Chapter 1081 - 1081: The Answer For The Confession

"She has loved him for a long time. Doctor Pei must have noticed that. But he has ignored her. Meaning he did not want to get involved with Sha Xian. I hope when Doctor Pei rejects her this time, she would be able to move on." Cindy explained. "She comes from a good family, has a good job, and was also beautiful. She needs to open her feelings towards other men. With that, she would find someone who truly loves her."

That was what Cindy wanted for her friend.

"Oh..." Yu Qi agreed with that.

Su Sha Xian approached Pei Ruiying when she saw Pei Ruiying had already finished his food.

"Ruiying, do you have a minute?" Su Sha Xian said to Pei Ruiying.

"Is there something?" Pei Ruiying asked.

"I have something to say to you. Can you spend a moment for me?" Su Sha Xian said in nervous.

"Hmm... Okay." Pei Ruiying nodded.

"Well, let's go somewhere else." Su Sha Xian said.

So, both of them left the venue.

Meanwhile, Su Ming Dia sneaked into the venue. Her aim was to meet with Tang Han Lee. From what Su Sha Xian told their parents, today was the last day for the medical conference. It was probably the last day Tang Han Lee would stay here.

She was determined to get his contact information. Others things could wait. The most important thing was his contact information. Without that, it would be impossible for her to get in touch with him.

She looked around and found him talking with some men. His fiancée seemed was not around. This was her chance. She approached him.

"Mr Tang." Su Ming Dia called Tang Han Lee.

Tang Han Lee turned around and saw the woman who wanted to get in between him and his fiancée. He automatically frowned at a moment and turned back to normal again. So, no one managed to catch the frown.

"Yes?" Tang Han Lee replied with a gentlemen smile.

"Can I speak with you for a moment?" Su Ming Dia asked.

"May I know for what reason?" Tang Han Lee asked her back.

"Well..." Su Ming Dia looked around at the men that stood beside Tang Han Lee.

The men seemed to understand what Su Ming Dia wanted to talk about, so they left.

"Doctor Tang, let's talk about it later."

With that sentence, they left, leaving Tang Han Lee and Su Ming Dia.

"Please speak, Miss." Tang Han Lee said.

"May I have your contact number, Mr. Tang?" Su Ming Dia was straight to the point.

"Miss, there is no reason for you to have my contact number." Tang Han Lee also was straight to reject Su Ming Dia.

"I just want to add you as my new friend." Su Ming Dia tried her luck again.

"I am sorry. Once again, I don't think we have any reason to exchange the contact numbers." Tang Han Lee rejected again.

"Mr. Tang, are you afraid that your fiancée might know that you give your contact information to me?" Su Ming Dia joked. She thought a man would deny it.

"Yes. I am afraid." Tang Han Lee answered.

That answer made Su Ming Dia speechless. She did not think that Tang Han Lee would admit that straight away. Men usually would not admit this kind of accusation.

"You are joking, aren't you?" Su Ming Dia laughed.

"Why would I joke about that? I am afraid that my fiancée will misunderstand me. So, I will not give you my contact information. I am sorry." Tang Han Lee did not want to deal with Su Ming Dia anymore. So, after that sentence, he left Su Ming Dia right away.

Su Ming Dia gritted her teeth. This man, he did not give any face to her at all. She would never give up. It was her first time like a man so much. She would find a way to get his contact information.

Meanwhile, Su Sha Xian and Pei Ruiying walked towards the garden where no one was present. Su Sha Xian stopped as well as Pei Ruiying.

"Ruiying... I have something rather important to say to you." Su Sha Xian faced Pei Ruiying.

"I am listening." Pei Ruiying looked straight at Su Sha Xian.

"I... I... I am in love with you. Can we be together?" Su Sha Xian managed to blurt out everything after struggling at the start.

Pei Ruiying was silent for a moment. Su Sha Xian felt that the 'a moment' was super long. She clenched her fists waiting for Pei Ruiying's answer.

"Miss Su, I am sorry. I can't accept your feeling." Pei Ruiying answered.

Su Sha Xian could predict this answer. Even so, it was painful to hear from the person himself.

"I see... Thank you for spending time with me." Su Sha Xian held back her tears. She did not want to cry in front of this person.

"I will go in first." Pei Ruiying said.

"Okay." Su Sha Xian nodded while smiling.

She was standing like that for about 5 minutes before she could feel her tears flowed down across her cheek. She needed someone to cry on.

She called Cindy.

"Cindy, can you come and get me? I am at the garden." Su Sha Xian said.

"Sure." Cindy agreed.

When Cindy arrived there, she could see Su Sha Xian was standing straight. From behind, she looked normal but when she faced Su Sha Xian, she could see that Su Sha Xian was currently crying silently.

"Sha Xian..." Cindy quickly hugged Su Sha Xian.

Chapter 1082 - 1082: Straight To A Mans Arm

Feeling her being hugged, that was when Su Sha Xian voiced her cry. She was crying and sobbing on Cindy's shoulder. Cindy did not say anything. She just let Su Sha Xian cry.

"He already rejected me. He rejects me, Cindy." Su Sha Xian cried while talking.

"Yeah... Yeah...." Cindy patted her friend's back.

"I thought I could take it normally. But I don't expect that would hurt so much." Su Sha Xian cried.

"Hmm... you can cry now. Let the feeling release." Cindy comforted Su Sha Xian.

'Cry now. Let everything out. Later, you will refresh.' Cindy patted her friend's back again.

They stayed in the garden about one hour before Su Sha Xian stopped crying. They left the hotel after that.

After lunch, Yu Qi started to pack up things at her booth. Not far from Yu Qi's booth, there was a group of people who looked in Yu Qi's direction. They seemed hesitant. Some of them pushed other people to go forward.

