

INTELLIGENT 1131

Chapter 1131: Figure Of A New Religion?

"I am done. Let's go and eat lunch." Yu Qi came out of the room.

The meeting was finished. But she was facing a gloomy Long Hui. Even though Long Hui had an unchangeable expression on his face but she knew it. Because she could feel the aura that Long Hui emitted.

"What's happened?" Yu Qi quickly asked Long Hui.

Long Hui sighed. His beloved Qi Qi knew his changing mood.

"I need to leave you now. There is an urgent mission that needs my backup." Long Hui felt bad since he needed to leave Yu Qi in the middle of their vacation.

Yu Qi was dumbfounded. She thought something big just happened judging from Long Hui's gloomy mood. She was relieved that it was not so serious as she thought at first.

"It's okay. I understand. It is your duty." Yu Qi smiled. "When do you need to leave?"

"In half an hour." Long Hui still felt bad even though his beloved Qi Qi comforted him by telling him that.

"I see. If your duty finished earlier than you think, call me, okay." Yu Qi said.

"What are you doing to do later?" Long Hui wanted to know her schedule.

"I thought we can have lunch together before going to Dian Family. Since you are going away, I will go to see Qi Qi. She must be at the university at this hour." Yu Qi told him.

"Okay. Take care." Long Hui kissed Yu Qi's forehead.

"You too. Be careful. Don't injure too much." Yu Qi advised.

She knew that in his line of work, it would be impossible not to get injured 100%. He would have an injury but she just hope that he would not be in a serious condition that could kill his life.

Long Hui left after getting a call. Yu Qi nodded. Shino could feel his master's feelings quickly climbed up and pressed his cheek to her cheek.

'Don't be sad, master. We are here.' Shino said.

Aoi also lingered at Yu Qi's legs. 'That's right, Master.'

Yu Qi laughed. "I know. Let's go and eat something, okay."

They went to the animal cafe. The cafe allowed the customer to bring their pets. So, it was the perfect place for Yu Qi to come. The food was not too bad.

Yu Qi could hear that both of them complained about the food. They said the food that their master cooked was more delicious than the food here. Yu Qi laughed.

Then Yu Qi told them that she would go to Dian Qi Qi's university. Both of them immediately told her that they wanted to enter the space. They did not want to meet Dian Qi Qi.

Dian Qi Qi very aggressively liked them. They disliked that about her. They did not like people to touch them so often. Unless that person was their master.

Once again, Yu Qi laughed. Since it was their request, she sent both of them in. She drove the car. Long Hui did not take the car with him since he was taken by a car earlier.

Yu Qi was calling Dian Qi Qi but Dian Qi Qi did not answer the call. She assumed that Dian Qi Qi was probably in the middle of her class. So, she gave up calling. She would call again later.

Yu Qi went to Honglion University. One of the prestigious universities in Fanghai Nation. Yu Qi came here several times in her past life. Not to study but to give business lectures.

Once she stepped inside, a lot of people stared at her. She ignored the stares and walked in.

As she passed by the people, there was a shocking voice saying her name.

"Tang Yu Qi!"

Yu Qi heard her name had been shouted by someone. She turned and saw a group of students looking at her with excited expressions on their faces.

"Yes?" Yu Qi said.

"It is really you. It is the real Tang Yu Qi."

"Wow."

"The real Tang Yu Qi."

"I achieved one of my dreams."

Yu Qi was speechless to see this kind of situation. Had she become the figure of a new religion? Even other onlookers were dumbfounded when hearing and seeing this. They wondered if this beautiful woman was a celebrity.

"Doctor Tang, we are your admirers. Your journal is inspiring." The group came and greeted Yu Qi.

Everyone could hear that the group of people call the beautiful woman 'doctor'. It must be someone in high ranking education.

"Those people from Medical and Medicine Faculty."

"That's right. Jue Xi is there."

The group of people were the students from the Medical and Medicine Faculty. They had the highest admiration for Yu Qi.

"Doctor Tang, what are you doing here?"

"Are you come here to be our lecturer?"

"It would be great if you can teach us."

The students kept asking the question.

"Calm down, guys. Let Doctor Tang speak first." The student, Jue Xi suddenly said after seeing Yu Qi hopeless.

"Hi... I am indeed Tang Yu Qi. But I come here to see someone." Yu Qi explained.

"Owh..."

"I thought we are getting a new lecturer."

The group sighed.

"But can I get your signature?" A girl came and asked Yu Qi that question.

"Hmm... Sure." Yu Qi nodded.

The girl gave her notebook and asked Yu Qi to sign the front page of her notebook. Yu Qi did not reject that.

Chapter 1132: A Bully

"That's right. Please sign mine too."

The students asked for her signature. They treated her as a famous artist who came to their university. They even asked her for a picture.

Of course, Yu Qi could not reject that because it was nothing much. The onlookers became curious about Yu Qi. The students told them about Yu Qi's identity. They were dumbfounded when knowing her identity. They thought she was an actress or something like that. But turned out she was just a doctor.

"Doctor Tang, you say you want to meet someone here. Who do you mean? Is that one of our lecturers?" Jue Xi asked.

"Oh, no. She is my cousin. She is a student here. I tried to call her but she was not answering." Yu Qi explained.

"Maybe she is still in the class."

"Probably." Yu Qi said.

"What is her name?"

"What course that she take?"

"Yeah. You can tell us. We probably know."

Before she had time to answer the question, her body had been hugged by someone.

"Sister Yu Qi." It was Dian Qi Qi.

Everyone in the university knew Dian Qi Qi due to her drastic dressing up. The lecturer did not say anything because of her result.

"Qi Qi."

"Sister Yu Qi, what are you doing here?" Dian Qi Qi asked.

"Coming to meet you." Yu Qi smiled.

"I am so happy." Dian Qi Qi jumped.

