1601 Chapter 1601

Yu Qi and Long Hui had a lot of fun playing with the water. Yu Qi wanted to take a break. So, they decided to go and took a rest at the cafe.

While enjoying their break, they suddenly heard a scream shouting for help. They rushed to the place where the scream could be heard.

Since it was not too many people on the weekdays, they spotted an unconscious person floating on the water. The woman screamed for help. But no lifeguards around to help them.

"Brother Hui, please help the person out." Yu Qi stated.

Long Hui jumped into the pool. He dragged the unconscious person out of the water. The woman quickly approached them.

"Nangong!!!" The woman shouted. It was probably this unconscious person's name.

"Miss, step aside. We need to do CPR right now. Otherwise, he will die." Yu Qi said while pulling the woman away.

She did not care about the woman's feeling right now. This man's life was the most important thing right now.

"Brother Hui, make him lay down properly." Yu Qi said.

Long Hui placed the man in the proper position for CPR. Yu Qi checked his breathing. The man was not breathing at all.

Yu Qi started CPR. Five minutes into CPR, the person began to be conscious again. He coughed some water out.

"Nangong, are you okay?" The woman touched the man while crying.

"Yes... I am... Okay..." The man stabilised his breath properly.

βandasnovel.com "You should go and check to the hospital. Just to make sure you are perfectly okay." Yu Qi said.

The man looked in the direction of the voice. He was quite surprised to see such beauty.

"Thank you for saving me." The man nodded feeling gratitude toward the woman.

"Nangong, even though she save you, she pushed me away." The woman complained to the man.

Yu Qi heard the complaint and quickly responded to the woman. "If I don't push you, he might be dead. Is that what you want?"

"Of course not!" The woman shook her head.

Yu Qi did not care about the couple anymore. Right now, she looked around searching for the lifeguards. At all of the rides and swimming pools, it should be two lifeguards on duty.

Then, she saw both of them rushed forward to the scene.

"Are you the lifeguards?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes." They answered.

"Then, where are both of you when this man drowning?" Yu Qi asked again.

"We are just going to the toilet." One of them gave a pathetic excuse. Another one nodded.

"Both of you?" Yu Qi chuckled. Her eyes looked straight at the lifeguards. "One of you suppose to be here if one of you wants to do anything else. That is why there are two lifeguards assigned to each of the areas."

The men could not retort back.

"Call your manager." Yu Qi could not take this matter carelessly. "Immediately!"

"Miss, I am already okay... No need to take the matter that far." The man said. I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

"Right now, it is not about you." Yu Qi stated.

Seeing none of the lifeguards wanted to do anything, Yu Qi narrowed her eyes. "Sure. It seems you are not going to do anything. Just wait."

Yu Qi walked away leaving them.

"Let's change our clothes. I want to meet with their manager." Yu Qi said.

"Sure." Long Hui nodded.

She did not have any mood to play anymore. The accident occurred in front of her. This was her business. She did not want the bad news hit Nigeru Koen right after it started operating.

They went straight to the office. It was here too. The employees were startled when suddenly a beautiful woman accompanied by a handsome man appeared at their office.

"Where is your boss?" Yu Qi asked one of the employees.

"Huh? He is inside?" The startled employee answered.

Tell him, Miss Tang come and want to see him immediately." Yu Qi ordered.

Because of Yu Qi's charisma, the employee did not think much, calling their boss and telling him about Yu Qi.

Bai Weimin, the person in charge of this Nigeru Koen rushed over as soon as he heard the name. It was his big boss. The real boss behind this Nigeru Koen.

"Miss Tang." Bai Weimin greeted Yu Qi respectfully.

Yu Qi and Long Hui were waiting in the waiting room.

"Call all of the head department. It is an emergency meeting." Yu Qi stated.

"Emergency meeting? Yes. I will call them right away. However, you need to wait for a moment." Bai Weimin said.

"I don't mind." Yu Qi said.

"Okay. I will ask someone to bring some refreshment to you." Bai Weimin said before going out.

He started to give order to call of the head department to call to the meeting room immediately. He also ordered someone to go and get some refreshments and sent them to the waiting room.

"Brother Hui, I am sorry for ruining our vacation like this." Yu Qi felt apologetic toward Long Hui.

"It's okay. I don't mind. At least, I get to see the charisma of Yu Qi." Long Hui chuckled.

Yu Qi coughed several times to clear her throat. "I will make up for this."

"Sure. I hope to see the Charisma Yu Qi tonight. On the bed." Long Hui teased Yu Qi.

Yu Qi who currently drinking the tea split out of her mouth. She even almost choked.

"Don't say something like that here." Yu Qi glared at Long Hui.

Long Hui just grinned.

1602 Chapter 1602

Bai Weimin led Yu Qi and Long Hui to the meeting room. All of the eyes looked at Yu Qi and Long Hui the moment they entered the meeting room.

Long Hui just sat on the side as Yu Qi sat on the front seat.

"Hi... You might be wondering who I am. So, let me introduce myself first. I am Tang Yu Qi, the owner of this Nigeru Koen. You can call me Ms Yu Qi." Yu Qi started the meeting.

Everyone mumbled as they knew Yu Qi's identity.

"I came here today as a customer who went to enjoy the theme park. The services are good on the jungle side." Yu Qi looked around.

The person in charge of the jungle theme park was relieved to hear that.

"However, the water theme park has something that you need to be fixed. Especially in the safety term. Today, there was an accident that occurred at the swimming pool area." Yu Qi stated.

"What?" Bai Weimin was surprised.

Not only he, but everyone was also surprised. They did not receive any report regarding the accident at all.

"When does that happen?" One of the staff asked.

