Chapter 1101: Mistakenly Recognized

At first, the nurse did not want to reveal anything to her. She did not make things difficult for the nurse since she knew their work. Then, she was greeted by an excited voice.

"Doctor Tang Yu Qi, what are you doing here?"

Yu Qi turned and saw a woman wearing a white jacket indicating that she was also a Doctor. Yu Qi tried to search her memory about this doctor. Then she remembered that she met this doctor at the last medical conference. This doctor also participated in the medical conference.

"Hello, Doctor An Yuting." Yu Qi greeted her.

"It is a pleasure that you remember me." An Yuting was happy that her idol remembered her. Yeah, Yu Qi was her idol. "So, what are you doing here?"

"Someone I knew got hurt. So, I want to know about his condition." Yu Qi explained.

"Oh, really? Okay. I will try to get the information to you." An Yuting said. "Who is his name?"

"I don't remember his name but he was the one who came by ambulance last hour." Yu Qi said.

"Oh, him... he is my patient." An Yuting said. No doubt about that.

So, Yu Qi could take the opportunity to ask about his condition. An Yuting shared the information. Then she remembered that she was not supposedly revealing the information.

"It's okay. I want to know his condition because I am the one who pays the medical expenses. Treat him until he recovered. And send the medical bill to me later." Yu Qi said.

"Oh, okay." An Yuting said.

After that, they left the hospital. They decided to go back. Yu Qi and Dian Qi Qi were not tired but Elder Zheng Zhuxian was different. She was already old. She did not have much energy as the young generation.

They arrived at FINN City around 7 p.m. at the evening. Yu Qi decided to grab some dinner first but Elder Zheng ask to send her home first. Her son was waiting for her to come back feeling relieved to see her mother coming home safe.

Her son thanked Yu Qi for taking care of his mother.

Yu Qi went to a hotel restaurant to eat dinner with Dian Qi Qi. It was not her to choose the restaurant. Dian Qi Qi checked the dish that she wanted to eat. It just happened that the dish was only served at that restaurant in the hotel.

Yu Qi was not stingy to pay for that. So, she nodded and went to the restaurant together. Yu Qi already called home that she would not be having dinner together tonight as well as Dian Qi Qi. Ming Yue did not say anything else. She just told them to be careful outside at night.

Yu Qi asked for a private room. The waiter showed the way. He knew one of the faces. She was Tang Yu Qi. He knew from the video that spread on Weibo when she was saving a man.

He politely waited for Yu Qi and Dian Qi Qi to order the food. After getting the food, he left.

"Sister Yu Qi, I want to go to the ladies first. Can you accompany me?" Dian Qi Qi acted like children.

"Sure... Sure... I also want to go to the ladies." Yu Qi chuckled to see the childish act.

So, they both went to the ladies. When they were about to head back to their room, one of the private room doors was opened and a man came out. Once the man's eyes caught Yu Qi and Dian Qi Qi, he walked to them.

"Why are you late? And why do you wearing this? I told you to dress sexily. Why don't you follow my order? Never mind. The dinner is already begun. Come in quickly." The man said while wanting to grab Dian Qi Qi to follow him.

Dian Qi Qi nimbly avoided the man.

"Sister Yu Qi, who is this man?" Dian Qi Qi asked.

"Don't know. I don't have any idea who he is." Yu Qi said.

"Don't play around. We don't have any time to play around. Just come in." The man said in anger.

"Hey Mister, I don't know you." Dian Qi Qi said.

"You." The man said.

"I think you get the wrong person, Sir." Yu Qi tried to explain.

"So, you want to play hard to get?" The man smirked.

He opened the door where his room was. Then, he made a few signals. One minute later, a group of standard looking bodyguards came out of the room.

"Take these girls into the room quickly." The man said. He then turned to those girls. "You might get hurt a little bit. Who ask you not to listen to me?"

Dian Qi Qi hid behind Yu Qi like a scared girl. "What should we do, Sister Yu Qi?"

"What do you think?" Yu Qi smiled.

"Can I?" Dian Qi Qi asked.

"Up to you." Yu Qi smiled again.

This time, Dian Qi Qi came out from Yu Qi's behind. She was smiling too.

"Please just use ten percent of your strength. Please not crack the wall." For a second thought, Yu Qi said.

This little girl was very strong. If she did not say anything, she might end up destroying the hotel.

The man and the bodyguards could not understand what the girls talking about. The man could not wait for anything. He ordered the bodyguards to drag both of them.

Chapter 1102: One Punch

The bodyguards came closer to Dian Qi Qi. However, before they managed to do so, Dian Qi Qi already appeared in front of one of them. She punched him right on the stomach.

The bodyguard then coughed some blood. He kneeled on the floor, looking at Dian Qi Qi in horror. Others were also terrific with this. The bodyguards were highly trained before they managed to be the bodyguards. They could only imagine how much power that the girl used to make their comrade in that situation.

The man who ordered the bodyguard to grabbed the girls stepped back. He wanted to run from there.

"I am sorry. I make a mistake. I recognize the wrong people." The man apologized.

"I also told you so. But you don't believe me." Yu Qi said.

"What? So, I can not beat up them anymore?" Dian Qi Qi said in displeasure.

The bodyguards stepped back.

"Please, let us go. I will pay you." The man said.

Yu Qi walked to the room where the man came from. She opened the door before the man managed to stop him.

In the room, there were a few men and women inside. When the men inside the room saw Yu Qi, they were delighted. Meanwhile, the women seemed to be a little bit angry when seeing Yu Qi. They seemed to see afraid that Yu Qi could take all the attention from the men.

"What's a beautiful girl. Come in. Serve me. You will get what you want." One of the men said to Yu Qi.

