Chapter 1745

"Are you still could not forget about Tang Yu Qi?" Bai Feng Jiu asked.

She was watching Bai Shu Jin for his reaction when she mentioned about Yu Qi. Even though it was just a few seconds, she could see the wave of reactions inside Bai Shu Jin's eyes.

"Brother, you still not forget about her." Bai Feng Jiu sighed.

Bai Shu Jin still did not answer it. There was nothing that he needed to talk about. That girl that he loved did not love him back even hated him very much. He really wondered why she hated him so much.

"Brother Shu Jin..." Bai Feng Jiu wanted to say something.

"There is nothing to say anymore." Bai Shu Jin refused to talk about that.

Yu Qi already stated everything to him yesterday. She even told him that she would not be together with him even if Long Hui did not exist. She really despised him.

Bai Feng Jiu sighed again. Since Bai Shu Jin did not want to talk, there was nothing that she could help him.

Yu Qi returned to FINN City on the same day after settling her business trip in the Capital City. Ding Na An already returned after the incident at the police station was settled. She was supposed to return on the next day but she did not waste her time alone here. It would be better if she returned earlier and spent that time with Long Hui.

Since her flight was a little bit late, around 10 p.m., she arrived early in the morning, around 3 a.m.

She did not call Long Hui. She did not want to disturb his sleep. Arrived at the airport, she was looking at the taxi. She could not order any transportation at this moment since it was also too late. Coincidentally, there was a taxi that seemed waiting for a passenger. She approached the taxi driver.

"Sir, are you waiting for your passenger?" Yu Qi asked the taxi driver.

It was a middle-aged man. He smiled as he looked at Yu Qi. "No... I am just waiting if there is any customer that wants to use my service." He answered.

"Can you send me to Heavenstar Complex?" Yu Qi asked.

"Heavenstar Complex?" The middle-aged man was quite surprised.

"Yes. Can you send me there?" Yu Qi asked.

The middle-aged man nodded several times. He observed the girl. The girl did not seem that rich but she lived at Heavenstar Complex. Then she must be loaded. It seemed he could charge the fee higher than usual.

"Yes... Yes... But the fee is much higher." The middle-aged man stated.

"How much it is?" Yu Qi asked.

The middle-aged man was thinking of getting a lot of money from Yu Qi tonight. So, he put a higher fee than usual, about 25% up.

Yu Qi did not think that the fee was that high. She agreed on the price.

The middle aged man was kind of dumbfounded. This woman accepted the price without blinking her eyes. It seemed that this woman was really a rich person.

Yu Qi only brought her backpack, nothing else. So, she directly entered the taxi. The taxi driver started his taxi's engine and drove off. Sometimes, Yu Qi could see that the taxi driver seemed to check on her using his back mirror.

Yu Qi did not care much about that. He could check on her several times, she did not mind at all. She just hoped that the taxi driver would not do something stupid.

She was watching outside of the window. Even though it was dark outside, she still could see the scene outside. Yu Qi's eyesight was different from a normal person. So, she was kind of notice that the road that the taxi driver went through was not the way to go to Heavenstar Complex.

"Are you sure it is the road to go to the Heavenstar Complex?" Yu Qi asked.

Yu Qi's sudden question made the taxi driver's shoulder move. He was shocked. However, he controlled it. He thought that Yu Qi would not notice since it was dark.

"Miss, you must be mistaken. It is really a road to Heavenstar Complex. Please do not worry about that." The taxi driver said.

"I hope that you will not do something stupid. Think about your family, if something happened to me, you and your whole family would not be able to stand the consequences." Yu Qi threatened the taxi driver about his family.

Yu Qi was speaking in a normal tone. But the taxi driver felt otherwise. It was like a devil's whisper.

"Please turn around and use the correct road right now. I hope you do the right thing." Yu Qi stated again.

The taxi driver thought about that for a moment. After that, he turned his taxi and entered the correct road to go to Heavenstar Complex. This woman seemed to be someone powerful. If that was the truth and he was exposed, he and his family might be in trouble. It was not worth it.

Yu Qi looked out outside and saw the taxi driver make the right decision. She smiled.

"Good. You make the right decision." Yu Qi said.

The taxi driver did not say anything. He noticed that this woman was looking outside the car. She really could see and knew the road. He did not dare to do something like earlier anymore.
