Chapter 171: Boomed The Business

Because Fung Meng Xuan did not want Yu Qi to call Long Hui, she excused herself by telling them that she remembered an assignment that she had to submit.

Seeing Fung Meng Xuan leaving, naturally her lackeys, Yi Ren Shiang and Yi Su Rang followed her lead. Before leaving, the two of them gave a hostile glance to Ding Na An.

Ding Na An also looked at the two of them without any expression. The two of them gave her a proud look and walked away with their usual arrogant expression. Ding Na An did not react much.

"Na An, you also have a history with them?" So Pang Lim asked Ding Na An.

"Well, Miss Yi Ren Shiang is my half siblings and Yi Su Rang is her cousin." Ding Na An told them the truth.

"Wow, I can sense some drama in your life." Mei Lilli commented, seemed very interested to hear about it.

"Drama? There's nothing like that. I only knew this when I was 17 years old. I didn't know about it before. Even the fact that I have a father is still new to me." Ding Na An said.

"Guys, if we don't go back now, I assume we will be taking Doctor Jun's class by standing behind." Yu Qi reminded them about Doctor Jun's class.

"Oh, let's go." So Pang Lim collected her belongings in a rush.

Well, they were acting normal because Doctor Jun was a strict lecturer and he didn't like it if his students came late for his class. He always said, "Doctors must always be on time. Late one minute, the patient might die." Last time, he punished three girls to stand for the entire two hour lecture. After that, his students were never late for his class.

They arrived for Doctor Jun class fifteen minutes before it was started. They took a breath of relief.

"From last month's profit, I took about fifty percent to invest in investments that I thought worthy so here is a list of all those investments." Su Yu Hi placed the document on the table.

Yu Qi was currently at the same restaurant that she had her first meeting with Su Yu Hi. He wanted to see her to give her a monthly report about her new investment company. Yu Qi currently had four businesses under her name right now.

One was her greenhouse. They produced goods like vegetables and flowers and sold them to shops and vendors. The second one was her ryokan which was already being registered, just waiting for the ryokan be to completed. The third one was a new investment company and the last one was the new market building in Shiwa Town.

All of them were being organized and taken care of by Su Yu Hi. Yu Qi was very satisfied with his performance.

"Where are most of these companies from?" Yu Qi took the document and opened it.

"Fifty-six percent from FINN City, Twenty percent from J City and another twenty-five percent was from other various cities." Su Yu Hi perfectly answered.

"The number?" Yu Qu asked.

"About 15 companies. That document is filled with the complete information about all the companies. Complete from the introduction to their profit and loss for the past two years."

"Okay, I will go through the information first before deciding which companies I want to invest in." Yu Qi then put the documents aside. "Next, the greenhouse."

"The greenhouse's profit has increased by about thirty percent during the past two months after the goods had been exported to the J City Market. I will make a market survey for near the greenhouse later."

"Okay. So about my ryokan?"

"The ryokan is currently about seventy percent complete. There had been a delay due to the purchasing of the stones, but the problem has already been solved by Feng Group."

"Great. I hope the ryokan can be completed on time."

"Have you already hired the employees for the ryokan?" Su Yu Hi made the inquiry.

"I did. But the number is still not enough. I already have the person that will be running the ryokan on the surface but for the management, I still don't have any candidates." Yu Qi made a troubled expression.

"I will arrange it." Su Yu Hi took a note.

"Then about the market?"

"About ninety percent completed. I am currently dealing with the owners of the shops in the old market. Some of them want to move their shops to our market while some of them want to stay."

"Okay, noted. Find another way to convince them to move, I want to purchase that land too."

"Okay." Su Yu Hi made a note of Yu Qi's instruction.

"Is there something else you want to say? Or any trouble?" Yu Qi asked before adjourning this meeting.

"For now, no." Su Yu Hi answered.

"Okay. Then let's end this meeting." Yu Qi drank her tea. "Brother Yu Hi is it okay for you to travel like this?"

"It's okay. I don't mind." Yes, Su Yu Hi really did not mind because he was working for someone like her.

From the first time he met with her, he thought that he would be the one who dominated the meeting but by the end, he was surprised by how knowledgeable she was. She was like a middle aged man when it came to business. It was worth working under someone like her. That why he doesn't mind.

Chapter 172: Triple Kills

"Miss Tang." Here comes an annoying person.

Yu Qi did not know why people always seem to be looking for trouble while she was eating and drinking. She turned to look at the person.

It was Bai Shu Jin. Yu Qi sighed. 'What did this person want now?'

Bai Shu Jin frowned while looking at the man that happen to be sitting in front of Yu Qi. He was sure this person was not Long Hui because he remembered Long Hui.

"What?" Yu Qi asked.

"Who is this person?" Bai Shu Jin could not help asking her this question. He really wanted to know who this person was.

"Who? Your boyfriend?" Su Yu Hi made a guess. He could see that there was some jealousy in this man's eye. So, maybe her boyfriend.

"Brother Yu Hi, don't simply assume stuff. He is just a senior from my university. Nothing more, nothing less." Yu Qi rolled her eyes at Su Yu Hi. She really hated that Su Yu Hi made that assumption.

Su Yu Hi just nodded in silence. He did pity this man. He could see that this man really liked his boss.

