Chapter 1321 1321: Shopping With The Twins

Yu Qi and her team sacrificed day and night to complete the thesis. One week later, they completed the thesis. They sent the thesis for review before submitting it to be published in the Journal of Medical.

Grandpa Tang also took a look at the thesis. He was seriously surprised by the thesis. His granddaughter really applied for traditional Chinese medicine in modern medicine.

It would be a great step for traditional Chinese medicine. People definitely would not look down on traditional Chinese medicine again.

Grandpa Tang suggested that they opened a research center for this kind of research. He believed it would be great.

At the moment, Yu Qi and her team were doing research under Tang Private Hospital. Yu Qi did think about opening the research center. But she needed to think a lot of things if she wanted to open it. Land, resources, and everything which is compulsory for that.

Grandpa Tang told her that she could present the idea to the Mayor of FINN City or President Hai himself. The government would like to make things a reality so it would prosper the nation.

Yu Qi told Grandpa Tang that she would think about that.

She had a day off. But unfortunately, Long Hui was away. She sent Shino to follow Long Hui. It was better than nothing.

If he faced danger, got injured and the doctors could not heal him, she would get the report from Shino.

At first, Shino was unhappy that she would be following Long Hui. She liked to stay with his master. Being with Long Hui was okay, but only one thing, he was depressed. Food.

The food was not very tasty at all. He just ate the fruit but it was as tasty as the fruit inside his master's space.

However, Yu Qi promised him that she would cook delicious food when he came back. Because of that temptation, he would stay with Long Hui.

Long Hui sighed helplessly when hearing Yu Qi say those things to him. He understood that the food did not taste as delicious as Yu Qi cooked for the pet.

Since she had a day off, she decided to take Ming Yue, Su Xiao, and both of her cousins, Tang Bo Lin and Tang Heng Nuo out.

Tang Heng Nuo looked excited when she knew that they would be going out. She liked to see people around her. Unlike Tang Bo Lin, he looked at people with uninterested looks.

"I think, Bo Lin is similar to Brother Qin Hao." Yu Qi commented.

Yu Qi pulled Tang Bo Lin's stroller while Su Xiao pushed Tang Heng Nuo's stroller. Tang Heng Nuo was mumbling words that others could not understand while her hand pointed in any direction. Tang Bo Lin was silent.

"I just hope he would be a cheerful boy." Su Xiao said.

Tang Heng Nuo looked at Yu Qi and her mother. She shouted loudly to get their attention.

"Yes, little Heng Nuo, what do you want?" Yu Qi asked.

"Ah.. Ha..." Tang Heng Nuo pointed to a colorful store.

Turned out, the colorful store was a store that sold clothes for children. The colorful store really grabbed her attention.

"Oh, little Heng Nuo wants to buy clothes." Yu Qi smiled.

"Let's go. Many of the clothes for both of them could not be worn anymore." Su Xiao said.

"Great. I will buy for both of you." Yu Qi said.

"Ammm..." This time, Tang Bo Lin responded.

"Oh, Bo Lin responded to me." Yu Qi rubbed Tang Bo Lin's head.

Tang Bo Lin smiled. He did not like to smile but when he was with Yu Qi, he did smile a lot.

"Bo Lin really likes you, Yu Qi." Ming Yue commented.

They entered the store. It was very colorful. Tang Heng Nuo looked around while the baby talking. She wanted her mother to lift her up.

Tang Bo Lin looked at his mother and sister.

"Ah..." He called Yu Qi. He looked at his mother and sister. Then he turned to Yu Qi again.

"Oh, you want me to lift you?" Yu Qi pulled him up. "Little Bo Lin knows how to express what he wants. Good boy."

"Hmm..." Tang Bo Lin responded.

Tang Heng Nuo already try the clothes that Su Xiao and Ming Yue chose for her. She was very obedient. The storekeepers took out their phones to snatch a picture of her.

"Look. She is so cute."

"Hmm... I really want to grab her chubby cheeks."

"Please don't take pictures of my children." Su Xiao said gently to others.

Su Xiao did not want her children's picture spread.

"Oh, I am sorry, Madam." The storekeepers said and put away their phones.

They did not expect this woman to be the mother of this child. They thought she was their nanny or something like that. However, they knew that this woman was not from an ordinary family.

Tang Bo Lin hid his face when he was in Yu Qi's arms.

"Yu Qi, bring Bo Lin here. I have clothes for him." Su Xiao said.

Yu Qi walked to Su Xiao. Then people started to notice Tang Bo Lin once he lifted his face and looked at his mother.

"Ma." Tang Bo Lin said.

"Bo Lin, this is for you. Hmm, does this size okay for him?" The first sentence was for Tang Bo Lin. The next sentence was for Yu Qi.

"I think it fits Little Bo Lin perfectly." Yu Qi nodded.

"Look. They must be twins."

"Yeah. Their faces are similar."

Chapter 1322 1322: Meeting With Liu Wen Sui Again. Getting A Slap From Yu Qi

"You are already a mother?" A woman shouted.

Everyone turned to the woman. Yu Qi was surprised to see the woman. She was Liu Wen Sui. The statement that she shouted was directed to Yu Qi who currently was carrying Tang Bo Lin.

Yu Qi frowned as she heard that statement. Liu Wen Sui approached Yu Qi. She reached out her hand to touch Tang Bo Lin. Yu Qi stepped away without letting Liu Wen Sui touch her little brother.

"What do you try to do?" Yu Qi asked.

"I just want to look at the baby's face." Liu Wen Sui said.

However, the next sentence came from Liu Wen Sui made Yu Qi and others speechless. "If the baby did not have your fiancée's face meaning you are cheating by having someone's else baby. I wonder if your fiancée knows about this."

"What a ridiculous thing to say." Ming Yue interfered.

She looked at the woman who just speaking nonsense earlier. It was her guess though. This woman was probably Long Hui's admirer.

