Chapter 121: Flirting Around

Everyone listened to Long Hui's speech. He explained about the regulations in the military camp. They must follow the regulations if not, they would be punished with military punishment.

'Master, it's Long Hui.' Bo Ya suddenly spoke to Yu Qi.

'So what?' Yu Qi replied back to him.

'Master must be happy seeing him.'

Yu Qi coughed after listening to Bo Ya. Everyone turned to her. Long Hui also looked at his beloved. He wondered why she suddenly coughed.

"Are you okay?" Vice-captain Jung Xi Wan asked out of concern.

"Yes. I'm fine." Yu Qi whispered to him.

The small interaction between Yu Qi and that man did not miss from Long Hui's eye. His aura changed a little bit. The club members noticed the changes. Their commander looked like he was angry about something.

Long Hui finished his speech. It was dinner time. Along with the soldiers, the club members joined them for dinner. Yu Qi sat together with the female soldier. They having their dinner. Aoi also had his dinner together with the other military dogs.

After that, they had some roll call before went back to their room. It was a basic procedure in the military. After confirming their numbers, they were allowed to go back for the night.

6 a.m in the morning, Yu Qi woke up. She could see that some of the female's soldier already woke up. She went to the toilet to refresh herself. Done with it, Yu Qi changed her clothes.

She went to one of the female soldiers. "Sister, where are you going now?"

"We are going for jogging."

"Can I follow you?"

"We are going to the mountain. It is not good for you to follow us."

"I will be fine."

"It's up to you. We will not wait for you if you left behind."

"Okay." Yu Qi turned to Aoi. "Let's go."

Yu Qi followed the female soldiers into the mountain. She steady keep up the pace with them. After a long time jogging, well should be called climb up the mountain, she still not out of the breath.

Even some of the soldiers were already out of the breath. They were impressed with this girl. Ding Guan Ye approached her.

"You are not tired?" Ding Guan Ye asked her.

"Not yet. Why Sister Guan Ye?"

"I can see you are not out of breath. I'm impressed. I really don't think that you will keep up with us and even better." Ding Guan Ye said with a smile.

"I grow up near the mountain. It was my playground. That is the reason." Yu Qi said. It was some truth and lie.

"I see." Ding Guan Ye nodded.

"I thought you are some kind of typical young miss of a rich family. Looking from your face." One soldier heard her conversation with Ding Guan Ye interrupted them.

"Well, recently I was been adopted by a rich family." Yu Qi smiled a little.

"Eh, so, you are..."

"I'm an orphan." Yu Qi had gained sympathy from other female soldiers by saying that.

"Owh, I see. No wonder."

"But, thinking to the bright side. You get a rich family now."

"Hahaha...Thank you, sisters."

"Okay sisters. It's about time for morning roll call. We should go back now. Increase the pace." Ding Guan Ye ordered.

Fifteen minutes later, they arrived at the roll call place. The club members already there. The roll morning began. After that, they could take the breakfast.

Yu Qi sat among her club members. She could see some of the members looked tired. She asked one of the tired members.

"Why are you look lifeless?"

"I can't sleep. The snore was very noisy. And the worst part, it was not only one person."

"My condolences." Yu Qi could not help them if that was the problem.

Yu Qi did not aware that she was been watched by a jealous man.

Long Hui always watching Yu Qi. He was jealous of the boy that sat beside her. Then he turned to that boy. He was thinking about what's kind of thing he wanted that boy do after this. The boy felt cold at his back. He wondered what was it.

The breakfast finished. The soldier started doing their own routine. Only the shooting club members left in the dining room. They waited for Long Hui's order.

"We going to start our training right now. We will go running into the mountain about 4km before we are back to the camp. Now, let's move outside and form two lines. You, stand front." Long Hui ordered while pointing to Yu Qi.

They followed his order quickly. Yu Qi was standing in the first row.

"We will do some warming up first." Long Hui ordered his subordinate to construct the warming up. 30 minutes later, they finished warming up. Then Long Hui went beside Yu Qi. "Go to the back." He ordered Vice-captain Jung Xi Wan who standing beside Yu Qi to move to another spot.

Vice-captain Jung Xi Wan followed their commander's order without knowing their commander's other intention. Yu Qi rolled her eyes seeing Long Hui who seemed happily standing beside her.

Knowing Yu Qi was looking at him, Long Hui turned around and quickly winked to her. Yu Qi backed off. 'This man just wants to flirt with me by taking Vice-captain spot.' Other members could not see their flirtation because they were standing behind them.

Without changing his flirtation expression, he ordered the club members to start running. Even though they did not talk to each other, Long Hui gave some teasing look to Yu Qi.

Chapter 122: Hell Training

Running semi-vertically was really tiring to the club members. All of them seemed to catch up with their breath expect Captain Hang Ru Yen and the shocking is Vice-captain Jung Xi Wan. He looked like he was a carefree man but he had trained his body very seriously.

They reached an area that looked like been taken care of someone. It was free of the trees. Long Hui ordered them to rest for thirty minutes before going back to the camp. Everyone sat on the ground. Their bodies very tired. They used to run about five to six kilometers. But now estimated the distance might only 4 kilometers, they already felt tired to run.

Yu Qi did not sit first. She just stood in one place. Looking for the area. Long Hui moved to her side. The club members curiously looked at them.

"Feeling surprised?" Long Hui ignored the club members and started talking to his beloved.