"About two hours ago. You still don't receive any report yet?" Yu Qi lifted her eyebrow.

"Yes. No report about the accident. This is the first time we hearing about this." The staff shook her head.

"What happened?" Bai Weimin asked.

"One of our guests drowned inside that pool. I saved him. And he is okay right now." Yu Qi said. "When this accident happened, none of the lifeguards were there. And when they arrived, I asked them where the hell they had gone. Do you know what their answer was? They said they went to the toilet." Her tone already changed. It contained anger.

"It was a ridiculous excuse I may say." Yu Qi uttered.

Everyone was silent.

pandasNovel.com "Who is in charge of that matter?" Yu Qi asked.

"I am." A man answered.

"Your name?"

"Tao Peng."

"Okay, this is what I want you to do. First, check the schedule during that accident. Find out who the lifeguards were at that time. Punish them by lowering their salary for three months. Tell the accident to others as well. Tell them if they are slacking off during their shift, it will not be only their salary being cut off but they might lose their jobs. It is the same as other staff as well." Yu Qi gave the order.

"Understand?"

"Yes, Ms Tang." Tao Peng nodded.

"I hope this kind of matter will be the last." Yu Qi looked at all of them.

"Yes, Ms Tang." All of them answered.

"Meeting adjourned." Yu Qi said.

She stood up and went to Long Hui's side.

"Let's go." Yu Qi said.

Bai Weimin who followed them called them.

"Ms Tang, where will you go after this?" Bai Weimin asked.

"We will go to our hotel room. No need for you to cater for our needs. We will do it by ourselves." Yu Qi said.

"If you say so, then, I will leave." Bai Weimin nodded.

Bai Weimin was relieved. He went to the meeting room again. They were still not leaving. They were discussing the accident. I think you should take a look at paflidasnovel.com

'We just newly operated. We can not afford the accident due to the lack of duty. I will go and find out those two idiots.' Tao Peng said.

"Yeah. It is the first time our big boss coming and this happened. I am glad that she did not throw her anger toward us."

"Yeah."

"But I am surprised to see that she is our big boss."

"What? You recognized her?"

"What? You don't recognise her and that man?"

"Hey, just tell us. Who they are."

"That man is no other than Colonel Long. And our big boss is his fiancée."

"What? Are you sure they are?"

"Of course. I saw them before."

"Oh my..."

"Stop talking and go to work." Bai Weimin said.

All of them left the meeting room, going to continue their work.

Yu Qi and Long Hui check into the hotel room. She threw herself on the bed once they were in the room.

"Somehow, I feel tired." Yu Qi said.

"Let's stay inside the room and relax, shall we? We can call the room service to order our food." Long Hui suggested.

"Hmmm... That is fine too. We can eat on the balcony enjoying the night view." Yu Qi agreed with the idea.

'Master... master... I want to come out...' Aoi suddenly said.

'Me too... Me too...' Shino jumped over.

'Huh? For what?' Yu Qi asked lifting her eyebrow.

Long Hui observed Yu Qi. He did not disturb her if she was like this. He knew that she was talking to her contracted beast.

'We want to go and play. We are bored staying inside this.' Aoi stated.

'Yes. The outside here seems fun.' Shino added.

Yu Qi entered the space and came out bringing out those two.

"How do you plan to go out? You will get caught if you come out of the room." Yu Qi said.

"Master, are you looking down on us? No human can catch us if we want to run. Of course, it excludes you." Aoi said. He continued. "Do you forget, Master? I can hide myself. And it has been upgraded. Now, if someone touches my body, I can make them disappear like me." He made a proud face.

"Amazing. If that's the case, then you can go out playing. Remember, you need to be careful." Yu Qi stated.

"Sure... We will go first." Aoi said. "Shino, jump onto my body."

"Alright." Shino said.

Then they both went out.

1603 Chapter 1603

"You can go for a bath first." Long Hui stated.

Yu Qi smiled teasingly at Long Hui. "What? Don't you want to take a bath together?"

Long Hui narrowed his eyes. "If I take the bath together with you, it will not only be taking the bath. It will be something else. Do you really want that?" His voice sounded hoarse.

Yu Qi gulped. She knew it would be like that. She quickly grabbed her towel and rushed over to the bathroom.

Seeing his beloved Qi Qi run like a rabbit, Long Hui chuckled. He went to the balcony to calm his thinking. However, the more he tried to calm down, the more he felt burning when thinking about his beloved Qi Qi in the bathroom.

15 minutes later, Yu Qi got out of the bathroom with the new clothes. She went inside her space to get the clothes since she did not bring any luggage. She quickly wore them straight. Even though Long Hui had already seen her body before, wearing the clothes in front of Long Hui was not good for her, well, for her heart.

"You already wear your clothes." Long Hui stated after seeing Yu Qi come out of the bathroom wearing a pyjama.

"Huh? Oh, you probably want your clothes too? Wait a minute. I will go and take out our luggage." As soon as Yu Qi said that, she disappeared from Long Hui's sight.

Long Hui was stunned. That was not what he meant. 'Sigh... Never mind. She will not get away this night.' He thought.

Yu Qi reappeared again with the luggage.

"Go and take a bath. We are playing a lot today." Yu Qi said. Then she stopped Long Hui again. "What do you want to eat? I will call the room service to order the food."

"You." Long Hui said. He smiled teasingly at Yu Qi like she had done to him before.

"What... What are you talking about? I am saying about the food." Yu Qi waved her hands.

Long Hui laughed. "Okay... Okay... Okay... I know. Just order something that can fill my stomach. We need the energy for tonight."

Yu Qi who held the phone at the moment, almost fell from her hand. She glared at Long Hui. Long Hui ignored the glare and entered the bathroom while humming.