Dian Qi Qi also sneaked a peek to see what was inside the room. The men saw Dian Qi Qi too.

"What's strange clothes. But you are cute too. Come in." The men inside the room said to Dian Qi Qi.

"Mmm... I never thought to see Mr. Han Dong Wa, Mr. Nan Kong, and Mr. Piang Tong here." Yu Qi mentioned the names of the three men inside the room.

There were other three men inside the room as well but she did not know them. She only knew three of them. Because they were politicians.

"Oh, you know us? What's a pleasure. Come in." Han Dong Wa said.

"It seems you already hire some woman to entertain you." Yu Qi looked at the women.

Some of them were already in messed-up clothes. The men were touching and hugging the girls' bodies.

"Oh, you are jealous. Don't worry. We will treat you as well." Piang Tong looked at Yu Qi as she was a piece of meat.

"The politicians hired some women. This is prostitution, right?" Yu Qi smiled.

Hearing the word 'prostitution' coming from this woman's mouth, they knew something was not right.

"Who are you?" Nan Kong asked.

"A passerby but your people insisted me to come inside." Yu Qi said.

The man behind Yu Qi wanted to cry. It was not his fault. Well, it was his fault in the beginning but he also wanted to stop her at the end.

"Wait, you are Tang Yu Qi." Han Dong Wa remembered this face when he stared at her for a long time.

"Oh, you recognize me." Yu Qi laughed a little bit.

The men and women inside the room and also the man as well the bodyguards outside were shocked to know the identity of the woman.

'I heard that prostitution is prohibited in our law. But the politicians themselves used this kind of service. I wonder what Mayor Qian has to say about this.' Yu Qi smirked.

"You..." They were wearing a shocked expression.

"Guards, catch those girls." Nan Kong ordered the bodyguards.

However, none of the bodyguards stepped forward to deal with Yu Qi and Dian Qi Qi.

"Why don't you move?" Nan Kong shouted.

The bodyguards were silent.

"I also already take the evidence. You can enjoy your dinner. Who knows it would be your last time having fun like this." Yu Qi said.

One of the men inside the room rushed to Yu Qi. He intended to pull Yu Qi in. However, Yu Qi evaded his hand and grabbed the man around his neck. She slowly lifted him up. Everyone was shocked to see this kind of situation. How could a meek-looking woman lift up a growing-up man just like that?

The man was desperately catching his breaths. He felt that he would be going to die soon. Then, he could feel the woman release him. He fell to the ground while catching his breath.

"If you dare do something like this again, you will wish hell." Yu Qi glanced at everything. Her murderous aura was leaking out.

Everyone could see that she was ready to kill everyone. Piang Tong was white pale. He used to face this situation once. It was when he saw Long Hui facing the assassin. It was the same as now.

"Goodbye. Have a nice dinner." Yu Qi left the room.

Everyone could not move right now. They did not understand why was this situation happened in the first place. The man outside was trembling. It was his fault. He was the reason behind this. If he did not get the wrong person, nothing would happen. He was regretted not asking for more girls.

"We are finished... We are finished.." Piang Tong mentioned the sentence over and over again.

"What do you think will happen to us?" One of them said.

The culprit of the terror returned back to their room. The waiter who took their order earlier was about to enter the room too bringing them their food.

Chapter 1103: Corrupted Politicians

"Sister Yu Qi, you know who they are?" Dian Qi Qi asked.

"Well, they are the politicians. They dare to hire women to have fun like that." Yu Qi snorted.

"So, they are the corrupted politicians. So, what Sister Yu Qi wants to do?" Dian Qi Qi said.

"If they don't do what they did to us, I would not know about this. If a girl knows nothing about self-defense, it would be worse getting forced like that. Who knows what will happen to that poor girl?" Yu Qi said. Then she continued. "That's why I will report them but this would not be enough evidence."

"So, what will you do?" Dian Qi Qi asked again.

"Well, never mind... Let's eat first." Yu Qi said.

"Okay." Dian Qi Qi did not curious anymore about that. She was sure pretty that Yu Qi would handle the matter properly.

It was time for the Dian Siblings to return to their home. Yu Qi managed to squeeze the time during lunch to send them. Luckily it was only 15 minutes drive to the airport.

They would be going to depart at 3 o'clock in the evening. They were already at the airport. So, Yu Qi just needed to go there.

"Sister Yu Qi." Dian Qi Qi was happy to see Yu Qi.

"Qi Qi..." Yu Qi smiled.

"I want Sister Yu Qi to follow me." Dian Qi Qi sighed.

"I will go there later." Yu Qi said. She turned to Dian Shu Xian. "I agree to join the competition."

"Really?" Dian Shu Xian asked.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded.

"Great. I can compete with Sister Yu Qi later." Dian Qi Qi was happy with Yu Qi's decision.

The two siblings passed the security after that. Yu Qi returned to the hospital. When Yu Qi returned to the hospital, she was surprised to see a lot of people gathered in front of the hospital.

The security guards blocked those people from entering the hospital. There were some reporters too since she saw a few men that held the cameras. She was curious about that.

Then some people turned in her direction. Seeing her, they rushed to her. Yu Qi stepped back. She could not manage to escape since those people blocked her way.

"Doctor Tang Yu Qi, what is your opinion about this case?" A reporter asked a question.

"What is this about?" Yu Qi did not understand what this reporter asking.

"A patient died due to a doctor's misconduct in this hospital." A reporter said.

"What?" Yu Qi did not know about that.

She just left an hour ago. Just an hour and this happened.

"How could you don't know about this? This is your family hospital, right?" Another reporter interrupted Yu Qi when he saw Yu Qi seem clueless about the things that happened inside the hospital.

Yu Qi was silent. She needed to know what happened. She wanted to ask someone inside the hospital. She wanted to rush in.

