Chapter 1331 1331: Joining The Competition And Buying The Stone

James Matt looked at Emily Vanose. He felt strange that Emily Vanose did not speak to him. He saw her looking at a guy. He frowned.

"If you don't have to be here, you can just return home." James Matt told Emily Vanose.

Emily Vanose snapped out. Once again, she was mesmerised by the man that she just met. She turned back to James Matt with a slight guilty.

"No. I will not return home. I will accompany you." Emily Vanose was a realistic person.

She knew that she would not get such a handsome man as that man. James Matt was good enough for him. She just could not take her eyes off from that man.

"You seem to have another aim." James Matt said.

Even though he did not like Emily Vanose that much but seeing her checking another man made him uncomfortable.

"Of course not. My aim is to accompany you." Emily Vanose smiled.

James Matt snorted and looked in another direction. Without him realised, there was a slight smile on his lips.

Yu Qi and Long Hui did not stay far from those two. So, they could hear their conversation.

"It seems the girl is very clever. She is mesmerised by your look but still can think clearly about what is important to her." Yu Qi smiled.

Her impression of Emily Vanose improved a little bit. Long Hui did not care much about the woman who did not have any kind of relationship with him.

Not long after that, the announcement about the competition could be heard.

"The competition will start in 1 minute. You will be given one hour to choose 20 stones. After you finished choosing, please submit your stones to the judges over there. Okay. The competition would be started now."

The people who joined the competition began to search for the stones that they felt were worth it. The experts were making their way slowly unlike the newbies. They were eager to get the stones. So, they moved fast.

Yu Qi walked at a normal pace while Long Hui pushed the trolley. Yu Qi picked the stones one by one. She used the power of her eyes to see inside the stones. Of course, all of the stones that she chose had something worth inside them.

The onlookers saw Yu Qi's moves. They did not think much of her. They just thought that she was a woman who just came and had fun joining the competition. They would never think that this woman would win the competition.

After half an hour, Yu Qi already collected 20 stones. Yu Qi and Long Hui slowly went to the judges to give Yu Qi's stones.

"These are the stones that I choose." Yu Qi said.

"Are you sure about this? You can change the stones anymore if you submit the stones to us." One of the judges told Yu Qi.

"I am sure." Yu Qi smiled.

"Okay. We will process this." The judge nodded.

"Look someone just submitted the stones already. How fast."

"Yeah. How do they choose the stone like that?"

"From what I see, that woman is in charge of choosing the stones. I wonder if that stone had something worth inside it."

"She just grabbed whatever stone that fancy her."

"I don't know what to say about them."

Yu Qi heard people talking. She did not understand much of what they were talking but she managed to catch some of it. It seemed the onlookers were mocking her. Well, not like she cares about that.

She grabbed another trolley. This time, she wanted to buy the materials for HuiQi Jade Store. It was her plan from the beginning.

"Look, she pulls another trolley. Does she want to continue choosing the stones for the competition? Is it allowed?"

One of the organisers saw Yu Qi. He also thought the same as the others. He thought you wanted to choose the stones for the competition again. So, he approached her to remind her.

"Miss, you can't choose the stones anymore. You already submit the stones to the judges." He spoke in English because he knew that these two were not from Rixie Country.

"Huh? Am I not allowed to purchase the stones?" Yu Qi asked the organiser back.

"What? You intend to purchase the stones?" The organiser asked in confusion.

"Of course, that is my original plan. Otherwise, why do I need to come here?" Yu Qi tilted her head.

"Oh, I see..." The organiser nodded.

He thought that they came here to join the competition. Turned out, they came here solely to purchase the stones. Joining the competition was a pure coincidence.

The organiser stepped back and allowed Yu Qi and Long Hui to choose the stones. The onlookers were curious about this.

"Wait, why does the organiser not stop them?"

"I heard their conversation just now."

"What is it?"

"They came here to purchase the stones. They did not know about the competition at all. They joined the competition just for fun. So, they want to choose the stones to purchase."

"It seems they are from a rich family."

"I think so too."

"Look at the stones that she chooses for the competition. It is big in size. The price of such a big stone is very expensive. If they lose the competition, they need to pay for all of the stones too."

People were discussing about Yu Qi and Long Hui. But Yu Qi poured her energy to choose the stones.

Chapter 1332 1332: Another Blue Jade

Yu Qi pulled another trolley after one was full. People looked at them in bizarre.

"That is a lot of stones. Do they have money to pay for them?"

"As I said earlier, they are probably from a rich family."

Yu Qi was happy fun choosing the stones. She was smiling when she found the stones that had something worthy inside them. Long Hui was smiling when he saw her fiancée was having fun.

While choosing the stones, the one-hour competition was over. People submitted the stones to the judge. The judges would need time to open the stones and evaluate their values.

Everything would be done in front of everyone to make sure the competition was free of cheating. Yu Qi did not pay much for them. She just went to the payment counter to pay for the stones. Some people paid attention to Yu Qi and Long Hui.

"I want to make the payment for these stones." Yu Qi informed the cashier.

The cashier was surprised at how many stones Yu Qi wanted to buy. He could not help to get confirmation again from Yu Qi.

"You want to buy these stones?" The cashier asked.

"Yes. All of the stones in the two trolleys." Yu Qi nodded.

The cashier gulped. Not many could make many purchases at the same time as this customer.

"Is there any problem? Do you have any limit on purchasing the stones?" Yu Qi asked.

"No... No... No... Let me process the purchases." The cashier quickly processed the purchases.

He needed to ask others to help him. The process needed some time. So, Yu Qi turned her attention to the competition.

People were already surprised by Yu Qi's result. They just opened 5 stones. All of them had jade inside them.

"Wow, all of the stones she chose had jade inside them."

"How could that be?"

"I could not believe it."