"Yeah." Yu Qi answered shortly.

The club members were feeling weird hearing their commander talked to Yu Qi with very intimately tone.

"Should you at another camp?" Yu Qi's turn to ask him.

"Well..."

"You knew I'm going to come here?"

"Yes..."

"Oh." Yu Qi was feeling slightly happy when she was thinking about that.

Long Hui knew she would be coming here for the training so, he came here to see her.

"Happy?" Long Hui teased her. "I'm also happy to see you. Seemed you are doing great at the university." Long Hui moved closer to her and caress her face with a gentle smile on his lip.

Now the club members were flabbergasted with this situation. Their queen somehow knew their commander. They seemed to flirt each other. They were been feed with the dog foods. They started to whisper to each other.

"Remember, Yu Qi did tell that Bai Shu Jin that she had a boyfriend. This is her boyfriend?"

"No wonder she did not want to leave her boyfriend. That Bai Shu Jin already loses in term of handsomeness."

"Our commander is so handsome. If I'm a girl, I will fall in love with him."

"Owh, that was gay."

They were bickering each other. Long Hui could hear all the thing that they were talking about. Someone was tried to steal his beloved? Damn he. Dare to steal his beloved? Long Hui gave a cold smile. His eyes conveyed everything that he wanted to say.

Sensing Long Hui's aura became dangerous, she took an initiative to calm him down. She took Long Hui's hand and held them. Long Hui looked at Yu Qi. The dangerous aura was disappeared and a genuine smile appeared on his lip.

Yu Qi secretly thought it was so easy to calm down this man. Long Hui now caressed Yu Qi's hand. This was the first time that Yu Qi took the initiative to touch him.

Once again, the club members had been feed with the dog foods. Long Hui noticed the time, thirty minutes already ended. He ordered them to do the same formation that they entered the mountain. Of course, Long Hui stood beside Yu Qi. They were heading back to the camp.

When they were heading back to the camp, they felt it was a short time compared when they were started to run up to the mountain. Long Hui brought them to the shooting ground. According to Long Hui, he wanted to see them shot to the target. He wanted to see their standard.

So they were given a gun, standard military gun, to shot. Five people at the same moment shot the target. They had five chances to shot. The distance of the target was not so far. Quite similar to their distance of the target at the university. Maybe the target here different about ten to fifteen meter.

There were some soldiers who helped Long Hui collect the data. The observation started. Long Hui seriously analyzed the ability the shooting club members had. He could see some of them had great ability. Mostly the seniors of the club. They had been training for about three years. So they were mostly good.

It took about one hour for all of them to finish. The soldiers that helped data come and showed the data to Long Hui. They had discussed something. The club members had to wait. Then Long Hui asked them to make two lines. They stood up in the hot day. The sun was up.

Some of the soldiers came brought some bags. The soldiers who brought the bags started to distribute them four pieces of the bands. There were two hand bands and two ankle bands. Each of the bands weighed about 2 kilograms. The club members started to wonder about this.

"Everyone put the bands to your wrists and ankles." Long Hui ordered them.

They quickly put them. They could feel the sudden burden when they try to move their hands and legs.

"Starting from this moment, you must wear this band all the time. Except for your shower time." Long Hui said after seeing their expression.

They were shocked. Which meant they would have to sleep wearing these bands. Long Hui observed the expression of the shooting club members.

"You will see the result at the end of this week." Long Hui said.

The hell training began.

Chapter 123: Make You Stronger

Day two in the military started. Like yesterday, Yu Qi woke up and followed the female soldiers doing their morning exercise. Yu Qi felt a little bit tired due to the weight band that she wore.

At first, Yu Qi did not feel bothered about the band. But after a few moments, she started to feel something. Something that bothering her movement.

"Is that the weight band?" Ding Guan Ye noticed the band that Yu Qi hand been wearing.

"Yes, our commander asked us to wear this band." Yu Qi replied to Ding Guan Ye.

"I see. It can bring benefit to you. I also used to wear it during my junior year in the military. You will feel your body became strong after wearing it for a certain time." Ding Guan Ye tried to call the old time.

"How long that Sister Guan Ye wear this?"

"Five months." Ding Guan Ye answered her.

"I'm was a weak woman. So, in order to train my body to become stronger. I ended up wearing this for about two years. So, what is the weight of the band that you was wearing?" Another female soldier joined the conversation.

" Two kilometers."

"Owh, it was good for the beginner. I'm also started with a weight of two kilograms. Then for the next 3 months, I added one-half kilogram. So, I ended up carrying about 24 kilograms on my body. It's strengthened my body." The female soldier explained.

"I see. I will try to endure. It only a week." Yu Qi nodded several times.

....

Yu Qi looked at the club members. She could see that they struggled to move their hands and legs. She smiled. Vice-captain Jung Xi Wan approached her.

"Yu Qi, are you okay?" Showing his concern face, he asked.

He was worried about the only girl in the shooting club. Worried if she wanted to leave the shooting club after this hell training. The club would not be fun anymore.

"Vice-captain, don't worry. I'm okay." Answering her senior's question with a smile.

Vice-captain Jung Xi Wan felt his heart skipped a beat. His junior was so cute. 'Sigh...But looking for the situation, I will not have a chance.' He remembered seeing the interaction between their commander, Long Hui and Yu Qi. Came between them, it was suicide.