"Step aside. Let me walk." Yu Qi said.

"Please say something about this." Another reporter said.

Yu Qi glared sharply at the reporter. The reporter stepped back due to Yu Qi's glare. Others also saw the glare stepping away. Seeing the people scared, Yu Qi stepped forward. The people made a way for Yu Qi to walk.

Yu Qi managed to enter the hospital. She coincidentally saw Nurse Shin. She went to talk to Nurse Shin.

"Nurse Shin, what's actually happened?" Yu Qi asked Nurse Shin.

"I heard someone died because of our doctor's fault in surgery. The family member demands the explanation from our hospital." Nurse Shin said. Then she added. "The patient really died this morning. He was under surgery last night. The surgery ended at 4 a.m. His condition was stable after coming out of the surgery theatre. There is no way the patient would die."

"So, who is the doctor?" Yu Qi asked.

"Doctor Zhang Ming." Nurse Shin said.

Doctor Zhang Ming was a good doctor. She had a lot of experience in her area.

"Why do they think that it is Doctor Zhang Ming's fault?" Yu Qi was feeling weird.

It could be another reason that the patient died. The patient was in stable condition after getting out of the operation.

"The patient's family member thought so. And report it to the police. They also tell the report about that." Nurse Shin said.

"The police is still investigating this matter. The post-mortem will be conducted too. There will be a report soon." She added.

"I see." Yu Qi said.

"Hmm... let's go, Doctor Yu Qi, you have a patient waiting." Nurse Shin said.

Yu Qi wanted to know more about this incident. But she could not let her patients any longer. So, she settled the patients first.

There was something weird going on here. It had not felt right. The patient died after coming out of the surgery room in the stable condition was not quite right.

Yu Qi looked at the hospital's entrance. The reporters were still there. Many security guards were called to control the situation.

The doctors who parked their car outside felt worried to pass the group of the reporters. They did not want the reporters to ask them because they did not know the situation.

Doctor Zhang Ming who performed the surgery on the poor man was kept in a room. She did not allow to return home at this moment.

Chapter 1104: Have Doubt About The CCTV

Yu Qi went to see Doctor Zhang Ming. However, they did not allow her to see her. Everyone involved in the surgery had been restricted in their movement. They were not allowed to go home like Doctor Zhang Ming. They were professional people. So, they were very calm about this.

The forensic went to go to do the post-mortem on the deceased. They needed to know the main reason for this man to die when it had been reported in his file that he was in stable condition after the surgery.

Because of that news, patients who wanted to come to the hospital became hesitant to come to receive the treatment. Even the surgery had been planned, needed to be canceled since the patient did not give their consent to be operated on.

Some of them even asked for a transfer. The hospital could not hold the patient if they wanted to transfer. So, the hospital approved their transfer. However, the hospital would not be received them after they were transferred to another hospital.

In the morning, everything was okay. It turned upside down after lunch. The things happened so quickly. It seemed weird. It seemed someone pulled the string behind the scene.

Since Yu Qi did not have any work at the hospital, she went home. Tang Jin Wei also returned home. It seemed her uncles would not be coming home at this rate due to the case.

Yu Qi told Auntie Ming Yue that she would not have dinner for today. Yu Qi entered her space, cooked a simple dinner for her and her cuties. After that, she went to the computer room.

Since the hospital had been installed the CCTV Camera everywhere, in the ward, it was worth checking it. She might find something that was worth it.

She did not wait for seconds to hack the CCTV Systems. She worked very fast that not a single person noticed that the system had been hacked by someone. She reviewed the video of the patient who had been pushed by the nurse from the surgery room to the ward.

Then she reviewed the video in the ward. The patient was sleeping. A nurse came into the room and checked his condition. Seeing the patient was just sleeping, the nurse wrote something on her nurse and left the room after that.

Yu Qi kept watching the video. In the dawn, once again, the nurse came in and checked the patient. However, the nurse was panicked after checking the patient. Yu Qi could see that the nurse clicked the emergency button. Not long after that, the doctor rushed over into the ward to check the patient. However, the doctor could not do anything because the patient had been long dead.

The hospital called the family to inform them about the death. Yu Qi assumed they were his parent and his brother. The mother cried a lot when hearing about her husband's death. The oldest son was silent while patting his mother's back comforting her. As for the youngest brother, he left the room and seemed to contact someone.

Yu Qi was suspicious about this brother. At first, she thought he wanted to inform their relatives about the death. He called a lot of people. He did not seem to be sad about his father's death. It made Yu Qi become more suspicious about this brother.

Yu Qi decided to investigate this man. However, she needed some help. She had doubts about the video.

She sent a message to Han Baise.

Snow: Hey, are you awake?

Not long after that, Han Baise replied to her.

Shiro: What is it?

Snow: I have a job for you.

Shiro: What job?

Snow: Check this video. And find if there is any trace of this video having been edited. If it has been edited, try to recover the original one, okay?

Shiro: Sure. Where is the source of this video?

Snow: Tang Private Hospital.

Shiro: Wait, it is your workplace right?

Snow: Yeah.

Shiro: It is about that death case?

Snow: Yes.

Shiro: Okay. I will take a look at the video.

Snow: I hope you can contact me as soon as possible.

Shiro: I will try.

Yu Qi took a long breath. Bo Ya entered the computer room with Shino and Aoi. They brought a basket with them. When Yu Qi looked inside the basket, she could see the fruits.

"Master, you need to eat some. You had been working for a few hours. Eat this. It is very sweet." Bo Ya said.

"Yes, Master. You need to eat." Aoi nodded.

"Eat and continue your work," Shino said.

"Okay. I will eat." Yu Qi took a strawberry and ate it.

As Bo Ya said, it was very sweet and fresh.