Yu Qi finished packing. Coincidentally she turned in that group's direction. The people were nervous when they saw Yu Qi look at them. They begin to feel more nervous when Yu Qi started to walk toward them.

"She is coming."

"You go."

"No, you go."

They saw Yu Qi start to walk faster. The nervousness started to pile up. Not to mention, Yu Qi seemed to smile widely. Someone gathered his courage to talk to Yu Qi when he saw Yu Qi was closer to them.

But the people went silent when they saw Yu Qi pass by them and went straight to their back. They turned back and saw Yu Qi go straight to a man's arm. The man also hugged Yu Qi.

Yu Qi ignored others. She was happy to see the man she loved here. She did not expect him to come here.

"What are you doing here?" Yu Qi looked up and asked.

"Coming to see you." Long Hui answered her but his eyes were looking at the group of men who watched him and his beloved Qi Qi.

He noticed that this group of men was looking at his beloved Qi Qi just now. Wanting to talk to her. He would never give them a chance. His beloved Qi Qi was his.

The group of men seemed to understand the meaning of the glare given by Long Hui. They reluctantly gave up. The glare was so scary. If the glare could kill people, they were definitely died by the glare. They were disappeared from Long Hui's sight.

Long Hui was happy to get rid of his beloved Qi Qi's possible admirers. He killed her slightly on her lips.

Yu Qi patted Long Hui's chest. "There are people around."

"Okay... Okay... I will kiss you when people are not around. A hard one." Long Hui whispered to Yu Qi's ear.

Yu Qi went red. There were people who were still around packing their stuff. They could see that the beautiful Doctor Tang already had a man beside her. So, they had no chance at all. In fact, the couple was well-matched.

They initially thought Pei Ruiying was in a relationship with Yu Qi. Turned out, they were wrong. There was another man in the picture.

Long Hui helped Yu Qi pack up her things. They wanted to go back to Yu Qi's room. On the way, they met Pei Ruiying.

"Doctor Pei." Yu Qi greeted Pei Ruiying.

"You already done packing?" Pei Ruiying looked at the box in Long Hui's hand.

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded.

Pei Ruiying just came back from his meeting with Su Sha Xian.

"I guess you will not be going back tonight." Pei Ruiying said.

Yu Qi wanted to answer that but Long Hui interrupted the conversation.

"Yeah. She will not be going back tonight." Long Hui said.

Yu Qi looked at Long Hui. Pei Ruiying smiled and nodded.

"I will notice the hospital." Pei Ruiying said. "Well, I will go first." With that, Pei Ruiying left them.

"What do you mean by not going back tonight? My flight to Binhai is tonight." Yu Qi asked.

"What? Do you want to leave me alone here? I am coming here just for you." Long Hui pouted.

Yu Qi laughed when seeing Long Hui pouted.

"How can I leave you here? I am just asking." Yu Qi patted Long Hui's cheek.

Long Hui immediately smiled.

"By the way, what are you doing here? What's about your work?" Yu Qi asked.

"Don't worry about that. I can handle it." Long Hui said.

They went to Yu Qi's room. Long Hui put the box on the table.

"You just touch down, right? Now, you rest first. I will prepare some snacks to calm down your stomach." Yu Qi said.

She knew that Long Hui would be straight coming to her after he came to Country Helix.

"Okay. I will do so." Long Hui smiled. He was happy to have someone who would be worried about his condition.

Both of them went into her space. Long Hui went to his room, taking shower, and rested as his beloved Qi Qi asked him to. As for Yu Qi, she went to the kitchen to see what she could make for Long Hui.

She remembered that she made some pies yesterday. Her little cuties did not like the sweet too much except for Bo Ya who had a taste bud like a human.

Chapter 1083 - 1083: Sparring Each Other

Yu Qi thought it would be better if she cooked a meal for Long Hui. So, she started to cook something. She bet that Long Hui did not touch the meal on the flight. The pies would be good for dessert.

Two hours later, she finished cooking. She was surprised to see the dish that she cooked. In the beginning, she just wanted to cook a little. But when she started cooking, she ended up cooking a big meal.

'Well, my little cuties can take care of the meal, if we can not finish it.' Yu Qi smiled.

Then, Yu Qi could feel that she had been hugged from behind. She did not need to turn around to see who the culprit was. She already knew from that smell. It was the lotus fragrance. Only one man had this kind of fragrance and it was in her space.

"Have you rest well?" Yu Qi asked.

Long Hui rested his head on Yu Qi's shoulder. His lips kissed Yu Qi's neck.

"Hmm... I rest well." Long Hui answered.

"Then, you must be hungry." Yu Qi said.

After that, it was Long Hui's stomach that responded to Yu Qi. Yu Qi laughed.

"I have already cooked a meal for you. Let's eat together." Yu Qi said.

"Hmm..." Long Hui nodded.

Yu Qi already called her three cuties to eat. They ate happily. As Yu Qi said, she brought the pies out. Bo Ya was happy to see the sweet thing again. Even Long Hui ate the pies even though he did not like a sweet thing much. Since it was made by Yu Qi, he ate that.

"I eat a lot." Long Hui patted his stomach.

Yu Qi laughed. As she thought earlier, everything was eaten by Shino and Aoi.

"I will clean up the dishes. You can wait here." Long Hui said.

So, Long Hui cleaned up everything. Yu Qi wanted to help but he refused. Yu Qi also felt her stomach was too stuffed.

"I want to exercise. My stomach is stuffed." Yu Qi looked at her stomach.

"Exercise? I know a great exercise." Long Hui said.

"Stop. I don't talk about that 'exercise'. Yu Qi cut Long Hui's sentence.

She knew what Long Hui meant by that 'exercise'.