"She is just lucky."

The process continued again. The more the stone was opened, the more surprised people became. One of Yu Qi's stones that they opened now had an Imperial Jade worth 100 million. Only 5 of the stones owned by Yu Qi still did not open.

All of the participants could not help to look at Yu Qi. They did not know an expert came and joined the competition. Even though Long Hui was beside Yu Qi, they did not see Long Hui involve during the selection of the stones. He just let Yu Qi make all the choices.

The cashier called Yu Qi telling them that they had already finished calculating everything. Yu Qi and Long Hui went to the counter and made the payment. The total cost exceeded 600 thousand dollars.

"Miss, do you want to cut the stones?" The cashier asked.

The cutting cost of this amount of stones would be high. There would be the commission of cutting the stones.

"No. There is no need for that. I just want you to deliver these stones to Binhai Nation. Here is the address." Yu Qi gave the name card to the cashier.

The cashier took the name card. He read what was on the card. 'HuiQi Jade.'

"Okay. We will deliver the stones to the mentioned address." The cashier nodded.

HuiQi Jade. It must be the jade-related business. He did not know it since it was in Binhai Nation.

"WOW!!!!"

There was a big exclamation. It was loud compared to when they cut Imperial Jade. Everyone turned to the judges.

"That was a blue jade and another Imperial jade."

"What is going on here?"

"Does the blue jade become a common jade?"

"How is this possible?"

"Who is she?"

Yu Qi smiled. She turned to the cashier again.

"Please send all of them too." Yu Qi pointed to the jades.

"All of them? Don't you want to sell it? I think people might want to buy them." The cashier said.

"No. I don't." Yu Qi put an end to that.

The judges opened all of the stones. There were others who got the Imperial Jade. But not everyone got 20 jades like Yu Qi. The result was clear.

Yu Qi won the competition. Some people did not give up on the blue jade. They approached Yu Qi.

"Miss, do you want to sell the blue jade?"

"Miss, if you want to sell, can you sell it to me?"

"Miss... Sell it to me."

"Miss, I can buy it at a high price."

People began to ask Yu Qi to sell the blue jade.

"I am sorry. I don't intend to sell the blue jade." Yu Qi made the statement.

People felt disappointed. But they could not do anything else. But someone did not give up. James Matt approached Yu Qi. Because James Matt looked aggressive, Long Hui pulled Yu Qi to his back.

"Can you please sell the blue jade to me?" James Matt asked in English.

"As I say earlier, I will not sell the blue jade." Yu Qi said.

"But you already have another one." James Matt argued.

"It is my choice." Yu Qi said.

"We are willing to pay any amount that you want." Emily Vanose helped James Matt.

"Hey, a lot of people want to buy the blue jade and are willing to pay the price. But she did not want to sell. You can not force her."

"Yeah. It must be their first time."

People defended Yu Qi.

Chapter 1333 1333: Meeting With Her Biological Grandmother's Old Friend

"I can say for hundred times. I will not sell anything." Yu Qi looked straight at James Matt.

At the same time, Manager Andrew came and talked to Yu Qi.

"Miss Tang, our owner would like to meet you. Do you have time now?" Manager Andrew asked.

"Okay. Lead the way." Yu Qi nodded.

She was interested to see the owner of the blue jade. What made him decide to put the blue jade as the prize for the competition? She liked to know the answer.

Both Yu Qi and Long Hui were brought to a room. Manager Andrew asked someone to bring drinks for them. A few minutes later, a man walked into the room.

It was an old man. Assuming he was in the same range of age as Grandpa Tang. When Yu Qi turned to look at him, he froze.

"Yi Yi?" The old man said something.

Even though his voice was low, Yu Qi and Long Hui heard what he said. 'Yi Yi.' It was not an unfamiliar name. Yi Yi was her grandmother's name. Dian Yi Yi.

"What is your relationship with Dian Yi Yi?" The old man slowly sat down in front of Yu Qi and Long Hui.

It seemed this old man knew her grandmother. But she could not admit that Dian Yi Yi was her grandmother. People did not know that Dian Qi Qi had a granddaughter. Also, it would be dangerous to her grandfather, Grandpa Mu if others knew about her existence.

"Who is Dian Yi Yi?" Yu Qi asked back.

"You don't know her?" The old man was taken back.

"I don't know a person with that name." Yu Qi shook her head.

"What? But... Why? Your face?" The old man was mumbling.

"Hmm?? What about my face?" Yu Qi asked back, touching her face while looking at Long Hui.

The old man recovered himself after that. He realized that this young woman was not related to the woman he knew before.

"I am sorry. I lost myself earlier. It is just your face... it is very familiar to my close friend before." The old man smiled.

"I see." Yu Qi just accepted what the old man said.

"So, you are the one who gets the blue jade?" The old man asked Yu Qi.

He heard from his staff that this girl won the competition. Not only that all of the stones that she chose had jade inside them. Not anyone could get a result like that.

"Yes, I am." Yu Qi smiled.

"How do you do that?" The old man liked to know the secret.

"It is my instinct." How could Yu Qi tell anyone that her eyes had the power to see what inside things? So, she just could lie about that.

The old man laughed. He knew the young woman would not tell him the secret. If she just got one or twice, it might be just a coincidence. But if all of the stones she chose had jade inside them, that was not a coincidence.

"May I know your name, Young Miss?" The old man asked.

"Tang Yu Qi and this is my fiancée. We are from Binhai Nation." Yu Qi answered.

"I see. I am Noel Ruston." Noel Ruston also introduced himself.

"Hmm... Can I know why you put the blue jade as the prize? You can get a lot of money by selling it." Yu Qi asked what she wanted to know the most.

"Hmm... I don't know. I just think it is better to give to someone else. The blue jade is fated to be in your hand, Miss Tang. You are also similar to its previous owner." Noel Ruston smiled. His mind seemed to wander to the past.

