1701 Chapter 1701

After spending one more day in the cultivation world, Qin Xia and Yu Qi returned to the outside world. Once Yu Qi stepped outside of the mountain, the phone started to receive a lot of notifications.

Yu Qi checked her phone. Some of them were from her colleagues, Tang Family and Su Yu Hi. However, most of them were from Long Hui. She thought she did leave a message to Long Hui saying she would be going to the cultivation world.

She wondered why there were so many missed calls from him. She immediately called Long Hui back. After one ring, the phone was answered.

"Qi Qi?" Long Hui said.

"Hmm... What is the matter?" Yu Qi asked.

"Where are you right now?" Long Hui asked.

"I am on the way back home. I just come out of the cultivation world." Yu Qi answered.

"Cultivation world? With whom?" Long Hui asked again.

"With Senior Brother Xia? What is going on?" Yu Qi asked.

"How long it will take for you to arrive home?" Long Hui did not answer Yu Qi's question but asked another question to Yu Qi.

"Hmm... Within half an hour, I guess." Yu Qi said.

"I will be waiting." Long Hui said.

"Sure. Hmmm... I will hang up first, okay?" Yu Qi said.

"Hmm..." Long Hui said.

Yu Qi ended the call.

"What happened?" Qia Xia asked.

"I don't know." Yu Qi shook her head.

Yu Qi started messaging people who called her. She explained that she went to the place where the signal was so bad that she could not accept any phones. That was why she did not answer their calls and apologized to them as well.

Yu Qi arrived home. Qin Xia wanted to send her up but something coming up. Min Liang, the secretary called Qin Xia crying and begging Qin Xia to come to the office. Hearing Min Liang crying like that, Yu Qi told Qin Xia to go to the office. So, Qin Xia dropped Yu Qi at her home and left.

Yu Qi entered the house. Once she entered the home, she was grabbed by someone. She did not fight back because she knew that it was Long Hui. She let him hug her.

"Thank goddess you are still here." Long Hui mumbled these words while hugging Yu Qi.

"Brother Hui... Why are you being like this?" Yu Qi patted Long Hui's back.

"You went missing..." Long Hui said.

"Huh? But I did leave the message to you." Yu Qi said.

"Huh?" Long Hui was confused.

"Let me check your phone." Yu Qi requested.

Long Hui handed over his phone to Yu Qi. Yu Qi immediately checked the message that she sent three days ago. It was there but the received time was today. Right after Yu Qi stepped out of the mountain.

"No wonder. You just received the message that I sent to you three days ago." Yu Qi showed the message to Long Hui.

Long Hui looked at the message. He did not know how to feel about that.

"I guess you called everyone to ask about me, did you?" Yu Qi said.

Long Hui nodded. That was what he doing yesterday. He knew that she was being targeted by some people. That was why he was panicked.

"Brother Hui, I am sorry for making you worried." Yu Qi hugged Long Hui.

Yu Qi could feel that Long Hui was still trembling while hugging him. They were in that state for a long time after Long Hui's stomach started making some sounds.

"Brother Hui, how long since you eaten?" Yu Qi asked while narrowing her eyes.

Long Hui did not dare to look at Yu Qi's eyes. Yu Qi sighed. She knew that Long Hui did not eat.

"I will cook for you." Yu Qi said.

She entered her space to get some meat and herbs that she wanted before exiting her space. Then, she started cooking. Long Hui was still watching her cooking.

Yu Qi only cooked porridge with some herbs. She knew that Long Hui had not eaten since yesterday. She did not want to upset Long Hui's stomach.

"Eat this." Yu Qi placed a bowl of porridge in front of Long Hui.

"Just this?" Long Hui asked.

"Hmm... You should eat this first. You can not upset your stomach. We will go out and have what you want to eat later, okay?" Yu Qi coaxed Long Hui.

"Hmm..." Long Hui nodded and started eating.

Yu Qi wanted to go to the room but Long Hui still held her hand.

"Brother Hui, I want to go to the toilet." Yu Qi said while shaking her hand that was being held by Long Hui.

Long Hui looked at the hand and slowly let it go. Yu Qi stood up and went to the bathroom. But Long Hui also stood up and followed her.

"Have you finished eating?" Yu Qi asked.

"Nope yet." Long Hui shook his head.

"Then, where are you going?" Yu Qi tilted her head.

"Accompany you." Long Hui stated.

"You can finish your food. I am just going to the bathroom." Yu Qi said.

"I will follow you." Long Hui insisted.

Yu Qi did not know to make Long Hui stop but he did keep following Yu Qi everywhere that day. Probably because he did not get the news where Yu Qi was for the past three days made him anxious.

1702 Chapter 1702

Long Hui kept clinging to her for the past two days. When she went to work, Long Hui called her every two hours. Well, she did not dislike it but she felt that Long Hui was not focusing on his work at this rate.

So, she planned to go and see Long Hui at work. He was going to be late tonight. That was what he had said earlier in the morning. Yu Qi finished her shift and went to the military ground.

Yu Qi stopped the car, got out and went to the soldiers who guarded the entrance.

"Who are you and what is your purpose for coming here?" The soldier asked.

"I would like to see Colonel Long. Is he here today?" Yu Qi asked.

"Colonel Long?" The soldier looked at Yu Qi up and down.

"Yes, I am her fiancée, Tang Yu Qi." Yu Qi said.

"What? But..." The soldier was shocked. He looked at his partner.

The other soldier looked at Yu Qi. He recognized Yu Qi from the picture in the internet.

"Miss Tang, welcome. We will inform it to Colonel Long about you coming here." The other soldier asked.