"What? I am saying the truth." Liu Wen Sui snorted.

"The truth? That is my son." Su Xiao stepped forward.

"Huh??? Your son? You are already an old woman. How could you have a baby at your age?" Liu Wen Sui insulted Su Xiao.

Yu Qi gave Tang Bo Lin to Ming Yue. She approached Liu Wen Sui and gave a slap at Liu Wen Sui's face.

Pang! A loud and clear sound could be heard. Everyone was shocked.

"How dare you say something like that to my aunt!!!" Yu Qi held her anger.

Liu Wen Sui touched her cheek. That was very hurt.

"How dare you slap me?" Liu Wen Sui pointed her finger at Yu Qi.

"Since your mouth stinks, I will be happy to wash it by slapping you." Yu Qi snorted.

"You use your aunt to cover shameful things that you are doing. I will let your fiancée know about the dirty you." Liu Wen Sui said.

"Is this woman crazy or what?"

"Yes, everyone knows that these babies are Second Madam Tang's."

"Maybe she did not read the news?"

When the babies were born, their birth had been in the news. Tang Jang Qin and his wife had two newborns. Because of their age, it had been big news. Not to mention, they were the grandchildren of the legendary doctor.

Liu Wen Sui could hear what people saying. She looked at Yu Qi, the babies, and Su Xiao. Was that the truth? The babies were hers?

Of course, Liu Wen Sui did not know about the news. She just came back from overseas following her father who wanted to extend their business here.

"This woman is probably one of Mr. Long's admirers."

"I guess that is the truth."

"She thinks if she tells Mr. Long about this, she can take Ms. Tang's place."

"What a joke."

"She should look at the mirror."

"Shut up!" Liu Wen Sui shouted to everyone.

Tang Heng Nuo started to cry. She was probably shocked to hear a loud voice. Su Xiao immediately calmed down Tang Heng Nuo.

It made people feel disgusted even more toward Liu Wen Sui. Tang Bo Lin looked at his twin sister. He began to struggle in Ming Yue's arms.

"Little Bo Lin, what's wrong?" Ming Yue also tried to calm down Tang Bo Lin.

Yu Qi quickly took Tang Bo Lin from Ming Yue's arms. Tang Bo Lin stopped struggling. He hid his face in Yu Qi's chest.

"Do you still have something else to say?" Yu Qi asked Liu Wen Sui.

Liu Wen Sui was startled. "Hmm... I... I will make you pay for slapping me like this." With that sentence, she left the store.

"What a horrible girl." Ming Yue commented.

"What is going on between you and her, Yu Qi?" Su Xiao asked.

Tang Heng Nuo already calmed down and smiled.

"We meet at Capital City recently. As you guess, she is interested in Brother Hui. I guess she wants to make me look bad in front of Brother Hui." Yu Qi sighed.

Long Hui's charm was terrifying.

"I see. But I know Xiao Hui would not believe what people say about you." Ming Yue nodded.

"Hmm... Let's continue shopping." Ming Yue said.

They would not let someone like Liu Wen Sui ruin their day.

.....

Liu Wen Sui called her father after leaving the place. She wanted to teach Yu Qi. She did not think that her father would reject her request.

"Dad..." Liu Wen Sui could not help to make a sad tone in her voice.

"What's wrong, my sweetie?" Liu Dong Huang asked.

"Someone slapped me." Liu Wen Sui complained.

"What? Who dares to slap you?" Liu Dong Huang asked.

"A shameless woman I just meet her recently." Liu Wen Sui told Liu Dong Huang.

"What? Just a low-life woman?" Liu Dong Huang frowned.

"Yes, Dad, you need to teach that bitch a lesson." Liu Wen Sui cried again.

"Okay... Okay... Don't cry. I will help you to vent your anger. Tell me her name." Liu Dong Huang said.

He loved and pampered his daughter very much. His wife already left the world. He did not want Liu Wen Sui to feel lonely for not having a mother. So, he doted on her so much.

"I think her name is Tang Yu Qi. She is a doctor, I guess." Liu Wen Sui said. That was what she heard from Chi Yuan.

"Okay. Daddy will do something to teach her. No need to worry about that." Liu Dong Huang said.

Chapter 1323 1323: The Wise Decision

Liu Dong Huang was a careful person. He would be careful and investigate everything from the bottom. After getting the call from his daughter, he asked his secretary to investigate the woman mentioned by his daughter.

As his daughter said, they were just returning to Binhai Nation a few months ago. He had been asked by the head of his family to open a company in Binhai Nation.

He was in the middle of the competition with his brothers to inherit the head position of the Liu Family. His father told them to prove their abilities by building the company from the scratch. The family would provide the capital for them.

Liu Dong Huang chose to build the company in Binhai Nation because his mother's root was here. He also lived in Binhai Nation for a few years. So, he quite understood the situation here.

Two hours later, his secretary came back with the result of the investigation. He was surprised that his secretary came back faster than he thought.

"Tang Yu Qi is quite famous. So, much of the information about her is online." The Secretary informed Liu Dong Huang.

"What do you mean by famous? What I heard from my daughter, Tang Yu Qi is just a small doctor." Liu Dong Huang obviously believed what his daughter told him.

"Mr. Liu, she is not just a small doctor as your daughter claimed. Here, you can read her information." The secretary gave the file that contained Yu Qi's information.

When Liu Dong Huang read the information, he was flabbergasted by what he had read. She was indeed a doctor, but a student of the legendary doctor, Tang Jiang Man had a different meaning. Even Liu Dong Huang knew about Tang Jiang Man and his achievement.

Shock, even more, came to Liu Dong Huang. HuiQi Jade and Qiaosu Entertainment, the big names in the industry were owned by this woman. All of them were in different sectors. Medical, jade, and entertainment. What a terrifying woman.