"I want to spar with you. It has been a long time since we do that." Yu Qi said.

"Okay." Long Hui said weakly.

"If you can do that, I will reward you better at the night." Yu Qi whispered to Long Hui's ear.

"Really? Okay, then." Long Hui became energetic back.

Yu Qi laughed. This change was too fast. So, they went to the training room. Today, Yu Qi wanted to spar using the sword. Both of them chose the sword that they wanted to do.

As a soldier, Long Hui used to train in swords before. But in this modern world, the soldier already used guns in combat or battle. So, not many used the sword. After coming inside Yu Qi's space, he saw a lot of techniques of using the sword, he became interested in that. So, he practised a lot using the sword.

The battle started. As Long Hui, Yu Qi already mastered all of the techniques that her space had. It would be difficult for someone to defeat Yu Qi in the sword battle.

They sparred for about one hour before they stopped.

"My beloved Qi Qi is very strong." Long Hui praised Yu Qi.

"My man is also very strong." Yu Qi wiped the sweat on her forehead. "It must already be evening outside. Let's clean up and go out tonight."

"Clean up together?" Long Hui teased Yu Qi.

"O... okay... If you want to." Yu Qi answered in blush.

Long Hui just wanted to tease Yu Qi but he got an unexpected answer.

"Let's go then." Long Hui said.

They stored the sword back and went to the bathroom. Yu Qi felt sudden shy when she wanted to take off her clothes.

"Well, I think it would be better we take a bath separately." Yu Qi wanted to get out of the bathroom.

But she could not since Long Hui had already trapped her in his arms.

"You can not run away like that. You better finish what you start." Long Hui whispered in a low tone.

Without wasting any time, Long Hui disrobed Yu Qi. Now she was standing without any clothes on her body. Long Hui took off her clothes too. Now they both were naked.

Long Hui pulled into the shower. The rainwater poured onto their bodies together. Long Hui touched Yu Qi's skin. It made Yu Qi shiver.

"Hui... don't touch me like that." Yu Qi said.

"You don't like this?" Long Hui touched Yu Qi's breast.

"Ah..." Yu Qi moaned, she quickly put her hands to her mouth.

"That is a nice sound. Can you do it once again?" Long Hui started to knead Yu Qi's breast with both of his hands.

"No... Don't play with my breasts." Yu Qi said weakly but it made Long Hui touch it even more.

"But I like to play with them." Long Hui turned Yu Qi to face him. "You like it too, do you?"

Long Hui pulled Yu Qi's hands off from her mouth and started kissing Yu Qi. His tongue slipped into Yu Qi's mouth and played with Yu Qi's tongue. He released Yu Qi after 10 minutes of kissing.

Chapter 1084 - 1084: Going To The Night Market

"Qi Qi, can I?" Long Hui asked.

"Why do you need to ask at times like this?" Yu Qi gave a soft punch at Long Hui's chest. "But just once."

"I promised my dear." With that, Long Hui thrust into Yu Qi's secret place.

The entrance was already wet, did not know whether it was Yu Qi's liquid or the water. Yu Qi moaned when she felt the hard presence in her secret place.

Long Hui moved in rhythms, pushing in and pulling out. He supported Yu Qi's body using his hands, afraid that his beloved Qi Qi would fall down.

Long Hui watched his beloved Qi Qi's face as he pulled and pushed into Yu Qi's. It was a very pleasant feeling. He could see that Yu Qi was enjoyed his rhythms too.

"Faster..." Yu Qi slowly said that.

Hearing that, Long Hui followed her request by increasing the rhythms. Yu Qi let a moan out. Long Hui rested his head on Yu Qi's shoulder and made a love bite on Yu Qi's shoulder.

Yu Qi felt both pleasures feeling at the upper and bottom of her body. She could not help to moan even louder.

"It feels good, right?" Long Hui asked.

"Yes..." Yu Qi answered.

"Do you want to feel even better?" Long Hui asked again.

"Yes..." Yu Qi subconsciously answered that.

With that, Long Hui turned Yu Qi's body facing the wall without letting his little brother out. Now, Long Hui was behind Yu Qi. He penetrated Yu Qi deeper.

"Now much better, is it?" Long Hui whispered at Yu Qi's ear.

"Hmmm....Ah...." That was the only sound that Yu Qi could come out of right now.

Yu Qi saw Long Hui smile while she was wearing her clothes.

"Are you that happy?" Yu Qi asked.

"Of course, making love with the one that you love is a pleasant feeling." Long Hui answered that without feeling embarrassed.

Yu Qi was the one who felt embarrassed. "Idiot." She said in a low tone.

"Let's go out. I am ready." Yu Qi said hiding her feeling.

"Sure." Long Hui nodded.

So, both of them left Yu Qi's space.

"Where do you want to go?" Long Hui asked after both of them got into the rental car that Long Hui rented.

"I want to go to the night market here." Yu Qi said as she opened the browser in her phone looking for the direction of the night market.

"Sure." Long Hui said.

So, they went to the night Market according to the direction that Yu Qi searched on the browser. Cindy was the one who told her about the night market since they were eating the local food during lunchtime today.

Cindy told her that in the night market there was even more delicious local food that Yu Qi could try. Yu Qi said she would visit Country Helix again if she had time in the future since she would be returned tonight.

But she did not expect that she would have a chance to go and visit the night market that Cindy told her tonight with Long Hui. If Long Hui did not come here, she would be on the flight right now.

They arrived at the night market. It was difficult to find a parking lot. So, they had to park the car a little bit far from the night market.

"I am sorry. There is no nearby parking lot." Long Hui apologized.

"No worry. I am happy that I can walk like this with you." Yu Qi said.

