1651 Chapter 1651

"So, you never meet the person who hired you?" Dian Zin Fang asked.

"No." The sniper shook his hand.

"We need to confirm it." Great-grandpa Dian said.

"So, are we using that method?" Dian Zin Fang asked.

"Yes, it is the only way." Great-grandpa Dian nodded.

"Let me do it." Grandpa Dian said.

The sniper was confused as to why a man suddenly approached him. That man put his hand on the sniper's forehead.

"Is Grandpa Dian going to use the Soul Search?" Yu Qi asked.

"Hmm..." Great-grandpa Dian nodded.

The Soul Search method was usually used to extract the information directly from the enemy's mind itself.

Yu Qi knew the method when Yu Qi was Qin Yue. Her master taught her the method. It could be painful to the cultivator, not to mention a normal human being.

The sniper felt a sharp pain in his head. So, he shouted. Grandpa Dian did not stop and kept continuing. After several minutes, he stopped. He already got the answer.

The sniper who screamed earlier was already silent. His eyes were not focused anymore. Well, the effect of using the soul search on a normal human being was they would be insane.

"He was indeed telling the truth." Grandpa Dian wiped his hand.

"Grandpa, teach me that method later." Dian Qi Qi said.

She became interested in learning the method.

"You are not ready yet." Grandpa Dian rejected her.

Dian Qi Qi was not mature yet. Grandpa Dian was afraid that she would misuse the method.

"What? I am already ready to learn." Dian Qi Qi pouted.

"I will teach you when I think you are ready to learn." Grandpa Dian did not back off.

"Alright... Alright..." Dian Qi Qi gave up.

"I will look at the website that he mentioned earlier." Yu Qi said. "Thank you, everyone."

"No need to thank us. You are our family. We will not allow anyone to harm our family." Great-Grandpa Dian said.

....

Yu Qi went to see Xia Biya. Xia Biya did not wait any longer. She already started her training with other disciples. Everyone was welcoming Xia Biya with open hands.

Xia Biya looked more cheerful. Yu Qi was worried that yesterday's incident might affect Xia Biya but she already recovered from it.

Xia Biya waved her hand when she saw Yu Qi. The other disciples saw Xia Biya waving her hand at someone.

They looked in that direction. They were surprised to see Yu Qi standing over there. They began to rush to Yu Qi.

"Senior Yu Qi... Senior Yu Qi..."

"Senior Yu Qi is here."

"I can not believe Senior Yu Qi is here."

Everyone was excited to see Yu Qi here. Yu Qi was flabbergasted when she saw this situation. I think you should take a look at pa1dasnovel.com

"Okay, everyone, calm down." The instructor calmed the disciples.

The disciples went silent.

The instructor smiled at Yu Qi.

"I don't think Miss Yu Qi is here to visit us." The instructor said.

The instructor was a member of a branch family. He respected the strong.

"Well, I don't think I can see this kind of reaction when I come to visit." Yu Qi smiled.

"Miss Yu Qi, you don't know that you are our legend after winning the martial arts competition and after being chosen when you are in the Miracle Space." The instructor said.

"I see. Thank you." Yu Qi smiled.

"Hmm... Miss Yu Qi, do you have some time?" The instructor asked.

"I do have some time now? Why?" Yu Qi asked.

"Well, can you spar with me right now?" The instructor asked in embarrassment.

Yu Qi did not have anything to do right now. Her body was also itching to fight.

"Sure. Why not?" Yu Qi agreed.

So, they started to spar. It was a friendly match. So, Yu Qi did not use 100% of her strength.

The disciples watched the match with interest. They watched intensely so that they could learn one or two moves from Yu Qi.

After one hour, they stopped the match. The instructor was happy to get sparing with Yu Qi. He was convinced that Yu Qi was indeed strong. He even learned something from this match.

"Sister Yu Qi, you are awesome. I can not wait to be like you." Xia Biya complimented Yu Qi.

"Work hard." Yu Qi said.

"Hmm..." Xia Biya nodded.

"Oh, I want to tell you that I am going to leave tomorrow." Yu Qi said.

She came here to see Xia Biya to inform her about this matter.

"Already?" Xia Biya felt a little bit sad.

"Hmm... I need to get to my work." Yu Qi said.

"Are you coming to come and visit me again?" Xia Biya asked.

"Yes. I promise. You can call me if you miss me." Yu Qi said.

Yu Qi left early in the morning after greeting the Dian Family. Dian Qi Qi wanted to send Yu Qi to the airport but she could not. She had an important class to attend.

So, Dian Zin Fang became her driver to drive her to the airport. He told Yu Qi to update him about the attempted murder on her if she had news about that.

Yu Qi told him that she would update if she had some information about that. They arrived at the airport.

Dian Zin Fang needed to leave immediately because he had to go somewhere else. Yu Qi did not mind telling Dian Zin Fang to go. She thanked Dian Zin Fang for driving her here.

1652 Chapter 1652

The woman closed her eyes. She sighed. It seemed the target had been leaving Fanghai Nation safely.

What she had been planned before because of the incompetence of one person. The target might be more alert when she comes to visit Fanghai Nation next time.

The woman sighed. Well, she would need to find another chance. As for now, she would lie down quietly.

...

Han Baise called Yu Qi telling her that he already got the information regarding a man and a woman that Yu Qi asked him to investigate earlier. He already sent the information to Yu Qi's email.

Yu Qi thanked him. She would check it later. She remembered the website that the sniper told her. She asked Han Baise to look at that website.