Everyone seemed speechless to see Dian Qi Qi act like that. It was because they knew Dian Qi Qi as a cold person. She never liked to smile at others. They thought she was a gloomy person.

But they never thought Dian Qi Qi would act like this in front of the person that they admired.

"Doctor Tang, what is your relationship with her?" A student asked.

"She is my relative. My family." It was Dian Qi Qi who answered that, not Yu Qi and at the top of it, she was proud to say that.

"Sister Yu Qi, let's go. My class is finished for today." Dian Qi Qi said.

"Hmm... I want to visit great-grandpa." Yu Qi said.

"Oh... okay... Let's go. Oh, wait. Let me inform my mother first that I am going to Great grandpa's." Dian Qi Qi took out her phone and call her mother.

Just two minutes, Dian Qi Qi ended the phone. "Let's go, Sister Yu Qi. Great-Grandpa would be happy to see you."

They did not know that there were some people who stared at them with different thoughts.

.....

"I saw the doctor at my university earlier." Mu Kuang He said to his mother after returning home.

"Huh? What doctor?" Su Yu Qing asked her son.

"The one who treated Second Sister." Mu Kuang He said.

"What? She is here? Is she going to visit Rong Xie?" Su Yu Qing asked.

"I think no. She came to see someone at my university and left. I don't know where she going." Mu Kuang He said.

"I want her to see your sister. She is still staying inside the room. She did not want to leave the room at all. I hope that Doctor can help her." Su Yu Qing placed her hope on Yu Qi.

"Mum, she is not a psychiatrist." Mu Kuang He reminded Su Yu Qing.

Su Yu Qing started to hit Mu Kuang He.

"How dare you say something like that? Your sister is not a crazy person." Su Yu Qing hit Mu Kuang He again.

"If she doesn't come out of her room, she definitely has a mental illness. Her body is recovered but she still does not want to come out." Mu Kuang He said.

Mu Kuang He did not fond of his second sister. When they were younger, his second sister liked to bully him. Snatching his favourite toy, hiding his homework until the teacher was angry at him, eating his favourite dessert, telling their mother that he was the one who broke their mother's favourite vase but she was the one who did it. There were a lot of them. It could not be counted by hands.

When his second sister have a strange illness, he was secretly happy about that. It must be the work of someone who hated his second sister so much.

His second sister liked to bully the girls that she thought were more beautiful than her. She could not stand that. She bullied many girls.

He remembered that a girl. She was indeed beautiful. More way better than his second sister. She was in the same grade as his second sister. As always, his second sister started to bully the girl.

The methods that his second sister used were very extreme. In the end, the girl was ruined. The school life that was supposed to be happy turned out to be a living hell for the girl. Since she could not stand the bully, she took her own life.

However, there was no single news regarding the poor girl. The girl was from a poor family. She got into the elite school because of the scholarship. She was very clever. She was studying hard to improve her life and her family life.

But because of his second sister's jealousy, the girl's good life was ruined. Even so, his second sister did not feel any remote as to what she had done.

Mu Kuang He felt that it was karma. His second sister should be thankful that she was still alive. Just her appearance ruined. But he felt that could be fixed using nowadays technologies.

Chapter 1133: Little Ray

"Great-Grandpa, look who's coming." Dian Qi Qi shouted at the training room.

Grandpa Ray told them that Great-Grandpa Dian was in the training room. Since Dian Qi Qi's voice was super loud, everyone turned in their direction. That was including Great-Grandpa Dian too.

"Yu Qi!" Great-Grandpa Dian was delighted to see Yu Qi.

"Great-Grandpa, how are you?" Yu Qi greeted Great-Grandpa Dian.

"Of course, I am fine. After your treatment, I feel I can live another hundred years." Great-Grandpa Dian laughed.

It was the truth though. Before Yu Qi's treatment, he felt his time would arrive soon. He just could wait for his death. Since he already lived long, he accepted his death.

After knowing the truth that someone that he treated like a brother poisoned him, he was devastated. However, he met Yu Qi that turned out to be his great-granddaughter, he felt the world had forsaken him.

"It seemed there are a lot of people here." Yu Qi commented.

The last time she met with Long Hui, there were fewer people there.

"Oh, everyone is our family disciple. Everyone, let me introduce you. This is my other great-granddaughter, Tang Yu Qi." Great-Grandpa Dian said to the people.

The people did the deep bow to Yu Qi. "Nice to meet you, Young Miss Tang Yu Qi."

Yu Qi was blinking several times. She did not expect to be greeted like that.

"Nice to meet you." Yu Qi replied.

"They are going to join the competition too." Great-Grandpa Dian said.

"I see." Yu Qi nodded.

"Let's talk inside. Everyone, practice what I taught earlier. Henry, you take over." Great-Grandpa Dian ordered.

"Yes, Old Master." Everyone said including Henry.

Henry was the one who was suspicious of Yu Qi. However, after knowing that Yu Qi was the great-granddaughter of Great-Grandpa Dian, he treated Yu Qi with ultimate respect.

The three of them went to the room. Grandpa Ray appeared with the tea and some refreshment. Yu Qi could not help to feel impressed with Grandpa Ray. She wondered where to get someone like Grandpa Ray.

"Yu Qi, why do you looking at Ray like that?" Great-Grandpa Dian noticed the stare.

"Grandpa Ray is impressive. He knew what to do without you telling him." Yu Qi said.

"Thank you, Young Miss Yu Qi. It is because I stay by Old Master for a long time." Grandpa Ray smiled.

"That's right. Little Ray is very impressive." Great-Grandpa Dian chuckled.

"Old Master, you can't call me like that in front of Young Misses." Grandpa Ray said.

Yu Qi and Dian Qi Qi were laughing as well as Great-Grandpa Dian.

"By the way, your fiancée does not come with you?" Great-Grandpa Dian asked.