Yu Qi knew what they would be going to do tonight. It was not like their first time but still, it felt like the first time.

She called the room service to order some food. From what Yu Qi could tell, Long Hui seemed to like Chinese food more compared to Western food. So, she decided to order Roasted Duck, Ma Po Tofu and Chow Mein. As for drinks, Yu Qi just took the wine that she made from her space.

Long Hui got out of the bathroom wearing the towel covering his bottom part. Yu Qi gulped as she watched Long Hui dry his hair.

"Qi Qi, you are drooling." Long Hui made a remark.

"Huh?" Yu Qi quickly wiped her face. However, she did not feel any wetness on her face. She looked at Long Hui. "You are lying to me."

"But you are looking at me like a hungry beast." Long Hui chuckled.

"You are the hungry beast." Yu Qi retorted. I think you should take a look at pafladasnovel.com

Long Hui slowly approached Yu Qi. "Hmm, I am indeed a hungry beast." He even licked his lips.

"Well, since you are hungry, let's eat first." Yu Qi avoided Long Hui and went to the balcony.

The food had already been served there. The service was good. When people came and sent the food, they asked where Yu Qi wanted to dine. After Yu Qi pointed to the balcony, the people served the food there. And the preparation was quite nice.

It was included in their service. They would serve the food as the customers wanted. Yu Qi was satisfied with the service. She wanted to praise the person who thought about the idea.

Long Hui just smiled and followed Yu Qi's step. Yu Qi saw Long Hui following her, she quickly stopped him.

"Hey, wear your clothes before coming outside here." Yu Qi said.

"What? I don't care much if someone sees me like this." Long Hui stated.

"You don't care but I care. I don't want others to see your amazing body. They might drool and fantasize about your body." Yu Qi argued.

"Oh, like you?" Long Hui lifted his eyebrow.

"You..." Yu Qi glared at Long Hui.

Seeing the glare, Long Hui thought that his beloved Qi Qi was simply cute feeling jealous like that.

"Okay... Okay... I will go and wear some clothes. Wait for me." Long Hui said while smiling. "Or do you want to help me wear those clothes?"

"Wear it by yourself." Yu Qi shouted.

Long Hui laughed. Yu Qi sat while looking at the theme park. The theme park was already covered with beautiful light. Seeing this made her automatically smile.

"Qi Qi..." Long Hui called her.

"Oh, let's eat." Yu Qi said.

They enjoyed the food so much. The wine that Yu Qi made also felt delicious when combined with the food.

"I am so full." Yu Qi rubbed her stomach while leaning over to the chair.

Long Hui chuckled when seeing his beloved Qi Qi resemble a lazy cat.

"Since you are already full, why don't we burn some calories?" Long Hui grinned.

1604 Chapter 1604

Surprisingly, Yu Qi got a call from Lu Qina. She thanked Yu Qi. After Yu Qi's treatment, the couple began to try to get Lu Qina pregnant, and she did.

Lu Qina thought she would not have a child with her husband in this lifetime. So, when, she found out that she was pregnant, she was very happy and grateful to Yu Qi who treated her.

Fu Shi Zian also expressed his gratitude to Yu Qi. He was glad that he listened to his wife who believed in Yu Qi. Otherwise, he might not get to feel this feeling.

Both of them decided to stay at FINN City for the time being until the baby was born. They registered to give birth at Tang Private Hospital.

Under Yu Qi's recommendation, the couple was placed under the best gynaecologist. To be honest, Lu Qina wanted Yu Qi to be her doctor but Yu Qi was not a gynaecologist. Yu Qi did not have much experience to be a gynaecologist.

However, Tang Private Hospital, Lu Qina and Fu Shi Zian knew their reputation that could be stated as a first class hospital. They did not worry much.

The robotic team progressed a lot these days. They were impressed when Neko-chan showed the completed blueprint to all of the team members.

They could not believe that a girl like Neko-chan managed to draw such a complicated robot design. Not too much that she was sick since Yu Qi told them that Neko-chan was her patient.

From their interaction with Neko-chan, they could tell that she had a high intelligence not match her age. That was what they called a genius. If Neko-chan recovered from her illness, she might be able to shake the world.

It made them want to make Neko-chan's dream to build a robot come true.

Yu Qi suddenly got an invitation to a medical conference at Suman Continent. She was quite surprised knowing a medical conference would be held there.

As she knew that Suman Continent was a place where not many could travel into. They were closed countries.

Well, she did not mind since she is also very interested in Suman Continent after she hacked into one of the organisations over there. She wanted to go and see the area.

Yu Qi told Long Hui about that. Of course, Long Hui was excited.

"Suman Continent?" Long Hui asked Yu Qi again.

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded. Seeing Long Hui like this, she could not help to ask. "Why?"

"I think you know that they usually did not allow anyone to travel into their place. So, it was a bit surprising when they suddenly allowed others to come." Long Hui told his suspicion.

"Yeah. I know that. But I am interested in them." Yu Qi grinned.

"What do you mean?" Long Hui lifted his eyebrow.

"Well, I hacked into one of the organisations there. I think they are related to Elder Mong." Yu Qi grinned more widely.

"You what? Do you know it is dangerous to do so?" Long Hui was shocked.

"I am sorry... But don't worry. They could not defeat me." Yu Qi showed the symbol of peace.

Long Hui sighed when seeing the playful side of his beloved Qi Qi.

"So, are you going to go there?" Long Hui asked. I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded.

"Then, I will tell the government about this." Long Hui said.

Listen to Long Hui mentioning the government, Yu Qi was surprised. "Huh? Why? Why do you need to tell the government about this?"

"Are you forgetting something?" Long Hui looked at the confused Yu Qi.