Surprisingly, Han Baise knew about that website. It was one of the dark websites out there. This particular website was a black market to hire hitmen or to post the kill quest.

A person who wanted to enter this website had to pay a certain amount of fees before entering the website. The amount of the fees was quite high. Not many people could afford that.

If they wanted to post the kill quest, they also needed to pay another fee. It was two times higher than the entrance fee.

Shiro: Why are you asking about that website?

Q: Well, someone hired a hitman to kill me through that website.

Shiro: What?

Han Baise stood up upon reading the message.

Shiro: Are you okay right now?

Q: Of course, I am fine right now. Otherwise, I will not message you right now.

Han Baise was relieved. He could not imagine if something happened to Yu Qi.

Q: Can you enter the website?

Shiro: I can.

Q: If you need to pay, don't hesitate to use the money. I will reimburse it later. Just find if you see the kill quest that they had been posted to take my life.

Shiro: Usually the kill quest had its time limit. If the person who posted the kill quest wanted the time limit to be 3 days, the hitmen needed to complete the kill quest within 3 days once the hitmen accepted the kill quest. If the hitman fails the kill quest, the poster can post another new kill quest.

Q: Oh, interesting.

Shiro: It is hard to find the identity behind the poster. The website protected their identities since they paid a lot of money.

Q: I see. It will be interesting to break through it, does it?

Shiro: It is dangerous. You need to do a lot of preparation if you want to hack into their server.

Q: Don't worry. I am not that stupid. Thank you for the information.

Yu Qi was quite surprised to know about the website. Today, everyone can buy everything online including the killer.

Yu Qi returned to the penthouse. She did not want to return to the Tang Family because she did not think she could be resting over there considering Tang Heng Nuo's mischief.

She entered the penthouse. It was silent. She went to the bedroom. Then she noticed something odd. I think you should take a look at pa1dasnovel.com

Then she was being hugged by someone. She already knew the identity of the person. No need to ask or look.

"I miss you." Long Hui's head leaned over to Yu Qi's neck. He inhaled Yu Qi's smell.

"I smell bad." Yu Qi said.

Long Hui chuckled. "You smell so good."

"Let me turn around and look at your face." Yu Qi said.

Long Hui loosened the hug. Just enough for Yu Qi to turn around to face Long Hui. Long Hui still has not let Yu Qi go.

"Hmm... My Hui is still handsome." Yu Qi looked around.

"My beloved Qi Qi is still pretty as ever." Long Hui also looked at Yu Qi.

Yu Qi felt embarrassed when hearing the praise.

"When are you coming home?" Yu Qi asked.

"This earlier morning. I just woke up." Long Hui said.

"I just return too." Yu Qi smiled.

"How is the child? Is she okay living with Dian's Family?" Long Hui asked.

He remembered Yu Qi telling him about the kid who was also a cultivator. It was not good for the child to live alone and without proper guidance.

"Hmm... Well, because of various incidents, Biya was excited to learn about the cultivation. She even watched the fight intensely. Dian Family was happy to receive a promising child." Yu Qi said. "How about your work? Is it fine on your end?"

"Hmm... My work is fine. The enemy this time is quite clever. That is why the mission took a longer time to be completed." Long Hui said.

"Oh, I see. How troublesome." Yu Qi consoles.

Yu Qi remembered something. "You said you just woke up, right?" She asked.

Long Hui nodded. "Yes, why?"

"You must be hungry. I will cook something for you." Yu Qi said.

She wanted to go to the kitchen but Long Hui pulled her back into his arm.

"Well, I am indeed hungry but not for food. I am hungry for you." Long Hui licked his tongue.

Yu Qi gulped. "Well, I need to take a bath first. I smell bad right now."

"Like I said before, you smell good and yummy. You don't need a bath or shower right now because you will need one later after I am finished eating you." Long Hui grinned.

Yu Qi definitely could not go anywhere right now. She just gave up and let Long Hui do the eating. Well, she was also eating too.

1653 Chapter 1653

Yu Qi finally had time to look up to her parents. The clue that she had was the company that her parents worked at which was MicroTech Venture.

The company was located in Country Mawan. But she bet it was a fake address. The real location for this company was probably at Suman Continent.

Not the same as Yu Qi burned down but at another location. They couldn't have only one location. They probably had a lot of them.

Yu Qi called Neko-chan to join her to break through their firewall this time. She did not plan to be playing around anymore.

Of course, Neko-chan would be joining here. She was happy to do something like that. These days, she likes to watch spy movies and dramas. She was very inspired to do this.

So, they hacked to the previous server. This time, it was much silent and faster. This attack was to get as much information about the organisation.

Yu Qi immediately copied the information into her computer. She got about 70% of the information.

However, she realized that she had been hacked back. It seemed someone from that organization already realised that there was an intruder hacked into their server.

Yu Qi and Neko-chan fought back. Yu Qi defended the path of the information that was being copied while Neko-chan attacked them mercilessly.

At the other base, there was chaos. Alex was furious when someone reported to him that there was an intruder had been hacking into their server.

His subordinate told him that the person might have been the same person who hacked them last time, the one with the name 'Q'.

After being attacked twice by Q, Alex reported to the upper management about this. The upper management told him to increase their server safety.

He did as the upper management requested. He asked for the best security, firewall and whatever that could keep their server safe from intruders like Q.

However, everything did not have any effect on Q as he boldly hacked into their server just like that. And it was more smooth than before.

Alex gritted his teeth as his fingers were furiously typing codes to find the exact location of Q. If they missed it this time, he could feel something bad would happen in the future.