"He did come. But due to her work, he needs to leave." Yu Qi explained.

"Oh, really? I thought if he comes, I can spar with him. He is a good seed." Great-Grandpa Dian could not help to feel disappointed.

Great-Grandpa Dian really liked Long Hui. Not only he was strong but he had a noble occupation. Great-Grandpa Dian really respected the occupation like a soldier.

"Great-Grandpa, do you know when the exact date of the competition?" Yu Qi asked.

She did come here because of that matter. She needed to know that to fit into her schedule. After that, she just needed to hope that nothing was more important than the competition on that day. Otherwise, she needed to skip the competition.

"Ray, when is the date?" Great-Grandpa Dian asked.

"It is 23rd June." Grandpa Ray answered after checking his phone.

"I see. I will clear my schedule for one week." Yu Qi recorded that.

Yu Qi said one week because according to Dian Shu Xian, the longest competition had been held in the past was one week.

"It is about right." Great-Grandpa Dian also agreed with that. "How about Hui er? Is he interested to join too?"

"Yes, he is also interested to join." Yu Qi said.

"I can not wait to fight with you, Sister Yu Qi." Dian Qi Qi said with excitement.

"I will not hold back." Yu Qi raised her eyebrows.

"Of course. I am also going to fight with my whole." Dian Qi Qi said. Then, she moved to another topic.

"By the way, how is the twin?"

Yu Qi remembered when Dian Qi Qi visited her house last time, Dian Qi Qi liked to go and see the twins. She liked to touch the soft cheek of the twins.

And also the twin seemed to be happy whenever Dian Qi Qi came and looked at them. They would make any sounds.

Su Xiao offered Dian Qi Qi to carry one of the twins. But Dian Qi Qi refused. She was afraid that she could not touch her strength and accidentally hurt the twin. She was satisfied just touching their soft cheek.

"They are fine. They just successfully managed to turn around." Yu Qi said.

Su Xiao was very happy to tell them that the twin managed to turn around. She record the moment and showed the video to others.

The most surprising thing, the twin managed to turn around at the same time. As expected by twin.

"Really? They must be cute." Dian Qi Qi said.

"I have the video here. Want to watch?" Yu Qi asked.

"Of course." Dian Qi Qi nodded.

Great-Grandpa Dian also wanted to watch the video. He had heard about the twin when Dian Qi Qi returned from her trip to Binhai Nation.

Chapter 1134: Negotiate The Contract With Mu Royal Hotel

Yu Qi stayed at Dian Family's house until the night. Great-Grandpa Dian wanted her to stay for the night but Yu Qi needed to refuse.

She told him that she had another appointment regarding her business. Hearing that, Great-Grandpa Dian nodded.

Yu Qi checked into a hotel and refreshed herself. She dressed up appropriately for the dinner. She would be meeting with the representative from Mu Royal Hotel tonight.

Su Fan told him that the dinner meeting would be held at Mu Royal Hotel Restaurant. She drove there. At the entrance, Su Fan was already waiting for her.

"Miss Yu Qi." Su Fan greeted Yu Qi.

"Hmm... Let's go in." Yu Qi said.

Yu Qi already knew the way. She went straight to the restaurant. Of course, she knew the way. She knew to manage the hotel in her past life.

"I am from YQ Greenhouse. I have a meeting with your Restaurant Manager. Did he inform you or anything?" Yu Qi asked the person at the counter.

"Wait a minute. Let me check it first." The person at the counter said.

She called someone and they talked a bit little. After two minutes, she ended the call.

"Miss Tang, I heard about your appointment. Let me lead you to the room." The person said. Then she talked to her partner at the counter to take care of the counter for a little bit.

Yu Qi and Su Fan followed her and they arrived at a private room.

"Miss Tang, please enter this room. Our manager will arrive soon." She made the way and led Yu Qi and Su Fan to enter the room.

"Thank you." Yu Qi nodded.

Both Yu Qi and Su Fan took a seat. Two minutes later, someone opened the room again. This time, it was a slightly fat man wearing a suit.

Su Fan's mouth was twitching. He gritted his teeth to prevent himself from laughing.

"Hello, Miss. I am Wang Kee Hee. The manager of the restaurant." Wang Kee Hee raised his hand to shake hands with Yu Qi.

Yu Qi acted professionally and shook her hand with Wang Kee Hee. Wang Kee Hee took this chance as an opportunity to touch Yu Qi's hand lewdly.

Yu Qi's eyes flashed a coldness before returning to a normal again.

Su Fan felt abnormal about this man. He also stood up.

"Mr Wang, I am Su Fan, the manager of YQ Greenhouse." Su Fan also raised his hand to shake hands with Wang Kee Hee making Wang Kee Hee need to let go of Yu Qi's hand.

Wang Kee Hee released Yu Qi's hand and shook hand with Su Fan.

"If you are the manager, is this your secretary then?" Wang Kee Hee smiled while looking at Yu Qi.

If this woman was a secretary, he could demand something for the negotiation. He could buy those ingredients at a higher price but there was one condition that Su Fan needed to sacrifice. Su Fan needed to give this beautiful secretary to him for a night.

"Of course not. She is my boss. The owner of the YQ Greenhouse." Su Fan said.

"Oh... I see." Wang Kee Hee smiled awkwardly. "Well, let's eat while we discuss about our deal, okay?"

"Sure." Yu Qi nodded.

Wang Kee Hee asked someone to bring the food to their room. 5 minutes later, their table was already full of the dishes.

"We bring our signature dishes. I hope you will like it." Wang Kee Hee said.

They ate while discussing the deal. Even though Wang Kee Hee acted lewdly toward her at first, he was very good at his work. Su Fan and Yu Qi felt it was a good deal for the greenhouse. The price that Wang Kee Hee offered was very good too.