"Huh? Forget about what?" Yu Qi seriously did not know about that.

"You are the nation's treasure. Since you are going to a dangerous place, your safety should be their number one priority." Long Hui explained.

"What???" Yu Qi's jaw dropped.

"When will you go?" Long Hui asked.

"Hmm... Probably next month." Yu Qi looked at the date.

"I see. The nation would arrange your security." Long Hui stated.

"Okay...." Yu Qi said.

Yu Qi knew that she would not reject that. Otherwise, she probably could not go to Suman Continent. She wanted to go.

Long Hui did not dare to let his beloved Qi Qi go to such a place by herself. She needed to be protected. Even though he knew she was strong compared to normal human beings but who knew what could be waiting for her there?

It could be other cultivators around. Who knew? It was better to take precautions.

He already decided to dominate the position to go to accompany his beloved Qi Qi there. He was sure that the government would not reject his request since it was better that way.

He could protect her in the closest distance compared to others. So, it was perfect.

Yu Qi did not mind that. To be honest she could take care of herself. She was a cultivator, not a normal human being.

However, she understood Long Hui's concern.

She was excited to go over there. She wanted to try to hack into the same organisation using their country's server. She wondered whether they could detect her or not.

She stopped midway in other days before she was afraid that they could detect his place. It might bring danger to Binhai Nation.

However, if she was inside their country, they would never know that she was from Binhai Nation. They might use their might to catch her. She could escape without thinking about them destroying her nation.

1605 Chapter 1605

It was finally the day when Yu Qi would go to the Suman Continent. As expected, Long Hui had been assigned as her bodyguard along with other five men. However, they would not appear unless it was necessary.

Yu Qi did not mind. Well, they would not believe her if she told them that she did not need them. She did not want to waste her energy and time. So, she just let them do whatever they wanted.

Yu Qi boarded the flight together with Long Hui. The organisation of the medical conference cover the flight ticket but it was just for the economy seat.

Since Long Hui boarded the flight using the first-class seat ticket, Yu Qi went to upgrade it. As soon as Yu Qi got seated, her eyelids became so heavy. She fell asleep.

Long Hui turned around to say something to Yu Qi but when he saw Yu Qi fall asleep. She did not even tighten up her seatbelt.

The flight attendance saw this. She approached Yu Qi to wake her up and asked Yu Qi to tighten up her seatbelt. When the flight attendance was about to wake Yu Qi up, she saw the passenger beside Yu Qi signalled her to keep quiet. She was surprised to see a handsome man.

Long Hui ignored the flight attendance. He tightened the seatbelt for Yu Qi. Yu Qi was startled and woke up.

"Just sleep. I will wake you up after we arrived." Long Hui rubbed her head.

"O...kay.." Yu Qi fell asleep again.

Long Hui adjusted the chair to make Yu Qi comfortable to sleep.

The flight attendance was startled by the announcement. It was almost time to take off. She rushed to her seat and buckled her seatbelt.

The flight took off safely. Yu Qi did not wake up. She was tired due to her research yesterday. She did not sleep at all yesterday.

Long Hui sometimes looked at Yu Qi to see if she woke up. It was twelve hours of flight. Until the flight touched down, Yu Qi did not wake up even once.

"Qi Qi, we arrive." Long Hui whispered into Yu Qi's ear.

Yu Qi slowly woke up. She rubbed her eyes.

"We arrived? Really?" Yu Qi yawned.

"Hmm... Let's go..." Long Hui stated.

"Okay..." Yu Qi stood up and stretched her body. "I sleep well."

They finally arrived at Suman Continent. They ordered a taxi and went to their hotel to check in the room. The medical conference would be held here, in one of their halls.

"Let's go and talk a walk around." Yu Qi stated.

"Hmm..." Long Hui nodded.

"We should go to their market. They might have good local food. I want to try it." Yu Qi grinned.

"You should be eating first. You did not have any meal on the flight earlier." Long Hui said.

"Don't worry. An empty stomach would not affect me much these days." Yu Qi remarked.

As the cultivator, they could hold hunger much longer.

"And we are going to eat some local food." Yu Qi added.

"Okay... Okay... Let's go." Long Hui really could not fight Yu Qi. I think you should take a look at paflasnovel.com

"How about the other bodyguards? Are they coming with us too?" Yu Qi asked.

"Of course. They are your bodyguards." Long Hui said. He added. "Don't worry. Just ignore their existence."

"Oh... Okay." Yu Qi said.

They went out. After asking the hotel employees, they knew where to go. The hotel employee even offered help by calling the taxi. They accepted his kindness.

The taxi came and they went off. They arrived at the local market. It was like a row of food stalls. It was not too crowded. So it was perfect.

Long Hui grabbed Yu Qi's hand. Yu Qi turned and lifted her eyebrow.

"In case you go stranded." Long Hui said.

Yu Qi chuckled. "Sure... Sure..." It was not like she did not know what he tried to do.

When they stepped out of the taxi, some eyes were watching them. Women's eyes were on Long Hui and the men's eyes were on Yu Qi. Long Hui wanted to tell others that they were a couple, so, thinking about getting her or him.

They ignored others' eyes and walked through the market. Yu Qi found a stall that sold food. They seemed just finished making them.

Before Yu Qi came here, she went to the internet to look for their local food. Pirukas. It was snacks consisting of dough pockets filled with a variety of ingredients.

"Please give us a bag of Pirukas." Yu Qi spoke the Estonian Language.

The seller was surprised to see a female foreigner speaking their language very well.

"Oh, are you a tourist?" The seller asked.

"Well, we came here for some work-related. We just take a chance to see this beautiful country." Yu Qi said as she praised the country.