"Divide into two teams. One team is to find their location. Another team is to block them to move forward." Alex shouted to his subordinates.

The men started to divide themselves into two teams and worked on their tasks.

Alex wanted to know the reason why Qi attacked them multiple times. So, he tried to send a message to Q.

Well, it did get through to Yu Qi. While typing the codes super fast, Yu Qi noticed the message there. She quickly opened the message.

The message was sound like this...

'Q, why are you doing this? What do you want from us? Stop it right now!'

Yu Qi snorted when she read the message. The person who wrote the message was arrogant. She could see the condescending tone of the message.

"Neko-chan, do you like to reply to this message?" Yu Qi called Neko-chan. I think you should take a look at pa11dasnovel.com

Neko-chan read the message. "Hmm... Let me do it."

Neko-chan started typing. Yu Qi did not pay much attention to what Neko-chan wrote as a response to the message.

"Done," Neko-chan said.

Yu Qi looked over at the message.

'Well, I have been hooked on techno spy movies recently. So, your server has been chosen for my practice. You can not be so angry. I am a kind person who helps you to train your men. Oh, don't worry. I don't need payment for that.'

Yu Qi coughed when she read the message written by Neko-chan. If she was drinking water at this time, she might spray the water out at incredible speed.

"Neko-chan, you are so evil." Yu Qi laughed.

On the other side, Alex who drank some water at that moment sprayed out the water. He was even coughing after that.

He calmed himself. Q knew how to make the anger increase.

Yu Qi got the information that she wanted. So, she told Neko-chan to stop attacking and quickly retreated. They also cleaned the track. They did not want them to know who and where they were.

"Sir Alex, they are suddenly retreated? What should we do?" Someone reported.

"What? They are retreating? Chase them. Don't let them get away from this." Alex shouted.

It would be difficult for them to find Q out if they lost Q this time after a lot of effort that he made to catch Q.

Not to mention, his career was also at stake. He might lose his job and worse, something might happen to him and his family might be in danger too.

Yu Qi and Neko-chan retreat and cleaned the track perfectly. They were confident that the enemy could not track them at all.

"Wow... It is so fun." Neko-chan said.

"Yeah. It is super fun. I bet they are flustered." Yu Qi said.

Neko-chan looked at the time. "Oh, it is about my meeting. I am going to be late."

"Huh? You have a meeting?" Yu Qi was surprised.

"Hmm... I have meeting with those robotic men. We have something to discuss. That Huizhong will be noisy about me coming late. I will leave first. Goodbye Master." Neko-chan disappeared from the screen.

Yu Qi chuckled. 'She really behaved like a human.'

1654 Chapter 1654

Yu Qi began to read the information that she retrieved from the server. As she expected MicroTech Venture was the name of the company.

The same organization in which her parents worked. This time, she had a complete profile of her parents.

The last information that she had, just had was the list of the scientists in the organization. This time, she got everything. The name, the age and also the projects that the scientist in charge of.

She read the information of her father first. Mu Xiao Ye was currently 49 years old. She looked at the picture of Mu Xiao Ye. It was a younger version of Grandpa Mu.

He was currently living in the Suman Continent. It was not at the place that Yu Qi went before but on the other part of the Suman Continent.

He was currently in charge of the experiment on the animal modification project. Which was turning animals into some kind of creature that had the power of intelligence as human beings.

The interesting part was he had been instructed to take a pill once a month. She wondered what the pill was about.

Next, she read about her mother's information. Yan Lian Xen was two years younger than her father. She also was a scientist for an experiment that investigated how humans could stay younger forever.

When Yu Qi saw her picture, she was surprised. She could not believe her eyes. She had met her mother before.

It happened when her mother came as a patient. She was injured. At that time, Yu Qi felt something about the patient. She also praised that this patient looked beautiful and young.

After treating the patient, the next day, she found out that she had already been discharged and someone came and took her home.

At that time, Yu Qi ignored the familiar feeling and forgot about her. Now, when she recalled back, it must be because of that the patient was her mother, she felt something.

The one who took Yan Lian Xen must be someone from the organisation. As to why Yan Lian Xen suddenly appeared at FINN City, she did not know about that. Probably because of the job.

Yu Qi stopped reading the information. Her head felt hurt. She needed time to process all of the information that she got just now.

Thinking about her parents, she wondered if she had been abandoned because her parents prioritized their careers more than that.

...

Yu Qi attended the general meeting in Qinyue Group for the monthly meeting. Usually, she would attend the meeting by online meeting but today she thought of going to attend the physical meeting at once.

Yu Qi arrived at the headquarters of Qinyue Group. She walked straight to the lift that was only for important positions in the group.

The receptionist saw this and quickly rushed over to stop Yu Qi.

"Stop!" The receptionist shouted.

Yu Qi did not think that she was being yelled at. So, she kept ignoring the shout. The lift stopped and she was about to enter the lift but she was stopped by someone.

"Stop! Why are you ignoring me?" The receptionist said.

"Huh?" Yu Qi was confused.

"This lift is for VVIP only. It is not for someone like you." The receptionist said. Then she looked at Yu Qi up and down. "I've never seen you before. You must be a new employee. Show me your ID card."

Yu Qi remembered that Su Yu Hi gave her an ID card for the company. She searched in her bag.

The receptionist became impatient. She thought Yu Qi was an intruder.

"You..." The receptionist wanted to say something but someone came over.

"Chairman, you have come." A man bowed to Yu Qi.

The receptionist looked at the man. She knew the man. It was one of the directors. And he was bowing to the woman in front of her and called her 'chairman'.