"We will reach out to you later after deciding everything." Yu Qi said.

"I bring a good wine. Let's drink." Wang Kee Hee said.

He brought out the 'Domaine Georges & Christophe Roumier Les Amoureuses, Chambolle-Musigny Premier Cru wine.' As the waiter was about to pour the wine into Yu Qi's glass, Yu Qi rejected it.

"No. I could not drink. I am allergic to alcohol." Yu Qi said.

"Oh, really? Not a single sip?" Wang Kee Hee asked.

"Yeah. So, thank you. He can drink, I guess." Yu Qi glanced at Su Fan.

"Yeah. I can drink." Su Fan nodded.

Su Fan was a little confused at first. He had seen Yu Qi drink alcohol first when they were dining together. She did not have an allergy to alcohol. However, when he thought about that, he remembered something.

Yu Qi became drunk after a sip. And she was a terrible drunker. He remembered what Yu Qi said at that time.

'I am drinking right now because my Hui is with me. Otherwise, I will not take a single sip.'

Yeah, it was because Long Hui was there that she could drink. She drank the alcohol because Long Hui was there to take care of her.

This time, she could not drink the alcohol. She did not want to be drunk.

The waiter poured the wine into Su Fan's glass.

"Hmm... The taste is very delicious." Su Fan nodded.

He was the second generation of a rich family. He had tasted some expensive wines in the past. This wine was very good.

"Of course." Wang Kee Hee was proud. "I really hope that we could be working together in the future."

Chapter 1135: Meet Mu Yian On The Way

The dinner was finished. Wang Kee Hee personally escorted them out.

On the way, they saw a familiar face.

"Eldest Young Miss." Wang Kee Hee greeted Mu Yian.

That's right. It was Mu Yian.

"Hmm..." Mu Yian responded to Wang Kee Hee's greet. Her eyes then moved to Yu Qi. "Never thought to see Doctor Tang here."

Wang Kee Hee was a little bit confused. 'Doctor?'

"I have some matter here." Yu Qi replied.

Wang Kee Hee was shocked. 'This woman is a doctor, then just now? What happened?'

"Oh, I remembered that our restaurant try to reach out to YQ Greenhouse to supply the vegetables to our restaurant. I forget that greenhouse is yours." Mu Yian said.

"Yeah. We just finished with the negotiation with Mr Wang here." Yu Qi pointed to Wang Kee Hee.

"I see. By the way, can you go and check on my second sister again? She is still staying in her room, did not want to leave." Mu Yian changed the topic.

"As for my concern, my duty over there is already completed. Her body is already healed from the wound here. As for she did not want to leave her room, you can not ask me to treat her. You can ask for a plastic surgeon to treat her scars." Yu Qi said without considering where she was.

Mu Yian's eyes flashed coldness. 'This woman dared to say that Mu Second Daughter's face is ruined in the public.'

Wang Kee Hee was also surprised to hear that. No wonder Second Young Miss had been seen for a while. But this Tang Yu Qi seemed to have a grudge against Mu Family. Was that okay to proceed with this control? He wondered about that.

"It's late. I need to return." Yu Qi said.

Without waiting for any response, Yu Qi walked past Mu Yian. Su Fan also followed her. He was thinking about something. He also felt that his boss seemed to dislike Mu Yian.

Of course, he knew Mu Yian. She was a high class woman that a man wanted. She was beautiful, mature and have a very good family background. Many men admired her including him in the past. However, after meeting with Yu Qi, he feel Mu Yian could not be compared with Yu Qi.

"Don't forget another appointment tomorrow." Yu Qi reminded Su Fan.

"Yes, boss." Su Fan nodded.

"I am leaving." Yu Qi left.

Yu Qi wanted to stop by somewhere to buy something for her little cuties. While driving, she saw a bakery that was still open. She stopped the car and went to the bakery.

"Welcome." The staff of the bakery greeted their customer warmly.

"May I help you, Miss?" The staff asked.

"May I know how much is the red velvet cake?" Yu Qi pointed to the cake in the glass display.

"It is 10 dollars per slice and 70 dollars for a whole cake. It is a little bit expensive but I can guarantee you that it is very delicious." The staff explained.

Yu Qi was thinking at the moment. If she bought one slice, it would not be enough for Bo Ya.

"Give me the whole cake. This cake and this cake." Yu Qi pointed to another too. It was vanilla cake.

"You mean one whole red velvet cake and one whole vanilla cake?" The staff was confirming the order.

"Yes. Two whole cakes." Yu Qi nodded.

The cake could be stored in the refrigerator in her space. It would not go bad. And she never thought it would go bad since Bo Ya could finish them. That stomach was bottomless for the sweet.

"Thank you for your purchasing." The staff said before Yu Qi left.

Before leaving, Yu Qi had time to ask about the food store about.

The staff told her that there would be food street vendors 200 meters ahead. Yu Qi thanked the staff and left the bakery.

She drove as the staff told her. And she saw a bunch of street vendors selling a lot of things including the food. She parked her car and walked to the vendor.

She saw a vendor that sold a chicken. She went to that vendor.

"Please give me a whole chicken." Yu Qi said to the owner.

"Sure." The man started preparing Yu Qi's order.

"Are you alone, Young Miss?" The man asked.

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded.

"Then, you should be careful. This place is a bit dangerous for a girl. Especially a beautiful girl like you." The man said.

"Why?" Yu Qi asked.

"Oh, what we have here." Someone said.

The chicken man frowned as he looked at the group of men who arrived in front of his vendor.

"Ging Man. Don't disturb my customer." The chicken man said.

"Hi, beautiful girl. I am Ging Man. May I know your name?" Ging Man smiled at Yu Qi.

Yu Qi understood what the man said earlier. It must be this man who used to disturb other women who came here.

"My surname is Tang. What do you want from me?" Yu Qi asked.