Hearing the country had been praised, the seller was happy. She packed the food and gave them to Yu Qi.

"Enjoy." The seller stated.

Long Hui took out the money and paid the seller.

"Your boyfriend?" The seller asked.

"My fiance." Yu Qi answered.

"Hmm... He is handsome." The seller praised.

Yu Qi smiled. "Hmm..."

They found an empty bench and took a seat on it. Yu Qi took out the food and gave some of them to Long Hui.

Yu Qi took a bite. "Hmm... Delicious. Brother Hui, you should try them." She said when seeing Long Hui staring at the food.

Long Hui also took a bite. "Hmm... Not bad."

1606 Chapter 1606

"Qi Qi, we have some people watching us from the far." Long Hui suddenly informed Yu Qi who still eating.

"Yeah. I notice that too. At two o'clock, right?" Yu Qi was still eating.

"Maybe they just sending people to watch us. But we still need to be careful." Long Hui pulled some of the loose hair that Yu Qi got and put them behind her ear.

"Oh, thank you." Yu Qi smiled. "If they dare to do something to us, let's beat up them together. It has been a long time since I fight."

Long Hui just chuckled. Who told him to get a girl like this? But he liked it.

"Do you think the bodyguards notice them?" Yu Qi asked.

"Nope. They are far away from us. And it seems they are blending in with other people very well." Long Hui commented.

pandasNovel.com "This medical conference is interesting." Yu Qi said. "It seems they hold the medical conference just to get me here."

Long Hui put on a serious face. "If they want to put on their hands on you, they need to face me first."

"Hmm... Protect me well." Yu Qi grinned.

The people who still watched the couple did not know that they had been discovered by the couple. It was three people who watched Yu Qi and Long Hui.

"Do you see anyone else?" Matty, one of the men asked.

"Not. I don't see anyone around." Aran stated as he looked around.

"The target of that woman, right? Seeing her in real life, I think she is more beautiful compared to the picture." James commented while licking his lips.

Matty and Aran knew James who always liked to mess with women around.

"She is someone that higher-ups want. Don't you dare mess with her? Otherwise, you will lose your head." Matty gave James a warning.

James laughed. "Don't worry. I just praise her for her beauty."

"Humph!... Don't think we don't know you." Aran rolled his eyes.

"Do we need to try to kidnap her tonight?" James changed the topic.

"No. The higher-ups just want us to watch her. I don't think we can do it with that man around." Matty stated.

His eyes were looking at Long Hui. He could feel that this man could not be underestimated.

"What? Are you afraid of a tiny soldier like him?" James snorted.

He obviously did not think much about Long Hui. He knew that Long Hui was a soldier. So, what? They also had been trained like a soldier. Probably more than Long Hui.

"I am not afraid but cautious. The higher-ups also did not permit us to do anything. So, don't make trouble." Matty said.

"Okay... okay... I am just asking." James smirked with a nonchalant attitude.

James stood up.

"Where do you want to go?" Aran asked.

"I want to test whether they notice us watching or not." James smiled.

"You just say that you would not make trouble." Aran wanted to stop James.

"Then, go," Matty said. I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

"Eh!!! You agree that he goes." Aran was surprised that Matty did not stop James.

James laughed. "Great." He started to approach the couple.

Yu Qi and Long Hui already noticed one of their watchers walking toward them. They acted normal. It seemed this person just wanted to test them.

Yu Qi currently ate some dessert. The dessert matched her bud taste. Not too sweet.

"Do you want some?" Yu Qi asked.

"No. You can eat it." Long Hui shook his hand while smiling at Yu Qi.

James walked passed the couple. He did not notice any difference. The couple was acting normal and did not know him at all.

He thought Long Hui was excellent as a soldier. To think that Long Hui did not feel anything like that made him disappointed.

James snorted. What a scam. He also told Matty that he would not make trouble for them. So, he just walked away.

Either he knew that Yu Qi also did something to him. She smiled mischievously at Long Hui.

Long Hui noticed the expression on Yu Qi's face.

"Did you do something to him?" Long Hui asked.

Yu Qi grinned. "He he he... It seems they want to check up on us. So, I did something to her."

"What do you have done to him?" Long Hui asked curiously.

"Someone that makes his body itching." Yu Qi said.

"Oh!" Long Hui narrowed his eyes.

"Do you notice the mock smile on his face when he walks past us? He must be thinking that we did not notice them. Humph! That is why I want to give him a surprise for mocking us." Yu Qi smiled proudly.

"Don't others notice your movement?" Long Hui asked.

"Nope. I move my hand very quickly. Others will not notice it." Yu Qi said.

She was confident with her speed.

"The itching feeling would not be activated immediately." Yu Qi narrowed her eyes.

Long Hui knew it was more than that. "Then, how will it be activated?"

"It will be activated when he tries to make out with someone." Yu Qi laughed.

Long Hui was speechless when he heard this.

"Why?" Long Hui could not help to ask.

"He look at me like I am a piece of meat to eat. I can see that this man is a playboy that play with a lot of women. Since he dares to look at me like that, I will give him a piece of medicine... Oh, not medicine but poison." Yu Qi explained to Long Hui.

"Good job." Long Hui nodded.

1607 Chapter 1607

After having fun at the night market, Yu Qi and Long Hui returned to their hotel room. The medical conference would be held on the next day.

As for the three onlookers, only Aran was left to observe their target. Matty and James left. Matty returned to their base. While James went somewhere else.

After looking at the beautiful Yu Qi, he wanted to release himself. So, he went to the club to find someone that he would fk.

However, he would not find someone as beautiful as Yu Qi. He just needed to endure for the moment. He was thinking if they caught Yu Qi, he wanted to make a request to play with Yu Qi for one night.