Then, she was the fiancée of Colonel Long Hui, who people believed to be the younger Great General in the future. Not to mention, her close relationship with the current president of Binhai Nation.

Whoever dared to provoke this woman, meaning they wanted to kill themselves. What was his daughter did to this woman? He would not afford to provoke this deity. He would make his daughter beg for this woman's forgiveness.

It was for his business development. It was not good to provoke people when they did not have a stable foundation here. So, he needed to tell his daughter.

Yu Qi did not pay much attention to Liu Wen Sui as she became busier with her work. A lot of patients came to seek her medical help. People became to believe more in traditional Chinese medicine, especially the people who were afraid of surgery.

Of course, she did not prioritize traditional Chinese medicine, if the illness could not be healed by traditional Chinese medicine, she would be telling the truth.

The traditional Chinese Medicine Department in Tang Private Hospital was happy with the change. The department had a lot of customers these days. It was all thanked to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi would need to go to another medical conference to present the research. All of the members would go too. Their destination would be Rixie Country.

Hearing this, Long Hui wanted to accompany her to Rixie Country. He just returned from the mission. So, he had some time off. And the government gave the order to protect the research team as well.

On the departure day, Yu Qi and Long Hui met others at the airport. This time, Yu Qi and Long Hui would not be going to use their private jet. They would use their research fund for this matter.

The government already arranged 5 soldiers including Long Hui to protect the research team. They would disguise themselves as normal citizens. Each of the research members would have one bodyguard assigned to them.

Of course, Long Hui would be Yu Qi's bodyguard. Dian Shu Xian did not need a bodyguard because he could protect himself but it was better to have someone around. They took their seats in the business class.

"Yesterday, when I was waiting for you to come down, Auntie Meng Yue told me that a crazy woman came and disturb you when you are shopping with others." Long Hui said after the flight departed.

Tang's Family invited him for having dinner together yesterday. When he was waiting, Ming Yue came and talked with him for a while. Then Ming Yue opened the story about that.

"Hmm... Remember the girl with Chi Yuan?" Yu Qi asked.

"No." Long Hui answered it straight away.

He was honest. He did not pay much attention to other women. His attention was all on his beloved Qi Qi. Not to mention, he just met Liu Wen Sui once.

"Well, I don't know what she was thinking. Just because I was holding a baby, she thought that I was cheating on you. What an idiot." Yu Qi smirked.

"An idiot indeed." Long Hui nodded.

"She dared to insult Auntie Su Xiao. So I teach her a lesson." Yu Qi said. Then She commented. "She is really a friend of Chi Yuan."

In other meaning, Chi Yuan was an idiot, the same as Liu Wen Sui.

Long Hui chuckled. His beloved Qi Qi's mouth was indeed poisonous.

Chapter 1324 1324: His Beloved Qi Qi Was Still Shy

They arrived at Rixie Country. It was already evening. So, they went straight to the hotel where they were supposed to check-in. Everyone got their own room except for Long Hui and Yu Qi.

Long Hui wanted to stay together with Yu Qi. There was nothing wrong with it since they both were a couple. Yu Qi was helpless when Long Hui said that.

"See you during dinner." Su Ziqing said before entering the room.

Their rooms were close to each other and on the same floor.

Yu Qi and Long Hui came into the room. After putting their bags and everything, they decided to go inside Yu Qi's space. As usual, the three little cuties would come and greet her.

"Master, Master's fiancée."

"Hmm... I can tell that you guys are hungry. I will go and cook for you." Yu Qi said.

The three little cuties were happy to hear that. Even though they were not too hungry, still, their master's food was the best.

Yu Qi told them to pick up the herb and ingredients at the garden. Three of them obeyed the order and went to the garden straight away.

Yu Qi went to the kitchen and opened the refrigerator to take out some meat. It seemed the meat supplier in the refrigerator needed to be bought next time.

"I think we need to buy the meat later." Yu Qi said.

"I will accompany you." Long Hui nodded.

The little ones returned with the ingredients. Yu Qi started to prepare.

"I will help you." Long Hui said.

"Are you sure? You can rest." Yu Qi said.

"I am not tired. It is better to be with you." Long Hui smiled.

"Okay then. Please help me cut this meat to cube." Yu Qi nodded.

Long Hui picked up the knife from Yu Qi and started doing what Yu Qi ordered him.

Kung Pao Beef and Bok Choy stir-fried with Crispy Tofu were on the table. Yu Qi served them with white rice.

Three little cuties swallowed their saliva when seeing the food.

"You guys can eat now." Yu Qi chuckled.

"But master, you and Master's fiancée don't eat together?" Bo Ya asked when Yu Qi only put three bowls.

It was obviously the bowls were only for them.

"Oh, your master's fiancée and I will go eat outside. If I eat right now, I will be full when dinner. It would be rude to the food." Yu Qi explained.

"Owh... it also would be weird to others too, right?" Bo Ya meant Yu Qi's friends.

"That's great. So, go on and eat it. Don't leave anything. We will go and take a rest first." Yu Qi said.

Once Yu Qi finished the sentence, the three of them quickly started to eat. They were very happy to eat.

Yu Qi wanted to sleep first. On the flight earlier, she could not get to sleep. She was almost facing her laptop all the time, looking at and answering the email.

"Go and take a shower first. Only after that, your body would be refreshed." Long Hui said when Yu Qi wanted to change her clothes.

Yu Qi looked at Long Hui. She thought Long Hui wanted to tease her, teasing her saying he would accompany her into the bathroom as well. However, Long Hui just sat on the bed.

"What?" Long Hui asked when he saw Yu Qi looking at him.

"You are just going to wait there?" Yu Qi asked.

"Wait, do you want me to go in together? I don't mind." Long Hui said.

"No." Yu Qi shook her head, grabbed her towel, and rushed to the bathroom.

Long Hui chuckled. Of course, he wanted to do so. But if he joined her in the bathroom, he doubted that he could hold back himself from screwing his beloved Qi Qi in the bathroom. His beloved Qi Qi would be more tired than before.