"But, a woman who said she was Tang Yu Qi. So, I allow her to enter when you are in the toilet just now." The first soldier stated.

"What?" The second soldier was shocked. "Do you inform inside about her arrival? Did you check her face before allowing her to go in?" He repeatedly asked the questions.

"Well...." The soldier scratched his head.

He was a new recruit and was assigned to guard the entrance. The second soldier began to contact people inside and informed the situation.

The people inside were shocked. Because it was indeed a woman called herself Tang Yu Qi entered the room. They even sent her to Colonel Long Hui's office.

The woman was wearing a mask. The soldier thought she was a little sick or something like that.

Yu Qi immediately called Long Hui. But he did not answer it. She frowned.

"Go check on Long Hui. Hurry up." Yu Qi shouted to the people in the line.

The people inside asked who that person was. The soldier answered with the answer that made people inside in shock. Tang Yu Qi. Then, who the heck did they meet just now?

"Go check Long Hui. He might be in danger." Yu Qi shouted again.

The people inside probably finally got the message. Yu Qi already did not stay silent. She let Shino and Aoi out.

'Both of you, go and find Long Hui. If he is in any danger, fight the culprit.' Yu Qi ordered.

Shino and Aoi listened to Yu Qi's order rushed out and looked for Long Hui. Shino knew better the way because he often stayed with Long Hui.

At this moment, Long Hui just managed to avoid the attack from the woman who said she was Yu Qi. He narrowed his eyes looking at the woman.

"Who are you?" Long Hui asked.

The woman seemed to smile under her mask. "You are really handsome in real life. But what a pity..."

"Pity?" Long Hui lifted his eyebrow.

"Yeah, I pity that you will die." The woman said.

'Owh, I would like to see how you can accomplish that.' Long Hui began to attack the woman.

The woman responded in the same way. She was surprised when Long Hui attacked her. His strength was not like the ones mentioned in the file. He was much stronger than her.

However, she could not give up the mission. She was assigned to kill Long Hui. Since she could not kill Long Hui in fist fight, she took out the gun and pointed at Long Hui after distancing herself from Long Hui.

She shot Long Hui. She thought Long Hui would be injured since it was not a huge distance. Long Hui would be getting by the bullet.

However, the woman was shocked to see Long Hui move in a flash. He was already standing in front of the woman. Long Hui punched the woman in the stomach.

The woman could feel like she was being punched with a 1000kg thing on her stomach. She also could hear the ribs had been broken. She coughed some blood.

Long Hui snatched the gun from the woman. He looked down at the woman.

"How is it?" Long Hui sneered.

The door was opened and Long Hui saw a dog and ferret enter the room.

"Why are you here?" Long Hui asked.

He was surprised to see Shino and Aoi. Shino and Aoi would not come to his side unless it was an order from his beloved Qi Qi.

Seeing Long Hui was standing perfectly fine, Aoi reported it to Yu Qi through telepathy. Aoi and Shino looked at the woman. They approached her. Shino jumped into the woman's body and climbed up to her face.

The woman could not move due to the pain. So, she just could let the animal climb to her face.

Shino pulled the mask that had covered that woman's face. After pulling the mask, Shino understood why the woman wanted to cover her face.

The woman looked at Shino's action and wanted to push him over. However, she could not do it. She did not want people to see her full face. Her body was perfect. Her skill was awesome. However, only one thing that she hated the most was face.

1703 Chapter 1703

The woman's face was disfigured. She was disfigured when she was on a mission to kill a doctor. She went to kill the doctor at his workplace. She never thought that a doctor would store some sulfuric acid in his doctor.

The doctor fought back and grabbed the bottle. He threw the bottle at her. She did not manage to avoid that bottle and the bottle's cap was opened. The liquid poured straight into her face.

She could feel the burning sensation on her face. She shouted in pain. She stabbed the doctor again to make sure that he died before she left.

She almost shouted herself when she saw her face in the mirror. Her lower face had been destroyed. Her nose was deformed and her lips, her beautiful lips had gone.

She tried to go to the hospital to have plastic surgery. However, the doctors said there was nothing that they could do at this point. She tried to go to another plastic surgery hospital but all she got was the same answer.

After that, she gave up fixing her face. So, that was why she ended up wearing a mask. When she got this mission, she was surprised to see how good-looking this soldier was. If she was in her former state, she really could try to seduce him.

She investigated the soldier to attack him. She found out that he had a fiancée named Tang Yu Qi. She looked at Tang Yu Qi feeling jealous of her beauty.

So, here she was using Tang Yu Qi's name to enter the military ground. The soldier at the entrance seemed stupid for not checking her face first before entering the military grounds.

"Is your master here?" Long Hui asked.

The disfigured woman thought Long Hui was asking her but she was wrong. She saw the dog and the ferret nodded to Long Hui. She was surprised to see the animals seemed to understand Long Hui's words.

"So, she sent you to come to check on me?" Long Hui asked again.

Once again, the disfigured woman saw the two animals nodded again. Once, it might be a coincidence. But twice? These two animals really understood human languages. She really wondered about these two animals.

Then a group of soldiers appeared at the door.

"Colonel Long?" A soldier called Long Hui.

They saw Long Hui with two animals and a disfigured woman laid on the ground, not moving.

"Take to the prison first and treat her injury. After that, get her information. Force her to tell everything." Long Hui ordered.

"Yes, Sir!" The soldier obeyed the order.

The soldiers quickly grabbed the disfigured woman. They did not care how they handled her. The disfigured woman only could shout in pain as her body was being lifted up by those soldiers. The soldiers ignored the shout and did what Long Hui asked them to do.