Long Hui smiled as he grabbed Yu Qi's hand. They walked toward the night market. There were a lot of people coming here.

"Let's walk around." Yu Qi said.

There were a lot of stalls. They were selling various things such as food, clothes, playboy, and many more. It brought memories back.

Yu Qi used to come to this kind of night Market while she was living in Wang Family. But not as the customers, as a seller. She followed someone to sell food at the night market. Since a lot of people came to the night market, she would get more commission by helping out. That money would be for her school fees since Wang's Family did not pay for her fees.

"Let's try something." Yu Qi saw the food that Cindy told her.

"Hmm..." Long Hui followed Yu Qi's lead.

"Auntie, give me one portion of this one." Yu Qi spoke in Helixian Language.

Long Hui was surprised to hear that. He did not know that Yu Qi knew how to speak in Helixian Language.

Yu Qi knew just a little bit. She learned before coming to Country Helix. Everyone in the medical conference tended to speak in English. So there was no need to speak Helixian Language. Yu Qi learned the language just for fun. She did not know that it would help her in this situation.

"Here you are." The auntie who sold the food said in Helixian Language. She then continued. "Is this your boyfriend?"

"No. It is my fiancée." Yu Qi replied.

"Hmmm... What a matching couple." The auntie said.

"Thank you, auntie." Yu Qi said and paid for the food.

They left.

"What are you talking about with that auntie?" Long Hui asked. He did not understand the language.

"She asked me if you are my boyfriend. I said no." Yu Qi said.

"What? You said no?" Long Hui was shocked.

"Of course. You are not my boyfriend." Yu Qi said.

Chapter 1085 - 1085: Roaming Around The Night Market

She wanted to tease Long Hui since she could see that Long Hui did not catch what she meant.

Long Hui went silent. Yu Qi laughed to see Long Hui like that.

"Of course, you are not my boyfriend. You are my fiancée." Yu Qi patted Long Hui's cheek.

"You!" Long Hui once again shocked. He was playing with this woman.

Yu Qi opened the food container and feed Long Hui. Long Hui opened his food and ate. Yu Qi also took a bite.

"Hmm... Delicious, right?" Yu Qi asked Long Hui.

"Hmm... Indeed." Long Hui nodded.

They were roaming around the night market, buying some food for the three cuties. The three of them kept asking her to buy something.

When they were walking around, Yu Qi noticed a smell. The smell that she had been looking for. She looked around, searching for the direction of the smell.

Then, she noticed a stall that seemed to sell medicine. She approached the stall. Two men were watching out for the stall.

"Hello, girl. Come, look. This medicine is good for your body. It would make your skin super beautiful." The man said in Helixian language.

"Oh, may I know what ingredients that you used?" Yu Qi tried her luck asking for the ingredients.

"How can we tell you about that?" The other man said.

Yu Qi just smiled. "I just want to buy this powder, then." She said.

"Okay." The man put the thing that Yu Qi wanted into the plastic bag and gave it to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi took it and paid for it. It was a little expensive though but she did not mind. It was the same white powder that she had been searched for. Yu Qi then looked carefully at the two men.

'Bo Ya, record these two men for me. I need to investigate them later.' Yu Qi gave the order to Bo Ya.

'Alright, Master.' Bo Ya replied.

Then they continued to roam around again. It was a big night market. So, there were a lot of stalls to look at.

As always, they got a lot of attention from the onlookers. It could be assumed that this area was close to the university or colleges since there were a lot of young people coming to this night market.

A very brave girl came to Long Hui when Yu Qi was busy choosing at one stall. She was together with her two friends.

"Mister, can we exchange the contact information?" The girl asked.

Long Hui glanced once and ignored the girl. He actually did not know what the girl saying but he could understand when the girl took out her phone as she was speaking to him.

"Don't be so cold. Lidya just wants to befriend to you." Michelle, Lidya's friend said.

Yu Qi noticed something and turned around to see her fiancée had been pestered by some girls.

"Excuse me, is there any problem? My fiancée could not speak Helixian. You can speak to me." Yu Qi said.

The girls were surprised when a beautiful woman spoke to them. Another surprise was when they heard that the man they wanted to exchange the contact information already had a fiancée and did not know how to speak Helixian Language.

"We are sorry. Excuse us." The three of them ran away, embarrassed with what they had done.

Yu Qi was speechless when they suddenly ran away like that. She turned to Long Hui.

"What is that?" Yu Qi asked.

"I don't know." Long Hui lifted up his shoulder signalling that he did not know anything about that.

"Well, never mind about that. I think we are done here. We already buy a lot of food for my little cuties." Yu Qi said. "But I don't want to return first. I want to spend more time with you outside."

After thinking a while, Yu Qi decided to take all of the food that they bought into her space first and served the little cuties. Then, she would come out after that.

"Let's go back to our car first. I am going to enter my space first and then come out again." Yu Qi said to Long Hui.

"Sure." Long Hui did not care much about that as long as he got to be together with his beloved Qi Qi.

Since there was dark in the parking lot, Yu Qi easily used the darkness and entered her space while Long Hui was waiting outside.

"Master..."

The little cuties happily greeted Yu Qi.

"Come. I buy a lot of food." Yu Qi said.

That sentence made the three of them happy. They followed Yu Qi to the kitchen. Yu Qi served them the food that she bought.

"Thank you, Master." Bo Ya said.

"Yeah. Thank you, Master, for the delicious food." Aoi said.

"I never regret to follow Master because you always treat me with delicious food." It was Shino's turn to thank Yu Qi.

"You can eat. Please leave the dishes in the sink. I will clean them up later." Yu Qi ordered.

"Wait, Master. Where are you going?" Bo Ya asked.