Yu Qi looked at Long Hui. She was surprised to hear that. The blue jade was previously owned by her grandmother. She could not confirm the assumption because it was dangerous.

"It seems you also buy a lot of stones too." Noel Ruston said.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded.

"We will be sending your things as soon as possible. Don't worry about that." Noel Ruston said. "It is time for me to go. Nice to meet you. If we have another chance to meet, let's have dinner too."

"Sure." Yu Qi nodded.

Both Yu Qi and Long Hui left the room. Noel Ruston looked at Yu Qi once again. He really thought that he was meeting back with Dian Yi Yi.

Dian Yi Yi was his friend when he was younger. Well, he had a crush on her on their first meeting. However, Dian Yi Yi already had someone beside her at that time. If she did not have anyone, Noel Ruston might confess to her and get married to her.

But now he met someone who looked similar to his first love. However, it seemed it was just a coincidence. The young woman did not know Dian Yi Yi.

"It seems he is an old friend of your grandmother." Long Hui said.

"Yes. It seems so. But I could not admit it." Yu Qi smiled. "But I am surprised when knowing the blue jade was my grandmother's thing."

"Yeah." Long Hui chuckled.

"Owh. I already have an idea what to do with the blue jade I got from Mr. Noel." Yu Qi clapped her hands.

"What is it?" Long Hui asked

"You will see later." Yu Qi just grinned without giving an answer.

Her aim for coming here had already been achieved. Yu Qi felt happy.

Chapter 1334 1334: Try To Rob Them

"We can't get closer to her."

"Yeah. She is also with that man."

"Do we need to follow her anymore?"

"It is the order from upper. We need to follow her and try to get in touch with her."

The people who had stalked Yu Qi and Long Hui did not know that they had been discovered by Yu Qi and Long Hui. It was just they did not bother to care.

Both Yu Qi and Long Hui did not want to return to the hotel since the night was still young. They decided to take a walk.

As for dinner, they found a stall that sold hot noddle. They ordered two bowls of hot noddle.

"I never thought to taste an authentic taste here." Yu Qi tasted the soup.

"Owh, are you from Binhai Nation?" The owner of the stall spoke to them with broken Binhainese.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded.

"Owh... welcome... welcome. My husband is also from Binhai Nation." The owner said. "I learned this recipe from him. He is a good cook."

No wonder the taste was similar.

"Where are your husband?" Yu Qi asked.

"He is feeling unwell. So, I make him stay home." The owner could not help to sound so worried.

The owner rushed to make the noddle when she got other customers. While they were eating, some of the men came to the stall. It seemed they wanted to try to ruin the business by scaring the customers.

The customers immediately ran away. The owner was very stressed when she saw the group come and scared her customers.

"What are you trying to do?" The owner shouted in Rixie Language.

One of the men held the bat and pointed the bat at the owner. "You stay out of this."

The owner became scared and shut her mouth. The group of men surrounded Yu Qi and Long Hui. It was their aim from the beginning.

"I know that you are rich. You better hand me your money." One of them, assuming their leader spoke to Yu Qi and Long Hui in English.

"Hmm...." Yu Qi lifted up her hand and looked at the men. "You are..."

The men were shocked to see Yu Qi's appearance. Her look was very enticing. The leader coughed several times.

"Give me your money." The leader said once again.

"If we don't..." Yu Qi lifted her brow.

"We will beat you up." The leader did not look at Yu Qi but at Long Hui.

"Just want to ask. Why do you try to rob us?" Yu Qi asked again.

"We already know that you have a lot of money. You can't try to fool me." The leader smirked.

Yu Qi narrowed her eyes. A lot of money... These men might know them from the hall of auction.

"If you don't want to give us your money. We will beat up you and steal your woman." The leader gave the warning to Long Hui.

They thought the money belonged to Long Hui. Long Hui just wanted to make Yu Qi happy by giving money to Yu Qi. One of them indeed knew Yu Qi and Long Hui from the hall of auction.

He just saw Yu Qi paid for the stones. It was not a small amount. So, he assumed the couple was loaded. So, he rushed out and went to tell his friends about this. The couple was foreigners. They would just need to threaten the couple a little bit and they were sure that they would get the money.

Yu Qi chuckled. "Brother Hui, they think I am just a vase that using your money."

"Well, I am willing to shower you with love and money." Long Hui replied.

Even though the men did not understand what the couple had been talking about, they felt annoyed.

"Just hand out your money." The leader shouted.

He even signaled his men to lift the bat. Yu Qi glanced.

"I want to play. Let me handle this." Yu Qi smirked.

"As you wish, my lady." Long Hui nodded.

Yu Qi began to move. With the flick of seconds, all of the men except the leader fell to the ground, growling in pain. The leader was shocked to see his men fall down just like that.

He turned to look at Yu Qi. He saw her movement. She hit his men very fast. He gulped. It seemed they had targeted the powerful one.

"Stop whatever you're doing."

Yu Qi and Long Hui turned and saw the policemen rushing there. The leader saw the police coming. He wanted to run away. When he was about to run away, he could feel the pain in his leg. He immediately fell down and held his leg. It felt very painful. He did not know why he suddenly felt that way.

Yu Qi smiled at Long Hui. It was Long Hui who made the move.

"Mr police, they are trying to rob this couple. Catch them." The owner of the stall said to the policemen.

"Are you the one who called the police?" The policeman asked after the men had been handcuffed.

"Yeah. It's me." The owner of the stall nodded.

"All right." The policeman turned to the couple mentioned by the owner. However, he was surprised to see them.

"You are from today." The policeman said. "The bomb."

When the policeman shouted the bomb, Yu Qi and Long Hui immediately understood that this policeman was also at the scene.