She suddenly remembered that their chairman was a beautiful woman. She tried to remember what the chairman looked like.

She was shocked when she finally remembered who the woman in front of her right now was.

The receptionist bowed down. "Chairman, please forgive me. I don't know who you are."

"What?" The man asked.

Yu Qi looked at the receptionist. "You should be polite to others. Go back to your designated area."

The receptionist bowed several times. She rushed to her place.

Yu Qi entered the lift with the director. The director was the earliest employee that Yu Qi hired back when the office was in Shiwa Town. He was Sang Ya Min.

"What are you?" Yu Qi asked.

"Not bad." Sang Ya Min said.

"How about your wife?" Yu Qi asked for Song Jue Rei.

She was also the same as Sang Ya Min, the employee that Yu Qi hired from Shiwa Town.

"She is doing fine. She was even more busy than me. But I am kind of worried right now." Sang Ya Min sighed.

"Huh? What happened?" Yu Qi asked.

"She is pregnant right now. 6 months." Sang Ya Min sighed again.

"Oh, congratulations." Yu Qi was happy about the news. "Well, it is actually better for a mother to be a little active during the pregnancy but not so intense. It would help her during the giving birth time.

Most mothers who actively moving during their pregnancy had very quick and simple process unless there was another complication on their condition.

1655 Chapter 1655

"Is it true?" Sang Ya Min asked.

It was his first time becoming a father. So, there were a lot of things that he did not much about. He even bought a book about the pregnancy and read it.

"Yes, you don't need to worry much about that. I believe Jue Rei know what she doing. She would not endanger her unborn child." Yu Qi said.

Sang Ya Min looked relieved after hearing Yu Qi's opinion. He was really afraid if something happened to his wife.

"By the way, have you registered where do you planning to give birth?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes, we decided we are going to give birth at your workplace." Sang Ya Min said.

He and Song Jue Rei looked at the potential hospital around FINN City and found out that Tang Private Hospital gave the care best for the mother and newborn child.

Well, of course, it was a little bit pricey but both of them could afford that. So why not? With that, they chose Tang Private Hospital to give birth to our child.

"I see." Yu Qi nodded.

They talked about other things as well until they arrived at the meeting room. Sang Ya Min was also involved in the meeting. So they entered together.

Since everyone already arrived, they started the meeting. Each of them began to read the performance report one by one.

Yu Qi was happy to hear the report. All of her businesses were doing great at this moment, especially Qi Qi Skincare Brand.

Qi Qi Skincare Brand gained a lot of customers. It also had a few new stores around the Binhai Nation as the customers demanded it.

As for Nigeru Koen, even though it was still newly established, it still gained a lot of customers coming over to try out its activity.

Lang Sun as the one in charge of Qiaosu Entertainment came up with three new proposals. He wanted to invest in three different projects.

The first one was a movie who would be directed by a famous action director, Huang Bao. Every movie that was directed by him became a blockbuster.

The second one was a drama series. It was an adaption from a famous manhwa. The manhwa had a lot of readers whether in Binhai Nation or overseas as well.

The next one was a new variety show on a television station. It was about having celebrities go to the rural areas and help them do their daily job.

After hearing the proposal, Yu Qi gave Lang Sun a go at all the proposals. Lang Sun was happy.

The time ended after two hours. It was already six p.m.

"Yu Qi, let's go and eat dinner together." Su Yu Hi invited. Then he looked at everyone. "You guys, let's go too. It is Yu Qi's first time joining the physical meeting with us."

"Brother Yu Hi, why do I hear some sarcasm inside your tone?" Yu Qi asked.

"Oh, you noticed." Su Yu Hi smirked.

"Are you complaining?" Yu Qi asked.

"Just kidding." Su Yu Hi said.

They went to a restaurant. They requested a room. When they were eating, some people entered the room by mistake. After realizing the mistake, they apologised and went out. I think you should take a look at pa11dasnovel.com

The people who currently eating did not think much about the intruders. Things like that could happen something.

Yu Qi told them that she wanted to go to the toilet for a moment. When she was in the toilet, she heard people coming too and she heard their conversation.

"Just now, Siyang and I entered the wrong room. Inside it, there was a group of men eating. I noticed there was a girl with them."

"So, what is wrong with that?"

"I wonder what is she doing dining together with a bunch of men like that?"

"Are you telling me they were doing something dirty?"

"Hey, you can not talk like that. You can ruin someone's reputation."

Yu Qi came out of the toilet. She looked at one girl. She recognized her as the one who entered their room by mistake earlier.

The girl looked surprised when she noticed it was the same girl that she looked at inside the room earlier.

"Why are you silent now? You can talk more about that. I want to hear more." Yu Qi said that while washing her hands.

The girl was silent. She did not expect that the one she had been talking about was inside the cubicle.

"Excuse me? Are you Miss Tang?" The girl who defending Yu Qi just now asked.

Well, Yu Qi knew that she was the one who did not talk badly about Yu Qi because of her voice. She smiled and nodded.

"Yes, I am." Yu Qi said.

"Oh, nice to meet you, Miss Tang. I am your fan." The girl smiled excitedly at Yu Qi.

"My fan?" Yu Qi was taken aback.

"Yes, after knowing you and your abilities, I am inspired to be like you as well." The girl said.

"Thank you. I hope you will succeed." Yu Qi said.

"Hmm... Can I ask something?" The girl became nervous.

"What is this?" Yu Qi asked.

"Can I take a picture with you?" The girl requested.