...

The board of directors of Tang Private Hospital had been called for a meeting regarding this matter. Since Grandpa Tang was the chairman, he also needed to attend the meeting.

Tang Jung Wen did not want his father to get involved but Grandpa Tang also knew from the news. Yu Qi was also being called for that meeting. She did not know why but she still followed that order.

When she entered the meeting room, some of the people were already sitting in their chairs. She could see her three brothers, her uncles, and Grandpa Tang.

"As you may know, the reason for this meeting is to handle the current problem that our hospital faces." Tang Jung Wen said.

Chapter 1105: Post-Mortem Report

"We already received the post-mortem report." Tang Jang Qin said.

Everyone looked at the document in Tang Jang Qin's hand.

Tang Jang Qin opened the document. "In this report stated that the main cause of death was ketamine overdose."

"What? Ketamine overdose? From what I know, the anesthesiologist in that surgery used the intravenous agent, Propofol (Diprivan:registered:). Not the ketamine." One of the people in the meeting said.

"Yes. I read the report of the surgery too. It is indeed propofol." Another one supported that.

Both propofol and ketamine were the the most commonly used IV general anesthetic. It was not wrong to use the ketamine since a lot of hospitals used ketamine for the management of acute and chronic pain.

It was not weird at all. However the thing got weirder when the anesthetic was not supposedly used in that surgery appeared in the patient's body and caused his death. Not only that, ketamine overdose meaning the body had been injected with the amount that a human body should not receive.

If the human body received the excessive amount of ketamine in their bodies, they might have several side effects such as chest pain, dangerous changes in blood pressure and heart rate.

Not to mention, the patient was an alcoholic or acutely intoxicated with alcohol. So, ketamine uses on this patient could be fatal. Doctor Zhang Ming also knew that this patient was an alcoholic. So, that why she suggested to use propofol as the anesthetic.

"Meaning someone injected it into the patient's body." Tang Qin Hao said.

"Yes." Tang Jin Wei nodded.

"However, we already checked the CCTV camera in the patient's room that night. Nothing unusual happened." Tang Jung Wen said.

He and several police officers already checked the video. Like Yu Qi did yesterday, they watched everything until the doctor declared the patient's death. There was nothing unusual in the video.

"Hmm.... can I say something?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes. You may." Tang Jung Wen said.

"Actually...."

Yu Qi was sitting together with Tang Family members and several police officers in front of many people. In the meeting, yesterday, Yu Qi surprised everything with her discovery regarding this case. They did not expect the thing like that happened in their hospital.

Yu Qi suggested them to do a public conference. It was to restore the image by telling the truth to the public. Since it was the case, the reporters had been called too.

The reporters seemed excited to know more about this case. The case was very popular. A lot of citizens critiqued Tang Private Hospital. So, it was worth to write about this case.

The family members of the deceased were also here. They were sitting down silently.

Tang Jung Wen looked at Yu Qi. Yu Qi nodded and Tang Jung Wen replied back by nodding too.

"We are sorry for the loss of your Family's member." Tang Jung Wen said to the deceased family.

"Your sorry is not going to revive my father." The youngest son said while pointing to Tang Jung Wen.

He wanted to rush to Tang Jung Wen but his oldest brother pulled his hand stopping him to rush over.

"However, we can say that it was not entirely our fault." Tang Jung Wen continued.

This made the noise among the audience especially the reporters. They liked this kind of things.

"What are you saying? Of course, it is entirely your fault." The youngest son shouted again. This time, he did not rush over like the last time.

"The forensic report stated that Mr Kuang Yan had died due to the ketamine overdose. For your information, ketamine is commonly used as anesthetic in the surgery." Tang Jung Wen said.

"See. It is your fault." The youngest son shouted again.

"However, the anesthetic used in the surgery that performed for your father is not the ketamine but Propofol. The doctor and anesthesiologist whom involved in that surgery make that decision because Mr Kuang Yan was an alcoholic. Ketamine was fatal for a alcoholic person." Tang Jung Wen said.

"What?"

"Then, how the substance can be the cause of the death?"

The reporters were talking at the same time as soon as Tang Jung Wen completed his sentence.

"Mr Kuang Yan was in the stabil condition when he got out of the surgery room. Then he had been placed in a ward." Tang Jung Wen said.

Tang Jung Wen showed a few picture of Kuang Yan being pushed out of the surgery room. Then a few picture of Kuang Yan was resting in the ward. There was also a video that showed the monitor about Kuang Yan"s heartbeat.

"It shows that Kuang Yan was in a good condition after the surgery." Tang Jung Wen said.

"You must be editing this video. I know it." The youngest son accused the hospital again.

"Oh, you must be a pro in editing the video since, just at one glance, you know this video is an edited video." Yu Qi stood up and smiled as her narrow eyes looking straight at the youngest son.

The youngest son's eyes moved to Yu Qi. When he saw Yu Qi, he was shivered out of nothing. He felt his body had been wrapped by a giant snake and the giant snake was watching him with its glowing eyes before the giant snake was going to eat him.

Tang Jung Wen took a seat. His job had already been done. It was Yu Qi's turn now.

Chapter 1106: Slowly Reveal The Truth

"Is this editing video?" A reporter asked.

"Of course not. It is 100% the original video." Yu Qi said.

Tang Jung Wen took a seat. His job was already done. It was Yu Qi's turn now. Yu Qi should handle this.

Yu Qi looked at Kuang Yan's youngest son, Kuang Jinang.

"You are Mr Kuang Jinang, right?" Yu Qi asked.

Kuang Jinang avoided looking in Yu Qi's direction anymore. "So, what?"

"May I know what is your job?" Yu Qi asked again.

"What does that matter right now?" Kuang Jinang argued.