Chapter 1335 1335: Met Qin Xia

"We never thought to see you again." The policeman said.

He admired Long Hui's courage to defuse the bomb.

"Don't worry. We will take care of these robbers." The policeman saluted Long Hui.

Long Hui replied by nodding. The police did not waste their time here anymore. They began to transport the criminals.

Yu Qi turned to the owner of the stall. "Thank you for calling the police."

"It is just a call. No worries." The owner shook her head.

"Here is the payment. The noodle is delicious." Yu Qi paid for their food.

She then pulled Long Hui to leave.

The owner looked at the money. "Wait... The change..." She noticed that the young woman paid a lot just for the two bowls.

"It is for other customers who run away earlier." Yu Qi explained.

"No need for you to pay for them." The owner said.

"Owner, the robbers came here because of us. We brought the problem to your stall. We need to apologize for that too. I knew if we don't pay for that too, it would add trouble for your finances." Yu Qi smiled.

The owner was stunned. She did not think to see such a kind-hearted young woman like Yu Qi these days. "If you say that way... Thank you. Please come again."

Yu Qi nodded. Yu Qi and Long Hui left the stall.

The medical conference would be continued at a different venue. It was being strictly controlled by the police. The organizer got the police involved in this situation.

The police would be checking all of the people when they entered the venue. They did not want some random men and women entering the venue, bringing illegal things that could create chaos inside.

Even people from Rixie Country's government came to see the situation. They even publicly apologized to the participants of the medical conference. After that, the medical conference runs smoothly.

"Fuh... this is over." Su Ziqing sighed. "This is the first time I experienced this kind of thing."

"It would be a great memory." Teng Li chuckled.

"What great memory? It is a horror memory, okay?" Su Ziqing rolled her eyes.

"Why don't we go drinking tonight after dinner to celebrate?" Yi Qihan suggested.

"I'm on." Teng Li said.

"You guys just want to drink. So, you find reasons to like this." Su Ziqing snorted.

"Just once in a while, okay?" Teng Li said.

"We can do it." Yu Qi smiled.

"Yes, our leader already give the permission." Yi Qihan grinned.

"Let's go to the clubhouse after dinner." Teng Li also grinned.

So, after they had their dinner, they headed to the clubhouse. This place was suggested by the hotel staff. It was a great place to hang out.

They chose to be in the private room. It would have a lot of privacy when they were drinking. However, when they were about to enter the room, someone called Yu Qi's name.

"Yu Qi."

Yu Qi knew the voice. She turned around and shouted. "Brother Xia."

Qin Xia smiled to see Yu Qi. He even gave a provoking look at Long Hui. Long Hui narrowed her eyes.

"Your Grace..." Dian Shu Xian bowed his head. He knew this voice belonged to who. He did not dare to lift up his face to look at the ancestor.

"Someone from that place?" Qin Xia looked at Dian Shu Xian.

"Hmm... he is technically my cousin." Yu Qi nodded.

"Oh..." Qin Xia narrowed his eyes.

Others were confused to see this situation. Dian Shu Xian was very respectful toward this new man. They were curious about this man's identity.

"Are you alone? You can join us." Yu Qi invited Qin Xia to drink with them.

"I would like to do so... But I need to meet this client. Maybe next time, okay?" Qin Xia wanted to pat Yu Qi's head.

However, a hand blocked him again. It was the same as the last time they met in the cultivation world.

"Please, don't pat her head." Long Hui pulled Yu Qi.

"Humph!" Qin Xia snorted and turned around.

"You are always feeling jealous to him." Yu Qi glanced at Long Hui.

"I can't help." Long Hui coughed.

"Well, let's go into our room." Yu Qi said.

After they sat, Su Ziqing asked Yu Qi about the man earlier.

"Yu Qi, who is he?" Su Ziqing was curious about him.

"He is like my brother." Yu Qi smiled.

"But why does Shu Xian looks very respectfully toward him?" Ling Xuan looked at Dian Shu Xian.

"He is a respectful figure in our family. Of course, I feel respectfully toward him." Dian Shu Xian answered vaguely.

He could not answer by saying he was an ancestor from cultivation world. People would give a weird look at him. However, he was curious about Yu Qi and Qin Xia relationship. It seemed Yu Qi knew Qin Xia before.

It made sense when Qin Xia invited Yu Qi and Long Hui for dinner after the martial arts competition. He thought Qin Xia invited Yu Qi because she was the winner of the martial arts competition. No wonder the ancestor acted out of his character before.

"What does he do?" Yi Qihan asked.

"He is a businessman." Yu Qi answered.

"Hmm... he indeed has that kind of vibe." Teng Li said.

"Enough with this topic. Let's order some drinks." Long Hui stopped them talking about that man,

"Yeah. Let's have a blast tonight." Yi Qihan said. "Yu Qi, you need to drink too."

"Okay... okay..." Yu Qi nodded.

She was planning to do so.

Chapter 1336 1336: My Name Is Qin Yue

Yu Qi was drinking a lot. She did not hold back even after two glasses, she became drunk. She was smiling. She did not recognize anyone else.

"You are handsome. You would become my man." Yu Qi said.

"Hahaha... Yu Qi is funny when she is drunk. It is probably because of this, she does not like to drink alcohol too much." Teng Li said.

"Yu Qi, how about us? Are we handsome?" Yi Qihan grabbed Yu Qi's attention.

Yu Qi looked around. "Humph... handsome? You? Are you dreaming?" She stopped at Dian Shu Xian.

"You are half decent."

Dian Shu Xian laughed. "Should I be happy about that?"

"Yu Qi is harsh." Yi Qihan acted like he was heartbroken.

Others were laughing.

"Handsome, are you agree to be my man?" Yu Qi turned to look at Long Hui again.

"I already become your man." Long Hui smiled.

