brother Hui..." Yu Qi looked at him.

"Don't move." Long Hui said.

Feng Yue rolled her eyes. This couple knew to make her feel like she was a single dog even though she had a boyfriend. Xia Zi Qie chuckled as he pulled Feng Yue to sit at the opposite seat.

They talked about the news where they were spotted having lunch with President's family. Yu Qi saw the news but she did not care much about it because there was nothing bad about it.

Chapter 1072 - 1072: Meeting With Pei Ruiyings Friends

Long Hui was reluctant to let Yu Qi go home. After being reminded by his grandfather, he let Yu Qi go home. He also had work to do. Yu Qi was back to her job.

After her vacation, she had already prepared the paper which she would present at the medical conference later. This time, Medical Conference would be held at Country Helix. It was the first time that Yu Qi was going to go to Country Helix. Even in her previous life, she has never gone there. So, she was kind of interested in Country Helix.

She was going together with Doctor Pei Ruiying. Doctor Pei Ruiying was very familiar with Country Helix since he used to work there. Her brother, Tang Han Lee was also going there but he would arrive on the third day of the medical conference because he had an important surgery first.

The day Yu Qi was going to go Country Helix arrived. Auntie Ming Yue and Grandpa Tang sent her to the airport. Yu Qi invited Grandpa Tang to go together but Grandpa Tang refused. He wanted to take care of his herbs. And recently, he spent a lot of time with his youngest grandchildren.

Doctor Pei Ruiying also boarded the same flight. He met with Grandpa Tang. Before boarding the plane, both of them were in the conversation. Well, it was related to the medical field. Like other people, Yu Qi could see that Doctor Pei Ruiying seemed a little bit excited when meeting Grandpa Tang.

Then the passengers were called to arrive at the gate. Both of them said goodbye to Grandpa Tang and Auntie Ming Yue. On the plane, they talked about something before they decided to do something else.

6 hours after the plane was safely landed at Country Helix, it was evening there. So, they decided to check-in at the hotel which they had reserved. They decided to rest for a few hours and would have dinner together later.

"Which restaurant is good here?" Yu Qi asked.

They had not decided which restaurant they wanted to go to. Yu Qi asked Doctor Pei Ruiying since he was familiar with the area.

"Hmm... Do you mind eating at the food stall?" Doctor Pei Ruiying hesitated to ask.

"Hmm... I don't mind if the stall is clean." Yu Qi said.

With that, they went to have dinner at a food stall. It was not far from the hotel. About 20 minutes of driving. They sat at one of the empty tables. It seemed the stall was very popular because Yu Qi saw a lot of people eating here.

A boy came and took the order. Yu Qi let Doctor Pei Ruiying decide the menu. After 15 minutes of waiting, the food came. Yu Qi tasted it and it was very delicious.

"Thank goodness, you have liked it." Doctor Pei Ruiying said.

"Hmm? Why?" Yu Qi asked.

"I have thought since you are from Tang Family, you will dislike these kinds of food." Doctor Pei Ruiying commented.

"Doctor Pei, before I have been adopted by Tang Family, I also used to eat at the food stall. I even worked at it." Yu Qi smiled.

"What? Adopted?" Doctor Pei Ruiying blinked his eyes several times. He did not know about that.

"What? You don't know about that?" Yu Qi was surprised.

"Yeah. I don't know about that. How did that happen?" Doctor Pei Ruiying asked.

"Well... I have some talent in medicine. So, Grandpa took me as his disciple and granddaughter." Yu Qi made the story short.

"I have never thought you are just adopted child of Tang Family because I can see your relationships with your three brothers are very close." Doctor Pei Ruiying commented.

"I am really grateful to my brothers they have accepted me as their sister." Yu Qi said.

"What? Look who's here." Someone patted Doctor Pei Ruiying's shoulder.

Doctor Pei Ruiying looked aside and saw several familiar faces. There were his former colleagues.

"Ruiying, Long time no see." His friend said.

"Yeah. Long time no see. How are you guys?" Doctor Pei Ruiying asked his friends.

"Good, man. Oh, you are having dinner with your girlfriend, dude? Sorry to disturb you two." His friend noticed the beautiful lady who was sitting together with Doctor Pei Ruiying.

"No... She is my colleague." Doctor Pei Ruiying said.

"Really? Are you telling a lie?" His friend joked.

"Yeah. She is my colleague." Doctor Pei Ruiying pressed again.

"Hello everyone. Nice to meet you. I am Tang Yu Qi. He is my superior." Yu Qi introduced herself.

"Really? Are you not his girlfriend?" His friend asked again.

"Yes." Yu Qi firmly nodded.

"By the way, I am Harry. This is Jackson and Peter." Harry seemed to be disappointed. "I thought that you have already graduated from single status. You are wasting these good looks of yours. It will be great if we can get some of your good looks. By the way, I have heard that you have returned to Binhai Nation. What are you doing here?"

"There is a medical conference. I will attend as a participant." Doctor Pei Ruiying said.

"Really? Doctor Su Sha Xian is also participating." Peter said.

"Oh, I see." Doctor Pei Ruiying lacked reaction when he heard the news.

"She must be happy if she sees you later," Peter said again before Harry elbowed his arm.

His friends noticed that Doctor Pei Ruiying disliked the topic, so Harry changed to another one.

"Do you work at Tang Private Hospital now?" Harry asked.