Bai Shu Jin heard the sentence from Yu Qi and was hurt by it. This was the first time he took an interest in a girl, However, this girl did not like him even a little bit.

"Who is this man? Tang Yu Qi, you already have a boyfriend, but still cheat on him with someone else." Yi Ren Shiang appeared with Fung Meng Xuan and Yi Su Rang.

Here comes another set of annoying people. Yu Qi sighed.

"I didn't think that you were this kind of person." Yi Ren Shiang's voice went up again.

"A woman that would cheat on her boyfriend with another man." Yi Su Rang's turn to attack.

Yu Qi sighed. Can't these people just leave her alone? She just wanted to stay away from them.

"Yi Su Rang, watch your mouth." Bai Shu Jin gave a warning to Yi Su Rang.

Yi Su Rang changed her expression. She just stated the truth. Why was he angry with her? Yi Su Rang fell in love with Bai Shu Jin since the first moment she laid her eyes on him.

Of course, Bai Shu Jin was the perfect man in her eyes. But she did not show her affections like other girls did as she wanted Bai Shu Jin to notice her by himself, hence why she entered the archery club.

But this slut came out of nowhere to steal Bai Shu Jin's attention. Making him confessed to her in public, she really hated this girl.

"Senior Bai Shu Jin, it's true. See, she's with another man who is not her boyfriend." Yi Su Rang pointed at Su Yu Hi.

"Tang Yu Qi, your brother must be embarrassed with you." Yi Ren Shiang added.

Su Yu Hi was already done with his job here. It was time to leave. He looked at Yu Qi. Yu Qi also looked at Su Yu Hi.

"Yu Qi, I will be going now. Let's meet again." Su Yu Hi stood up.

"Okay, Brother Yu Hi." Yu Qi nodded.

"See, Senior Bai Shu Jin. She is a slut. She already has a boyfriend but still promised to meet another man." Yi Su Rang said her point again.

"Miss Tang, it's not good to cheat on your boyfriend. If you don't like him, leave him. There are a lot of girls who would want to be with him." Fung Meng Xuan that was silent at the beginning finally said something.

Yu Qi laughed. "Well, someone like you, right?" Yu Qi sneered. "Listen to me, you little bitches. I really don't care about you, what you want to do or who you love. I really don't care and don't want to care. So stop caring so much about my affairs."

"You." She pointed to Yi Su Rang.

"Stop targeting me, if he doesn't like you. It's own your fault. Don't keep chirp chirping around me saying that it's my fault."

"You." She pointed to Yi Ren Shiang. "We don't have any problems. You may hate me because I'm a friend of Ding Na An but stop involving my brother because he already has someone he likes and that person will be not you. So stop dreaming."

Then she turned to Fung Meng Xuan. "And you. I know you like Brother Hui, it shows in your eyes. You disturbed our date, followed us around and tried to get my boyfriend's attention by talking to him with your sweet voice. Aren't you ashamed with all that? You can tell him about my meeting with another man, but let's see between you or me, whose heads will roll first?" Yu Qi smirked.

The three women were pale after hearing what Yu Qi said. Especially Fung Meng Xuan as she remembered Long Hui's murderous aura and what was even scarier was that, that aura was directed at her. That man has killed many humans.

Yu Qi smiled. 'Take that.'

Chapter 173: Reveal Everything

Yu Qi stood up proudly looking at the three of them while everyone in the restaurant also looked at them. She really did not care about her image anymore.

The three did not fight back as Yu Qi really revealed everything. Some of the customers in the restaurant were students at Starlight University and Yu Qi was well known in the university.

"Tang Yu Qi. How dare you call us a bitch?" Yi Su Rang retorted after recovering from the shock.

"What? You can call me names and I'm not allowed to retort back?" Yu Qi sneered.

"When did I call you names?" Yi Su Rang fought back.

Yu Qi laughed. "Slut. That's what you called me just now. You dare tell me that you did not call me such a name?"

The girls were defeated again.

"And you." Yu Qi turned to Bai Shu Jin. "Please, stop disturbing me. I've already told you multiple times that I have someone else that I love."

Bai Shu Jin's expression became worse as this was the second time Yu Qi rejected him in public.

"Tang Yu Qi, don't push too far." Yi Su Rang became angrier when Yu Qi embarrassed her crush.

"What? Then you think I should accept his love?"

"You... You..." Were the only words that came out from Yi Su Rang's mouth.

"It's late and because of you guys, I've wasted my time here." Yu Qi walked passed them.

Yu Qi then went to the counter to pay.

"Sorry for the commotion." Yu Qi apologized to the owner of the cafe at the counter.

"It's okay." The manager just smiled. She already knew this girl because she had been to the cafe about three other times. The first time, this girl was meeting with two men. The second time, she was meeting with one of the men from the previous meeting and today was her third time and she met with the same man.

When she went to deliver their order, she managed to overhear some of the girl's conversation with that man and it was all about business. From what she could hear, the man was reporting the monthly progress to that girl. Seemed that girl was the man's boss according to the his attitude.

Yu Qi paid and left the restaurant.

Yu Qi was currently sitting at the pavilion inside her space. She was reading the documents that Su Yu Hi gave her. She read it inside her space to save time as reading all the information about fifteen companies would consume a lot of time, so, she decided to review them in her space.