After 15 minutes, Yu Qi came out with the towel. She thought Long Hui already went to his room. But she saw him sitting on the bed while reading the book. He already changed his clothes. Looked like he already refreshed himself.

"Why are you still here?" Yu Qi asked.

"I want to stay here." Long Hui said without feeling shame.

"Oh..." Yu Qi was embarrassed but she ignored the feeling.

She went to the closet and took the clothes. She could sense that Long Hui was staring at her. She felt more embarrassed to wear her clothes there. So, she took her clothes and wanted to go back into the bathroom.

"Where are you going?" Long Hui asked.

"I want to change into these clothes." Yu Qi said.

"You can do it here." Long Hui was smiling.

"I will change in the bathroom." Yu Qi answered.

Without waiting for Long Hui's response, Yu Qi rushed into the bathroom again.

Long Hui was laughing. He knew that Yu Qi must be embarrassed to change in front of him. They had known for a long time but his beloved Qi Qi was still a shy person.

Yu Qi came out after changing into the clothes. She came to the bed.

"What are you reading?" Yu Qi glanced at Long Hui.

"I just take the book from there. It is about an explosion. How to make the bomb." Long Hui showed the title of the book.

Yu Qi remembered that she took the book from the library since they wanted to read it. It was interesting to know how to make the bomb. The knowledge would be useful.

Chapter 1325 1325: Meeting A Fan

Yi Qihan was the first to come out of his room. They made a plan to have dinner together at 7 p.m. Then he saw Teng Li also come out of his room as well as Ling Xuan and Dian Shu Xian.

Yu Qi and Long Hui came out together. The first one was Su Ziqing. She apologized for being late. She overslept.

Then they went to the restaurant. The hotel had its own restaurant. So, they did not have to think much about where to eat. They did not talk much at the beginning because of Long Hui's presence.

Long Hui did not talk much making him look unfriendly. But Dian Shu Xian started talking to Long Hui like a normal friend.

"Yu Qi, did Shu Xian know your fiancée?" Su Ziqing asked.

"Hmm... They are quite close." Yu Qi nodded.

They were also sparring with each other. Sometimes, Dian Shu Xian met with Long Hui to spar with him at the boxing club. Even though they could not use their power, a normal spar was a good fight too.

The mood began to light up when they started to drink alcohol. Yu Qi did not drink it.

"Remember not to drink too much." Yu Qi reminded.

"Don't worry, Yu Qi. We know your limit. We still need to present ourselves tomorrow." Ling Xuan nodded.

They were having fun talking to each other. Then, someone came and shouted Yu Qi's name.

"Tang Yu Qi!" The voice had a surprised tone and an excited tone to it.

Yu Qi turned to look in the direction of the voice.

"It is really you." A foreign woman spoke English to her.

"Excuse you... do we know each other?" Yu Qi did not remember this woman.

"No.. of course, you don't know me. But I know you." The woman explained.

"Know me?" Yu Qi was still confused.

"Well, I know you from the medical theses that you wrote. It is very impressive." The woman's eyes blinked a few times.

"I see... Thank you for liking my thesis." Yu Qi smiled. "May I get your name?"

"Of course. My name is Samatha Liouse." Samatha Liouse was excited when Yu Qi wanted to know her name. "I will be attending the medical conference as well."

"Oh, look like we are going to meet each other again." Yu Qi smiled.

"But I am so excited to meet you here. I meet my idol." Samatha Liouse grinned to her ears.

"I know your feeling." Su Ziqing interrupted. "I also think that Yu Qi is my idol."

Yu Qi was speechless when hearing Su ZiQing said that.

"You too?" Samatha Liouse felt like she meet a new kindred.

"Hmm... you must like her research right? I also love it. We are the same." Su Ziqing nodded.

Yu Qi recalled when she first met with Su Ziqing when she recruited Su Ziqing to the team. Su Ziqing also acted like Samatha Liouse.

"Samatha." Someone called Samatha Liouse's name.

Samatha Liouse turned around and saw her friends. She turned back to Yu Qi.

"Miss Tang, I will leave. Let's meet again tomorrow. I am excited to hear your presentation." Samatha Liouse excused herself.

"Hmm... see you tomorrow." Yu Qi nodded.

"Look like Yu Qi has a fan." Dian Shu Xian chuckled.

"It looks like she is seeing a famous celebrity." Teng Li said.

"Of course. My Yu Qi is a famous celebrity in the medical world." Su Ziqing added.

"She is mine. Not yours." Long Hui interfered.

Everyone was speechless when Long Hui said that. It was the first time he talked to them. But it was correcting Su Ziqing because Su Ziqing said something like 'my Yu Qi'.

Then everyone was laughing.

"Look like your fiance is very possessive, Yu Qi." Yi Qihan started to laugh.

The atmosphere began lively compared to the beginning.

After 3 hours at the restaurant, they left. Dian Shu Xian wanted to walk around. Su Ziqing wanted to accompany Dian Shu Xian but he told that he wanted to be alone.

Su Ziqing sighed when seeing Dian Shi Xuan leave like that. She liked Dian Shu Xian. She had approached him multiple times but Dian Shu Xian seemed to ignore it.

Everyone on the team knew the situation. They could not say anything. They could not force Dian Shu Xian to accept Su Ziqing if he did not like her.

Yu Qi knew why Dian Shu Xian ignore Su Ziqing's approaches and did not accept Su Ziqing's feelings. He was thinking about his family and situation. Dian Shu Xian was a cultivator. It was not normal to marry a normal person. That person would expose the cultivator's identity to others.

It would be inviting problems. Some perverts would take action to catch the cultivator and do some experiments with the cultivator. It would be horrible.

Yu Qi thought that was what Dian Shu Xian wanted to do. She did not say Su Ziqing would expose Dian Shu Xian but it would be better to avoid the problem from the start.