"Really, when?" Yu Qi tilted her head.

"A long time ago." Long Hui answered.

"Eh... Really? Why don't I remember about that?" Yu Qi touched her chin. "Never mind... You already become my man. You can not allow being with another woman, understand?"

"Yes, Madam... I will let you control my life." Long Hui just obeyed Yu Qi

"Good. I will not let your life unhappy." Yu Qi nodded satisfyingly.

"What is this? Am I watching a drama?" Teng Li said.

"Hahaha... Yu Qi is so domineering." Su Ziqing laughed.

"I want to go to the toilet." Yu Qi stood up.

"I will accompany you." Long Hui followed Yu Qi.

"Go go... Can't let her go alone." Su Ziqing said.

So, Long Hui followed Yu Qi to the toilet.

"Do you want to follow in too?" Yu Qi asked.

Long Hui did not realize that he was about to enter the toilet too. He stopped at the entrance.

"I will wait outside." Long Hui said.

Yu Qi laughed. After refreshing herself, she went out. She grinned at Long Hui. Long Hui just smiled when seeing Yu Qi grinning at him. When they were about to arrive at their room, Yu Qi let go of the arm that she had been holding before.

"Senior Brother Xia." Yu Qi shouted.

Long Hui frowned as he heard the name that she shouted.

Qin Xia just finished his meeting. So, he was leaving the room. His eyes twitched as he heard someone shout the name. The name had been long forgotten.

The men who had a meeting with Qin Xia also heard too. They turned around and saw a woman rushing over to Qin Xia. They knew that Qin Xia disliked women who wanted to get closer to him.

There was one time that they were having a meeting with Qin Xia. They prepared a beautiful woman to serve Qin Xia. However, Qin Xia mercilessly threw the woman out. He even gave a stern warning that they should never give a woman to him.

The men thought that Qin Xia would at least avoid the woman's approach. But to their shock, the woman managed to hug Qin Xia without Qin Xia protesting.

"Senior Brother Xia." Yu Qi smiled.

"Hmm..." Qin Xia patted Yu Qi's head.

Long Hui frowned and immediately pulled Yu Qi from Qin Xia. Qin Xia just smiled.

Yu Qi looked over to see who pulled her from her Senior Brother Xia.

The men were surprised that Qin Xia did not even get angry with the woman. It seemed Qin Xia knew the woman. Even doted on her when they looked at the situation.

"Senior Brother Xia, I find this man attractive. I will make him mine." Yu Qi hugged Long Hui's arm.

Qin Xia's eyes narrowed for a moment before returning to normal.

"Are you sure you want him?" Qin Xia asked.

"Of course. I will tame him." Yu Qi smiled.

"You can do what you want to do." Qin Xia said.

"Oh, you must be busy. Senior Brother Qin, take care of yourself. But don't forget to find me a sister-in-law." Yu Qi laughed.

Qin Xia just chuckled and left. The men followed him too.

"Who is he?" Long Hui asked.

"My senior brother." Yu Qi said.

"Your Senior Brother?" Long Hui narrowed his eyes.

"Yes. He was taking care of me before. The best brother ever." Yu Qi was smiling.

"I forget to ask you. What is your name?" Long Hui asked for confirmation.

"Mine? My name is Qin Yue." Yu Qi introduced herself.

....

Yu Qi woke up and found herself on the bed. She had been sleeping in Long Hui's arms. Long Hui was still sleeping.

She felt her head spinning. "Argh..."

This sound made Long Hui woke up.

"Are you okay, Qi Qi?" Long Hui asked.

"My head is hurt." Yu Qi massaged her head.

"Where is the sober pill? Where do you put them?" Long Hui came out of bed.

"Inside my purse." Yu Qi pointed to her purse.

Long Hui took the sober pill and also a glass of water. He gave them to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi took 2 pills and put them inside her mouth before drinking the water.

The pills would take a few minutes to give an effect on the body. After about 5 minutes, Yu Qi began to feel better.

"What happened last night?" Yu Qi asked.

"As expected, you drunk." Long Hui chuckled.

"Did I do something embarrassing?" Yu Qi could not remember what she had done last night. She just hope that she did not do something embarrassing in front of her friends.

Chapter 1337 1337: Attempting To Kidnap Mr Noel

"Well... you proudly declare me as your man." Long Hui smiled.

"What? Really? Everyone already knew that you are mine. Why am I doing that? So embarrassing." Yu Qi cupped her face with her hands.

"I am so happy though." Long Hui hugged Yu Qi.

"What else I do?" Yu Qi lifted her face to look at Long Hui.

"You did not remember anything?" Long Hui narrowed his eyes.

"Did I do something more embarrassing than that?" Yu Qi's eyes opened widely.

Long Hui watched Yu Qi's reaction. It seemed Yu Qi genuinely did not remember what happened last night. If she did not remember, it was better for him not to probe into the situation anymore.

"Well, you said you will tame me. So, we returned to the hotel first. And you did tame me with your body." Long Hui teased Yu Qi.

"What? Really? It is so embarrassing." Yu Qi hid her head in Long Hui's chest.

Long Hui just laughed.

Then, Yu Qi grabbed her phone. "It's already 10 a.m. Our flight will be at 3 p.m. Let's pack things up."

Without waiting for Long Hui's answer, she jumped out of the bed. She started to pack their things.

At 12 p.m they checked out. They headed on to the airport together with the bodyguard team. The soldiers blended perfectly with the crowd. The research team even forgot the existence of these soldiers.

To Yu Qi's surprise, she met with Noel Ruston and his assistant at the airport too.

"Mr. Noel." Yu Qi greeted Noel Ruston.

"Oh, Miss Tang, we meet again." Noel Ruston gave a friendly smile.

"Who is this, Yu Qi?" Su Ziqing asked while looking at Noel Ruston.