Yu Qi did not think it would harm her. So, she agreed. The girl took the picture together with Yu Qi.

Yu Qi excused herself. Before leaving she looked at the girl who talked dirty about her just now.

"Miss, I hope you can watch your mouth. Otherwise, it will harm you." Yu Qi left after leaving the message.

The fan girl thought something.

"Weiwei, is the woman that you talking just now?" The fan girl asked.

"Well..." The girl avoided the fan girl's eyes.

"How dare you talk about my goddess that way? She is not someone who depends on men to be successful. She is an excellent doctor and researcher. Not only that, she is the chairman of Qinyue group which owns multiple successful businesses such as the Qi Qi Skincare brand that you like so much. The men who you saw earlier are most probably her subordinates." The fan girl explained.

The two girls showed a shocked expression on their faces. They did not know that the woman was very impressive. And that same woman heard that they were talking shit about her.

They felt afraid that the woman might get revenge on them or their families since the woman was a powerful person.

"I think I will end our friendship here. I will not associate myself with you guys anymore. You can go and insult anyone by yourself." The fan said.

She left the toilet. Actually, she meant to leave the circle of friendship. Those girls like to talk badly about others who they feel are below them.

She was together with them because her parent told her so. However, today was the final straw when she knew that they were talking shit about her goddess.

She really liked Yu Qi because she was very talented. Yu Qi built her empire without any help from her family. Not many knew that she owned the business until she announced that to everyone.

Yu Qi did not know what happened in the toilet after she left. She returned to the room.

The men already finished eating and wanted to leave the room. They called the waiter to pay the payment. The waiter came bringing in the bills.

He was asking who would pay the bills. To her surprise, the young woman called him and asked for the bill. It seemed she would pay the bills.

He glanced at the men around. 'How could they let a woman pay for their meal? How embarrassing.'

Yu Qi paid for the meal.

"Thank you, Chairman Tang, for treating us tonight." The men said.

The waiter was surprised once again. 'Chairman? This young woman was their boss?' He was curious but did not care to ask about that.

Yu Qi looked at her watch. It was still early. She had been busy lately and did not have time to relax.

She decided to go and walk at the shopping mall. She also wanted to buy a few clothes for herself.

The shopping mall was not really crowded since it was a weekday. Yu Qi walked around and suddenly she saw a nice-looking outfit for a man.

She began imagining Long Hui in that outfit. Without her knowing, her feet already stepped into the shop.

"Welcome." The sales girls greeted them.

One of them came over and asked Yu Qi. "Can I help you today, Miss?"

"How much did this outfit cost?" Yu Qi pointed to the displayed outfit.

"Oh, it is about 30 thousand." The sales girl said with a smile.

"Hmm... Do you have a size for a man about 6' 8"?" Yu Qi asked.

The sales girl was surprised to hear the height. That was about 2 meters.

"Let me check. Wait for a moment." The sales girl said.

"Sure." Yu Qi nodded. She looked around again.

The sales girl rushed to the counter.

"What happened?" Another sales girl asked.

"Do we have that outfit for a man with 6' 8"?" The sales girl asked.

"Wow, he is very tall." Her friend commented. "Let me check." She checked on her computer. "We do have it."

"Okay. I will go and tell her." The sales girl nodded and returned to Yu Qi.

"We do have it, Miss. Do you like to purchase it?" The sales girl asked.

"Hmm... I will take that and that one too for the same size." Yu Qi pointed to the other two outfits.

"Sure, Miss. I will prepare your order." The sales girl smiled.

Her commission for this today was very good.

Yu Qi waited for the sales girl to prepare her order. At the same time, two women entered the shop as well. They were talking closely like mother and daughter.

Yu Qi heard them and turned around to look at them. Yu Qi was surprised to see them here. They were also surprised to see Yu Qi here.

They were Bai Jian and Bai Feng Jiu. Yu Qi did not have any intention to greet them. With an expressionless face, she turned to another director.

However, Bai Jian thought it was better for them to greet each other since they were businesswoman.

"I never thought to see Miss Tang here." Bai Jian said.

She really wanted a woman like Yu Qi to be Bai Yu's wife. She could fight Bai Shu Jin's influence and stabilised Bai Yu's position on the shareholders' eyes.

Bai Feng Jiu was surprised when her aunt went to greet Yu Qi. Bai Feng Jiu used to despise Yu Qi thinking Yu Qi was a poor student who wanted climb the ladder. And Yu Qi should be glad that Bai Shu Jin wanted her.

However, the recently news made her thought that she was an idiot before. Yu Qi was clearly an impressive woman who already started her business while still studying.

1657 Chapter 1657

"Miss Tang, as a businesswoman, you should know how to make friends. It would help your business too." Bai Jian said.

"Indeed, you are right." Yu Qi agreed with Bai Jian's statement.

Bai Jian was glad that Yu Qi agreed with her.

"Why don't we spend time together?" Bai Jian asked.

"Mrs Bai, what you said earlier is indeed right. But I don't plan to make friends with the Bai family. We did not have a business together." Yu Qi cut Bai Jian off.

"You! Why are you being so rude? You should be glad that the Bai Family want to be friends with you." Bai Jian stated.

Yu Qi snorted. "You have a condescending attitude. Like I said earlier, I don't plan to be friends with you. Please, excuse me." She looked at the sales girl and asked. "Are my orders done?"

"Yes, Miss." The sales girl nodded.

Yu Qi quickly made the payment and left the shop.

Bai Jian gritted her teeth. "This woman is surely arrogant."