It was different from her grandmother. Her grandmother left the family and her grandfather did not even know the secret.

Long Hui and Yu Qi returned to the room. Then they entered the space. The three little cuties were playing near the lake.

Yu Qi also wanted to take a walk for a while. The space did not have night. So, the sky was bright as usual. They walked around the lake.

Chapter 1326 1326: A Chaos

The medical conference was full as usual. Professors, doctors, and even medical students attended this conference. Yu Qi and her team went to present their booth. The time for their presentation would be in 2 hours. So, they still had time to prepare.

"I remember coming to the medical conference a while ago and meeting Yu Qi. I never expect that I will be at the same time as Yu Qi." Su Ziqing recalled the memories.

At that time, she was just a small assistant to the professor who came to present his research. She went around and watched Yu Qi present her research too. She watched until the end. She even asked Yu Qi some questions that led them to exchange contact information.

One led the another. And here she was. In the same research team as Yu Qi. She was quite surprised when Yu Qi contacted her to join the research team. She made the quick decision since she did not have a major role in her previous job.

When Yu Qi and her team were preparing, they heard someone call Yu Qi's name.

"Tang Yu Qi?"

Yu Qi looked at the person. It was a familiar face. Vicky Emith. A doctor from Country Brin.

"What are you doing here?" Vicky Emith asked. She sounded like Yu Qi was not supposed to be there.

"Hello there, Doctor Vicky Emith. As you can see, I join the medical conference here." Yu Qi said nicely.

Vicky Emith frowned. She really did not expect to see Yu Qi here. She thought Yu Qi was a typical surgeon and was not involved in any research. Because of that, she felt much better when thinking like that. But now, Yu Qi had appeared here.

It was Vicky Emith's first time joining the medical conference. If she came to the previous medical conferences, she would know about Yu Qi because Yu Qi's topic became a hit at the medical conference.

"Vicky, you know Doctor Tang Yu Qi?" Her friend was kind of excited to see Yu Qi.

She read Yu Qi's theses in the medical journey. It really helped her increase her knowledge as a doctor.

"I meet her once." Vicky Emith said.

"Oh... you never tell me." Her friend said. She turned to Yu Qi. "Are you going to do the presentation later?"

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded.

"Oh, good luck." Vicky Emith's friend sincerely said good luck to Yu Qi.

"Thank you." Yu Qi nodded.

"Ah, I forget to introduce myself. I am Amber Wallison from Brin Country." Amber Wallison bowed a little.

"Doctor Tang Yu Qi.... Doctor Tang Yu Qi.... Good morning." Another one called Yu Qi's name.

It was Samatha Liouse, who they had met yesterday. Everyone had a good impression of this young woman.

"Oh, hello." Yu Qi's tone was much kinder compared to when she was talking to Vikcy Emith.

"When is your turn?" Samatha Liouse asked for their presentation's time.

"In one hour." Yu Qi said.

"Okay... I will be sure to watch and listen to your presentation." Samatha Liouse smiled.

"You also better prepare for yourself." Yu Qi chuckled.

"You are Doctor Tang Yu Qi's fan too?" Amber Wallison heard the conversation.

"Yes. Her topic is very good." Samatha Liouse nodded.

"Hello. My name is Amber Wallison. Nice to meet you." Amber Wallison wanted to shake hands with Samatha Liouse.

Samatha Liouse shook hands with Amber Wallison. "I am Samatha Liouse. Nice to meet you."

"Yu Qi is surely popular. People even become friends because of her." Teng Li commented to Ling Xuan.

"That is true." Ling Xuan nodded.

Vicky Emith had to pull Amber Wallison to return to their position. Samatha Liouse also had been called by someone. She bowed and returned to her position too.

Yu Qi and her team's turn had arrived. Yu Qi only presented a portion of the research. She divided the tasks equally. Everyone could get to do the presentation. They would have time to shine.

A lot of questions are being asked by the audience. Everyone handled them pretty well. Everyone came down. They were happy to their presentation went smoothly. Other team presented their research too.

"Hypocrites!!!" A woman with a megaphone in her hands shouted.

It was so loud that everyone needed to cover their ears. Everyone was confused with this woman.

"You all are hypocrites. Research that... Research this... You just want someone to take your idea and convert it into money." A woman said through the megaphone. "If you are so powerful, why does my daughter still die?"

After listening to the last sentence, it seemed this woman was so angry because her daughter was probably sick and could not be healed.

The security guards began to approach the angry woman. The woman saw it and said another word.

"You guys should die too. I leave a bomb in this venue." The statement from this woman was shocking to everyone.

The security guards held the woman and wanted to restrain her. The woman fought back while shouting.

"Die!!!!!!!!!"

After that, the chaos began. People began to run toward the entrance. The woman laughed when seeing the situation. Yu Qi's team also walked toward the entrance. They were separated from each other. However, they expected everyone escaped this venue. The organizer immediately called the police regarding this matter.

Long Hui and other soldiers were waiting outside the venue. They were confused when seeing people running out of the venue.

Chapter 1327 1327: Can Not This Thing Blow Up

Then Long Hui saw Yu Qi's research team members.

"What happens?" Long Hui asked Su Ziqing.

"A crazy woman rushed in and told people that she had planted the bomb in the venue. That is why we run away." Su Ziqing answered while catching her breath.

Long Hui looked around to find his beloved Qi Qi but he did not find her anywhere. He frowned.

"Where is my fiancée?" Long Hui asked Su Ziqing again.

"I just remember that she went to the toilet. What if she did not know about this?" Su Ziqing became panicked.

Hearing this, Long Hui rushed over and wanted to enter the venue. More people were running out.

"Don't worry. She will be fine." Dian Shu Xian said to Su Ziqing who was crying. "I will go inside too."