Long Hui left his office and walked together with the two animals. They arrived at the entrance. Yu Qi was still waiting.

Shino already informed her that they were coming toward her. So, she was not too surprised when she saw Long Hui with the two animals.

"Are you okay? You are not injured, do you?" Yu Qi checked Long Hui's body up and down.

"Hmm... I am fine. Don't worry." Long Hui assured his beloved Qi Qi.

'Master, there is a woman inside that man's office. She is so ugly.' Aoi said to Yu Qi through telepathy.

"Who is the woman?" Yu Qi asked Long Hui.

Long Hui glanced at Aoi. Aoi quickly hid behind Long Hui after realizing that Long Hui had taken a glance at him.

"Apparently, she is a killer. She wanted to kill but she underestimated my strength." Long Hui said.

"She what? A killer?" Yu Qi was shocked.

"Hmm... It seems I have a bounty on my head now." Long Hui grinned.

Yu Qi slapped Long Hui's back. "It is not a laughing matter."

"Okay... Okay... I will handle it seriously. No need to worry about that." Long Hui calmed down his angry Qi Qi.

The soldiers who were there, watching and listening to the couple were dumbfounded with what they had seen. They usually saw the cold and amazing Colonel Long. They never expected to see this side from the cold Colonel Long.

"Let's go inside. I think the doctor is currently treating the woman." Long Hui invited Yu Qi to go and see the woman.

"Sure." Yu Qi nodded.

She also wanted to see the woman who dared to kill her man. So, they went to the prison to see the woman. The doctor was treating the woman.

Yu Qi looked at the woman. No wonder, Aoi told her that this woman was so ugly. Her face was disfigured. It was permanent. There was no current technology that could fix this horrible face. It was probably of the sulfuric acid.

The disfigured woman noticed that other people had come into the prison. She was surprised to see a beautiful woman beside Long Hui. She assumed that was Yu Qi.

"How is her condition?" Long Hui asked the doctor.

"Hmm... She needs to be admitted to the hospital to treat her injury. Otherwise, it will be worse." The doctor commented.

"We can not admit her to a normal hospital. She is very dangerous. Normal people could not handle her." Long Hui said.

That was right. She was a killer. She could run away after feeling a little bit better.

1704 Chapter 1704

"So, it is better if she transferred to the military hospital?" Another soldier said.

"Her body could not wait until then. She might be dead." The doctor said.

"Hmm... Can I suggest something?" Yu Qi asked.

Everyone looked at her and recognized her straight away. It was Colonel Long's fiancée.

"You guys did not want her to run away after she recovered right?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes." Long Hui nodded.

"Hmm... Let her drink this drink." Yu Qi took something out of her bag.

"What is this?" The doctor asked.

"A medicine that could disable her body without disturbing the treatment for her injury. Her mental state also would be fine. She would not be going to move a muscle." Yu Qi stated.

"What?" The doctor was surprised. "Is it really the truth?"

"Yes. So, do you agree?" Yu Qi asked the soldier.

"I agree."

They agreed. The disfigured woman found some strength to speak up.

"No." The disfigured woman said one word.

"You don't have any say on this." Long Hui glanced at the disfigured woman.

The disfigured woman could not help but regret taking this mission. In the past, even though she was injured, she managed to escape. But now, she did not know if she would be going to escape if she could not move her body.

The doctor injected the liquid into the disfigured woman's body. The disfigured could not feel anything painful. However, she could feel that she had lost control of her body.

"You can send her to hospital. As a cautious measure, you should let the soldier escort her." Yu Qi said.

The doctor approached Yu Qi. His eyes were shining as he looked at Yu Qi. Long Hui frowned. He pulled Yu Qi and placed her behind him.

The doctor coughed. Colonel Long really disliked other men who approached his fiancée.

"Doctor Tang, where did you get the medicine?" The doctor asked. He wanted Long Hui to know that he did not have other intentions.

"Oh... That medicine... It is my own research. You should know that I am also doing some research." Yu Qi smiled.

"Oh... I see. No wonder." The doctor nodded.

The disfigured woman had been escorted to the Tang Private Hospital. Due to her case, she had been admitted to a special ward. There were two soldiers controlled the entrance of her ward.

The soldier who allowed the disfigured woman to enter the military grounds had to be punished. His partner also could not escape from the punishment. They should be alerted to anyone who coming into the military ground. Everyone needed to be checked thoroughly.

Ren Qian Yi just returned to the military ground. After hearing the news, he was worried and rushed to meet Long Hui. He was surprised to see Yu Qi here.

"Oh, you are here too, Second Sister In law." Ren Qian Yi said.

"Hmm... You just returned?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes. Oh, Second Brother. I heard that you are facing a killer today. How is it?" Ren Qian Yi turned to Long Hui.

"I am okay." Long Hui nodded.

"I know you are going to be okay. I am asking about the killer. Is he strong?" Ren Qian Yi was excited to see it.

Yu Qi and Long Hui looked at Ren Qian Yi. They did not know what to say about him.

"The killer is a woman." Yu Qi said.

"What? The woman? So, there is no way that Second brother in law would lose to a woman." Ren Qian Yi said proudly.

"Owh. You think woman could not win against man?" Yu Qi asked, narrowing her eyes while looking at Ren Qian Yi

Feeling proud and excited, Ren Qian Yi did not pay anything to Yu Qi's expression. He answered. "Of course."

Long Hui glanced at Ren Qian Yi. This fool man still did not realize what danger he was in right now.

"Brother Hui, do you have a place to combat one to one?" Yu Qi asked Long Hui.