"Brother Hui is waiting for me outside." Yu Qi told them. "I just enter here to serve you the food. It would not taste good if I leave the food longer."

"Oh..." Bo Ya nodded.

"I will go first." So, Yu Qi left the space.

"Have you waited long?" Yu Qi asked when she saw Long Hui.

Long Hui smiled. "No."

Chapter 1086 - 1086: Helping Someone

"I heard there is a park nearby the lake. It is really beautiful when the lights up at night. We can go and take a walk there. It is good exercise after we eat a lot earlier." Yu Qi searched about that on her phone.

"Okay. But I think we could have another exercise to do." Long Hui smiled.

"You always think about that." Yu Qi rolled her eyes.

Long Hui chuckled as he drove to the place that Yu Qi mentioned. When they arrived there, they could see the place immediately because the place was lightened up and it was really beautiful as she said earlier.

They parked the car. They walked over to the place. They realized that a lot of people here were couples. Looked like it was the perfect place to have a date. Yu Qi grabbed Long Hui's hand and swung around.

"It is really beautiful. Let's take a picture." Yu Qi wanted to have a picture here since it was beautiful.

They took several photos together. Long Hui took chance to kiss his beloved Qi Qi. She let him have his way. However, things did not always calm for them.

They heard someone scream. It was a loud scream. Yu Qi looked at Long Hui and nodded. Long Hui understood the gesture and also nodded. They rushed to the place where they heard the scream.

At the scene, they could see a man was holding a knife and pointing the knife to a man's neck.

"You dare cheat on me with this man, Mathilda?" The man who was holding the knife said in Helixian language.

"Even so, you can not stab Allen like that." The woman, possibly the woman who screamed earlier replied to the man.

Allen who was held hostage by the man could not fight back as he was injured on his shoulder. The man had been stabbed by the man and it was bleeding a lot.

"Sir, can you call the police and the ambulance?" Yu Qi asked an onlooker since she did not know to call the police and ambulance here.

"Oh... Okay..." The onlooker nodded as he grabbed his phone to call the police.

"I think he would be in danger if this continued. Brother Hui, we need to take action on this." Yu Qi looked at the bleeding man.

"Okay." Long Hui nodded.

Yu Qi told Long Hui the plan. They slowly approached the man that held the knife slowly.

"You better mind our own business." The man said when he saw Yu Qi and Long Hui approaching him.

"You better stop this, Harris. You can be in jail for this." Mathilda said.

"Even so, it is better that I can kill both of you," Harris said.

He pressed the knife deeper into Allen's neck. They could spot the blood.

"No, don't!" Mathilda shouted.

With that, Yu Qi moved fast and knock out the knife at Harris's hand while Long Hui gave a punch at his shoulder. That impact made Harris lose his grip on Allen. Allen fell to the ground.

Long Hui got hold of Harris. Harris tried to fight Long Hui and he was a normal citizen. He could not fight a soldier.

Mathilda grabbed Allen.

"Don't shake him like that. It would make his condition worse." Yu Qi said. "Put him down and I will treat him."

Mathilda did what Yu Qi asked. "What are you trying to do?"

"I am a doctor. I will try to stop the bleeding first." Yu Qi explained to Mathilda.

"Please save Allen," Mathilda begged.

"Just let him die. You should join him too, Mathilda. You cheating bitch." Harris was cussing and laughing when he saw Allen's condition. He also tried to get up but he could not do that since Long Hui still held him down.

Yu Qi opened her bag and took her needle back. She stabbed Allen with some needle in a split of a second.

Everyone was horrified when they saw Yu Qi stabbing Allen with those needles.

"What are you trying to do by stabbing the needle on that man?" An onlooker asked in a horrified tone.

"I am doing the acupuncture to stop the bleeding. Otherwise, he will bleed to his death." Yu Qi explained what she was doing especially to Mathilda.

The bleeding did stop after a while. Yu Qi could not remove the needle right now because once she removed those needles, it would start to bleed again. So, she just needed to wait for the ambulance to come and take this man to the hospital where he could get the proper treatment for his injury.

10 minutes passed, both police and ambulance arrived at the scene. Mathilda could not explain properly to the police and ambulance. So, Yu Qi did the explanation.

Harris was arrested by the police and Allen went into the ambulance with Mathilda after Yu Qi took off the needles from Allen's body. The police felt there was no reason for Yu Qi and Long Hui to come to the police station.

The onlookers were impressed with Yu Qi and Long Hui. Usually, people would not want to get involved in that kind of situation.

Yu Qi spotted the onlooker who helped her to call the police and the ambulance.

"Thank you for your help calling the police and the ambulance." Yu Qi said.

The onlooker was stunned. "Oh, no... It is nothing." He was considered to say for the Yu Qi's name when suddenly he saw a glare coming from the man standing beside Yu Qi. He left immediately.

Chapter 1087 - 1087: Complain About His Daughter

Yu Qi looked over at Long Hui. Long Hui was turning his head avoiding Yu Qi's stare. Yu Qi understood why did the man run away.

"I just say thank you to that man." Yu Qi said.

"Okay." Long Hui understood. He just made a blameless face.

Yu Qi chuckled. "Well, let's continue our walk."

"Hmm..." Long Hui reached out Yu Qi's hand and held it. After about one hour of walking, they decided to return.

Once they arrived at their hotel room, they immediately entered the space. Both of them cleaned up. Long Hui wanted to rest together with Yu Qi. But Yu Qi rejected it.

She had another task to do for tonight. Yu Qi told Long Hui to sleep first if he tired. But of course, Long Hui would not do that if his beloved Qi Qi was working.

Yu Qi went to the computer room. She wanted to find the details about the men who sold the white powder. She did not expect to see the white powder to be sold like a normal medicine. Did people here did not know that the white powder was a drug?