"Let's have fun tonight. I will let you go tomorrow." Ging Man said.

"You used your face to say something like that to other women too?" Yu Qi glanced at Ging Man's face.

Ging Man became angry when this fearless woman dared to say such a thing about him in front of his face. This woman needed to be taught some lessons.

Chapter 1136: I Want To See Your Fiancee Too

"Guys, catch this girl." Ging Man said to his friends.

However, his friends have already fallen to the ground.

"Such a weak man." Yu Qi clicked her mouth.

Ging Man was shocked to see five of his friends become like that. He immediately became afraid of this woman.

"What? Do you want to fight with me? Then come on." Yu Qi looked at Ging Man.

"You..." Ging Man gritted his teeth.

This was the first time that he had been humiliated like that. Usually, when he fancied a woman, that woman could not fight back even though she had been protected by a man. He would beat the man and take the woman.

Even though the man had reported him to the police, they would not be going to do anything to him since he had some connection with the police. The current situation was quite different right now. This woman dared to beat his friend.

"What? Are you back out now?" Yu Qi asked.

"You... Just wait. Everyone, let's go." Ging Man said.

He wanted to run away from the place, afraid he would be the one laying down on the street if he waited for more longer. Seeing his friends still struggle to get up, Ging Man left the place immediately.

Seeing this, his friends frowned. However, they did not say anymore. Their bodies were still hurt.

The onlookers clapped their hands watching Yu Qi chase the troublemakers away. They did not expect that the girl would be so strong as that.

"Uncle, have my order complete?" Yu Qi went back to the street vendors that sold the chicken.

"Oh... wait for a moment." The chicken man was mesmerised while he watched Yu Qi beat up those men, he forgot to do the girl's order.

He immediately started packing the chicken into the box. After that finished, he called the girl again. Yu Qi took the box and paid the money.

"Thank you, uncle." Yu Qi nodded.

"Hmm... Be careful on your way." The chicken man replied.

Then Yu Qi returned to the hotel. It seemed Long Hui would not be returned tonight seeing the room was still empty. She entered the space to give the food to her three cuties.

....

Long Hui checked his gears. Completed. The mission was to catch the members of the Suman group and seized weapons from those men. Long Hui's team would be teamed up with another team from Fanghai Nation.

A man came and greeted Long Hui. "Hi, Long Hui. Long time no see."

"Yes." Long Hui said one word and nodded.

"You are still like this." This man was Song Qiuping, a soldier from Fanghai Nation.

He knew Long Hui when the nations held the military training between Binhai and Fanghai. He was also a promising soldier in their military.

"I wonder if anyone would like you like this." Song Qiuping sighed.

"Sir Song, our Senior Colonel is already engaged to someone." One of Long Hui's subordinates said.

"Oh... really? It must be the family arrangement, right?" Song Qiuping could not believe a man like Long Hui would love a woman.

"You might not believe it. But, our Senior Colonel found his fiancée by himself. He loves her very much. And the woman is very beautiful." Long Hui's subordinate said again.

"What? Aren't you lying?" Song Qiuping was shocked. "Do you have any pictures? Long Hui, show me. I want to see your fiancée too."

Long Hui looked at Song Qiuping with an annoyed face. "Why do I have to show my Qi Qi to you? Get lost."

Song Qiuping was surprised. Long Hui seemed to love his fiancée so much. Looked at him, calling a woman's name intimately. 'Qi Qi...' Song Qiuping was really looking forward to meeting with his fiancée.

The raid was about to start. Their target tonight was the abandoned warehouse in the southern city near the sea. It was a perfect place to store the weapons before transferring them using the sea routes.

Long Hui was the leader of the raid. He told others to surround the warehouse silently before giving orders to enter the warehouse. The people inside were shocked when seeing they had been surrounded.

However, as the weapon mercenary, they had been prepared for the unpredictable situation. They immediately grabbed their weapons and fought the intruders. So, there had been multiple gunshots between the two parties. The showdown was held about one hour before the soldiers managed to subdue the Soman group.

Vincent from the Soman group, the person in charge of this tonight's mission gritted his teeth when he saw Long Hui come out of the place where Long Hui had been hiding.

"IT IS YOU AGAIN, LONG HUI," Vincent shouted to Long Hui.

"Yes. It is me again." Long Hui replied.

That reply really made Vincent angry. Vincent knew Long Hui from the previous missions. Long Hui always intercepts their mission making the Suman group lose millions of money.

Usually, he managed to escape from Long Hui. Tonight, he was not so lucky. Who knew this devil would be here, at Fanghai Nation's tonight?

"Why are you here?" Vincent asked angrily.

"It is a coincidence." Long Hui said casually.

That reply made Vincent become angrier. Tonight, he was supposed to transfer the weapon to Country A. It was really unfortunate that Suman Group would lose 10 million on this deal. And to be more worsen, he, Vincent had been caught by the devil. How flustered. He knew he was doomed.

Chapter 1137: Don't Make Me Tired

Long Hui handled everything for Song Qiuping since it was his mainland. Long Hui did not want to waste more time here. He needed to return to his beloved Qi Qi.

"Long Hui, since tonight's mission is a success. Let's go and celebrate." Song Qiuping just completed his report to his superior.

"No. I need to return." Long Hui rejected.

"What, not like you can return to Binhai at this hour." Song Qiuping said.

"I need to return to Min City. My fiancée is over there." Long Hui said.

"What? She is here at Min City?" Song Qiuping was surprised.

When he looked back at Long Hui, Long Hui already disappeared. So, it was the truth when he said it was coincident that he was in Fanghai Nation. Was he following his fiancée here to enjoy life? Song Qiuping could not imagine the expression on Long Hui's face.

.....

"Master, someone is in your room." Bo Ya warned Yu Qi.

"Huh? Who?" Yu Qi frowned.