Thinking about that, he kept drinking and drinking with a woman. After that, they went to the hotel. Things went as they expected.

James imagined the woman as Yu Qi when they were having fun together. He even called Yu Qi's name. However, the woman was in high, so, she did not hear at all.

They played until dawn and fell asleep after that. James woke up after hearing the ringing phone. He answered the phone with a sleeping voice.

"Hello," James answered.

"James, what are you doing?" Aran's voice screamed inside the phone.

James distanced her ear from the phone for a moment. "What? Can you please not shout in my ear? It is early in the morning." James stated.

"What early in the morning? It is almost noon. Are you forget that we have a mission?" Aran asked.

"Huh? Almost noon?" James looked at the time. His eyes were fully awakened.

"Where are you right now? Get my butt here asap." Aran said and ended the conversation.

James looked around and noticed the woman that he had a night together was not here anymore. He also found a note on the side table.

'Thank you for the night.'

That was all written on the notes. James did not care much about that. The feeling was mutual. They were just having a nightstand. No hard feelings.

He then stepped into the bathroom to take a quick shower. While he was showering, he started to feel itching at his reproductive organ. He tried to make the itch disappear by washing it with some water.

However, the itching feeling still did not disappear. Moreover, it became more itching. He remembered that he had some pills that could heal the itching feeling. He took one.

Maybe the pill worked a little. The itching feeling kind of disappeared a little bit. He immediately went to the hotel where the medical conference was held.

Once he arrived, he was scolded by Matty. He clicked his tongue and just apologized insincerely. Matty could not do anything to James at this moment since they were on a mission.

After they completed this mission, he would go and report James's behaviour to their higher-ups, that was so sure.

"So, what is the situation now?" James asked. I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

"The medical conference is still ongoing. We should enter the hall right now." Aran explained.

Only the one who was invited could enter the hall. The three of them had their invitation card. So, it was easy for them to enter the hall. Long Hui did not have the invitation card. He could stay outside.

As they entered the hall, they immediately searched for Yu Qi. It was easy to find Yu Qi. She seemed to be the centre of people there. It was the best chance to get closer to her.

Yu Qi noticed the three men from the last night. She pretended that she did not know them. She glanced at one of them, whom she poisoned last night. The corner of her lips slightly curved up.

It seemed the poison had been activated. He must be feeling itching this time. Maybe it was just started. So, he could hold back.

However, that was just the beginning. As time passed, he would be feeling an intense itching feeling. She could not wait to see what happened.

James smiled at Yu Qi as he approached her. He acted like a gentleman.

"Hello, beautiful woman." James greeted Yu Qi in English.

Yu Qi nodded. She did not say anything. James thought Yu Qi did not know to speak English. That made James look down at Yu Qi a bit. English was a common language that a lot of people used. He thought Binhai Nation would backward nation since English was not being practised.

If Yu Qi knew what James thought right now, she might roll her eyes. 'Don't know English? Humph, I think I know a lot of languages compared to you.'

Matty also made his move.

"Hello, Miss Tang. I finally meet you. A new genius in the medical world." Matty also greeted Yu Qi in English.

"You think highly of me. I am not a genius." Yu Qi shook her head.

"Wait, you can speak English?" James blurted out.

"Yes. Is something matter?" Yu Qi asked.

"Then, why don't you reply to me earlier?" James retorted.

"Should I?" Yu Qi asked.

"You..." James wanted to say more but he felt uncomfortable and itching.

Matty looked at James. He could see that James seemed out of the blue. But he did not say anything. They were pretending not to know each other.

James's face changed as he endured the itching feeling. The itching feeling increased again.

1608 Chapter 1608

Matty could feel something wrong with James. Because James's face changed for the worse, Matthy could not help to ask James.

"Are you alright?" Matty inquiries.

"I... I... I need to leave." James rushed out of the hall.

Yu Qi and Matty looked at each other in confusion. It seemed this matter had nothing to do with Yu Qi. She did not do anything else.

If Yu Qi did something to James, he would know it immediately since he was closer to Yu Qi. He did not see anything else. Yu Qi stood a quite distance from James. So, it was impossible for her to do anything without him seeing that.

Matty knew that he needed to complete his mission today to kidnap Yu Qi from this conference. He needed to do that right now because this was the only time that Yu Qi was away from Long Hui.

"He must be angry because you don't talk to him. He probably wants to flirt with you." Matty commented about James.

"Probably. I don't think the way he looks at me." Yu Qi said.

"What is your comment about Dr Dell's research?" Matty made conversation about something else.

"Hmm... It is kind of interesting. The way muscle could be altered." Yu Qi nodded.

"Dr Dell has a lot of interesting research under his name. Do you like to know about them?" Matty said.

"Oh, am you allowed to tell me about that? I am pretty sure that a researcher dislikes others telling outsiders about their research before they publish to the public." Yu Qi narrowed her eyes.

"Dr Dell does not mind about that," Matty said.

"How do you know about that?" Yu Qi asked.

"Because I am working under Dr Dell," Matty stated.

"Oh, I see." Yu Qi nodded.

"So, what do you think? Do you like to see them? Dr Dell also likes to meet a researcher like you." Matty tried to convince Yu Qi.

Yu Qi noticed Matty's determination. Matty wanted her to follow him willingly.

"Like right now?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yeah. It is not like we leave the place. But we can go to another room and talk about it. Dr Dell will be happy to talk to you face to face too." Matty said.

Yu Qi smiled. "Sure. Why not? But I need to go to the restroom first."

"Okay. I will wait for you here." Matty said.