Chapter 1073 - 1073: Su Sha Xian

Pei Ruiying nodded while answering, "Yes. Is there anything?"

"Really? Then, have you met Doctor Tang Jiang Man?" Harry asked.

"He has already retired. So, he does not come to the hospital anymore." Pei Ruiying said.

"Oh..." Harry looked a little bit disappointed.

Pei Ruiying looked at Yu Qi. "But I do meet with his disciple regularly."

Harry became excited again. "Really? How is he? Is he as good as Doctor Tang Jiang Man? I really want to meet with him and have some discussion together." He sighed.

"Well, the disciple is a woman. If you want to meet with her, you can do it now." Pei Ruiying chuckled.

"Not like she is coming to this conference too, right?" Harry said.

"You have already met her." Pei Ruiying gave some hints.

"What? When?" Harry confused.

Not only he was confused but Peter and Jackson were also confused. Then, they thought about it again, their eyes moved to Yu Qi. The only stranger whom they did not know was Yu Qi.

Yu Qi did not listen much to their conversation since she was talking with Aoi and Shino in her mind. Aoi was complaining to her about Shino disturbing him when he was sleeping because Shino was asking him to play together.

So, she did not listen much to their conversation but suddenly, she felt their eyes were on her. She looked up and felt confused.

"What is it? Is there something matter?" Yu Qi asked.

"Are you Doctor Tang Jiang Man's disciple?" Harry asked Yu Qi with a glint of excitement in his eyes.

"Yes?" Yu Qi still did not understand the situation.

Harry became excited. He put down the paper and pen on the table.

"Can you sign this paper?" Harry said excitedly.

"What? Why?" Yu Qi looked at Harry and others, expecting their explanation about this current situation.

"Sorry, he is a hardcore fan of Doctor Tang Jiang Man. So, he is excited to see Doctor Tang Jiang Man's disciple." Peter explained.

"Oh, I see." Yu Qi smiled.

"So, can I have your signature?" Harry asked as he pushed the letter and pen towards Yu Qi.

Yu Qi took the pen and signed the paper. Harry took the paper and treated the paper as his precious treasure.

"Thank you, Miss Tang," Harry said happily.

Yu Qi was taken aback by this action. She now felt that he was a funny person.

Yu Qi was fully prepared for her presentation. She wore the appropriate outfit with the white lab coat. She brought everything that she needed for the presentation and got out of the room. Coincidentally Rui Peiying exited his room as well.

The venue of the conference was the big hall inside the hotel where they had stayed. So, there was no need for them to go somewhere else.

"Do you have everything?" Rui Peiying asked.

"Yes. Let's go." Yu Qi nodded.

When they stepped inside the hall, many eyes were on them. They went to their booth to start preparing their booth. While working on their booth, someone greeted Pei Ruiying.

"Ruiying." A woman with a white coat called Pei Ruiying's name.

Pei Ruiying and Yu Qi turned around to look at the woman. She had a smile on her lips. She never looked at Yu Qi, her whole attention was on Pei Ruiying. Yu Qi could guess her emotions that she felt very happy after meeting with Pei Ruiying.

"Long time no see, Doctor Su Sha Xian." Pei Ruiying politely replied to Su Sha Xian.

Su Sha Xian's face froze for a moment and returned to normal right away.

"You have not changed at all, Ruiying." Su Sha Xian said.

"There is no need for me to change." Pei Ruiying replied again.

Su Sha Xian made a sad smile. She was happy to see Pei Ruiying but she knew that the man did not feel the same way as she did. She turned to the woman beside Pei Ruiying.

"Hi, you must be his colleague." Su Sha Xian observed Yu Qi from up to down.

Su Sha Xian felt threatened when she saw Yu Qi. She could see that Yu Qi was a very beautiful woman.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded.

"I am Su Sha Xian, Ruiying's former colleague." Su Sha Xian introduced herself to Yu Qi.

"I am Tang Yu Qi. Doctor Pei is my superior." Yu Qi also introduced herself.

"Is Ruiying an excellent doctor, right?" Su Sha Xian praised Pei Ruiying.

"Don't you have to prepare for your own presentation?" Pei Ruiying asked. In other words, he asked Su Sha Xian to go away.

Su Sha Xian was stunned and gave an awkward smile.

"Okay... I will go first." Su Sha Xian left.

Neither Pei Ruiying nor Yu Qi talked about Su Sha Xian. They talked about the presentation that Yu Qi would present later.

Su Sha Xian returned to the booth. Her colleagues asked her whether she met with Pei Ruiying. They knew that Su Sha Xian always loved Pei Ruiying. She wanted to get married to Pei Ruiying but Pei Ruiying ignored her approaches.

"Yeah. But I have not talked long since they are busy." Su Sha Xian said.

"Who has come with him?" Her colleague asked.

"A woman. His follow doctor, I guess." Su Sha Xian asked.

"Perhaps his girlfriend?" A male colleague joked about it.

"What are you talking about?" A female colleague hit the male colleague.

"What? I am just joking and you can not reject the possibility." The male colleague who had just joked said, as he avoided getting hit by his colleague.

Chapter 1074 - 1074: Blinded By Jealousy.

"Sha Xian, don't listen to him. He is just joking around." The female colleague comforted Su Sha Xian.

"It's nothing. I am okay. I want to go to the ladies." Su Sha Xian smiled weakly as she walked to the toilet.

She needed to cool down. She was an independent woman. She did not need a man to stay alive. But still, it stung when someone whom you like did not like you back.