"Yes, we have." Long Hui nodded.

Yu Qi then turned to Ren Qian Yi. "Ren Qian Yi, let's fight."

"Huh?" Ren Qian Yi was confused when he saw that.

"Let's fight one to one. You and me. Let's see which one will win." Yu Qi said.

"What? Second Sister-in-law, please calm down." Ren Qian Yi said.

"Come on." Yu Qi smiled.

Ren Qian Yi still did not realize why his second sister in law suddenly wanted to fight with him.

...

Yu Qi and Long Hui returned home after everything was settled for now.

"Who do you think wants to kill you?" Yu Qi asked.

"I don't know. Probably they are from the other country. Our nation has enhanced our military strength. Some of them see this as a threat. And they disliked my strength." Long Hui sighed.

Well, he was not lying. Some countries saw Long Hui as a threat even though he did not do anything to them. However, this was his first encounter with a hired killer. He really wanted to know about that.

"You don't need to worry. I will take care of this." Long Hui patted Yu Qi's head.

Yu Qi nodded. She understood. She could not disturb Long Hui. However, she would investigate it by herself. Someone probably put on a mission to kill Long Hui somewhere.

If the culprit knew the killer failed her mission, he might have sent someone else. She did not want Long Hui to face death threats.

Long Hui had to leave for his work tonight. He had an urgent mission. She wanted to send Long Hui but he did not allow that.

As usual, Yu Qi asked Shino to follow Long Hui. Shino nodded and climbed up to Long Hui's pocket. She stayed inside.

After Long Hui was gone, Yu Qi took out her laptop. She started to type something. It was a black market website. She came across the website when she was surfing on the internet.

Then she found the place where people would post a kill quest. She scrolled down searching for Long Hui's name. Then, she found it. Then, she started to hack into the server to remove the quest and set up the coding if someone put on the same quest again, the quest would be automatically deleted.

Yu Qi tried to find out the people behind the quest. However, it seemed the people behind this was quite clever. They did not leave any trace that Yu Qi could find.

She was typing others codes. This code would let her to send the location when someone tried to make the quest appeared again. With that, she could track the people who tried to kill him.

...

"Sir, the quest disappeared just now." A skinny man sitting in front of the computer turned his chair to the man who stood up behind him.

"What?" That man was surprised.

"Yes. It has already disappeared. How on earth would help us delete the quest?" The skinny man asked.

"Why don't you check it?" The man asked.

"Oh, I forgot about that. Let me check it first." The skinny man started typing some codes on his computer.

The person who made the quest disappear did not even hide his identity. When he found out about that, he was quite surprised.

"Sir, it is Q." The skinny man exclaimed.

"Q? The famous hacker who just recently appeared? Why is he helping Long Hui?" The man said.

"Sir, I don't know. I think you better ask Mr Long. Who knows he might know the reason why Q is helping him?" The skinny man grabbed a lolipop and ate it.

"Hmm... I should go and ask the Second brother about this." The man nodded.

The man was Liang Mo Han. He left the skinny man and wanted to go to see Long Hui.

...

Yu Qi went to the antique district. She wanted to see whether this place had genuine antiques. If she found them, she would try to buy them, get verification about them, and would resell them at her shop.

Yes, her antique shop. The antique shop that she got from Xia Weizhe. She wanted to develop that too.

It was not Yu Qi's first time coming to this antique district. She came here together with Feng Yue first to find the present for her grandfather.

There were stalls that selling the antiques along the road. They also have several shops that selling the antiques as well. Yu Qi walked slowly looking at the displayed antiques.

The genuine antiques had their own special auras. The fake antiques would not have something like that. The special auras was formed since the genuine antiques existed for a long time ago.

Then, an antique caught her eye from a stall. It was inkstone. Yu Qi could see the aura around the inkstone.

"What is the price for this inkstone?" Yu Qi asked.

The middle-aged man looked up at the source of the voice. He was surprised to see such a beautiful woman in front of him right now. His eyes began to look at Yu Qi with lust.

Yu Qi narrowed her eyes. She disliked the look given by this man.

"Mister, I am asking you a question here." Yu Qi said.

"Oh, you want this inkstone? I can give it to you for free, only if you spend a night with me." The middle-aged man said lewdly.

It was not Yu Qi who spoke after that but someone else.

"Dong Zhung, please look at your face in the mirror." It was another middle-aged man, Ning Sung who had a stall next to Dong Zhuang.

"What did you just say to me?" Dong Zhung turned to Ning Sung.

"You want her to sleep with to you just for a mere inkstone? Are you kidding?" Ning Sung responded. He then turned to Yu Qi. "Young Miss, don't buy anything from him."

Yu Qi smiled to Ning Sung. "Thank you, Uncle." She then turned back to Dong Zhung. "So, are you willing to sell this inkstone to me?"

Dong Zhung noticed that this girl really wanted to buy this inkstone. He smiled with a lewd look on his eyes again.

"1 million and sleep with me for one night." Dong Zhung stated.

Yu Qi snorted. "I think what Uncle Ning said earlier is right. You should look yourself at in a mirror. If you think you are good-looking, I think you better go and make an appointment with an ophthalmologist."

Ning Sung laughed. He never thought that this kind looking girl had such a powerful mouth in insulting others.

Dong Zhung's face was red. How dare this girl insult him like this? "Then, I will not sell the inkstone to you." He smirked.

He thought Yu Qi really wanted to the inkstone.

"I will pass." Yu Qi said it.

It was a mere inkstone. She would find another antique. If Dong Zhung thought she would agree with his ridiculous requests.