Yesterday, when the club members mention about someone confessed to Yu Qi in the university, making the Long Hui emitted the deadly aura. The aura that would kill his enemies if they were in front of him. However, Yu Qi took control to calm down him by just grabbing and holding his hands. It showed how influences Yu Qi had on Long Hui.

Not long after that, an order to start the morning running had been issued by Long Hui. They began to run using the same route yesterday. The running today was very terrible. The club members using their full power to reach the pointed area. With the weight in their limbs, they felt their body were very heavy.

Even though Yu Qi felt tired, she managed to maintain her speed. As for Long Hui, he was very impressed to see his beloved determined look to catch keep in the running.

Arrived the pointed area yesterday, with Long Hui's order, the club members quickly lie down facing the sky. The sweats appeared and were flowing down.

Yu Qi also sat down making up her tiredness. It was also pretty hard for her. She could feel the shaking from her limbs. Her body still had to adapt to the new load on her body. Guess it was same as other club members.

"Tired? It was Long Hui who been asking her.

" A little bit." She already felt this kind of tiredness before. So, feeling once again would not going to hurt her.

"It will help to impress your body."

This made Yu Qi thought Long Hui was different from other men. Other men would not let the woman that he loved suffered this kind of hardship. They rather wanted to protect his woman by shielding her behind him. Long Hui, on the other hand, encouraged her to endure the hand. Yu Qi also did not want to just stay behind him waiting to the danger to over. She wanted to fight it beside him.

"I analyzed the data from yesterday shooting. Your shooting, your posture was very good. The bullet landed to the target very accurate..." Long Hu paused and looked at Yu Qi's expression before continued, "Just from the data and observation, it looked like the result was coming from the person that undergoes a lot of practices."

Seemed the conversation began to turn into some serious. Yu Qi keeps her poker face. Ignoring what Long Hui had been talked about. Long Hui still curious about how she became a good shooter. Maybe better than him if he was looking from the night where she managed to shot the person in the middle of their forehead.

This curiosity made her was attracting to him.

Chapter 124: The Result

Long Hui observed Yu Qi yesterday and confirmed his suspicions. His beloved had been practicing a lot in the shooting. Her level already professional level. Even he was defeated by her.

"Well, I had been practicing a lot in the club. Even though it was only used BB bullets." Yu Qi made an excuse.

She could not let her space leaked to another human. They would see her as a specimen to dissect. They would try to know how that space became her belonging. Even she herself did not know how that space became her space.

Studying Yu Qi's face, he could detect that she was lying. He could see she did not want to talk about that topic. Not like he want to feel cautious about her but he had to. The nation had to be defended. He was afraid that Yu Qi was a spy from another nation.

However, from the investigation, all of Yu Qi stated to be clear. He had someone investigative all of Yu Qi's life. Nothing seemed to be normal. Not of them were out of common.

"So, you are a genius then." For now, Long Hui just had to believe her statement. Seemed she had a lot of secrets that she could not tell anybody. He would make sure that Yu Qi would reveal her secrets to him.

Long Hui decided to drop the topic. Now he wanted to flirt with her. He turned Yu Qi and looked at her with gentleness and playful eyes.

Yu Qi who also turned to Long Hui surprised when seeing the serious Lon Hui already gone. Beside her was flirtatious and playful Long Hui.

"I heard from some of the club members about the public confession. I also heard that you rejected him. I also heard you rejected him with the reason that you have a boyfriend. So, can I get to know about your boyfriend?" Saying layer by layer of words, he mentioned what he wanted to hear in the last sentences.

"I just lied to him so I don't have to accept him to be my boyfriend that all." Yu Qi blushed when she was answering those question.

How can she tell him that she was thinking about him when she lied to Bai Shu Jin, telling him that she had a boyfriend? It was so embarrassing.

Her red face was very cute on Long Hui's eyes. Even her neck and ear was red. He could tell the answer from her reaction. He just needed to make sure that she would admit it openly.

The club members watched their commander and queen interacted each other. They felt like they were watching the love drama. They already confirmed themselves that their queen already had her man even though she would not admit it openly.

The club member together with Yu Qi followed the manual training that Long Hui gave to them. It was very tough in the beginning but as Vice-captain Jung Xi Wan said, they must be preserved. Otherwise, they would undergo the punishment. Seeing the reactions from the old members of the shooting club, then the punishment was very terrible that everyone wanted to avoid it.

The schedule was very packed starting the second that day they were given the bands. It was not only training for shooting. It was content with running, strengthen the body, combat training plus self-defense, fight using the different weapons.

Long Hui still flirted with Yu Qi if he had the time for it. Sometimes, he talked to Yu Qi during the test of their running. All of the club members were given the dog's foods. Sometimes, he took the opportunity to hug her during her training shooting and combat training. He took all the opportunity to touch his beloved.

It was the last of the training. The club members had been informed to take off the band that they had been wearing. They took off the band. They could feel something different. Even though they took off the band during the shower and bath, but they were too tired to notice the changes that occurred in their body.

As Long Hui requested, the club members lined at the shooting ground to wait for their turn to shot. Those who already tried to shooting after removed the band felt the changes.

"Wow, my hand was not shaking much during aiming."

"I feel my body was very light and I can concentrate more."

"It was very effective wearing this band. Making our body stronger."

Everyone seemed happy with the result that they got after suffering so much doing all the scheduled training while wearing the weight bands. It was truly worth.