Yu Qi was in the space together with Bo Ya, Shino and Aoi. The three little cuties were just finished eating their dinner.

"Oh, it is your man, Master." Bo Ya informed Yu Qi.

"Oh, he must just return. I will go out and pick him up." Yu Qi said.

Long Hui just entered the room. His beloved Qi Qi must be in her space. So, he decided to take a shower and went to bed.

Then, he had been hugged so sudden. He wanted to retaliate. But his hand stopped when he saw the girl.

"You scared me." Long Hui sighed.

"Oh, I manage to scare you." Yu Qi was delighted when hearing that.

"I almost injured you." Long Hui sighed again.

Long Hui heard Yu Qi laugh.

"Have you finished your business?" Yu Qi asked.

"Hmm...." Long Hui replied.

"Well, then let's go inside the space and refreshed yourself. I will cook something simple for you." Yu Qi said.

One second later, they were inside the space. Yu Qi pushed Long Hui into the bathroom to clean himself. After that, Yu Qi went to the kitchen. She looked through the refrigerator and saw a can of spicy tuna. It would be delicious to eat with the bread. She could make some sandwiches.

Yu Qi thought Long Hui would be awhile in the bathroom but she did not expect that he would be out within 15 minutes. Long Hui hugged Yu Qi while she was preparing the sandwich.

"What are you doing?" Long Hui asked.

"Make a sandwich for you. Here eat this." Yu Qi gave one piece to Long Hui.

Long Hui took and eat it.

"I have a business lunch tomorrow." Yu Qi suddenly said.

"Oh... okay." Long Hui's cold eyes flashed a glint.

"I need to wake up in the morning." Yu Qi said again.

She wanted to press the different meanings of Long Hui. She did not want to wake up tired.

"Oh... I see..." Long Hui smiled.

...

Yu Qi glared at Long Hui, the culprit for her tiredness. She already told him that she had a business lunch today. Long Hui coaxed her to do it twice. Since it was only two times, Yu Qi agreed.

But she never expected that each time would be within three hours. Long Hui really knew how to control his desire. And he still looked energised. It was really unfair.

Even though he knew that his beloved Qi Qi was angry with him, Long Hui still shamelessly followed her. Of course, he could not let Yu Qi alone since he had time to accompany her even though she was angry.

They went to Starmoon Hotel after Su Fan arrived. The three of them went straight to their restaurant. However, while on the way to the restaurant, Yu Qi told Long Hui that she wanted to use the toilet. Long Hui followed her and waited right outside the toilet. Su Fan said he would go to the restaurant first.

Everyone who saw the handsome man waiting outside the toilet brushed. What was he doing here? They asked in their mind since they did not have the courage to ask the handsome man directly.

But not for Ling Yizhu. Her eyes were shining when she saw Long Hui. She immediately approached Long Hui.

"Hi, Mister. Are you waiting for someone?" Ling Yizhu said.

Long Hui looked at Ling Yizhu for one second and ignored her after that. Ling Yizhu smiled. She did not give up just because this man ignored her. She was confident that this man would look in her direction.

Before she managed to say more, Ling Yizhu saw another woman come out of the toilet.

"Let's go." Yu Qi said to Long Hui.

"Hmm..." Long Hui replied.

Ling Yizhu's expression changed a little bit. Turned out, the handsome man already had his girlfriend.

Yu Qi noticed Ling Yizhu's eyes on them.

"Is there anything you want to say to us?" Yu Qi asked.

Ling Yizhu smiled. "No... Nothing."

"Okay." Yu Qi and Long Hui left and went to the kitchen.

They saw Su Fan waiting outside the restaurant. Like before, Yu Qi informed the waiter that she had an appointment with the manager of the restaurant. The waiter called his supervisor for confirmation.

Then after getting the instruction from his supervisor, the waiter led Yu Qi and Long Hui to a private room. They went in and got seated. Of course, Long Hui sat next to Yu Qi.

Chapter 1138: Paid Gigolo

The next moment, two people walked into the room. It was the manager, Chu Zhixing and Ling Yizhu that they met just now.

Ling Yizhu was also surprised to see those two people that she met earlier. They did not expect that they would be the people that had the meeting with them.

Yu Qi saw the earlier woman but did not say anything. As for Long Hui, he did not remember the woman because he did not pay much attention to others.

"Hello, I am Tang Yu Qi, owner of YG Greenhouse, and Su Fan, the person in charge of the greenhouse. As for him, you don't need to mind him. He is just accompanying me." Yu Qi did not want to introduce Long Hui because she could see that Ling Yizhu seemed eager to know Long Hui's name.

Ling Yizhu stiffened when she could not hear the handsome name. She looked at Long Hui but she could not see the anger on his face assuming that he did not angry with that.

Ling Yizhu felt injustice. Yu Qi should not be such a handsome man like that. Ling Yizhu already assumed that Long Hui was a paid gigolo in her heart because of that introduction.

If he wanted such money, she was also willing to hire him. With a handsome man by her side, she would be happy. She could look at the interaction between Yu Qi and Long Hui. Long Hui treated Yu Qi like a princess. She wanted to be treated like a princess too by such a handsome man like Long Hui.

Yu Qi and Long Hui did not know what Ling Yizhu thought about Long Hui. Yu Qi just could see that Ling Yizhu had been interested in Long Hui.

They started to negotiate the contract. Chu Zhixing was impressed with Yu Qi's skill. She knew what needed to be paid attention to when comes to hotel management.

"Do you work in the hotel management right now?" Chu Zhixing asked.

Sometimes, people had their side income. So, Chu Zhixing assumed that YG Greenhouse was Yu Qi's side business.

"No. I am a doctor." Yu Qi denied that.

"What? A doctor?" Chu Zhixing did not expect that. "The doctor that treats the patient?"