As for now, she needed to find the information about the men who sold the white powder. To do so, she needed access to surveillance CCTV and the database of this country.

Yu Qi sat in front of the big screen. Once the computer was ready to set up, Yu Qi opened a command window. She was typing at the fast mode.

Long Hui who sat behind his beloved Qi Qi was atonished with her speedy typing. He did not know that she had this kind of skill. His beloved Qi Qi was a jack of all trades. She was smiling.

Yu Qi hacked the surveillance CCTV in less than 10 minutes. With Bo Ya's help recording the face of men, the software Yu Qi made, accessed the surveillance CCTV, it would be scanning the thousand of the faces at Helixian Country.

It would be a long process. So, she did not think that she needed to wait here for now. She stood up.

"Are you done?" Long Hui asked.

"For now, it is done. We need to wait until it is done scanning." Yu Qi said. "Let's go and rest."

...

Clara Kindell was sitting in the living room with her parent. There was a guest, an old man who scolded her at the medical conference. She did not expect that the old man was also from Kindell Family.

"Uncle Rick, welcome to our house." Catherine Kindell said to Rick Kindell.

"Hmm..." Rick Kindell nodded.

"I have not seen you for a long time." Trevor Kindell smiled.

Rick Kindell was Trevor Kindell's youngest uncle that usually did not involve in the family business because he disliked bussiness and wanted to involve in medicine.

However, he was a respectful figure in Kindell Family due to his achievement in the medical world.

"I come here, just want to inform you about something." Rick Kindell glanced at Clara Kindell.

Clara Kindell looked down when Rick Kindell suddenly glanced at her. She remembered that Rick Kindell told her that he would talk about her behavior at the medical conference the other day.

"I come here to talk about your daughter." Rick Kindell revealed his purpose for coming here.

Catherine Kindell and Trevor Kindell looked at each other and then turned to Clara Kindell. Clara Kindell did not respond to anything. She just kept looking down.

"Uncle Rick, what is the matter about my daughter?" Trevor Kindell asked.

"Your daughter's behavior is very embarrassing the other day." Rick Kindell said.

"Huh? What? How?" Trevor Kindell did not have any idea about that.

However, Catherine Kindell might know something about that. Two days ago, her daughter came home crying and scolding someone. It was because of the man that her daughter liked. But she did not know the whole story.

"Your daughter cuss and swear to someone. She kept calling a girl with a bad name such as bitch, slut, and whore in front of many people." Rick Kindell said.

"What? What happens?" Trevor Kindell was shocked. Her daughter was being taught how to respect people who could say something horrible like that in front of many people. He could not believe that.

"She was scolding the woman just because of a man. She thought that woman was the girlfriend of that man but she was not. Seriously even though that woman is the girlfriend of that man, she should not yell something like that." Rick Kindell revealed everything that happened. "To make it worse, she even yelled at me. How did you teach your daughter?"

Trevor Kindell and Catherine Kindell were shocked. They did not expect to hear something like that.

"Clara, tell me. Is it true?" Trevor Kindell glared at Clara Kindell.

Clara Kindell was silent.

Trevor Kindell asked again. "Clara, answer my question."

"It is not my fault. That woman is seducing Brother Ruiying. She is clearly seducing him." Clara Kindell shouted while crying.

Trevor Kindell frowned. Just of a man, his daughter behaved like that.

"Go to your room. You are grounded." Trevor Kindell said to his daughter.

Hearing that, Clara Kindell ran upstairs. Seeing her daughter like that, Catherine Kindell was sad.

"The woman who she cussed is someone from a prominent family. However, I know that she would not be so petty about that. But what if she offends someone petty and they want revenge? Our family would be ruined." Rick Kindell advised.

"I will educate my daughter about this. Uncle Rick, thank you for telling me about this." Trevor Kindell thanked Rick Kindell.

"Even though I am not the person in charge of the family, I am still part of our family. I don't want the family to be destroyed." Rick Kindell said.

"I understand about that." Trevor Kindell nodded.

Chapter 1088 - 1088: Gain Access To The Database System

After eating, Yu Qi went to the computer room. Long Hui also followed her too. The computer already completed their scan regarding the two men that she wanted to know.

She looked at the two men. She wanted to know who they were meeting. She took a note of everyone that they met. She knew it would take a long time. But she needed to watch everything. She set the range in the past week.

Long Hui already decided to help Yu Qi. She explained everything to Long Hui. Long Hui already knew about the white powder that Yu Qi was talking about. He was also involved in that case. That case was still in the middle of the investigation. He did not know that Yu Qi also investigated that.

They begin to search the possibilities of the men coming to contact with the white powder. They must be bought the white powder from someone and sold them as cosmetics products.

After two hours of watching the video, Yu Qi finally found something. It was last month. The two men met a shady man at the corner of a nightclub. The shady man was handing something to the two men and the two men paid him with some cash.

The image of the shady man was not very clear. But Yu Qi had her touch and made the image clear. She remembered seeing this shady man before. This shady man was Mr. Jack's subordinate, the man she currently made the deal with. So, this shady man was from Country Helix. Did that mean Mr. Jack was also from Country Helix?

Yu Qi needed to know. So, she decided to hack the date base of the country. Ignoring Long Hui behind, she casually hacked the database of the country.

Then, Yu Qi's big screen was flashing the red light. Meaning someone was attacking her computer too. Yu Qi was smiling. She knew it would not be so easy to access the information of a country's database.

However, she was up to their challenge. It was challenging to fight other people. She attacked them back. At the corner, it showed the percentage. Yu Qi knew what the percentage was for. It indicated how much she needed to fight until she got access to their database.