Bo Ya and Aoi were currently playing with each other after getting the dinner from Yu Qi. She needed to buy a lot of food for them.

As she was reviewing the documents, she came acrossed one company called L-Tech. This company's main core business was about electric devices such as fans, televisions and rice cookers.

This current year was not so famous in selling the electric devices because they were still new. In the future however everyone would be selling these devices like a hot item.

Yu Qi smiled, seemed she already found one to invest it. She kept reviewing the documents, again and again, afraid that she would miss some important information about the companies.

After three hours, she closed the documents. She asked Aoi whether he wanted to go out or not. Aoi said he wanted to sleep with his master, so, he left with Yu Qi.

Yu Qi slept without worry with Aoi. It's the weekend so Yu Qi woke up to begin her morning exercise as today she had training with the shooting club.

After breakfast, she went to the shooting training ground with Aoi. As usual, the shooting club members greeted her in a funny way.

"Our queen has arrived." Shi Man Xie greeted her. "Your highness, welcome."

"Oh, my daughter has arrived. Come here. Let's see you." Vice captain Jung Xi Wan called her.

Yu Qi was already use to this type of craziness so she just played along with them. She smiled to Vice captain Jung Xi Wan.

"How is your relationship going with my future son in law?" Vice captain Jung Xi Wan started to gossip.

"I'm not telling you." Yu Qi replied to him.

"Husband, look at this girl." Vice captain Jung Xi Wan turned to Captain Hang Ru Yen not far from him.

"If you want to know that bad you can call and find out from Commander Long yourself." Captain Hang Ru Yen stated with a cold face.

"What?" Vice Captain Jung Xi Wan was very terrified. "Husband do you want to kill me and get a new wife?"

"Yes, I would like to kill you." Captain Hang Ru Yen replied.

"You monster." Vice captain Jung Xi Wan made a girlish scream.

Yu Qi's mouth twitched to laugh. Her seniors really loved to play around like this.

"Vice captain you should have joined the acting club, not the shooting club." Yu Qi ended the drama.

"I know, I have a talent for acting. But my passion is here." Vice captain Jung Xi Wan put on a proud look.

"I also would like him to quit." Captain Hang Ru Yen slipped in the conversation.

"Humph, I know you will cry for me if I quit." Vice captain Jung Xi Wan joked around.

Chapter 174: Shooting Competition

After training, Captain Hang Ru Yen wanted to make an announcement. So all of them waited for their captain to speak.

"As you all know, there will be a competition, a shooting competition against the other ten universities. We will be sending four of our best members to participate in that competition." Captain Hang Ru Yen said.

The members started to discuss among themselves. Best members? The second and first year members looked disappointed. The four candidates would be their third year members.

"Listen to me first." Captain Hang Ru Yen stopped them. "When I say our best members. It is not from our third year batch. We've already selected the members from the second year and first year members."

The statement from Captain Hang Ru Yen made them come alive again.

"We would like to give a chance to the second and first year members so that they can experience a competition." Vice captain Jung Xi Wan joined him to talk.

"Now, I will announce the selected members. Shi Man Xie, Zu Wei Han, Qin Nie Se and last one Tang Yu Qi." Captain Hang Ru Yen said.

Zu Wei Han and Shi Man Xie were the second year members while Qin Nie Sen was a first year member together with Yu Qi.

"These members have shown very good progress in their training and that's why, they were selected. They will undergo intense training for next month as the competition will be starting in one month's time at Hanwei University." Captain Hang Ru Yen looked at the four members. "Don't be glad yet. If you can't reach the standard, I will replace you with another."

"Yes, captain." The four members quickly replied to him.

"Okay, dismissed."

They happily discussed the competition as others threatened to replace the selected ones, like Captain Hang Ru Yen said, 'if they did not do their best in the training, they will be replaced'.

Yu Qi smiled when hearing that. She was really happy when she got selected as this meant that her talent in the shooting was good.

The shooting club members decided to have lunch together and they invited Yu Qi along. Yu Qi did not see any reason to reject the invitation, so she joined them. Only Captain Hang Ru Yen could not join them due to a personal matter.

"I bet he went to his girlfriend." Vice captain Jung Xi Wan said.

"Huh? Does our captain have a girlfriend?" Shi Man Xie was shocked to hear this news.

"What, you thought he was gay?" One of the third year members laughed when he heard Shi Man Xie's question.

"Well..." Shi Man Xie looked at Vice captain Jung Xi Wan.

Vice Captain Jung Xi Wan noticed the look given by Shi Man Xie. "Woi, I'm straight okay." He shouted to Shi Man Xie.

Shi Man Xie smiled. "It's your fault, Vice captain. You're always joking about you and the captain being a couple."

"Brat, it's just a joke." Vice captain Jung Xi Wan bang Shi Man Xie's head.

"I see. Sorry, Vice captain. I also thought you were gay that you were seme and Captain was uke." Yu Qi spoke.

All the guys fell to silence when Yu Qi said that sentence. Yu Qi looked at the members.

"Yu Qi, what are you imagining? Oh, my daughter, your mind has already been corrupted." Vice captain Jung Xi Wan said.

Yu Qi giggled.