Yu Qi was delighted with this result. She could feel that her body was much stronger than before. Bo Ya also mentioned that. He told strengthen her body would help her to master the old martial arts that happen left from the previous masters of the space.

Chapter 125: The Last Day In The Military Camp

The training in the military camp was about to finish. They were packing up their things to go back to the university first before heading somewhere else for the mid-break.

Yu Qi also currently packing her things. She did not have many things from the beginning, so the packing process was very fast. She went to find the female soldiers that shared the room to say goodbye.

It was lunchtime. So she thought they might be at the canteen. Heading to the canteen, she stumbled upon Long Hui.

When Long Hui's eyes met his beloved, his legs automatically lead to her. It was the last day he was going to meet her like this. When could he meet her again?

"Where will you go after returning?" Long Hui could not help asking her.

"Well, I guess I will visit the Tang House at FINN City before going back to my grandfather at Shiwu Town." Yu Qi answered him.

"I see." Long Hui felt happy when he heard about her answer.

So, he still had the chances to meet her after this. He would be heading the Shiwu Town military camp. He only happened to be here, after heard news about the shooting club of Starlight University having an outside training. He knew his beloved would join the shooting club for sure.

Doing this was worth. He got to see his beloved. He got to flirt with his beloved. So it was very worth.

Long Hui grabbed and held Yu Qi's hand and heading to canteen. Yu Qi wanted to retreat back her hand but Long Hui would not give her to do so. So, they ended entering the canteen while Long Hui was holding her hand.

Yu Qi felt very embarrassed. She could feel that everyone's eyes were looked at their holding hands.

The club members did not react much as they already knew about those two. However, the soldiers did not know it. They were very shocked when Long Hui, iceberg Major who did not like standing close to women would holding a woman's hand on his own. They also could see that Long Hui was actually smiled. That man can smile? A real smile? Not a smile that can kill?

They also had thought that their Major was gay. This scene proved that was wrong. Spring for their Major already arrived. 'Banzai...Banzai...' They were cheering for their Major.

It was the male soldiers thought. It was different when came to female soldiers. Long Hui was a dashing handsome man, so it would be a lie if no one in the military camp did not admire him. He had a lot of admirers. Not only in this military camp but the whole military itself. So, Yu Qi was bounded to be subject of jealousy.

"How can she seduce our prince?" A female soldier who did not share the room with Yu Qi said the flustered sentence.

"Yeah. How dare she? What a slut!" Other added.

"It was Major Long's decision to like her. If you are unsatisfied with that decision, you can tell Major Long himself. I bet he will give you the reason why he like that girl." Ding Guan Ye said defending Yu Qi.

Others female soldiers that shared the room with Yu Qi also shared the same thought with Ding Guan Ye. They interacted with Yu Qi herself, so they could tell what kind of girl Yu Qi herself.

Others female soldiers that did not share the room with Yu Qi and the one who been said the things about Yu Qi just bite their tongues when they had been reprimanded by Ding Guan Ye to go to ask Long Hui himself. They would not dare. They knew their Major Long Hui did not like the female soldier unless the matter was highly important.

Ding Guan Ye sighed after she spoke to the female soldiers. She knew Major Long Hui was their idol but they could not say something like that about another woman. She really hated the woman that wanted to scheme another woman because of the man.

Ding Guan Ye knew the consequences because she was the victim of the petty scheme. Her mother was betrayed by her father because of another woman. Her father did love her mother even though it was an arranged marriage however due to that woman's scheme, her father hated her mother and forced her mother to sign the divorce paper without taking any cent from her father.

Also, that woman hated the children that birthed by her mother, so she asked her father to cut tie with her and her sister and signed the arrangement that she and her siblings would not have the right in inheriting her father's wealth. Well, she really did not care about that wealth. She could work, so that wealth was not important to her.

Looking at the female soldiers did not like their Major Long Hui acted intimately with Yu Qi, she sighed. Thank God that Yu Qi would be going back. The training already over. After lunch, Yu Qi would leave the camp. If not, she was afraid that something bad would happen to that girl.

Chapter 126 - 126: "Totally Dangerous" "Totally Cute"

All of the club members were waiting for the bus to come and took them back to Starlight University. Standing not so far from them was a man and woman.

Long Hui insisted to accompany Yu Qi waiting for her bus. He wanted to stay together. He had to appreciate the moment given to him.

"Do you have another job here?" Yu Qi asked. She did not want him to waste his time here for accompanying her here.

"Don't worry. I'm here in this camp to be your commander for your training. You are not leaving this camp yet. You are under my description of the job. So, to put it simple, it is my job." Long Hui slashed his smile.

Yu Qi could not let her eyes saw that smile. Her heart skipped a beat. 'Can he don't smile like that? My heart...My heart...' Yu Qi tried to clam down her heart.

Aoi just observed his master interacted with this man. Her master heartbeat always irregular beating fast than normal when coming to this man. Whether she talked or just thought about him.

Well, he did not mind because he did not do harm to Yu Qi. Not like that man, Bai Shu Jin. Only on their first meeting, he already made his master lost herself in hatred. However, he wondered what kind of relationship his master had with Yu Qi. He did not understand why did his master hate that man. But it was not his business. If his master wanted to tell him, he would lend the ear to her.