Yu Qi increased her speed of typing. Even Long Hui could not see her hand anymore. He just could see the flashing movement of her hands.

Meanwhile, on another side, the people in the control room were minding their own business until their computer flashed the red light too. It indicated that someone was hacking to their date base. They hurried up to their own computers and fought back against the intruders.

The person in charge of the database came to see what happens.

"What's happened?" It was Marcus Orland asked. He was the person in charge.

"Someone is trying to get access to our database system, Sir." Someone answered.

"How many people are behind this? Do you know?" Marcus Orland asked again.

"We could not sure about that."

"I think it was a group of people because they were very casual fighting with us. Probably two or three people." Someone made the analysis.

"Whoever they are, fight back. Don't let them get access to our database system." Marcus Orland ordered.

"Sir, they send a message to us. Do we need to look at that?" Marcus Orland's subordinate asked.

"They send a message?" Marcus Orland narrowed his eyes. Why did those people need to send them a message? He was thinking first. "Does the message contain something that could be triggered and make them get access to our database system?"

"I am already checking it first. There is nothing like that." His subordinate said.

Marcus Orland was silent again. After thinking for a while, he decided to read the message. "Click on the message and tell me what had been written."

"The message said, 'I don't mean no harm. I want to check on someone. If you don't give access to me, I am still making it through your firewall security. From Q.' That's what it said." Marcus Orland's subordinate said.

"What? Does he dare? No! Fight to the end." Marcus Orland was furious when he listened to the arrogant message.

Seeing her message got ignored by the other party, Yu Qi hacked through everything. She figured out there was a group of teams fighting her on the other side. However, that did not stop her from gaining access to the database system.

She searched for the related information that she got. After she was satisfied with the information, she left the database system. Before she left, she sent another message to the other side.

"I already got what I need. Thank you." She sent that message by clicking the button 'enter'.

Marcus Orland's team was feeling defeated earlier, now, they felt the defeat once again when reading the message sent by the culprit, Q again.

Marcus Orland was feeling the worse. The database system that he was in charge of was being invaded by someone and he was successfully got into the system.

"Q, who the hell is you?" Marcus Orland gritted his teeth. He would be finding this 'Q'.

After this incident, the 'Q' name became famous in the hacker world. The database system in Country Helix was not the best but still, it could not get the worse. However, this 'Q' hacker managed to get access into the system and left without any trace. Yeah, without any trace, Marcus Orland ordered his subordinate to track the trace of this hacker but they could not find anything.

Chapter 1089 - 1089: Double Investigation

Long Hui narrowed his eyes. This skill was comparable to the person in the intelligent department. Well, she probably was more advanced than those guys. If she was his enemy and wanted to steal their country's data, they would not win against her.

Yu Qi was so happy to get the information that she wanted.

Yu Qi looked at the information that she just got. She opened the information about Mr Jack. Sure enough, Mr Jack was from Country Helix. His real name was Peter Jackson.

Another man that Yu Qi took his information was the man that gave the white powder. His name was Curtis Artic. He was a low-level subordinate of Peter Jackson.

It seemed that Peter Jackson was unaware of his act that selling the white powder. He took a small amount of the white powder each time and sold it at a much lower price. If Peter Jackson knew Curtis Artic's doing, he would definitely be mad since the white powder could be sold at a higher price to another country.

However, she could not find the information which from where Peter Jackson obtained the white powder. He really kept that information tight. Yu Qi sighed.

"Why do you sigh?" Long Hui asked.

"I still did not know where Mr Jack get the white powder." Yu Qi replied. "But today's work is good enough. I already know who is Mr Jack. I will investigate him in another direction."

"Can I have that information too?" Long Hui asked.

"Sure." Yu Qi thought that she did not have to keep the information a secret from Long Hui.

"I will investigate about him too. If I get something, I will share it with you." Long Hui said.

"Okay." Yu Qi felt it was good if Long Hui could get something else.

"As for now, I need to demand something from you." Long Hui narrowed his eyes.

"Huh? Demand something? About what?" Yu Qi was making a confused face. She really did not know what Long Hui wanted to demand.

"You neglect me for a long time. I want your time right now." Long Hui licked his tongue and made a seducing face toward Yu Qi.

Yu Qi finally understood what Long Hui meant. She blushed. However, her hands were put onto Long Hui's shoulder.

"Then, should I compensate you then?" Yu Qi whispered.

"That would be a great idea." Long Hui smiled.

....

After two hours of playing in the computer room, both Yu Qi and Long Hui finally got out of the computer room. Long Hui was in a good mood while helping Yu Qi walk.

Yu Qi wanted to take a bath. Long Hui wanted to join her but she rejected him directly. If she let him join her, they might have another round. Her body could not afford that.

Long Hui accepted the rejection with a smile. He was not angry since he just got the taste of his beloved Qi Qi. He went to his room and took a bath by himself.

After taking a bath, Yu Qi felt refreshed. She spent about a half-hour in the jacuzzi to relax her body. She felt her stomach was making the sounds. Well, she was 'working' after all.

Long Hui and others might also feel hungry. She wanted to eat outside. When she got out of the bathroom, Long Hui was sitting on her bed waiting for her. She ignored Long Hui and dressed up.

"Are you hungry?" Yu Qi asked Long Hui.

"Well, I am pretty much full." Long Hui was joking.

"I don't mind that kind of hungry." Yu Qi protested.

Long Hui laughed. "Okay... I am hungry. Why don't we go outside to eat?" He suggested.

"That is a good idea. But I want to bring Shino and Aoi out before we get back to Binhai tonight. They have been staying in the space for quite a few days. They must be bored already." Yu Qi said.

They already decided to go back to Binhai Nation tonight. Their work needed them. So, they just have this evening to enjoy their last time in Country Helix.