Yu Qi was the third person in the line to give her presentation about the surgical technique that she wanted to introduce to the world. When her turn came, she calmly got on the stage, preparing the slides for her presentation.

Once she started, everyone paid attention to what she was saying. Everyone who attended this medical conference had a certain degree of knowledge about what Yu Qi had been talking about.

"This is the few short videos of the surgical technique that I am introducing to you." Yu Qi said as she played the video.

"This patient suffered from a bad car accident. Normally her leg could be saved. However, by using this surgical technique, not even her legs, she could live a normal life after the incident. This is her progress report."

A lot of people wanted to know more about that surgical technique. So, they had a lot of questions to ask. However, due to the time limit, Yu Qi needed to step down from the stage.

"You may ask me in the booth later. Thank you for your time." Yu Qi ended her presentation.

Yu Qi stepped down from the stage. The next presentation went up. Everyone was very interested in the knowledge and wanted to share it. So, Yu Qi did not think it was a boring session.

The conference stopped for some time. It would continue after lunch. So, Yu Qi and Pei Ruiying returned to their booth. When she returned, she saw that a lot of people were already waiting for her.

As soon as they saw Yu Qi, they stormed Yu Qi with a lot of questions. Yu Qi calmly answered their questions one by one. Seeing his colleague was still surrounded by the people, he stepped in to help her.

"Everyone, if you have any more questions, you can ask later. It is lunchtime. I hope you can give Doctor Tang some time to eat." Pei Ruiying said.

Everyone finally calmed down after listening to what Pei Ruiying said and gave some space to Yu Qi.

"Doctor Tang, I hope we can talk about this matter again." A man said.

"Sure. However, I want to watch other presentations too." Yu Qi said.

"Okay... Okay... Let's continue after other presentations."

"You seem used to this kind of situation. Have you gone to a lot of medical conferences before?" Pei Ruiying asked.

"Well, yes. I have." Yu Qi nodded.

From far, there were two pairs of eyes watching them together. It was Su Sha Xian and her friend, Cindy.

"Ruiying looks so gentle when talking to her." Su Sha Xian said in a jealous tone.

"Don't fall into the misunderstanding so fast. You should ask them first." Cindy understood that people in love were usually blinded by jealousy.

Cindy saw Pei Ruiying acting pretty normal with that woman. They probably just talked about their work.

"How about you ask them for lunch?" Cindy suggested.

"Do you think Ruiying will join us?" Su Sha Xian asked in concern.

"I don't know. Probably yes." Cindy did not know what was in Pei Ruiying's mind. So, of course, she did not know that.

Su Sha Xian thought she should try. She walked towards those two. Cindy followed from behind.

"Ruiying, do you mind joining us for lunch?" Su Sha Xian asked and invited Pei Ruiying.

Pei Ruiying did not answer right away. He was not alone. He needed to ask about Yu Qi's opinion too.

"Doctor Yu Qi, do you mind?" Pei Ruiying asked.

"No, let's have lunch together." Yu Qi answered.

Su Sha Xian smiled when Pei Ruiying agreed to have lunch together. Yu Qi did not say much. Yu Qi could feel that Su Sha Xian was interested in Pei Ruiying even if Pei Ruiying's friends did not say anything yesterday.

They were having lunch at the hotel restaurant. It was near and easy to access. Most of the customers in the hotel restaurant were from the conference.

"How is your life, Ruiying?" Su Sha Xian asked.

"It is normal." Pei Ruiying answered short.

The conversation ended there. Cindy sighed. Pei Ruiying was the same as before. Cold and silent. Even the woman beside him also had the same personality.

"You must be happy to return to your birth country." Cindy stroked the conversation.

"It is better than other countries." Pei Ruiying was indeed happy to return to his birth country.

"Well, what if you get married to someone who belongs to a place other than your country, where do you want to live?" Cindy asked indirectly.

"I have not thought about it for now." Pei Ruiying replied.

"What about you, Doctor Tang?" Su Sha Xian asked.

"Of course, the birth country is better." Yu Qi knew from her experience.

Since her biological grandfather was from Fanghai Nation, she moved to that country after Grandpa Mu found her. It was so hard to adjust to living there. That was why she asked his grandfather's permission to study at Binhai Nation first.

The topic ended there. They then talked about today's conference. Because there were a lot of interesting topics, they did not feel bored at all.

Chapter 1075 - 1075: The Girl Went Mad

"Doctor Pei is here." A girl told her friend about that.

"What? Really? He is here. I want to see him. Where is he?" The friend said.

"I think he is at M-Angel Hotel. You should go. I heard Sha Xian is there too." The girl said.

"What? I need to go there quickly." The friend rushed over.

The girl was smiling. It was Su Ming Dia, Su Sha Xian's older sister. She disliked her sister so much because Su Sha Xian was smarter than her and their elders preferred her as well which had made Su Ming Dia jealous of her.

She got the news that Su Sha Xian liked a doctor at her workplace. However, that doctor did not seem to like her. That made Su Ming Dia happy.

As for her friend, Clara liked Pei Ruiying so much. Before this, she was just looking at Pei Ruiying from the far. When Pei Ruiying left, she was very disappointed about it.

Su Ming Dia wanted Clara to teach Su Sha Xian. Clara was a spoiled princess of the Kindell Family, a rich family in Helix Country. Even though Su Family was also a rich family, they were one step down from the Kindell Family.