The reporters also felt weird about the question. It had nothing to do with Kuang Yan's death right now.

"It's okay if you don't want to answer it now." Yu Qi said. "Let's move on, shall we?"

Yu Qi sat in front of the laptop. She opened the video and let everyone watch the video.

"This is the video that we take from the CCTV Camera inside Mr. Kuang Yan's ward. I will fast forward this video until the doctor discovered Mr. Kuang Yan's death." Yu Qi said.

The long-hour video had been simplified into 30 minutes. Everyone was watching the video until the end.

"Doctor Tang, we can find anything wrong in this video." A reporter stated. He did not satisfied when he found nothing wrong in the video and he had wasted about half an hour watching this nonsense video.

"Yes. Do you want to avoid the the trouble, do you? If nothing wrong in this video, meaning this hospital is guilty of killing Mr. Kuang." Another reporter shouted.

Kuang Jinang was smiling when seeing the reporters were in his side. Yu Qi managed to catch his smile. Kuang Jinang panicked when seeing Yu Qi was catching his smile. Yu Qi also smiled back. He felt the same fear as before.

"Of course not. The video that you watched before is the edited one." Yu Qi dropped a bomb-making everyone was shocked.

"What?"

"How is that possible?"

"Edited video?"

Everyone seemed did not to believe in that.

"Let me show you the original video." Yu Qi opened another video.

Everything was the same as in the previous video at the beginning. However, at 15 minutes section, they could see a mysterious man wearing a white lab coat entering the ward. He dressed like a real doctor.

He walked to Kuang Yan's bedside. He took out something in his pocket. He then injected it into the IV drip. He injected the substance several times. After being satisfied with that, he walked out casually.

Then, the rest of the video was pretty the same. Everyone was silent when they finished watching the video.

"How can you prove the last video is the original one? You can edit the video too." A reporter said.

"Yeah. I feel the same." Another reporter supported that.

"We already found the hacker that hacked Tang Private Hospital's CCTV system." A police officer, Officer Ning Lang stood up and said the statement. "He is a wanted fugitive inside and outside the country."

He was not lying about that. A hacker, with the codename Samyan, had been caught yesterday after taking this job which hacking CCTV Cameras and replacing the video inside them. Another anonymous hacker hacked Samyan's computer and helped the police officer to catch Samyan by telling the police officers Samyan's exact location.

The police officers were very impressed with this anonymous hacker. They would like to meet with him but he rejected. He just left his name, Q. The police officers expected that. They did not force him.

The police officers went to question Samyan. Samyan told the police officers that he received the job because it paid a lot. Samyan was the type who did not care about the source of the money as soon as his employer paid him. He also told the police officer it was impossible to track the source because the payer used many tricks to hide the routes.

The audience was astonished by the development. Someone dared to pay a hacker to make trouble at Tang Private Hospital.

"Meaning someone else plot to kill Kuang Yan using another's hand to make our hospital's name bad." Yu Qi said.

"So, back to my earlier question to Mr. Kuang Jinang, what is your current job?" Yu Qi looked at Kuang Jinang again.

Kuang Jinang once again avoided looking directly at Yu Qi. Some reporters noticed his behavior and became suspicious of this man. Not to mention the oldest son, Kuang Manan, felt weird about his younger brother.

"It is not related." Kuang Jinang said.

"Okay. Then, let me change my question. You received a lot of money within 4 days recently, right? First, right after your father's surgery. Second, after your father had been declared dead. The last one was yesterday. Am I right?" Yu Qi smiled narrowing her eyes.

This time, Kuang Jinang looked straight at Yu Qi with a shocked expression. He was thinking how the heck this woman knew about the transaction in his account bank.

The reporters were sure imaginative. They already connected the statement. The youngest son of Kuang Yan had his hands on his father's death. They did not expect that since they watched how much the youngest son of Kuang Yan blamed the hospital that caused his father's death. But now, the table had been changed.

They were pretty excited to know more about this story.

Mrs Kuang and Kuang Manan looked at Kuang Jinang in shock too.

Chapter 1107: Declaration

"Jinang, she is making a story, right?" Mrs. Kuang did not want to believe that her son plotted to kill his husband.

"Mum, brother, don't believe her. She is making a story. She is lying." Kuang Jinang said.

"Oh, then, explain where is the money comes from?" Yu Qi asked.

"It... It... Anyways, it is nothing to do with this case." Kuang Jinang shouted.

"Oh, Really? Then, let's hear something interesting now." Yu Qi clicked something on the laptop.

It was a voice recording. The voice was Kuang Jinang and another man.

Another voice.: "Is it settled?"

Kuang Jinang: "Settle. My father already died. Where can I get my payment?"

Another voice: " It will be transferred to you right away."

Kuang Jinang: " Thank you."

The conversation ended there. Everyone was silent.

"So, what are your excuse right now, huh?" Yu Qi snorted.

"You invade my privacy." Kuang Jinang pointed to Yu Qi.

"So, what? What do you want to do to me, huh?" Yu Qi smirked.

"You must be recorded my voice and create that conversation." Kuang Jinang wanted to argue more about that.

However, everyone already made their conclusion. They already believed that Kuang Jinang was involved in his father's death.

"Jinang, how could you plot to kill our father?" Kuang Manan held back his tear.

"Jinang, why do you do that?" Mrs. Kuang also asked the same thing.

They could not believe this. Kuang Jinang gritted her teeth.

"Why do you ask? That bastard should die earlier." Kuang Jinang could not hold back anymore, so, he confessed directly that he was also involved in his father's death. "He likes to drink and gamble. When he was drunk, he likes to hit me and my brother since I was small. Not to mention, he also hit you too. Mom, he hit you when you don't give him the money that he wanted. And to use the money to gamble and lost all the money. And now, he is sick and needs treatment. It also costs money. So, it is better for him to die."