Long Hui felt someone keep his eyes on him. Felt been watched by someone was something normal to Long Hui. Long Hui could sense the real intention from that feeling. Whether killed or not. However, he could feel that this watcher only wanted to inspect him.

'Master, this man is really handsome.' Our cuties number one, Bo Ya appeared without notice.

Yu Qi just smiled. She already feeling hot. She knew that Long Hui was a handsome man. And that was very true.

'Master, what is handsome?' The cuties no. 2, Aoi joined their conversation.

'Handsome is a word that describes someone look. Handsome means that person has a good looking face.' Bo Ya gave an explanation of 'handsome' meaning.

'I see. So, this man is handsome.' Aoi seemed to nod from his movement.

Yu Qi chuckled when she heard her cuties talked to each other. And the topic was a little bit funny.

Long Hui saw Yu Qi seemed to dream day. The sudden feeling wanted to tease his beloved appeared. Long Hui poked Yu Qi's cheek. Yu Qi turned to Long Hui with a face with a little bit red.

"What?"

"Just to want you to come back to me."

"What do you mean?" Yu Qi was a little bit confused.

"You are about to daze. You should focus on me. We would not see each other for some times. So, we must time wisely. Don't you think so?" Long Hui said in an intimate tone.

Yu Qi swallowed her own saliva. 'This man did he know that he was seducing me right now?'

"My dear, did I look so handsome that you can't stop looking at me?" Long Hui teased her again.

Yu Qi moved her face. So embarrassing. She did end up admiring Long Hui's handsome. 'Can this man ignore that? Why did mention that to me?'

Yu Qi's face was hiding from him right now. But he could imagine what kind of face she would make right now. He saw her cute ear was red.

Then he smiled when he saw something. He reached for it. Touching her ear together with the earring that he gave her. Looking like it was matched with her ear. Her ear looked very cute making he wanted to bite it.

Yu Qi felt Long Hui touched her ear. His touch seemed to have an electric shock on it. Making her ear became more and redder.

Moving closer to Yu Qi's ear, Long Hui whispered, "Your ear is so cute. I want to have a taste when the right time arrives."

'Kya!!!!' Yu Qi screamed in her heart. 'This man is dangerous. Totally dangerous.' Touching her own ear, she moved a little bit far from Long Hui.

Long Hui laughed when he saw Yu Qi's reaction. 'Totally cute. She looked like a rabbit. Sigh~~~ When can I taste her?' Long Hui wanted to move further on their relationship but Long Hui wanted Yu Qi to accept him first. It was not a thing bad. He could tease her and enjoy her shy reaction.

"That blood jade earring look good on you." Long Hui praised her with the blood jade earring.

Yu Qi unconsciously reaching out for her blood jade earring. She wore this earring every day. Unlike the blood jade necklace that she brought, the necklace was not suitable to wear during this training. But earring was the different thing. It was small. So she liked to wear them.

"Thank you. I really like it." She smiled at Long Hui.

Those two keep flirting ignored the club members that sat not so far from them. They could see them and even heard some of the words that their commander and their queen said.

The first-year members looked embarrassing when they heard some of the conversations. They had been feed on the dog's food since the training started. And until the end, they still got feed with it.

They were determined to find their own girlfriend so that they would be the one who feeds other dog foods.

Chapter 127: Visit Tang House

Arriving in front of the Tang House, Yu Qi knocked on the gate. The gatekeeper came to see who had been knocking the gate. He quickly opened the gate after seeing the young miss.

This young miss was so amazing. Even though she was adopted by outside but everyone on the Tang Family doted her especially the Old Master Tang. Old Master Tang was very difficult to impress. Getting acknowledge from Old Master Tang meant this young miss totally amazing.

"Welcome home, young miss Yu Qi." The gatekeeper greeted her politely.

"Thank you, Uncle Lan Peng." Yu Qi thanked Uncle Lan Peng, the gatekeeper.

Uncle Lan Peng was very surprised that the young miss remembered the name belonged to an insignificant person. This made his impression of young miss got better.

Yu Qi walked to the main door. She was greeted by Steward Hang Ji Chang.

"Welcome home, Miss Yu Qi."

"Thank, Grandpa Hang. Did everyone home?" She asked about others whereabouts.

"Master Jang Qin, Madam Su Xiao, and Madam Ming Yue are currently in the living room. While Master Jung Wen, Young Master Han Lee, Young Master Jin Wei, and Young Master Qin Hao are at the hospital." Steward Hang Ji Chang told her about everyone.

Yu Qi went to the living room. Those who are in the living room surprised to see Yu Qi here. Ming Yue and Su Xiao were so happy that they stood up and pulled Yu Qi's hands.

"My dear, you are here." Ming Yue said with doting tone.

"I'm home, Auntie Ming Yue, Auntie Su Xiao, and Uncle Jang Qin." Yu Qi greeted all of them.

Tang Jang Qin nodded acknowledging Yu Qi. While her auntie pulled her to sit in between them.

"Is it semester break?" Tang Jang Qin asked.

"Yes, Uncle Jang Qin. The break started last week."

"Then why are you only here now?" Su Xiao wondered about that. Same goes to Ming Yue.

"My club had training for about one week. That why I'm only here today."

"Owh, I see. That could not help then." Ming Yue nodded. She just worried that Yu Qi went somewhere dangerous.

"What kind of club that you enter?"

Well, that are shooting club and martial arts club." Yu Qi gave an awkward smile.

