Chapter 1754: Quicker?

Elder Mong was finally could walk by himself with a cane as a support. Yu Qi was very glad to see the change.

"Congratulations, Elder Mong." Yu Qi said feeling happy for the old man.

"Hmm... Without you guys, I can not go this far." Elder Mong smiled.

He was much more cheerful after spending time here. Liang Xiurong and Zhu Meixiu who were the nurses in charge at that time also smiled. They were working hard taking care of Elder Mong.

At first, it was so hard for them since Elder Mong did not give much cooperation, making it difficult for them. However, after spending time and talking together, Elder Mong finally opened up little by little to them.

Right now, they could make a small joke to each other.

The government was also happy with the result given by Tang Private Hospital. They extracted more information from Elder Mong. The information was very useful for the government.

"Elder Mong, can I ask you something?" Yu Qi spoke in a lower tone.

There was a matter that Yu Qi wanted to ask and she did not want others to hear what she was about to ask.

"Sure. Just ask." Elder Mong nodded.

"When you were in that organization, do you see something weird? Hmm... What should I explain to you? Something like unthinkable. Like someone has a power like magic." Yu Qi asked. She did not know if Elder Mong could understand her question.

Elder Mong frowned. Then he remembered something.

"I don't know if this matter is related or not to what you want to know but I will tell you something." Elder Mong said.

That attracted Yu Qi's attention.

"Elder Mong, just tell me about that." Yu Qi said.

"I heard that they caught someone with a person that could heal immediately after being slashed. They said it was fascinating to see the fresh wound closing like that." Elder Mong said. "However, I never seen that. So, I don't know if they were telling the truth or not."

Yu Qi was thinking if they also researched something like that. If that was the case, it was possible that they also caught cultivators like Xia Weizhe experienced. It was also possible that they were two different organizations but had some relationship with each other.

It needed a further investigation again.

"Am I going to be fully healed?" Elder Mong asked.

"I can not tell you it would be fully healed. Your body has been exposed to poison and chemical substances for a long time. Some of them had been recognized by your body." Yu Qi needed to explain that to Elder Mong.

"I see..." Elder mong nodded.

However, he was not too sad. It was a miracle that he could escape and enjoy the sunlight like this.

"When you are discharged later, the government would give you a new identity, you did not have too much about that." Yu Qi said.

"Hmm..." Elder Mong nodded.

He was not expecting much. He was old. Even staying at this hospital was a blessing for him.

....

Yu Qi returned home with Neko-chan. Neko-chan was excited to see her new house.

Once Yu Qi opened the door, Neko-chan rushed into the house, Since she was excited, she did not see a of legs in front of the door, so she collided with this pair of legs.

"Ouch, meow." Neko-chan let out a voice. She did not know why she had collided with them.

She looked up and saw her master had been pushed to the wall and Long Hui kadebon Yu Qi. Neko-chan could see that Long Hui attacked Yu Qi by kissing her.

Neko-chan had seen this before. Where? In the Korean drama. She knew it would be long. So, she gave herself a tour of the house. She was very satisfied with the house.

15 minutes later, Neko-chan heard Yu Qi calling her. Neko-chan rushed over fo Yu Qi.

This time, Yu Qi and Long Hui already sat at the table. Neko-chan saw Long Hui was holding her hand. He was so cringy.

"You have been occupied with someone. I thought it would take a long time before you finished it. Meow... So, I walked around to see the house. Meow...." Neko-chan said.

"What... What... What are you talking about?" Yu Qi was dumbfounded by what Neko-chan just said.

Long Hui chuckled.

"I never imagined my master's fiance a quicker... Meow..." Neko- chan said.

First was silence. They were taken aback by Neko-chan's words. The a few moments, Yu Qi burst into laughter. Long Hui was glaring at her.

"Neko-chan, where did you learn that?" screamed Yu Qi asked while still laughing. Even her tears came out since it was so funny.

"Hmmm... Mostly on the internet... Meow.." Neko- chan answered.

"Stop laughing." Long Hui warned. "Otherwise, I drag you to the bed right now and feel the experience."

Yu Qi gupled. She did not dare to laugh anymore.

Long Hui then turned to Neko-chan.

"Who are you?" Long Hui asked.

"I am Master's most beloved AI, Neko-chan. I can do anything... Meow..." Neko-chan introduced herself to Long Hui.

"The AI that you talking about?" Long Hui asked Yu Qi.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded.

She then picked Neko-chan up and put her on her lap.

"Just pat her." Yu Qi said.

Long Hui did what Yu Qi told him to do. Once his hand touched Neko-chan's body, he was quite surprised.

Yu Qi saw and noticed the look.