1706 Chapter 1706

Dong Zhung was stunned.

"Dong Zhung, I will remember to tell your wife about this." Ning Sung laughed.

"Uncle, how much is this?" Yu Qi asked Ning Sung while pointing at the comb in front of her.

"Owh, that is only cost 2000 yuan. For you, I will lower the price. 1500 yuan." Ning Sung stated.

"No need to lower the price. I will pay 2000 yuan for this." Yu Qi took the money out and paid the price.

Dong Zhung looked at the money being received by Ning Sung and felt jealous.

"Miss, I will sell this inkstone at 5000 yuan." Dong Zhung offered.

"No thank." Yu Qi already lost interest in buying something from Dong Zhung.

"Wait." Dong Zhung wanted to stop Yu Qi from leaving.

Ning Sung stopped Dong Zhung by blocking him from approaching Yu Qi.

"Get lost, Ning Sung." Dong Zhung was angry being blocked by Ning Sung.

"Dong Zhung, she did not want to buy that thing anymore. Stop bothering the customer." Ning Sung said.

Yu Qi walked to other stalls and bought something from those stalls. Dong Zhung who watched this gritted his teeth. He regretted his action. If he did not lust on Yu Qi's beauty, he might be able to get thousand yuan from her.

After visiting all of the stalls, she moved to the shops. She entered one of the shops. Yu Qi could feel the aura. The genuine antiques were inside this store.

A old man greeted Yu Qi. "Welcome."

"Rick, how long are we going to be here? I am tired of seeing the old things. Can we just buy a luxury watch to your grandfather?" A woman complained to her partner when they entered the shop.

"Elize, my grandfather liked antiques. I want to give a present that he likes." A man answered.

The old man and Yu Qi looked at the couple. A woman, Elize looked at Yu Qi. She immediately felt jealous when she saw Yu Qi's beauty. She calmed herself.

'This girl is just a worker at the rundown shop like this. She is nothing like me. No need for me to feel jealous.' Elize said in her mind.

Yu Qi just wore a casual attire. A shirt, jean, cap and bag. These clothes made Elize thought Yu Qi was an employee at this shop.

The man, Rick who stood up beside Elize was also surprised to see Yu Qi. He never saw something as beautiful as Yu Qi. She was stunning even though she was wearing such clothes.

"I just want to look around. I will call you if I need something." Yu Qi stated.

"Sure, Miss." The old man nodded. He went and greeted the couple.

"Why is she not greeting us too?" Elize pointed at Yu Qi.

Yu Qi heard the question and ignored it. She felt that the old man could handle this matter.

"Miss, why do you want her to greet you?" The old man was a little bit confused.

"She is an employee here. She should be greeting her customer." Elize said.

"Elize..." Rick pulled Elize's hand and shook his hand, asking her to stop.

"Miss, you misunderstand something here. She is not working here. She is just a customer like you." The old man stated.

"What? She is a customer? Does she has money to buy something here?" Elize mocked Yu Qi.

"Elize, don't say something like that." Rick acted like a gentleman.

Both of them did not know that Yu Qi did not pay any attention to them.

Yu Qi started to stroll around the shop. She spotted the antiques that she wanted and grabbed them one by one until her hands were full. She went to the counter.

The young man was here.

"I want to buy these. Please pack them to me first." Yu Qi put the items on the table. "I also want to buy the painting over there, the huge status over there and the vase." She pointed at the items that she mentioned earlier.

The young man was flabbergasted at this moment.

"Wait, I want to buy the item." Elize appeared there and pointed at the items that Yu Qi already chosen.

"Miss, this item is already being chosen by this young lady here. Please choose another item from our store." The old man said.

"What? Has she already paid for that?" Elize asked. "I will pay more than her then."

"Miss, this shop's policy is first come, first serves. This young lady here already chosen these items. You can choose another one." The old man did not bow to money.

"You...." Elize was very angry to hear this. "Do you think she would have any money to pay for these items?"

"I am sorry to disappoint you. But I do have some money that I can spend to buy these items." Yu Qi smiled.

Rick just returned to Elize's side and saw the smile on Yu Qi's face. He was stunned.

"Sir, please calculate everything including what I show to you just now." Yu Qi stated.

"Sure. Please wait for a moment." The old man nodded.

He began to calculate the total amount that Yu Qi would be spending to pay for antiques. After a while, he got the total amount.

"The total amount of everything is 3 million. How do you want to pay?" The old man asked.

"I want to see how you going to be paid for this." Elize snorted.

1707 Chapter 1707

"I will be paying using my card." Yu Qi took out a card. It was a black card

Rick saw the card. He was stunned. A black cardholder was uncommon. Only people with power and money could possess it.

"Sure." The old man began to process the payment. "You can tap your card here."

Yu Qi tapped her card on the machine. The notification sound indicated that the payment had been made.

She turned to Elize. So sorry to disappoint you."

Elize wanted to retort back but Rick pulled her back. He shook his head. Elize made a bad expression.

"Miss, where do I need to send the goods?" The old man asked.

Yu Qi thought for a minute. If the goods had been delivered to her and Long Hui's house, it would difficult since they usually were not around. It was better to send it to Tang Residence. She would give her aunties a head up.

Yu Qi wrote down the address to which she wanted the old man to send her goods.

"Here, you can send it to this address." Yu Qi pushed the paper to the old man.

"Hmm... Tang Residence? Are you Tang Yu Qi by any chance?" The old man asked.

"Huh? How do you know my name?" Yu Qi was surprised when the old man mentioned her name.

"Your grandfather told me about that. He was bragging about his awesome granddaughter." The old man smiled.