"What is the meaning of seme and uke?" An innocent young man asked them.

All of the members looked at him.

"Good. There's one person whose mind has not been corrupted yet. I'm happy." Vice captain Jung Xi Wan said.

"You don't need to know."

Their lips twitched when hearing the Vice captain's sentence.

"If you want to know, go read some BL comic." Shi Man Xie patted that innocent man's back.

"Huh? BL book? What is BL?" The innocent man asked again.

This time everyone laughed. Someone did not know what 'BL' meant.

"BL means Boy Love." Shi Man Xie said after he stopped laughing.

"He is an angel." Someone stated that.

They all ate in a happy mood.

Chapter 175: Went to Hanwei University

When Captain Heng Ru Yen said intense training, its level of the difficulty was as same the intense training in the military. It was very tiring. But to Yu Qi, it was the same amount the training that she had trained in the space. So, nothing much affected her.

The new about shooting competition had been spread around the university. As one and the only female that participated in the competition caught the attention of all the students.

Her friends and her lecturers felt proud of their friend and student. She was really famous at the university with an excellent result of her study. Now she became more and more famous.

A month ended with a blink of an eye. Yu Qi and the other three participants would be going to Hanwei University for the shooting competition.

Captain Heng Ru Yen would be accompanied them for the registration. The competition would be held two days later.

Hanwei University was the number one university in the nation. So, it was very strict in choosing its students.

Yu Qi also had been selected to go to this university but got rejected by Yu Qi because she wanted to choose Starlight University. Hanwei University very famous for producing genius in the various course. However, it did not have a medical course offered at the university. That why Yu Qi rejected its offer to enter Hanwei University.

Captain Heng Ru Yen already booked the hotel nearby the university for one night. The next day, they would spend their night in Hanwei University hostel given by the shooting competition organizers.

After they check in the hotel, they had been asked to gather by Captain Heng Ru Yen to complete the procedure of the registration.

They went to Hanwei University. Because of the competition, there were a lot of people in the shooting ground. They completed the registration and made themselves familiar surrounding area.

The shooting ground was very wide. Bigger than Starlight University. They were impressed with the surrounding. But everyone's eyes were on Yu Qi. There were a few females that participated in the shooting competition. One of them was Yu Qi. Because of her stunning look, she caught the attention of everyone. They wanted to talk to Yu Qi but she was being guarded by four men.

The men from Starlight University guarded Yu Qi. Let Yu Qi talked to another man mean letting a lamb been eaten by a wolf. Yu Qi was ignorant by all of that.

Yu Qi had amazed by these sites she looked at. If Hanwei University offered a medical course, she might consider entering this university.

...

"Let's go eat." Captain Heng Ru Yen said after one hour sees sighting the university.

Yu Qi felt something when Captain Hen Ru Yen asked them to eat. Yu Qi felt like something would happen. And eating time was the time she been disturbed by her enemy the most.

However, because of Captain Hen Ru Yen, she followed them. They went to the cafe nearby inside the university. Unlike in the other place, the cafe looked very empty. Only some of the students were eating there.

They selected the food, paid and sat on the empty table. Yu Qi walked with her food on her right hand and her drink on her left hand. She sensed someone was heading in her direction in a fast step. In a second of the collision, Yu Qi used her technique that she learned in the martial arts to step beside that person. Suddenly that person was fell into the ground.

"AHH...Ouch... It's hurt." That person was a girl.

Yu Qi looked at that person. Everyone in the cafe looked at them. That girl's friends came and helped her stood.

"You, apologize to me, right now." That girl pointed to Yu Qi.

"Why should I?" Yu Qi keeps an emotionless face looking at the girl and her friends.

"You pushed me." That girl accused Yu Qi.

"I push you? How?" Yu Qi was asking that girl.

"Of course, with your hand." That girl said without thinking.

"My hand? I'm holding something in my hand right now." Yu Qi moved her hands holding her food and her drink.

That girl was panic. She did not expect this. She had to think of something. "You tripped me with your legs, then." She once again accused Yu Qi.

Yu Qi sighed. She felt lazy to deal with this nonsense. She turned and went to her table.

"Yu Qi." Her senior, Shi Man Xie looked at her in worry.

"Apologize to me, right now." That girl keeps demanded Yu Qi apologized to her.

Yu Qi put the food and drink on the table and turned to that girl and her friend.

"I said I did not push you at all. And I will not apologize to you." Yu Qi was smiling but her murderous aura leaked out from her body, directing her aura to that girl and her friends. "So, do you want to leave on your own or would you like me to help you?"

That girl and her friends were shivering when they looked Yu Qi and heard Yu Qi's voice.

"We will leave now. Sorry." After that girl said that sentences, they turned and ran away from Yu Qi.

Chapter 176: Plot Against Her

"Yu Qi, your life must be crazy, right?" Shi Man Xie looked at her junior.

Yu Qi chuckled when her senior said like that. "I used to live a quiet life but recently there were many things happened to me."

"You are also famous in our university." Qin Nie Sen said to Yu Qi. "Your rumor very powerful news."

"That earlier girl must be jealous because of your look. That why she want to tarnish your reputation." Shi Man Xie made a conclusion.

"Maybe, but who's know about that. Let's forgot them and eat." Yu Qi closed that topic.