Yu Qi walked to the restroom. Matty gave a signal to Aran to follow Yu Qi and watched her movement. Aran nodded and followed Yu Qi over at a safe distance.

Yu Qi did not plan to run away. After entering the ladies, she took Shino out.

"I have a job for you." Yu Qi stated. I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

"Oh, sure. What is it, Master?" Shino asked.

"Go to Brother Hui and wait for my next instruction." Yu Qi gave him the order.

"Alright, Master. I will go to Master's fiancée's side." Shino nodded.

Both of them walked out of the restroom together. After getting out, Shino slowly climbed down from Yu Qi's body and went to find Long Hui unnoticeably.

Yu Qi noticed Aran was not far away from her. She ignored him and walked back to Matty.

"Miss Tang, you are back." Matty smiled. He introduced Yu Qi to someone who was standing beside him.

"Dr Dell, this is Miss Tang."

"You can not call her Miss Tang. You should call her Dr Tang like you call me." Dr Dell reminded Matty.

"Dr Tang, I am sorry for that," Matty said.

"Never mind. I don't care much about that title." Yu Qi waved her hands.

"Well, let's go to another room, shall we? I think we will have a great talk about the medical." Dr Dell smiled.

"Hmm..." Yu Qi nodded.

So, they went to another room. Well, it was not far from the hall anyway. It was kind of the waiting room. Dr Dell asked someone to prepare some drinks. Both of them started to talk about medical research.

While they were talking, the drinks arrived. One cup of tea. Yu Qi took the cup and drank it. Something was added to the tea. She knew it. She narrowed her eyes.

Both men watched Yu Qi drink the tea. They were relieved when seeing the tea in Yu Qi's cup decrease, meaning Yu Qi already drank the tea. They just needed to wait until the medicine worked.

Yu Qi wanted to play along with their script. She started to act like she was having a headache.

"Dr Tang, are you okay?" Matty asked, acting like he was concerned about Yu Qi's well-being.

When Yu Qi slowly closed her eyes and leaned over to the chair that she sat on. Then she heard the door had been opened and closed again. She could feel there were other two people entering the room. One was probably James and another one was probably the man who followed her to the restroom earlier.

"Let's move her to another place as soon as possible," Matty said.

"What? There is still time. Why don't we have a taste of her first?" James smiled.

Earlier, he went to take some pills to decrease the itchiness and it reduced the itchiness.

"Are you stupid?" Matty could not help to ask that question.

"Tsk... I am just kidding. You don't have to be so mad about that." James clicked his tongue.

How unlucky he felt that even though the food was in front of him but he could not eat it.

"She is a valuable asset to our organization. Don't you dare mess with her?" Matty gave James a warning.

"I know... I know... You don't have to remind me numerous times." James glared at Matty.

"Okay... Okay... Our work is done here. Let's bring her away." Aran interrupted them. He then turned to Dr Dell. "Dr Dell, thank you for your cooperation."

"Hmm... It is okay." Dr Dell waved his hand.

To be honest, he felt pity for this young girl for being targeted by them. From the conversation earlier, he knew that this young girl was talented in her field. Not many could achieve as many as she did. That was probably the reason their organization wanted to recruit her but she did not accept their invitation.

The organization did not give up. Since she refused, they would use another way to make her submit to them. And this was what happened now. Well, he would meet her again in future since they would be working together in the future.

Yu Qi listened to the conversation. So, they wanted to kidnap her to bring her to their organization. How interesting.

"The thing has arrived," Aran stated.

"Good. Let's put her inside." Matty said.

Yu Qi could feel that her body had been lifted and being put into something. She could not think of anything. She felt her surrounding became dark.

She opened her eyes. Using her power, she could see that she was inside the laundry trolley. Matty already changed his clothes to a hotel worker's uniform together with his partners.

Matty pushed the trolley into the laundry room. After arriving there, Matty took Yu Qi out and put them into another trolley. This time, he pushed the trolley with Aran. James was not around anymore.

"Will she wake up now?" Aran asked.

"I don't think so. Dr Dell gives a very strong medicine. She would not wake up until two days. We have enough time to transport her to our place." Matty said.

"I hope so," Aran stated.

"How about Long Hui?" Matty asked.

"I saw him 20 minutes ago in the lobby. He still thinks that his fiance is still inside the hall, not knowing that she already disappear from the hall." Aran let out a small laugh.

"That's great." Matty nodded.

'Shino, are you listening to me now?' Yu Qi asked through telepathy.

"Yes, Master," Shino answered.

"Have you found Brother Hui?" Yu Qi asked.

"I am sorry, Master. My nose is not as good as Aoi's. So, I still could not find him." Shino apologised. I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

"It's okay. Just take your time. You need to find the main entrance of the hotel. Brother Hui is sitting in the lobby." Yu Qi did not angry at all and even gave a clue that Shino could use to find Long Hui.

Shino was glad that his master did not angry at her. "I understand, Master."

"After you find Brother Hui, tell him about my situation that I allow the men to kidnap me. I will be fine." Yu Qi said.

"Eh... I think Master's fiancée will be so mad about this." Shino commented.

"I bet he is." Yu Qi chuckled. "But you can find me easily, right?"

"Of course, we know your location through the contract," Shino said proudly.

"You can lead Brother Hui to me later." Yu Qi said.

"I understand, Master." Shino nodded.

He increased his speed looking for his Master's fiancée. He was lucky that he could find the entrance. After scanning the lobby, he finally found Long Hui.

Long Hui sat there with a stern face after his beloved Qi Qi left for work. A lot of women stared at him like a hungry beast.

One of the women approached Long Hui, wanting to try her luck. Who knew, this gentleman here might look at her.

"Hi, I saw you sitting here for such a long time. If you don't mind, we can spend time together." The woman greeted Long Hui.