Su Ming Dia happily followed Clara to the medical conference. Unfortunately, they could not step into the venue. The medical conference was only for the doctors and other people who had the invitation. It was not open to the public. So, Clara could not enter the venue.

Because she could not enter the venue, she made a scene outside. Su Ming Dia regretted following this girl. She pulled Clara and made her stop.

"Clara, you should ask your father if he has some connections to those people inside." Su Ming Dia suggested.

"Oh, yeah." Clara nodded.

She immediately called her father and asked him about that.

...

"What? Fiancee?" Su Sha Xian looked at Yu Qi with a surprised expression on her face.

"Yes. Is this news shocking you that much?" Yu Qi asked. She was a little bit confused.

"Yes... No... I mean... I thought that you are Ruiying's girlfriend in the beginning. So, when you have told that you have a fiancee, I am surprised." Su Sha Xian explained in an embarrassed tone.

Pei Ruiying was not with them. He went to the restroom. So, that was why Su Sha Xian was brave to say something like that.

"See... I have guessed it right. Sha Xian, you should ask first before jumping to the conclusion." Cindy sighed.

"Yeah... You are right." Su Sha Xian smiled embarrassedly.

"I see Doctor Pei as my superior and co-worker. I don't have any kind of feeling towards Doctor Pei other than that." Yu Qi explained.

"Let's go back to the hall. The next session of the presentation is about to begin." Pei Ruiying came back from the restroom.

"Sure... Sure..." Cindy nodded.

They went back to the venue. The presentation started again. After that, they returned to the booth. Yu Qi and Pei Ruiying talked to each other on the way. It was a normal conversation until they heard someone screaming Pei Ruiying's name.

"Brother Ruiying!!!!!! I miss you so much." A girl came and wanted to hug Pei Ruiying.

However, Pei Ruiying managed to avoid the hug. He frowned. Yu Qi also frowned.

"Brother Ruiying, why are you avoiding me?" It was Clara.

"Do you know her?" Yu Qi asked Pei Ruiying.

"No." Pei Ruiying was telling her the truth. He did not remember this girl.

"Who are you? Why does Brother Ruiying treat you so nicely?" Clara asked angrily to Yu Qi when seeing Pei Ruiying talk nicely to Yu Qi.

"Who are you to care?" Yu Qi rolled her eyes.

"You dare to talk rudely to me? Do you know who I am? Which family did I belong to?" Clara bragged about her powerful family.

"Sorry. I don't." Yu Qi chuckled.

"You... I will ask my family to deal with you. You slut!!!" Clara shouted laughed.

Everyone turned to look at them.

"Clara Kindell? What are you doing here?" Su Sha Xian saw Clara.

"Su Sha Xian, I will not let you take what's mine." Clara declared.

"Huh? What are you talking about?" Su Sha Xian could not understand.

"Brother Ruiying, do you like to have dinner together with me?" Clara invited Pei Ruiying.

"Who are you actually?" Pei Ruiying asked Clara.

"What! Don't you remember me?" Clara was shocked to hear the question coming from Pei Ruiying.

"Miss, I don't remember who you are. And I don't any have intentions of joining you for dinner." Pei Ruiying said.

"Brother Ruiying, I was once your patient," Clara said the sentence with a painful look on her face.

If Clara was his patient, he would remember it. But he did not remember that. She was probably a none serious case.

Clara could not get angry at Pei Ruiying. So, she vented her anger to Yu Qi.

"It must be you who has seduced Brother Ruiying and made him forget everything, I will make you pay for that." Clara pointed her finger at Yu Qi's face.

Clara stepped forward to approach Yu Qi and wanted to slap her face. Yu Qi nimbly moved away.

"You dare to move." Clara slapped the air.

"What? Do you think I am an idiot to wait for your slap?" Yu Qi chuckled.

"You!!!" Clara screamed loudly as she went mad.

A lot of people watched them.

"What is happening here?" An old man asked in a frown.

Chapter 1076 - 1076: Her Saviors

He saw that Yu Qi was being yelled at by a girl. He was one of the audiences who had listened to Yu Qi's presentation and was very interested in Yu Qi's topic. He liked to learn more about it. He also wanted to ask Yu Qi about the topic. When he got here, he saw Yu Qi was avoiding a woman's slap. That woman even yelled at her.

"You, mind your business!" Clara looked at the old man.

"Miss, you should calm down." The old man said.

The old man was Rick Kindell. He was an influential figure in Country Helix's medical world.

"Stay away from my business. I will teach this slut a lesson." Clara looked at Yu Qi again.

"Clara, watch your mouth!" Su Sha Xian said.

"So, what? What can you do to me? You should stay away from my business. Otherwise, I will make sure your family suffers from it." Clara said in an arrogant voice.

"You!" Su Sha Xian gritted her teeth. Her family was her bottom line.

"Oh, you are so arrogant because of your family." Yu Qi chuckled again.

"Which family do you come from?" Rick asked.

"Kindell family," Clara stated arrogantly.

"Oh, I think it will be easy to talk to your parents then," Rick said.

"What? Who do you think you are?" Clara chuckled.

"You don't have to know." He said to Clara. Then he looked at Yu Qi. "Doctor Tang, I am sorry for the treatment while you are here in our country. I am interested to talk to you about the surgical technique that you have talked about. Can we talk over dinner?"

Rick apologized and invited Yu Qi for dinner.