....

"Zhu Yao, I'm sorry. I'm failed." A girl reported to a girl that seating her seat looking down to the girl that reported to her.

The girl that standing and reported was a girl that accused Yu Qi pushing her. She was now standing while looking down at the floor waiting for the girl named Zhu Yao to talk something.

"Well, I did not expect much from you." The girl named Zhu Yao opened her mouth. "Because you are stupid." The girl named Zhu Yao insulted the girl.

The girl only keeps her mouth closed. She did not reply to those sentences.

"Go, I will deal with my self." The girl named Zhu Yao dismissed her lackey.

The girl quickly left the room.

The girl named Zhu Yao or her real name, Ling Zhu Yao sneered while thinking about Yu Qi. That bitch embarrassed her grandfather during Old Master Tang's birthday. And blocked her entrance into Tang Family. How could she not angry about this?

She grew up in one mission to become the most beloved girl in the Tang Family. Grandfather said she was the most ideal woman that Tang Family would have and she believed it. She studied very hard to achieve that.

Even though Yu Qi did not marry one of the Old Master Tang's grandsons but she could not stand Yu Qi being the beloved granddaughter of Old Master Tang. Why Old Master Tang choose an orphan instead of her?

She had a blood relationship with Old Master Tang. Even though it was distant but it was better than an orphan that did not even have a little blood relationship with him.

And that bitch could match her in the education. Ling Zhu Yao was studied in Hanwei University, the number one university in the nation. While that bitch just studied on merely number two, Starlight University.

However, she was glad that the bitch came to Hanwei University. Giving her a chance to ruin that bitch. With this, Yu Qi would have a bad reputation in the Tang Family as well in the public.

Ling Zhu Yao called someone. "Hello."

"I want that thing." "Not much. Maybe one gram is enough." "Great send to me by today." "Alright, I will pay for it." "Don't worry. No one will know it." "Nice doing business with you."

Ling Zhu Yao ended the call. She was very satisfied with the services that man gave to her.

Yu Qi read the rules and regulation in the shooting competition. It was not only the shooting ability that would be evaluated by the teamwork also would be evaluated. Yu Qi understood the rules.

Shi Man Xie gave her some information about their opponents. Yu Qi did not interest to read that information. To her, she understood herself and her team, it was more than enough. Knowing this information right before the competition would not help much. It would make someone more nervous if she or he got to know some shocking information.

In the competition, there was one slot where the participants would be tested by their knowledge of guns speed in the assembly of the gun. Yu Qi smiled when knowing this information.

Yu Qi looked at her guns collection. She was confident. She had been training on disassembly and assembly the guns. She got hundreds of guns collection. She studied all of them. There were some of them had been modified by Yu Qi herself.

Yu Qi went to sleep.

The next morning, she woke up at 6 am and start her routine. Ao did not follow her because he had been throw to her space. The animal was not permitted inside the university. So, Aoi could not stay with Yu Qi during the competition.

She went to the running track that provided by Hanwei University. She was jogging alone. She could see some people also doing morning exercise. Naturally, the air was very fresh. Yu Qi was running about 4 km. It was quite enough for today.

She went back to her hotel and saw her club members were gathered around the lobby.

"What are you guys doing here?" Yu Qi asked them.

"Oh, Yu Qi. Where were you go to?" Shi Man Xie asked her.

"I'm doing my morning exercise." Yu Qi answered honestly.

"Fuh, glad you are not missing." Captain Heng Ru Yen sighed.

Yu Qi was realized her mistake. "Sorry, everyone. I'm sorry because not telling you." Yu Qi bowed to her club members.

"It's okay. Go refresh yourself. We will wait for you here." Captain Heng Ru Yen said.

Hearing his command, Yu Qi quickly went to her room.

Chapter 177: New Friend

Yu Qi quickly refreshed herself and went down to her club members. They were talking about something.

"Hi."

All of the men looked at her. "Let's go eat breakfast." Captain Heng Ru Yen said.

All of them nodded and got up from the chair and went to the restaurant nearby because of the hotel that they spent the night did not have a cafe inside it. Well, it was a cheap hotel.

Captain Heng Ru Yen told them about their schedule for today.

"We will be going to check out at 10 o'clock. Make sure there is nothing left inside the room before you leave."

"Yes, Captain." They answered.

"Then, we will check-in at the hostel that the competition organizer provided to us. We, men, maybe will stay in one dorm. While Yu Qi, you maybe have the room for yourself or you probably be share with someone else."

"Okay." Yu Qi answered.

"Yu Qi, don't get bullied." Shi Man Xie said.

"Senior, in which eye, you would think that I will get bullied?" Yu Qi chuckled. She was not a weak girl. She could protect herself.

"Alright, after this, let go check out." Captain Heng Ru Yen gave his final say.

After checking out from the hotel, they went to see the competition organizer, take the key for the room that they would be staying for the competition.

As Captain Heng Ru Yen said, men would be sharing their room and Yu Qi got the room for herself only. Yu Qi was very satisfied because it was more convenient for her in case she wanted to enter her space.

Captain Heng Ru Yen ordered them to gather after lunch. They still had time to spend before the gathering, so Yu Qi decided to enter the space. When she entered, her little cuties were still in the dreamland. They were sleeping at the pavilion beside the lake.