"Oh, it is Mr. Noel Ruston. We meet on another day at the Hall of auction." Yu Qi introduced Noel Ruston to others. "They are my research team."

"Research team?" Noel Ruston was surprised.

"Oh, I forget to tell you that I am a doctor and also involved in research. We are here at Rixie Country because we come here to attend the medical conference." Yu Qi explained.

"I see. Medical conference? Does it involve the bomb incident two days ago?" Noel Ruston recalled the news that he watched.

"Yeah. But everyone is fine. Not one injured or die." Yu Qi said. "By the way, where are you going?"

"No need for you to know." The assistant suddenly spoke.

"Micheal, don't speak like that to Miss Tang." Noel Ruston reminded the assistant, Micheal. He turned to Yu Qi. I think going to vacation at Fanghai Nation."

"Oh, I see. Have a nice vacation." Yu Qi said.

"We are going first. Take care of yourself." Noel Ruston and Micheal left.

Yu Qi looked at Noel Ruston's back. It seemed Noel Ruston wanted to go to Fanghai Nation because of her grandmother. Seeing a face that was similar to his old friend's made him want to go over there.

Yu Qi could not tell him that she was the granddaughter of Dian Yi Yi. As she watched Noel Ruston, she noticed a group of men following Noel Ruston. The group seemed to wait for Noel Ruston to walk away.

Yu Qi immediately used her power to see the men's bodies. Her assumption was right. The men were armed. Then she thought, maybe it was Noel Ruston's bodyguard team. When to think about that, Noel Ruston was wealthy. So, he should have a group of bodyguards.

When she was about to turn, the group rushed and grabbed Noel Ruston. Micheal was pushed to the ground. Seeing the situation, Yu Qi rushed over. Long Hui already did not say anything and followed Yu Qi.

"Let him go." Yu Qi shouted.

The shout made the people realize something had happened. The group saw Yu Qi. They frowned. They remembered that this woman was an acquaintance of Noel Ruston.

Since the situation already elevated to this, the group felt there was no need to hide anymore.

"Stop, if you don't know I blow this old man's head." The man who grabbed Noel Ruston pointed a gun at Noel Ruston's head.

Yu Qi and Long Hui stopped...

"What are you trying to do?" Yu Qi frowned.

"None of your business." The man shouted.

The airport security already called the police.

"Prepare the helicopter for them. Otherwise..." The man put the gun even closer.

Dian Shu Xian approached Yu Qi.

"What is the situation?" Dian Shu Xian asked.

"They seem a kidnapper team. But I don't know the detail." Yu Qi explained to Dian Shu Xian.

"One, two, three, four, five, six." Dian Shu Xian calculated. "We can handle it quickly."

"What? Are you sure?" Yu Qi asked.

"Of course, we will not be using any power. Just use the speed. We need to knock them out." Dian Shu Xian suggested.

"It seems a great idea." Long Hui also agreed with the idea.

"Great. Get ready. Three, two, one." Dian Shu Xian said.

Once Dian Shu Xian finished saying one, three of them rushed over toward Noel Ruston. Yu Qi took care of the men who were nearby Noel Ruston. She used an appropriate amount of power to knock them out.

Dian Shu Xian and Long Hui took care other four. The onlookers were shocked when they watched this. The three of them were very fast. The bad men fell unconscious on the floor.

"Are you okay, Mr. Noel?" Yu Qi asked.

Chapter 1338 1338: Want To Bribe Qin Xia

"I am fine. Thank you." Noel Ruston said.

"Mr. Noel, I think we should call our team." Micheal, who already stood up, took his phone out.

"I will listen to your judgment." Noel Ruston nodded.

Micheal immediately called the bodyguard team. As for the bad men, they had been restricted by airport security. They also called the police.

When the police came, Micheal took care of everything. Yu Qi, Long Hui, and Dian Shu Xian returned to their place. They could hear people talking about them.

"Yu Qi, you are awesome. How can you be so fast?" Su Ziqing asked.

"Well, I am practicing martial arts. Brother Hui and Brother Shu Xian are the same. So..." Yu Qi smiled.

"Shu Xian, please teach me." Teng Li begged Dian Shu Xian.

"Me too... Please teach me too." Yi Qihan also begged Dian Shu Xian.

Ling Xuan also looked at Dian Shu Xian with hopeful eyes. Dian Shu Xian sighed.

"Even though you start practicing the martial arts, I can not guarantee that you will be fast as me." Dian Shu Xian explained.

"Don't worry. We just want to be stronger." Ling Xuan said.

"Why don't they ask you too?" Yu Qi looked at Long Hui.

"We are not familiar with each other. It will be awkward. So, just let me teach you... You can have all of me by yourself. You should be happy." Long Hui teased Yu Qi.

Yu Qi hit Long Hui's shoulder. "You..."

"Some people are giving us dog food. When can I be like them?" Yi Qihan sighed.

"We are here for you." Teng Li patted Yi Qihan's shoulder.

"You are the same as me." Yi Qihan rolled his eyes.

.....

Qin Xia finished looking at the document. Min Liang took care of the document and left. Qin Xia recalled the last night incident.

Yu Qi called him 'senior brother Xia' as she called him in the past. He was wondering if Yu Qi remembered the past.

However, when he investigated things again, it seemed Yu Qi was drunk. He could smell the alcohol when Yu Qi hugged him last night. The alcohol made the memory that she should not remember, come by. He sighed.

If she recalled everything that happened in the past, she would feel devastated. He really hope she did not remember everything.

His mind was lingering on the past when everything was still fine. They were cultivating together at the mountain. Killing the beast, eating, and sleeping on the mountain.

That time was very precious to him. He did not know what went wrong.

"Sir, you have another meeting." Min Liang entered the room and reminded Qin Xia about the meeting.