"Doctor Pei, I also want to talk to you too." Rick was also interested in Pei Ruiying's topic.

Pei Ruiying used to work in Country Helix. So, he knew Rick Kindall too. He worked once with Rick in one operation.

"No. He will not be going to go to dinner with you. He will go with me." Clara interrupted.

"Miss, I don't know you and will not go for dinner with you." Pei Ruiying stated that clearly to Clara.

"No... no... Brother Ruiying. It's me, Clara. Why don't you remember me?" Clara wanted to cry.

Pei Ruiying indeed treated her once. She was hurting her ankle because of the high heel. Pei Ruiying was the one who helped her. Because of that, she fell in love with him. She used to admire him from the far. She was shy to confess her feeling. Until she heard that Pei Ruiying was no longer here.

She regretted not saying anything back then. Since she met him this time, she wanted to make up. She wanted to confess to him. She rushed over when Su Ming Dia heard that Su Sha Xian also had feelings for Pei Ruiying. Su Ming Dia would not lie because Su Sha Xian was her younger sister.

However, when she rushed here, she saw Pei Ruiying talking to another beautiful woman. She could not hold back herself.

"Brother Ruiying..." Clara looked pitifully at Pei Ruiying.

"Please don't claim kinship with me. I am not your brother. I am not even your acquaintance." Pei Ruiying frowned.

Clara could not hold back when Pei Ruiying dissed her like that. She ran away while crying.

"I wonder how does she get in here in the first place? I will check with the organizers." Rick said. "Doctor Tang, Doctor Pei, how about my invitation?"

Pei Ruiying looked at Yu Qi. Yu Qi nodded.

"Doctor Su, you can join us too," Rick said.

"Oh, okay." Su Sha Xian was a little bit surprised when Rick invited her as well.

....

Clara was crying when she returned home. Her mother, Catherine saw that and was worried about her daughter.

"What happens to you, my dear?" Catherine asked.

Clara rushed to hear her mother. "Mum... mum... mum..." She was kept crying.

Catherine could only comfort her daughter by patting her daughter back. After a while, Clara finally calmed down a little bit.

"Clara dear... Tell me what is going on with you. Why are you crying like this?" Catherine asked.

"Mum... Brother Ruiying dislikes me." Clara wanted to cry again when she recalled that.

"Ruiying?" Catherine tried to remember. "Oh, that Asian-looking Doctor?" She remembered Clara once told her about him. But her daughter also told him that he had gone.

"Yes. And he was with another girl. He told me that he does not remember me. Mum, why? Am I not beautiful enough?" Clara asked her mother.

"Of course, you are beautiful my dear. You are the most beautiful girl." Catherine praised her daughter.

"Then, why does he did not remember me?" Clara pressed the subject.

"Men are usually blind. That is why he does not remember you." Catherine said to calm down her daughter.

"And that girl with him is not afraid of our family, mum. She needs a lesson!" Clara gritted her teeth when she remembered about it.

"Yeah. We will. Right now, you need to stop crying. It will ruin your face. Let's go hit the spa tonight." Catherine said.

"Yes, mum. Let's go." Clara nodded.

She could not let her face ruin like this.

Su Ming Dia frowned as she drove back home. The thing went on the way that she did not expect. She thought Clara would fight with Su Sha Xian. Clara would use her family's power to suppress Su's Family. That would make Su Sha Xian was the reason that Su's Family got suppressed.

Chapter 1077: Tang Han Lee Arrives

The elders in their family would get angry at Su Sha Xian. Then she would go and use her friendship with Clara to make her stop suppressing Su's Family. This way, the elders would prefer her rather than Su Sha Xian.

But from what she saw earlier, that man, Pei Ruiying was together with another girl which made her plan had been ruined. She needed another plan to ruin Su Sha Xian's reputation.

Su Sha Xian did not know that her older sister was plotting behind her back. She returned home with a smile. Her mother saw it and asked about it.

"Why do you seem so happy today? As I remember, you are having your medical conference today." Su Jia Nang asked.

"I am having dinner with Doctor Rick, one of the people whom I admire so much." Su Sha Xian said.

She explained what happened today at the medical conference but she left out the part where she had feelings for Pei Ruiying.

"Really? I don't know that Clara is someone like that. When she has come to see your sister, she seems to look like a good girl to me." Su Jia Nang sighed.

"By the way, where is sister?" Su Sha Xian asked.

"She has returned back two hours ago. She seems to be in a bad mood. I think if you have something to say to her, you better wait." Su Jia Nang suggested.

It was not like they had a bad relationship or something but Su Jia Nang knew Su Miang Dia's temper. She would get very angry when someone disturbed her while she was in the bad mood.

Su Sha Xian cleaned up and laid on the bed. She felt that she needed to make a big decision in her life. She would confess to Pei Ruiying.

As Cindy said, she needed to confront regarding her admiration towards Pei Ruiying. She needed to tell Pei Ruiying that she loved him and wanted to be with him. If he rejected, she needed to put an end to this matter.

She was not young anymore. Even though her mother was just silent about her not getting married yet but she knew that her mother wanted her to get married soon.

On the second day, Tang Han Lee arrived and made his way to the venue. Since he had some name for his career, he had been received by the organizer. He was the last presenter for the morning session.

Once he finished, he wanted to find his younger sister. But he was stopped by many people. They kept asking questions about his new paper. He answered about one hour before he excused himself. He walked around and found his younger sister.