Yu Qi took some old scrolls about the herbs and read them to kill the time. Aoi opened his eyes and looked at his master.

"Master, you are here." He pounded to his master.

Yu Qi accepts him and rubbed his head.

"Did you sleep well?"

"Yes."

Bo Ya seemed to hear something, so he sniffed. His nose moved. He looked very cute when doing that. Bo Ya realized it was his master's smell. His eyes were opened up.

"Master." Like Aoi, Bo Ya pounded to his master.

"Look like you are sleeping very well."

"Master, why are you here?" Bo Ya asked. His master was usually outside the space at a time like this.

"I got some free time and don't have things to do so I'm here." Yu Qi explained. "Oh, it had been two hours. I have to go now. Behave and I will bring delicious food to you."

Aoi and Bo Ya's eyes were totally lifted up. Delicious food...

Yu Qi went outside. Coincidentally, someone knocked on her door. Yu Qi opened her door cautiously. There are two girls standing in front of her.

"Yes?" Yu Qi looked at them.

"Are you from Starlight University?" The taller girl asked her.

"Yes." Yu Qi answered it with a clear voice. She did not want to be sounded weak or rude.

"Great." The short girl looked at Yu Qi. She reached for Yu Qi's hand. "We are from Hanyang Univerisity. My senior sister and I will be entering the same shooting competition as you." The shorter girl said with a happy tone.

However, the one who had been talking showed different emotions. Yu Qi analyzed that girl's expression.

"I'm Zhu Lao Lin. This is Jang Yue Yue." Zhu Lao Lin introduced themselves.

"Hi." Jang Yue Yue nodded.

"Yue Yue, that was not a good attitude, you know." Zhu Lao Lin scolded her friend.

Yu Qi realized their relationship was not a normal friend. She chuckled. "Hi, I'm Tang Yu Qi." She gave them a smile.

"You are really beautiful." Zhu Lao Lin praised Yu Qi.

"Beauty on the face was nothing unlike beauty on the heart." Yu Qi said.

"Hmm, can I call you Yu Qi?" Zhu Lao Lin asked her permission to call her Yu Qi.

"Sure. Why not?"

"Yu Qi, let's go and enter lunch together." Zhu Lao Lin asked her to join them.

Yu Qi looked at Jang Yue Yue. Jang Yue Yue showed some helpless expression on her face. Like a doting boyfriend looking at her girlfriend.

"Okay." Yu Qi agreed.

They went to the cafe. Because of the participants for the shooting competition was mostly from the boys, the girls became rare things here. Zhu Lao Lin with her cute behavior, Jang Yue Yue looked like a cold beauty while Yu Qi with her queen temperament.

Yu Qi found her club members. "Wait for a minute. I want to see my members."

"Guys, I'm going to eat lunch with them." Yu Qi told the men.

"Okay." Captain Heng Ru Yen nodded.

Chapter 178: Feng Yue Was Blushing

Yu Qi sat with the two girls. They talked about shooting competition.

"Yu Qi did you come here as an only female participant from your university?" Zhu Lao Lin asked.

"Yeah. Well, the only female member in the club. It was me." Yu Qi nodded.

"Oh, it was very tough, right? Even though we got the five female members in the club but it was tough." Zhu Lao Lin sighed.

"Lao Lin, don't worry. I'll protect you." Jang Yue Yue vowed.

"Thank you, Yue Yue." Zhu Lao Lin smiled to Jang Yue Yue.

Jang Yue Yue looked at Zhu Lao Lin with a little bit embarrassed expression on her face.

Yu Qi could assume Jang Yue Yue and Zhu Lao Lin's relationship was a little bit complex. The lesbian relationship was not welcome here. Reveal their relationship, they might suffer. But it was not Yu Qi's problem.

"Yu Qi, what's the course you do take at Starlight University?" Zhu Lao Lin asked.

"Medical Course."

"I see. You are aiming to become a doctor."

"Than what's are you two take?"

"I take civil engineering while she takes mechanical engineering." Zhu Lao Lin pointed to herself first then pointed to Jang Yue Yue.

"Oh. How did you become a friend then? You are on a different course anyway."

"We are roommates." Zhu Lao Lin said happily. "Actually we have different roommates but they want to share the room together, so I ended with Yue Yue. But I was happy instead of regret because of all this, I gained an unreplaceable friend."

Zhu Lao Lin smiled to Jang Yue Yue and Jang Yue Yue was smiling and looking like a boyfriend doting her girlfriend.

They were chatting happily until lunch was over. Yu Qi excused herself to go to meet her club members. Yu Qi wanted to ask Captain Heng Ru Yen about the schedule for this evening. Captain Heng Ru Yen said nothing for this evening. So, it was free time. Tomorrow the shooting competition would be officially started.

Yu Qi decided to go for a walk. When Yu Qi was taking a walk, someone shouted her name happily.

"Yu Qi."

Yu Qi turned to that voice. Instead, she was greeted by a hug.

"Yu Qi, I miss you." It was Feng Yue's voice.

"Yue, me too."

Feng Yue released Yu Qi from her hug.

"Why don't you tell that you are coming?" Feng Yue pouted.