Dian Shu Xian also went inside back. It was the truth that Yu Qi would be fine when the bomb exploded. The cultivator's body could stand the power of the explosion if their cultivation reached some point. And from what he saw Yu Qi had reached the point.

However, it was possible that Yu Qi and Long Hui did not know about this judging from Long Hui's reaction.

Long Hui still looked for Yu Qi. He was searching for her while trying to call her. Unfortunately, Yu Qi left her phone on the table at the booth. So, the call did not go through.

Yu Qi just came out from the toilet. She washed her hand at the sink. Suddenly her eyes saw something besides the door.

It was a flower pot that she did not see when she entered the toilet just now. It was possible that the flower pot was not there before. It was put after she went into the cubicle.

Well, she did hear someone enter the toilet but she did not care much about that because it was a public toilet. A lot of people came.

She thought it was probably a janitor who came and put the flower pot. So, she wanted to go out. Until her ears picked up some strange sounds from the flower pot.

"Beep... Beep... Beep."

A normal person would not hear the sound but Yu Qi's hearing had been enhanced. So, she managed to hear the sounds.

It was a strange sound coming from the flower pot. She stopped and stared at the flower pot.

"Beep... Beep.. Beep..."

It really came from the flower pot. Yu Qi approached the flower pot. The flower seemed strange. So, she grabbed the flower. The flower body was easily pulled off from the pot revealing something else inside.

A Beep sound... a thing which had a clock on its body and a bunch of colorful wires attached to that thing.

"It looks like a bomb." Yu Qi concluded.

The clock showed 15 minutes. And it was decreasing. Yu Qi frowned. She could not leave this bomb here. There were people inside this venue.

Judging from the size of the bomb, it could blow up about 50% of the venue. If this blew up, people would get seriously injured or it might have some fatality. Yu Qi would not let this happen.

She remembered the book that she read a few ago about the bomb. She did not expect to see a real bomb now. It was ironic.

'Master, what are you going to do?' Bo Ya asked.

He already knew what happened outside the space.

"I will try to defuse the bomb. I can not let this blow up." Yu Qi said.

'You have to get tools like scissors or wire cutters. You should get them from the space.' Bo Ya answered.

"Hmm... what if I bring the bomb inside space?" Yu Qi wanted to try another method.

'Something that can harm the space could not enter. Which means the bomb can not enter space even if you touch it, Master.' Bo Ya shook his head.

"I see... I will enter and pick the tools." Yu Qi entered the space.

Bo Ya brought Yu Qi the tools. Yu Qi took the tools.

"Thank you." Yu Qi immediately disappeared again, appearing in the normal world.

"11 minutes left." Yu Qi said.

She analyzed the bomb. The typical bomb should be having 4 to 6 wires but this bomb had about 9 wires. This bomb maker really made things difficult.

She just learned about bombs. So, she could not say she was an expert.

'Master, you can use your eyes. You should be able to see inside the wires. With that, you can determine which wire to cut.' Bo Ya said.

'That's right. Why don't I think about that? Thank you, Bo Ya.' Yu Qi's eyes lifted up.

'I am happy that can be helpful to you, Master.' Bo Ya smiled.

With that, Yu Qi used the eyes. Using the power, she could see which wires she need to cut. Yu Qi took a deep breath. The time left was 8 minutes.

It was enough time for Yu Qi to defuse this bomb. She cut the first wire. The time was still going on.

A bead of sweat appeared on her forehead as she cut the second wire. Then the third one was that she needed to be careful. If the wrong cut, the bomb would blow up.

She looked inside the bomb itself. She saw the structure. She studied the structure. 5 minutes left. 3 minutes left. 1 minute left

She began to understand. She took one wire and cut it.

The clock was still showing the time. The time decreasing. 50 seconds. 30 seconds. 20 seconds.

Chapter 1328 1328: Defuse The Bomb... Not Me But Him

Yu Qi cut a wire. The clock stopped at 1: 01 seconds. It was frozen. Yu Qi was relieved. At the next moment, someone barged into the toilet. She turned and saw Long Hui who was already sweating.

"Brother Hui?" Yu Qi blinked in confusion.

Long Hui quickly hugged Yu Qi. He was glad that his beloved Qi Qi was safe and sound. Then, he remembered that they had no time to waste here.

"Let's go. We need to get out as soon as possible." Long Hui said.

"What... Wait... Let's take this too." Yu Qi pointed to the bomb.

"What??? This..." Long Hui had a weird expression on his face.

"I found this earlier. I already defused it. It is very relieving. Otherwise, people in the venue might be injured or die." Yu Qi said.

"Idiot. People also know about this and ran away from the venue." Long Hui flicked Yu Qi's forehead.

"Ouch... That's hurt..." Yu Qi covered her forehead. She caught the last sentence. "What do you mean by that?"

"Your friend says some random woman shouted that she planted a bomb inside the venue. People get scared and run out." Long Hui explained.

"I see... I thought no one knew about this bomb. So, I decided to defuse it myself." Yu Qi said.

"Let's go out. I bet the authorized people probably arrive." Long Hui said.

"Okay. But let's bring this together." Yu Qi pointed to the bomb.

"Hmm... It would be dangerous to leave it here." Long Hui also agreed with Yu Qi.

Yu Qi only stopped it from exploding. It needed to dispose of the bomb properly.

Dian Shu Xian also found both of them.

"Are you okay?" Dian Shu Xian asked.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded.

"That..." Dian Shu Xian's eyes twitched.

"Yeah. It is the bomb which the woman says." Yu Qi nodded.

"Is that dangerous to carry that with you? We should go out right now." Dian Shu Xian said.

"It will not explode for the time being. It has been stopped. I can't leave it here." Yu Qi explained.

"What happens to it? Why does it stop?" Dian Shu Xian looked at the clock on the bomb.

"I defuse it." Yu Qi said without changing her expression.

Dian Shu Xian was dumbfounded.

"Let's go out first." Long Hui said.