"Wait, does Doctor Tang say that he wants to meet his younger sister?" Someone asked.

"Yeah. I have heard it as well."

"Then, does that mean Doctor Tang Yu Qi is his younger sister?"

"Oh... I have just realized that they have the same surname. No wonder, Doctor Tang Yu Qi is so talented."

"Big Brother." Yu Qi called.

"Doctor Han Lee..." Pei Ruiying greeted him.

He replied by nodding.

"Let's go for lunch outside together." Tang Han Lee said.

They went to the car that Tang Han Lee rented. At first, Yu Qi was a little bit confused when Tang Han Lee rented the car but now she knew, Tang Han Lee rented the car because it was more convenient to have a car since Ding Na An was also here.

Tang Han Lee called Ding Na An to tell her about their plan. Ding Na An was resting due to jet lag. After the conference, they would continue staying and treated this as their vacation.

"Yu Qi." Ding Na An greeted Yu Qi by hugging her.

She turned to Pei Ruiying and greeted him too. She knew that this man was also a doctor from Tang Private Hospital.

Tang Han Lee reserved a table at a famous restaurant in the town. When they came, the restaurant was indeed famous because it was completely full. Fortunately, Tang Han Lee had already made the booking. Otherwise, they needed to find another place to eat.

"Will you come to the hall later?" Yu Qi asked Ding Na An.

"Yeah. I have the invitation that Han Lee has given me." Ding Na An said.

"I see. It is good then. It has a lot of new knowledge. It is not a waste." Yu Qi nodded.

She approached Ding Na An and whispered. "When have you planned this vacation, huh?"

"Well, it is Han Lee's idea. It is our first vacation abroad." Ding Na An answered with a shy face.

Yu Qi smiled. It was nice to see Ding Na An with a blushing face because it was rare for her to blush like that.

Tang Han Lee went to the restroom. While he was about to return to their table, he saw a sick lady. As a doctor, he rushed to help the lady.

"Are you okay?" Tang Han Lee asked.

"I am o..." The lady turned and saw Tang Han Lee. She was stunned to see such a handsome man. The word 'okay' was stuck in her throat. She changed her answer. "I am not okay. My head seems to hurt."

"I will call someone to bring you to the hospital. Please wait." Tang Han Lee said.

Tang Han Lee went to ask a waiter. He told the waiter there was a sick lady over there and asked him to call the ambulance.

Chapter 1078 - 1078: Someone Wants To Flirt With Tang Han Lee

The waiter quickly called the ambulance. Tang Han Lee returned to the lady again.

"Miss, the ambulance will? come later and bring you to the hospital." Tang Han Lee said.

"Thank... Thank you." The lady nodded shyly. "Can I ask for your contact number? I want to thank you later."

"There is no need for you to thank me. I am just doing what everyone would do in this kind of situation." Tang Han Lee politely rejected.

Tang Han Lee knew the eyes. The eyes belong to the woman who liked him for his looks. He already had a fiancée. He did not want things to get messed up.

Su Ming Dia still could hold her headache. She gritted her teeth when the man who helped her refused to give her his contact information. It was the first time that she felt strongly towards a man.

She wanted to have this man. Turned out, this was what her sister felt towards that Pei Ruiying. It was indeed a pleasurable but painful feeling. She needed to know this man.

"Then, can I ask your name?" Su Ming Dia asked.

"My name is Tang Han Lee." Tang Han Lee said.

"Thank you, Mr. Tang. My name is Su Ming Dia." She said.

The waiter came. "The ambulance has arrived."

Su Ming Dia glared at the waiter. The waiter was a little bit confused when the person who was supposedly sick glared sharply at him. But he ignored it. Thinking that the lady probably felt the pain.

The paramedic took the lady. So, Tang Han Lee returned to his table.

"Why do you take so long? Is there a problem?" Yu Qi asked.

"Someone is hurt. So, I have asked the waiter to call the ambulance." Tang Han Lee said. "It must a headache but I am not sure. It is better for her to go to the hospital to check."

"Oh..." Yu Qi nodded. She did not think much about that.

"It is about time. Let's return." Pei Ruiying said.

....

Su Ming Dia asked someone to check Tang Han Lee. However, the person said there was no one in Helix Country with that name. Su Ming Dia frowned as she read the report. She was sure that the man told her that his name was Tang Han Lee. She was not mistaken.

The person said that man was probably a foreigner or something like that. That was when something stroked Su Ming Dia. There were a lot of foreigners at this time due to the medical conference. It must be it.

She needed to go to the medical conference and confirmed that herself. However, if she wanted to go to the medical conference, she required the invitation. Otherwise, she could not get in. So, she decided to ask her younger sister about that.

"Sha Xian, can I go to the medical conference with you tomorrow?" Su Ming Dia asked Su Sha Xian during dinner.

"Huh?" Su Sha Xian was surprised to hear that.

Her sister disliked her career the most. But her sister wanted to go to the medical conference with her?

"Can I go?" Su Ming Dia asked that again.

"Oh, sure." Su Sha Xian did not think much about that and agreed to bring her sister over.

She had one invitation card left. She did not have anyone to give to. So, she could give that to her sister.

The next day, Su Sha Xian went to the conference with her sister, Su Ming Dia. Once they got into the hall, Su Ming Dia disappeared from Su Sha Xian's sight. Su Sha Xian did not think much about that. She thought Su Ming Dia might want to walk around. Since she had another discussion session with other doctors, she let her sister be.