Yu Qi was a little bit embarrassed when she heard that. Her grandfather really liked to brag about her more instead his biological grandsons.

"I see. Thank you." Yu Qi smiled.

Rick was stunned to see the smile on that woman's face. Even though it was just one side. She was indeed beautiful despite just wearing something like that.

Without saying anything to the couple, Yu Qi left the shop after that. She wanted to go to another shop to see if she had anything to buy.

Elize gritted her teeth feeling angry, embarrassed, and jealous of Yu Qi. She could see that Yu Qi could just spend the money without thinking of anything. Then, she told herself that Yu Qi was just a woman who liked to show off using someone's money. She even assumed that Yu Qi was having a sugar daddy.

She turned to Rick and saw Rick was dazed off. She quickly pulled Rick's hand.

"What are you dazing off about?" Elize asked.

"Oh, I am just thinking about what to buy for my grandmother," Rick said.

"Why do your grandparents want to celebrate your grandmother's birthday here?" Elize asked.

"My grandmother was born here. It is her 65th birthday. She wants to be special. So, my family wants to make her wish come true." Rick said.

"I see... I can not wait to go to the party." Elize said.

Yu Qi spent another 2 million buying the antique. She walked to the same road that she had just gone. She met with Ning Sung and Dong Zhong again.

The news about someone spending about 5 million yuan spread through the antique district. They also heard that it was a young woman. Only two young women came here today. One was alone and another one came with a woman.

They believed it was a young woman who came with a man was the one who spent those five million yuan. They did not believe that a single woman had such money to begin with.

Yu Qi did not know about that. If she knew about that, she was relieved that she would not be targeted since people believed she did not have money.

"Miss... Are you going back?" Ning Sung said to Yu Qi when he saw her again.

"No yet... I have something to discuss with you. Are you free right now?" Yu Qi asked.

"Huh? You want to talk with me? About what?" Ning Sun was confused.

"Hmm... About some antiques." Yu Qi said.

"Well, Miss, you can go to the antique verification at the end of the district. They might help you about that." Ning Sung said.

"Well... It is not about that. But something else." Yu Qi smiled.

"Okay... Let me close my stall first." Ning Sung said.

After Ning Sung closed her stall, he followed Yu Qi away. Dong Zhong took a picture of them together and sent to someone. He would not wait to see what happened next.

Yu Qi and Ning Sung went to a cafe nearby. They ordered some coffee and sat down. Ning Sung could not wait to ask Yu Qi what did she want to him about.

"Miss..." Ning Sung wanted to state Yu Qi's name but he did not know what to call Yu Qi.

Yu Qi seemed to notice his struggle.

"My name is Tang Yu Qi." Yu Qi said.

"Oh, Miss Tang... I am Ning Sung." Ning Sung smiled. "By the way, what is the matter that you want to say to me?"

"Well, it might be personal for me to ask you but I still want to ask the question. How much do you get selling the antiques like that?" Yu Qi directly asked Ning Sung.

Ning Sung was surprised when he heard the question. The question was indeed personal for her to ask him. However, he did not get angry about that. It must be a reason why Yu Qi asked him that question.

"Why do you ask me that question?" Ning Sung asked without answering the question from Yu Qi.

1708 Chapter 1708

"I would like to offer you a job." Yu Qi stated.

"A job?" Ning Sung was stunned.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded.

She took out a card and gave it to Ning Sung. Ning Sung took the card and read it.

"Tang Yu Qi? Chairman of Qinyue Group?" This time, Ning Sung was shocked.

He looked at the card and the woman in front of him right now. Even though he was not involved in the business, he sometimes read the news. Qinyue Group had just been established recently by a woman. And that woman was in front of him right now.

Ning Sung felt that she was looking at the wrong person. He did not have any skills that Qinyue Group required.

"Miss Tang, why do you want to offer me a job?" Ning Sung asked.

"I take over an antique shop. I want someone to take care of the shop." Yu Qi said. Well, it was true that she got the antique shop from Xia Weizhe.

"Oh... I see. But why me?" Ning Sung asked again.

"Well, when that man wants to trick me, you are the first and only one who helps me." Yu Qi mentioned Dong Zhu earlier.

"Just like that?" Ning Sung asked.

"Well, I believe my eyes. I think you are fit to be my manager for the antique shop. I would offer 500,000 yuan per year. It would increase over time." Yu Qi stated the salary.

Ning Sung was surprised. It was higher than the average salary of a shop manager. Ning Sung was interested. His current salary was not so good. His wife was getting annoyed when she could not buy anything that she wanted.

She asked Ning Sung to change a job but Ning Sung liked antiques. He could not leave it. Ning Sung's wife began to threaten him with a divorce.

The cafe's door was ringing indicating another customer was coming in. Ning Sung looked at the door. He saw his wife and another man walking inside holding hands. He was shocked.

He immediately stood up. Yu Qi also turned around and looked at the customers.

"Xiaolian?" Ning Sung called his wife's name.

Fang Xiaolian was surprised to see her husband here. Then, she acted proudly. She did not care how her husband felt right now. She pulled her partner and approached Ning Sung.

"Fang Xiaolian, what are you doing right now?" Ning Sung asked holding back his anger.

"Well, as you can see. We are having a date. I guess you are the same. I don't expect to see your taste becoming this low." Fang Xiaolian looked at the girl.

"I am not dating with this girl." Ning Sung gritted his teeth.

"Whatever." Fang Xiaolian took out a paper and placed it on the table. "You should sign and submit it to the civil office later. You better do it earlier if you did not want people to know that you are wearing a green hat on the top of your head."