There was a minute of silence. Yu Qi expected that her aunties did not like that. Yu Qi thought they might want her to enter some like a more feminine club.

"Oh, I see. It's wonderful." Su Xiao clapped her hands once.

"Huh?" Yu Qi confused about her aunties reaction.

"My dear, I don't mind which club you enter as long as you like that. We are not going to restrict you to do whatever you wanted to do." Ming Yue said with a gentle smile.

"I think it's cool for a woman to enter that kind of clubs. It going to help you during your desperate time." Su Xiao's turn to speak.

"Well, we also don't like doing something like a normal woman do. Like a flower arrangement. That thing... No. I must say I hate that thing." Ming Yue expressed her thought.

"Yeah, me too." Su Xiao added.

Yu Qi laughed. No wonder that her aunties got along together. Their bond was really great. It was her aunties had the same thought.

"My dear, did you already eat?" Ming Yue suddenly remembered the time nearly mid-night.

"Yes, aunties. I already eat." Yu Qi already eats on her dinner before went home.

"We got a lot of stories to catch. My dear husband, I will sleep with my niece today. So you will sleep alone." Su Xiao turned to Tang Jang Qin and said it sweetly.

Tang Jang Qin somehow helpless when his wife was acting like this. Agree or not, he had to let his wife did whatever she wanted to do as long as it was not out of control.

"But, Auntu Su Xiao, I think you should together with Uncle Jang Qin." Yu Qi could not help to think about her Uncle Jang Qin.

"My dear, don't worry about him. He can manage himself." Su Xiao said.

Yu Qi laughed helplessly. She looked at Tang Jang Qin and gave him a sorry through her eyes. Tang Jang Qin somehow understood her thought just smiled to her.

"Let's go, Yu Qi." Ming Yue and Su Xiao pulled Yu Qi to her own room.

Aoi followed them quietly. Looked like he would have to use his own bed. Usually, he would sleep together beside his master on his master's bed.

Ming Yue and Su Xiao were sitting down on Yu Qi's bed waiting for their niece to wash up.

Yu Qi changed her clothes to the pajama. She went up on her bed and sat together with her aunties.

"How about your studies?" Ming Yue asked about her studies.

"It was okay."

"Then, how about your life there?" Su Xiao began to talk about something fun.

"Huh? No. No. No. Nothing happened." Yu Qi said strongly.

Seeing her niece acting like this, they knew something sweet happened and they could leave it out. They had to make Yu Qi told them the story.

Chapter 128: Love Stories

Su Xiao and Ming Yue in the mode of gossip. Yu Qi's reaction was something was happening. And that was about her love life. How could they be not interested in that?

"My dear, do you happen someone new at your university?" Ming Yue began her investigation.

"Of course not." Yu Qi quickly answered. Of course not. She was not interested in them.

"So, it's Long Hui." Su Xiao laid her trap.

Yu Qi was silent. She began to blush. Seeing this, her aunties could guess about that. Their niece was quite innocent.

"Tell me where did you meet him, hum? I don't that was where he came during you was sick. It was after that, right?" Ming Yue excited to hear some of the young love stories.

Yu Qi sighed when looking at her aunties eyes. They looked sparkling waiting for her to tell them. Well, she would tell on the story where she met Long Hui at the camp. She would not go on the details.

"My shooting club do outside training about a week. That training held in the one of a military camp. That where I met Long Hui."

"Then?" Su Xiao could not help to hear more.

"Well..." Yu Qi could not remember anything except his flirting with her. But obviously, she could not tell them. That would be embarrassing. It would more embarrass compare to other looked at his flirting with her.

"I see... I can imagine that Long Hui flirted with you ignoring others. He is that kind of style. If he wants to move, he will move. Like my husband." Ming Yue laughed while remembering her own story.

"Huh? Really?" Yu Qi could believe her uncle, Tang Jung Wen was someone like that.

"He is a handsome man. When I first met him, he only 21 years old. He was a doctor under his father guide. At that time, it was not a hospital. My father in law inherits a small clinic. I was a nurse working at that clinic. One time, a person came to get some medication. However, it was too late. The person died that night. That night, my husband cried for almost 3 hours until he finally stopped.

I stood beside him hearing his cry. He apologized because he was so shamed on himself. I'm just here and patted his hand. The next day after that, he keeps looking at me. On the end of the day, he approached me and said that he wants to date me in return of marriage. I was speechless. That time, I'm not interested in him at all.

So I ignored him. But he keeps coming to me. Sometimes he flirted me in front of the father in law. 5 months, he keeps trying to win my heart. The defense that I built was crumbling. That how we ended together." Ming Yue giggled like a young woman in love.

Yu Qi was very interested in the story. No wonder her aunty said her uncle, Tang Jung Wen was more like Long Hui. They could flirt in front of anyone without getting embarrassed.

"For me, I'm the one who does the flirting." Su Xiao started off her story with laughing.

Ming Yue also laughed. Yu Qi was curious about Su Xiao's story.

"You know, your Uncle Jang Qin was a silent type. He did not speak unless necessary. I met him when he was my parent doctor. I fall in love with him at first sight. He looked so handsome at that time. Well, of course, he still handsome right now." Su Xiao paused for a moment and continued, "Many girls want to have him as their boyfriend. But there are too shy to express themselves. At that time, the marriage was decided by the elders. Fortunately for me, my parent wanted me to find my own love even though the elders of my family did not agree with that.