"Sorry, my dear. Actually, I forget you studied here." Yu Qi said with embarrassed.

"Humph, you forget." Feng Yue seriously pouted. She never expected that Yu Qi forgot about her studied here.

"Sorry, my dear. I will make up on you later." Yu Qi coaxed Feng Yue.

"Remember this, okay. But what are you doing here?" Feng Yue asked.

"Well, I'm one of the participants for the shooting competition." Yu Qi told Feng Yue.

"Oh, I see. We did have it. One thing, my grandfather might come here then." Feng Yue nodded several times.

"Your grandfather? Grand Feng?" Yu Qi inquired.

"Oh, another one. My maternal grandfather. The great general." Feng Yue said.

"You mean, the Great General Long?"

"Yes. This shooting competition was sponsored by the military itself. Grandpa like this event very much."

"I see."

"And maybe Brother Hui also come." Feng Yue would like to tease her friend.

"What does that matter to do with me?" Yu Qi rolled her eyes.

"My Brother Hui did not make any progress yet?" Feng Yue questioned her.

Yu Qi just silent. She did not want to answer that question. Well, to be honest, Long Hui made a lot of progress. Her heart started to open to Long Hui.

"Judging from your face, my Brother Hui did make the progress, is it?" Feng Yue made a guess.

Yu Qi began to blush. "You!!!"

Without waiting for Yu Qi to hold her, Feng Yue ran. Yu Qi began to chase her. Because Feng Yue keep looking at Yu Qi, she did not realize she was heading to someone.

Bang. Feng Yue collided with someone. Luckily, someone was a man that strong to prevent them from falling due to Feng Yue's force.

Right now, look like Feng Yue was running into his hug. Feng Yue looked up. Feng Yue quickly distanced herself from that man.

"Senior, I'm sorry. I don't mean to." Feng Yue apologized to that man with a hint of redness on her cheek.

"It's okay. Luckily, it was me. Next time, be careful." That man looked at Yu Qi and continued his walk leaving Feng Yue and Yu Qi. Feng Yue still in her red cheek.

"Oh, my. My dear Yue was blushing. It is very cute." This time, Yu Qi was teasing Feng Yue.

"Humph." Feng Yue pouted.

"Tell me, my dear Yue. Who was that guy?" Yu Qi began to question Feng Yue.

Chapter 179: White Powder

"Yue, tell me." Yu Qi teased Feng Yue.

That man might be someone to Feng Yue. If not, Feng Yue would not behave like this. Feng Yue looked at Yu Qi with an angry face.

"Humph. I will not tell you." Feng Yue said.

"I see. He is your crush." Yu Qi nodded several times.

"Yu Qi." Feng Yue shouted to her.

Yu Qi laughed. Her friend had someone she already liked. It was good news. But she did not want Feng Yue became one of the desperate women.

"Okay... Okay...I will not tease you anymore." Yu Qi said to Feng Yue. "How about your life here?"

"Great. But..."

"But, what?"

"My stepsister is here. She studied the same course as me."

"I see."

"Her result was not very good but because of my father bribe, she got accepted. And then, you know what, she told my father if I can enroll in this university, why she can't? Argh... I was very angry with her. Did she think she was on the same level as mine? I got accepted because of my result but her...Pui..." Feng Yue released the angry in her heart.

"Yeah. My dear Yue is not the same as her. I think she will not maintain anymore if she did not study hard. I know the prestigious university like Hanwei University expels students that did not match their requirement. Get below two pointers in 3 times, it is enough for the university to expel that student. So don't worry much about that."

Yu Qi's word somehow comforted Feng Yue. "Yes."

They talked until the late evening. Feng Yue wanted to follow Yu Qi to her room but Yu Qi declined. She was in another university so, she did not know the rules.

Yu Qi returned back to her room. When she entered the room, she knew something was not right. The smell. Someone had entered her room during her absence. And something dangerous was left here too.

Yu Qi quickly searched for those things. In her clothes bag, she found a small plastic that contained white powder. She smelled it. Drug.

Then her door was knocked on. Yu Qi could sense that was something to do with this white powder. Made the decision, she entered the space.

"Bo Ya, keep it safe in the pagoda. Don't open it." Yu Qi gave her order to Bo Ya.

Bo Ya nodded. He had understood the situation. Something was wrong this white powder. So, without asking any question, he followed his master's order.

Yu Qi went back to her room. The knocking still continued. With her lazy look, she opened the door.

About four women were standing in front of her room. She scanned their face. Two women were in middle age looked very calm while another two women were probably in the same age as Yu Qi, one looked calm and another one looked very nervous.

Yu Qi could smell the same scent from the woman that looked nervous. She had found the culprit. Naturally, she curved her lips while watching her.

"Are you the one staying in this room?" One of the middle age women asked Yu Qi.

"Yes." Yu Qi calmly answered it.

"We received a report that you have something dangerous in your belonging. We would like to make a spot check."

"Oh, something dangerous. What's it would be? I don't know. But you can check if you want to. I don't mind." Yu Qi allowed them to enter.

The four women entered. Yu Qi did not any attention to them except for one. The woman that looked very nervous. They checked all the possible place. Bed, her bag, and table. However, they could not find anything.

The woman that looked nervous, now turned to panic when their search found nothing.