"Yes. I am a surgeon." Yu Qi did not understand why Chu Zhixing asked that.

"Oh... I thought you are from the same industry too. I mean... hotel management." Chu Zhixing explained when he saw the confused look on Yu Qi's face.

"I see. Well, I did learn about hotel management for quite some time." 'But in this lifetime, but the past life.' Yu Qi managed Mu Royal Hotel in her past life. So, she was quite familiar with hotel management.

"No wonder you know much about hotel management." Chu Zhixing was impressed. "So, do you agree with our price?" They were back to the main discussion.

"Yes. It is relevant. I agree with those prices." Yu Qi nodded.

"I will draft the contract according to your request." Chu Zhixing nodded.

It was an easy negotiation compared to Mu Royal Hotel last night.

On Long Hui's side...

Long Hui went out to the toilet. When he was about to head back to the room, he was stopped by the same woman in the room.

"Mr... Can I talk a little bit?" Ling Yizhu smiled.

Long Hui glanced at her for a moment and ignored her. He walked passed her.

"Wait." Ling Yizhu tried to grab Long Hu's hand.

Long Hui moved his hand, avoiding Ling Yizhu. "Don't touch me."

Ling Yizhu was speechless for a second. This gigolo...

"How much did she pay you? I will pay double." Ling Yizhu said.

Long Hui raised his eyebrows. It seemed this woman had misunderstood his identity.

"100 million. Can you double the amount?" Long Hui raised his chin.

Ling Yizhu was shocked to hear the amount. '100 million?' If she wanted to doubt the money, it would be 200 million. Even her annual salary would not achieve that much. How could she pay much amount?

"I forget to state the currency. It is USD." Long Hui continued his bullshit.

Ling Yizhu became more speechless. Then, she began to calm down that she would think rationally. However, when she wanted to look again at Long Hui, she could not find him anywhere. He must return to the room.

Yu Qi looked at Long Hui who returned home. Then, Yu Qi saw Ling Yizhu also came in. She could see the flustered look on Ling Yizhu's face. She was probably talking to Long Hui and got rejected ruthlessly by Long Hui.

They finished the negotiation. They left the hotel. Su Fan excused himself and left. The couple was left alone.

"What happen just now?" Yu Qi asked.

Ling Yizhu just stared at Long Hui with the intention that Long Hui would look at her back. But Long Hui ignored the stare and only focused on Yu Qi. His beloved Qi Qi must notice that.

"She thinks that I am a gigolo." Long Hui stated.

That statement made Yu Qi stumble and almost fell to the ground. Long Hui caught her and stabilised her.

"Are you okay?" Long Hui asked.

"I am okay. I was just surprised to hear that." Yu Qi meant the gigolo part. "Why did she think that?"

"I guess the way you introduce me to them. That makes her think I am a gigolo." Long Hui said.

Chapter 1139: Such A Laser Mouth

Yu Qi thought for a moment. "I guess I was the wrong too. So, what happens next?"

"She asked how much you pay me and said that she would pay me double. I said 100 million USD and she could double that." Long Hui stated.

Like Ling Yizhu, Yu Qi was speechless to hear this for the first time.

"What if she has that amount of money?" Yu Qi asked.

"If she has that amount of money, she would not be anyone's employee. She could be the employer. And even if she had that amount and want to pay that, I also have the right to choose. How could I choose such an ugly woman like her? After meeting with you, my standard has risen. Well, even Yue is more beautiful than her." Long Hui chuckled.

Yu Qi was speechless that way Long Hui insulted Ling Yizhu. She did not expect Long Hui had such a laser mouth. It was very refreshed to hear Long Hui say something like that.

"Are you angry when she says you are a gigolo?" Yu Qi said.

"Even though, I am your only gigolo." Long Hui made a seduced face.

"Okay.... okay... I know... Stop making such a face." Yu Qi shook her head and turned in other directions.

.....

They returned to Binhai Nation. They went to visit Great-Grandpa Dian once before returning. As expected Long Hui ended up sparring with Long Hui once. Even so, he was happy to spar with Great-Grandpa Dian.

He also expressed his willingness to join the martial arts competition that would be held later on. Great-Grandpa Dian had high expectations of Long Hui. After spending half a day in Dian House, they headed back to Binhai Nation.

As for the contract with Mu Royal Hotel and Starmoon Hotel, Su Fan would be signing those contracts. However, Yu Qi would be checking those contracts first via email before Su Fan could sign them. She did not want to find a loophole that could make her lose the profit.

"Doctor Yu Qi, you have a patient." The nurse knocked on the door and informed Yu Qi.

"Hmm... Ask them to enter now." Yu Qi said.

"Okay." The nurse nodded and called the name.

A woman came in together with her child. The child was probably in his elementary school.

"Doctor, please look at my son." The woman said.

"Hmm... first, please sit down and explain to me what the problem is." Yu Qi said.

She had seen many times this kind of patient. A mother who is very worried about her children. So, she wanted the mother to calm down and explained the problem properly. The mother nodded and tried to calm down.

"My son come back from playing soccer complaining that his leg was hurting. We tried to find anything such as a wound or something but could not find anything." The mother explained.

Yu Qi nodded several times. "I see." She then turned to the little boy.

The boy immediately became shy when seeing the beautiful doctor look at him.

"Little boy, can I check your leg?" Yu Qi asked.

The little boy nodded shyly.

"May I know which one of your legs hurt?" Yu Qi asked again.

"The right one." The little boy said.

"Okay. I will check your leg first, okay." Yu Qi began to check the leg.

As the mother said, there was nothing on the leg. It was normal. Then Yu Qi said to touch the leg. To be precise, she was checking the bones.

"Madam, did your son injure his leg before?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yeah. He broke his leg before." The mother stated.

"So, did he do intensive activities after he hurt himself? Like kicking the ball?" Yu Qi inquired again.