Bai Feng Jiu did not want to comment. To be honest, she looked down at Yu Qi before. The situation was different now. She really looked up to Yu Qi's achievement. Not many women could do the same.

Yu Qi walked around. She saw an antique store. She became interested in looking around. So, she went to the store.

When she was about to enter the store, an old man came out of the store with two men. She assumed it was his bodyguards. This person must be someone important if he had bodyguards around him.

Yu Qi stepped aside giving way to the old man. The old man just smiled at Yu Qi while nodding. Yu Qi also responded by smiling back at the old man.

When Yu Qi was about to enter the antique store, she heard something. She turned around and saw the old man earlier fell on the ground.

She saw him grasping his left chest. She assumed the old man probably suddenly had a heart attack. She rushed to the old man. She pushed the bodyguards over.

"Hey, what are you doing?" The bodyguard became angry.

"Your master is having a heart attack." Yu Qi said.

"You can not do anything." The bodyguard shouted.

One of them already called the ambulance.

"If you wait for the ambulance to come, he will be dead by the time he arrives at the hospital." Yu Qi said.

She did not care anymore. She ripped off the old man's shirt. She took out her needles and struck the needles into the old man's chest. The bodyguards were shocked by the woman's action.

The commotion made people around come to look at the situation.

"What happened?"

"I hear that old man is having a heart attack."

"Then, what is that woman doing?"

"I don't know."

"Is she putting needles on that old man?"

"I think so."

"Oh, she is probably trying to save the old man by doing acupuncture."

"She should be waiting for the ambulance for help."

"I just heard that she says that the old man would be dead by the time he arrived at the hospital."

"What? She could not jinx the old man like that."

"I think she knows what she doing. Look she is very confident."

Yu Qi put ten needles on the old man's chest. After that, she checked on his pulse. Knowing the old man's pulse became stable.

She was relieved. She began to take out the needles from the old man's chest.

"Is he going to be okay?" The bodyguard saw Yu Qi taking out the needles and could not help but ask.

"Hmm... He is okay right now. But he needs to go to the hospital to check up. When is the ambulance coming?" Yu Qi told the bodyguards about the old man's condition and asked about the ambulance.

Seeing the old man still unconscious, the bodyguards were still worried. A few moments later, the old man began to open his eyes.

"Old Master." The bodyguards were glad to see the old man finally conscious.

"Young miss, thank you for your help." The bodyguards bowed to Yu Qi.

"Oh, are you the one who helped me?" The old man smiled weakly.

"Sir, you need to go to the hospital to check up. Otherwise, something like this will happen again in the future." Yu Qi advised the old man.

Sometimes, some old people disliked going to the hospital thinking they were healthy.

"I understand. Thank you, young lady." The old man smiled.

The paramedic came over. They saw someone familiar.

"Doctor Yu Qi?" The paramedic called Yu Qi's name for confirmation.

"Yes." Yu Qi answered. "This old man is having a heart attack earlier. Please put the oxygen mask on him."

"Yes, Doctor Yu Qi." The paramedic quickly did their work.

They put on an oxygen mask for the old man and transported them to the ambulance.

The people who watched this situation heard the paramedic call the young woman 'doctor'.

"Oh, she is actually a doctor."

"No wonder, she knew what she doing."

"The old man is lucky that he encounters a doctor when he is having a heart attack."

"Who knows what happens if she is not around."

Yu Qi was relieved seeing the old man in the paramedic's hand. She went to collect the shopping bag that she threw away just now. Seeing they were in good condition, she picked them up.

1658 Chapter 1658

The people still did not leave the place.

"I think I have seen her before."

"What? Why?"

"You probably saw her before at the hospital. She works at the hospital, after all."

"No, I think I see her on the internet."

"Maybe because of her job."

"Oh, wait. I remember her. She is the owner of Qinyue Group. The business group who just established not long ago."

"What? Are you sure she is?"

"Search it on the internet. Type Qinyue Group."

Some of the people who heard about this quickly took out their phones and went online to search for Qinyue Group.

The first thing that popped out was about the owner of Qinyue Group. The person in the picture was indeed Yu Qi, the doctor who saved the old man earlier.

"Wow! It is indeed her."

"See... I told you so."

"Wow... Her companies are worth billions."

"Whoever marries her is set for life."

"I wonder if she already has a boyfriend."

"If you want to chase her, you better give up."

"Why not?"

"It already stated that she already being engaged to someone. And that someone is not someone that you can fight over."

"Who is her fiance?"

"Her fiance is Long Hui. To be exact, Colonel Long Hui, the grandson of the Great General Long Fei Yi."

"What? He?"

"Yes."

"Indeed. He is someone that not average people can fight over."

Yu Qi who already entered the antique store did not know that she had been discussed by those people. She was walking around the store looking at the antiques.

There were plates, jugs, teapots and vases too. Paintings were also displayed. Not to mention, they also had sculptures.

The atmosphere in the store was also silent. If there was no one here. Yu Qi looked at the counter. An old man was sitting there reading an old book.

Yu Qi was surprised when she realized that the old man was a cultivator when she sensed some Qi around the old man.

The old man lifted his head and squinted. He was surprised to see Yu Qi.

"Yi Yi?" The old man said.

Even though it was just a whisper, Yu Qi could hear it. She heard the word, Yi Yi coming from the old man in front of her right now.

"Are you just calling me Yi Yi?" Yu Qi tried to ask.

"You can hear that? I am sure that... Wait, are you possibly a cultivator too?" The old man realized something.

He was sure that he was whispering to himself. It was impossible for a normal human being to hear that. So, the girl in front of him right now must be a cultivator as well.