So, Qin Xia followed Min Liang to another clubhouse. People were already in the room. Qin Xia looked at the people inside and was displeased with what he saw.

"You, go and serve him well." One of the people in the room ordered one of the women inside the room.

"Mr. Qin, she will serve you well." The man smiled flatteringly.

Min Liang also frowned. He did not expect to see this kind of trick again. The man should know that his boss disliked discussing the business in this kind of situation.

The woman smiled innocently at Qin Xia. She was about to grab Qin Xia's arm. If she could get the man, her life would be great. But she had pulled away. Her body collided hard with the wall. She could not help to shout in pain. The other women also shouted seeing the woman being pushed like that.

"I come here to discuss the business. It seems you are not interested in that. It's okay. I will cancel this. There will be no contract for your company anymore." Qin Xia turned and walked out of the room.

One of the men inside the room snapped out. If he did not do something now, he would lose the contract. His father would be passed off.

He thought it would be perfect. Yesterday, he heard from someone that he was hugged by some random drunk girl. He did not even angry about that. However, the person forgot to tell him that Qin Xia knew the girl.

"Mr. Qin, wait.. please wait. I will order the girl to get lost. Please wait. Don't cancel our contract." The man blocked Qin Xia.

Qin Xia narrowed his eyes. The man was shocked to see Qin Xia's current expression.

"Y.. you..." The man stumbled and fell backward.

Qin Xin stepped aside and walked passing the man.

"Mr. Delius, please excuse us." Min Liang showed a perfect smile.

The man was staring blankly. His father would be really passed off when his father heard about this.

"This is that woman's fault. If they are not there, everything will not turn on like this." The man blamed the woman.

He totally forgot that he was the one who brought the women in the first place.

If you cross the line, you are finished. That was what Min Liang thought. These men thought Qin Xia was a normal man like them. They were mistaken.

Qin Xia did not behave like a normal human. He was a cold man. He disliked humans relationship. But only with Miss Tang, he would look like a normal human. He really respected Miss Tang.

And now they wanted to bribe Qin Xia with such a woman. It was laughable. Normal women did not enter his boss's eyes.

Chapter 1339 1339: Bringing The Twin To The Zoo

A week after returning from Rixie Country, Yu Qi barely had any free time. Her work as a doctor, as a businesswoman... Because of the trip to Rixie Country, a lot of work was delayed.

She often used her space to sleep because time moved slower compared to the outside world.

Her friends were impressed with her. They even asked her how she managed her time. Of course, she made a story to cover it up.

Finally, the work calmed down a little bit. She managed to relax a little bit. She had a day off. She wanted to spend with her family. Long Hui told her that he had something else to do. Yu Qi did not ask much about that. She assumed it must be related to the military.

After breakfast, she went to see Tang Bo Lin and Tang Heng Nue. Tang Bo Lin was especially happy to see Yu Qi. He wanted Yu Qi to pick him up. Yu Qi did not hesitate to pick up.

"Ahhh... Ah!" Tang Bo Lin was excited.

Seeing this, Tang Heng Nue became jealous. She wanted Yu Qi to pick her up too. Her hands were waving to Yu Qi.

"Okay... I will pick you too." Using one hand, she picked Tang Heng Nue too.

Tang Heng Nue was happy. The twin started to talk to each other. Yu Qi could not understand that.

"You are here, Yu Qi. No wonder I heard Bo Lin's voice. He is with his beloved sister." Su Xiao laughed.

"Hmm... it has been a while since I played with them." Yu Qi said.

"Do you plan to stay home today?" Su Xiao asked.

"Hey... Yeah... I want to spend time with these cute ones." Yu Qi kissed both Tang Bo Lin and Tang Heng Nue.

"Hmmm.... why don't we go to the zoo today? Bo Lin and Heng Nue would be happy about this." Su Xiao suggested.

"Hmm... That's great. I will bring Aoi and Shino too." Yu Qi nodded. She turned to the twin who was still in her arms. "We are going to the zoo today."

"Ahhh...." Tang Heng Nue responded.

"Hmmm...." Tang Bo Lin nodded as he understood the situation.

Yu Qi put the twin down. Tang Bo Lin protested. He still wanted Yu Qi to carry him.

"I will come back. Okay..." Yu Qi patted Tang Bo Lin's head.

Tang Bo Lin immediately became obedient.

Yu Qi went to change the clothes to something casual and comfortable, at the same time suitable for going out. She told Aoi and Shino that they would be going to the zoo with the twin.

Su Xiao appeared with the twin and a maid.

"Auntie Ming Yue don't follow us?" Yu Qi asked when she did not see Ming Yue.

"Oh, she tells me that she has work to do today. So, she can not follow us." Su Xiao asked.

"Is that so? Well, never mind then. Let's go, shall we?" Yu Qi smiled as she looked at the twin.

The driver was already waiting for them. They used a bigger car because they wanted to fit two strollers and other baby things.

They arrived at the zoo one hour later. The zoo had other visitors. To think about it, it was currently a holiday for the schools. So, some parents brought their children to the zoo. However, the numbers were not overwhelming.

Yu Qi went to get the tickets. After getting the tickets, they went to the entrance. Once they were inside, Tang Heng Nue actively talked her baby language while pointing her fingers around. As for Tang Bo Lin, he was calmer down. Although his eyes were looking around. It showed that he was also excited. It was a new world for them.

The first animal that they were to see was an Orang Utan. Tang Heng Nue was excited to see them. Orang Utan was a friendly animal. One of them was interested in the babies. She came closer. She looked at the babies in interest.

Tang Heng Nue pointed her finger at the Orang Utan. Orang Utan stretched out her hand from the cage too. She touched Tang Heng Nue's finger. Then she was smiling. Yu Qi took out her phone and captured the moment.