When the mother heard this, her eyes gleamed. "How did you know?! He loves playing soccer and he hurt his leg playing soccer. He ran out to play again right after the injury healed. As soon as he came home, he started complaining that his leg hurt."

"Well, the bones take 100 days to completely heal." Yu Qi sighed. She already knew what the cause was.

"Fracture healing can generally be divided into three stages. The first stage is called the hematoma organizing stage. Within six to eight hours after the fracture, the hematoma begins to form clots, capillary hyperplasia, various fibrocytes invade, and hematoma occurs. The granulation tissue becomes fibrous connective tissue, which initially connects the fracture ends. This period lasts about two to three weeks after the fracture. This period is what he is in now." Yu Qi raised her hand and patted the little boy's head.

"The second stage is called the primitive callus formation stage. The fibrous connective tissue at the fractured end is ossified through the proliferation, degeneration, and calcification of chondrocytes. This is endochondral ossification. This period generally takes four to eight weeks.

The third period is called the callus reconstruction period. This period takes between eight and 12 weeks. It usually takes about three months from the beginning of the fracture to the bones reconnecting. Therefore, saying that it takes 100 days to heal your injured muscles and bones makes sense." Yu Qi explained.

The mother did not understand much about the terms that Yu Qi used. "My son is not healed yet, then?"

"Your son is basically in the second stage. His bones are not completely healed. He needs to rest from intensive activities such as soccer for about 3 to 4 months." Yu Qi simplified the explanation.

Chapter 1140: Thought Yu Qi Would Not Understand The Contract

"I'll prescribe another medicine for your son. Please take care of him." Yu Qi said.

"Yes, Doctor." The mother nodded.

Yu Qi then turned to the boy. "Little boy, you can not play soccer for 4 months. Otherwise, you will be crippled. Your leg will be useless. You can not walk on your own. And you can't play your soccer anymore."

"Sister, you can scare me like that." The little boy said.

"I am saying the truth. Listen to your mother and eat the medicine on time. You can play soccer as long as you want after your leg is completely healed. Can you promise me?" Yu Qi raised her hand to make a pinky promise to the little boy.

"Can I meet you again after this?" The little boy asked.

"Of course. But don't get yourself hurt just because you want to meet me, understand?" Yu Qi said.

"Okay." The little boy made a pinky promise to the little boy.

Later, Yu Qi would know that the little boy grew up to be a doctor just because of her. Well, it was in the future.

The mother and the little boy left the hospital.

After that, Yu Qi checked her email. Su Fan sent the copy of the contract that they got from those two hotels.

She downloaded the contracts and went through all of the contents. She checked all details that they discussed previously in their last meeting.

She was satisfied with Starmoon's contract. They really drafted the contract as per the discussed terms. However, it was not the same for Mu Royal Hotel.

Even though the sentences looked normal, it was a trap. She already faced this kind of situation before.

In her past life, it was her first time drafting a contract with a supplier. Since she did not know much, she went to ask the director that worked longer before. She asked his opinion. He taught her about that.

Yu Qi listened to his teaching. But she did not know that the director preferred Mu Yian more than her. So, he wanted Yu Qi to be screwed.

If the contract screwed, the upper management would be questioning Yu Qi as their heir to the company. Yu Qi's position would be in danger.

Luckily, Yu Qi went to see Grandpa Mu and showed the contract draft. Grandpa Mu frowned as he saw the contract. He immediately asked Yu Qi who taught her to do this. Yu Qi answered honestly.

The next moment, the director was fired. Turned out, that the investigation already had been made. The director accepted the bribe and sold some of the data information to other companies making him spy cooperation.

After that, Grandpa Mu groomed Yu Qi by himself. He could not trust other people. It was better to groom the heir by himself.

Yu Qi emailed Su Fan back saying the contract from Starmoon Hotel could be signed immediately. It was different to Mu Royal Hotel. Yu Qi marked the content that she thought needed to be revised.

Yu Qi told Su Fan that if Mu Royal Hotel could not draft the contract as per discussed earlier, it was okay. But YQ Greenhouse would not have cooperated with Mu Royal Hotel anymore.

Yu Qi did not care about whether Mu Royal Hotel was from Mu Group or not. She would not back off. Mu Royal Hotel must be thought that she would not understand the behind meaning of the sentences since they thought she was a doctor. She had proven they were wrong.

As expected, the Mu Royal Hotel manager was a little panicked when receiving such a response from Yu Qi. He did not expect that Yu Qi would retaliate like that.

It was as Yu Qi predicted. The manager thought Yu Qi was a doctor and would not find the loophole in the contract. However, Yu Qi did.

They needed YQ Greenhouse because the fruit and vegetable from YG Greenhouse had a high demand from the customers. The food that used the goods from YQ Greenhouse became very delicious.

The manager began to correct the contract and drafted it as per discussed in the last meeting. He did not dare to play tricks anymore.

After getting the revised contract from Mu Royal Hotel, Su Fan emailed the draft to Yu Qi for her to check the contract. This time, Yu Qi was satisfied with the content.

Yu Qi told Su Fan to proceed to sign the contract. With two 5 star Hotels cooperating with YQ Greenhouse, everyone else started to pay attention to YG Greenhouse.

.....

The time went past so quickly. It was Grandpa Tang's birthday again. It was the 65th birthday. The family wanted to hold a party for the celebration.

The party would be held at the 5-star Hotel in the city. They did not want to hold the party at their house. Because they did not want strangers to enter their house.

Even though they just invited the people that they knew, they could not fully trust them. Who knew what was inside their mind. They might have an impure design. Having the risk in mind, they decided to hold the party at the hotel. Not like they could not afford that.

Tang Family invited the people that they knew. Of course, everyone wanted to join the party since Grandpa Tang was a legendary Doctor even though he was already retired. They also invited people from other nations as well.