So, they walked out of the toilet.

As Long Hui predicted, the police and bomb disposal team arrived at the scene. A lot of people called the police telling the same scenario. The police called the bomb disposal team for their help as well.

They asked people about the bomb location but they did not have any idea of that. So, they decided to ask the crazy woman who was restrained by the security. However, the crazy woman just laughed and did not give any answer.

With that, they would not just simply go inside and look for the bomb. What if the bomb exploded before the disposal bomb team found the bomb? The bomb might explode and kill the disposal bomb team.

"My friends are inside." Su Ziqing said.

"What? Does everyone out already? Why do your friends still inside?" The police asked.

"One of us was in the toilet when the chaos happened. So, her fiancé and her brother went inside to look for her." Su Ziqing explained.

The police changed their expressions when hearing there were people still inside the venue.

However, the people that they thought were still inside walked out at a normal speed. Su Ziqing saw them and rushed over to them.

"Yu Qi, are you okay?" Su Ziqing asked while looking up and down.

"Hmm... I am okay." Yu Qi smiled.

"Where are the police?" Long Hui asked.

"Over there." Su Ziqing pointed to them.

They walked to the police. The disposal bomb team was shocked to see someone carrying the bomb with him. Of course, they recognized the bomb.

"You..." One of the disposal bomb team pointed to them.

"It is the bomb that the woman mentioned. We found it inside the toilet." Long Hui explained.

The disposal bomb team looked at the clock. The time had been stopped.

"Who defuse it?" The disposal team asked.

"Hmm..." Long Hui was about to answer.

"He defuses it." Yu Qi pointed at Long Hui.

Long Hui looked at Yu Qi and understood what she wanted to say.

"How? Do you have knowledge about defusing the bomb?" The disposal bomb team asked again.

"I am Long Hui, a soldier from Binhai Nation. I am currently accompanying my fiancée attending this medical conference here." Long Hui revealed his identity.

"Oh, no wonder you have the knowledge of defusing the bomb." The disposal bomb team nodded.

"Wait, Long Hui from Binhai Nation?" One of them looked at Long Hui.

"You are Colonel Long Hui?" Another one asked.

"Yes." Long Hui nodded.

"You are the famous one." The disposal bomb team uttered.

"Hmm... Can you take care of the bomb from now on?" Yu Qi reminded them about the bomb in Long Hui's hand.

"Sure... Sure... Thank you for defusing it. We will take over the bomb." The disposal bomb team nodded and took the bomb from Long Hui.

The police took the crazy woman to the police station. The crazy woman was angry when she saw the bomb. She did not expect that her plan to bomb the venue ruined. No wonder the bomb did not explode.

Chapter 1329 1329: Going To Hall Of Auction.

Su Ziqing and others saw Yu Qi with Long Hui and Dian Shu Xian.

"Thank goddess you are safe." Su Ziqing hugged Yu Qi.

"I am safe. My fiancée and Brother Shu Xian found me." Yu Qi patted Su Ziqing's head.

Long Hui coughed several times. Su Ziqing happened to see Long Hui's eyes. These eyes were glaring at her. She immediately let Yu Qi go of her arms.

After she let go of Yu Qi, those eyes turned gentle when Long Hui looked at Yu Qi. Yu Qi turned to Long Hui and glanced at him. Long Hui only smiled.

"Yu Qi, did you tell me you defuse the bomb, why did you tell them that Long Hui defused it?" Dian Shu Xian who was silent earlier asked the question.

"It would be strange to tell them that I was the one who defused the bomb, considering who I am. Besides, it was normal for Brother Hui to know how to defuse the bomb." Yu Qi explained.

Dian Shu Xian looked at Long Hui. "You understand that from the start? That's why you admit it?"

"Hmm..." Long Hui nodded.

"No wonder..." Dian Shu Xian smiled.

"What are you talking about?" Teng Li asked.

"Defused the bomb?" Yi Qihan's eyes were opened wide.

"You find the bomb?" Ling Xuan was shocked.

"Does that mean, the thing you handed out just now was the bomb?" Su Ziqing asked too.

When they looked at Long Hui and Yu Qi who just nodded at their questions, they were dumbfounded.

"Holy shit." Yi Qihan managed to say the words.

As for everyone, they were flabbergasted by what they just heard.

"I hope you don't tell people." Yu Qi put her finger on her lips.

Su Ziqing was the first to recover herself. "Don't worry about that, Yu Qi. We will never say anything to others."

"Hmmm... The organizer told us to return to the hotel first. They will inform us if they will be going to continue the conference or not by tomorrow." Ling Xuan said.

"Really?" Yu Qi's eyes lifted up.

"Yeah. We just received the news." Teng Li nodded.

"Do you want to go somewhere?" Long Hui seemed to notice Yu Qi's excitement.

"Hmm..." Yu Qi nodded.

"Then, let's go to...." Yi Qihan did not manage to finish his sentence. His mouth had been sealed by Ling Xuan's hand.

Yi Qihan looked confused by Ling Xuan's action. Ling Xuan was questioned with his eyes.

"You can go with Mr. Long." Su Ziqing was smiling.

"Oh... Are you sure about that?" Yu Qi asked while tilting her head.

Su Ziqing leaned over at Yu Qi's ear and whispered something. "You can enjoy your date here with Mr. Long. We will not disturb you two."

Yu Qi instantly went blushed.

"You are so cute, Yu Qi." Su Ziqing teased Yu Qi when she saw Yu Qi go red.

Ling Xuan pulled Yi Qihan with him. Su Ziqing and Teng Li walked behind them. Dian Shu Xian also left with them leaving Yu Qi and Long Hui there. Other people were also leaving. There was no point in them staying here anymore.

Yu Qi and Long Hui decided to return to their rooms first to change their clothes since Yu Qi was wearing a formal suit because she had a presentation earlier. After that, they finally went out.