Kuang Jinang took a breath after he let everything out.

"Your hospital must have the enemy too since they want to ruin your reputation. It seems that person has a powerful background too. Unfortunately for you that you don't know that person." Kuang Jinang said to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi chuckled. "I also know them." Yu Qi turned to the camera and asked the reporter. "Is it live, right?"

The reporter nodded. Yu Qi looked straight at the reporter.

"You are really looking for death? You dare to touch my precious. I will make your life crumble. Make my words." Yu Qi declared.

The reporters were shocked to hear Yu Qi's declaration. Not to mention, the police officers too. It seemed that Yu Q knew the mastermind.

"Miss Tang, do you know the person behind all this?"

"Miss Tang, could you tell us who is the mastermind?"

Yu Qi looked at the reporters. "I have nothing to talk about anymore. Mr. Policeman, the accomplice is over there. I hope you can catch him." She turned to the police officers.

Kuang Jinang just realized that he was about to get caught by the police, made the decision to run away from the place. He began to the reporters. There were some unlucky reporters who were being pushed by Kuang Jinang.

Seeing Kuang Jinang was making his way, the police officers also made their moves to catch Kuang Jinang. Mrs. Kuang was crying after listening to her son's confession about killing her husband.

She knew that her husband used to hit her son. She could not do anything. In fact, it was a common thing for her since her father also hit her when she was younger. But she never expect that her youngest son would do such a thing as kill his father. Her youngest son must be hating her husband so much even plotting to kill him.

Kuang Manan comforted his mother. Like his brother said, he also Obeing hit by their father when he was drunk. After graduating high school, he left home with an excuse to find a job. However, he actually was running away from that hellish house.

Probably after he left, their father hit his brother even more making his brother hate their father to the bones.

The conference ended in a chaotic way.

"Little Sis, you are so cool when making such a speech." Tang Jin Wei praised Yu Qi. "By the way, how do you get that information?"

"Well, I have a hacker friend. So, I get him to look into this case." Yu Qi said.

It was an inconvenience for her to reveal the information about her was the hacker. It was better to say such a lie. Even, technically, it was no lie. She did get some help from Han Baise.

"You really don't know about the mastermind?" Tang Han Lee asked.

"Not for the time being. My friend needs some time to investigate that." Yu Qi said.

"I see." Tang Han Lee said.

"It is probably another hospital that is jealous of our hospital." Tang Jin Wei said.

"I think it is more than that." Tang Qin Hao suddenly said that while looking at Yu Qi.

Yu Qi was surprised. She waited for him to talk more but Tang Qin Hao did not talk anymore. He just left.

"However, the case is settled. We should celebrate." Tang Jin Wei said.

"That is a good idea." Tang Jung Wen said.

Chapter 1108: Their Marriage Is Destroyed

They should celebrate this.

"Let's eat dinner outside tonight." Tang Jang Qin said. "You come too, Qin Hao." He shouted at his son who not walking far from them.

Tang Qin Hao stopped and turned. "Just tell me the location. I will go." Then, he continued to walk again.

"We don't have night duty for tonight. So, it is a perfect opportunity." Tang Jung Wen said.

Actually, they would be very busy attending to their patient. Since the case, the patient decreased. So, they did not have to do the night duty. They returned home.

.....

The masterminds involved in the case were shivering as Yu Qi gave her warning. That girl should not know the truth, right? Yeah, she would not know. She was just bluffing. The masterminds tried to think positively.

"Mr. Ma, your wife is coming home." Someone reported it to him.

"Okay." Ma Du Shi decided to stop thinking about that.

He saw her wife walking straight toward him. He opened his arms to hug his wife. But not the hug that he received but a slap. Ma Du Shi was dumbfounded by this situation.

"Dear, what's wrong with you?" Mr. Ma asked.

"Ma Du Shi, you dare ask me that question?" Niang Ju, Ma Du Shi's wife asked in anger.

"What's happened? Why do you suddenly slap me like this?" Ma Du Shi was angry but he could not show it to his wife.

"How dare you play with other women outside?" Niang Ju screamed.

"What? I am not. Please believe me. You should not believe the rumors. They are jealous of our family." Ma Du Shi tried to calm Niang Ju. He wanted to grab Niang Ju's hand.

Niang Ju was disgusted by Ma Du Shi. She did not want him to touch her right now.

"Rumors you said. Then, what is this?" Niang Ju took out something from her handbag and threw them at Ma Du Shi's face.

Then they fell to the ground. They were the pictures where he was eating with several women. Not to mention, some pictures also showed that they entered the hotel room together.

Seeing these pictures, Ma Du Shi was shocked. How did someone take his picture at the time like that?

"What? Did your tongue get caught?" Niang Ju glared at her husband.

"Dear, it is not like that. I believe someone acted like me and do something like that. They planned to destroy our marriage." Ma Du Shi said.

He could not admit that the man in the pictures was him. Otherwise, everything would be disappeared. Everything that he owned right now, mostly belonged to his wife's family. If they got divorced, it would be even worse. His wife's family would not leave him alone.

Niang Ju laughed. "Don't try to deny it."

"I am speaking the truth." Ma Du Shi said.

"My brother saw you with your little girl at the hotel yesterday. He thought he was mistaken. So, he takes a closer look at you. Turn out, it was truly you. The girl was acting so docile toward you and you were so gentle toward her. How lovely." Niang Ju described the lovely scene with ultimate disgust.

Ma Du Shi was silent. He did not expect that his brother in law would see him in a place like that. He thought his brother in law was staying overseas. He thought it would be better to admit it and asked for forgiveness later.

"My dear, I was wrong. I am sorry. I promise I will not do it anymore." Ma Du Shi said.