Long Hui narrowed his eyes for a moment. It was fast. Yu Qi might not catch that. They went outside and told Shino and Aoi that they would bring themselves.

"How about Bo Ya?" Shino innocently asked.

"You can go out. Don't worry about me." Bo Ya smiled. He understood that he could not go out.

"I will bring some cakes for Bo Ya, okay." Yu Qi patted Bo Ya's head.

"Okay, Master. I will be waiting." Bo Ya's eyes lifted up when hearing about that.

So, they brought Shino and Aoi out. Yu Qi went to a restaurant where the customer could bring their own pet too. They did not have to worry about the smell when eating since they would be in the room completed with a small room for their pet to play.

However, Aoi and Shino did not interested in playing in that room. They were more interested in their food since they were such a foodie.

Yu Qi made the order for everyone. The waiter was surprised to see Yu Qi's pet made their own choice of what they wanted to eat. He thought Yu Qi's pets were very intelligent.

"I will bring your food. Please wait." The waiter said and left the room.

'Luckily both of you don't speak. Please remain silent. This room is equipped with a CCTV camera.' Yu Qi reminded both of them.

Chapter 1090 - 1090: Madam Bai Came To Make A Deal

Yu Qi was drowned by her work. Consultation, surgeries, and checking the surgeries. Yu Qi's status in the hospital became higher after her paper was again accepted into a medical journal.

Not to mention, her skincare products gained more popularity due to Song Su Jin. She just finished her drama. She had been interviewed by a program host about her daily skincare. Using that opportunity, she promoted Qi Qi Skincare on the spot. Making the sales became increasing.

Thinking about that, Yu Qi felt she wanted to expand her business into another scope such as haircare and treatment. Well, it was still in the planning.

And about her HuiQi Jade Store, the sales also increased by 50% compared to last month. Elder Zheng Zhuxian who Yu Qi hired her as a part of her HuiQi Jade, told her that their stock of the jade already decreased. So, they needed to buy other stocks.

Elder Zheng Zhuxian told Yu Qi if she wanted to go and buy the stone, she must be told Elder Zheng Zhuxian. Elder Zheng Zhuxian wanted to tag along.

However, recently she got many of the calls from Su Yu Hi. He told her that someone from Bai Family wanted to meet her. She was rejected multiple times. She did not have anything with those people.

She did not want the revenge feeling to be ignited again if she kept seeing those people since she did not have that kind of feeling anymore. She did not want things to get messy.

"Next patient." Yu Qi told the nurse to call the next patient.

Not long after that, a middle aged woman came into Yu Qi's room. Yu Qi was typing something on the computer first. She did not look at the patient. She told the patient to sit down first and made herself comfortable.

After completing typing, she finally looked at the middle aged woman. Her expression changed for a second then turned to normal again before the middle aged woman could catch that.

"Hello, Madam. What is your health problem?" Yu Qi asked with a professional tone.

"Miss Tang, it is so hard to meet with you. So, I have to use this method to meet with you." The middle aged woman said.

"What do you mean by that?" Yu Qi's eyebrows lifted up.

"I am Bai Jian from Bai Family. We meet once." Bai Jian introduced herself.

"Yes. I remember. But what do you mean by your previous sentence?" Yu Qi asked again.

"We, Bai Family called Mr. Su numerous times, asking to meet with you." Bai Jian smiled.

"Oh... For what?" Yu Qi asked again.

"We just found out that you are the owner of Qi Qi Skincare. We figure that we can cooperate with you so that your brand can go much further." Bai Jian confidently stated her aim.

The information about Yu Qi being the owner of Qi Qi Skincare leaked to Bai Family through Bai Gu Wen. She was the one who told Bai Family when Yu Qi revealed her identity to her when she caused the mess at Yu Qi's store.

Bai Jian felt that using her Bai Family name would make Yu Qi agree to cooperate with Bai Family. She did not know that Bai Family already approached Yu Qi once but getting rejected by her.

"Mrs. Bai, this is a hospital. It is not a place to make a deal. Please leave." Yu Qi glanced at Bai Jian once again and moved her sight to the computer screen.

Bai Jian was shocked to hear Yu Qi's answer. She smiled again.

"If that so, can we meet somewhere else? How about tonight's dinner? We can discuss that at dinner." Bai Jian offered again.

"Don't your family member tell you about that before?" Yu Qi asked.

"About what?" Bai Jian did not understand what Yu Qi meant.

"I already told your Bai Family that we don't want to cooperate with anyone else. We can handle our business." Yu Qi said. "I already tell you the answer. Can you please leave this room? There are actual patients waiting outside for their treatment. If you don't want to leave, I will have to call the security to get you out." She gave the warning.

Bai Jian was shocked. She could not believe her eyes. As for her, from Bai Family to get such a treatment like this. It was the first time. Usually, when people heard about Bai Family's name, they would be delighted to cooperate with Bai Family.

"Are you sure you don't want to cooperate with us?" Bai Jian asked again.

"I don't want to cooperate with you. Please leave. NOW." Yu Qi increased her volume.

"Humph! You are really arrogant. Do you still your small company can stand still? Just wait." Bai Jian sneered, picked up her handbag, and left the room.

'If you touch mine, I will make sure that your long stand company will be bankrupt.' Yu Qi narrowed her eyes.

Bai Jian who had just gotten out of Yu Qi's room took out her phone and called someone.

"Xia Fang, I just meet with that girl, owner of Qi Qi Skincare." Bai Jian said hearing someone picked the phone.

"Sorry, Madam Bai. President Bai is currently in the toilet." A woman's voice answered the phone.

"Who are you?" Bai Jian asked while gritting her teeth.

"I am the new secretary, Chia Mei." Chia Mei said.