Long Hui ignored her directly. However, the woman still did not give up on such a fine handsome man.

"Actually, I am a local person here. You seem a tourist. If you don't mind, I can show you around here. Even though we receive a small number of tourists, we have a lot of great places that you can visit.

I can also ask for a discount for you if you want to buy something to bring back. Let me tell you something. Sometimes, the shop here will trick you to buy something cheap at an expensive price."

The woman talked for such a long time but still being ignored by Long Hui. She stepped closer to Long Hui. She wanted to touch Long Hui's hand.

However, she did not manage to do so because Long Hui retrieved his hands. This time, Long Hui turned around and looked at the woman with cold eyes.

The woman was stunned by the look given by Long Hui. She started to tremble while facing such a gaze. She felt like she was facing a big snake that could kill her on the spot. She even stumbled back and fell to the ground.

"Get lost." Long Hui uttered.

"Yes... Yes... Yes... I will get lost." The woman said.

Even though she wanted to run away, her legs already lost their strength. She could only crawl away, running from the man that she thought she could have.

1610 Chapter 1610

Yu Qi felt the outside was dark again. She was inside the car trunk. Her legs and hands were not tied up. It made things easy for Yu Qi.

She touched her watch. Her watch glows in the dark.

"Neko-chan, Neko-chan are you hear me? If you hear me, please respond in a low voice." Yu Qi whispered to her watch.

Right after that, a voice answered Yu Qi's call. It was Neko-chan.

"Master, Master... You use the watch. Are you in danger right now?" Neko-chan asked.

Yu Qi's watch was kind of special. It looked like a normal watch that had a number and its needle. However, it was a smartwatch that could call people and also acted like a GPS. It would detect the person's location when the person wore it.

"Hmm... You can call Brother Hui and tell him about the my location. You also need to tell Brother Hui to calm down. Do not panic and follow as we plan. Also, tell him that I am safe right now." Yu Qi gave Neko-chan the order.

Even though Yu Qi already sent Shino to Long Hui's side, they still needed to think about the bodyguards who followed Yu Qi and Long Hui.

They could not tell about Shino to them. They needed to trick them into thinking that Long Hui knew Yu Qi's location because of the watch that Yu Qi wore right now.

"Okay, Master. I will contact Master's fiancée right now." Neko-chan stated.

"Tell him to use this to trick the bodyguards." Yu Qi was feeling bad lying to them but she did not have any choice.

"Alright... Contacting Master's fiancée...Master, your fiancée did not answer my call." Neko-chan reported.

"Hmm... Oh, wait a minute." Yu Qi said to Neko-chan.

Yu Qi remembered that Shino was purposely at Long Hui's side. She wondered if Shino could already find him.

'Shino... Shino... Are you there?' Yu Qi contacted Shino via telepathy.

'Yes, Master.' Shino said.

'Have you found Brother Hui?' Yu Qi asked again.

'Yes, I already made contact with Master's fiancée.' Shino answered.

'Great. Tell him to answer his phone.' Yu Qi stated. She then returned to Neko-chan. "Neko-chan, you can call him right now."

Yu Qi felt the car had stopped. She needed to stop talking.

"I will call you later. Until then, don't contact me." Yu Qi said.

The glow on her watch disappeared and she closed her eyes back. She could hear the trunk being opened.

...

"Master tells me to tell you that you to pick up the call." Shino conveyed what Yu Qi wanted to say to Long Hui.

Right after the sentence, the phone call was ringing. Long Hui immediately answered the call. I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

"Qi Qi?" Long Hui thought it was his beloved Qi Qi.

"I am not Master. I am Neko-chan, Master's loyal and cute pet." Neko-chan had time to praise herself.

"Is she okay?" That was what Long Hui wanted to know.

"Hmm... She is fine. She has something to tell you." Neko-chan stated.

"Tell me." Long Hui said.

Neko-chan told them what her plan was. Long Hui frowned as he heard the plan. She made herself bait to find out who they truly were.

It was indeed a great plan. Long Hui did not like it because he was concerned about Yu Qi's safety. But he knew that he could not change her decision. He just needed to follow her plan and got her out of danger.

Long Hui stood up and looked at his watch. The medical conference should be continued after the lunch break. He went to the hall acting like he was waiting for Yu Qi to come out even though he already knew that Yu Qi was not there.

Long Hui could sense that someone was watching him. He even changed his expression to worried when he could not find Yu Qi.

He stopped one of the attendees and asked about Yu Qi. The attendee shook his head telling Long Hui that he did not know about that.

One of the bodyguards approached Long Hui and whispered something. As he reported something to Long Hui, he could feel the cold aura right now.

"Call the hotel management. I want to see the security camera Rigg now." Long Hui shouted.

Not long after that, the manager of the hotel rushed over to Long Hui's side.

"Customer, what do you want to do?" The manager said.

"I want to check the CCTV in that hall." Long Hui pointed to the hall the medical conference was held.

"This way, Mr..." The manager glanced at Long Hui.

"Mr Long." Long Hui said.

"Yes, Mr Long. Follow me." The manager said.

He leads Long Hui to the security room. The manager told the staff inside the room to check the CCTV in the hall.

"Look for this woman." Long Hui showed Yu Qi's picture.

It was easy to spot Yu Qi due to her beauty. They saw two men approached Yu Qi and had a talk with her. One of them left leaving Yu Qi with another man. They also saw her go to the restroom before following the man and a new middle-aged man entering the room.

"Is there any CCTV in that room?" Long Hui asked.

The security staff answered after the manager was eyeing him to answer the question. "Yes, but it had been reported broke this morning. We are still waiting for the technician to repair it."