"Did you found it?" Yu Qi asked them.

"It was possible that she keeps it with her." That nervous woman said.

"Oh, you may check me as well. I don't mind." Yu Qi gave cooperation.

Two of the middle age women checked Yu Qi's body and found nothing. Three of them relieved that the girl in front of them was clear.

"Madam, may I know what is the dangerous thing that you talking about?" Yu Qi pretended did not know about the thing that they talking about.

"Actually, we got a report saying you possess some drug. That why we came and made an inspection." The middle age woman answered her question without hesitation.

"I see. I wonder who would make that disturbing report? It simply wants to frame me. Looked like someone did not want me to enter this competition." Yu Qi just made an assumption.

Three women thought about something. Maybe it was just like this girl in front of them said. Someone wanted to make a scene in the shooting competition. Losing one participant might cause a lot of marks.

One of the rules in this shooting competition was only registered participant would be competing in the competition. If someone sick on that day of competition, the fellow members had to proceed with only three members. The marks on each participant would be calculated, so it might affect the team that only consists of three members.

Chapter 180: Dangerous Person

The women listened to Yu Qi nodded several times. They understood that Yu Qi implements that someone deliberately made a fake report. Yu Qi faintly smiling when watching the nervous woman.

This woman might not be the culprit but the one behind her. She wondered who was it. She did not think she knew anyone here except for Feng Yue.

The women apologized to Yu Qi after that. Yu Qi locked up the door and entered the space. Bo Ya and Aoi were waiting for her.

"Master, what was the white powder?" Bo Ya was asking her about the thing that she gave him earlier.

"Well, it was a thing that can destroy human life. Very dangerous." Yu Qi explained to Bo Ya.

"More dangerous than Master's poison?" Bo Ya inquired.

Yu Qi coughed. She forgot she also had the dangerous thing with her.

"Well, my poison, only I have it but this white powder everyone can have it if they had a lot of money and know people that sell this thing."

Bo Ya nodded. He was kind of understand what his master talked about.

"Where did you put it?" Yu Qi asked.

Bo Ya showed the place that he put the white powder. It was in the room that Yu Qi put her stuff in the pagoda.

"What are you going to with it?" Bo Ya was curious about it.

"Well, this thing is very expensive. But I got it for free. I can use it in my research."

"You mean in your poison, right?"

Yu Qi laughed. Her cuties knew how to crack a joke.

"You did know me, Bo Ya."

Yes, she wanted to use it in her poison experiment. She was happy when research about poison. With this, she wondered what was kind of poison that she can create.

Yu Qi went to the experiment room that she used for her poison experiment. Well, she would spend more than three hours in the experiment room and maybe only went out if she got something from her research.

While somewhere in Hanwei University, a girl made a call. She waited about a minute for call pass through.

"Hi." Voice of another woman could hear.

"I'm sorry. I had failed." The woman that made the call apologized to another woman.

"What's happened?"

"The thing we put inside her room disappear just like that. We find everywhere but can't find it."

"You mean my money was missing?" There was some hint of an angry tone on the other woman.

"I really sorry."

"I spent one thousand on the thing and you tell me it was missing and more important thing, our plan failed."

"I...."

"Forget it. However, the money that I lost, you will recovery back for me."

"No, I will perform another task that you want me to do. But not that."

"I already you a second chance to prove yourself but you are disappointed me. So, just accept your fate."

"No..." The woman cried but another woman already ended the call.

The woman cried again and again. She could not accept it. Run. Yeah. She could run now before the devil caught her. She quickly put all her belonging into a bag. Opened her door, she ran from the place.

However, she got caught on the way. The men caught her brought her into one place. At the place, one woman waited for her.

"Hi, want to run?" A woman sat comfortably in the sofa looking down to the woman that just brought in.

"Zhu Yao, please forgive me." The woman begged Ling Zhu Yao.

Yeah, the woman who sat comfortably was Ling Zhu Yao. She was the one who ordered the woman to put the drug inside Yu Qi's room to frame her for using the drug.

"I will forgive you." Her eyes signaled someone.

A man came closer to the woman with something in his hand. It was a needle. The woman saw the needle suddenly scared.

"Zhu Yao, what is this?"

"The thing that can make you feel heaven." Ling Zhu Yao smiled.

The woman paled. She wanted to run however Ling Zhu Yao ordered someone to hold her. The one who held the needle injected the liquid inside the woman body.

The woman saw the needle being pushed into her skin cried. She could feel the liquid being injected into her body. She felt barely conscious. Her body felt hot. She could not help to like this feeling.

"I know you will like it." Ling Zhu Yao smiled when she saw the woman's condition.

The woman could reply to her. She already lost her mind into the drug.

Then a man entered the room.

"You play?" The man saw the woman in the drugged state.

"Yes, it was fun." Ling Zhu Yao smiled.

"Remember not to be overboard." The man reminded her.

"Don't worry. I know to control myself. But I seemed can't control myself when seeing you." Ling Zhu Yao was flirting with the man.

The man smiled evilly. "Let's go then."

"Oh, your guys can have a taste of her." Ling Zhu Yao said the men inside the room and looked at the woman.

Hearing this, the men shouted excitedly.

Ling Zhu Yao leads the man to somewhere else.