They wanted me to marry someone that they knew. They said my marriage had been decided without my parent permission. But the truth was they just wanted to sell me to the old man that had a lot of money. That old man was 70 years old. Can you imagine that? I was 16 years old at that time." Su Xiao showed disgusted expression.

She continued the story, "I rebelled. I did not want to get married to an old man. I'm argued with the elders. I said if she could have her own granddaughter to be married to the old man. I'm not her real granddaughter by the way. My father was her step-son. When my parent knew this, they also argued with that old woman. Because of that matter, my parent was throw out of the family line. We had been throw without getting anything from the family even though my father was the true heir.

Honestly, life was difficult but we can manage it until my parent becomes sick. This is how I met your uncle. I always met him. At first, I was embarrassed, however, with my parent's support, I bend to make him mine. I cook for him, visit him...Oh, there was one time I'm sending flowers to him. I keep flirting and attacking him with my love until he accepts me." Su Xiao finished her story with a sweet tone.

"So, Brother Qin Hao inheriting his father personality." Yu Qi made a comment about Su Xiao's son.

"That boy just weird." That was her son but even she sometimes having difficult times to understand that boy.

Yu Qi laughed hearing her aunty talked like that about her own son.

Chapter 129: Just An Orphan

They ended up sleep together in Yu Qi's bed. Yu Qi woke up. Her aunties still in the deep sleep. When she tried to move, her two aunties woke up.

"What's time now?" Ming Yue asked with a husky voice.

"It's 6 o'clock." Yu Qi told her.

"Owh my husband must return home already. Telling you about my story love makes me miss him. I should go back to my room." Ming Yue woke up from the bed and left.

"Morning, Yu Qi. I will leave too." Su Xiao also left.

Yu Qi chuckled when looked at her two aunties. Aoi woke up when his master's auntie left. He knew that his master would be going to do the morning exercise.

Yu Qi went to the previous place that Steward Hang Ji Chang showed to her for her morning exercise. She did her exercise and then relaxing.

Aoi sensed someone was coming behind Yu Qi. However, he could tell who is that person. No danger sensed. So, he decided not to tell Yu Qi. Unlike Aoi, Yu Qi did not know who was that person.

That person came closer to Yu Qi to surprised her.

"Wah!!!" He shocked Yu Qi by patting her shoulder.

Yu Qi held that hand and do back throw to that person.

"Ouch!"

Yu Qi looked at that person. "Brother Jin Wei, sorry."

Yeah, that person was Tang Jin Wei. Same like that day when Yu Qi first time came to the Tang House, Tang Jin Wei came to hug her, she did the back throw to him.

"Don't say sorry when you don't." Tang Jin Wei stood sitting on the ground.

Yu Qi laughed. "It's your fault. Who tells you to surprise me."

"Brat." Tang Jin Wei stood and ran to Yu Qi.

Looking to Tang Jin Wei wanted to get her, Yu Qi ran entering the house. The running scene between Yu Qi and Tang Jin Wei was been witnessed by some of the maids.

A maid asked the other maid something. "Who is that woman? Being intimate with our second young master?" This maid was obviously new in the Tang House. She knew that Madam Ming Yue had two children and Madam Su Xiao had one child. They were all sons. So who was that girl? She was jealous.

When Ping Bi Xia first saw the second young master Tang Jin Wei, she had fallen in love with him. She quickly researched about Tang Jin Wei. A doctor, not married yet but a playboy. But she knew she could tame him. When Tang House wanted to hire some maids, she applied for the job.

"That was young miss Yu Qi." The other maid told her.

"Huh? Young miss? Who's the daughter she is?"

"Old Master Tang adopted her. She is an orphan."

"What? An orphan?" The disgusted looks appeared in Ping Bi Xia's eyes. 'Just an orphan? Dare to act closer to my man.'

The other maid sensed something. "You! Don't dare mess up with a young miss. Even though she is an orphan, all of our masters doted her especially Old Master Tang. If you want to keep this job, I repeat don't do anything to young miss." The other maid gave a stern warning to Ping Bi Xia.

Ping Bi Xia nodded without saying anything. But she would not back up. An orphan should be taught where is her place. She even did not remember her place either. She planned to do something to Yu Qi.

Right now, Yu Qi did not know someone was planning to do something to her. She still running from Tang Jin Wei. She looked back at Tang Jin Wei who already tired and slow down from chasing her. They arrived in the dining room. Others except Tang Qin Hao was there. And the one who Yu Qi did not expect to be here was her grandfather, Grandpa Tang.

"Grandfather, how come you here?" Yu Qi hugged Grandpa Tang.

"My granddaughter is here. How come I'm not here?" Grandpa Tang missed his granddaughter. Look like his granddaughter was recovered.

"Should you at Shiwa Town?" Yu Qi inquired.

"I have some matter at the hospital. You, on the other hand, why come here?"

"I came home. What's wrong with that?" Yu Qi wanted to tease Grandpa Tang.

"So, my home at Shiwa Town, not your home anymore?" Grandpa Tang made a sad face.

"Of course not. That was my first home. This is my second home. I wanted to spend about three to five days here and head up to my grandfather home to spend the rest of my break there." Yu Qi coaxed Grandpa Tang.

"Yeah. I agreed." Grandpa Tang immediately felt happy.

Everyone was speechless. This pair of a granddaughter and grandfather really looked like as a real one.