"Too? You mean you are too?" Yu Qi asked back.

"It has been a while since I met my kind." The old man smiled.

"The name that you call me just now..." Yu Qi wanted to ask about that.

"Oh, you look like an old friend of mine. That is her name. When I saw you just now, my mouth blurted out the name." The old man explained.

"That is my grandmother's name. Dian Yi Yi, isn't it?" Yu Qi asked again.

"What?" The old man was surprised, he ended up standing up from her chair.

"Yes. Dian Yi Yi is my grandmother." Yu Qi stated it again.

The old man let a laugh out. "No wonder, you are exactly look like her."

So, this old man indeed knew her grandmother. Possibly when they were younger.

"How is she?" The old man asked wanting to know about his old friend.

"She died a long time ago. Even I never met her in front. I only know her through pictures." Yu Qi broke the news to the old man.

"What?" The old man was shocked. He sighed. "I told her not to abolish her cultivation."

"She what?" Yu Qi could not believe her ears.

"In order to be with a mortal, she abolished her own cultivation." The old man gritted his teeth showing that he was angry about that.

Then, he calmed down. "I am sorry for lashing out at you like that. I should not act like that. Especially since you are her granddaughter."

The old man then realized something. "But you are a cultivator. When a cultivator abolishes their cultivation, their descendant would not have any cultivation power. How could you have it? I use that she abolished her cultivation before getting married to that man."

"Oh, I am a special case, I guess." Yu Qi said.

It was impossible for her to tell a stranger that she was the reincarnation of Qin Yue from a thousand years ago.

"Nevertheless, I am happy to see her descendent. She must be happy to be with the man she loved." The old man smiled.

"What is your name, Sir?" Yu Qi asked.

"Xia Weizhe. You can call me, hmm... Grandpa Weizhe. What's about you?" Xia Weizhe asked back.

"Tang Yu Qi." Yu Qi said.

Xia Weizhe nodded.

Yu Qi would ask Grandpa Dian if he knew Xia Weizhe.

"So, how long have you opened this store?" Yu Qi asked while looking around.

"A long time ago." Xia Weizhe said.

"I see. Have you returned to the cultivation world recently?" Yu Qi asked.

"What? You can return to the cultivation world? Do you have the device?" Xia Weizhe once again shocked.

"I don't." Yu Qi shook her head.

1659 Chapter 1659

Xia Weizhe knew that he should not worked up about something like that. However, the next sentence from Yu Qi surprised him once again.

"But Dian Family has it." Yu Qi said.

"You knew Dian's Family too?" Xia Weizhe asked.

He knew that Dian Yi Yi cut ties with her family back then. She then married a mortal.

"Yes. I know them." Yu Qi nodded.

"Oh, they must recognise you by your striking resemblance to your grandmother." Xia Weizhe nodded.

"So, you are here alone?" Yu Qi asked.

"Hmm... I managed to escape the horrible place and ended up here." Xia Weizhe sighed.

He could not forget the horrible place. He did not dare to go around travelling or something like that. Because of what? Because he was afraid that he would be discovered by them and be dragged to the horrible place again.

"Make sure to not let other people know that you are not a normal human being. Otherwise, your life would be ruined." Xia Weizhe advised.

"What? What do you mean by that?" Yu Qi asked.

"If some people find out that you are somehow different from a normal human being, you would be caught and would be experimented by those people. If they think you are useable for them, you would work for them for free to your bones." Xia Weizhe said.

Yu Qi listened to what Xia Weizhe had been talking to her was quite similar to Elder Mong. She was wondering if there was the same organization.

One was experimenting the medicine and human beings. Another group probably was experimenting the cultivators.

"Can you tell me more about that?" Yu Qi wanted to know more.

Xia Weizhe did not want to hide anything from this young cultivator. Meeting her must be a fate. Of course, he was not thinking about the romantic fate.

The fate that he met her here and now was telling him that something was changing.

Xia Weizhe started to tell her his life experience. According to Xia Weizhe, he left the cultivation world at such a young time. He did not forget how old he was when he left the cultivation.

As a young man, he was eager to see the outside world. He was among several people who left the cultivation world.

Upon arriving at the outside world, they were shocked that it was an island full of weird people. Some of them were even cultivators.

Xia Weizhe asked them about this. Xia Weizhe said he could see the despair in their eyes.

"You are new here?" One of the cultivators asked.

Xia Weizhe nodded. After getting the confirmation, the cultivators around shook their heads.

"You have been tricked by Bucong bastard." The cultivator said.

"What do you mean?" Xia Weizhe could not understand that.

"Someone probably tells you that the outside world is probably much better than the cultivation world.

Xia Weizhe nodded. He could not deny that. Because of that reason, here he was.

"They just want a young cultivator to keep the cultivator's specimen. They want to use you as their experiment thing." The cultivators said.

Xia Weizhe could not believe what he heard right now. Some who came with him started to panic after hearing this.

"I want to leave." One of them said.

The cultivators shook their heads.

"No one can leave here." The old cultivator said.

"Why?" They asked desperately.

"One, it is because this island is located from the others. You can not continuously use your cultivation power to cross the sea because it would drain empty. Second, there was a strong cultivator. You don't have a chance to win against him." The old cultivator said.

Xia Weizhe started to accept their fate and lived there. It was indeed horrible. They would be called to be testers or the ones who are experimenting.

Xia Weizhe began to get closer to the veteran over there. His name was Huo Yifeng. He had been here since 20 years ago.