Su Ming Dia walked around searching for the man, Tang Han Lee. It did not take her a long time to find him. She saw that man talking with the woman on whom Clara got mad at two days ago. Even though he did not display any intimate act with that woman, she could feel that he was close to that woman.

Now, it was her turn to feel jealous and angry. That woman already had Pei Ruiying and now she was flirting with Tang Han Lee. She thought she needed to tell Tang Han Lee about that woman.

She walked toward them and stopped in front of them. Both of them stopped talking and turned in her direction.

"Yes?" Yu Qi tilted her head. She did not know this woman.

"Hi, Mr. Tang." Su Ming Dia ignored Yu Qi and greeted Tang Han Lee only.

"Yes? Who are you?" Tang Han Lee asked.

Su Ming Dia was a little bit hurt when Tang Han Lee had already forgotten about her.

"It is me. The one whom you have helped yesterday." Su Ming Dia said.

That reminded Tang Han Lee. He did help someone yesterday.

"Oh, it was you. How are you?" Tang Han Lee asked to be polite.

"Thank you for your help. I am feeling better today." Su Ming Dia smiled.

"I have just done what everyone would do." Tang Han Lee said.

"I would like to thank you. Perhaps dinner together tonight?" Su Ming Dia invited Tang Han Lee for dinner together.

Yu Qi could see that the woman was trying to flirt with her big brother but she would not interfere with that. She wanted to see how her big brother handled this kind of situation.

Chapter 1079 - 1079: Little Admirers

It would feel amazing to see how her big brother handled things like this. She also wanted to see Ding Na An's reaction to this kind of situation.

Su Ming Dia looked at the woman who stood beside Tang Han Lee. She remembered this woman because she was the one that Clara had fought yesterday. She was wondering as for why this woman was together with Tang Han Lee this time.

Ding Na An appeared. She just went to the ladies before. She saw Su Ming Dia as she approached Tang Han Lee and Yu Qi.

"Na An...." Tang Han Lee called Ding Na An's name.

Su Ming Dia felt threatened. She did not feel anything toward the previous woman but this woman, she knew when she saw Tang Han Lee softened his expression when looking at this woman.

"This is...?" Ding Na An asked Tang Han Lee while looking at Su Ming Dia.

"I have kind of saved her yesterday. She has come to thank me." Tang Han Lee explained to his fiancée.

"I see. Is it over?" Ding Na An asked.

"Yeah." Tang Han Lee said.

"Then, let's go out for a lunch." Ding Na An said.

"Can I join you guys?" Su Ming Dia sought a chance.

"Miss Su, we are not familiar with each other. I don't think it is necessary." It was Tang Han Lee who had rejected her.

Su Ming Dia was stunned. She would fight back if the woman rejected her but it was the man who she wanted but he was rejecting her. She could only hold her feeling back while watching the three people leaving the venue.

Su Sha Xian saw her sister. She approached her.

"Sister, what are you doing, standing here?" Su Sha Xian asked.

"Leave me alone!" Su Ming Dia was already angry, venting her anger on Su Sha Xian, and left the place.

Su Sha Xian was stunned by her sister. She did not understand. Her sister looked fine before this. What made her in her bad mood?

"Let's go out for a lunch." Cindy pulled Su Sha Xian over.

Su Sha Xian did not want to think about her sister anymore and followed Cindy to lunch.

....

"Na An, that woman was clearly trying to flirt with Big Brother Han." Yu Qi said to Ding Na An.

Tang Han Lee was shocked when he heard that sentence from his sister. He quickly turned to see his fiancée's reaction.

"Well... I know." Ding Na An nodded.

Tang Han Lee was nervous.

"But I believe my fiancé knows the limit." Ding Na An smiled at Tang Han Lee.

Tang Han Lee smiled in relief. His fiancée knew him well.

Yu Qi clicked her tongue in silence. She wanted to see drama.

"Tomorrow is the last day. Do you have anything to do after that?" Yu Qi asked.

Ding Na An glanced at Tang Han Lee with a slight blush on her cheeks. When Yu Qi saw this, she knew that both of them already had a plan for it. She would leave them alone. She did not want to be a third wheel.

"Okay... Okay... You don't have to tell me. I understand." Yu Qi chuckled.

Yu Qi thought that was also a good plan for both of them. Tang Han Lee was busy lately due to his work. It was a good chance for them to spend time together.

"By the way, I don't see Doctor Pei." Tang Han Lee changed the topic.

"Oh, he has told me that he would be having lunch with his former colleagues. So, he could not join us today." Yu Qi did invite Pei Ruiying before lunch.

"Oh... he worked here before." Tang Han Lee nodded.

They finished their lunch and went to their own booths. When she saw her booth, she was surprised to see so many people waiting in front of her booth. She was wondering about that.

One of the people over there turned around and saw Yu Qi nearby.

"Look. Over there. It's Doctor Yu Qi." The person said.

Everyone turned around in Yu Qi's direction. Yu Qi blinked her eyes in confusion. Looked like this group of people were young. Perhaps students.

"Guys, calm down. Don't scare Doctor Yu Qi." The leader of the group said.

Everyone calmed down. However, there was a trace of excitement in their eyes. Yu Qi could see it.

"Doctor Yu Qi, we are students from IVlite University. We have learned a lot from your journal papers. When we heard that you are coming here, we are really looking forward to meeting you." A leader of the students said.