Ning Sung saw the paper. It was a divorce paper. He also could see that Fang Xiaolian also signed her part of the paper.

"Fang Xiaolian, are you sure about this?" Ning Sung asked.

"Of course, I want a divorce. You can not give me the life that I want. Why should I sacrifice my life just to be with you?" Fang Xiaolian stated. She then turned to the girl who did not say anything from the beginning. "Girl, you should not be cheated by this man. He did not have any money. You should search for another man." She advised the girl.

Yu Qi leaned over to the chair. Without looking at Fang Xiaolian, she responded to the statement.

"No need for you to worry about my business. Mind your own business." Yu Qi replied coldly.

Fang Xiaolian startled. She looked at the girl. She did not know why she feel scared when the girl talked to her. However, she just brushed it off.

"Humph! I just want to give you some advise to not get tricked by this man. Since you are so proud of yourself, then serve you right." Fang Xiaolian said.

She then turned to Ning Sung. "I want a divorce whether you want or not. I will not return to that shabby place anymore."

"You!" Ning Sung gritted his teeth.

"My dear, I want to eat somewhere else." Fang Xiaolian looked at her partner.

"Sure... Let's go." The man nodded.

Both of them walked out of the cafe. Ning Sung sat down again. He kept staring at the divorce paper.

"I think you should sign and submit it to the civil office." Yu Qi said after a long time of silence.

Yu Qi's word pulled Ning Sung back to the reality. He was a little bit embarrassed when Yu Qi witnessed everything.

"Miss Tang, I am sorry that you witnessed this. My wife even said something like we are dating each other. I am sorry about that." Ning Sung apologized.

"No need to apologize. I don't care much about that. You don't need to worry about that." Yu Qi said.

"I know it is not my place to give advise to you. But it is easy if you let someone go. No need to keep a ruined relationship. You would be more unhappy when you think about that." Yu Qi advised.

Seeing the advise, Ning Sung felt it was right. If he stayed in the marriage, he would feel much more worse. It was better to get divorced.

1709 Chapter 1709

"I understand." Ning Sung nodded.

"If you are ready, please contact me. I hope it will be as soon as possible." Yu Qi stated.

"Yes, Miss Tang." Ning Sung nodded.

Yu Qi drank the coffee watching Ning Sung leave. She felt that Fang Xiaolian would crawl back and beg Ning Sung to accept her back. She just hoped that Ning Sung would not be soft-hearted when coming to something like that.

Ning Sung excused himself. He returned home. He wanted to talk to Fang Xiaolian for the last time tonight. However, Fang Xiaolian did not even return home.

So, Ning Sung signed the paper and went to the civil office to submit the paper. The whole process was very simple. At the next moment, he was officially becoming a divorcee.

However, after becoming that, he was not sad if he also knew that his ex-wife already left him. He made a call phone to his ex-wife. His ex-wife did not answer the phone.

After trying several times, Ning Sung called his ex-wife. He messaged her telling them that he already submitted the paper and they had been divorced.

Not long after that, Fang Xiaolian returned home accompanied by her cheating partner. He was a bit speechless when facing the shameless Fang Xiaolian.

"Since we are divorced, I will move out of this rotten apartment." Fang Xiaolian said.

Her cheating partner, Guo Zhengsheng sneered when he saw the apartment.

"No wonder, Xiaolian disliked you. You can not even give me a proper place to stay. Even my servant's house is better than this." Guo Zhengsheng said to Ning Sung while they were left alone in the living room when Fang Xiaolian went to the room to collect her things.

Fang Xiaolian returned to a small bag.

"What is it? Why do you need to bring it with you? You just need to tell me and I will buy it for you." Guo Zhengsheng said pampering Fang Xiaolian.

"It is something important to me that I need to retrieve. Of course, I did not take anything else." Fang Xiaolian said to Guo Zhengsheng sweetly before turning to Ning Sung. "I will not take anything else. You can throw or burn them. Whatever you like."

Ning Sung did not say anything. There was nothing that he wanted to say to her.

"Let's go, dear." Fang Xiaolian said to Guo Zhengsheng.

"Oh, one more advice, if you don't think you can afford things, you better not marry anyone. It would be hell for the woman that you marry later." Fang Xiaolian stated. "I am happy that we did not have any children between us. Otherwise, it would be horrible."

The cheating couple laughed at Ning Sung as they left the apartment. Ning Sung said he was not hurt. However, it was not the truth.

Fang Xiaolian was his first love. They were so happy when they got married. They made a promise that they would stick together whatever happened. But she betrayed her after 7 years of marriage.

He laughed at himself. However, what Fang Xiaolian thought about the children was true. He was relieved that they did not have any children together.

He did not want to make his children grow up in a single-parent household.

Ning Sung called his parents and Fang Xiaolian's parents about the divorce. They were shocked to hear this matter.

When they heard the reason why Ning Sung and Fang Xiaolian got divorced, they were more shocked.

Fang Xiaolian's parents immediately apologized to Ning Sung and promised that they would bring their daughter to apologize too.

Ning Sung stopped them from doing that. He did not think it would be necessary for Fang Xiaolian to come and apologize to him anymore. It would be useless.

Fang Xiaolian's parents once again apologized for their daughter's behaviour. They were ashamed of this matter. They did not know what to say when Ning Sung told them that Fang Xiaolian returned home today with her cheating partner, taking her important stuff and leaving the house.

Ning Sung wanted to forget about this ordeal. He needed something to distract him from this matter. He should be working.

Ning Sung immediately called Yu Qi telling her that he was ready to start his new work.