He really respected Huo Yifeng. The guards over there also were kind of afraid of Huo Yifeng. Because of Huo Yifeng's protection, Xia Weizhe's life was not so bad compared to others.

One day, something happened. One of the buildings exploded. It was a chaos. Xia Weizhe took a chance to escape. He was planning to take a speed boat.

He told Huo Yifeng. Huo Yifeng told his few friends. Then they sneaked to the place where the speed boat had been placed during the chaos.

However, someone spotted them and they began to fight. During the fight, Huo Yifeng shouted at Xia Weizhe to turn on the speed boat.

Xia Weizhe did what Huo Yifeng said. He shouted to Huo Yifeng that they were ready. He told Huo Yifeng and others to get in.

However, Huo Yifeng told him that he needed to get out of there right now. Xia Weizhe did not want to leave with them.

Everyone shouted to Xia Weizhe not to waste this chance and not sacrifice their effort on blocking the guards this time. After hearing that, Xia Weizhe drove the speed boat away.

It was his first time driving this thing. He was lucky that it was quite easy. And it also have map on the speed boat system.

Xia Weizhe followed the map. Unfortunately, the speed boat was out oil. It was 80 kilometre of the land.

Xia Weizhe did not want to waste his time here.

1660 Chapter 1660

He jumped off the speed boat and tried to swim. He swam and swam. He did not remember the direction that he took. He was just swimming. However, after swimming for about 5 days, he was finally out of his energy.

He still tried floating but he could not do that after he drained his energy. He was slowly sinking into the sea. Then he lost his consciousness.

Once he regained consciousness, he realized that he was in the hospital. He thought the bad guys managed to catch and bring him back to the island.

He jumped off the bed and tried to rush out of the room. When he opened the door, he bumped into the doctor and nurse who was just about to enter the room.

"Sir, where do you want to go?" The doctor asked.

Xia Weizhe did not answer the question. He stepped aside to run away. The doctor noticed the strange behaviour of the patient.

"Sir, you need to rest." The doctor shouted chasing Xia Weizhe.

Of course, Xia Weizhe did not listen to the doctor. He wanted to leave this place. However, when he was outside, he was surprised to see the place. It was not the same as the island where he stayed for over 3 years.

The doctor and nurse managed to catch him up.

"Sir." The doctor called Xia Weizhe in a soft tone. She did not want to startle Xia Weizhe.

"Where is this?" Xia Weizhe asked the doctor.

"It is Guanying City. You are in the Guanying General Hospital." The doctor stated.

"Guanying City?" Xia Weizhe was confused. "This is not the island?"

The Doctor and nurse looked at each other. People said this man was found by the seashore. They thought he had already died at that time. However, the people who found him noticed some movement, so they went to check on Xia Weizhe.

Xia Weizhe was still alive. They immediately called the ambulance and rushed Xia Weizhe to the hospital. Xia Weizhe was at the hospital for about 3 days before he woke up today.

"Sir, let's go to your room first. I will tell you everything that you need to know." The doctor said.

"A lot happens after that. I managed to escape the island. I stay out of the problem since I don't have them to find out anything about me. So, here I am become the storekeeper for this shop." Xia Weizhe said to Yu Qi.

"Island? Do you remember the island's name? Its location?" Yu Qi asked.

She felt the similarity of the story between Elder Mong and Xia Weizhe. It was the same pattern. The keyword was the island.

"I really don't know. I spent about 2 days on the speed boat and 5 days swimming before I lost consciousness. I don't know how long I spent in the sea before people found me." Xia Weizhe shook his head.

Yu Qi went silent. Indeed. It was true. Being in the sea for such a long time would disturb the sense of time. Not to mention, Xia Weizhe lost consciousness.

"Do you want to return to the cultivation world?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes." Xia Weizhe nodded.

Even though he was already this old, he wanted to return to his hometown. Since a cultivator had a long timespan, his family might still be alive after all of this.

"Sure, I will help you. But I don't have time yet. I will tell you when I have time. Can I have your contact number?" Yu Qi asked.

"Sure." Xia Weizhe nodded.

They exchanged their contact information. Yu Qi excused herself after buying an antique vase. Xia Weizhe wanted to just give it to Yu Qi but she refused. In the end, Xia Weizhe gave a discount to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi planned to give the vase to Grandpa Tang. Yu Qi put away the vase first. She remembered there was something that she had forgotten to grab from her room at the hospital.

So, when she went to the hospital. After grabbing the thing that she forgot, she came across with the old man that she saved earlier.

"Oh, we meet again, Young Girl." The old man smiled as he greeted Yu Qi.

Yu Qi smiled back to the old man. She glanced at the six bodyguards behind the old man. This old man must be someone.

"What is your heart, Sir?" Yu Qi asked.

"Because of your treatment earlier, I am fine. I just need to be careful controlling my emotions. Thank you, Young Girl." The old man smiled. "I want to thank you Young Girl. How about having dinner together?"

The man who was closer to the old man flinched. Yu Qi noticed it even though it happened in a split of second. It seemed the man did not want Yu Qi to get closer to this old man.

"It is okay, Sir. I am saving you is a part of my job." Yu Qi rejected it.

She did not have plan to get together with the old man.

"Your job?" The old man was surprised and confused at the same time.

"You are currently at my workplace. I am a doctor." Yu Qi said.

"You are?" The old man was surprised at first but when he remembered that the way she talked to the paramedic about his condition earlier. "Oh, you are a doctor here. Excellent." The old man praised Yu Qi.

The man looked at Yu Qi. It seemed he did not know Yu Qi.