They took a taxi to go to their destination. The place that she wanted to go was a stone auction. She just found out yesterday when she looked into Rixie Country. She never stepped into this country before even in her former life.

She did not have any business going on there. So, she did not have a chance to visit Rixie Country before. She was glad to know there would be a stone auction. She wanted to see what kind of stones Rixie Country got.

After getting out of the taxi and paying for it, they arrived at their destination. To enter the hall of the auction, the visitor needed to pay the entrance fees.

Yu Qi did not mind paying the entrance fees to enter the hall. Of course, it was also for their business to survive. However, it seemed there were some people who did not understand that.

"What? Entrance fees? We need to pay to enter this rundown place?" A woman got angry at the people who guarded the entrance.

She was talking in Rixie Language. Yu Qi did not fluent in Rixie Language but still got understood what the woman said. The woman did not want to pay the entrance fee but still wanted to go in.

"If you want to enter the hall, just pay for it." Someone behind Yu Qi spoke up.

"What? Mind your own business." The woman turned around and said.

She was dumbfounded when she saw Long Hui. She did not blink and kept staring at Long Hui.

"Stop looking at my fiancée." Yu Qi spoke English to the woman.

The woman realized that she was staring at Long Hui and snap out of it. "Who is staring at him? Please stop saying something like that. He should mind his own business then."

"It is not him who speaks to you earlier. It is him." Yu Qi pointed to the man behind them.

The man behind them gulped. He sounded the woman while hiding behind the couple because he did not want the woman to know it was him who sounded her earlier.

Chapter 1330 1330: Stone Betting Competition

The woman glared at the man behind Yu Qi and Long Hui. Yu Qi did not want to take part in this anymore. She pulled Long Hui to the people who guarded the entrance and paid the fee for her and Long Hui.

They entered the hall right now. It was very big. It seemed it was not a single shop inside the hall. The hall contained multiple shops which sold the stones. Yu Qi and Long Hui walked around the hall.

"Attention everyone. The competition will be starting soon. If you are interested, you can register at the counter over there." The announcement startled Yu Qi.

"The competition?" Yu Qi looked at Long Hui.

"Let's go and ask someone at the counter." Long Hui said.

"Hmm..." Yu Qi nodded.

So, they went to the counter.

"Excuse me, can you tell me a bit about the competition?" Yu Qi asked someone at the counter.

"Oh, you must be a foreigner. Welcome... Welcome... I am Manager Andrew." Someone looked at Yu Qi and Long Hui.

"Yes, we are from Binhai Nation. I happen to see the Hall of Auction and decide to take a look." Yu Qi nodded.

"Owh... You must be lucky then. We just found the rarest blue jade. The size is about the size of a soccer ball. We decided to put the jade as the prize of the stone betting competition." Manager Andrew said.

"Stone betting competition?" Yu Qi's eyes lifted up.

"It seems this young lady is interested in stone betting competition?" Manager Andrew saw the excitement in Yu Qi's eyes.

"Yes. But may I ask you something?" Yu Qi asked.

"Sure. Ask me anything." Manager Andrew nodded.

"Hmm... Why don't you sell the jade? I bet it can arrive at the highest price ever." Yu Qi was confused about that.

Blue jade was the rarest color of jade. She was sure the jade lover would die to have the blue jade.

Manager Andrew chuckled. "It depends on our owner. He asks us to put this jade for the competition as the prize. Well, our owner is indeed a weird person. He probably did not think much about the jade. But he likes the excitement."

Yu Qi and Long Hui were speechless a little bit when hearing about the person's temper.

"Can you explain about the competition?" Yu Qi asked.

"You can register and pay for the fee. Then, wait for the competition to be started. You have one hour to choose 20 stones that you think contain something valuable from any shop in this hall. If you win, you get the prize. If you lose, you need to pay for every stone that you choose." Manager Andrew made it clear.

"What about the jade that we get from the chosen stone?" Yu Qi asked again.

"You can take it with you or sell them back to us." Manager Andrew said.

If you just looked at the surface, you would think that this hall of auction would loss. But if people thought deeply about that, they would see the whole picture.

People who were interested in the blue jade would participate in the competition. They would have to pay the fee. Then, after the competition, the lost party would have to pay for the stones.

"Hmm... I will register for the competition." Yu Qi said.

"You will participate? Not him?" Manager Andrew was surprised.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded.

"Oh... Sure... Let me register your name." Manager Andrew said.

"Tang Yu Qi is my name." Yu Qi told him.

Manager Andrew processed Yu Qi's registration. Yu Qi paid up the fee and completed the registration.

"Okay. I need to wait for the announcement. You can walk around first." Manager Andrew handed out a card.

Right after Yu Qi completed the registration, the woman from earlier came to the counter. Yu Qi was a little bit surprised when she saw the woman here. The woman did not want to pay the entrance fee earlier. If she was here meaning she probably paid the fee or forced herself in. But the second option was mostly not.

The woman was currently being accompanied by a man. The man stepped forward and registered himself for the competition.

"James, how long we are going to stay here?" Emily Vanose asked.

"It will be a long time. If you are bored, you can leave first." James Matt looked at Emily Vanose.

"No. My father asks me to accompany you. I will do it." Emily Vanose said.

James Matt sighed. He did not want Emily Vanose to be here with him. But his father told him that he needed to let Emily Vanose do whatever she wanted. Like this incident at the entrance.

He came here multiple times before. So, he knew about it. He forgot something in his car and decided to take it. So, he told her to wait at the entrance. He did not know that when he returned, Emily Vanose would argue with the people about the entrance fee.

He immediately pulled Emily Vanose and apologized to the people. The people seemed to remember James Matt because he came here before. So, they slid it off due to James Matt's face.

After paying the fee, they entered the hall. James Matt already knew that today would have a stone betting competition. The prize for the competition was blue jade. His father asked him to get the blue jade. So here he was.