"What's wrong with you?" Grandpa Tang now turned to Tang Jin Wei.

"Ask your granddaughter." He sat on the chair beside his mother and drank some water.

"Brother Jin Wei, you should exercise more. Otherwise, it will affect your stamina down there." Yu Qi made a comment.

Tang Jin Wei who currently drank some water, coughed the water after hearing that comment came from his little sister's mouth.

"You..." Tang Jin Wei did not know what to say.

Su Xiao and Ming Yue laughed at their niece's bluntness words.

"Your sister is correct. Exercise more. Don't always chase some woman." Ming Yue added salt to Tang Jin Wei's scar.

Other laughed after that. The breakfast began with Tang Jin Wei was sulking.

Chapter 130: I Can Buy Anything That My Niece Want

In the other side of the dining room, a person looked at the situation in the dining room. Ping Bi Xia felt jealous at Yu Qi who smiled happily with the Tang family member. She just an orphan. Why she got the privilege?

And that Yu Qi said something that made her second young master Tang Jin Wei sad. How hateful. She had to do something. This bitch should learn her place.

Did Yu Qi say she would be staying about three to five days? So Ping Bi Xia had a lot of time to teach that bitch. She looked around the dining room and saw a puppy eating its meal. The other maid told her that that bitch had a puppy. So it was her puppy. Let's start with her puppy.

Yu Qi sensed something sinister behind her back. So, she turned around. She could see two maids standing not so far behind her. She took a look at the two maids. For the precaution, she took notice on those two maids look. Then she turned and continued her meal.

Ming Yue and Su Xiao wanted to go for window shopping. So, they also drag Yu Qi to follow them. Before going out, they argued with Grandpa Tang about wanted Yu Qi to follow them. Grandpa Tang wanted Yu Qi to go to the hospital with him.

After a few arguments, the two ladies won. So Yu Qi would follow them. Yu Qi smiled when watching at Grandpa Tang sulking look. Lessons learned. Don't argue with women. You would lose.

The ladies went to the mall. They already promised that they would just look around. Not buying anything. But that did not mind they would not try the clothes.

They made Yu Qi tried many clothes. Unlike other women, Yu Qi did not like to do something like this. However, they were her aunties, so, she would satisfy her aunties.

"Huh? You are that bumpkin girl with Feng Yue that day?" Two girls came and talked to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi did not remember this person. Meaning these two girls were the insignificant person to her. Where did she meet these two girls? She was in deep thinking ignored the girls.

"Hey, I'm talking to you." One of the girls increased her volume.

"Sorry, I'm don't remember you." Yu Qi said in the blank face.

Hearing the sentences, the girls became so angry. "Hey, bitch. You just a bumpkin girl that came to this city. Do you need money? I will arrange a job for you. You just have to spread your legs to men." The last sentence was to mock Yu Qi.

"I surprised that girls like you have a connection to that kind of place. It's really opened my eyes."

"Don't slander me. I don't know that place."

"Did you say that you could arrange that job for me? That why I thought you knew that place."

"You...You..." That girl could not retort.

"What happened here?" A middle-aged woman came and asked the two girls.

"Mom, this bitch slandered me. She said I have a connection to that prostitution place. She is a bumpkin girl." That girl complained to that middle-aged woman.

"Yes, aunties. I heard that." Another girl also talked against Yu Qi.

The middle-aged woman turned Yu Qi. "How dare you slander my daughter?" She came closer to slap Yu Qi. She raised her hand and swing at full force.

"What are you think you are doing?" Someone held that middle-aged woman's hand.

"Don't be a busybu..." That sentence, she could not finish when she saw that person.

"Madams Tang!" That middle-aged woman bowed respectively to Ming Yue and Su Xiao that came.

Ming Yue released that hand. "I'm asking you what are you doing?"

"That girl over there just slandering my girls. She just such a bumpkin girl that comes from the mountain so I just want to teach her." She responded.

"Oh, what did this girl said to your girls?"

"She said, my girls, have a connection to the prostitution place."

"Madam, I witness the whole thing. The two girls came to this girl and berated her by saying she was a bumpkin girl. They also offered her a job that has to spread her legs to men." A woman stepped forward and told all of the incidents.

Some of the shoppers looked at two girls.

"Calling bumpkin girl is fine but want the girl selling her body? These two girls are... I can't think the correct word to describe them."

"These two girls are vicious."

They whispered to each other but the two girls could hear that. They became angrier.

"Well, that was the truth. She is a bumpkin girl. Come from the mountain. She wants to buy clothes here. Do you think she has money to buy it? She might have sugar daddy herself." The daughter of the middle-aged woman shouted to the people.

"Don't have money? She might not have money. But I have. I can buy anything whatever my niece want to buy." Ming Yue said arrogantly.

There was a moment of silence.

The middle-aged woman became pale. "Madam Tang, did you say 'my niece'?"

"Yes, she is my niece. Beloved granddaughter of Old Master Tang." Ming Yue announced Yu Qi's identity.

"I'm sorry, Madams Tang, Young Miss Tang. We don't know." The middle-aged woman pulled those two girls kneeled.

"Mum, what are...."

"Shut up! Quickly apologized to Young Miss Tang." The middle-aged woman said sharply to her daughter. She heard about the girl that suddenly became Old Master Tang's beloved granddaughter. Her father in law told her about this girl. She could not offend the Tang Family.