"Humph! You just admit it because my brother saw you in the act. Otherwise, you will never admit it, right? Do you think if you admit and ask for forgiveness, I will forgive you? Stop dreaming. I WILL NEVER FORGIVE YOU, CHEATER." Niang Ju said.

"Dear, please forgive me." Ma Du Shi kneeled while begging Niang Ju.

"We will divorce. I will sue you for cheating on me." Niang Ju said before leaving Ma Du Shi while he was still kneeling.

Actually, the story about her brother seeing Ma Du Shi was a lie. Her brother was not even there. He was traveling around the world. However, Ma Du Shi apologized for that quickly meaning he was really with a girl yesterday. The heart that wanted to forgive her husband disappeared just like that.

She got married to her husband 7 years ago. They met at the university. He was not from a wealthy family like her. However, he got a quite handsome face and had a kind personality.

When her family opposed the marriage, she fought for her love. She really loved him at that time. Seeing she loved him so much, her family approved the marriage. They began to help him to build his name in the business world. They did not want her life in poverty.

But what she got was a betrayal. Her husband cheated on her with many girls. She could not help to cry again. She did not want to live in this house anymore. She left and went to her family's house.

Ma Du Shi threw everything on the table. He was so angry. His plan to ruin Tang Private Hospital failed. And now, this happened. Who was the heck taking his picture like this?

He took a picture and looked at it. The pictures seemed to be taken from a CCTV camera. Then, he realized something.

"No... it is not possible." Ma Du Shi mumbled something.

Chapter 1109: Had Been Triggered

"She could not know that." Ma Du Shi shook her head.

He could not handle this anymore. He immediately called someone.

"Mr. Nan, you need to help me." Ma Du Shi said.

"What is this?" Nan Kong just finished his dinner.

"I already did as you said, Mr. Nan. Then, my wife found out that I had been cheated on her. It must be her work." Ma Du Shi said in a panic.

"Your plan fails." Nan Kong said. "And it has nothing to do with me."

"Mr. Nan, you can leave me all alone like this because it is your idea together with Mr. Han and Mr. Piong." Ma Du Shi said.

Yeah, the real masterminds were the three of them, Han Dong Wa, Nan Kong, and Piong Tong, the ministers that Yu Qi met in the restaurant recently. They wanted to ruin Tang Private Hospital to teach Yu Qi some lessons that they could ruin her if they wanted.

And it was, of course, they were afraid that she would do something regarding the matter that they hired the prostitutes. They did not want to do it directly. So they asked someone else did for them. Unfortunately, the plan was ruined. They did not expect that the matter could be solved quickly like that.

"You better shut your mouth. Otherwise, something else might happen to you." Nan Kong gave the warning to Ma Du Shi.

Nan Kong also watched the conference. That girl was very calm explaining everything to the audience and catching the accomplice. When that girl gave the warning, he went to shiver.

He immediately called Han Dong Wa.

"Hello." Nan Kong said.

"Yeah." Han Dong Wa answered the call.

"Have you watched the conference?" Nan Kong asked.

"Yeah. That girl... What should we do next?" Han Dong Wa also worried about that.

"I still don't know." Nan Kong sighed.

"Should we kidnap her family or something like that?" Han Dong Wa suggested.

"I don't think it will work." Nan Kong said. "We should wait for another chance."

"Well... Okay." Han Dong Wa nodded.

"I will contact Piong Tong to stop doing things to Tang Yu Qi at the time being." Nan Kong asked.

Both of them achieved the agreement. They decided to leave Yu Q for a while before deciding on something else. However, they did not know that Yu Qi had already been triggered due to this incident.

...

As planned, Tang Family went to 5 stars restaurant that served Chinese dishes. Grandpa Tang liked to eat Chinese dishes compared to the western dish. So, they took that into consideration on selecting the restaurant.

Su Xiao also joined them too with the twin. She brought two maids to take off the twin while they were eating. She did not want to leave the twin at home. It was better for the twin to be in front of her eyes. Otherwise, she would not enjoy the food because she worried about the twin at home.

The manager of the restaurant himself welcomed Tang Family at the entrance. He had a personal history with Tang Family. His son had a weird brain disease.

None of the doctors that he consulted had the method to heal his son but Tang Qin Hao healed his son. So, he was very thankful to Tang Family. He never believed the bad news about Tang Private Hospital that floated recently.

"Welcome, welcome. Let me show the room." The manager said.

Yu Qi moved closer to Tang Jin Wei. She whispered to him. "Why does he look excited?"

Tang Jin Wei looked at the manager. He tried to remember where did he saw this man. Then, he suddenly remembered.

"Are you Mr. Duan Ye Gong, the father whose son had the strange brain disease two years ago right?" Tang Jin Wei asked.

The manager, Duan Ye Gong, nodded. "Yes, it is me."

"Qin Hao, you saved his son before." Tang Jin Wei said to Tang Qin Hao.

Tang Qin Hao did not remember much about Duan Ye Gong, but he remembered his patient that had a strange brain disease two years ago. It was a fascinating disease.

"How is your son?" Tang Qin Hao asked.

"My son, he is doing well after recovering." Duan Ye Gong said. "All thanks to you, Doctor Tang." He said to Tang Qin Hao.

"We have arrived at your room. Please come in." Duan Ye Gong said.

"Brother Qin Hao, can I know about that strange brain disease?" Yu Qi was kind of interested to know about that disease.

"Sure..." Tang Qin Hao was about to talk about that but his mother, Su Xiao cut him.

"Stop talking about that. You can talk about that later." Su Xiao said.

"Okay, Auntie." Yu Qi nodded.

They began to order the food. They ordered a lot of food.