Yu Qi immediately smiled at the group. She heard about that university. These people were students from the medical faculty of that university.

"Thank you for coming here." Yu Qi said.

"Doctor Yu Qi, we would like to learn about your latest paper." The leader of the students said.

"Sure. Why not?" Yu Qi nodded.

She started to explain her topic to the students. Some of them also raised some questions regarding the topic.

"Practice makes one perfect. You may practice this surgical technique. You may find it difficult for the first time. But once you have mastered it, you can save a lot of people in need." Yu Qi ended her explanation.

"Yes, Doctor Yu Qi." The student answered.

"I have learned a lot from Doctor Yu Qi."

"Seriously, Doctor Yu Qi is good in her lecturing."

"It will be great if Doctor Yu Qi became one of our lecturers."

Chapter 1080 - 1080: Su Sha Xian Called Pei Ruiying For A Talk

The students of IVlite University left after spending about two hours at Yu Qi's booth. They scattered to other booths into a small group, not like a big group.

"Doctor Yu Qi is surely popular." Pei Ruiying commented after seeing the students leaving.

"Those students are the future of the medical world." Yu Qi smiled as she said that.

"Are you interested in becoming a lecturer?" Pei Ruiying asked.

"I have many things in my hands right now. I don't think I have enough time to be a lecturer." Yu Qi said.

She indeed had many things in her hands right now. Her businesses, her work as the doctor. She would not have time for herself if she added more work.

The third day of the medical conference ended. Yu Qi did not want to have dinner outside tonight. She wanted to cook for herself and also for the three little cuties in her space.

Those little cuties had already begged her to cook some delicious meal for them. Once she stepped into the space, the three of them ran towards her.

"I have already promised you guys. So, don't worry. Let me take a shower first. You can go collect some herbs and veggies for me to cook. Oh, collect some blueberries and strawberries as well. I want to make some pies." Yu Qi said to three little cuties.

"Yes, Master."

Three of them ran towards the garden. They did what Yu Qi had asked.

After taking the bath, Yu Qi went to the kitchen and opened the freezer. She took out a lot of beef. She thought it should be wonderful to have a BBQ beside the lake.

She prepared the ingredients. Marinated the beef and let it stay. Meanwhile, she took the ingredients to make the pies.

Her little cuties had collected fresh blueberries and strawberries for her. They had already become experts in this.

After finishing making the pie, the pie went into the oven. Yu Qi brought the necessary things to the lake.

She made the fireplace. And started the BBQ. The three of her little cuties waited beside her for the food to be ready.

"It has been a long time since I have eaten Master's BBQ," Aoi said.

"Do you used to eat this?" Shino asked.

"Yeah. Master's BBQ is super delicious." Aoi recalled the memories.

They used to have BBQ in the space as well as with Tang Family. Tang Jin Wei liked to have BBQ during the night when they did not have any night shift and during the weekend. Aoi liked to speed race eating with Tang Jin Wei too.

"Tell me, do you like BBQ with my family too or just the four of us?" Yu Qi asked.

"Well, I also like to have BBQ with Tang Family. But if we have the BBQ with Tang Family, Bo Ya could not join because he could not get out of the space. So, I like both." Aoi did not forget about Bo Ya.

Yu Qi was surprised to hear the answer. Yeah... Bo Ya could not get out of the space.

"Don't worry. We will have BBQ from time to time." Yu Qi rubbed Bo Ya's head.

"Yes, Master." Bo Ya smiled.

....

Today was the last day of the medical conference. It would get over before lunch. The organizer told the participants that there would be food waiting for them after everything was over.

The final event had started. Since the medical conference was also a competition, there would be the prize giving ceremony as well. There were a lot of categories that were contested.

Yu Qi seized 3 of the prizes. The best topic, the best presenter, the most knowledgeable data. She was happy. Her topic definitely would get listed in the year medical journal.

As the organizer had promised, there was a buffet in the next hall. Yu Qi spotted some dishes that she wanted to try. She met Cindy and Su Sha Xian.

"Doctor Tang, there is a lot of the local food that you should try," Cindy said.

"Really? Can you recommend them to me?" Yu Qi asked.

"Sure." Cindy nodded.

She recommended a few local foods that Yu Qi should try. Su Sha Xian looked at Pei Ruiying who was currently eating. She took a deep breath. It was the last day before? Pei Ruiying was going to return to Binhai Nation.

This was her last chance to confess. Yeah... She wanted to confess her feelings to Pei Ruiying. She wanted Pei Ruiying to know that she had always loved him and wanted to be together with him.

If it happened that he also liked her too, she would follow him anywhere. Even if she needed to leave her birth country and stay in another country. But if he rejected her, she would try to forget everything about him and moved forward. Although she knew that it would be very difficult for her because she loved him for such a long time.

"What has happened to Doctor Su?" Yu Qi asked Cindy when seeing Su Sha Xian clenched her fists.

"Oh, I think she wants to confess to Doctor Pei," Cindy revealed.

"Oh... That's great." Yu Qi smiled.

"What do you think will happen?" Cindy asked.

"Well, I don't know." Yu Qi could not predict what would happen because she did not know inside Pei Ruiying's mind.

"I think she would get rejected." Cindy smiled.

"What?" Yu Qi was speechless. "You want her to get rejected?"

"Of course not. It would be good if he accepts her feeling." Cindy said.