"Our Heng Nue is very cute even animal wants to touch her." Yu Qi smiled.

After watching the orangutan, they went to see the giraffe. As for the giraffe, they could feed the giraffe with food provided by the zoo.

Yu Qi picked up Tang Bo Lin and put a carrot in his hand. Then she guided the small hand to feed the giraffe. Tang Bo Lin did not look scared at all when facing a tall animal.

The giraffe came closer as it saw the food in Tang Bo Lin's hand. It immediately grabbed the food with its mouth by Tang Bo Lin's hand. Tang Bo Lin blinked several times and turned to look at Yu Qi. His face was very funny.

Su Xiao also picked up Tang Heng Nue. She also did the same thing. Tang Heng Nue also did not seem to be scared to feed the giraffe. She even talked loudly.

Yu Qi and Su Xiao were smiling when seeing her reaction. It was so cute.

They were doing the same thing. This time, Su Xiao asked the maid to capture the pictures of the twin feeding the giraffe.

Chapter 1340 1340: Misunderstand For Having A Baby

"Yu Qi, Heng Nuo needs to change her diaper. I will go to the bathroom. Can you take care of Bo Lin for a moment?" Su Xiao said.

"Hmm... Let's check if Bo Lin needs to change his diaper too. If that is the case, we can go together." Yu Qi suggested.

"Oh... Okay." Su Xiao nodded.

So, Su Xiao checked if Tang Bo Lin needed to change his diaper.

"It seems he did not need to change his diaper." Su Xiao said. She then talked to Tang Bo Lin. She patted Tang Bo Lin's head. "You need to wait here with Sister Yu Qi. Don't make trouble for her, okay."

"Ahh!" Tang Bo Lin responded.

Su Xiao smiled and left with Tang Heng Nuo with the maid leaving Tang Bo Lin and Yu Qi behind.

Yu Qi went to the stall that sold drinks. She bought one for her. She took out the bottle of milk.

"Here... This is for you. You are probably thirsty from looking around." Yu Qi gave the bottle to Tang Bo Lin.

Tang Bo Lin was already strong enough to hold the bottle by himself. So, he took the bottle and drink by himself.

"Our Bo Lin is very cool." Yu Qi laughed when she saw Tang Bo Lin's action.

Both of them drank their drink in silence after that. However, it caught everyone's action. With Yu Qi's beauty and Tang Bo Lin's cuteness, people kept looking in their direction.

At first, Yu Qi did not notice but after a while, she caught people and turned around when she looked at them. If only one was doing that, she might not notice but if around 10 people were doing the same thing, how could she not notice it?

"Papa, this baby is cute." A small girl came and pointed at Tang Bo Lin.

"Xiao Ming, you can not point your finger at someone like that. That's rude." A man approached and reminded the small girl.

"I am sorry for her action." The man apologized.

"It's okay. I don't mind." Yu Qi shook her head.

"Sister, what is this baby's name?" The small girl asked.

"His name is Tang Bo Lin. Your name?" Yu Qi told Tang Bo Lin's name to the small girl.

"Me? I am Baili Ming, you can call me Xiao Ming. What is your name, Pretty Sister?" Baili Ming asked.

"Tang Yu Qi." Yu Qi smiled.

"Oh, so Baby Tang Bo Lin is your son." Baili Ming smiled.

Yu Qi wanted to deny it but someone already called Baili Ming. Baili Ming turned around and ran toward an old woman.

"Grandma, look, there is a pretty Sister and her son. They are Tang Yu Qi and Tang Bo Lin. Her son is so cute." Baili Ming showed Yu Qi and Tang Bo Lin to the old woman.

The old woman looked at Yu Qi, apparently judging Yu Qi. She immediately smiled.

"Like Xiao Ming said. You are really pretty." The old woman said.

"Is your husband not around?" The old woman looked around.

"No... I don't have a husband." Yu Qi shook her head.

"Oh, I am sorry to hear that." The old woman showed sympathy to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi felt that the old woman misunderstood the whole situation. And she did not know where to start explaining.

The old woman immediately gave Yu Qi a big smile. She turned to the man who talked to Baili Ming before. She pulled the man's hand and talked to Yu Qi.

"This is my son. Even though he is a little bit old but he is a nice guy and father. You can get to know each other." The old woman suggested.

"Mum, what are you talking about?" The man was surprised when hearing his mother say something like that to a stranger.

"How could you miss this opportunity to know someone?" The old woman glared at her son while whispering to him.

"But..." The man wanted to protest but his mother made him shut up.

"Grandma, what are you talking about daddy?" Baili Ming asked.

The old woman whispered to Baili Ming. "Do you like this pretty Sister as your mother?"

"I do." Baili Ming nodded. Her eyes were shining.

"I think you misunderstand something here." Yu Qi wanted to explain further but Su Xiao appeared with Tang Heng Nue and the maid.

"Yu Qi, does Bo Lin behave?" Su Xiao asked.

"Another cute baby." Baili Ming said.

"Who is this?" Su Xiao just noticed there were other people around Yu Qi. It seemed they were talking to Yu Qi before she came.

"Oh, we just talking for a moment." Yu Qi said to Su Xiao and turned to the old woman. "Madam, as I say before, you misunderstanding something."

"Misunderstand?" The old woman was confused.

"Yes. It is true that I don't have a husband but I have a fiancée. And this baby is not mine. It is my auntie's son. This is my auntie." Yu Qi pointed to Su Xiao.

"What? Her son?" The old woman could not believe it.

"Yes, she gave birth to this pair of babies." Yu Qi nodded.

"Oh... I see... I am sorry for the misunderstood. But, are you really engaged to someone?" The old woman still did not give up.

"Of course. I love him." Yu Qi gave a clear answer.

The old woman sighed. "I see. Sorry to bother you."