"Yu Qi, you really don't know the mastermind behind this incident?" Tang Jung Wen asked Yu Qi.

Yu Qi thought they should know about this.

"Not exactly. But I have a few people in mind." Yu Qi answered.

"Who do you suspect?" Tang Jang Qin asked.

"Han Dong Wa, Nan Kong and Piong Tong." Yu Qi stated the three names.

"Wait... are they the ministers?" Tang Jung Wen asked. "Why do you do think they are the mastermind?"

"I don't think we have any issue with those three ministers." Tang Jang Qin added.

"Our interests did not cross each other." Tang Han Lee thought the same.

"Our family doesn't. But I do." Yu Qi said.

"Huh?" Everyone looked at Yu Qi at the same time.

"What do you mean?" Tang Jung Wen asked.

"Why do we have an issue with you?" Grandpa Tang asked in worried.

Chapter 1110: Hiring Prostitutes??

"A week ago, when I was dining with Qi Qi at one restaurant in the hotel, we crossed paths." Yu Qi began her story. "They thought we both are the prostitutes that they hired. So, they wanted us to service them."

"What? Those bastards!" Tang Jin Wei clenched his fist.

"Are you okay?" Ming Yue asked in worried. "That child, Qi Qi too?"

"Don't worry about that. Qi Qi beat up their bodyguards. No one dared to put their hands on us." Yu Qi smiled.

"She did? Wow." Su Xiao did not expect to know that Dian Qi Qi could beat up the bodyguards just like that.

"Her family really concerned about that. So, she used to train the martial arts." Yu Qi said to calm down her aunties' feelings.

"Then, how did they know you?" Tang Jung Wen asked.

"Well, I opened the door and saw the three of them..." Yu Qi did not manage to finish her sentence, Tang Han Lee cut her.

"What? You dare to open their door?" Tang Han Lee stared at Yu Qi.

"You should not do that. It is dangerous." Tang Jang Qin was also angry.

"I am sorry." Yu Qi apologized. She knew that they were just worried about her. "Well, back to my story. I saw them with other men and several women. Their clothes are messed up and the men in the room were touching the women. I knew that they were hiring prostitutes. Prostitution is banned in our country. But the minister themselves used that services."

"Yeah. That service is indeed banned in our country." Tang Jung Wen nodded.

"One of them recognized me. They must be afraid that I report everything. So, they probably decided to ruin our reputation first." Yu Qi guessed. And that guess was correct.

"That bastard." Tang Jin Wei was angry.

"How do you know it was them?" Grandpa Tang asked.

"I hired a hacker to investigate. He found out everything." Yu Qi said.

"No wonder." Tang Jung Wen nodded.

"So, what are you doing to do next? They probably would not stop here." Tang Jang Qin asked.

"I will attack them at once. I will not let them do anything to our family anymore." Yu Qi would not be softhearted to the people who wanted to ruin her family.

"Do you need help?" Tang Jung Wen asked.

"Don't worry about anything, Uncle Jung Wen. I can handle it. If I need your help, I will definitely ask you." Yu Qi smiled.

"Just be careful." Tang Jung Wen nodded.

The dinner was very good. The service of this restaurant was first-class. They ate dinner happily.

....

Long Hui just came back from his mission and got the news about the incident. He immediately called Yu Qi.

"Hello, Qi Qi."

Yu Qi just finished treating her patient and suddenly got the call from Long Hui. She knew it was Long Hui because of the ringtone. The ringtone was set for Long Hui.

"Brother Hui, I miss you." Yu Qi said after answering the call.

"I miss you too, Qi Qi." Long Hui replied right away. "I heard what happened to your hospital."

"Yeah. But things are settled down." Yu Qi said.

"I just come back from the mission. I will head to FINN City tomorrow." Long Hui informed.

"Really? That's great." Yu Qi was excited to hear the information. "When will you arrive?"

"Probably at night. I still have works to settle here now." Long Hui sighed.

"Don't rush things. Settle them properly." Yu Qi chuckled.

"I want to meet you right now." Long Hui whined.

"We will meet tomorrow." Yu Qi smiled.

"Will you do everything that I want, then?" Long Hui's voice became weird.

"Well... That's depends on the request." Yu Qi chuckled.

"You better remember that tomorrow." Long Hui grinned. "Okay... I need to go now. See you tomorrow."

"Sure. See you too." Yu Qi said.

The call ended.

Yu Qi was laying down and rolling on the bed. Her lips curved up since she received Long Hui.'s call. It was nice to see his voice after a long time.

....

"You call your fiancée." Ren Qian Yi said.

"Yeah. Why?" Long Hui glanced at Ren Qian Yi once and looked at the paperwork again.

"Nothing." Ren Qian Yi gritted his teeth.

He was jealous to see Long Hui called his fiancée. He wanted to have a girlfriend too. But he had not met his dream girl.

"By the way, the news floated with the incident at your fiancé's hospital. I read about that. A patient died due to someone and they wanted to make the hospital take the responsibility but your fiancée cut their effort." Ren Qian Yi talked.

Long Hui made a gentle smile when hearing Ren Qian Yi mention his fiancé's name.

"Yeah. I already asked the third brother to investigate that. I want to see who dares to mess with my fiancée." Long Hui narrowed his eyes making him look so dangerous right now.

"Wow... That's fast." Ren Qian Yi said.

He just wanted to suggest using Liang Mo Han for the matter. Who knows that Long Hui was quick? If Long Hui knew that, it would be the end for those people.

"I will stay at FINN City most time. You can find me over there if something is urgent." Long Hui said after his hand completing his tasks.

"Wait? Do you want to stay there? Where will you stay?" Ren Qian Yi said. "Don't tell me that you will be going to stay at your fiancé's house. I doubt that her family would allow you."