Yu Qi was surprised to get a call from Ning Sung this fast. She thought she would be waiting for some time. She considered letting Ning Sung cool down first since Ning Sung just gotten divorced.

However, Ning Sung told her that he was fine and ready to work. Since Ning Sung already said so, Yu Qi would not say about that matter anymore.

As for the job offer, Yu Qi told Ning Sung that he would have to come to the Qinyue Group office to sign the agreement.

Yu Qi asked whether it was okay if it would be on the evening. Ning Sung said he did not mind. So, the appointment was set.

After the call, Ning Sung sat down looking around his house. It felt empty.

'I think I need to clean the house.' Ning Sung stated.

Then, he began to clean his house. Fang Xiaolian did not take any of her clothes. So, Ning Sung gathered all of her clothes.

The clothes seemed would be worn again. It would be better if he donated them. So, instead of burning or throwing them away, he decided to donate the clothes to people who needed them.

So, he put everything in a plastic bag, left his room and went to a donation centre.

1710 Chapter 1710

Ning Sung gave the plastic bag that contained clothes to the workers at the donation center. The workers thanked Ning Sung for his donation.

As Ning Sung walked out of the donation center, he came across the cheating couple again. He ignored the couple and walked past them.

"Oh, it is my ex-husband. Why are you here? Why don't you open your stall, selling the craps anymore?" Fang Xiaolian mocked Ning Sung. She then looked at the donation center. "What? Are you coming here to ask for some donation or something like that?"

Ning Sung stopped and looked at Fang Xiaolian like she was an idiot. "It is a donation center where people come to donate something, you idiot."

"What? You donate something? Do you have anything to donate?" Guo Zhengsheng's turn mock Ning Sung.

"Owh... Your woman left her belongings at my place. It is natural that I want to get rid of them. So, I brought and donated them to the donation center." Ning Sung walked away after saying his mind.

Fang Xiaolian might be his wife in the past but from now on, she was just a stranger to him. So, no need for him to get angry with a stranger.

Fang Xiaolian and Guo Zhengsheng were speechless.

"He throws my things just like that?" Fang Xiaolian became angry.

"No need to get angry. I will buy a new one for you." Guo Zhengsheng said, coaxing the beloved of his heart.

....

Yu Qi was doing some reports when she heard from Shino who was with Long Hui.

'Master...' Shino suddenly talked to Yu Qi through telepathy.

'Hmm? What is it?' Yu Qi responded.

'Master, someone is targeting your man.' Shino stated.

Yu Qi stood up. 'What? Who? Is he in danger? Where are you right now?' She started to ask several questions to Shino at once.

'Danger? What danger?' Shino asked.

'Huh, but you say Brother Hui is in danger.' Yu Qi was confused.

'Oh... an old man wants to introduce his daughter to your man.' Shino said.

Yu Qi was a bit speechless. She really thought Long Hui was in danger which might cost his life. She was even willing to stop her job and rushed to his side. But it was just that? She did not know how to respond to that.

'Then, why are you saying he has been targeted?' Yu Qi asked Shino.

'Oh, last time, I watched Korea Drama with Neko-chan. There is one scene where an old man wants to introduce his daughter to a handsome man. Neko-chan said that this man had been targeted. It is the same thing that happened to Master's man. So, he had been targeted.' Shino explained.

When Yu Qi was doing research, she let Aoi and Shino out and played with Neko-chan. She remembered seeing the two creatures watching something. She did not notice that they were watching some Korean dramas.

Then, Yu Qi remembered something. She smiled.

'Shino, are you watching them right now?' Yu Qi asked.

"Hmm..." Shino admitted.

'Then, let me borrow your body.' Yu Qi stated.

'Oh, sure.' Shino nodded.

Yu Qi already managed to exchange only sights with Aoi before but it was not a far distance. However, after recovering her memory, she managed to do so even though her contracted beast was in a faraway place.

The moment Shino agreed, Yu Qi was looking at the stranger's place. It seemed Shino was sitting on the cabinet watching an old man talking to Long Hui.

Yu Qi wanted to listen to the conversation clearly. So, she got down from the cabinet to stay under the table. Then, Yu Qi started to hear the conversation.

"Colonel Long, I am very impressed with your achievement. You are really amazing to be in your position at this young age." The old man stated.

"Thank you." Long Hui nodded.

"That is why I think safe leaving my granddaughter to you." The old man said.

"Our military would try our best to protect your granddaughter from any danger. You don't have to worry about that." Long Hui said.

Then, a blond girl approached them. This blond girl must be the granddaughter of this old man.

"Grandpa..." The blond girl greeted the old man.

"Oh, you are here. Come over and sit." The old man was happy to see his granddaughter. He then introduced her to Long Hui. "Colonel Long, this is my granddaughter, Yao Ran. Ran-er, this is Colonel Long."

Yao Ran smiled shyly at Long Hui. She was attracted to this handsome man.

Long Hui just nodded. He then glanced to Shino who sat at his legs. Yu Qi gulped. She felt that Long Hui was looking straight into her eyes. Long Hui extended his hand and picked up Shino.

The old man frowned as he saw an animal.

"David... David..." The old man called his butler.

The butler, David rushed to the old man's side.

"How do you do your work? Look, an animal comes inside." The old man pointed to Shino who had been held by Long Hui.

David was shocked to see the animal. It seemed it was a ferret. There should be no ferret around here. He wondered where this ferret came from. However, he did not dare to waste time. He would throw this animal out.

"Colonel Long, please give me the ferret. I will handle it for you." David wanted to take the ferret from Long Hui's hand.
